

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

De ... hire
Dev ...

THE DEVONSHIRE ASSOCIATION

FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF SCIENCE, LITERATURE, AND ART.

---

THE DEVONSHIRE DOMESDAY

AND GELD INQUEST:

EXTENSIONS, TRANSLATIONS, AND INDICES.

SECOND VOLUME.

PLYMOUTH:
W. BRENDON AND SON.

1884-1892.

ROY W. B.
CLUB
V. 100

Cerra Iuhelli in Debenesira.

Toteneis.

Iuhellus habet i burgum quod uocatur Toteneis quod t Eduuardus rex die qua ipse fuit uiuus et mortuus. Iuhellus c burgenses intra burgum v minus et burgum xv qui terram laborant et hi omnes simul int per annum viii libras ad numerum et quando lus recepit reddebant lx solidos ad pensum et ad am et ista uilla non reddit gildum nisi Exonia reddat et lo solebat reddere gildum reddebat xl denarios et si litio uadit per terram vel per mare inter Barnestablam oteneis et Lidefordam redditur tantum de seruitio tum Exonia reddit.—Exon. D. (334) 313.

Land of Juhel in Debenesira.

Juhel has a borough called Toteneis, which king Edward held a day on which he was alive and dead. There Juhel has one hundred burgesses within the borough less five, and without the borough fifteen, who work the land; and all there together render a year eight pounds by tale, and when Juhel received it they red sixty shillings by weight and assay. And this town not render geld unless Exeter renders it, and when it was to render geld it rendered forty pence; and if an expedition north by land or by sea, as much service is rendered between stable and Toteneis and Lideford as Exeter renders.

Essecestra.

Iuhellus habet i domum in Essecestra quæ reddit consuetudinem temporis Eduuardi regis. Hoc est viii denarios per m.—Exon. D. (334b) 314.

Juhel has a house in Exeter which renders the customary rent a time of king Edward; that is, eight pence by the year.

Tresetone.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Tresetone quam t Grim ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. reddidit gildum tempore regis Eduuardi pro i hida. possunt arare xiiii carrucæ. Inde habet Juhellus

XVII. Cerra Iudhel de Totenais.Totenais.

Iudhel tenet de rege Totenais burgum quod rex Eduuardus in dominio tenebat. Ibi sunt intra burgum c burgenses v minus et xv extra burgum terram laborantes. Inter omnes reddit viii libras ad numerum pro geldo. Olim reddebat iii libras ad pensum et arsuram.

Hoc burgum non geldat nisi quando Exonia geldat et tunc reddit xl denarios. Si expeditio uadit uel per terram uel per mare inter Totenais et Barnestaple et Lideford tantum reddunt seruitii quantum Exonia reddit.—Exch. D. 108 (3); 18a.

XVII. Land of Iudhel of Totenais.

Iudhel holds of the king the borough of Totenais, which king Edward held in demesne. There are within the borough one hundred burgesses less five, and fifteen without the borough, working the land. Among them all it renders eight pounds by tale for geld. Formerly it rendered three pounds by weight and assay.

This borough does not pay geld except when Exeter pays geld, and then it renders forty pence. If an expedition sets out by land or by sea, Totenais, Barnestaple, and Lideford between them render as much service as Exeter renders.

Exceestre.

Ipse Iudhel habet in Exceestre unam domum quæ tempore regis Eduuardi reddebat viii denarios de consuetudine.—Exch. D. 108 (3); 18a.

Iudhel himself holds a house in Exeter, which in the time of king Edward rendered eight pence by custom.

Tresetone.

Ipse Iudhel tenet de rege Tresetone. Grim tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est xiiii carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et xi serui et xx uillani et xx bordarii cum xi carucis. Ibi c acra prati et dimidiam uirgam et iii carrucas in dominio et uillani iii uirgas et dimidiam et xi carrucas. Ibi habet Juhellus xx uillanos et xx bordarios et xi seruos et xvii animalia et lx oues et xx agros nemoris et c agros prati et c agros pascuæ. Hæc mansio reddit x libras per annum et quando Juhellus recepit eam ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (316) 294.

Juhel has a manor called Tresetone, which Grim held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. This in the time of king Edward rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by fourteen ploughs. Of this Juhel has half a virgate and three ploughs in demesne, and the villeins have three virgates and a half and eleven ploughs. There Juhel has twenty villeins, and twenty bordars, and eleven serfs, and seventeen head of cattle, and sixty sheep, and twenty acres of wood, and one hundred acres of meadow, and one hundred acres of pasture. This manor renders ten pounds by the year, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Ratdona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ratdona quam tenuit Osulfus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare xv carrucæ. Hanc tenet nigellus de iuhello. Inde habet Nigellus uirgam et dimidiam et iii carrucas in dominio et uillani ii uirgas et dimidiam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet nigellus viii uillanos et xv bordarios et v seruos et xx animalia et cxi oues et dimidiam leugam nemoris in longitudine et i quadragenariam in latitudine et x agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et i quadragenariam in latitudine. Hæc mansio ualet per annum c solidos et quando Iohellus recepit ualebat vii libras et x solidos.—Exon. D. (316) 294.

Juhel has a manor called Ratdone, which Osulf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by fifteen ploughs. Nigel holds this of Juhel. Of this Nigel has a virgate and a half and three ploughs in demesne, and the villeins have two virgates and a half and two ploughs. There Nigel has eight villeins, and fifteen bordars, and five serfs, and twenty head of cattle, and one hundred and forty sheep, and wood half a leuga in length and one furlong in breadth, and ten acres of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and one furlong in breadth. This manor is worth by the year one hundred shillings, and it was worth when Johel received seven pounds and ten shillings.

c acræ pasturæ et xx acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet x libras.—Exch. D. 108 (3); 18a.

Judhel himself holds of the king Tresetone. Grim held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for fourteen ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and eleven serfs, and twenty villeins, and twenty bordars, with eleven ploughs. There are one hundred acres of meadow, and one hundred acres of pasture, and twenty acres of wood. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth ten pounds.

Ratdone.

Nigel tenet de Iudhel Ratdone. Osulf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est xv carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et v serui et viii uillani et xv bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi x acræ prati. Pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et una quarentena latitudine et tantidem siluæ. Olim vii libras et x solidos. Modo ualet c solidos.—Exch. D. 108 (3); 18a.

Nigel holds of Judhel Ratdone. Osulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for fifteen ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and five serfs, and eight villeins, and fifteen bordars, with two ploughs. There are ten acres of meadow. Pasture half a leuga in length and one furlong in breadth, and as much wood. It was worth formerly seven pounds and ten shillings. Now it is worth one hundred shillings.

Bradeuoda.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bradeuoda quam tenuit Chenestannus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida i ferlinum et dimidium minus. <sup>Hanc</sup> Has possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet nigellus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et dimidiam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et dimidium ferlinum et ii carrucas et dimidiam. Ibi habet nigellus x uillanos et xi bordarios et viii seruos et xxx et i animalia et iiii porcos et cc oues et viii capras et i leugam nemoris in longitudine et i quadragenariam in latitudine et l agros prati et i leugam pascuæ in longitudine et i quadragenariam in latitudine et ualet per annum iiii libras et quando Iohellus recepit ualebat vi libras.—Exon. D. (316) 295.

Juhel has a manor called Bradeuoda, which Chenestan held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide, less one ferling and a half. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of this Nigel has half a virgate and one plough and a half in demesne, and the villeins have one virgate and half a ferling and two ploughs and a half. There Nigel has ten villeins, and eleven bordars, and eight serfs, and thirty-one head of cattle, and four swine, and two hundred sheep, and eight goats, and wood one leuga in length and one furlong in breadth, and fifty acres of meadow, and pasture one leuga in length and one furlong in breadth; and it is worth by the year four pounds, and it was worth when Juhel received it six pounds.

Nortona.

Iohellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Nortona quam Bristriectius tenuit ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ et modo tenet illam Willelmus de Iuhello. Inde habet Willelmus i fertinum et i carrucam in dominio et uillani iiii ferlinos et v carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus vii uillanos et iiii bordarios et iii seruos et x et vii animalia et xl oues et iii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et i in latitudine et lxx agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et iii quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet per annum lx solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (316b) 295.

Juhel has a manor called Nortona, which Bristriect held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered

Bradewode.

Nigel tenet de Iudhel Bradewode. Chinestan tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida unum ferling et dimidium minus. Terra est sex carucis. In dominio est una caruca et dimidia et viii serui et x uillanī et xi bordarii cum ii carucis et dimidia. Ibi l acræ prati pastura i leuua longitudine et i quarentena latitudine et tantidem siluæ. Olim vi libras. Modo ualet iiii libras.—Exch. D. 108 (3); 18a.

Nigel holds of Judhel Bradewode. Chinestā held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide, less one ferling and a half. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne is one plough and a half, and eight serfs, and ten villeins, and eleven bordars, with two ploughs and a half. There are fifty acres of meadow. Pasture one leuga in length and one furlong in breadth, and as much of wood. Formerly it was worth six pounds. Now it is worth four pounds.

Nortone.

Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Nortone. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et vii uillani et iiii bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi lxx acræ prati. Pastura dimidia leuua longitudine et iii quarentenæ latitudine. Silua iii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim et modo ualet iii libras.—Exch. D. 108 (4); 18b.

William holds of Judhel Nortone. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by six ploughs, and William holds it now of Juhel. Of this William has one ferling and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have three ferlings and five ploughs. There William has seven villeins, and four bordars, and three serfs, and seventeen head of cattle, and forty sheep, and wood three furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth, and seventy acres of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and three furlongs in breadth; and it is worth by the year sixty shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Kari.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Kari quam tenuit Chenestanus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et dimidia. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ et modo tenet eam Waldinus de Iuhello. Inde habet Waldinus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et iii carrucas et dimidiam. Ibi habet Waldinus viii uillanos et vi cocetos et iii seruos et viii animalia xl et ii oues et xx capras et xx agros nemoris et xl agros prati et ii quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et i in latitudine et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat i solidos.—Exon. D. (316b) 295.

Juhel has a manor called Kari, which Chenestan held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and a half. This can be ploughed by six ploughs, and Waldin now holds it of Juhel. Of these Waldin has half a virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have one virgate and three ploughs and a half. There Waldin has eight villeins, and six coscets, and three serfs, and eight head of cattle, forty-two sheep, and twenty goats, and twenty acres of wood, and forty acres of meadow, and pasture two furlongs in length and one in breadth; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth when Juhel received it fifty shillings.

Sidreham.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Sidreham quam tenuit Bristicius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Willelmus tenet eam de Iuhello. Inde habet Willelmus tertiam partem uirgæ et i carrucam in dominio et uillani ii partes uirgæ et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus v uillanos et vii cocetos et v seruos et ii animalia et xi porcos et xl oues et iii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine is land for six ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and three serfs, and seven villeins, and four bordars, with five ploughs. There are seventy acres of meadow. Pasture half a leuga in length and three furlongs in breadth. Wood three furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth three pounds.

Kari.

Waldin tenet de Iudhel Kari. Chenestan tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et viii uillani et vi coscez cum iii carucis et dimidia. Ibi xl acræ prati et xx acræ siluæ. Pastura ii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim l solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 108 (4); 18*b*.

Waldin holds of Judhel Kari. Chenestan held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate and a half of land. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and three serfs, and eight villeins, and six coscets, with three ploughs and a half. There are forty acres of meadow, and twenty acres of wood. Pasture two furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth fifty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Sidreham.

Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Sidreham. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca et v serui et v uillani et vii coscez cum iiii carucis. Ibi x acræ prati et silua iii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim xxx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 108 (4); 18*b*. et dimidiam in latitudine et x agros prati et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando recepit eam Iuhellus uallebat xxx.—Exon. D. (317) 295.

Juhel has a manor called Sidreham, which Bristic held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. William holds it of Juhel. Of this William has a third part of a virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have two-thirds of a virgate and four ploughs. There William has five villeins, and seven coccets, and five serfs, and two head of cattle, and eleven swine, and forty sheep, and wood three furlongs in length and one [half a] furlong in breadth, and ten acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth thirty [shillings] when Juhel received it.

Assileia.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Assileia quam tenuit Grinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et dimidia. Has possunt arare v carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et iii carrucas et i bouem. Et Radulfus habet ibi vii uillanos et iii bordarios et xxv oues et ii agros alneti et viii agros prati et ualet per annum xxv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit xxx.—Exon. D. (317) 295.

Juhel has a manor called Assileia, which Grin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and a half. These can be ploughed by five ploughs. Radulf holds this of Juhel. Of these Radulf has half a virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have one virgate, and three ploughs, and one ox. And Radulf has there seven villeins, and three bordars, and twenty-five sheep, and two acres of alder plantation, and eight acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year twenty-five shillings, and when Juhel received it thirty [shillings].

Mora.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Mora. Hanc tenuit Aldret ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Istam tenet nigellus de Iuhello. Terciam partem supradictæ uirgæ habet Nigellus et i carrucam in dominio et uillani ii partes uirgæ et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Nigellus viii

William holds of Judhel Sidreham. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are five serfs, and five villeins, and seven coscets, with four ploughs. There are ten acres of meadow, and wood three furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth thirty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Aisselle.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Aissellie. Grim tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca et vii uillani et iii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi viii acræ prati et ii acræ alneti. Olim xxx solidos. Modo ualet xxv solidos.—Exch. D. 108 (4); 18b.

Radulf holds of Judhel Aissellie. Grim held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and a half. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are seven villeins, and three bordars, with three ploughs. There are eight acres of meadow, and two acres of alder plantation. Formerly it was worth thirty shillings. Now it is worth twenty-five shillings.

More.

Nigel tenet de Iudhel More. Eldred tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca et vi serui et viii uillani et i coscez cum ii carucis. Ibi xl acræ prati. Pastura i leuca longitudine et iiii quarentenæ latitudine. Silua ii quarentenæ longitudine et xii perticæ latitudine.

uillanos et i cocetum et vi seruos et vii animalia et ii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et xii perticas in latitudine et xl agros prati et i leugam pascuæ in longitudine et iiii quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando Iohellus eam recepit xl solidos.—Exon. D. (317) 295.

Juhel has a manor called Mora. Aldret held this on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it paid geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Nigel holds this of Juhel. Nigel has a third part of the above-mentioned virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have two parts of a virgate and two ploughs. There Nigel has eight villeins, and one coscet, and six serfs, and seven head of cattle, and wood two furlongs long and twelve perches broad, and forty acres of meadow, and pasture one leuga in length and four furlongs in breadth; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth when Juhel received it forty shillings.

Bradeforda.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bradeforda quam tenuit Sauuinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ et modo tenet eam Nigellus de Iuhello. Ibi habet Nigellus i uillanum et .x agros nemoris et viii agros prati et i agrum pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx denarios et quando Iuhellus eam recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (317b) 296.

Juhel has a manor called Bradeforde, which Sawin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs, and Nigel now holds it of Juhel. Of this Nigel has one villein, and ten acres of wood, and eight acres of meadow, and one acre of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty pence, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Tornelouua.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Tornelouua quam tenuit Sauuinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ et modo tenet eam Nigellus de Iuhello. Inde habet Nigellus i ferlinum et i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent alium ferlinum et iiii boues. Ibi habet Nigellus i uillanum et ii bordarios et i seruum et viii Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 108 (4); 18*b*.

Nigel holds of Judhel More. Eldrèd held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are six serfs, and eight villeins, and one cōscet, with two ploughs. There are forty acres of meadow. Pasture one leuga long and four furlongs broad. Wood two furlongs in length and twelve perches in breadth. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Bradeford.

Nigel tenet de Iudhel Bradeford. Sauuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est unus uillanus et viii acræ prati et una acra pasturæ et x acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xxx denarios.—Exch. D. 108 (4); 18*b*.

Nigel holds of Judhel Bradeford. Sawin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. One villein is there, and eight acres of meadow, and one acre of pasture, and ten acres of wood. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth thirty pence.

Tornelowe.

Nigel tenet de Iudhel Tornelowe. Sauuin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia cum i seruo et i uillano et ii bordariis. Ibi vii acræ prati et ii acræ pasturæ et x acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.

Sauuin qui has terras tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi poterat ire quo uolebat.—Exch. D. 108 (4); 18*b*.

animalia et xxviii oues et x agros nemoris et vii agros prati et ii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem. Iste tagnus qui tenebat ii prædictas mansiones poterat ire cum terra sua ad quemlibet dominum ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus.—Exon. D. (317b) 296.

Juhel has a manor called Tornelouue, which Sawin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs, and Nigel now holds it of Juhel. Of this Nigel has one ferling and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have another ferling and three oxen. There Nigel has one villein, and two bordars, and one serf, and eight head of cattle, and twenty-eight sheep, and ten acres of wood, and seven acres of meadow, and two acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

The thegn who held the two aforesaid manors was able to go with his land to whomsoever he pleased as lord, on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead.

Tauī.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Tauī quam tenuit Bristuit Camesonæ ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Nigellus de Iohello. Inde habet Nigellus dimidiam uirgam et carrucam et dimidiam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Nigellus vi uillanos et ii bordarios et vi seruos et xvi animalia et iiii porcos et c et xx oues et xii agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et vi quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando Iohellus recepit eam ualebat xxx solidos.—Exon. D. (317b) 296.

Cum ista mansione habet Iuhellus terram iiii tegnorum qui non pertinuerunt ad supradictam mansionem tempore regis Eduuardi. Vna ex istis terris uocatur Wagesfella quam tenuit Aluricus et alia uocatur Berna quam tenuit Aluvinus et tertia uocatur Wereingeurda quam tenuit Aldulfus. Isti iiii tegni potuerunt ire ad quemlibet dominum cum ista terra et reddidit gildum tempore regis Eduuardi pro i uirgata. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Nigellus in dominio de Iohello et habet ibi dimidiam carrucam et ii uillanos et v bordarios et i seruum et xii animalia et xxx oues et xxx capras et xii agros prati et i leugam pascuæ in Nigel holds of Judhel Tornelowe. Sawin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. One plough and a half is there, with one serf, and one villein, and two bordars. There are seven acres of meadow, and two acres of pasture, and ten acres of wood. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth ten shillings.

Sawin who held these lands in the time of King Edward was able to go to whom he pleased.

Tabi.

Nigel tenet de Iudhel Tavi. Bricstui tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et dimidia et vi serui et vi uillani et ii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi xii acræ prati et pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et vi quarentenæ latitudine. Olim xxx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 108 (4); 18b.

Huic manerio additæ sunt terræ trium tainorum Aluric et Aluuin et Aldulf pro iii maneriis tenebant tempore regis Eduuardi et poterant ire quo uolebant et geldabant pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est dimidia caruca cum i seruo et ii uillanis et v bordariis. Ibi xii acræ prati. Pastura una leuca longitudine et dimidia leuca latitudine. Hæ iii terræ olim et modo ualent xxv solidos.—Exch. D. 108 (4); 18b.

longitudine et dimidiam in latitudine. Istæ iii uillæ ualent per annum xxv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit eam ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (318) 296.

Juhel has a manor called Tauī, which Bristuit of Cameson held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Nigel holds this of Juhel. Of it Nigel has half a virgate and one plough and a half in demesne, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Nigel has six villeins, and two bordars, and six serfs, and sixteen head of cattle, and four swine, and one hundred and twenty sheep, and twelve acres of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and six furlongs in breadth; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth when Juhel received it thirty shillings.

With this manor Juhel holds the land of three thegns who did not belong to the above-named manor in the time of king Edward. One of these lands is called Wagesfella, which Alwin held; another is called Berna, which Alwin held; and the third is called Wereinguerda, which Aldulf held. These three thegns were able to go to whomsoever lord they pleased with the land, and it rendered geld in the time of king Edward for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Nigel holds this in demesne of Juhel, and he has there half a plough and two villeins, and five bordars, and one serf, and twelve head of cattle, and thirty sheep, and thirty goats, and twelve acres of meadow, and pasture one leuga in length and half a leuga in breadth. These three manors are worth by the year twenty-five shillings, and when Juhel received the land it was worth as much.

Sidelham.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Sidelham quam tenuerunt iiii tegni pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ. Et modo tenet eam Nigellus de Iuhello. Inde habet Nigellus i uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Nigellus v uillanos et viii bordarios et ii seruos et ii animalia et xl oues et xx agros nemoris et v agros prati et xx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xxx solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit eam ualebat xl solidos.—Exon. D. (318) 297.

Juhel has a manor called Sidelham, which four thegns held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hida. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs. And Nigel now holds it of Juhel. Of it Nigel has Nigel holds of Judhel Tavi. Bricstui held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough and a half, and there are six serfs, and six villeins, and two bordars, with one plough. There are twelve acres of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and six furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was worth thirty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

To this manor have been added the lands of three thegns, Aluric, and Alwin, and Aldulf. They held for three manors, and were at liberty to go whither they would in the time of king Edward, and paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There is half a plough, with one serf, and two villeins, and five bordars. There are twelve acres of meadow, Pasture one leuga in length and half a leuga in breadth. These three lands formerly were, and now are, worth twenty-five shillings.

Sidelham.

Nigel tenet de Iudhel Sidelham. Quattuor taini libere tenebant tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et v uillani et viii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi v acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ et xx acræ siluæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 108 (4); 18b.

NOTE.—Against this entry the word par for pariter is written in the margin of the original.

Nigel holds of Judhel Sidelham. Four thegns held it freely in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and two serfs, and five villeins, and eight bordars, with one plough.

one virgate and two ploughs in demesne, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Nigel has five villeins, and eight bordars, and two serfs, and two head of cattle, and forty sheep, and twenty acres of wood, and five acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. This is worth thirty shillings, and it was worth when Juhel received it forty shillings.

Clauetona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Clauetona quam tenuit Alueredus die quo rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida i ferlino minus. Hanc possunt arare xx carrucæ. De hac habet Iuhellus in dominio i uirgam et iiii carrucas et uillani habent iiii uirgas i ferlino minus et xi carrucas. Ibi habet Iuhellus xxviii uillanos et vi bordarios et xvi seruos et ii porcarios et <sup>nemoris</sup> xlvii animalia et ix porcas et cc oues x minus et i leugam nemusculi in longitudine et latitudine et i leugam prati in longitudine et dimidiam in latitudine et i leugam pascuæ in longitudine et latitudine et ualet per annum viii libras et quando Iuhellus recepit illam ualebat x libras.—Exon. D. (318b) 297.

Juhel has a manor called Clauetona, which Aluered held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide, less one ferling. This can be ploughed by twenty ploughs. Of this Juhel has in demesne one virgate and four ploughs, and the villeins have three virgates, less one ferling, and eleven ploughs. There Juhel has twenty-eight villeins, and six bordars, and sixteen serfs, and two swineherds, and forty-seven head of cattle, and nine swine, and two hundred sheep less ten, and wood one leuga in length and breadth, and meadow one leuga in length and half a leuga in breadth, and pasture one leuga in length and breadth; and it is worth by the year eight pounds, and it was worth ten pounds when Juhel received it.

Paorda.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Paorda quam tenuit Alueredus in die quo rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iiii uirgis. Has possunt arare xvi carrucæ. De his habet Iuhellus in dominio i uirgam et v carrucas et uillani ii uirgas et v carrucas. Ibi habet Iuhellus xxx uillanos et v bordarios et viii seruos et ii porcos et xxxv animalia et cc oues x minus et iiii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et xx perticas in latitudine et i leugam prati in longitudine et latitudine et i leugam

There are five acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture, and twenty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Clavetone.

Ipse Iudhel tenet Clavetone. Alured tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida uno ferling minus. Terra est xx carucis. In dominio sunt iiii carucæ et xvi serui et xxviii uillani et vi bordarii cum xi carucis. Pratum ibi una leuca longitudine et dimidia leuca latitudine et una leuua pasturæ et una leuca siluæ. Olim x libras. Modo ualet viii libras.—Exch. D. 108 (4); 18b.

Judhel himself holds Clavetone. Alured held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide, less one ferling. There is land for twenty ploughs. In demesne there are four ploughs, and sixteen serfs, and twenty-eight villeins, and six bordars, with eleven ploughs. There is meadow one leuga in length and half a leuga in breadth, and one leuga of pasture, and one leuga of wood. Formerly it was worth ten pounds. Now it is worth eight pounds.

Paorde.

Ipse Iudhel tenet Paorde. Alured tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est xvi carucis. In dominio sunt v carucæ et viii serui et xxx uillani et v bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi i leuca prati et una leuca pasturæ. Silua iiii quarentenæ longitudine et xx perticæ latitudine.

Olim xi libras. Modo ualet viii libras.—Exch. D. 108 (4); 18b.

pascuæ in longitudine et latitudine et ualet viii libras et quando recepit ualebat xi libras.—Exon. D. (318b) 297.

Juhel has a manor called Paorda, which Aluered held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by sixteen ploughs. Of these Juhel has in demesne one virgate and five ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates and five ploughs. There Juhel has thirty villeins, and five bordars, and eight serfs, and two swine, and thirty-five head of cattle, and two hundred sheep, less ten, and wood four furlongs in length and twenty perches in breadth, and meadow one leuga in length and breadth, and pasture one leuga in length and breadth; and it is worth eight pounds, and it was worth eleven pounds when he received it.

Tetecota.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Tetecota quam tenuit Aldretus in die quo rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare vii carrucæ. De hac habet Iuhellus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et ii boues et uillani i uirgam <sup>ibi habet Iuhellus</sup> et dimidiam et ii carrucas et dimidiam et xii uillanos et iiii bordarios et vi seruos et i porcarium et viii animalia et ii porcos et xxxvi oues et xl agros nemoris et xxx agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et iiii quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet iiii libras per annum et quando recepit ualebat c solidos.—Exon. D. (319) 297.

Cum ista mansione habet Iuhellus i ferdinum terræ quod tenuit Eluuinus pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus quod non pertinuit huic prædictæ mansioni quod potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Iuhellus i [sic] uillanum et i porcum et habent ibi i carrucam et ualet per annum x solidos et tantundem ualebat quando illud recepit.—Exon. D. (319) 297.

Juhel has a manor called Tetecota, which Aldret held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by seven ploughs. Of this Juhel has in demesne half a virgate, and one plough, and two oxen, and the villeins have one virgate and a half and two ploughs and a half, and there Juhel has twelve villeins, and four bordars, and six serfs, and one swineherd, and eight head of cattle, and two swine, and thirty-six sheep, and forty acres of wood, and thirty acres of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and four furlongs Judhel himself holds Paorde. Alured held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for sixteen ploughs. In demesne there are five ploughs, and eight serfs, and thirty villeins, and five bordars, with five ploughs. There is one leuga of meadow and one leuga of pasture. Wood four furlongs in length and twenty perches in breadth.

Formerly it was worth eleven pounds. Now it is worth eight pounds.

Tetecote.

Ipse Iudhel tenet Tetecote. Aldret tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est vii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et vi serui et xii uillani et iiii bordarii cum ii carucis et dimidia. Ibi xxx acra prati et xl acra siluæ. Pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et iiii quarentenæ latitudine.

Olim c solidos. Modo ualet iiii libras.—Exch. D. 108 (4); 18*b*.

Huic manerio additum est unum ferling terræ quod Eluvin libere tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi. Terra est i carucæ. Hanc habent ibi ii uillani. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 108 (4); 18*b*.

NOTE.—Against this entry the word par is written in the margin of the original.

Judhel himself holds Tetecote. Aldret held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for seven ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are six serfs, and twelve villeins, and four bordars, with two ploughs and a half. There are thirty acres of meadow and forty acres of wood. Pasture half a leuga in length and four furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was worth one hundred shillings. Now it is worth four pounds.

in breadth; and it is worth four pounds by the year, and it was worth when he received it one hundred shillings.

With this manor Juhel has one ferling of land, which Elwin held in partage on that day on which king Edward was alive and dead, which did not pertain to this above-mentioned manor. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Juhel has one villein and one pig, and they [the villeins] have there one plough; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Lidemora.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lidemora quam tenuit Aiulfus in die quo rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i ferdino. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ et dimidia et sunt ibi ipsæ carrucæ et illud tenet Aiolfus de Iuhello et reddit illi inde xx solidos per annum et ualebat xxv solidos quando Juhellus illud accepit.—Exon. D. (319) 298.

Juhel has a manor called Lidemora, which Aiulf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling. This can be ploughed by two ploughs and a half, and the ploughs themselves are there, and Aiolf holds this of Juhel, and renders to him thence twenty shillings by the year, and it was worth twenty-five shillings when Juhel received it.

Bradefort.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bradefort quam tenuit Alueredus in die quo rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i ferdino quod possunt arare ii carrucæ quod tenet Willelmus de Iuhello et habet ibi i carrucam in dominio et ii seruos et iii animalia et iii quadragenarias prati in longitudine et i quadragenariam in latitudine et ii quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et i in latitudine et ualet per annum x solidos et tantundem ualebat quando Iuhellus illud accepit.—Exon. D. (319) 298.

Juhel has a manor called Bradefort, which Aluered held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling, which can be ploughed by two ploughs, which William holds of Juhel, and he has there one plough in demesne, and two serfs, and three head of cattle, and meadow three furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth, and pasture two furlongs in length and one in breadth; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

To this manor has been added one ferling of land, which Elwin held freely in the time of king Edward. There is land for one plough. This two villeins have there. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Lidemore.

Aiulfus tenet de Iudhel Lidemore. Idem tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt. Olim xxv solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (1); 19a.

Aiulf holds of Judhel Lidemore. The same held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling. There is land for two ploughs, which are there. Formerly it was worth twenty-five shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Bradeford.

Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Bradeford. Aileua tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et ii serui. Pratum iii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Pastura ii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (1); 19a.

William holds of Judhel Bradeford. Aileva held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough and two serfs. Meadow three furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. Pasture two furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Hindefort.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hindefort quam tenuit Brorus die quo rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Pomeria de Iuhello et possunt illam arare iii carrucæ et Radulfus habet in [sic] dimidiam uirgam in dominio et i carrucam et uillani aliam mediatatem uirgæ et i carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus i uillanum et viii [sic] bordarios et i seruum et v animalia et ii porcos et xviii oues et xv capras et xv agros nemoris et xv agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et in latitudine et hæc mansio ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Iuhellus accepit eam ualebat xii solidos.—Exon. D. (319b) 298.

Juhel has a manor called Hindefort, which Bror held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. Ralph de Pomeroy holds this of Juhel, and it can be ploughed by three ploughs, and Radulf has half a virgate in demesne and one plough, and the villeins have the other half of the virgate and one plough. There Radulf has one villein, and eight bordars, and one serf, and five head of cattle, and two swine, and eighteen sheep, and fifteen goats, and fifteen acres of wood, and fifteen acres of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and in breadth; and this manor is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth twelve shillings when Juhel received it.

Brideforda.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Brideforda quam tenuit Aluuius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare xii carrucæ. Inde habet Iuhellus in dominio iii uirgas et ii carrucas et uillani i hidam et i uirgam et ix carrucas. Ibi habet Iuhellus xx uillanos et vii bordarios et iiii seruos et i porcarium qui reddit x porcos et i animal et i runcinum et lxxx oues et xx capras et i leugam nemoris et nemusculi in longitudine et i quadragenariam in latitudine et xiiii agros prati et lxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum iii libras et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (319b) 298.

Juhel has a manor called Brideforda, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of them Juhel has in demesne three virgates and two ploughs, and the villeins have one hide, and one virgate, and nine ploughs.

Hindeford.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Hindeford. Brodre tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ cum i seruo et i uillano et iii bordariis. Ibi xv acræ prati et xv acræ siluæ et dimidia leuca pasturæ. Olim xii solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (1); 19a.

Radulf holds of Judhel Hindeford. Brodre held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, with one serf, and one villein, and three bordars. There are fifteen acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of wood, and half a leuga of pasture. Formerly it was worth twelve shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Brideford.

Ipsæ Iudhel tenet Brideford. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iiii serui et xx uillani et vii bordarii cum ix carucis. Ibi xiiii acræ prati et lxx acræ pasturæ. Silua i leuca longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim et modo ualet iii libras.—Exch. D. 109 (1); 19a.

Judhel himself holds Brideford. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and four serfs, and twenty villeins, and seven bordars, with nine ploughs. There are fourteen acres of meadow and seventy acres of pasture.

There Juhel has twenty villeins, and seven bordars, and four serfs, and one swineherd, who renders ten swine, and one head of cattle, and one packhorse, and eighty sheep, and twenty goats, and wood and coppice one leuga in length and one furlong in breadth, and fourteen acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year three pounds, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Boui.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Boui quam tenuit Johannes ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et iii uirgis. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Turgissus de Iuhello. Inde habet Turgissus iii uirgas et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i hidam et v carrucas. Ibi habet Turgissus xi uillanos et vi bordarios et v seruos et viii animalia et l oues et x agros nemoris et xx agros prati et i leugam pascuæ. Hæc ualet xl solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (320) 298.

Juhel has a manor called Boui, which John held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and three virgates. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Turgis holds this of Juhel. Of them Turgis has three virgates and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have one hide and five ploughs. There Turgis has eleven villeins, and six bordars, and five serfs, and eight head of cattle, and fifty sheep, and ten acres of wood, and twenty acres of meadow, and one leuga of pasture. This manor is worth forty shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Comba.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Comba quam tenuit Aluuoldus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Pomaria de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus i uirgam et dimidiam carrucam in dominio et villani i virgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus iii uillanos et ii bordarios et xxvi oues et iii agros prati et i agrum pascuæ. Hæc ualet xv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (320) 298.

Juhel has a manor called Combe, which Alwold held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Radulf de Pomeroy holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has one Wood one leuga in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth three pounds.

Bobé.

Turgisus tenet de Iudhel Bovi. Johannes tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida et iii virgatis terræ. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et v serui et xi uillani et vi bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi xx acræ prati et x acræ siluæ et una leuca pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (1); 19a.

Turgis holds of Judhel Bovi. John held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and three virgates of land. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and five serfs, and eleven villeins, and six bordars, with five ploughs. There are twenty acres of meadow, and ten acres of wood, and one leuga of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth forty shillings.

Cymbe.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Cymbe. Aluuoldus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia et iii uillani et ii bordarii et iii acræ prati et una acra pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (1); 19a.

Radulf holds of Judhel Cymbe. Alwold held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There is one plough and a half, and there are three villeins, and two bordars, and three acres of meadow, and virgate and half a plough in demesne, and the villeins one virgate and one plough. There Radulf has three villeins, and two bordars, and twenty-six sheep, and three acres of meadow, and one acre of pasture. This is worth fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Comba.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Comba quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus ii uillanos et i bordarium et i agrum et dimidiam prati. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (320) 299.

Juhel has a manor called Comba, which Aluric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. Radulf holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has half a virgate and half a plough in demesne, and the villeins have half a virgate and half a plough. There Radulf has two villeins, and one bordar, and one acre and a half of meadow. This is worth ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Hamistona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hamistona quam tenuit Algarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Pomaria de Iuhello. Ibi habet Radulfus i carrucam in dominio et iiii bordarios. Hæc ualet v solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit xxx denarios.—Exon. D. (320b) 299.

Juhel has a manor called Hamistona, which Algar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. Radulf de Pomeray holds this of Juhel. There Radulf has one plough in demesne and four bordars. This is worth five shillings, and it was worth thirty pence when Juhel received it.

Louenetorna.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Louenetorna quam tenuit Otro ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et one acre of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifteen shillings.

Cymbe.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Cymbe. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est cum ii uillanis et i bordario. Ibi una acra prati et dimidia. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (1); 19a.

Radulf holds of Judhel Cymbe. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough, which is there, with two villeins and one bordar. There is one acre and a half of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Hamestone.

Idem Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Hamestone. Algar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est cum iiii bordarios. Olim xxx denarios. Modo v solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (1); 19a.

The same Radulf holds of Judhel Hamestone. Algar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough, which is there, with four bordars. Formerly it was worth thirty pence. Now it is worth five shillings.

Lobenetorne.

Idem Radulfus tenet Lovenetorne. Otre tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet R[adulfus]* de Pomaria de Iuhello. Inde habet R[adulfus] i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et ii animalia in carrucam. Ibi habet R[adulfus] iii bordarios et i seruum et i animal et xxix oues et ii agros nemoris et ii agros prati et v agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit v solidos.—Exon. D. (320b) 299.

* The initial only given in this and the two following entries.

Juhel has a manor called Louenetorne, which Otro held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Radulf de Pomeray holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has one virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have one virgate and two oxen for the plough. There Radulf has three bordars, and one serf, and one head of cattle, and twenty-nine sheep, and two acres of wood, and two acres of meadow, and five acres of pasture. This manor is worth ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Juhel received it.

Coletona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Coletona quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet R[adulfus] de Pomaria de Iuhello. Inde habet R[adulfus] dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet R[adulfus] i uillanum et v bordarios et i seruum et xxix oues et v agros prati et ii agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit v solidos.—Exon. D. (320b) 299.

Juhel has a manor called Coletona, which Aluric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Radulf de Pomeray holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has half a virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Radulf has one villein, and five bordars, and one serf, and twenty-nine sheep, and five acres of meadow, and two acres of pasture. This manor is worth ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Juhel received it.

Lochetona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lochetona quam tenuit Otro ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iii bordariis et ii acræ prati et v acræ pasturæ et ii acræ siluæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (1) ; 19a.

The same Radulf holds Lovenetorne. Otre held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, with one serf, and three bordars, and two acres of meadow, and five acres of pasture, and two acres of wood. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Coletone.

Idem Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Coletone. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et i uillano et v bordariis. Ibi v acræ prati et ii acræ pasturæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (1) ; 19a.

The same Radulf holds of Judhel Coletone. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and one villein, and five bordars. There are five acres of meadow and two acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Lochetone.

Idem Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Lochetone. Otre tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ cum i seruo et ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet R[adulfus] de Pomeria de Iuhello. Inde habet R[adulfus] dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et vi animalia in carrucam. Ibi habet R[adulfus] ii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et ii animalia et xiii porcos et lvii oues et iiii agros nemoris. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit v solidos.—Exon. D. (320b) 299.

Juhel has a manor called Lochetone, which Otro held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Radulf de Pomeray holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has half a virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have half a virgate and six oxen for the plough. There Radulf has two villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and two head of cattle, and thirteen swine, and fifty-seven sheep, and four acres of wood. This manor is worth ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Juhel received it.

Briseham.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Briseham quam tenuit Vlfus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis et dimidiam. Hanc possunt arare x carrucæ. Inde habet Iuhellus dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas in dominio Et uillani ii hidas et viii carrucas. Ibi habet Iuhellus xv uillanos et xii bordarios et v cotarios et xii seruos et ii roncinos et iiii animalia et x porcos et cc oues xx minus et xii agros nemoris et iiii agros prati et xii agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet iiii libras et quando Iuhellus recepit lx solidos.—Exon. D. (321) 299.

Juhel has a manor called Briseham, which Vlf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides and a half. These can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Of them Juhel has half a hide and two ploughs in demesne, and the villeins have two hides and eight ploughs. There Juhel has fifteen villeins, and twelve bordars, and five cottars, and twelve serfs, and two packhorses, and four head of cattle, and ten swine, and one hundred and eighty sheep, and twelve acres of wood, and four acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture. This manor is worth four pounds, and it was worth sixty shillings when Juhel received it.

Cercitona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cercitona quam tenuit Vlfus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et dimidia. Hanc possunt arare uillani et ii bordarii et iiii acræ siluæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (1); 19a.

The same Radulf holds of Judhel Lochetone. Otre held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, with one serf, and two villeins, and two bordars, and four acres of wood. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Briseham.

Ipse Iudhel tenet Briseham. Vlf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis et dimidia. Terra est x carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et xii serui et xv uillani et xii bordarii cum viii carucis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et xii acræ pasturæ et xii acræ siluæ. Olim iii libras. Modo ualet iiii libras.—Exch. D. 109 (1); 19a.

Judhel himself holds Briseham. Ulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides and a half. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and twelve serfs, and fifteen villeins, and twelve bordars, with eight ploughs. There are four acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture, and twelve acres of wood. Formerly it was worth three pounds. Now it is worth four pounds.

Cerretone.

Ipse Iudhel tenet Cerretone. Vlf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hidà et dimidia. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et vii serui et iii cotarii vi carrucæ. Ibi habet Iuhellus dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i hidam et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Iuhellus viii uillanos et vii bordarios et iii cotarios et vii seruos et i roncinum et vi animalia et viii porcos et cxx oues et xv agros nemoris et xii agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xl solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (321) 300.

Juhel has a manor called Cercitona, which Ulf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and a half. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. There Juhel has half a hide and two ploughs in demesne, and the villeins have one hide and four ploughs. There Juhel has eight villeins, and seven bordars, and three cottars, and seven serfs, and one pack-horse, and six head of cattle, and eight swine, and one hundred and twenty sheep, and fifteen acres of wood, and twelve acres of pasture. This manor is worth forty shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Coletona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Coletona quam tenuit Aluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Warinus de Iuhello. Inde habet Warinus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Warinus v uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et vi animalia et xiiii porcos et lxx oues et vi capras et iiii agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit v solidos.—Exon. D. (321) 300.

Juhel has a manor called Coletona, which Alward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Warin holds this of Juhel. Of it Warin has one virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Warin has five villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and six head of cattle, and fourteen swine, and seventy sheep, and six goats, and four acres of pasture. This manor is worth fifteen shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Juhel received it.

Lodeswilla.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lodeswilla quam tenuit Hecus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare xii carrucæ. Inde habet Iuhellus i hidam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i hidam et viii carrucas. Ibi habet et viii uillani et vii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi xv acrae siluæ et xii acrae pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet lx solidos. —Exch. D. 109 (1); 19a.

Judhel himself holds Cercetone. Ulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and a half. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and seven serfs, and three cottars, and eight villeins, and seven bordars, with four ploughs. There are fifteen acres of wood and twelve acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth sixty shillings.

Coletone.

Warinus tenet de Iudhel Coletone. Aluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et v uillanis et ii bordariis et iiii acrae pasturæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (1); 19a.

Warin holds of Judhel Coletone. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and five villeins, and two bordars, and four acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Lodeswille.

Iipse Iudhel tenet Lodeswille. Heche tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et viii serui et xx uillani et x bordarii et vi cotarii cum viii carucis. Ibi piscaria reddens xxx salmons et xiii acrae prati et i leuca Iuhellus xx uillanos et x bordarios et vi cotarios et viii seruos et i roncinum et iiii animalia et vi porcos et xlii oues et xi capras et i pescariam quæ reddit xxx salmones et i leugam nemoris et xiii agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ. Hæc ualet c solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (320) 300.

Juhel has a manor called Lodeswilla, which Hec held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of them Juhel has one hide and two ploughs in demesne, and the villeins have one hide and eight ploughs. There Juhel has twenty villeins, and ten bordars, and six cottars, and eight serfs, and one pack-horse, and four head of cattle, and six swine, and forty-two sheep, and eleven goats, and one fishery, which yields thirty salmon, and one leuga of wood, and thirteen acres of meadow, and half a leuga of pasture. This manor is worth one hundred shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Torlestan.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Torlestan quam tenuit Johannes ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Iuhellus i hidam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i hidam et vi carrucas. Ibi habet Iuhellus xv uillanos et vi bordarios et iiii cotarios et v seruos et i roncinum et xvi porcos et cl oues et ii agros prati et ii agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet lx solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit iiii libras.—Exon. D. (321b) 300.

De supradicta mansione tenuit quidam tagnus i uirgam ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus sed non potuit a Johanne separari et modo tenet eam quidam miles de Iuhello. Ibi habet ille miles dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam et ii uillanos et iii bordarios et ii animalia. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit v solidos.—Exon. D. (321b) 300.

Juhel has a manor called Torlestan, which John held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of these Juhel has one hide and two ploughs in demesne, and the villeins have one hide and six ploughs. There Juhel has fifteen villeins, and six bordars, and four cottars, and five serfs, and one pack-horse, and sixteen swine, and one hundred and fifty sheep, and two siluæ et dimidia leuca pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet c solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (1); 19a.

Judhel himself holds Lodeswille. Heche held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and eight serfs, and twenty villeins, and ten bordars, and six cottars, with eight ploughs. There is a fishery, rendering thirty salmon, and thirteen acres of meadow, and one leuga of wood, and half a leuga of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth one hundred shillings.

Torlestan.

Ipsē Iudhel tenet Torlestan. Johannes tenebāt tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio sunt ii caruæ et v serui et xv uillani et vi bordarii et iiii cotarii cum vi carucis. Ibi ii acræ prati et ii acræ pasturæ. Olim iiii libras. Modo ualet iii libras.—Exch. D. 109 (1); 19a.

De hoc manerio tenet unus miles de Iudhel unam virgatam terræ et ibi habet i carucam et ii uillanos et iii bordarios cum dimidia caruca. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (1); 19a.

Judhel himself holds Torlestan. John held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and five serfs, and fifteen villeins, and six bordars, and four cottars, with six ploughs. There are two acres of meadow and two acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth four pounds. Now it is worth three pounds.

acres of meadow, and two acres of pasture. This is worth sixty shillings, and it was worth four pounds when Juhel received it.

Of the aforesaid manor a certain thegn held one virgate on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, but it could not be separated from the land held by John, and now a certain soldier of Juhel holds it. There the soldier has half a virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have half a virgate, and half a plough, and two villeins, and three bordars, and two head of cattle. This is worth ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Juhel received it.

Bachedona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bachedona quam tenuit Algarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Osbertus de Iuhello. Inde habet i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Osbertus iii uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et viii animalia et xv porcos et lxxx oues et ii agros prati et ii agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (321b) 300.

Juhel has a manor called Bachedona, which Algar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Osbert holds this of Juhel. Of it he has one virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Osbert has three villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and eight head of cattle, and fifteen swine, and eighty sheep, and two acres of meadow, and two acres of pasture. This is worth fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Coletona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Coletona quam tenuit Colo ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit [sic] pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Turgisus de Iuhello. Inde habet Turgisus i uirgam et dimidiam carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Turgisus iii uillanos et i bordarium et iii animalia et xi oues et vi agros nemoris et dimidiam agrum prati et ii agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet v solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit xx solidos.—Exon. D. (322) 300.

Juhel has a manor called Coletona, which Colo held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld

Of this manor one of Judhel's soldiers holds one virgate of land, and has there one plough, and two villeins, and three bordars, with half a plough. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Bachedone.

Osbernus tenet de Iudhel Bachedone. Algar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iii uillani et iii bordarii et ii serui et ii acræ prati et ii acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (1); 19a.

Osbern holds of Judhel Bachedone. Algar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, and three villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and two acres of meadow, and two acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifteen shillings.

Coletone.

Turgis tenet de Iudhel Coletone. Cole tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum iii uillanis et i bordario. Ibi dimidia acra prati et ii acræ pasturæ et vi acræ siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19b.

Turgis holds of Judhel Coletone. Cole held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Turgis holds this of Juhel. Of it Turgis has one virgate and half a plough in demesne, and the villeins have one virgate and half a plough. There Turgis has three villeins, and one bordar, and three head of cattle, and eleven sheep, and six acres of wood, and half an acre of meadow, and two acres of pasture. This manor is worth five shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when Juhel received it.

Heuis.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Heuis quam tenuit Algarus ea die quæ rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hida [sic] hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus vi uillanos et iiii bordarios et ii seruos et iiii animalia et cxliii oues et v capras et vi agros prati et xx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xxv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (322) 301.

Juhel has a manor called Heuis, which Algar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Radulf holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has half a hide and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have half a hide and three ploughs. There Radulf has six villeins, and four bordars, and two serfs, and four head of cattle, and one hundred and forty-three sheep, and five goats, and six acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. This manor is worth twenty-five shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Walemintona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Walemintona quam tenuit Aluardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus viii uillanos et vi bordarios et i seruum et ii agros prati. Hæc ualet xxx solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit xl solidos.—Exon. D. (322) 301.

Juhel has a manor called Walemintona, which Aluard held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Radulf three ploughs. There is one plough, with three villeins, and one bordar. There is half an acre of meadow, and two acres of pasture, and six acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth five shillings.

Hewis.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Hewis. Algar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et vi uillani et iiii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi vi acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xxv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19*b*.

Radulf holds of Judhel Hewis. Algar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and two serfs, and six villeins, and four bordars, with three ploughs. There are six acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty-five shillings.

Walementone.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Walementone. Aluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et viii uillani et vi bordarii cum iiii carucis. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet i solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19*b*.

Radulf holds of Judhel Walementone. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has half a hide and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have half a hide and four ploughs. There Radulf has eight villeins, and six bordars, and one serf, and two acres of meadow. This manor is worth thirty shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when Juhel received it.

Porlamuta.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Porlamuta quam tenuit Hecus nicecomes ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Fulgo de Iuhello. Inde habet Fulco dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et ii animalia in carrucam. Ibi habet Fulco iii bordarios et i seruum et iii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et i in latitudine et ii agros prati et lx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit xl solidos.—Exon. D. (322b) 301.

Juhel has a manor called Porlamuta, which Hec the sheriff held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Fulco holds this of Juhel. Of it Fulco has half a hide and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have half a hide and two oxen for the plough. There Fulco has three bordars, and one serf, and wood three furlongs in length and one in breadth, and two acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture. This manor is worth ten shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when Juhel received it.

Edetona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Edetona quam tenuit Algarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Fulgo de Iuhello. Inde habet Fulco i uirgam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et vi animalia in carrucam. Ibi habet Fulco i uillanum et iiii bordarios et i seruum et ii agros prati. Hæc ualet v solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit xx solidos.—Exon. D. (322b) 301.

Juhel has a manor called Edetona, which Algar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Fulco holds this of Juhel. Of it Fulco has one virgate in demesne, and the villeins have one virgate and six oxen for the plough. There Fulco has one villein, and four bordars, and one serf, and two acres and eight villeins, and six bordars, with four ploughs. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth fifty shillings.

Porlemvte.

Fulco tenet de Iudhel Porlemvte. Heche tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iii bordariis et ii acræ prati et lx acræ pasturæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19b.

Fulco holds of Judhel Porlemvte. Heche held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and three bordars, and two acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Eddetone.

Fulco tenet de Iudhel Eddetone. Algar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et i uillano et iiii bordariis et ii acræ prati. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19b.

Fulco holds of Judhel Eddetone. Algar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. One plough is there, with one serf, and one villein, and four bordars, and two acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth five shillings.

of meadow. This manor is worth five shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when Juhel received it.

Aluwinestona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Aluwinestona quam tenuit Aluwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Fulgo de Iuhello. Inde habet Fulco i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Fulco iii bordarios et ii agros prati et iii agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit xx solidos.—Exon. D. (322b) 301.

Juhel has a manor called Alwinestona, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Fulco holds this of Juhel. Of it Fulco has one virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have one virgate and half a plough. There Fulco has three bordars, and two acres of meadow, and three acres of pasture. This manor is worth ten shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when Juhel received it.

Sura.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Sura quam tenuit Algarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Odo de Iuhello. Inde habet Odo uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Odo i uillanum et iii bordarios et ii seruos et xv animalia et ccxl inter oues et capras et iiii agros nemusculi et i agrum prati et c agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xx solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit xl solidos.

Hæ ix prædictæ mansiones sunt uastatæ per irlandinos homines.—Exon. D. (322b) 301.

Juhel has a manor called Sura, which Algar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Odo holds this of Juhel. Of it Odo has a virgate and a half and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have half a hide, and half a virgate, and one plough and a half. There Odo has one villein, and three bordars, and two serfs, and fifteen head of cattle, and sheep and goats

Alwinestone.

Fulco tenet de Iudhel Alwinestone. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia et iii bordarii et ii acrae prati et iii acrae pasturæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19b.

Fulco holds of Judhel Alwinestone. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough and a half, and three bordars, and two acres of meadow, and three acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Svre.

Odo tenet de Iudhel Svre. Algar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et i uillanus et iii bordarii cum una caruca et dimidia. Ibi i acra prati et c acrae pasturæ et iiii acrae siluæ minutæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19b.

Odo holds of Judhel Svre. Algar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and two serfs, and one villen, and three bordars, with one plough and a half. There is one acre of meadow, and one hundred acres of pasture, and four acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

together two hundred and forty, and four acres of coppice, and one acre of meadow, and one hundred acres of pasture. This manor is worth twenty shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when Juhel received it.

These nine above-mentioned manors were laid waste by men of Ireland.

Surleia.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Surleia quam Algarus tenuit ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Fulco de Iuhello. Inde habet Fulco i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et ii carrucas ii boues minus. Ibi habet Fulco iii uillanos et iiii bordarios et i seruum et xviii animalia et xii porcos et cxxv oues et i agrum prati. Hæc ualet xv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit x solidos.—Exon. D. (323) 302.

Juhel has a manor called Surleia, which Algar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Fulco holds this of Juhel. Of it Fulco has one virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have one virgate and two ploughs, less two oxen. There Fulco has three villeins, and four bordars, and one serf, and eighteen head of cattle, and twelve swine, and one hundred and twenty-five sheep, and one acre of meadow. This manor is worth fifteen shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Juhel received it.

Polochestona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Polochestona quam tenuit Bristuoldus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carrucæ et dimidia. Hanc tenet Rotbertus de Iuhello. Inde habet Rotbertus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Rotbertus ii uillanos et ii bordarios et iii seruos et x animalia et xiiii porcos et cxxii oues et xxxiii capras et dimidium agrum prati. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit v solidos.—Exon. D. (323) 302.

Juhel has a manor called Polochestona, which Bristwold held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough and a half. Robert holds this of Juhel. Of it Robert has half a virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have half a virgate and half a plough. There Robert has two villeins, and two Svrlei.

Fulco tenet de Iudhel Svrlei. Algar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iii uillani et iiii bordarii cum ii carucis et una acra prati. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 196.

Fulco holds of Judhel Svrlei. Algar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and three villeins, and four bordars, with two ploughs, and one acre of meadow. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Polochestone.

Robertus tenet de Iudhel Polochestone. Bristuoldus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi est caruca et dimidia et iii serui et ii uillani et ii bordarii et dimidia acra prati. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 196.

Robert holds of Judhel Polochestone. Bristwold held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There is one plough and a half, and three serfs, and two villeins, and two bordars, and half an acre of meadow. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

bordars, and three serfs, and ten head of cattle, and fourteen swine, and one hundred and twenty-two sheep, and thirty-three goats, and half an acre of meadow. This manor is worth ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Juhel received it.

Cortescanola.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cortescanola quam tenuit Aluwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Pomaria de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus ii uillanos et v bordarios et ii animalia et l oues et v capras et v agros nemoris et dimidiam agrum prati et v agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit x solidos.—Exon. D. (323) 302.

Juhel has a manor called Cortescanola, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Radulf de Pomeray holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has one virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have one virgate and half a plough. There Radulf has two villeins, and five bordars, and two head of cattle, and fifty sheep, and five goats, and five acres of wood, and half an acre of meadow, and five acres of pasture. This manor is worth fifteen shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Juhel received it.

Bradeleia.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bradeleia quam tenuit Ailwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Radulfus iii uillanos et iiii bordarios et i seruum et i agrum nemusculi. Hæc ualet xv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit x solidos.—Exon. D. (323b) 302.

Juhel has a manor called Bradeleia, which Ailwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Radulf holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has half a virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough and a half. There Radulf has three villeins, and four

Cortescanole.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Cortescanole. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia et ii uillani et v bordarii et v acræ pasturæ et v acræ siluæ et dimidia acra prati. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19*b*.

Radulf holds of Judhel Cortescanole. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There is one plough and a half, and two villeins, and five bordars, and five acres of pasture, and five acres of wood, and half an acre of meadow. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Bradellie.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Bradellie. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iii uillani et iiii bordarii cum i caruca et dimidia et una acra siluæ minutæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19*b*.

Radulf holds of Judhel Bradellie. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and three villeins, and four bordars, with one plough and a half, and there is one acre of coppice. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

bordars, and three serfs, and ten head of cattle, and fourteen swine, and one hundred and twenty-two sheep, and thirty-three goats, and half an acre of meadow. This manor is worth ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Juhel received it.

Cortescanola.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cortescanola quam tenuit Aluwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Pomaria de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus ii uillanos et v bordarios et ii animalia et l oues et v capras et v agros nemoris et dimidiam agrum prati et v agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit x solidos.—Exon. D. (323) 302.

Juhel has a manor called Cortescanola, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Radulf de Pomeray holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has one virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have one virgate and half a plough. There Radulf has two villeins, and five bordars, and two head of cattle, and fifty sheep, and five goats, and five acres of wood, and half an acre of meadow, and five acres of pasture. This manor is worth fifteen shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Juhel received it.

Bradeleia.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bradeleia quam tenuit Ailwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Radulfus iii uillanos et iiii bordarios et i seruum et i agrum nemusculi. Hæc ualet xv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit x solidos.—Exon. D. (323b) 302.

Juhel has a manor called Bradeleia, which Ailwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Radulf holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has half a virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough and a half. There Radulf has three villeins, and four

Cortescanole.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Cortescanole. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia et ii uillani et v bordarii et v acræ pasturæ et v acræ siluæ et dimidia acra prati. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19*b*.

Radulf holds of Judhel Cortescanole. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There is one plough and a half, and two villeins, and five bordars, and five acres of pasture, and five acres of wood, and half an acre of meadow. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Bradelie.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Bradelie. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iii uillani et iiii bordarii cum i caruca et dimidia et una acra siluæ minutæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19*b*.

Radulf holds of Judhel Bradelie. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and three villeins, and four bordars, with one plough and a half, and there is one acre of coppice. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

bordars, and one serf, and one acre of coppice. This manor is worth fifteen shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Juhel received it.

Hewis.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hewis quam tenuit Ailwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare vi carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani ii uirgas et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus v uillanos et vii bordarios et iii seruos et v animalia et l oues et ii agros prati. Hæc ualet xxx solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (323b) 302.

Juhel has a manor called Hewis, which Ailwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by six ploughs. Radulf holds this of Juhel. Of them Radulf has one virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have two virgates and four ploughs. There Radulf has five villeins, and seven bordars, and three serfs, and five head of cattle, and fifty sheep, and two acres of meadow. This manor is worth thirty shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Vlsistona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Vlsistona quam tenuit Vstret ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Colbertus de Iuhello. Inde habet Colbertus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Colbertus iii uillanos et iii bordarios et iii seruos et ii agros prati. Hæc ualet xv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit x solidos.—Exon. D. (323b) 302.

Juhel has a manor called Vlsistona, which Vstret held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Colbert holds this of Juhel. Of it Colbert has half a virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have one virgate and a half and two ploughs. There Colbert has three villeins, and three bordars, and three serfs, and two acres of meadow. This manor is worth fifteen shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Juhel received it.

Hewis.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Hewis. Aluinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et v uillani et vii bordarii cum iiiii carucis. Ibi ii acræ prati. Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19*b*.

Radulf holds of Judhel Hewis. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and three serfs, and five villeins, and seven bordars, with four ploughs. There are two acres of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty shillings.

Vlsistone.

Colbertus tenet de Iudhel Vlsistone. Vctred tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iii serui et iii uillani et iii bordarii et ii acræ prati. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19*b*.

Colbert holds of Judhel Vlsistone. Uctred held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, and three serfs, and three villeins, and three bordars, and two acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Corneorda.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Corneorda quam tenuit Vlfus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii hidis. Has possunt arare xiii carrucæ. Inde habet Iuhellus in dominio i hidam et ii carrucas et uillani ii hidas et viii carrucas. Ibi habet Iuhellus xx uillanos et xv bordarios et viii seruos. et i runcinum et v animalia et xi porcos et cxi oues et i molen-dinum qui reddit per annum xv solidos et i piscatoriam quæ reddit per annum xxx salmones et xxx agros nemoris et lx et x agros nemusculi et c agros pascuæ et ualet per annum lx solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (323b) 302.

Juhel has a manor called Corneorda, which Ulf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three hides. These can be ploughed by thirteen ploughs. Of them Juhel has in demesne one hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have two hides and eight ploughs. There Juhel has twenty villeins, and fifteen bordars, and eight serfs, and one pack-horse, and five head of cattle, and eleven swine, and one hundred and forty sheep, and one mill, which renders by the year fifteen shillings, and one fishery, which renders by the year thirty salmon, and thirty acres of wood, and seventy acres of coppice, and one hundred acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year sixty shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Cheletona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cheletona quam tenuit Hecus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro v hidis. Has possunt arare xv carrucæ. Inde habet Iuhellus in dominio ii hidas et ii carrucas et uillani iii hidas et viii carrucas. Ibi habet Iuhellus xx uillanos et xv bordarios et xii seruos et ii runcinos et i animal et xxvii porcos et lx oues et iiii capras et v agros prati et ii pascuæ et ualet per annum c solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (324) 303.

Juhel has a manor called Cheletona, which Hec held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for five hides. These can be ploughed by fifteen ploughs. Of them Juhel has in demesne two hides and two ploughs, and the villeins have three hides and eight ploughs. There Juhel has twenty villeins, and fifteen bordars, and twelve serfs, and two pack-

Corneorde.

Ipse Iudhel tenet Corneorde. Vlf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis. Terra est xiii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et viii serui et xx uillani et xv bordarii cum viii carucis. Ibi molinus reddens xv solidos et piscaria reddens xxx salmons et c acræ pasturæ et xxx acræ siluæ et lx acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet lx solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19b.

Judhel himself holds Corneorde. Ulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides. There is land for thirteen ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and eight serfs, and twenty villeins, and fifteen bordars, with eight ploughs. There is a mill rendering fifteen shillings, and a fishery rendering thirty salmon, and there are one hundred acres of pasture, and thirty acre of wood, and seventy acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth sixty shillings.

Cheletone.

Ipse Iudhel tenet Cheletone. Heche tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro v hidis. Terra est xv carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et xi serui et xx uillani et xv bordarii cum viii carucis. Ibi v acræ prati et ii acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet c solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19b.

Judhel himself holds Cheletone. Heche held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for five hides. There is land for fifteen ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and eleven serfs, and twenty villeins, and fifteen bordars, with eight ploughs. There are five acres of meadow, and two acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth one hundred shillings.

horses, and one head of cattle, and twenty-seven swine, and sixty sheep, and four goats, and five acres of meadow, and two of pasture; and it is worth by the year one hundred shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Lega.

Juhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lega quam tenuit Osmerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Willemus de eo. Inde habet Willemus i dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willemus iii uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et viii oues et i agrum nemoris et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Juhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (324) 303.

Juhel has a manor called Lega, which Osmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. William holds this of him. Of it William has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There William has three villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and eight sheep, and one acre of wood, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Pola.

Juhellus habet quendam mansionem quæ uocatur Pola quam tenuit Algarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Guillelmus de Juhello. Inde habet Guillelmus i hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i hidam et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Guillelmus vi uillanos et vii bordarios et iii seruos et i runcinum et ii animalia et xl xl [sic] oues et x agros nemusculi et iiii agros prati et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (324b) 303.

Juhel has a certain manor called Pola, which Algar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by four ploughs. William holds this of Juhel. Of them William has one hide and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have one hide and three ploughs. There William has six villeins, and seven bordars, and three serfs, and one pack-horse, and two head of cattle, and forty

Lege.

Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Lege. Osmer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et iii uillani et iii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi x acrae pasturae et x acrae pasturae [sic]. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2) ; 19*b*.

William holds of Judhel Lege. Osmer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and two serfs, and three villeins, and three bordars, with one plough. There are ten acres of pasture, and ten acres of pasture [sic]. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifteen shillings.

Pole.

Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Pole. Algar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et vi uillani et vii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi iiii acrae prati et x acrae siluae minutae. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2) ; 19*b*.

William holds of Judhel Pole. Algar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and three serfs, and six villeins, and seven bordars, with three ploughs. There are four acres of meadow, and ten acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

sheep, and ten acres of coppice, and four acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when [Juhel] received it.

Conba.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Conba quam tenuit Alrist ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt ii carrucæ arare. Hanc tenet Willelmus de Iuhello. Ibi habet Willelmus Hec dimidiam hidam et vi uillanos et iiii bordarios et i seruum et ii carrucas in dominio et ii agros nemusculi et dimidium agrum prati et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (324b) 303.

Juhel has a manor called Conba, which Alrist held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. William holds this of Juhel. There William Hec has half a hide, and six villeins, and four bordars, and one serf, and two ploughs in demeane, and two acres of coppice, and half an acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Alintona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Alintona quam tenuit Godus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Turginus de Iuhello. Inde habet Turginus dimidiam hidam et i [space left] carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et i carrucam et ii animalia. Ibi habet Turginus iiii uillanos et iiii bordarios et ii seruos et l oues et i agrum et dimidium prati et xv agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (324b) 303.

Juhel has a manor called Alintona, which Gode held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Turgin holds this of Juhel. Of it Turgin has half a hide and one plough in demeane, and the villeins have half a hide, and one plough, and two head of cattle. There Turgin has four villeins, and four bordars, and two serfs, and fifty sheep, and one acre and a half of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Cumbe.

Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Cumbe. Alrist tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et vi uillani et iiii bordarii et dimidia acræ prati et ii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo x solidos ualet.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19*b*.

William holds of Judhel Cumbe. Alrist held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and six villeins, and four bordars, and half an acre of meadow, and two acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Alintone.

Turgis tenet de Iudhel Alintone. Gode tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iiii uillani et iiii bordarii et ii serui. Ibi i acra prati et dimidia et xv acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (2); 19*b*.

Turgis holds of Judhel Alintone. Gode held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, and four villeins, and four bordars, and two serfs. There is one acre and a half of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifteen shillings.

Stancoma.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Stancoma quam tenuit Esnotus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Turginus de Iuhello. Inde habet Turginus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Turginus ii uillanos et iii bordarios et vii animalia et xiii porcos et lx oues et i agrum prati et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (325) 304.

Juhel has a manor called Stancoma, which Esnot held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Turgin holds this of Juhel. Of it Turgin has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Turgin has two villeins, and three bordars, and seven head of cattle, and thirteen swine, and sixty sheep, and one acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when [Juhel] received it.

Mellestona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Mellestona quam tenuit Bristricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus vi uillanos et iiii bordarios et i seruum et ii porcos et xl oues et v agros nemusculi et ii agros prati et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (325) 304.

Juhel has a manor called Mellestona, which Bristric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Radulf holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has half a hide and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have half a hide and three ploughs. There Radulf has six villeins, and four bordars, and one serf, and two swine, and forty sheep, and five acres of coppice, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Stancome.

Turgis tenet de Iudhel Stancome. Snot tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et ii uillani et iii bordarii et una acra prati. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3) ; 20a.

Turgis holds of Judhel Stancome. Snot held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, and two villeins, and three bordars, and one acre of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Mellestone.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Mellestone. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est iiii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et vi uillani et iiii bordarii et ii acræ prati et v acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3) ; 20a.

Radulf holds of Judhel Mellestone. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and six villeins, and four bordars, and two acres of meadow, and five acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth forty shillings.

Forda.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Forda quam tenuit Otrus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus ii uillanos et i bordarium et xxxiii oues et xv agros nemusculi et iiii agros prati et vi agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (325b) 304.

Juhel has a manor called Forda, which Otre held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Radulf holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has half a hide and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have half a hide and two ploughs. There Radulf has two villeins, and one bordar, and thirty-three sheep, and fifteen acres of coppice, and four acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Cheueletona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cheueletona quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus iiii uillanos et v bordarios et xiii porcos et xxxiii oues et x capras et iiii agros prati et vi agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (325b) 304.

Juhel has a manor called Cheueletona, which Aluric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Radulf holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has half a hide and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have half a hide and two ploughs. There Radulf has three villeins, and five bordars, and thirteen swine, and thirty-three sheep, and ten goats, and three acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Forde.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Forde. Otre tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est ii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i bordario et ii uillani cum ii carucis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et vi acræ pasturæ et xv acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20a.

Radulf holds of Judhel Forde. Otre held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for two ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one bordar, and two villeins, with two ploughs. There are four acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture, and fifteen acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Cheveletone.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Cheveletone. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iii uillani et iii bordarii et iii acræ prati et vi acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20a.

Radulf holds of Judhel Cheveletone. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, and three villeins, and three bordars, and three acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifteen shillings.

Foletona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Foletona quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc dedit Iuhellus Sanctæ Mariæ pro anima reginæ. Inde habet Sancta Maria dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam. Ibi habet Sancta Maria i uillanum et i seruum et i agrum nemusculi et i agrum prati et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat viii solidos.—Exon. D. (325b) 304.

Juhel has a manor called Foletona, which Aluric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Juhel gave this manor to Saint Mary for the soul of the queen. Of it Saint Mary has half a virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have half a virgate. There Saint Mary has one villein, and one serf, and one acre of coppice, and one acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth eight shillings when [Juhel] received it.

Ordihella.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ordihella quam tenuit Alwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Iuhellus dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Iuhellus vii uillanos et vii bordarios et v seruos et iiii animalia et l oues et x capras et viii agros nemusculi et x agros prati et c agros pascuæ et reddit per annum vi libras et quando recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (326) 305.

Juhel has a manor called Ordihella, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of it Juhel has half a hide and two ploughs in demesne, and the villeins have half a hide and four ploughs. There Juhel has seven villeins, and seven bordars, and five serfs, and four head of cattle, and fifty sheep, and ten goats, and eight acres of coppice, and ten acres of meadow, and one hundred acres of pasture; and it renders by the year six pounds, and it rendered as much when [Juhel] received it.

Foletone.

Clerici Sanctæ Mariæ tenent de Iudhel Foletone. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et i uillano et una acra prati et una acra siluæ minutæ. Olim viii solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20a.

The clerks of St. Mary hold of Judhel Foletone. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. One plough is there, with one serf, and one villein, and one acre of meadow, and one acre of coppice. Formerly it was worth eight shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Ordihelle.

Ipse Iudhel tenet Ordihelle. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et v serui et vii uillani et vii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi x acrae prati et c acrae pasturæ et viii acrae siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet vi libras.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20a.

Judhel himself holds Ordihelle. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and five serfs, and seven villeins, and seven bordars, with four ploughs. There are ten acres of meadow, and one hundred acres of pasture, and eight acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth six pounds.

Lega.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lega quam tenuit Aluwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Iuhellus dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Iuhellus vii uillanos et ii bordarios et v seruos et xl oues et xii agros nemusculi et iii agros prati et xii agros pascuæ et reddit per annum vi libras et quando recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (326) 305.

Juhel has a manor called Lega, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of it Juhel has half a hide and two ploughs in demesne, and the villeins have half a hide and three ploughs. There Juhel has seven villeins, and two bordars, and five serfs, and forty sheep, and twelve acres of coppice, and three acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture; and it renders by the year six pounds, and it yielded as much when [Juhel] received it.

Botreforda.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Botreforda quam tenuit Alricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Torgicus de Iuhello. Inde habet Torgicus in dominio i uirgam et vi boues et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Torgicus iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et ii seruos et i animal et xvii oues et ii agros nemusculi et i agrum prati et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (326b) 305.

Juhel has a manor called Botreforda, which Alric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Torgic holds this of Juhel. Of it Torgic has in demesne one virgate and six oxen, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough and a half. There Torgic has four villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, and one head of cattle, and seventeen sheep, and two acres of coppice, and one acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when Juhel received it.

Lege.

Ipse Iudhel tenet Lege. Aluuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et v serui et vii uillani et ii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi iii acræ prati et xii acræ pasturæ et xii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet vi libras.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20a.

Judhel himself holds Lege. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and five serfs, and seven villeins, and two bordars, with three ploughs. There are three acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture, and twelve acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth six pounds.

Botreforde.

Torgis tenet de Iudhel Botreforde. Alric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et iiii uillani et ii bordarii et i acra prati et ii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20a.

Torgis holds of Judhel Botreforde. Alric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, and two serfs, and four villeins, and two bordars, and one acre of meadow, and two acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Botreforda.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Botreforda quam tenuit Touius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Torgicus de Iuhello. Inde habet Torgicus in dominio i uirgam et uillani i virgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Torgicus ii uillanos et ii agros nemusculi et dimidiam agrum prati et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (326b) 305.

Juhel has a manor called Botreforda, which Toui held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Torgic holds this of Juhel. Of it Torgic has in demeane one virgate, and the villeins have one virgate and half a plough. There Torgic has two villeins, and two acres of coppice, and half an acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Juhel received it.

Stotberia.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Stotberia quam tenuit Touius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus v uillanos et iiii bordarios et ii seruos et vi porcos et xxvi oues et vi capras et xx agros nemoris et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (326b) 305.

Juhel has a manor called Stotberia, which Toui held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Radulf holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has in demeane half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and two ploughs. There Radulf has five villeins, and four bordars, and two serfs, and six swine, and twenty-six sheep, and six goats, and twenty acres of wood; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Reimora.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Reimora quam tenuit Hecus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et dimidia. Has possunt arare

Botreforde.

Torgis tenet de Iudhel Botreforde. Toui tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi ii uillani habent dimidiam carucam et dimidiam acram prati. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3) ; 20a.

Torgis holds of Judhel Botreforde. Toui held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There two villeins have half a plough, and [there is] half an acre of meadow. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth five shillings.

Stotberie.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Stotberie. Toui tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt et ii serui et v uillani et iiii bordarii et xx acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3) ; 20a.

Radulf holds of Judhel Stotberie. Toui held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, and two serfs, and five villeins, and four bordars, and twenty acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifteen shillings.

Reimore.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Reimore. Heche tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida et dimidia. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui vi carrucæ. Has tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas et uillani i hidam et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus vi uillanos et vi bordarios et ii seruos et lxxvii oues et vi agros prati et ii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (327) 306.

Juhel has a manor called Reimora, which Hec held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and a half. These can be ploughed by six ploughs. Radulf holds these of Juhel. Of them Radulf has in demesne half a hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have one hide and three ploughs. There Radulf has six villeins, and six bordars, and two serfs, and sixty-seven sheep, and six acres of meadow, and two acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Ocheneberia.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ocheneberia quam tenuit Touius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus v uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruuum et xl oues et ii agros prati et reddit per annum xl solidos et tantundem quando Iuhellus recepit.—Exon. D. (327) 306.

Juhel has a manor called Ocheneberia, which Toui held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Radulf holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and two ploughs. There Radulf has five villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and forty sheep, and two acres of meadow; and it renders by the year forty shillings, and it rendered as much when Juhel received it.

Blacheorda.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Blacheorda quam tenuit Ailuinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et vi boues et uillani dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus iiii uillanos et iii seruos et xv oues et xx agros nemoris et ii et vi uillani et vi bordarii cum iiii carucis et vi acrae prati et ii acrae pasturae. Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20a.

Radulf holds of Judhel Reimore. Heche held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and a half. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and six villeins, and six bordars, with three ploughs, and six acres of meadow, and two acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty shillings.

Ocheneberie.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Ocheneberie. Toui tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et v uillani et ii bordarii et ii acrae prati. Olim et modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20a.

Radulf holds of Judhel Ocheneberie. Toui held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and there are five villeins, and two bordars, and two acres of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth forty shillings.

Blachevrde.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Blachevrde. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iiii serui et iiii uillani et ii acrae prati et xx acrae siluæ et una leuca et dimidia pasturae. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20a.

prati et i leugam et dimidiam pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (327) 306.

Juhel has a manor called Blacheorda, which Ailwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Radulf holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has in demesne half a virgate and six oxen, and the villeins have half a virgate and two ploughs. There Radulf has four villeins, and three serfs, and fifteen sheep, and twenty acres of wood, and two of meadow, and one leuga and a half of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Lammeseta.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lammeseta quam tenuit Touius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et dimidia. Has possunt arare vi carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio iii uirgas et i carrucam et uillani iii uirgas et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus vi uillani et xii bordarios et iii seruos et xl oues et ii agros prati et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (327b) 306.

Juhel has a manor called Lammeseta, which Toui held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and a half. These can be ploughed by six ploughs. Radulf holds this of Juhel. Of them Radulf has in demesne three virgates and one plough, and the villeins have three virgates and three ploughs. There Radulf has six villeins, and twelve bordars, and three serfs, and forty sheep, and two [sic] acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Mimidlanda.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Mimidlanda quam tenuit Alebricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Hanc tenet Waldinus de Iuhello. Inde habet Waldinus in dominio dimidiam hidam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam hidam et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Waldinus v uillanos et iiii bordarios et i seruum et vi animalia et vii porcos et xlii oues et i agrum nemusculi et iiii agros prati et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (327b) 306.

Radulf holds of Judhel Blachevrde. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, and three serfs, and four villeins, and two acres of meadow, and twenty acres of wood, and one leuga and a half of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Lamesete.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Lamesete. Toui tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida et dimidia. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et vi uillani et xii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi iii acrae prati. Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20a.

Radulf holds of Judhel Lamesete. Toui held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and a half. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and three serfs, and six villeins, and twelve bordars, with three ploughs. There are three acres of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty shillings.

Mimidlande.

Waldinus tenet de Iudhel Mimidlande. Alberic tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est v carucis. Ibi sunt ii caruca et dimidia cum i seruo et v uillanis et iii bordariis. Ibi iiii acrae prati et una acra siluae minutae. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20a.

Juhel has a manor called Mimidlande, which Alebric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Waldin holds this of Juhel. Of it Waldin has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide and one plough and a half. There Waldin has five villeins, and four bordars, and one serf, and six head of cattle, and seven swine, and forty-two sheep, and one acre of coppice, and four acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Bochelanda.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bochelanda quam tenuit Hecus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et dimidia. Has possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Iuhellus in dominio iiii uirgas et ii carrucas et uillani iiii uirgas et vi carrucas. Ibi habet Iuhellus x uillanos et viii bordarios et x seruos et i runcinum et iiii animalia et lxx oues et i salinam quæ reddit per annum ii solidos et cc agros nemoris et i agrum prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et ii quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet per annum l solidos et tantum quando recepit.—Exon. D. (327b) 306.

Juhel has a manor called Bochelanda, which Hec held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and a half. These can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of them Juhel has in demesne three virgates and two ploughs, and the villeins have three virgates and six ploughs. There Juhel has ten villeins, and eight bordars, and ten serfs, and one pack-horse, and three head of cattle, and seventy sheep, and a salt work, which renders by the year two shillings, and two hundred acres of wood, and one acre of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth; and it is worth by the year fifty shillings, and it was worth as much when [Juhel] received it.

Modleia.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Modleia quam tenuit Goduuinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Odo de Iuhello. Ibi habet Odo ii uillanos qui habent i carrucam et ii agros nemoris et iiii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (328) 307.

Waldin holds of Judhel Mimidlande. Alberic held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for five ploughs. There are two ploughs and a half, with one serf, and five villeins, and three bordars. There are four acres of meadow, and one acre of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Bocheland.

Ipse Iudhel tenet Bocheland. Heche tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et x serui et x uillani et viii bordarii cum vi carucis. Ibi salina reddens ii solidos et una acræ prati et cc acræ siluæ. Pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et ii quarentenæ latitudine. Olim et modo ualet l solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20a.

Judhel himself holds Bocheland. Heche held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and ten serfs, and ten villeins, and eight bordars, with six ploughs. There is a salt work rendering two shillings, and one acre of meadow, and two hundred acres of wood. Pasture half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifty shillings.

Modlei.

Odo tenet de Iudhel Modlei. Godwin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Hanc habent ibi ii uillani. Ibi iii acræ pasturæ et ii acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20a.

Juhel has a manor called Modleia, which Godwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. Odo holds this of Juhel. There Odo has two villeins, who have one plough, and two acres of wood, and three acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Modleia.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Modleia quam tenuit Aluinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Odo de Iuhello. Inde habet Odo in dominio iii ferdinos et dimidiam carrucam et uillani i ferdinum. Ibi habet Odo i uillanum et ii bordarios et x oues et iii agros nemusculi et i agrum prati et ualet per annum v solidos et tantundem quando Iuhellus recepit.—Exon. D. (328) 307.

Juhel has a manor called Modleia, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. Odo holds this of Juhel. Of it Odo has in demesne three ferlings and half a plough, and the villeins have one ferling. There Odo has one villein, and two bordars, and ten sheep, and three acres of coppice, and one acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Lieurichestona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lieurichestona quam tenuit Saolfus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Odo de Iuhello. Inde habet Odo in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Odo ii uillanos et i seruum et viii agros nemoris et iii agros prati et ualet per annum x solidos et tantundem quando Iuhellus recepit.—Exon. D. (328) 307.

Juhel has a manor called Lieurichestona, which Saolf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Odo holds this of Juhel. Of it Odo has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Odo has two villeins, and one serf, and eight acres of wood, and three acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Odo holds of Judhel Modlei. Godwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. This is there held by two villeins. There are three acres of pasture and two acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

Modlei.

Odo tenet de Iudhel Modlei. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi i uillanus et ii bordarii habent dimidiam carucam. Ibi i acra prati et iii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20b.

Odo holds of Judhel Modlei. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There is one villein, and two bordars, having half a plough. There is one acre of meadow and three acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

Levricestone.

Idem Odo tenet de Iudhel Levricestone. Saulf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et ii uillanis. Ibi iii acræ prati et viii acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20b.

The same Odo holds of Judhel Levricestone. Saulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and two villeins. There are three acres of meadow and eight acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Juhel has a manor called Modleia, which Godwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. Odo holds this of Juhel. There Odo has two villeins, who have one plough, and two acres of wood, and three acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Modleia.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Modleia quam tenuit Aluinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Odo de Iuhello. Inde habet Odo in dominio iii ferdinos et dimidiam carrucam et uillani i ferdinum. Ibi habet Odo i uillanum et ii bordarios et x oues et iii agros nemusculi et i agrum prati et ualet per annum v solidos et tantundem quando Iuhellus recepit.—Exon. D. (328) 307.

Juhel has a manor called Modleia, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. Odo holds this of Juhel. Of it Odo has in demesne three ferlings and half a plough, and the villeins have one ferling. There Odo has one villein, and two bordars, and ten sheep, and three acres of coppice, and one acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Lieurichestona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lieurichestona quam tenuit Saolfus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Odo de Iuhello. Inde habet Odo in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Odo ii uillanos et i seruum et viii agros nemoris et iii agros prati et ualet per annum x solidos et tantundem quando Iuhellus recepit.—Exon. D. (328) 307.

Juhel has a manor called Lieurichestona, which Saolf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Odo holds this of Juhel. Of it Odo has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Odo has two villeins, and one serf, and eight acres of wood, and three acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Odo holds of Judhel Modlei. Godwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. This is there held by two villeins. There are three acres of pasture and two acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

Modlei.

Odo tenet de Iudhel Modlei. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi i uillanus et ii bordarii habent dimidiam carucam. Ibi i acra prati et iii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20b.

Odo holds of Judhel Modlei. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There is one villein, and two bordars, having half a plough. There is one acre of meadow and three acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

Levricestone.

Idem Odo tenet de Iudhel Levricestone. Saulf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et ii uillanis. Ibi iii acræ prati et viii acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (3); 20b.

The same Odo holds of Judhel Levricestone. Saulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and two villeins. There are three acres of meadow and eight acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Westona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Westona quam tenuit Olnodus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Odo de Iuhello. Inde habet Odo in dominio ii uirgas et dimidiam et ii carrucas et dimidiam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Odo i uillanum et i bordarium et iii seruos et xv animalia et x porcos et, clxxx oues et lx capras et iiii agros nemoris et iii agros prati et iiii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (328) 307.

Juhel has a manor called Westona, which Olnod held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by four ploughs. Odo holds this of Juhel. Of them Odo has in demesne two virgates and a half and two ploughs and a half [sic], and the villeins have half a virgate and half a plough. There Odo has one villein, and one bordar, and three serfs, and fifteen head of cattle, and ten swine, and one hundred and eighty sheep, and sixty goats, and four acres of wood, and three acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Juhel received it.

Buretona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Buretona quam tenuit Aluwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i ferdino. Hanc possunt arare i carruca et dimidia. Hanc tenet Odo de Iuhello. Inde habet Odo in dominio dimidiam ferdinum et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam ferdinum et i carrucam. Ibi habet Odo iii uillanos et ii seruos et iii agros prati et ualet per annum x solidos et tantundem quando Iuhellus recepit.—Exon. D. (328b) 307.

Juhel has a manor called Buretona, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling. This can be ploughed by one plough and a half. Odo holds this of Juhel. Of it Odo has in demesne half a ferling and one plough, and the villeins have half a ferling and one plough. There Odo has three villeins, and two serfs, and three acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Westone.

Idem Odo tenet Westone. Vlnod tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et i uillanus et i bordarius cum dimidia caruca. Ibi iii acræ prati et iiii acræ pasturæ et iiii acræ siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (4) ; 20*b*.

The same Odo holds Westone. Ulnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and one villein, and one bordar, with half a plough. There are three acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture, and four acres of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Bvretone.

Idem Odo tenet Bvretone. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i ferling. Terra est i carucæ et dimidia. Ibi tamen sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et iii uillani et iii acræ prati. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (4) ; 20*b*.

The same Odo holds Bvretone. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling. There is land for one plough and a half. But there are two ploughs, and two serfs, and three villeins, and three acres of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Manedona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Manedona quam tenuit Colbertus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Odo de Iuhello. Inde habet Odo in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Odo ii uillanos et i bordarium et i seruum et xxx agros nemoris et ii agros prati et ualet per annum xii solidos et vi denarios et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (328b) 307.

Juhel has a manor called Manedona, which Colbert held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Odo holds this of Juhel. Of it Odo has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Odo has three villeins, and one bordar, and one serf, and thirty acres of wood, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year twelve shillings and sixpence, and it was worth twenty shillings when Juhel received it.

Witeleia.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Witeleia quam tenuit Goduwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Odo de Iuhello. Inde habet Odo in dominio i uirgam et dimidiam carrucam et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Odo ii uillanos et i bordarium et i seruum et i animal et xxvii oues et xvi capras et xv agros nemusculi et ualet per annum vii solidos et vi denarios et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat ii solidos.—Exon. D. (328b) 308.

Juhel has a manor called Witeleia, which Godwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Odo holds this of Juhel. Of it Odo has in demesne one virgate and half a plough, and the villeins have one virgate and half a plough. There Odo has two villeins, and one bordar, and one serf, and one head of cattle, and twenty-seven sheep, and sixteen goats, and fifteen acres of coppice; and it is worth by the year seven shillings and sixpence, and it was worth two shillings when Juhel received it.

Manedone.

Idem Odo tenet de Iudhel Manedone. Colbert tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ cum i seruo et iiii uillani cum i bordario et ii acræ prati et xxx acræ siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 109 (4); 20*b*.

The same Odo holds of Judhel Manedone. Colbert held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. Two ploughs are there, with one serf, and three villeins, with one bordar, and two acres of meadow, and thirty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth twelve shillings and sixpence.

Witelle.

Idem Odo tenet de Iudhel Witelle. Goduinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum uno seruo et ii uillani cum i bordario et xv acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim ii solidos. Modo ualet vii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 109 (4); 20*b*.

The same Odo holds of Judhel Witelle. Godwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. One plough is there, with one serf, and two villeins, with one bordar, and fifteen acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth two shillings. Now it is worth seven shillings and sixpence.

Colrige.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Colrige quam tenuit Edmerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Odo de Iuhello. Inde habet Odo in dominio i ferdinum et uillani i ferdinum et i animal in carrucam. Ibi habet Odo ii bordarios et xxx agros nemoris et ualet per annum xv denarios et quando Iuhellus recepit erat uastata.—Exon. D. (329) 308.

Juhel has a manor called Colrige, which Edmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Odo holds this of Juhel. Of it Odo has in demesne one ferling, and the villeins have one ferling and one beast for the plough. There Odo has two bordars and thirty acres of wood; and it is worth by the year fifteen pence, and it was waste when Juhel received it.

Contona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Contona quam tenuit Osolfus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et i uirga. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Has tenet Stephanus de Iuhello. Inde habet Stephanus in dominio iii uirgas et ii carrucas et uillani ii uirgas et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Stephanus vi uillanos et iiii bordarios et ii seruos et v animalia et ii porcos et lii oues et xx agros nemusculi et i agrum prati et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (329) 308.

Juhel has a manor called Contona, which Osulf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and one virgate. These can be ploughed by four ploughs. Stephen holds these of Juhel. Of them Stephen has in demesne three virgates and two ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates and two ploughs. There Stephen has six villeins, and four bordars, and two serfs, and five head of cattle, and two swine, and fifty-two sheep, and twenty acres of coppice, and one acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Meuni.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Meuni quam tenuit Aluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt

Colrige.

Idem Odo tenet de Iudhel Colrige. Edmer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi sunt ii bordarii et xxx acræ siluæ minutæ. Valet xv denarios. Olim uastata est.—Exch. D. 109 (4); 20b.

The same Odo holds of Judhel Colrige. Edmer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There are two bordars and thirty acres of coppice. It is worth fifteen pence. Formerly it was waste.

Contone.

Stefanus tenet de Iudhel Contone. Osulf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida et una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis quæ ibi sunt et ii serui et vi uillani et iiii bordarii et una acra prati et xx acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (4); 20b.

Stephen holds of Judhel Contone. Osulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs, which are there, and two serfs, and six villeins, and four bordars, and one acre of meadow, and twenty acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty shillings.

Mewi.

Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Mewi. Aluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et ii arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Willelmus de Iuhello. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam. Ibi habet Willelmus ii bordarios et i seruum et ix animalia et x porcos et xx oues et dimidiam leugam nemusculi et ii agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et ii quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet per annum vii solidos et vi denarios et quando I [uhello] recepit v solidos.—Exon. D. (329) 308.

Juhel has a manor called Meuui, which Aluuard held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. William holds this of Juhel. Of it William has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate. There William has two bordars, and one serf, and nine head of cattle, and ten swine, and twenty sheep, and half a leuga of coppice, and two acres of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth; and it is worth by the year seven shillings and sixpence, and it was worth five shillings when Juhel received it.

Meuui.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Meuui quam tenuit Aluwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Torgicus de Iuhello. Inde habet Torgicus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Torgicus <sup>oues</sup> iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et vii porc et iiii quadragenarias nemoris et v quadragenarias pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (329b) 308.

Juhel has a manor called Meuui, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Torgie holds this of Juhel. Of it Torgie has in demesne half a virgate, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Torgie has three villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and seven sheep, and four furlongs of wood, and five furlongs of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Juhel received it.

Meuui.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Meuui quam tenuit Eduuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et dimidia. Has bordarii et ii acræ prati et dimidia acra siluæ minutæ. Pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et ii quarentenæ latitudine. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet vii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 109 (4); 20b.

William holds of Judhel Mewi. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one serf, and two bordars, and two acres of meadow, and half an acre of coppice. Pasture half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth seven shillings and sixpence.

Mewi.

Torgis tenet de Iudhel Mewi. Aluwinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et iii uillani et ii bordarii et v quarentenæ pasturæ et iiii quarentenæ siluæ. Olim v solidos. Modo x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (4); 20b.

Torgis holds of Judhel Mewi. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one serf, and three villeins, and two bordars, and five furlongs of pasture, and four furlongs of wood. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Mewi.

Turgis tenet de Iudhel Mewi. Eduuard tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi iiii uillani et ii possunt arare .iiii carrucæ. Has tenet Torgicus de Iuhello. Inde habet Torgicus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Torgicus .iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et ii seruos et xx oues et v quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et ii quadragenarias in latitudine et iii agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et latitudine et reddit per annum xxx solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat xv solidos.—Exon. D. (329b) 308.

Juhel has a manor called Meuui, which Edward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and a half. These can be ploughed by four ploughs. Torgic holds these of Juhel. Of them Torgic has in demesne half a virgate, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough and a half. There Torgic has four villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, and twenty sheep, and a wood five furlongs in length and two furlongs in breadth, and three acres of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and half a leuga in breadth; and it renders by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth fifteen shillings when Juhel received it.

Meuui.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Meuui quam tenuit Osolfus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Nigellus de Iuhello. Inde habet Nigellus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Nigellus i uillanum et i bordarium et iii agros prati et reddit per annum x solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (329b) 309.

Juhel has a manor called Meuui, which Osolf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. Nigel holds this of Juhel. Of it Nigel has in demesne half a virgate, and the villeins have half a virgate and half a plough. There Nigel has one villein, and one bordar, and three acres of meadow; and it renders by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Juhel received it.

Sirefort.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Sirefort quam tenuit Alebricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt bordarii et ii serui cum i caruca et dimidia. Ibi iii acræ prati et dimidia leuua pasturæ. Silua v quarentenæ longitudine et ii quarentenæ latitudine. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (4); 20b.

Turgis holds of Judhel Mewi. Edward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and a half. There is land for four ploughs. There are four villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, with one plough and a half. There are three acres of meadow and half a leuga of pasture. A wood five furlongs in length and two furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Mewi.

Nigel tenet de Iudhel Mewi. Osulf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi est dimidia caruca cum i uillano et i bordario et iii acris prati. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (4); 20b.

Nigel holds of Judhel Mewi. Osulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There is half a plough, with one villein, and one bordar, and three acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Sireford.

Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Sireford. Alebric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et iiii arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Willelmus de Iuhello. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus iiii uillanos et vi bordarios et ii seruos et i animal et lx oues et ii agros prati et i agrum moræ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (329b) 309.

Juhel has a manor called Sirefort, which Alebric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. William holds this of Juhel. Of it William has in demeene one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There William has four villeins, and six bordars, and two serfs, and one head of cattle, and sixty sheep, and two acres of meadow, and one acre of moor; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Chichelesberia.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Chichelesberia quam tenuit Ailricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Willelmus de Iuhello. Ibi habet Willelmus ii quadragenarias nemusculi in longitudine et dimidiam quadragenariam in latitudine et ualet per annum xii denarios et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (330) 309.

Juhel has a manor called Chichelesberia, which Ailric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. William holds this of Juhel. There William has coppice two furlongs in length and half a furlong in breadth; and it is worth by the year twelve pence, and it was worth five shillings when Juhel received it.

Oluienetona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Oluienetona quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Will[elmu]s de Iuhello. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio i uirgam et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus iii uillanos et iiii bordarios et dimidiam agrum prati et ii quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et latitudine et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat iiii solidos.—Exon. D. (330) 309.

uillani et vi bordarii et ii acra prati et una acra moræ.
Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (4); 20b.

William holds of Judhel Sireford. Alebric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, and two serfs, and four villeins, and six bordars, and two acres of meadow, and one acre of moor. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Chichelesberie.

Idem Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Chichelesberie. Ailric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi silua minuta ii quarentenæ longitudine et dimidia quarentena latitudine. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet xii denarios.—Exch. D. 109 (4); 20b.

The same William holds of Judhel Chichelesberie. Ailric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There is coppice two furlongs in length and half a furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth twelve pence.

Vluebetone.

Idem Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Vluevetone. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi iiii uillani et iiii bordarii habent dimidiam carucam et ibi dimidia acra prati et ii quarentenæ pasturæ. Olim iiii solidos. Modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (4); 20b.

Juhel has a manor called Oluieuetona, which Aluric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. William holds this of Juhel. Of it William has in demesne one virgate, and the villeins have one virgate and half a plough. There William has three villeins, and four bordars, and half an acre of meadow, and pasture two furlongs in length and breadth; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth four shillings when Juhel received it.

Brisestona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Brisestona quam tenuit Seduvinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Will[elmus] de Iuhello. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus iiii uillanos et v bordarios et i animal et lxxx oues et i agrum prati et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (330) 309.

Juhel has a manor called Brisestona, which Sedwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. William holds this of Juhel. Of it William has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There William has four villeins, and five bordars, and one head of cattle, and eighty sheep, and one acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Brisestona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Brisestona quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Will[elmus] de Iuhello. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio i uirgam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus iiii uillanos et v bordarios et i agrum prati et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (330b) 309.

Juhel has a manor called Brisestone, which Aluric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. William holds this of Juhel. Of it William has in demesne one virgate, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There

The same William holds of Judhel Vluevetone. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There four villeins and four bordars have half a plough, and there is half an acre of meadow and two furlongs of pasture. Formerly it was worth four shillings. Now it is worth five shillings.

Brisestone.

Idem Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Brisestone. Seduin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iiii uillani et v bordarii et una acra prati. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (4); 20b.

The same William holds of Judhel Brisestone. Sedwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, and four villeins, and five bordars, and one acre of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifteen shillings.

Brisestone.

Idem Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Brisestone. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi iiii uillani et v bordarii habent i carucam et i acram prati. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (4); 20b.

The same William holds of Judhel Brisestone. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There are four villeins and five bordars, having one plough and one acre of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

William has four villeins, and five bordars, and one acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Dona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Dona quam tenuit Alebricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii ferdinis. Hos possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Will[elmus] de Iuhello. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio i ferdinum et dimidiam et i carrucam et uillani i ferdinum et dimidiam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus iiii uillanos et i seruum et xc oues et xii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (330b) 309.

Juhel has a manor called Done, which Alebric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three ferdings. These can be ploughed by three ploughs. William holds this of Juhel. Of them William has in demesne one ferding and a half and one plough, and the villeins have one ferding and a half and one plough. There William has four villeins, and one serf, and ninety sheep, and twelve acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Stotescoma.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Stotescoma quam tenuit Alebricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Will[elmus] de Iuhello. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam. Ibi habet Willelmus i uillanum et i bordarium et ii animalia et i porcum et xii oues et ii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et i quadragenariam in latitudine et dimidiam agram prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum vii solidos et vi denarios et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (330b) 310.

Juhel has a manor called Stotescome, which Alebric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. William holds this of Juhel. Of it William has in demesne half a virgate and half a plough, and the villeins have half a virgate. There William has one villein, and one bordar, and two head of cattle, and one swine, and twelve sheep, and a wood two furlongs

Done.

Idem Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Done. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iiii ferlings terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ cum i seruo et iiii uillanis et xii acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 109 (4) ; 20*b*.

The same William holds of Judhel Done. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three ferlings of land. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, with one serf, and four villeins, and twelve acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifteen shillings.

Stotescome.

Idem Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Stotescome. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i uillano et i bordario et dimidia acra prati et xx acris pasturæ. Silua ii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet vii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 109 (4) ; 20*b*.

The same William holds of Judhel Stotescome. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one villein, and one bordar, and half an acre of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. A wood two furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth seven shillings and six pence.

in length and one furlong in breadth, and half an acre of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year seven shillings and six pence, and it was worth five shillings when Juhel received it.

Estotdona.

Juhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Estotdona quam tenuit Aluvinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Will[elmus] de Iuhello. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et uillani dimidiam uirgam. Ibi habet Willelmus i bordarium et i quadragenariam nemoris in longitudine et dimidiam in latitudine et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Juhellus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (331) 310.

Juhel has a manor called Estotdona, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. William holds this of Juhel. Of it William has in demesne half a virgate, and the villeins half a virgate. There William has one bordar, and wood one furlong in length and half in breadth, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Bristrichestona.

Juhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bristrichestona quam tenuit Elmerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et vii porcos et xxi oues et ii agros prati et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et tantundem quando recepit.—Exon. D. (331) 310.

Juhel has a manor called Bristrichestona, which Elmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Radulf holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins half a virgate and one plough. There Radulf has four villeins, and two bordars, and seven swine, and twenty-one sheep, and two acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when [Juhel] received it.

Stotdone.

Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Stotdone. Aluuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est unus bordario et xx acræ pasturæ. Silua i quarentena longitudine et dimidia quarentena latitudine. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

William holds of Judhel Stotdone. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one bordar and twenty acres of pasture. Wood one furlong in length and half a furlong in breadth. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

Brictricestone.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Brictricestone. Elmer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et iiii uillani et ii bordarii et ii acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

Radulf holds of Judhel Brictricestone. Elmer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, and four villeins, and two bordars, and two acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Bachemora.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bachemora quam tenuit Ealous ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus iiii uillanos et iii bordarios et ii animalia et xxviii oues et xx agros nemusculi et iiii agros prati et i leugam pascuæ in longitudine et dimidiam in latitudine.—Exon. D. (331) 310.

Juhel has a manor called Bachemora, which Elous held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Radulf holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins one virgate and two ploughs. There Radulf has four villeins, and three bordars, and two head of cattle, and twenty-eight sheep, and twenty acres of coppice, and four acres of meadow, and pasture a leuga in length and half in breadth.

Bachemora.

Huic mansioni est alia addita quæ uocatur Bachemora quam tenuit Sericus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et hae ii mansiones reddiderunt gildum pro dimidia hida et ualent per annum xx solidos.—Exon. D. (331) 310.

To this manor another Bachemora is joined, which Sericus held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and these two manors rendered geld for half a hide, and they are worth by the year twenty shillings.

Waleforda.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem-quæ uocatur Waleforda quam tenuit Halebrix ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet W[illelmus] de Iuhello. Inde habet W. in dominio i ferling et dimidiam carrucam et uillani i ferling. Ibi habet Willelmus i uillanum et i bordarium et ii porcos et ii quadragenarias in longitudine nemoris et i quadragenariam in latitudine et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (331b) 310.

Bachemore.

Idem Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Bachemore. Elous tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucæ. In dominio est i caruca et iiii uillani et iii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi iiii acræ prati et xx acræ siluæ minutæ et pastura una leuca longitudine et dimidia leuca latitudine.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

The same Ralph holds of Judhel Bachemore. Elous held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and four villeins, and three bordars, with one plough. There are four acres of meadow, and twenty acres of coppice, and pasture one leuga in length and half a leuga in breadth.

Bachemore.

Huic manerio est addita alia Bachemore. Serio tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi. Hæ ii terræ simul geldebant pro dimidia hida. Valent xx solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

To this manor is joined another Bachemore. Serio held it in the time of king Edward. These two lands together paid geld for half a hide. They are worth twenty shillings.

Waliforde.

Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Waliforde. Alebric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i caruca. Ibi est dimidia caruca cum i uillano et uno bordario. Silua ii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim et modo ualet v solidos. Exch. D. 110 (1); 21.

Juhel has a manor called Waleforda, which Halebrix held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. William holds this of Juhel. In demesne William has one ferling and half a plough, and the villeins have one ferling. There William has one villein, and one bordar, and two swine, and wood two furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Honelanda.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Honelanda quam tenuerunt ii tanni [sic] Halebrix et Algardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum / pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam uirgam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam. Ibi habet Radulfus i uillanum et i bordarium et viii agros nemoris et ii agros prati et ualet per annum v solidos et quando I[uhellus] recepit ualet x solidos.—Exon. D. (331b) 310.

Juhel has a manor which is called Honelanda, which was held by two thegns, Halebrix and Algard, on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Radulf holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulf has in demesne half a virgate, and the villeins have half a virgate. There Radulf has one villein, and one bordar, and eight acres of wood, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Juhel received it.

Langadona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Langadona quam tenuit Hecus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Waldinus de Iuhello. Inde habet Waldinus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Waldinus iiii uillanos et iiii bordarios et i seruum et ii animalia et i porcum et lxxxiii oues et ii agros prati et iiii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et tantundem quando Iuhellus recepit.—Exon. D. (331b) 310.

Juhel has a manor called Langadona, which Hecus held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs.

William holds of Judhel Waliforde. Alebric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There is half a plough, with one villein, and one bordar. Wood two furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

Hovelande.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Hovelande. Alebrix et Algar tenebant tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i uillanus et i bordarius et ii acræ prati et viii acræ siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

Radulf holds of Judhel Hovelande. Alebrix and Algar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. One villein is there, and one bordar, and there are two acres of meadow, and eight acres of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth five shillings.

Langedone.

Waldinus tenet de Iudhel Langedone. Heche tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et iiii uillani et iii bordarii et ii acræ prati et iiii acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 100 (1); 21a.

Waldin holds of Judhel Langedone. Heche held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and there are four villeins, Waldin holds this of Juhel. Of this Waldin has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins one virgate and one plough. There Waldin has four villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and two head of cattle, and one swine, and eighty-four sheep, and two acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Langadona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Langadona quam tenuit Goda ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Waldinus de Iuhello. Inde habet Waldinus in dominio i uirgam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Waldinus iiii uillanos et iii bordarios et ii agros prati et vi agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et tantundem quando Iuhello recepit.—Exon. D. (332) 311.

Juhel has a manor called Langadona, which Goda held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Waldin holds this of Juhel. Of this Waldin has in demesne one virgate, and the villeins one virgate and one plough. There Waldin has four villeins, and three bordars, and two acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Coltrestan.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Coltrestan quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Torgicus de Iuhello. Inde habet Torgicus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet W. iii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et v animalia et x porcos et xl oues et xxii capras et xiiii agros nemoris et iiii agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et ii quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet per annum x solidos et tantundem quando Iuhellus recepit.—Exon. D. (332) 311.

Juhel has a manor called Coltrestan, which Aluric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Torgic holds this of Juhel. Of this Torgic has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins one virgate and one and three bordars, and two acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Langedone.

Waldinus tenet de Iudhel Langedone. Gode tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi iiii uillani et iii bordarii habent i carucam. Ibi ii acrae prati et vi acrae pasturae. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

Waldin holds of Judhel Langedone. Goda held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There are four villeins and three bordars, having one plough. There are two acres of meadow and six acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Coltrestan.

Torgis tenet de Iudhel Coltrestan. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ cum i seruo et iii uillani et ii bordarii et iiii acrae prati et dimidia et xiii acrae siluæ. Pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et ii quarentenæ latitudine. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

Torgis holds of Judhel Coltrestan. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, with one serf, and three villeins, and two bordars, and four acres of meadow and a half, and fourteen acres of wood. Pasture half a leuca in length

Waldin holds this of Juhel. Of this Waldin has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins one virgate and one plough. There Waldin has four villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and two head of cattle, and one swine, and eighty-four sheep, and two acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Langadona.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Langadona quam tenuit Goda ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Waldinus de Iuhello. Inde habet Waldinus in dominio i uirgam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Waldinus iiii uillanos et iii bordarios et ii agros prati et vi agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et tantundem quando Iuhello recepit.—Exon. D. (332) 311.

Juhel has a manor called Langadona, which Goda held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Waldin holds this of Juhel. Of this Waldin has in demesne one virgate, and the villeins one virgate and one plough. There Waldin has four villeins, and three bordars, and two acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Coltrestan.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Coltrestan quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Torgicus de Iuhello. Inde habet Torgicus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet W. iii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et v animalia et x porcos et xl oues et xxii capras et xiiii agros nemoris et iiii agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et ii quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet per annum x solidos et tantundem quando Iuhellus recepit.—Exon. D. (332) 311.

Juhel has a manor called Coltrestan, which Aluric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Torgic holds this of Juhel. Of this Torgic has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins one virgate and one and three bordars, and two acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Langedone.

Waldinus tenet de Iudhel Langedone. Gode tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi iiii uillani et iii bordarii habent i carucam. Ibi ii acræ prati et vi acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

Waldin holds of Judhel Langedone. Goda held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There are four villeins and three bordars, having one plough. There are two acres of meadow and six acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Coltrestan.

Torgis tenet de Iudhel Coltrestan. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ cum i seruo et iii uillani et ii bordarii et iiii acræ prati et dimidia et xiii acræ siluæ. Pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et ii quarentenæ latitudine. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

Torgis holds of Judhel Coltrestan. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, with one serf, and three villeins, and two bordars, and four acres of meadow and a half, and fourteen acres of wood. Pasture half a leuga in length plough. There W. has three villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and five head of cattle, and ten swine, and forty sheep, and twenty-two goats, and fourteen acres of wood, and pasture half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Fernehilla.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Fernehilla quam tenuit Aluwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i ferdino. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Torgicus de Iuhello. Inde habet Torgicus in dominio ii partes illius ferdini et uillanus tertiam partem ferdini. Ibi habet Torgicus i uillanum qui habet i bouem in carrucam et x agros nemoris et i agrum prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et ii quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet per annum iii solidos et quando Iuhellum recepit tantundem.—Exm. D. (332) 311.

Juhel has a manor called Fernehilla, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling. This can be ploughed by one plough. Torgic holds this of Juhel. Of this Torgic has in demesne two parts of that ferling, and the villein the third part. There Torgic has one villein, who has one ox for the plough, and ten acres of wood, and one acre of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth; and it is worth by the year three shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Pidehel.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Pidehel quam tenuit Alebricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i ferdino. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Torgicus de Iuhello. Inde habet Torgicus in dominio dimidium ferdinum et uillani dimidium ferdinum et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Torgicus ii uillanos et ii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et dimidiam quadragenariam in latitudine et dimidium agrum prati et ualet per annum iiii solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat ii solidos.—Exon. D. (332b) 311.

Juhel has a manor called Pidehel, which Alebric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling. This can be ploughed by one plough. Torgic holds this of Juhel. Of this Torgic has in demesne half a and two furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Fernehelle.

Idem Turgis tenet de Iudhel Fernehelle. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi est unus uillanus et i acra prati et x acræ siluæ. Pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et ii quarentenæ latitudine. Olim et modo ualet iii solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

The same Turgis holds of Judhel Fernehelle. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling. There is land for one plough. One villein is there, and one acre of meadow, and ten acres of wood. Pasture half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth three shillings.

Pidehel.

Idem Turgis tenet de Iudhel Pidehel. Alebric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi ii uillani habent dimidiam carucam et dimidia acra prati. Silua ii quarentenæ longitudine et dimidia quarentena latitudine. Olim ii solidos. Modo ualet ii solidas.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

The same Turgis holds of Judhel Pidehel. Alebric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling. There is land for one plough. Two villeins are there, having half a plough, and there is half an acre of meadow. Wood two furlongs in ferling, and the villeins have half a ferling and half a plough. There Torgic has two villeins, and wood two furlongs in length and half a furlong in breadth, and half an acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year four shillings, and it was worth two shillings when Juhel received it.

Escaga.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Escaga quam tenuit Alebricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca et dimidia. Hanc tenet Torgicus de Iuhello. Inde habet Torgicus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Torgicus iii uillanos et i bordarium et i seruum et xxxviii oues et dimidium agrum prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et iiii quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet per annum x solidos et tantundem quando Iuhellus recepit.—Exon. D. (332b) 312.

Juhel has a manor called Escaga, which Alebric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough and a half. Torgic holds this of Juhel. Of this Torgic has in demesne half a virgate, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Torgic has three villeins, and one bordar, and one serf, and thirty-eight sheep, and half an acre of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and four furlongs in breadth; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Escaga.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Escaga quam tenuit Alebricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca et dimidia. Hanc tenet Torgicus de Iuhello. Inde habet Torgicus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Torgicus iiii uillanos et i bordarium et v agros nemoris et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et iiii quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet per annum x solidos et tantundem quando Iuhellus recepit.—Exon. D. (332b) 312.

Juhel has a manor called Escaga, which Alebric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough and a half. Torgic holds this of Juhel. Of this Torgic has in demesne half a length and half a furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth two shillings. Now it is worth two shillings.

Scege.

Idem Turgis tenet de Iudhel Scege. Alebric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ et dimidiæ. Ibi iii uillani cum i bordario et i seruo habent i carucam. Ibi dimidia acra prati et pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et iiii quarentenæ latitudine. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

The same Turgis holds of Judhel Scege. Alebric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough and a half. Three villeins are there, with one bordar, and one serf, and they have one plough. There is half an acre of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and four furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Scege.

Idem Turgis tenet de Iudhel Scege. Alebric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ et dimidiæ. Ibi iiii uillani cum i bordario habent i carucam. Ibi v acra siluæ et pastura iiii quarentenæ latitudine et dimidia leuca longitudine. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

The same Turgis holds of Judhel Scege. Alebric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough and a half. There are four villeins, with one bordar, and they have one plough. There are five acres virgate, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Torgic has four villeins, and one bordar, and five acres of wood, and pasture half a leuga in length and four furlongs in breadth; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Torix.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Torix quam tenuit Alebrix ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus ii uillanos et i bordarium et i seruum et v animalia et vi porcos et x oues et xviii capras et viii agros nemusculi et i agrum prati et xii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (333) 312.

Juhel has a manor called Torix, which Alebrix held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. Ralph holds this of Juhel. Of this Ralph has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and half a plough. There Ralph has two villeins, and one bordar, and one serf, and five head of cattle, and six swine, and ten sheep, and eighteen goats, and eight acres of coppice, and one acre of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Juhel received it.

Lochetora.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lochetora quam tenuit Alebrix ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet habet R[adulfus]* de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus v uillanos et iii bordarios et i seruum et iii animalia et vii oues et v agros nemoris et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xii solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (333) 312.

* Initial only.

of wood, and pasture four furlongs in breadth and half a leuga in length. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Torix.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Torix. Alebrix tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi tamen est caruca et dimidia cum i seruo et ii uillanis et i bordario et i acra prati et xii acræ pasturæ et viii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

Radulf holds of Judhel Torix. Alebrix held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. Nevertheless there is a plough and a half, with one serf, and two villeins, and one bordar, and one acre of meadow, and there are twelve acres of pasture, and eight acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Lochetore.

Idem Radulfus de Iudhel tenet Lochetore. Alebrix tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia cum i seruo et v uillanis et iii bordariis et xxx acræ pasturæ et v acræ siluæ. Olim et modo xii solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

Juhel has a manor called Lochetora, which Alebrix held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. R[adulf] holds this of Juhel. Of it Radulph has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and half a plough. There Radulph has five villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and three head of cattle, and seven sheep, and five acres of wood, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twelve shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

Lega.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lega quam tenuit Alebrix ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i ferlino. Hanc potest arare i carruca et dimidia. Hanc tenet R[adulfus] de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus dimidium ferlinum in dominio et uillani dimidium ferling et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus iii uillanos et x agros nemusculi, et i agrum prati et dimidium et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum iii solidos et quando recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (333) 312.

Juhel has a manor called Lege, which Alebrix held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling. This can be ploughed by one plough and a half. R[adulf] holds this of Juhel. Of this Radulf has in demesne half a ferling, and the villeins have half a ferling and half a plough. There Radulf has three villeins, and ten acres of coppice, and one acre and a half of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year three shillings, and it was worth as much when [Juhel] received it.

Odeforda.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Odeforda quam tenuit Elmerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio. Ibi habet Radulfus ii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et i salinam et i piscatoriam et iii quadragenarias in longitudine nemoris et i quadragenariam in latitudine et i agrum prati.—Exon. D. (333b) 312.

Juhel has a manor called Odeforda, which Elmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs.

The same Radulf holds of Judhel Lochetore. Alebrix held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough and a half, with one serf, and five villeins, and three bordars, and there are thirty acres of pasture, and five acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twelve shillings.

Lege.

Idem Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Lege. Alebrix tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling. Terra est i carucæ et dimidiæ. Ibi iii uillani habent dimidiam carucam et una acra prati et dimidia et xxx acræ pasturæ et x acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet iii solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

The same Radulf holds of Judhel Lege. Alebrix held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling. There is land for one plough and a half. There are three villeins, having half a plough, and of meadow there is one acre and a half, and there are thirty acres of pasture, and ten acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth three shillings.

Odeford.

Radulfus tenet de Iudhel Odeford. Elmer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et ii uillani et ii bordarii et i acra prati et una salina et una piscaria. Silua iii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

Radulf holds of Judhel Odeford. Elmer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one serf, and there are Ralph holds this of Juhel. Of this Ralph has in demesne one virgate and one plough. There Ralph has two villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and one saltwork, and one fishery, and wood three furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth, and one acre of meadow.

Odeforda.

Huic mansioni est alia addita quæ uocatur Odeforda quam tenuit Albrix ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet R[adulfus] de Iuhello. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio i uirgam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus iii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et i leugam in longitudine pascuæ et dimidiam leugam in latitudine. Hæ mansiones ualent per annum xl solidos.—Exon. D. (333b) 313.

To this manor is joined another Odeforda, which Albrix held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. R[adulf] holds this of Juhel. Of this Radulf has in demesne one virgate, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Radulf has three villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and pasture a leuga in length and half a leuga in breadth. These manors are worth by the year forty shillings.

Ho.

Iuhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ho quam tenuit Alebrix ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ et dimidia. Hanc tenet Stephanus de Iuhello. Inde habet Stephanus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Stephanus vi uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et iiii animalia et xl oues et v agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (334) 311.

Juhel has a manor called Ho, which Alebrix held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs and a half. Stephen holds this of Juhel. Of this Stephen has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Stephen has six villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and four head of cattle, and forty sheep, and five acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when Juhel received it.

two villeins, and two bordars, and one acre of meadow, and one saltwork, and one fishery. Wood three furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth.

Odeford.

Huic addita est alia Odeford. Alebrix tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi iii uillani et ii bordarii cum i seruo habent i carucam. Pastura i leuca longitudine et dimidia leuca latitudine. Hæ ii terræ ualent xl solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21a.

To this is joined another Odeford. Alebrix held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. Three villeins are there, and two bordars, with one serf, and they have one plough. Pasture one leuga in length and half a leuga in breadth. These two lands are worth forty shillings.

Ho.

Stefanus tenet de Iudhel Ho. Alebrix tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et vi uillani et ii bordarii et v acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21b.

Stephen holds of Judhel Ho. Alebrix held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and there are six villeins, and two bordars, and five acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Hagawila.

Juhellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hagawila quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Willelmus de Iuhello. Inde habet Willelmus i uirgam et dimidiam carrucam in dominio et uillanus i uirgam. Ibi habet Willelmus i uillanum et iii bordarios et i seruum et xx oues et ii agros nemoris et ii agros prati et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Iuhellus recepit ualebat xii solidos.—Exon. D. (334) 313.

Juhel has a manor called Hagawila, which Aluric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hida. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. William holds this of Juhel. Of this William has in demesne one virgate and half a plough, and the villein one virgate. There William has one villein, and three bordars, and one serf, and twenty sheep, and two acres of wood, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth twelve shillings when Juhel received it.

Hagewille.

Willelmus tenet de Iudhel Hagewile. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi dimidia caruca cum i seruo et i uillano et iii bordarii et ii acræ prati et ii acræ siluæ. Olim xii solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21b.

William holds of Judhel Hagewile. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There is half a plough, with one serf, and one villein, and there are three bordars, and two acres of meadow, and two acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twelve shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Terra Willelmi de Moione.

Clehangra.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Clehangra quam tenuit Oltredus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgatis et iii ferdinis et dimidio. Has possunt arare v carrucæ. Has tenet Robertus de Willelmo. Inde habet Robertus in dominio ii uirgas et ii carrucas et uillani i uirgam et iii ferdinos et dimidium et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Robertus v uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et vii porcos et lxxv oues et iii agros nemusculi et xii agros prati et xii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat xxx solidos.—Exon. D. (356) 334.

The Land of William of Moione.

William has a manor called Clehangra, which Oltred held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates and three ferlings and a half. These can be ploughed by five ploughs. Robert holds these of William. Of these Robert has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and three ferlings and a half and two ploughs. There Robert has five villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and seven swine, and sixty-five sheep, and three acres of coppice, and twelve acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth thirty shillings when William received it.

XVIII. Terra Willelmi de Moion.

Clehangre.

Willelmus de Moion tenet de rege Clehangre et Robertus de eo. Uctred tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii uirgatis terra et iii ferlings et dimidio. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et v uillani et iii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi xii acræ prati et xii acræ pasturæ et iii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim xxx solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (2); 21b.

XVIII. The Land of William of Moion.

William of Moion holds Clehangre of the king, and Robert of him. Uctred held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates and three ferlings and a half of land. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and five villeins, and three bordars, with two ploughs. There are twelve acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture, and three acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth thirty shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Terra Willelmi Caprae in Debenesitra.

Essecestra.

Willelmus habet in Essecestra ii domus quæ reddebant tempore Eduuardi regis xvi denarios per annum de consuetudine.—Exon. D. (406) 378.

Land of William Capra in Devonshire.

William has two houses in Exeter, which in the time of king Edward rendered by custom sixteen pence by the year.

Fereurdi.

Willelmus Capra habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Fereurdi quam tenuit Godricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca quæ ibi est. Ibi habet Willelmus ii seruos et x animalia et xl oues et x agros prati et xx agros pascuæ. Hæc mansio reddit xx solidos per annum et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (399) 371.

William Capra has a manor called Fereurdi, which Godric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough, which is there. There William has two serfs, and two head of cattle, and forty sheep, and ten acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. This manor renders twenty shillings by the year; and it was worth ten shillings when William received it.

Esastapla.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Esastapla quam tenuit Godricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Et modo tenet eam Anschetillus de Willelmo. Hæc ualet v solidos per annum. Quando Willelmus recepit eam ualebat vii solidos.—Exon. D. (399) 371.

William has a manor called Esastapla, which Godric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. And now Anschetel holds it of William. This is worth five

XIX. Terra Willelmi Chiebre.

Excestre.

Willelmus Chieure habet in Excestre ii domus quæ reddebant tempore regis Eduuardi xvi denarios per annum de consuetudine.—Exch. D. 110 (1); 21*b*.

Land of William Chiebre.

William Chiebre has in Exeter two houses, which rendered by custom in the time of king Edward sixteen pence annually.

Ferevrde.

Ipse Willelmus tenet de rege Ferevrde. Godric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est et ii serui et x acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (2); 21*b*.

William himself holds of the king Ferevrde. Godric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough, which is there, and there are two serfs, and ten acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Essastaple.

Anschitil tenet de Willelmo Essastaple. Godric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia uirgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Olim vii solidos. Modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (2); 21*b*.

Anschitil holds Essastaple of William. Godric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough. Formerly it was worth seven shillings. Now it is worth five shillings.

shillings by the year; and it was worth seven shillings when William received it.

Poteforda.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Poteforda quam tenuerant ii tegni pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Godricus habuit inde dimidiam uirgam et Rewruinus dimidiam uirgam. Hanc terram possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Et modo tenet eam Anschetillus de Willelmo. Ibi habet Anschetillus i carrucam in dominio et i uillanum et i seruum et viii animalia et v porcos et xx oues et x agros prati et x agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet vii solidos et vi denarios et quando Willelmus recepit eam ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (399) 371.

William has a manor called Poteforda, which was held by two thegns in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. Of this Godric had half a virgate, and Rewrin half a virgate. This land can be ploughed by four ploughs. And now Anschetill holds this of William. There Anschetill has one plough in demesne, and one villein, and one serf, and seven head of cattle, and five swine, and twenty sheep, and ten acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture. This is worth seven shillings and six pence; and it was worth twenty shillings when William received it.

Huneseua.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Huneseua quam tenuit Aluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare x carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus i uirgam et iiii carrucas in dominio et uillani iiii uirgas et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus xii uillanos et v seruos et ii porcarios qui reddunt xx porcos et x animalia et c oues et xxx capras et xxx agros nemoris et x agros prati et i leugam pascuæ in longitudine et dimidiam in latitudine. Hæc ualet iiii libras et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (399b) 371.

William has a manor called Huneseva, which Alward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Of it William has in demesne one virgate and three ploughs, and the villeins three virgates and four ploughs. There William has twelve villeins, and five serfs, and two swineherds who render twenty swine, and ten head of cattle, and a hundred sheep, and thirty Potsforde.

Anschitil tenet de Willelmo Potsforde. Duo taini [par' for paragio in margin] tenebant tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et i uillano et x acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet vii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 110 (2); 21*b*.

Anschitil holds Potsforde of William. Two thegns held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and one villein, and there are ten acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth seven shillings and six pence.

Hvnesewe.

Iipse Willelmus tenet Hvnesewe. Aluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est x carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et v serui et xii uillani cum iiii carucis et ii porcarii reddentes xx porcos et x acræ prati et xxx acræ siluæ. Pastura i leuca longitudine et dimidia leuca latitudine. Olim et modo ualet iiii libras.—Exch. D. 110 (2); 21*b*.

William himself holds Honesewe. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and five serfs, and twelve villeins, with four ploughs, and two swineherds returning twenty swine, and ten acres of meadow, and thirty acres of wood. Pasture one leuga in length and half a leuga in breadth. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth four pounds.

goats, and thirty acres of wood, and ten acres of meadow, and pasture one leuga in length and half a leuga in breadth. This is worth four pounds; and it was worth as much when William received it.

Leia.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Leia quam tenuit Aluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Hanc tenet Anschetillus de Willelmo. Inde habet Anschetillus dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Anschetillus vi uillanos et ii seruos et viii animalia et vii porcos et l oues et i agrum nemoris et ii agros prati et xl agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xxv solidos et quando Willelmus recepit eam ualebat tantundem. Huic mansioni adjacet dimidia uirga terræ quam ita celataem regi qua non habuit rex gildum suum.—Exon. D. (399b) 371.

William has a manor called Leia, which Alward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Anschetill holds this of William. Of it Anschetill has in demeane half a virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have a virgate and a half and a plough and a half. There Anschetill has six villeins, and two serfs, and eight head of cattle, and seven swine, and fifty sheep, and one acre of wood, and two acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture. This is worth twenty-five shillings; and it was worth just as much when William received it. To this manor adjoins half a virgate of land so concealed from the king that the king does not have his geld.

Selingeforda.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Selingeforda quam tenuit Edmarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis i uirga minus. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio i hidam et i uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani i hidam et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus vi uillanos et ix bordarios et iiii seruos et xi animalia et lxxx oues et vi agros nemusculi et iiii agros prati et ualet per annum iiii libras et quando recepit ualebat iii libras.—Exon. D. (339b) 372.

William has a manor called Selingeforda, which Edmar held on the day when king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides less one virgate. These can be ploughed by

Lei.

Anschitil tenet de Willelmo Lei. Aluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et vi uillani cum i caruca et dimidia et ii acræ prati et una acra silua et xl acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xxv solidos.

Huic manerio addita est dimidia virgata terræ et celata est ita quod rex non habet inde geldum.—Exch. D. 110 (2); 21*b*.

Anschitil holds Lei of William. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and six villeins, with one plough and a half, and two acres of meadow, and one acre of wood, and forty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty-five shillings.

To this manor belongs half a virgate of land, and it is concealed so that the king does not have geld of it.

Selingeforde.

Ipsè Willelmus tenet Selingeforde. Edmar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis una virgata terræ minus. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucis et iiii serui et vi uillani et ix bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et vi acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim iii libras. Modo ualet iiii libras.—Exch. D. 110 (2); 21*a*.

William himself holds Selingeforde. Edmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides of land, less a virgate. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne are two eight ploughs. Of these William has in demesne one hide, and one virgate, and two ploughs, and the villeins one hide and three ploughs. There William has six villeins, and nine bordars, and four serfs, and nine head of cattle, and eighty sheep, and six acres of coppice, and four acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year four pounds, and it was worth three pounds when [William] received it.

Esseministra.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Esseministra. Hanc tenuit Wichinus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas et uillani dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus vi uillanos et ii bordarios et iiii seruos et i runcinum et c oues et vi agros prati * et vi agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando recepit xx solidos. —Exon. D. (399b, 401), 372, 375.

* This page of the original MS. has been displaced. In the printed edition of the Record Com. the words following are applied to Oteri, but they belong to this manor of Esseministra.

William has a manor called Esseministra, which Wichin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of it William has in demesne half a hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have half a hide and two ploughs. There William has six villeins, and two bordars, and four serfs, and one pack horse, and a hundred sheep, and six acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when [William] received it.

Matforda.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Matforda quam tenuit Wichinus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc potest arare i carrucam et Radulfus eam tenet de Willelmo. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio i ferdinum et dimidium et i carrucam et uillani dimidium ferdinum. Ibi habet Radulfus i bordarium et i seruum et ii animalia et lxii oues et iiii agros prati et iiii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum v solidos et quando recepit ualebāt tantundem. —Exon. D. (401) 373.

William has a manor called Matforda, which Wichin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough.

ploughs, and four serfs, and six villeins, and nine bordars, with three ploughs. There are four acres of meadow and six acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth three pounds. Now it is worth four pounds.

Esseminstre.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Esseminstre. Wichin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iiii serui et vi uillani et ii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi vi acræ prati et vi acræ pasturæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (2); 21b.

William himself holds Esseminstre. Wichin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and four serfs, and six villeins, and two bordars, with two ploughs. There are six acres of meadow and six acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Matford.

Radulfus tenet de Willelmo Matford. Wichin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est cum i seruo et i bordario. Ibi iii acræ prati et iiii acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (2); 21b.

Radulf holds of William Matford. Wichin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough, which is there, with one serf and one Radulf holds it of William. Of it Radulf has in demesne one ferling and a half and one plough, and the villeins half a ferling. There Radulf has one bordar, and one serf, and two head of cattle, and sixty-two sheep, and three acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when [William] received it.

Hacoma.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hacoma quam tenuit Otre ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Robertus de Willelmo. Inde habet Robertus in dominio i uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Robertus iiii uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et vi animalia et vi porcos et xl oues et xx capras et i salinam et i piscatoriam et ii agros prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (401) 373.

William has a manor called Hacoma, which Otre held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Robert holds this of William. Of it Robert has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Robert has four villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and six head of cattle, and six swine, and forty sheep, and twenty goats, and one saltwork, and one fishery, and two acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when William received it.

Welnecoma.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Welnecoma quam tenuit Eduuinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare x carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio i hidam et iiii carrucas et uillani i hidam et vi carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus xii uillanos et vii seruos et xvi animalia et xii porcos et ccc oues et v capras et xx agros nemusculi et ix agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xiii libras et xv solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (401) 373.

William has a manor called Wolnecome, which Edwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Of bordar. There are three acres of meadow and four acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

Hacome.

Robertus tenet de Willelmo Hacome. Otre tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et iiii uillani et iii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi ii acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ et una salina et una piscaria. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (2); 21*b*.

Robert holds Hacome of William. Otre held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and four villeins, and three bordars, with one plough. There are two acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture, and one salt-work, and one fishery. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Wolnecome.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Wolnecome. Eduin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est x carucis. In dominio sunt iiii carucæ et vii serui et xii uillani cum vi carucis. Ibi ix acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ et xx acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet xiii libras et xv solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (2); 21*b*.

William himself holds Wolnecome. Eduin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne are four ploughs, and seven serfs, it William has in demeane one hide and four ploughs, and the villeins have one hide and six ploughs. There William has twelve villeins, and seven serfs, and sixteen head of cattle, and twelve swine, and three hundred sheep, and five goats, and twenty acres of coppice, and nine acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirteen pounds and fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when [William] received it.

Bochelant.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bochelant quam tenuit Brestricus comesone ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio dimidiam hidam et iii carrucas et uillani dimidiam hidam et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus x uillanos et ii bordarios et v seruos et i runcinum et xii animalia et v porcos et c oues et xx capras et xv agros nemoris et i agram prati et lx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum iii libras et quando recepit <sup>xxx solidos</sup> ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (401b) 373.

William has a manor called Bochelant, which Brictric Comesone held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of it William has in demesne half a hide and three ploughs, and the villeins have half a hide and three ploughs. There William has ten villeins, and two bordars, and five serfs, and one packhorse, and twelve head of cattle, and five swine, and a hundred sheep, and twenty goats, and fifteen acres of wood, and one acre of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year three pounds, and it was worth as much [thirty shillings above] when [William] received it.

Bochelant.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bochelant quam tenuit Vlfus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Godefricus de Willelmo. Inde habet Godefricus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Godefricus iiii uillanos et i seruum et iiii animalia et ix oues et xxvi capras et v agros nemoris et i agram prati et l agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et tantundem quando recepit.—Exon. D. (401b) 374.

William has a manor called Bochelant, which Ulf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered and twelve villeins, with six ploughs. There are nine acres of meadow and thirty acres of pasture, and twenty acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirteen pounds and fifteen shillings.

Bocheland.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Bocheland. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et v serui et x uillani et ii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi i acra prati et lx acræ pasturæ et xv acræ siluæ. Olim xxx solidos. Modo ualet lx solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (2); 21*b*.

William himself holds Bocheland. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and five serfs, and ten villeins, and two bordars, with three ploughs. There are one acre of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture, and fifteen acres of wood. Formerly it was worth thirty shillings. Now it is worth sixty shillings.

Bocheland.

Godefridus tenet de Willelmo Bocheland. Vlf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et iiii uillanis. Ibi i acra prati et v acræ siluæ et l acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (3); 22*a*.

Godfrey holds Bocheland of William. Ulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Godfrey held this of William. Of it Godfrey has in demeane half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and two ploughs. There Godfrey has four villeins, and one serf, and three head of cattle, and nine sheep, and twenty-six goats, and five acres of wood, and one acre of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when [William] received it.

Essa.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Essa quam tenuit Eluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Willelmo. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus iiii uillanos et i bordarium et ii seruos et vii animalia et ix porcos et xxvi oues et iiii capras et xl agros nemusculi et iiii agros prati et xl agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et tantundem quando recepit.—Exon. D. (401b) 374.

William has a manor called Essa, which Elward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Radulf holds this of William. Of it Radulf has in demesne half a virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins half a virgate and one plough. There Radulf has three villeins, and one bordar, and two serfs, and seven head of cattle, and nine swine, and twenty-six sheep, and four goats, and forty acres of coppice, and three acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when [William] received it.

Contesberia.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Contesberia quam tenuit Ailmerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare x carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio i uirgam et iiii carrucas et uillani i uirgam et vi carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus xii uillanos et vi bordarios et xv seruos et i porcarium qui reddit per annum x porcos et i runcinum et xxxii animalia et xxiii porcos et ccc oues xiii minus et xxxv capras et l agros nemoris et ii agros prati et i leugam pascuæ in longitudine et i quadragenariam in latitudine et ualet per annum iiii libras et quando recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (402) 374.

is land for three ploughs, which are there, with one serf and four villeins. There are one acre of meadow, and five acres of wood, and fifty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Essa.

Radulfus tenet de Willelmo Essa. Eluardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt et ii serui et iii uillani cum i bordario. Ibi iii acræ prati et xl acræ pasturæ et xl acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (3); 22a.

Radulf holds Essa of William. Elward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for a virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, and two serfs, and three villeins, with one bordar. There are three acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture, and forty acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Contesberie.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Contesberie. Ailmer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est x carucis. In dominio sunt iiii carucæ et xv serui et xii uillani et vi bordarii cum vi carucis et unus porcarius reddens x porcos. Ibi ii acræ prati et l acræ siluæ. Pastura i leuca longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet iiii libras.—Exch. D. 110 (c); 22a.

William has a manor called Contesberia, which Ailmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Of it William has in demesne one virgate and four ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and six ploughs. There William has twelve villeins, and six bordars, and fifteen serfs, and one swineherd, who renders ten swine by the year, and one packhorse, and thirty-two head of cattle, and twenty-four swine, and three hundred sheep less thirteen, and thirty-five goats, and fifty acres of wood, and two acres of meadow, and pasture one leuga in length and one furlong in breadth; and it is worth by the year four pounds, and it was worth twenty shillings when [William] received it.

Lintona.

Incrintona.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lintona quam tenuit Ailuardus tochesone ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et cum ista mansione est addita quondam alia quæ uocatur Incrintona quam tenuit Algarus. Et istas tenet Willelmus pro i mansione et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare xii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio dimidiam hidam et v carrucas et uillani dimidiam hidam et vii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus xiii uillanos et i bordarium et xii seruos et lviii animalia et xxii porcos et cc oues et lxxv capras et lxxii equas siluestres et vii quadragenarias nemoris et ii leugas pascuæ in longitudine et dimidiam leugam in latitudine et Lintona ualet per annum iiii libras et Incrintona iii libras et quando recepit ualebat Lintona xx solidos et Incrintona xv solidos.—Exon. D. (402) 374.

William has a manor called Lintona, which Ailward Tochesone held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and with this manor was added formerly another called Incrintona, which Algar held. And these are held by William for one manor, and they rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of it William has in demesne half a hide and five ploughs, and the villeins have half a hide and seven ploughs. There William has thirteen villeins, and one bordar, and twelve serfs, and fifty-eight head of cattle, and twenty-two swine, and two hundred sheep, and seventy-five goats, and seventy-two brood mares, and wood seven furlongs, and pasture two leugas [sic] in length and half a leuga in breadth; and Lintona is worth by the year four pounds, and Incrintona three pounds, and Lintona was worth twenty shillings and Incrintona fifteen shillings when [William] received them.

William himself holds Contesberie. Ailmer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne are four ploughs, and fifteen serfs, and twelve villeins, and six bordars, with six ploughs, and a swineherd rendering ten swine. There are two acres of meadow and fifty acres of wood. Pasture one leuga in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth four pounds.

Lintone.

Crintone.

Iipse Willelmus tenet Lintone et Crintone pro uno manerio. Aluuardus et Algar tenebant tempore regis Eduuardi pro ii maneriis et geldabant pro i hida. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt v carucæ et xii serui et xiii uillani cum i bordario habent vii carucis. Ibi vii quarentenæ siluæ et pastura ii quarentenæ longitudine et dimidia leuua latitudine. Olim xxxv solidos. Modo vii libras ualet.—Exch. D. 110 (c); 22a.

William himself holds Lintone and Crintone as one manor. Alward and Algar held them in the time of king Edward as two manors, and they paid geld for one hide. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne are five ploughs, and twelve serfs, and thirteen villeins, with one bordar, having seven ploughs. There are seven furlongs of wood, and pasture two furlongs [sic] in length and half a leuga in breadth. Formerly it was worth thirty-five shillings. Now it is worth seven pounds.

Lina.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lina quam tenuit Algarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare vii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio i uirgam et dimidiam et ii carrucas et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam et v carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus viiii uillanos et v bordarios et v seruos et ii porcarios et reddit per annum xx porcos et xxxiii animalia et vii porcos et l oues et xii capras et i novum molendinum et dimidiam leugam nemoris in longitudine et ii quadragenarias in latitudine et ii leugas pascuæ in longitudine et dimidiam leugam in latitudine et ualet per annum iiii libras et quando recepit xl solidos.—Exon. D. (402b) 374.

William has a manor called Line, which Algar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by seven ploughs. Of it William has in demesne one virgate and a half and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and a half and five ploughs. There William has nine villeins, and five bordars, and five serfs, and two swineherds, who render by the year twenty swine, and thirty-three head of cattle, and seven swine, and fifty sheep, and twelve goats, and one new mill, and wood half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth, and pasture two leugas in length and half a leuga in breadth; and it is worth by the year four pounds and it was worth forty shillings when [William] received it.

Bicheordin.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bicheordin quæ addita est huic <sup>pro</sup> addictæ mansioni et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Fulcoidus de W. Inde habet Fulcoidus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillanus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Fulcoidus i uillanum et i seruum et i animali et iii porcos et xxiiii oues et viii capras et v agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit erat uastata. Has ii tenet Willelmus pro i mansione.—Exon. D. (402) 375.

William has a manor called Bicheordin, which is added to this before mentioned manor, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Fulcoid holds this of William. Of it Fulcoid has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and Line.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Line. Algar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est vii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et v serui et ix uillani et v bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi nouum molinum et pastura ii leucæ longitudine et dimidia leuca latitudine. Silua dimidia leuca longitudine et ii quarentenæ latitudine. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet iiii libras.—Exch. D. 110 (c); 22a.

William himself holds Line. Algar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for seven ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and five serfs, and nine villeins, and five bordars, with five ploughs. There is a new mill, and pasture two leugas in length and half a leuga in breadth. Wood half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth four pounds.

Bicheordin.

Fulcoldus tenet de Willelmo Bicheordin quæ addita est prædicto manerio Line. Tempore regis Eduuardi geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et uno uillano. Ibi v acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ. Valet x solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (c); 22a.

Fulcold holds Bicheordin of William, which is added to Line, the before-mentioned manor. In the time of king Edward it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one serf and one villein. There are five a villein has half a virgate and one plough. There Fulcoid has one villein, and one serf, and one head of cattle, and three swine, and twenty-four sheep, and eight goats, and five acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was waste when [William] received it. These two William holds as one manor.

Raordin.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Raordin quam tenuit Ailunardus Tochesone ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus viii uillanos et iiii seruos et x animalia et iiii porcos et l oues et i leugam nemoris in longitudine et i quadragenariam in latitudine et i agram prati et xl agros pascuæ et ualet per annum iii libras et quando recepit xv solidos.—Exon. D. (403b) 375.

William has a manor called Raordin, which Alward Tochesone held on the day when king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of it William has in demesne half a virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There William has eight villeins, and four serfs, and ten head of cattle, and four swine, and fifty sheep, and wood one leuga in length and one furlong in breadth, and one acre of meadow, and forty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year three pounds, and it was worth fifteen shillings when [William] received it.

Winpla.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Winpla quam tenuit Ultredus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et dimidia uirga. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Et Radulfus eam tenet de Willelmo. Inde habet R in dominio iii* uirgas et i carrucam et dimidiam et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet R ii uillanos et iii bordarios et i seruum et xviii oues et ix agros nemusculi et xix agros prati et xl agros pascuæ ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando recepit ualet xv solidos.—Exon. D. (402b, 400) 375, 372.

* In the original MS. this leaf has been misplaced. In the text of the Record Commissioners' edition the words that follow here are wrongly given to Esseministra.

acres of meadow and thirty acres of pasture. It is worth ten shillings.

Raordin.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Raordin Aluward tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt et viii uillani et iiii serui et una acra prati et xl acræ pasturæ. Silua i leuca longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet lx solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (c); 22a.

William himself holds Raordin. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for a virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, and there are eight villeins, and four serfs, and one acre of meadow, and forty acres of pasture. Wood one leuga in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth sixty shillings.

Wimple.

Radulfus tenet de Willelmo Wimple. Vctredus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida et dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et dimidia cum i seruo et ii uillani cum i caruca. Ibi xix acræ prati et xl acræ pasturæ et ix acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exon. D. 110 (c); 22a.

William has a manor called Winpla, which Ultred held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and half a virgate. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. And Radulf holds it of William. Of it Radulf has in demeane three virgates and one plough and a half, and the villeins have one virgate and a half and one plough and a half [sic]. There Robert has two villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and eighteen sheep, and nine acres of coppice, and nineteen acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture. Worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth fifteen shillings when [William] received it.

Pisseuilla.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Pisseuilla quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et i uirga. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Et Hamo tenet eam de Willelmo. Ibi habet Hamo in dominio ii uirgas et dimidiam et ii carrucas et uillani ii uirgas et dimidiam et ii carrucas. Illic habet Hamo vii uillanos et <sup>or</sup>iiii bordarios et v seruos et ix porcos <sup>or</sup>xliiii oues et <sup>or</sup>xliiii agros nemusculi et viii agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando recepit ualebat xxx solidos.—E.con. D. (400) 372.

William has a manor called Pissewilla, which Aluric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and one virgate. These can be ploughed by four ploughs. And Hamo holds it of William. There Hamo has in demeane two virgates and a half and two ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates and a half and two ploughs. In that place Hamo has seven [sic] villeins, and four bordars, and five serfs, and nine swine, and forty-four sheep, and fourteen acres of coppice, and eight acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth thirty shillings when [William] received it.

Heuuisa.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Heuuisa quam tenuit Wichinus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum dimidia hida. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Et Hamo tenet eam de Willelmo. Ibi habet Hamo vii agros prati et ualet per annum v solidos et quando recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (400) 372.

William has a manor called Hewisa, which Wichin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered Radulf holds Wimple of William. Uctred held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and half a virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough and a half, with one serf, and there are two villeins, with one plough [sic]. There are nineteen acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture, and nine acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Pissewelle.

Haimo tenet de Willelmo Pissewelle. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida et una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et v serui et viii uillani et iiii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi viii acræ prati et xiiii acræ siluæ minutæ et xxx acræ pasturæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (c); 22a.

Haimo holds Pissewelle of William. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and five serfs, and eight [sic] villeins, and four bordars, with two ploughs. There are eight acres of meadow, and fourteen acres of coppice, and thirty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Hewise.

Idem Haimo tenet de Willelmo Hewise. Wichin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi vii acræ prati. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (c); 22a.

The same Haimo holds Hewise of William. Wichin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by one plough. And Hamo holds it of William. Of it Hamo has seven acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when [William] received it.

Colebroca.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Colebroca quam tenuit Almerus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc potest arare ii carrucæ. Et Mainfredus tenet eam de Willelmo. Inde habet Mainfredus in dominio i uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Mainfredus ii uillanos et ii bordarios et ii seruos et vii animalia et l oues et xxv capras et iiii agros prati et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (400) 372.

William has a manor called Colebroca, which Almer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. And Manfred holds this of William. Of it Manfred has in demesne one virgate and a half and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and half a plough. There Manfred has two villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, and seven head of cattle, and fifty sheep, and twenty-five goats, and four acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when [William] received it.

Cadelia.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cadelia quam tenuit Aluardus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio ii uirgas et ii carrucas et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus ii uillanos et ii bordarios et iii seruos et runcinum et iiii animalia et l oues et iiii agros nemoris et ii agros prati et viii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (400) 372.

William has a manor called Cadelia, which Alward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of these William has in demesne two virgates and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There William has two villeins, and two bordars, and three serfs, and a packhorse, and four head of cattle, and fifty sheep, and four acres of wood, and is land for one plough. There are seven acres of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

Colebroche.

Mainfridus tenet de Willelmo Colebroche. Almær tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia et ii serui et ii uillani et ii bordarii et iiii acræ prati. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (c) ; 22a.

Mainfred holds Colebroche of William. Almer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough and a half, and two serfs, and two villeins, and two bordars, and four acres of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Cadelie.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Cadelie. Aluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iii serui et ii uillani et ii bordarii et ii acræ prati et viii acræ pasturæ et iiii acræ siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (c) ; 22a.

William himself holds Cadelie. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, and three serfs, and two villeins, and two bordars, and two acres of meadow, and eight acres of pasture, and four acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

two acres of meadow, and eight acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when [William] received it.

Aulescoma.

Willelmus capra habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Aulescoma quam tenuit Ailunardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Willelmo. Inde habet Radulfus i uirgam et i ferlinum et i carrucam in dominio et uillani iii ferlinos et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus ii uillanos et i bordarium et i seruum et ii animalia et lxxiiii oues et x agros nemoris et x agros prati et xii agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xv solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (400b) 372.

William Capra has a manor called Aulescoma, which Ailward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Radulf holds this of William. Of it Radulf has in demesne one virgate, and one ferling, and one plough, and the villeins have three ferlings and half a plough. There Radulf has two villeins, and one bordar, and one serf, and two head of cattle, and eighty-four sheep, and ten acres of wood, and ten acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture. This is worth fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Aulescoma.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Aulescoma quam tenuit Wichinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Hanc tenet Hamo de Willelmo. Inde habet Hamo i uirgam et dimidiam et ii carrucas et uillani ii uirgas et dimidia et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Hamo v uillanos et iiii bordarios et ii seruos et vi animalia et lx oues et vii agros prati et xv agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xxv solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (400b) 373.

William has a manor called Aulescoma, which Wichin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Hamo holds this of William. Of it Hamo has one virgate and a half and two ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates and a half and a plough and a half. There Hamo has five villeins, and four bordars,

Avlescome.

Radulfus tenet de Willelmo Avlescome. Ailuard tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et ii uillani cum i bordario et dimidia caruca. Ibi x acræ prati et x acræ siluæ et xii acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (c); 22a.

Radulf holds Avlescome of William. Ailward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and there are two villeins, with one bordar, and half a plough. There are ten acres of meadow, and ten acres of wood, and twelve acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifteen shillings.

Avlescome.

Haimo tenet de Willelmo Avlescome. Wichin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et v uillani et iiii bordarii cum i caruca et dimidia. Ibi vii acræ prati et xv acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xxv solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (c); 22a.

Haimo holds Avlescome of William. Wichin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and five villeins, and four bordars, with a plough and a half. There are seven acres of meadow and fifteen acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty-five shillings.

and two serfs, and six head of cattle, and sixty sheep, and seven acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pastura. This is worth twenty-five shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Oteri.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Oteri quam tenuit Bristricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida et i uirga et i ferlino et dimidio. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Warinus de Willelmo. * Inde habet Willelmus i uirgam et dimidiam et i carruca in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus i uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et x animalia et xx porcos et lxxx oues et v agros prati et ii quadragenarias pascuæ. Hæc ualet xii [x<sup>ii</sup>] et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (400b, 403), 373, 375.

* In the original MS. this leaf has been misplaced. In the printed text the words that follow are assigned wrongly to Winpla.

William has a manor called Oteri, which Bristric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide, and one virgate, and one ferling and a half. These can be ploughed by two ploughs. Warin holds these of William. Of these William has in demesne one virgate and a half and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and half a plough. There William has one villein, and three bordars, and two serfs, and ten head of cattle, and twenty swine, and eighty sheep, and five acres of meadow, and two furlongs of pasture. This is worth twelve shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Comba.

Willelmus Capra habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Comba quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillanus i uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus i uillanum et vi bordarios et ii seruos et c oues et v agros prati. Hæc ualet xx solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (403) 375.

William Capra has a manor called Comba, which Aluric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of it William has in demesne one virgate and one

Otri.

Warinus tenet de Willelmo Otri. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida et una virgata terræ et i ferling et dimidio. Terra est ii carucæ. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia et ii serui et unus uillanus et iii bordarii et v acræ prati et ii quarentenæ pasturæ. Ualet xii solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (c); 22a.

Warin holds Otri of William. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide, and one virgate of land, and one ferling and a half. There is land for two ploughs. There is a plough and a half, and two serfs, and one villein, and three bordars, and five acres of meadow, and two furlongs of pasture. It is worth twelve shillings.

Cumbe.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Cumbe. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et i uillanus et vi bordarii cum una caruca et v acræ prati. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (c); 22a.

William himself holds Cumbe. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and two serfs, and one villein, and six bordars, with one plough, and five acres of meadow.

plough, and the villein has one virgate and two ploughs. There William has one villein, and six bordars, and two serfs, and a hundred sheep, and five acres of meadow. This is worth twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when William received it.

Raconba.

Willelmus capra habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Raconba quam tenuit Edricus . . . Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet W i uirgam et dimidiam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i ferlinum et dimidium et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus ii uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et i runcinum et xiii animalia et lx oues et x agros nemusculi et i agrum prati et ualet per annum xxx solidos quando recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (403) 375.

William the Goat has a manor called Raconba, which Edric held [on the day on which king omitted in original] Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of it William has in demesne one virgate and a half and two ploughs, and the villeins have one ferling and a half and one plough. There William has two villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and one packhorse, and thirteen head of cattle, and sixty sheep, and ten acres of coppice, and one acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when [William] received it.

Teteborna.

Willelmus capra habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Teteborna quam tenuit Bogredus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hæc possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam hidam et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus viii uillanos et vii bordarios et ii seruos et i runcinum et xii animalia et c oues vi minus et xl agros nemoris et vi agros prati et xl agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (403) 375.

William Capra has a manor called Teteborna, which Bogred held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of it William has half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide and three ploughs. There William has eight villeins, and seven bordars, and two serfs, and one packhorse, and twelve head of cattle, and ninety-four sheep, and forty acres of wood, Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Racumbe.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Racumbe. Edric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et ii uillani et iii bordarii cum i caruca et i acra prati et x acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (c); 22b.

William himself holds Racumbe. Edric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and two villeins, and three bordars, with one plough, and one acre of meadow, and ten acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Teteborne.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Teteborne. Bugerred tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et viii uillani et vii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi vi acræ prati et xl acræ pasturæ et xl acræ siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (d); 22b.

William himself holds Teteborne. Bugerred held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are one plough, and two serfs, and eight villeins, and seven bordars, with three ploughs. There are six acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture, and forty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

and six acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when [William] received it.

Bradenesa.

Willelmus capra habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bradenesa quam tenuit Bristoldus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis et dimidia. Has possunt arare xx carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio dimidiam hidam et v carrucas et uillani i hidam et dimidiam et xv carrucas. Ibi habet W xlii uillanos et xvi bordarios et vii seruos et iii runcinos et xxxiiii animalia et viii porcos et cccxiiii oues et xxx agros nemoris et xxx nemusculi et xxxiii prati et cc agros pascuæ et i molendinum quæ reddit v solidos. Et hæc mansio ualet per annum xiiii libras et quando recepit ualebat c solidos.—Exon. D. (403b) 376.

William Capra has a manor called Bradenesa, which Bristold held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides and a half. This can be ploughed by twenty ploughs. Of it William has in demesne half a hide and five [one] ploughs, and the villeins have one hide and a half and fifteen ploughs. There William has forty-two villeins, and sixteen bordars, and seven serfs, and three packhorses, and thirty-three head of cattle, and eight swine, and three hundred and twenty-four sheep, and thirty acres of wood, and thirty acres of coppice, and thirty-three acres of meadow, and two hundred acres of pasture, and one mill, which renders five shillings. And this manor is worth by the year fourteen pounds, and it was worth a hundred shillings when [William] received it.

Horescoma.

Willelmus habet dimidiam uirgam terræ quæ iacet in Horescoma et habet ibi ii uillanos qui habent i carrucam et ualet iiii solidos.—Exon. D. (403b) 376.

William has half a virgate of land, which lies in Horescoma, and has there two villeins who have one plough; and it is worth four shillings.

Deidestan.

Willelmus capra habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Deidestan quam tenuit Etzi ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Inde habet Willelmus

Bradenese.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Bradenese. Brictuold tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis et dimidia. Terra est xx carucis. In dominio sunt vi carucæ et vii serui et xlii uillani et xvi bordarii cum xv carucis. Ibi xxxiii acræ prati et cc acræ pasturæ et xxx acræ siluæ et xxx acræ siluæ minutæ. Ibi molinum reddens v solidos. Olim c solidos. Modo ualet xiiii libras.—Exch. D. 110 (d); 22b.

William himself holds Bradenese. Brictwold held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides and a half. There is land for twenty ploughs. In demesne are six ploughs, and seven serfs, and forty-two villeins, and sixteen bordars, with fifteen ploughs. There are thirty-three acres of meadow, and two hundred acres of pasture, and thirty acres of wood, and thirty acres of coppice. There is a mill returning five shillings. Formerly it was worth a hundred shillings. Now it is worth fourteen pounds.

Horescome.

Ipse Willelmus tenet dimidiam virgatum terræ in Horescome. Ibi ii uillani habent i carucam. Valet iiii solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (d); 22b.

William himself holds half a virgate of land in Horescome. There two villeins have one plough. It is worth four shillings.

Ædelstan.

Radulfus tenet de Willelmo Ædelstan. Ezi tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est ii carucis. Radulfus tenet medietatem huius terræ de capra i mediatatem et Radulfus de pomeria aliam mediatatem . . . Willelmi potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Radulfus quondam miles de Willelmo. Ibi habet Radulf i carrucam et ii seruos et iiii animalia et vi porcos et xl oues . . . et xv capras et vi agros nemoris et iiii agros prati et xii agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet vii solidos et vi denarios et quando Willelmus recepit xii denarios.—Exon. D. (403b) 376.

William Capra has a manor called Deidestan, which Etzi held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. Of it William Capra has one half and Radulf de Pomeroy another half . . . William's half can be ploughed by one plough. This Radulf, formerly a soldier, holds of William. There Radulf has one plough, and two serfs, and four head of cattle, and six swine, and forty sheep, and fifteen goats, and six acres of wood, and four acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture. This is worth seven shillings and sixpence, and twelve pence when William received it.

Oteri.

Willelmus capra habet dimidiam hidam terræ in Oteri quam tenuit Bristricius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et modo tenet eam Warinus de Willelmo. Ibi habet Willelmus iiii uillanus quæ habent iiii boues in carrucam et i agrum nemoris et v agros prati quadragenariam pascuæ in longitudine et dimidiam in latitudine. Hæc ualet xxx denarios et quando Willelmus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (403b) 376.

William Capra has half a hide of land in Oteri, which Bristric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and Warin now holds this of William. William has there three villeins, who have three plough oxen, and one acre of wood, and five acres of meadow, pasture a furlong in length and half a furlong in breadth. This is worth thirty pence, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Morchet.

Willelmus capra habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Morchet quam tenuit Almerdus ea die qua Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus.

Hanc abstulit per uim Aluuardus toqisone ab eo postquam Willelmus rex tenuit anglicam et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hæc possunt arare xx carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus Willelmo et habet ibi i carucam et ii seruos. Ibi iiii acrae prati et xii acrae pasturae et vi acrae siluae. Olim xii denarios. Modo ualet vii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 110 (d); 22b.

Radulf holds Raelstan of William. Ezi held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for two ploughs. Radulf holds half of this land from William, and has there one plough and two serfs. There are four acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture, and six acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twelve pence. Now it is worth seven shillings and sixpence.

Otri.

Warinus tenet de Willelmo in Otri dimidiam hidam terrae. Ibi iii uillani habent iii boues in caruca. Ibi v acrae prati et una acra siluae. Pastura i quarentena longitudine et dimidia quarantena latitudine. Olim et modo ualet xxx denarios.—Exch. D. 110 (d); 22b.

Warin holds in Otri of William half a hide of land. There are three villeins, having three plough oxen. There are five acres of meadow and one acre of wood. Pasture one furlong in length and half a furlong in breadth. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty pence.

Morchet.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Morchet. Almer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Hanc abstulit Aluuardo Tochisone postquam rex Willelmus uenit in Anglia. Terra est xx carucis. In dominio sunt iiii carucae et vii serui et xx uillani et iiii bordarii cum vii carucis. Ibi unus faber et xl acrae prati et cc acrae pasturae et xxx dimidiam hidam et iiii carrucas in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et vii carrucas. Ibi Willelmus habet xx uillanos et iiii bordarios et vii seruos et i fabrum et . . . *animalia et vi porcos et c et lx oues et xxx agros nemoris . . . agros prati et . . . cc agros pascuæ et ualet per annum vi . . . solidos et hanc tenet Willelmus cum honore Aluuardi.—Exon. D. (404) 376.

* These parts of the MS. are blotted.

William Capra has a manor called Morchet, which Almer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. This Alward Toquison took from him by force after William the king held England, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by twenty ploughs. Of it William has in demesne half a hide and four ploughs, and the villeins have half a hide and seven ploughs. There William has twenty villeins, and four bordars, and seven serfs, and one smith, and . . . head of cattle, and six swine, and a hundred and sixty sheep, and thirty acres of wood . . . acres of meadow, and two hundred acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year six . . . shillings, and this William holds with the honor of Alward.

Madescama.

. . . capra habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Madescama quam tenuit . . . rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga . . . i carruca arare. Hanc tenet Hamondus de Willelmo. Ibi . . . i uillanus qui tenet totam terram in dominio et ualet per annum xxx denarios . . .

Addita est ad Orescomam.—Exon. D. (404) 376.

[William] Capra has a manor called Madescama, which . . . held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate . . . One plough can plough this. Hamond holds this of William. There . . . one villein, who holds all the land in demesne; and it is worth by the year thirty pence . . .

It is added to Orescoma.

Alforda.

Willelmus capra habet i mansionem quæ uocatur . . . Alforda quam tenuit Brismetus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus* . . . gildum pro i hida. Hanc acræ siluæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet vi libras. Hanc tenet Willelmus cum terra Aluuardi.—Exch. D. 110 (d); 22*b*.

* These and the former omissions are caused by the ends of the lines on the left-hand page of the MS. having been apparently mischievously blotted, and the volume closed while the ink was wet, which has caused portions of the opposite leaf to be also obliterated.

William himself holds Morchet. Almer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. This Aluuard Tochisonē took away after king William came into England. There is land for twenty ploughs. In demesne are four ploughs, and seven serfs, and twenty villeins, and four bordars, with seven ploughs. There is a smith, and forty acres of meadow, and two hundred acres of pasture, and thirty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth six pounds. William holds this with the land of Alward.

Madescame.

Hamon tenet de Willelmo Madescame. Elmer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi est unus uillanus. Valet xxx denarios.

Hæc terra iuncta est ad Orescome.—Exch. D. 110 (d); 22*b*.

Hamon holds Madescame of William. Elmer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There is one villein. Worth thirty pence.

This land is joined to Orescome.

Alforde.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Alforde. Brismer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est xiii carucis. In dominio sunt iiii carucæ et ii serui et xx possunt arare xiiii carrucæ. Inde . . . hidam et iiii carrucas in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus xx uillanos et vii bordarios et ii seruos . . . animalia et xv porcos et cc oues et c capras et i molendinum qui ualet per annum xxx denarios et c agros nemoris et xii agros prati et viii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum vi libras et quando recepit ualebat iii libras.—Exon. D. (404b) 376–377.

William Capra has a manor called Alforda, which Brismet held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead . . . geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by fourteen ploughs. Of it . . . in demeane . . . hide and four ploughs, and the villeins half a hide and four ploughs. There William has twenty villeins, and seven bordars, and two serfs . . . head of cattle, and fifteen swine, and two hundred sheep, and a hundred goats, and a mill, which is worth yearly thirty pence, and a hundred acres of wood, and twelve acres of meadow, and eight acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year six pounds, and it was worth three pounds when [William] received it.

Mildedona.

Et ad hanc mansionem est addita alia mansio quæ uocatur Mildedona quam tenuit Edibda ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Ibi habet Willelmus viii uillanos et ii carrucas et iii agros prati et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit iii solidos.—Exon. D. (404b) 377.

And to this manor [Alforda] is added another manor called Mildedona, which Edibda held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. There William has eight villeins, and two ploughs, and three acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and three shillings when he received it.

Wipletona.

Willelmus capra habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wipletona quam tenuit Wichinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas et uillani iiii carrucas et dimidiam hidam. Ibi habet Willelmus v . . . uillanos et iii bordarios et vii seruos et i runcinum et xl animalia et lx uillani et vii bordarii cum ix carucis. Ibi molinum reddens xxx denarios et c acra siluæ et xii acra prati et viii acra pasturæ. Olim iii libras. Modo ualet vi libras.—Exch. D. 110 (d); 22*b*.

William himself holds Alforde. Brismer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for fourteen ploughs. In demesne are four ploughs, and two serfs, and twenty villeins, and seven bordars, with nine ploughs. There is a mill returning thirty pence, and a hundred acres of wood, and twelve acres of meadow, and eight acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth three pounds. Now it is worth six pounds.

Mildedone.

Huic manerio est addita Mildedone. Eddida tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi viii uillani habent ii caruas et iii acras prati. Olim iii solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (d); 22*b*.

To this manor Mildedone is added. Eddida held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There eight villeins have two ploughs and three acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth three shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Wipletone.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Wipletone. Wichin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio sunt ii caruæ et vii serui et v uillani et iii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi xii acra prati et c acra pasturæ et ii acra siluæ minutæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet vi libras.—Exch. D. 110 (d); 22*b*.

oues et . . . et xii agros prati et c agros pascuæ et ualet per annum . . . et quando recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (404b) 377.

William Capra has a manor called Wipletona, which Wichin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Of it William has in demesne half a hide and two ploughs, and the villeins four ploughs and half a hide. There William has five villeins, and three bordars, and seven serfs, and a packhorse, and forty head of cattle, and sixty sheep . . . and twelve acres of meadow, and a hundred acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year . . . and it was worth twenty shillings when he received it.

Potitona.

Willelmus capra habet . . . Potitona quam tenuit Alnuardus tochesone ea die qua rex . . . et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ . . . Radulfus de Willelmo. Ibi habet Radulfus i uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et i uirgam et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus viii uillanos . . . et iiii seruos et xiiii animalia et lx et viiii oues . . . nemoris et viiii agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet xl solidos et quando recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (404b) 377.

William Capra has . . . Potitona, which Alward Tochesone held on the day on which king . . . and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs . . . Radulf of William. There Radulf has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins half a hide and one virgate, and four ploughs. There Radulf has eight villeins, . . . and three serfs, and fourteen head of cattle, and sixty-nine sheep, . . . wood, and nine acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth forty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he received it.

Bradeforda.

Willelmus capra . . . quæ uocatur Bradeforda quam tenuit Almerus ea die qua rex . . . mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt . . . tenet Biatrix de Willelmo. Ibi habet Biatrix dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Biatrix vi uillanos et vi bordarios et ii seruos et vii animalia et v porcos et xx oues et xi capras et vi agros prati et vi agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (404b, 405) 377.

William himself holds Wipletone. Wichin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and seven serfs, and five villeins, and three bordars, with four ploughs. There are twelve acres of meadow, and a hundred acres of pasture, and two acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth six pounds.

Potitone.

Radulfus tenet de Willelmo Potitone. Aluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et viii uillani et vi bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi ix acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ et vi acræ siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (d); 22*b*.

Radulf holds Potitone of William. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and eight villeins, and six bordars, with four ploughs. There are nine acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture, and six acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Bradeford.

Beatrix tenet de Willelmo Bradeford. Almer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et v uillani et vi bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi vi acræ prati et vi acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (d); 22*b*.

William Capra . . . called Bradeforda, which Almer held on the day on which king . . . dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed . . . Beatrix holds this of William. Beatrix has there in demeane half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins half a virgate and two plougha. Beatrix has there six villeins, and six bordars, and two serfs, and seven head of cattle, and five swine, and twenty sheep, and eleven goats, and six acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when he [William] received it.

Toredona.

Et ad hanc mansionem est addita alia mansio quæ uocatur Toredona quam tenuit Aluricus Colim<sup>pariter</sup> ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca et reddit per annum xl denarios.—Exon. D. (405) 377.

And to this manor is added another manor called Toredona, which Aluric held in partage with Colim on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough, and it returns by the year forty pence.

Bochelanda.

Willelmus capra habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bochelanda quam tenuit Alricius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc . . . Inde habet Robertus dimidia uirgam et i carruca in dominio et uillani . . . Robertus iii uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et iii . . . xx oues et xxv capras et i agrum prati et xxv agros pascuæ . . . solidos et quando Willelmus recepit vi solidos.—Exon. D. (405) 377.

William Capra has a manor called Bochelanda, which Alric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. This . . . Of it Robert has half a virgate and one plough in demeane, and the villeins . . . Robert three villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and three . . . twenty sheep, and twenty-five goats, and one acre of meadow, and twenty-five acres of pasture . . . shillings, and it was worth six shillings when William received it.

Otria.

. . . capra habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Otria quam tenuit Olnotdus ea die qua Eduuardus rex . . . et reddidit

Beatrix holds Bradeford of William. Almer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and two serfs, and five [sic. in orig.] villeins, and six bordars, with two ploughs. There are six acres of meadow and six acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Toredone.

Huic manerio est addita Toredone. Aluric libere tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Valet xl denarios.—Exch. D. 110 (d); 22b.

[Par for pariter in margin.]

To this manor is added Toredone. Aluric held it freely in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough. Worth forty pence.

Bocheland.

Robertus tenet de Willelmo Bocheland. Alric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iii uillani et iii bordarii et ii serui. Ibi i acra prati et xxv acræ pasturæ. Olim vi solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (d); 22b.

Robert holds Bocheland of William. Alric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, and three villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs. There is one acre of meadow and twenty-five acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth six shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Otri.

Warinus tenet de Willelmo Otri. Vlnodus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Et Warinus . . . de Willelmo. Ibi habet Warinus i carrucam et i uillanum et i bordarium . . . et xii agros prati et ii quadragenarias pascuæ et ualet . . . quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (405) 378.

. . . Capra has a manor called Otri, which Olnot held on the day on which king Edward . . . and it rendered geld for two hides. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. And Warin . . . of William. Warin has there one plough, and one villein, and one bordar . . . and twelve acres of meadow, and two furlongs of pasture; and it is worth . . . it was worth as much when he [William] received it.

Otri.

Willelmus habet mansionem quæ uocatur . . . quam tenuit Samerus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum . . . Hanc possunt arare dimidia carruca. Et Radulfus pagani filius tenet dimidiam istam uirgam de Willelmo. Ibi habet Radulfus dimidiam uillanum qui habet dimidiam carrucam et addidit hanc mansionem Willelmus ad mansionem quæ uocatur Holescoma et reddidit xxx denarios per annum.—Exon. D. (405b) 378.

William has a manor called . . . which Samer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld . . . This can be ploughed by half a plough. And Radulf the son of Pagan holds this half virgate of William. There Radulf has half a villein, who has half a plough, and William added this manor to the manor called Holescoma; and it returns thirty pence by the year.

Maaberia.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Maaberia quam tenuit Eldillus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Warinus de eo. Inde habet Willelmus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et vi animalia et v porcos et xiiii oues et xiiii capras et vi quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et iiii de latitudine et vi agros prati et vii quadragenarias in longitudine et ii in latitudine . . . et quando Willelmus ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (405b) 378.

est iiii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i uillano et i bordario et cum i seruo. Ibi xii acrae prati et ii quarentenae pasturae. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (d); 22b.

Warin holds Otri of William. Ulnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for four ploughs. There is one plough, with one villein, and one bordar, and with one serf. There are twelve acres of meadow and two furlongs of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Otri.

Radulfus tenet de Willelmo Otri. Semar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terrae. Terra est dimidia caruca. Hanc habet ibi dimidius uillanus. Valet xxx denarios. Hæc terra est addita ad Holescome. —Exch. D. 110 (d); 22b.

Radulf holds Otri of William. Semar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for half a plough. This half a villein has there. Worth thirty pence. This land is added to Holescome.

Muberie.

Warinus tenet de Willelmo Muberie. Eldille tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iiii uillani et ii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi vi acrae prati. Pastura vii quarentenae longitudine et ii latitudine. Silua vi quarentenae longitudine et iii quarantenae latitudine. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 110 (d); 22b.

William has a manor called Maaberia, which Eldil held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Warin holds this of him. Of this William has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide and half a plough. There William has four villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and six head of cattle, and five swine, and fourteen sheep, and fourteen goats, and wood six furlongs in length and three in breadth, and six acres of meadow, and . . . seven furlongs in length and two in breadth; . . . and it was worth as much when William received it.

Alseminstra.

Willelmus capra habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Alseminstra . . . [in another hand, on the opposite page, quam tenuit Wichinus ea die] qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i . . . arare ii carrucæ. Et Ulfus tenet ea de <sup>W</sup><sub>comite</sub> [comite erased] i carrucam et dimidiam et xii bordarios et iiii seruos et i runcinum . . . v animalia et xx capras et viii agros prati et comu . . . cua et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat xx.—Exon. D. (406b) 378.

William Capra has a manor called Alseminstra [which Wichin held on the day] on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one . . . ploughed by two ploughs. And Ulf holds of it of W [the Count] . . . one plough and a half, and twelve bordars, and four serfs, and one packhorse . . . five head of cattle, and twenty goats, and eight acres of meadow and common . . . and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he [William] received it.

Lega.

Willelmus capra habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lega quam tenuit Elmer' . . . qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt . . . arare x carrucæ. Hanc tenet Beatrix soror ejus. Inde habet Beatrix i hidam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i hidam et ii . . . Ibi habet Beatrix vii uillanos et vi bordarios et iiii seruos et x animalia et xx oues et xviii capras et xl agros nemoris et xv agros prati et cc agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando recepit ualebat l solidos.

Willelmus habet in Essecestra ii domus que reddebant tempore Eduuardi regis xvi denarios per annum de consuetudine.—Exon. D. (406) 378.

Warin holds Maiberie of William. Eldille held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and four villeins, and two bordars, with one plough. There are six acres of meadow. Pasture seven furlongs in length and two in breadth. Wood six [sic. in orig.] furlongs in length and three [sic. in orig.] furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Alseminstre.

Eddulfus tenet de Willelmo Alseminstre. Wichin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia et iiii serui et xii bordarii et viii acræ prati et communis pastura. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. III (a); 23a.

Eddulf holds Alseminstre of William. Wichin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough and a half, and four serfs, and twelve bordars, and eight acres of meadow and common pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Lege.

Beatrix tenet de Willelmo Lege. Elmer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidæ. Terra est x carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iiii serui et vii uillani et vi bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi xv acræ prati et cc acræ pasturæ et xl acræ siluæ. Olim l solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. III (a); 23a.

William Capra has a manor called Lege, which Elmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. This can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Beatrix his sister holds this. Of these Beatrix has in demesne one hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have one hide and two . . . Beatrix has there seven villeins, and six bordars, and three serfs, and ten head of cattle, and twenty sheep, and eighteen goats, and forty acres of wood, and fifteen acres of meadow, and two hundred acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth fifty shillings when he [William] received it.

William has in Exeter two houses, which rendered in the time of king Edward sixteen pence by the year by custom.

Beatrix holds Lege of William. Elmer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and seven villeins, and six bordars, with three ploughs. There are fifteen acres of meadow, and two hundred acres of pasture, and forty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth fifty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Terra Willelmi de Falesia in Debenesira.

Comba.

Willelmus de Falesia habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Comba quam tenuit Bristricius et Edviv pariter die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis et i uirga. Has possunt arare xx carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus iii uirgas et iii carrucas in dominio et uillani i hidam et dimidiam et xiiii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus xviii uillanos et x bordarios et ix seruos et xx et i animalia et ix porcos et cxi oues et x et ix capras et v agros nemoris et i leugam pascuæ in longitudine et i leugam in latitudine et ualet per annum c solidos et quando Willelmus eam recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (366) 344.

Land of William of Faleise in Devonshire.

William of Faleise has a manor called Comba, which Bristric and Edwy held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides and one virgate. These can be ploughed by twenty ploughs. Of these William has in demesne three virgates and three ploughs, and the villeins one hide and a half and fourteen ploughs. William has there eighteen villeins, and ten bordars, and nine serfs, and twenty-one head of cattle, and nine swine, and one hundred and forty sheep, and nineteen goats, and five acres of wood, pasture one leuga in length and one leuga in breadth; and it is worth by the year a hundred shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Fersa.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Fersa quam tenuit Alcerlus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ et est penitus uastata.—Exon. D. (366) 344.

William has a manor called Fersa, which Alcerl held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs, and it is wholly waste.

Pedracamba.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Pedracamba quam tenuit Bristoaldus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus

XX. Terra Willelmi de Faleise.

Cumbe.

Willelmus de Faleise tenet de rege Cumbe. Brictric et Eduui libere tenebant tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis et una virgata terræ. Terra est xx carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et ix serui et xviii uillani et x bordarii cum xiiii carucis. Ibi pastura i leuca longitudine et tantundem latitudine et v acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet c solidos.—Exch. D. III (a); 23a.

[Par for pariter in margin.]

XX. Land of William of Faleise.

William of Falais holds of the king Cumbe. Brictric and Edwi held it freely in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides and a virgate of land. There is land for twenty ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and nine serfs, and eighteen villeins, and ten bordars, with fourteen ploughs. There pasture one leuga in length and just as much in breadth, and five acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth a hundred shillings.

Ferse.

Iipse Willelmus tenet Ferse. Alcherl tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis et est uastata.—Exch. D. III (a); 23a.

William himself holds Ferse. Alcherl held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs, and it is waste.

Pedrecumbe.

Iipse Willelmus tenet Pedrecumbe. Bristoaldus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida.

et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus i uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i uirgam et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus v uillanos et viii bordarios et v seruos et x animalia et xxvii oues et xxvii capras et xxx agros nemoris et viii agros prati et i leugam pascuæ et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (366) 344.

William has a manor called Pedracamba, which Bristwold held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Of this William has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and four ploughs. There William has five villeins, and eight bordars, and five serfs, and ten head of cattle, and twenty-seven sheep, and twenty-seven goats, and thirty acres of wood, and eight acres of meadow, and one leuga of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Cercilla.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cercilla quam tenuit Bristuoldus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Normannus de Willelmo. Inde habet Normannus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani ii uirgas et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Normannus viii uillanos et iiii bordarios et v seruos et c oues et xl agros nemoris et i leugam pascuæ et ualet xl solidos et quando recepit Willelmus ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (366b) 344.

William has a manor called Cercilla, which Bristwold held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Norman holds this of William. Of this Norman has one virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have two virgates and four ploughs. There Norman has eight villeins, and four bordars, and five serfs, and a hundred sheep, and forty acres of wood, and one leuga of pasture; and it is worth forty shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Bera.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bera quam tenuit Bristuoldus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare

Terra est viii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et v serui et v uillani et viii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi viii<sup>to</sup> acrae prati et xxx acrae siluæ et una leuca pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xl solidos. —Exch. D. III (a); 23a.

William himself holds Pedrecumbe. Bristoald held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and five serfs, and five villeins, and eight bordars, with four ploughs. There are eight acres of meadow, and thirty acres of wood, and one leuga of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth forty shillings.

Cercelle.

Norman tenet de Willelmo Cercelle. Brictuoldus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et v serui et viii uillani et iii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi i leuca pasturæ et xl acrae siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xl solidos. —Exch. D. III (a); 23a.

Norman holds Cercelle of William. Brictuold held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and five serfs, and eight villeins, and four bordars, with four ploughs. There is one leuga of pasture, and forty acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth forty shillings.

Bere.

Rogerus tenet de Willelmo Bere. Brictuoldus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et ii ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rogerus de Willelmo. Inde habet Rogerus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Rogerus ii bordarios et i seruum et c oues et iii agros prati et i leugam pascuæ et reddit xv solidos et quando Willelmus eam recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (366b) 344.

William has a manor called Bera, which Bristwold held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Roger holds this of William. Of it Roger has in demesne half a virgate and half a plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and half a plough. There Roger has two bordars, and one serf, and a hundred sheep, and three acres of meadow, and one leuga of pasture; and it returns fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Wafort.

Willelmus de Falesia habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wafort quam tenuit Chenegarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Petrus de Willelmo. Inde habet Petrus iii fertinos in dominio et i carrucam et iii bordarii eius habent i fertinum. Ibi habet Petrus v animalia et iiii agros prati et xv agros pascuæ et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (367) 345.

William of Falaise has a manor called Wafort, which Chenegar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Peter now holds it of William. Of this Peter has in demesne three ferlings and one plough, and three of his bordars have one ferling. There Peter has five head of cattle, and four acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Vluurintona.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Vluurintona quam tenuerunt duo tagni pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i fertino. Hanc potest i carruca arare. Modo tenet eam Hugo de Dal de Willelmo et uillani eius habent i carrucam in ea terra. Ibi habet Hugo ii uillanos et dimidiam agram nemoris et ii agros prati et reddit per annum x solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (367) 345.

bordarii et iii acrae prati et una leuca pasturae. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. III (a); 23a.

Roger holds Bere of William. Brictwold held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one serf, and there are two bordars, and three acres of meadow, and one leuca of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifteen shillings.

Waford.

Petrus tenet de Willelmo Waford. Chenegar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terrae. Terra est i carucis. Ibi est i caruca et iii bordarii et ii acrae prati et xv acrae pasturae. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. III (a); 23a.

Peter holds Waford of William. Chenegar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, and three bordars, and four acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

Olvrintone.

Hugo tenet de Willelmo Olvrintone. Duo taini libere tenebant tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling. Terra est i caruca. Hanc habent ibi ii uillani. Ibi ii acrae prati et dimidia acra siluae. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. III (a); 23a.

[Par for pariter in margin.]

William has a manor called Uluurintona, which was held by two thegns in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling. This can be ploughed by one plough. Hugo of Dal now holds it of William, and his villeins have one plough on this land. There Hugo has two villeins, and half an acre of wood, and two acres of meadow; and it returns by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Bradeforda.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bradeforda quam tenuit Brungarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i fertino et dimidio. Hanc fertipum et dimidium potest i carruca arare. Ibi habet Willelmus i uillanum et habet i carrucam et ii agros prati et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Willelmus accepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (367) 345.

William has a manor called Bradeforda, which Brungar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling and a half. This ferling and a half can be ploughed by one plough. There William has one villein, and one plough, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Dimeuoldesham.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Dimeuoldesham quam tenuit Algarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Et reddidit gildum pro dimidiam uirga. Hanc potest i carrucam arare. Modo tenet quidam Anglus de Willelmo et habet in ea i carrucam et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Uuillelmus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (367) 345.

William has a manor called Dimewoldesham, which Algar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. A certain Englishman now holds this of William, and has in it one plough; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Chochintona.

Willelmus de Faleisa habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Chochintona quam tenuit Alricius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii hidis. Has Hugo holds Olurintone of William. Two thegns held it freely [paragio in margin] in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling. There is land for one plough. Two villeins have this there. There are two acres of meadow and half an acre of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Bradeford.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Bradeford. Brungar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling et dimidio. Terra est i carucæ. Hanc habet ibi i uillanus. Ibi ii acræ prati. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. III (a); 23a.

William himself holds Bradford. Brungar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling and a half. There is land for one plough. This one villein has there. There are two acres of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

Dimewoldesham.

Unus Anglicus tenet de Willelmo Dimewoldesham. Algar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. III (a); 23a.

An Englishman holds Dimewoldesham of William. Algar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

Cochintone.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Cochintone. Alric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis. Terra est xiii carucis. In dominio sunt v carucæ et xiiii serui et xviii possunt arare xiii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus i hidam et v carrucas in dominio et uillani ii hidas et vii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus xviii uillanos et vi bordarios et xiiii seruos et i roncinum et viii animalia et clix oues et xlii capras et l agros nemoris et xv agros prati et l agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet l solidos et quando Willelmus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (367b) 345.

William of Falaise has a manor called Chochintona, which Alric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three hides. These can be ploughed by thirteen ploughs. Of this William has in demesne one hide and five ploughs, and the villeins have two hides and seven ploughs. There William has eighteen villeins, and six bordars, and fourteen serfs, and one pack-horse, and eight head of cattle, and one hundred and fifty-nine sheep, and forty-two goats, and fifty acres of wood, and fifteen acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pastura. This is worth fifty shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Depdona.

Et de supradictis iii hidis tenet idem Alricius i mansionem quæ uocatur Depdona ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Et est addita supradictæ mansioni et ualet x solidos et quando Willelmus recepit tantundem. Has tenet Willelmus pro i mansione.—Exon. D. (367b) 345.

And out of the aforesaid three hides the same Alric holds a manor called Depdona on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate, and is joined to the aforesaid manor; and it is worth ten shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it. These William holds as one manor.

Holla.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Holla quam tenuit Aluinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et dimidia. Hanc possunt arare xii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i hidam et v carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus xiii uillanos et vii bordarios et viii seruos et i roncinum et vi animalia et vi porcos et lii oues et i leugam nemoris in longitudine et aliam in latitudine et i leugam pascuæ in longitudine et latitudine. Hanc ualet lx solidos et quando Willelmus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (367b) 345.

uillani et vi bordarii cum vii carucis. Ibi xv acrae prati et
 l acrae pasturae et l acrae siluae. Olim et modo ualet l solidos.—Exch. D. III (a); 23a.

William himself holds Cochintone. Alric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides. There is land for thirteen ploughs. In demesne are five ploughs, and fourteen serfs, and eighteen villeins, and six bordars, with seven ploughs.
 There are fifteen acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and fifty acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifty shillings.

Deptone.

De eadem terra tenet Alric in Deptone unam virgatam terrae et pro tanto geldabat. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.
 Addita est hæc terra superiori et pro uno manerio tenet Willelmus.—Exch. D. III (a); 23a.

Of the same land Alric holds in Deptone one virgate of land, and paid geld for as much. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings. This land is added to the above, and William holds them as one manor.

Holle.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Holle. Aluwinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida et dimidia. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et viii serui et xiii uillani et vii bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi i leuca pasturae et una leuca siluae. Olim et modo ualet iii libras.—Exch.
D. III (a); 23a.

William has a manor called Holle, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and a half. This can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of this William has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have one hide and five ploughs. There William has thirteen villeins, and seven bordars, and eight serfs, and one packhorse, and six head of cattle, and six swine, and fifty-two sheep, and wood one leuga in length and the same in breadth, and pasture one leuga in length and breadth. This is worth sixty shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Estocha.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Estocha quam tenuit Vluena ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Winemerus de Willelmo. Inde habet Willelmus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam. Ibi habet Willelmus iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et i animal et vii porcos et xl oues et i leugam nemoris in longitudine et i quadragenariam in latitudine et dimidiam leugam pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Willelmus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (367b, 368) 346.

William has a manor called Estocha, which Uluena held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Winemer holds this of William. There William has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins one virgate. There William has four villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and one head of cattle, and seven swine, and forty sheep, and wood one leuga in length and one furlong in breadth, and half a leuga of pasture. This is worth ten shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Dena.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Dena quam tenuit Alwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii hidis. Has possunt arare xii carrucæ. Hanc tenent iiii milites de Willelmo. Inde habent milites i hidam et iii carrucas in dominio et uillani ii hidas et vi carrucas. Ibi habent milites xix uillanos et xv bordarios et ii seruos et xvi animalia et xiii porcos et lxx oues et l capras et vi agros nemoris et x agros prati et i leugam pascuæ. Hæc ualet iiii libras et quando Willelmus recepit tantundem. Et de supradicta mansione tenet quidam Anglicus tantum unde reddit Willelmo. (qui tenuit ea die

William himself holds Holle. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and a half. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and eight serfs, and thirteen villeins, and seven bordars, with five ploughs. There is one leuga of pasture and one leuga of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth three pounds.

Stoche.

Winemarus tenet de Willelmo Stoche. Vluuea tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et iiii uillani et ii bordarii et dimidia leuca pasturæ. Siluæ i leuca longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. III (a); 23a.

Winemar holds Stoche of William. Ulueua held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one serf, and there are four villeins, and two bordars, and half a leuga of pasture. Wood one leuga in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Dene.

Quattuor milites tenent de Willelmo Dene. Aluuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et ii serui et xix uillani et xv bordarii cum vi carucis. Ibi x acræ prati et una leuca pasturæ et vi acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet iiii libras.

De hac terra tenet de Willelmo unus Anglicus tantum terræ unde reddit x solidos.—Exch. D. III (a); 23a.

qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus non potuit de dominio separare) per annum x solidos.—Exon. D. (368) 346.

William has a manor called Dena, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three hides. This can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Four soldiers hold this of William. Of these the soldiers have one hide and three ploughs in demesne, and the villeins two hides and six ploughs. There the soldiers have nineteen villeins, and fifteen bordars, and two serfs, and sixteen head of cattle, and thirteen swine, and seventy sheep, and fifty goats, and six acres of wood, and ten acres of meadow, and one leuga of pasture. This is worth four pounds, and it was worth as much when William received it. And of the aforesaid manor a certain Englishman (who held it on the day when king Edward was alive and dead, and could not be separated from the demesne) holds as much as renders to William by the year ten shillings.

Ratreu.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ratreu quam tenuit Aluunus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii hidis. Has possunt arare xii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus i hidam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i hidam et i uirgam et dimidiam et v carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus xiii uillanos et iiii bordarios et vi seruos et ii porcarios qui reddunt viii porcos et viii animalia et lxxii oues. Hæc ualet xl solidos et quando Willelmus recepit tantundem. Ibi habent ii milites i uirgam et dimidiam et ii carrucas in dominio et viii uillanos et vii bordarios et ii seruos et xix animalia et xii porcos et c et xi oues et xl capras et dimidiam agrum prati et v agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xx solidos et quam Willelmus recepit tantundem. Et quidam Anglicus tenet inde i uirgam quam ipse tenuit ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus non potuit de dominio separare et reddit inde Willelmo per annum x solidos.—Exon. D. (368) 346.

William has a manor called Ratreu, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three hides. This can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of these William has one hide and two ploughs in demesne, and the villeins have one hide, and one virgate and a half, and five ploughs. There William has thirteen villeins, and four bordars, and six serfs, and two swineherds, who render eight swine, and eight head of cattle, and seventy-two sheep. This is worth forty shillings, and Four soldiers hold Dene of William. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and two serfs, and nineteen villeins, and fifteen bordars, with six ploughs. There are ten acres of meadow, and one leuga of pasture, and six acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth four pounds.

Of this land an Englishman holds of William so much land as returns ten shillings.

Ratrev.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Ratrev. Aluwinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et vi serui et xiii uillani et iiii bordarii cum v carucis et ii porcarii reddentes viii porcos. Ibi dimidia acra prati et v acræ pasturæ. De hac terra tenent ii milites unam virgatam terræ et dimidiam et unus Anglicus unam virgatam terræ. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et viii uillani et vii bordarii. Olim et modo ualet iii libras et x solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (a); 23a.

William himself holds Ratreu. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and six serfs, and thirteen villeins, and four bordars, with five ploughs, and two swineherds returning eight swine. There are half an acre of meadow and five acres of pasture. Of this land two soldiers hold one virgate of land and a half, and one Englishman one virgate of land. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and eight it was worth as much when William received it. There two soldiers have a virgate and a half and two ploughs in demesne, and eight villeins, and seven bordars, and two serfs, and nineteen head of cattle, and twelve swine, and a hundred and nine sheep, and forty goats, and half an acre of meadow, and five acres of pasture. This is worth twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it. And a certain Englishman holds thence one virgate, which he himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, not being able to be separated from the demesne, and renders thence to William ten shillings by the year.

Dertrintona.

Willelmus habet i mansionem uocatur Dertrintona quam tenuit Aluvinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare xv carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus i ferlinum et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani ii ferlinos et viii carrucas et dimidiam. Ibi habet Willelmus xiii uillanos et vii bordarios et ix seruos et ii porcarios qui reddunt xix porcos et ii piscatores qui reddunt lxxx salmones et i roncinum et xi animalia et i porcum et lxxii oues et dimidiam leugam nemoris in longitudine et ii quadragenarios et dimidia in latitudine et xxx agros nemusculi et c agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet iiii libras et v solidos et quando Willelmus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (368b) 346.

William has a manor called Dertrintona, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by fifteen ploughs. Of this William has in demesne one ferling and two ploughs, and the villeins two ferlings and eight ploughs and a half. There William has thirteen villeins, and seven bordars, and nine serfs, and two swineherds who return twenty-one swine, and two fishermen who return eighty salmon, and one packhorse, and eleven head of cattle, and one swine, and seventy-two sheep, and wood half a leuga in length and two furlongs and a half in breadth, and thirty acres of coppice, and a hundred acres of pasture. This is worth four pounds and five shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Loscumma.

Et de supradicta uirga tenuit quidam tēgnus i mansionem quæ uocatur Loscumma. Ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus (et reddidit gildum pro i ferlino) non potuit de dominio separare. Et modo tenet illum Anschetillus de villeins, and seven bordars. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth three pounds and ten shillings.

Dertrintone.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Dertrintone. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est xv carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ix serui et xiii uillani et vii bordarii cum viii carucis et ii porcarii reddentes xxi porcos. Ibi c acræ pasturæ. Silua dimidia leuca longitudine et ii quarentenæ et dimidia latitudine et xxx acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet iiii libras et v solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (b); 23*b*.

William himself holds Dertrintone. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for fifteen ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and nine serfs, and thirteen villeins, and seven bordars, with eight ploughs, and two swineherds returning twenty-one swine. There are a hundred acres of pasture. Wood half a leuga in length and two furlongs and a half in breadth, and thirty acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth four pounds and five shillings.

Loscume.

De hac terra tenet Anschitillus de Willelmo unum ferling et pro tanto geldabat. Tempore regis Eduuardi unustainus tenuit et uocatum Loscume. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et dimidia et iiii uillani cum i seruo et dimidia acræ prati.

- Willelmo. Inde habet Anschetillus dimidium ferlinum et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidium ferlinum et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Anschetillus iiii uillanos et i seruum et iiii animalia et dimidium agrum prati. Hæc ualet xv solidos et quando Willelmus recepit x solidos.—Exon. D. (368b) 346.

And of the aforesaid virgate a certain thegn held a manor called Loscumma on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling, and it could not be separated from the demesne. And now Anschetill holds that of William. Of it Anschetill has in demesne half a ferling and one plough, and the villeins have half a ferling and one plough and a half. There Anschetill has four villeins, and one serf, and four head of cattle, and half an acre of meadow. This is worth fifteen [sic] shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when William received it.

Herbeneforda.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Herbeneforda quam tenuit Alricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rainaldus de Willelmo. Inde habet Rainaldus i uirgam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Rainaldus iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et iiii agros nemoris et ii agros prati. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Willelmus recepit viii solidos.—Exon. D. (368b) 347.

William has a manor called Herbeneforda, which Alric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three [sic] ploughs. Rainald holds this of William. Of this Rainald has in demesne one virgate, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Rainald has three villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and four acres of wood, and two acres of meadow. This is worth ten shillings, and it was worth eight shillings when William received it.

Engleborna.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Engleborna quam tenuit Alrix ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rainaldus de Willelmo. Inde habet Rainaldus in dominio i uirgam et iiii ferlinos et ii carrucas et uillani i ferlinum et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Rainaldus iiii bordarios et i seruum et i runcinum et i Olim x solidos. Modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (b); 23b.

Of this land Anschitil holds one ferling of William, and paid geld for as much. In the time of king Edward a thegn held it, and it was called Loscume. There are two ploughs and a half, and four villeins, with one serf, and half an acre of meadow. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth five shillings.

Erberneforde.

Rainaldus tenet de Willelmo Erberneforde. Alric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi iii uillani et ii bordarii cum i seruo habent i carucam. Ibi ii acræ prati et iiii acræ siluæ. Olim viii solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (b); 23b.

Rainald holds Erberneforde of William. Alric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. There are three villeins, and two bordars, with one serf, having one plough. There are two acres of meadow and four acres of wood. Formerly it was worth eight shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Engleborne.

Rainaldus tenet de Willelmo Engleborne. Alric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et dimidia et iiii bordarii cum i seruo et x acræ prati. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (b); 23b.

animal et lxii oues et x agros prati et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (368b, 369) 347.

William has a manor called Engleborna, which Alrix held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Rainald holds this of William. Of this Rainald has in demesne one virgate, and three ferlings, and two ploughs, and the villeins have one ferling and half a plough. There Rainald has four bordars, and one serf, and one packhorse, and one head of cattle, and sixty-two sheep, and ten acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Rainald holds Engleborne of William. Alric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs and a half, and four bordars, with one serf, and ten acres of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Poillei
Terra Willelmi de Poilleio in Debensira.

Radenda.

Willelmus de poilleio habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Radenda quam tenuit Alricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rainaldus de Willelmo. Inde habet Rainaldus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et villani dimidiam uirgam et ii boues in carrucam. Ibi habet Rainaldus iii uillanos et i seruum et vi animalia et vii porcos et xvii oues et xi capras et xx agros nemoris et iii agros prati et ii leugas pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat vi solidos.—Exon. D. (415) 387.

Land of William of Poillei in Devonshire.

William of Poillei has a manor called Radenda, which Alric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Rainald holds this of William. Of it Rainald has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and two plough oxen. There Rainald has three villeins, and one serf, and six head of cattle, and seven swine, and sixteen sheep, and eleven goats, and twenty acres of wood, and three acres of meadow, and two leugas of pasture. This is worth ten shillings, and it was worth six shillings when William received it.

Sirewilla.

Willelmus de Poilleio habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Sirewilla quam tenuit Vluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare viii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus i uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et villani i uirgam et iii carrucas. Ibi habet viii villanos et iii seruos et i uaccam et ii porcos et xxx oues et c agros nemoris et i agrum prati et ii leugas pascuæ. Hæc ualet xl solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat xx solidos. De supradictis iii uirgis tenent iii milites i uirgam de Willelmo et habent ibi ii carrucas in dominio et sunt in supradicto pretio.—Exon. D. (415) 387.

XXI. Terra Willelmi de Poillei.

Radeode.

Willelmus de Poillei tenet de rege Radeode. Alric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgam terræ. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio est una caruca cum i seruo et iii uillani cum ii bovis in carucam. Ibi iii acræ prati et xx acræ siluæ et ii leucæ pasturæ. Olim vi solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. III (b); 23b.

XXI. Land of William of Poillet.

William of Poillet holds Radeode of the king. Alric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and three villeins with two plough oxen. There are three acres of meadow, and twenty acres of wood, and two leugas of pasture. Formerly it was worth six shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Sirewelle.

Ipsē Willelmus tenet Sirewelle. Vluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et viii uillani cum iii carucis. Ibi i acra prati et c acræ siluæ et ii leucæ pasturæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.

De eadem terra tenent ii milites unam uirgatam terræ de Willelmo et ibi habent ii carucas.—Exch. D. III (b); 23b.

William of Poillei has a manor called Sirewilla, which Ulward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by eight ploughs. There William has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and three ploughs. There William has eight villeins, and four serfs, and one cow, and two swine, and thirty sheep, and a hundred acres of wood, and an acre of meadow, and two leugas of pasture. This is worth forty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when William received it. Of the aforesaid three virgates two soldiers hold one virgate of William, and have there two ploughs in demesne and they are [included] in the aforesaid value.

Estocha.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Estocha quam tenuit Alricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare xii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus i uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et villani ii uirgas et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus vi villanos et iii bordarios et vii seruos et vi animalia et c oues et iiii capras et xxx agros nemoris et i agrum prati et xl agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xl solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (415, 415b) 387.

William has a manor called Estocha, which Alric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. This can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of these William has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates and three ploughs. There William has six villeins, and three bordars, and seven serfs, and six head of cattle, and a hundred sheep, and four goats, and thirty acres of wood, and one acre of meadow, and forty acres of pasture. This is worth forty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when William received it.

Begeurda.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Begeurda quam tenuit Leuricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et dimidia. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et villani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus iii villanos et iii seruos et xx animalia et v porcos et l oues et xx agros prati et i leugam pascuæ in longitudine et dimidiam in latitudine. Hæc ualet xx solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (415b) 387.

William himself holds Sirewelle. Ulward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and four serfs, and eight villeins, with three ploughs. There is one acre of meadow, and a hundred acres of wood, and two leugas of pasture. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Of the same land two soldiers hold of William one virgate, and have there two ploughs.

Stoche.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Stoche. Alric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et vii serui et vi uillani et ii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi i acra prati et xl acræ pasturæ et xxx acræ siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. III (b); 23b.

William himself holds Stoche. Alric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and seven serfs, and six villeins, and two bordars, with three ploughs. There is one acre of meadow, and forty acres of pasture, and thirty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Begebrde.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Begevrde. Leuric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et iii uillani cum i caruca. Ibi xx acræ prati et pastura i leuca longitudine et dimidia leuca latitudine. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. III (b); 23b.

William has a manor called Begeucia, which Lauric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and a half. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Of these William has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There William has three villeins, and three serfs, and twenty head of cattle, and five swine, and fifty sheep, and twenty acres of meadow, and pasture one leuga in length and half a leuga in breadth. This is worth twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Meleberia.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Meleberia quam tenuit Ulnodus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et est penitus uastata.—Exon. D. (415b) 387.

William has a manor called Meleberia, which Ulnod held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate, and is wholly waste.

Derta.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Derta quam tenuit Alricius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Willelmo. Inde habet Radulfus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et villani iii uirgas et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus v uillani et vii bordarios et ii seruos et i molendinum et xx agros nemoris et xx agros prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet xxx solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (415b) 387.

William has a manor called Derte, which Alric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Radulf holds this of William. Of this Radulf has one virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have three virgates and two ploughs. There Radulf has five villeins, and seven bordars, and two serfs, and one mill, and twenty acres of wood, and twenty acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth thirty shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Cadabiria.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cadabiria quam tenuit Inguarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et William himself holds Begurde. Leuric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and a half. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and three serfs, and three villeins, with one plough. There are twenty acres of meadow, and pasture one leuga in length and half a leuga in breadth. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Meleberie.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Meleberie. Vlnod tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata terræ. Vastata est tota.—Exch. D. III (b); 23b.

William himself holds Meleberie. Ulnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. All is waste.

Derte.

Radulfus tenet de Willelmo Derte. Alric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et v uillani et vii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi molinus et xx acræ prati et totidem acræ pasturæ et totidem siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. III (b); 23b.

Radulf holds Derte of William. Alric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and two serfs, and five villeins, and seven bordars, with two ploughs. There are a mill, and twenty acres of meadow, and the same number of acres of pasture, and the same number of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty shillings.

Cadebirie.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Cadebirie. Ineuuar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ.

mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio i uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani ii uirgas et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus vii uillanos et i bordarium et iii seruos et i runcinum et lx oues et vii capras et iiii agros prati et iii uirgatas pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando recepit ualet xx solidos.—Exon. D. (415*b*, 416) 488.

William has a manor called Cadabiria, which Ingar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of these William has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates and three ploughs. There William has seven villeins, and one bordar, and three serfs, and one packhorse, and sixty sheep, and seven goats, and four acres of meadow, and three virgates of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he [William] received it.

Bouelia.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bouelia quam tenuit Olmarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet in dominio Willelmus i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus iiii uillanos et iii seruos et lxxx oues et iiii agros prati et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit xv.—Exon. D. (416) 389.

William has a manor called Bouelia, which Olmar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of this William has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There William has four villeins, and three serfs, and eighty sheep, and four acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth fifteen shillings when he [William] received it.

Blacagraua.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Blacagraua quam tenuit Haca ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio i ferdinum et i carrucam et uillani iii ferdinos et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus viii uillanos et iiii bordarios et i runcinum et xxvii animalia et xl oues et xv capras et xii agros prati et lx Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et vii uillani et i bordario cum iii carucis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et iii virgatæ pasturæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. III (b); 23b.

William himself holds Cadebirie. Inewar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and seven villeins, and one bordar, with three ploughs. There are four acres of meadow and three virgates of pasture. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Bobelie.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Bovelie. Vlmar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iiii uillani et iii serui et iiii acræ prati. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. III (b); 23b.

William himself holds Bovelie. Ulmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, and four villeins, and three serfs, and four acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Blachegrave.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Blachegrave. Hache tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iiii bordarii et viii uillani cum i caruca. Ibi xii acræ prati et lx acræ pasturæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. III (b); 23b.

agros pascue et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (416) 388.

William has a manor called Blacagraua, which Haca held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of this William has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have three ferlings and one plough. There William has eight villeins, and four bordars, and one packhorse, and twenty-seven head of cattle, and forty sheep, and fifteen goats, and twelve acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth five shillings when he [William] received it.

Pidaliga.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Pidaliga quam tenuit Hacca ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii ferdinis et dimidio. Has possunt arare ii carruæ. Et Radulfus eam tenet de Willelmo. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio i ferdinum et dimidium et i carrucam et uillanos i ferdinum. Ibi habet Radulfus i uillanum et i bordarium et ii animalia et ii porcos et xv oues et iiii agros nemoris et vi agros prati et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (416) 388.

William has a manor called Pidaliga, which Hacca held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two ferlings and a half. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. And Radulf holds this of William. Of these Radulf has in demesne one ferling and a half and one plough, and the villeins have one ferling. There Radulf has one villein, and one bordar, and two head of cattle, and two swine, and fifteen sheep, and four acres of wood, and six acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when he [William] received it.

Assacota.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Assacota quam tenuit Almarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidio ferdino. Hanc possunt arare dimidia carruca. Et Holduinus tenet eam de Willelmo. Ibi habet Holduinus i uillanum qui reddit xxx denarios.

Et ista ii maneria sunt iuncta cum Blacagraua uidelicet Peideliga et Assacota et reddunt xii solidos et dimidium.*—Exon. D. (416b) 388.

* This sentence is written in the margin.

William himself holds Blachegrave. Hache held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne are one plough, and four bordars, and eight villeins with one plough. There are twelve acres of meadow and sixty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Pidelige.

Radulfus tenet de Willelmo Pidelige. Hache tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii ferlings et dimidio. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i uillano et uno bordario et vi acra prati et iiii acra siluæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (b); 23*b*.

Radulf holds Pidelige of William. Hache held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two ferlings and a half. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one villein, and one bordar, and there are six acres of meadow, and four acres of wood. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Assecote.

Elduinus tenet de Willelmo Assecote. Almar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidio ferling. Terra est dimidiæ carucæ. Ibi est unus uillanus et reddit xxx denarios.

He duæ terræ Pidelige et Assecote sunt adjunctæ ad Blachegraaæ et reddunt xii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 111 (b); 23*b*.

William has a manor called Assacota, which Almar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a ferling. This can be ploughed by half a plough. And Holdwin holds this of William. There Holdwin has one villein, who returns thirty pence.

And these two manors are joined with Blacagrava, that is to say Pideliga and Assacota, and return twelve shillings and a half.

Olfaldeshodes.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Olfaldeshodes quam tenuit Olnotdus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida dimidio ferdino minus. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus vi uillanos et i bordarium et i seruum et iiii animalia et xx agros nemoris et iiii agros prati et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (416b) 388.

William has a manor called Olfaldeshodes, which Olnut held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide less half a ferling. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of this William has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and a half and three ploughs. There William has six villeins, and one bordar, and one serf, and four head of cattle, and twenty acres of wood, and four acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth five shillings when he [William] received it.

Derta.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Derta quam tenuit Leuegarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Et Radulfus tenet eam de Willelmus. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio i ferdinum et uillani iiii ferdinos et habent i carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus iiii uillanos et i seruum et iiii agros nemoris et ii prati et ix pascuæ et ualet per annum vii solidos et quando recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (416b) 388.

William has a manor called Derta, which Leugar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. And Radulf holds it of William. Of this Radulf has in demesne one Eldwin holds Assecote of William. Almar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a ferling. There is land for half a plough. There is one villein, and it returns thirty pence.

These two lands, Pidelige and Assecote, are joined to Blache-grave, and return twelve shillings and sixpence.

Ulfaldeshodes.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Ulfaldeshodes. Vlnodus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida dimidio ferling minus. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et vi uillani et i bordarius cum iiii carucis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et xx acræ siluæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (c) ; 24a.

William himself holds Ulfaldeshodes. Ulnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide less half a ferling. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and there are six villeins, and one bordar with three ploughs. There are four acres of meadow and twenty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Derte.

Radulfus tenet de Willelmo Derte. Leuegar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi iiii uillani cum i seruo habent i carucam. Ibi ii acræ prati et iiii acræ siluæ et xx acræ pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (c) ; 24a.

Radulf holds Derte of William. Levegar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There three villeins with one serf have one plough. There are two acres of meadow, and three acres of ferling, and the villeins three ferlings, and they have one plough. There Radulf has three villeins, and one serf, and three acres of wood, and two acres of meadow, and nine [sic] acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year seven [sic] shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he [William] received it.

Wrd̃a.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wrd̃a quam tenuit Sauuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Willelmo. Inde habet Radulfus ii ferlinos et i carrucam in dominio et villani ii ferlinos et i carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus v uillanos . . . ii seruos et iii animalia et xl oues et ii agros prati. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Willelmus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (416b) 389.

William has a manor called Wrd̃a, which Saward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Radulf holds this of William. Of this Radulf has in demesne two ferlings and one plough, and the villeins have two ferlings and one plough. There Radulf has five villeins . . . two serfs, and three head of cattle, and forty sheep, and two acres of meadow. This is worth ten shillings, and it was worth as much when William received it.

Forohoda.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Forohoda quam tenuit Leumerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Hanc tenet Herbertus de Willelmo. Inde habet Herbertus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Herbertus iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et iiii oues et xvi agros nemoris et iiii agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (417) 389.

William has a manor called Forohoda, which Leumer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Herbert holds this of William. Of it Herbert has one virgate and one plough in demesne, and the villeins have one virgate and two ploughs. There Herbert has four villeins, and two bordars, and four sheep, and sixteen acres of wood, and four acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty wood, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth thirteen shillings.

Worde.

Radulfus tenet de Willelmo Worde. Sauuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et v uillani cum i caruca et ii acræ prati. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (c); 24a.

Radulf holds Worde of William. Saward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are one plough, and two serfs, and five villeins with one plough, and two acres of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Forhode.

Herbertus tenet de Willelmo Forhode. Lesmer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iiii uillani et ii bordarii cum i carucis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ et xvi acræ siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (c); 24a.

Herbert holds Forhode of William. Lesmer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and four villeins, and two bordars, with two ploughs. There are four acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture, and sixteen acres of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he [William] received it.

Lega.

Willelmus de Poileio habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lega quam tenuit Osferdus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare viii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus i hidam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i hidam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus ix uillanos et vii seruos et vi animalia et cx oues et iiii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et ii in latitudine et ii agros prati et iiii quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et ii in latitudine et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (417) 389.

William de Poillei has a manor called Lega, which Osferd held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Of these William has in demesne one hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have one hide and two ploughs. There William has nine villeins, and seven serfs, and six head of cattle, and a hundred and ten sheep, and wood four furlongs in length and two furlongs in breadth, and two acres of meadow, and pasture four furlongs in length and two furlongs in breadth; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when William received it.

Botesforda.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Botesforda quam tenuit Aluuinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus iii uillanos et i bordarium et iii agros prati et ualet x solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (417) 389.

William has a manor called Botesforda, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of these William has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There William has three villeins, and one bordar, and three acres of meadow; and it is worth ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when William received it.

Lege.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Lege. Offers tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et vii serui et ix uillani cum ii carucis. Ibi ii acræ prati et pastura iiii quarentenæ longitudine et ii quarentenæ latitudine et tantundem siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (c); 24a.

William himself holds Lege. Offers held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and seven serfs, and nine villeins, with two ploughs. There are two acres of meadow, and pasture four furlongs in length and two furlongs in breadth, and as much of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Botesforde.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Botesforde. Aluuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii uillani et i bordarium cum i caruca et iii acræ prati. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (c); 24a.

William himself holds Botesforde. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and three villeins, and one bordar with one plough, and three acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Goseuella.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Goseuella quam tenuit Heccha ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Rotbertus tenet hanc de Willelmo. Inde habet Rotbertus i uirgam in dominio et i carrucam et uillani habent di uirgam et duos boues. Ibi habet Rotbertus i uillanum et iii bordarios et i uaccam et xxx oues et v porcos et ii agros nemoris et ualet per annum v solidos.—Exon. D. (417, 417b) 389.

William has a manor called Gosewella, which Heccha held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Robert holds this of William. Of this Robert has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and two oxen. There Robert has one villein, and three bordars, and one cow, and thirty sheep, and five swine, and two acres of wood; and it is worth by the year five shillings.

Bicheleia.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bicheleia quam tenuit Brismarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus i uirgam in dominio et ii carrucas et uillani iii uirgas et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus vii uillanos et iiii bordarios et vii seruos et vi animalia et v porcos et c et xlii oues et xiiii capras et i piscatiam quæ ualet per annum v solidos et i leugam nemoris in longitudine et i in latitudine et iiii agros prati et i leugam in longitudine et iiii quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualet per annum xx solidos.—Exon. D. (417b) 389.

William has a manor called Bicheleia, which Brismar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Of it William has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have three virgates and three ploughs. There William has seven villeins, and four bordars, and seven serfs, and six head of cattle, and five swine, and a hundred and forty-six sheep, and fourteen goats, and one fishery, which is worth by the year five shillings, and wood one leuga in length and one in breadth, and Gosewelle.

Robertus tenet de Willelmo Gosewelle. Heche tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i uillano et iii bordarii et ii acræ siluæ. Valet v solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (c); 24a.

Robert holds Gosewelle of William. Heche held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one villein, and there are three bordars, and two acres of wood. Worth five shillings.

Bichelle.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Bichellie. Brismar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et vii serui et vii uillani et iiii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi piscaria reddens v solidos et iiii acræ prati. Pastura i leuca longitudine et iiii quaren-tenæ latitudine. Silua i leuca longitudine et una leuca latitudine. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (c); 24a.

William himself holds Bichellie. Brismar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and seven serfs, and seven villeins, and four bordars, with three ploughs. There is a fishery returning five shillings, and four acres of meadow. Pasture one leuga in length and four furlongs in breadth. Wood one leuga in length and one leuga in breadth. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

four acres of meadow, and pasture one leuga in length and four furlongs in breadth; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when William received it.

Bochelanda.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bochelanda quam tenuit Brismarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii hidis et uirga et dimidia. Has possunt arare xv carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus hidam et dimidiam in dominio et iii carrucas et uillani habent ii hidas dimidia uirga minus et vii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus xxiiii uillanos et x bordarios et xii seruos et xx animalia et xl porcos et c et xxx oues et i piscationem quæ ualet per annum x solidos et i salinam et iiii leugas nemoris in longitudine et ii quadragenarias in latitudine et viii agros prati et i leugam pascuæ in longitudine et i in latitudine et ualet per annum c solidos et quando Willelmus recepit ualebat l solidos.—Exon. D. (417b) 390.

William has a manor called Bochelanda, which Brismar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three hides and a virgate and a half. These can be ploughed by fifteen ploughs. Of these William has in demesne a hide and a half and three ploughs, and the villeins have two hides less half a virgate and seven ploughs. There William has twenty-four villeins, and ten bordars, and twelve serfs, and twenty head of cattle, and forty swine, and one hundred and thirty sheep, and one fishery, which is worth by the year ten shillings, and one saltwork, and wood four leugas in length and two furlongs in breadth, and eight acres of meadow, and pasture a leuga in length and one in breadth; and it is worth by the year one hundred shillings, and it was worth fifty shillings when William received it.

Sanforda.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Sanforda quam tenuit Brismarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ. Robertus tenet hanc de Willelmo. Inde habet Robertus dimidiam uirgam in dominio et i carrucam et uillani habet i uirgam et dimidiam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Robertus xii uillanos et i bordarium et i seruum et iiii oues et i leugam nemoris in longitudine et iiii quadragenarias in latitudine et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine i

Bocheland.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Bocheland. Brismar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis et una virgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est xv carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et xii serui et xxiiii uillani et x bordarii cum vii carucis. Ibi salina et piscaria reddentes x solidos et viii acræ prati. Pastura una leuca longitudine et tantundem latitudine. Silua iiii leucæ longitudine et ii quarentenæ latitudine. Olim l solidos. Modo ualet c solidos.—Exch. D. III (c); 24a.

William himself holds Bocheland. Brismar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides and one virgate of land and a half. There is land for fifteen ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and twelve serfs, and twenty-four villeins, and ten bordars, with seven ploughs. There is a saltwork and fishery returning ten shillings, and eight acres of meadow. Pasture one leuga in length and as much in breadth. Wood four leugas in length and two furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was worth fifty shillings. Now it is worth a hundred shillings.

Sanford.

Robertus tenet de Willelmo Sanford. Brismar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et xii uillani et i bordarius cum ii carucis. Ibi pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Silua i leuca longitudine et iiii quarentenæ latitudine. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. III (c); 24a.

quadragenariam in latitudine et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando ipse recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (417b, 418) 390.

William has a manor called Sanforda, which Brismar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Robert holds this of William. Of it Robert has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have a virgate and a half and two ploughs. There Robert has twelve villeins, and one bordar, and one serf, and four sheep, and wood one leuga in length and four furlongs in breadth, and pasture half a leuga in length and one furlong in breadth; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he himself received it.

Robert holds Sanford of William. Brismar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and twelve villeins, and one bordar, with two ploughs. There is pasture half a leuga in length and one furlong in breadth, wood one leuga in length and four furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Terræ Francorum Milītorū in Debenesira.

Poldreham.

Wilelmus de Hou habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Poldreham quam tenuit Torssus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare xii carrucæ. Et Ranulfus tenet eam de Willelmo. Inde habet Rannulfus in dominio i uirgam et iii carrucas et uillani i uirgam et viii carrucas. Ibi habet Ranulfus xii uillanos et xii bordarios et viii seruos et i runcinum et i molendinum qui reddit l denarios per annum et viii animalia et xvii porcos et cl oues et xl capras et i leugam et iiii agros nemusculi et xx agros prati et l agros pascuæ et ualet per annum vi libras et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.

Et in ista mansione dimidiam uirga terræ quæ iacebat in Esseminestra ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et ibi carruca quæ reddit v solidos per annum.—Exon. D. (457) 422.

Lands of the Soldiers of the Franks in Devonshire.

William of How has a manor called Poldreham, which Torsus held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. And Ranulf holds it of William. Of this Ranulf has in demesne one virgate and three ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and eight ploughs. There Ranulf has twelve villeins, and twelve bordars, and eight serfs, and one packhorse, and one mill, which returns fifty pence by the year, and eight head of cattle, and seventeen swine, and a hundred and fifty sheep, and forty goats, and one leuga and four acres [sic] of coppice, and twenty acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year six pounds, and it was worth as much when he [William] received it.

And in this manor is half a virgate of land which lay in Exminster on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and there is one plough, which returns five shillings by the year.

Wittestani.

Willelmus de Ov habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wites-tani quam tenuit Tolus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit

XXII. Terra Willelmi de Ow.

Poldreham.

Willelmus de Ow tenet de rege Poldreham et Rannulfus de eo. Torsus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucae et viii serui et xii uillani et xii bordarii cum viii carucis. Ibi molinus reddens l denarios et xx acrae prati et l acrae pasturae et iiii acrae siluae minutae. Olim et modo ualet vi libras.

In hoc manerio est dimidia virgata terrae quae iacebat in Aisseminstre tempore regis Eduuardi et ibi est una caruca. Valet v solidos.—Exch. D. III (c) ; 24a.

XXII. Land of William of Ow.

William of Ow holds Poldreham of the king, and Ranulf of him. Torsus held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and eight serfs, and twelve villeins, and twelve bordars, with eight ploughs. There is a mill returning fifty pence, and twenty acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and four acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth six pounds.

In this manor is half a virgate of land which lay in Aisseminstre in the time of king Edward, and there is one plough. Worth five shillings.

Witestan.

Idem Rannulfus tenet de Willermo Witestan. Toli tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Ibi habet Rannulfus qui terram tenet de Willelmo vi uillanos qui habent in ea ii carrucas et ii seruos et iiii agros nemoris et ii agros prati et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Uuillelmus recepit ualebat vi solidos.—Exon. D. (459) 424.

William de Ou has a manor called Witestani, which Tolus held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. There Ranulf, who holds the land of William, has six villeins, who have therein two ploughs, and two serfs, and four acres of wood, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth six shillings when William received it.

virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Hanc habent ibi vi uillani et ii serui. Ibi ii acræ prati et iiii acræ siluæ. Olim vi solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (c); 24a.

The same Ranulf holds Witestan of William. Toli held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There six villeins and two serfs have this. There are two acres of meadow and four acres of wood. Formerly it was worth six shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Terra Walscini de Duaco in Debenesira.

Holecoma.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Holecoma quam tenuit Aluvinus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Et habet in dominio i ferdinum et dimidiam carrucam et uillani i ferdinum et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Aluvinus i uillanum et i seruum et iii animalia et xx oues et i quadragenariam nemoris et vi agros prati et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum v solidos.—Exon. D. (345) 324.

Land of Walscinus of Duaco in Devonshire.

Walter has a manor called Holecoma, which Alwin held, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. And he has in demesne one ferling and half a plough, and the villeins have one ferling and half a plough. There Alwinus has one villein, and one serf, and three head of cattle, and twenty sheep, and wood one furlong in length, and six acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year five shillings.

Hurtesberia.

Walscinus de Duaco habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hurtesberia quam tenuit Editda ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare xvii carrucæ. Inde habet Walscinus dimidiam hidam et iiii carrucas in dominio et villani i hidam et dimidiam et vii carrucas. Ibi habet Walscinus xx villanos et x bordarios et vi seruos et ii roncinū et xi animalia et xxx porcos et cc oues et lxxxiii capras et c agros nemoris et i agrum prati et cc agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet vi libras et quando Walscinus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (345) 324.

Walscinus of Duaco has a manor called Hurtesberia, which Editda held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. This can be ploughed by seventeen ploughs. Of these Walscinus has in demesne half a hide and four ploughs, and the villeins have one hide and a half and seven ploughs. There Walscinus has twenty villeins, and ten bordars, and six serfs, and two packhorses, and eleven head of cattle, and thirty swine, and two

XXIII. Terra Walterii de Dowai.

Holecome.

Walterius de Dowai tenet de rege Holecome. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est cum i uillano et uno seruo. Ibi vi acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ et una quarentena siluæ. Valet v solidos.—Exch. D. III (c); 24a.

XXIII. Land of Walter of Douay.

Walter of Douay holds Holecome of the king. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough, which is there, with one villein and one serf. There are six acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture, and one furlong of wood. Worth five shillings.

Hurtesberie.

Ipse Walterius tenet Hvrtesberie. Eddida tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est xvii carucis. In dominio sunt iiii carucæ et vi serui et xx uillani et x bordarii cum vii carucis. Ibi i acra prati et cc acræ pasturæ et c acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet vi libras.—Exch. D. III (c); 24a.

Walter himself holds Hurtesberie. Eddida held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for seventeen ploughs. In demesne are four ploughs, and six serfs, and twenty villeins, and ten bordars, with six ploughs. There are one acre of meadow, and two hundred acres of pasture, and one hundred acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth six pounds.

hundred sheep, and eighty-three goats, and a hundred acres of wood, and one acre of meadow, and two hundred acres of pasture. This is worth six pounds, and it was worth as much when Walscin received it.

Hagitona.

<sup>Soinus</sup>
Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hagitona quam
<sup>et Godritius pariter</sup>
tenuit Vlmarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare v carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Vluuricus de Walscino. Inde habet Vluuritius i uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani habent ii uirgas et i carrucam. Ibi habet Vluuritius x uillanos et ii bordarios et iii seruos et x animalia et ix porcos et l oues et xxxvii capras et xx agros nemoris et c agros pascuæ et mansio quam tenuit Vlmarus ualet per annum xx solidos et alia quam tenuit Godritius ualet per annum x solidos et quando Walscinus eam recepit ualebat xv solidos.—Exon. D. (345) 324.

Walter Soinus has a manor called Hagitona, which Ulmer and Godric held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by five ploughs. Ulric now holds this of Walscin. Of these Ulric has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates and one plough. There Ulric has ten villeins, and two bordars, and three serfs, and ten head of cattle, and nine swine, and fifty sheep, and thirty-seven goats, and twenty acres of wood, and a hundred acres of pasture; and the manor which Ulmar held is worth twenty shillings by the year, and the other which Godric held is worth ten shillings by the year, and it was worth fifteen shillings when Walscin received it.

Stotlega.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Stotlega quam tenuit Algarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Arnaldus de Walcino. In ea habet Arnaldus i carrucam et ii uillanos qui habent dimidiam carrucam et ii bordarios et iii seruos et iii animalia et xxv oues et vi agros nemoris et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Walscinus recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (345b) 324.

Walscin has a manor called Stotlega, which Algar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered

Hagetone.

Vluric tenet de Walterio Hagetone. Vlmar et Godric tenebant in paragio tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et x uillani et ii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi c acræ pasturæ et xx acræ siluæ. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (d); 24*b*.

Ulric holds Hagetone of Walter. Ulmar and Godric held it in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and ten villeins, and two bordars, with one plough. There are a hundred acres of pasture and twenty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Stotlege.

Ernaldus tenet de Walterio Stotlege. Algar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia cum ii bordariis et iii seruis et xx acræ pasturæ et vi acræ siluæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 111 (d); 24*b*.

Ernald holds Stotlege of Walter. Algar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Arnald now holds it of Walscin. Arnald has in it one plough and two villeins, who have half a plough, and two bordars, and three serfs, and three head of cattle, and twenty-five sheep, and six acres of wood, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Walscin received it.

Baentona.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Baentona quam tenuit Eduuardus rex ea die qua ipse fuit uiuus et mortuus et in ista terra q[uatuor] hidæ iacent nescimus quia numquam reddidit gildum. Hanc terram possunt arare xxv carrucæ. Inde habet Walscinus terras iiii carrucas in dominio et ibi habet ii carrucas et uillani habent terras xviii carrucas. Ibi q[sic] habet Walscinus xxxi uillanos et xx bordarios et ii seruos et xv porcarios qui reddunt cvi porcos et dimidium porcum et ii runcinos et i molendinum qui reddit x solidos et ii animalia et vi porcos et xxiii oues et l capras et cccxx agros nemoris.

Et cum ista terra iacet i hida terræ quam tenuerunt v tegni parita pro v mansionibus. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. De ista tenet Renuallus ii uirgas et dimidiam. Ibi habet Renuallus i carrucam et vii uillanos et uillani habent i carrucam et iiii bordarios et ii seruos et i animal et i porcum et ii agros nemoris et iiii agros prati. Et de ista eadem terra tenet Rademarus i uirgam et ibi habet Rademarus i carrucam et iiii uillanos et i agrum et dimidium prati et x agros pascuæ. Et Girardus habet inde dimidium ferdinum. Et de ista eadem hida habet W[illelmus] de Moione dimidium ferdinum quod accepit iniuste supradictum Walscinum. Et cum ista terra ualet Baentona xviii libras per annum et quando recepit eam Walscinus ualet xxi ad pondus.—Econ. D. (231b) 324.

Walscin has a manor called Baentona, which king Edward held on the day on which he was alive and dead, and in this land lie four hides, of which we know nothing, because it never rendered geld. This land can be ploughed by twenty-five ploughs. Of this Walscin has four plough lands in demesne, and there he has two ploughs, and the villeins have eighteen plough lands. There Walscin has thirty-one villeins, and twenty bordars, and two serfs, and fifteen swineherds, who render a hundred and six swine and half a swine, and two packhorses, and a mill, which renders ten shillings, and two head of cattle, and six swine, and twenty-three sheep, and fifty goats, and three hundred and twenty acres of wood.

is land for two ploughs. There is one plough and a half, with two bordars, and three serfs, and there are twenty acres of pasture, and six acres of wood. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Baentone.

Ipsē Walterius tenet Baentone. Eduuardus rex tenuit. Hæc terra numquam geldauit. Terra est xxv carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et xxxi uillani et xx bordarii cum xviii carucis et xv porcarii reddentes cvi porcos et dimidium. Ibi molinus reddens x solidos et cccxx acræ siluæ.

Huic manerio adjacet una hida quam tenebant in paragio pro v manerijs v taini tempore regis Eduuardi. Terra est iiii carucis. Rademar et Rademar et Girardus tenent de Walterio. Ibi sunt iiii carucæ et iii uillani et iii bordarii et ii serui et iiii acræ prati et dimidia et x acræ pasturæ. De hac hida dimidium ferling accepit Willelmus de Moion iniuste supradictum Walscinum.

Totum Bentone cum appendicibus ualet xviii libras. Olim ualebat xxi libras ad pondus.—Exch. D. III (d); 24b.

Walter himself holds Baentone. Edward the king held it. This land never paid geld. There is land for twenty-five ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and thirty-one villeins, and twenty bordars, with eighteen ploughs, and fifteen swineherds, returning a hundred and six swine and a half. There is a mill returning ten shillings, and there are three hundred and twenty acres of wood.

And with this land lies a hide of land which five thegns held in partage for five manors. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of this Rennall holds two virgates and a half. Rennall has there one plough and seven villeins, and the villeins have one plough, and three bordars, and two serfs, and one head of cattle, and one swine, and two acres of wood, and three acres of meadow. And of this same land Rademar holds one virgate, and there Rademar has one plough, and three villeins, and one acre and a half of meadow, and ten acres of pasture. And Girard has there half a ferling. And of this same hide W[illiam] of Mohun has half a ferling, taken unjustly from the aforesaid Walscin. And Beentona is worth with this land eighteen pounds by the year, and it was worth twenty-one [pounds] by weight when Walscin received it.

Deppafordæ.

Walscinus tenet ii mansiones quas tenuerunt duo tagni pariter quæ uocantur Deppafordæ ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Et Oluricus tenet eam de Walscino. Inde habet Oluricus in dominio i uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani i uirgam et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Oluricus vi uillanos et iiii bordarios et iii seruos et ii asinos et iiii animalia et xii porcos et cix oues et liiii capras et x agros nemoris et ii agros et dimidium prati et x agros pascuæ et i molendinum qui reddit viii denarios per annum et ualet per annum hæc mansio xxx solidos et quando recepit ualebat xx solidos. Et istam mansionem tenet Walscinus de Regina et inde uocat regem aduocatam.—Exon. D. (346) 325.

Walscin holds two manors, called Deppafordæ, which were held by two thegns in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hida. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. And Oluric holds this of Walscin. Of this Oluric has in demeane one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and three ploughs. There Oluric has six villeins, and four bordars, and three serfs, and two asses, and four head of cattle, and twelve swine, and a hundred and nine sheep, and fifty-four goats, and ten acres of wood, and two acres and a half of meadow, and ten acres of pasture, and a mill, which renders eight pence by the year; and this manor is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he [Walscin] received it. And this manor Walscin holds of the queen, and thence he calls the king his voucher.

Contiguous to this manor is a hide which was held in partage for five manors by five thegns in the time of king Edward. There is land for four ploughs. Rademar and Rademar and Girard hold of Walter. There are four ploughs, and three villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and four acres of meadow and a half, and ten acres of pasture. Of this hide half a ferling William de Moion took possession of wrongfully from the aforesaid Walter.

The whole of Bentone, with the appendages, is worth eighteen pounds. Formerly it was worth twenty-one pounds by weight.

Depeforde.

Ulric tenet de Walteris Depeforde. Geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et vi uillani et iiii bordarii cum vi carucis. Ibi molinus reddens viii denarios et ii acrå prati et dimidia et x acrå pasturæ et x acrå siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xxv solidos. Duo taini tenuerunt in paragio pro ii manerijis. Hoc manerium tenet Walscinus de regina et inde regem aduocat.—Exch. D. III (d); 24b.

Ulric holds Depeforde of Walter. It paid geld for half a hide. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and six villeins, and four bordars, with six ploughs. There is a mill returning eight pence, and there are two acres and a half of meadow, and ten acres of pasture, and ten acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth twenty-five shillings. Two thegns held in partage for two manors. This manor Walter holds of the queen, and thence vouches the king.

Hochaorda.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hochaorda quam tenuit Etnoldus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis terræ. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Et Girardus tenet eam de Walscino. Inde habet Girardus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani ii uirgas et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Girardus vii uillanos et vi bordarios et ii seruus et vi animalia et xiiii porcos et xii oues et ii quadragenarias nemoris et ii agros prati et l agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxxv solidos et quando recepit ualebat xxx solidos.—Exon. D. (346) 325.

Walscin has a manor called Hochaorda, which Etnold held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates of land. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. And Girard holds this of Walscin. Of these Girard has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have two virgates and three ploughs. There Girard has seven villeins, and six bordars, and two serfs, and six head of cattle, and fourteen swine, and twelve sheep, and two furlongs of wood, and two acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty-five shillings, and it was worth thirty shillings when he [Walscin] received it.

Cresseualla.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cresseualla quam tenuit Ordric ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Et Girardus tenet eam de Walscino. Inde habet Girardus i seruum et ii agros prati et ualet per annum v solidos.—Exon. D. (346) 325.

Walscin has a manor called Cresseualla, which Ordric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by one plough. And Girard holds this of Walscin. Of this Girard has one serf and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year five shillings.

Offecoma.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Offecoma quam tenuit Etdeua ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro xiiii hidis. Has possunt arare xxx carrucæ. Inde habet Walscinus in dominio v hidas et ii carrucas et uillani ix hidas et xv carrucas. Ibi habet

Hocheorde.

Ipse Walterius tenet Hocheorde. Ednodus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et vii uillani et vi bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi ii acræ prati et i acræ pasturæ et iii quarentenæ siluæ. Olim xxx solidos. Modo ualet xxxv solidos.—Exch. D. III (d); 24b.

Walter himself holds Hocheorde. Edward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and two serfs, and seven villeins, and six bordars, with three ploughs. There are two acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and three furlongs of wood. Formerly it was worth thirty shillings. Now it is worth thirty-five shillings.

Cressewalde.

Girardus tenet de Walterio Cressewalde. Ordric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi unus seruus et ii acræ prati. Valet v solidos.—Exch. D. III (d); 24b.

Girard holds Cressewalde of Walter. Ordric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for one plough. There are one serf and two acres of meadow. Worth five shillings.

Offecome.

Ipse Walterius tenet Offecome. Eddeua tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro xiiii hida. Terra est xxx carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et vi serui et xlv uillani et vi bordarii cum xv carucis. Ibi ii molini reddentes x solidos et xxv acræ prati et xxv acræ siluæ minutæ et lx Walscinus xlv uillanos et vi bordarios et vi seruos et i runcinum et xiiii animalia et ii porcarios qui reddunt xv porcos et cxx oues et x capras et ii molendinos qui reddunt x solidos per annum et xxv agros nemusculi et xxv agros prati et lx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xii libras et quando recepit x libras.—Exon. D. (346b) 325.

Walscin has a manor called Offecoma, which Etdeus held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for fourteen hides. These can be ploughed by thirty ploughs. Of these Walscin has in demeane five hides and two ploughs, and the villeins have nine hides and fifteen ploughs. There Walscin has forty-five villeins, and six bordars, and six serfs, and one packhorse, and fourteen head of cattle, and two swineherds, who render fifteen swine, and two hundred and twenty sheep, and ten goats, and two mills, which render ten shillings by the year, and twenty-five acres of coppice, and twenty-five acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twelve pounds, and it was worth ten pounds when he [Walscin] received it.

Chenuestan.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Chenuestan quam tenuit Algarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare vii carrucæ. Modo tenet Rolfus de Walscino. Inde habet Rolfus i uirgam in dominio et i carrucam et uillani habent i carrucam. Ibi habet Rolfus vi uillanos et i bordarium et i seruum et iii animalia et xv porcos et lxxx oues et xxvii capras et v quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et i in latitudine et xii agros prati et lx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Walscinus recepit ualebat xxx solidos.—Exon. D. (346b) 326.

Walscin has a manor called Chenuestan, which Algar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by seven ploughs. Now Rolf holds this of Walscin. Of this Rolf has in demeane one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one plough. There Rolf has six villeins, and one bordar, and one serf, and three head of cattle, and fifteen swine, and eighty sheep, and twenty-seven goats, and wood five furlongs in length and one in breadth, and twelve acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth thirty shillings when Walscin received it.

acræ pasturæ et ibi ii porcarii reddentes xv porcos. Olim x libras. Modo ualet xii libras.—Exch. D. III (d); 24*b*.

Walter himself holds Offecome. Eddeva held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for fourteen hides. There is land for thirty ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and six serfs, and forty-five villeins, and six bordars, with fifteen ploughs. There are two mills returning ten shillings, and twenty-five acres of meadow, and twenty-five acres of coppice, and sixty acres of pasture, and there are two swineherds returning fifteen swine. Formerly it was worth ten pounds. Now it is worth twelve pounds.

Chenbestan.

Rolf tenet de Walterio Chenvestan. Algar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est vii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum uno seruo et vi uillani cum i bordario et i caruca. Ibi xii acræ prati et lx acræ pasturæ. Olim xxx solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. III (d); 24*b*.

Rolf holds Chenuestan of Walter. Algar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for seven ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and six villeins, with one bordar, and one plough. There are twelve acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth thirty shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Chenuestan.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Chenuestan quam tenuit Leuvinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii fertiniis. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Modo tenet hanc Rolfus de Walscino. Inde habet Rolfus i fertinum in dominio et i carrucam et uillani habent i carrucam. Ibi habet Rolfus iii uillanos et i bordarium et i seruum et ix animalia et iii porcos et xxii oues et x et viii capras et iiii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et i quadragenariam in latitudine et xvi agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos.—Exon. D. (346b) 326.

Walscin has a manor called Chenuestan, which Lewin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three ferlings. These can be ploughed by four ploughs. Rolf now holds this of Walscin. Of these Rolf has in demeene one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have one plough. There Rolf has three villeins, and one bordar, and one serf, and nine head of cattle, and three swine, and twenty-two sheep, and eighteen goats, and wood four furlongs in length and one in breadth, and sixteen acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings.

Dunesforda.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Dunesforda quam tenuit Elsi ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et dimidia. Hanc possunt arare x carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Gerardus de Walscino. Inde habet i uirgam Gerardus in dominio et i carrucam et uillani v carrucas. Ibi habet Gerardus xii uillanos et viii bordarios et vii seruos et viii animalia et lxx <sup>quadragenarias</sup> et v oues et iiii capras et x agros nemoris et xx agros prati et v quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et ii in latitudine et ualet per annum l solidos et quando recepit ualebat xl solidos.—*Exon. D. (347) 326*.*

Walscin has a manor called Dunesford, which Elsi held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for a hide and a half. This can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Gerard now holds it of Walscin. Of this Gerard has in demeene one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have five ploughs. There Gerard has twelve villeins, and eight bordars, and seven serfs, and eight head of cattle, and seventy-five sheep, and Chenbestan.

Idem Rolf tenet de Walterio Chenvestan. Leuvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii ferlinga. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iii uillani cum i bordario et i caruca. Ibi xvi acrae prati et xxx acrae pasturae. Silua iiii quarentenae longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Valet x solidos.—Exch. D. III (d); 24b.

The same Rolf holds Chenuestan of Walter. Lewin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three ferlings. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and there are three villeins; with one bordar, and one plough. There are sixteen acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture. Wood four furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. Worth ten shillings.

Donesford.

Girardus tenet de Walterio Donesford. Elsi tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida et dimidia. Terra est x carucis. In dominio est i caruca et vii serui et xii uillani et viii bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi xx acrae prati et x acrae siluae. Pastura v quarentenae longitudine et ii quarentenae latitudine. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet l solidos.—Exch. D. III (d); 24b.

Girard holds Donesford of Walter. Elsi held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and a half. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and seven serfs, and twelve villeins, and eight bordars, with five ploughs. There are twenty acres of meadow and ten acres of wood. Pasture five furlongs in length and two furlongs in breadth. Formerly forty shillings. Now it is worth fifty shillings.

four goats, and ten acres [furlongs] of wood, and twenty acres of meadow, and five furlongs of pasture in length and two in breadth; and it is worth by the year fifty shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when Walscin received it.

Litel Racheneforda.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Litel Racheneforda quam tenuit Godricus ea die qua Rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia virga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Ludo de Walscino. Ibi habet Ludo i carrucam et ii seruos et ii agros prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Walscinus recepit xxx denarios.—Exon. D. (347) 326*.

Walscin has a manor called Litel Racheneforda, which Godric held on the day on which king [Edward] was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. Ludo holds this of Walscin. There Ludo has one plough, and two serfs, and two acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth thirty pence when Walscin received it.

Espreunueia.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Espreunueia quam tenuit Oluricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare, vi carrucæ. Hanc tenet Hermerus de Walscino. Inde habet Hermerus in dominio i virgam et ii carrucas et uillani iii uirgas et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Hermerus ix uillanos et i seruum et vi animalia et xvii oues et v agros nemoris et v agros prati et xv agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et ualebat xv solidos quando Walscinus recepit.—Exon. D. (347) 326*.

Walscin has a manor called Espreunueia, which Oluric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Hermer holds this of Walscin. Of this Hermer has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have three virgates and three ploughs. There Hermer has nine villeins, and one serf, and six head of cattle, and seventeen sheep, and five acres of wood, and five acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth fifteen shillings when Walscin received it.

Litel Racheneford.

Ludo tenet de Walterio Litel Racheneford. Godric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est cum ii seruis et ii acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ. Olim xxx denarios. Modo ualet v soiidos.—Exch. D. III (d); 24b.

Ludo holds Litelracheneford of Walter. Godric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough, which is there, with two serfs, and there are two acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth thirty pence. Now it is worth five shillings.

Esprewei.

Hermerus tenet de Walterio Esprewei. Vluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ cum i seruo et ix uillani cum iii carucis. Ibi v acræ prati et v acræ siluæ et xl acræ pasturæ. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. III (d); 24b.

Hermer holds Esprewei of Walter. Ulric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, with one serf, and nine villeins, with three ploughs. There are five acres of meadow, and five acres of wood, and forty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Sutrenuorda.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Sutrenuorda quam tenuit Esgarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Et reddidit gildum pro i virga. Hanc possunt arare xii carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Ansgerus de Walscino. Inde habet Ansgerus i fertinum et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani habent iii fertinos et viii carrucas. Ibi habet Ansgerus xxi uillanos et xiiii bordarios et v seruos et v porcarios qui reddunt per annum lx porcos et v mellitarios qui reddunt vii sextarios mellis et xxv animalia et c oues et i leugam <sup>memoria</sup> pascuæ in longitudine et dimidiam in latitudine et xxxiii agros prati et x quadragenarios pascuæ inter latitudine et longitudine et ualet per annum viii libras et quando ipse recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (347) 326*.

Walscin has a manor called Sutreworda, which Esgar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Now Ansgar holds it of Walscin. Of this Ansgar has in demesne one ferling and two ploughs, and the villeins have three ferlings and eight ploughs. There Ansgar has twenty-one villeins, and fourteen bordars, and five serfs, and five swineherds, who render yearly sixty swine, and five bee-keepers, who render seven sextaries of honey, and twenty-five head of cattle, and one hundred sheep, and one leuga of wood in length and half a leuga in breadth, and thirty-three acres of meadow, and ten furlongs of pasture in length and breadth; and it is worth by the year eight pounds, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Godrintona.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Godrintona quam tenuit Ansgarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare viii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus quidam miles de Walscino. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas in dominio et villani i hidam et dimidiam et vi carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus ix villani et vi bordarios et iv seruos et i roncinum et xvi animalia et xvi porcos et clxvi oues et xx agros nemoris. Hæc ualet l solidos et quando Walscinus recepit xxv solidos.—Exon. D. (347b) 326*.

Walscin has a manor called Godrintona, which Ansgar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by eight ploughs.

Sutreworde.

Ansgar tenet de Walterio Sutreworde. Asgar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et v serui et xi uillani et xiiii bordarii cum viii carucis et v porcarii reddentes lxi porcos et v mellitarios reddentes vii sextarios mellis. Ibi xxiii acræ prati et x quarentenæ pasturæ. Silua i leuca longitudine et dimidia latitudine. Olim et modo ualet vii libras.—Exch. D. III (d); 24b.

Ansgar holds Sutreworde of Walter. Asgar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and five serfs, and eleven villeins, and fourteen bordars, with eight ploughs, and five swineherds, returning sixty-one swine, and five bee-keepers, returning seven sextaries of honey. There are twenty-three acres of meadow and ten furlongs of pasture. Wood one leuga in length and a half in breadth. Formerly and now worth seven pounds.

Godrintone.

Radulfus tenet de Walterio Godrintone. Asgar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iiii serui et ix uillani et vi bordarii cum vi carucis. Ibi xx acræ siluæ. Olim xxv solidos. Modo ualet i solidos.—Exch. D. III (a); 25a.

Ralph holds Godrintone of Walter. Asgar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and four serfs,

This Radulf, a certain soldier, holds of Walscin. Of these Radulf has half a hide and two ploughs in demesne, and the villeins have one hide and a half and six ploughs. There Radulf has nine villeins, and six bordars, and four serfs, and one packhorse, and sixteen head of cattle, and sixteen swine, and one hundred and sixty-six sheep, and twenty acres of wood; and it is worth by the year fifty shillings, and it was worth twenty-five shillings when Walscin received it.

Hetfella.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ vocatur Hetfella quam tenuit Ailsius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii hidis. Has possunt arare viii carrucæ. Has tenet Ludo de Walscino. Inde habet Ludo in dominio i hidam et i carrucam et uillani ii hidas et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Ludo viii uillanos et vi bordarios et ii seruos et i runcinum et xxxvi animalia et xx porcos et x agros nemoris et xx agros prati et c agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando Walscinus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (347b) 327*.

Walscin has a manor called Hetfella, which Ailsi held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three hides. These can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Ludo holds these of Walscin. Of these Ludo has in demesne one hide and one plough, and the villeins have two hides and four ploughs. There Ludo has eight villeins, and six bordars, and two serfs, and one packhorse, and thirty-six head of cattle, and twenty swine, and ten acres of wood, and twenty acres of meadow, and one hundred acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth as much when Walscin received it.

Otri.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Otri quam tenuit Alsius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro v hidis. Has possunt arare xii carrucæ. Has tenet Ludo de W. Inde habet Ludo in dominio i hidam et iii carrucas et uillani iiii hidas et vii carrucas. Ibi habet Ludo ix uillanos et ix bordarios et vii seruos et i porcarium qui reddit x porcos et ii runcinos et xxvi animalia et xxx porcos et c oues et l capras et xx equas siluestres et i molendinum qui reddit x solidos per annum et c agros nemoris et xx agros prati et cl agros pascuæ et ualet per annum c solidos et quando Walscinus recepit ualebat <sup>libras</sup> iiii solidos.—Exon. D. (343) 326.

and nine villeins, and six bordars, with six ploughs. There are twenty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty-five shillings. Now it is worth fifty shillings.

Hetfelle.

Ludo tenet de Walterio Hetfelle. Alsi tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et viii uillani et vi bordarii cum' iiii carucis. Ibi xx acrae prati et c acrae pasturae et x acrae siluae. Olim et modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (a); 25a.

Ludo holds Hetfelle of Walter. Alsi held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and two serfs, and eight villeins, and six bordars, with four ploughs. There are twenty acres of meadow, and a hundred acres of pasture, and ten acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth forty shillings.

Otri.

Ludo tenet de Walterio Otri. Alsi tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro v hidis. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucae et vii serui et ix uillani et ix bordarii cum vii carucis. Ibi molinus qui reddit x solidos et cl acrae pasturae et c acrae siluae et xx acrae prati. Olim iiii libras. Modo ualet c solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (a); 25a.

Walscin has a manor called Otri, which Alsi held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for five hides. These can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Ludo holds these of Walscino. Of these Ludo has in demesne one hide and three ploughs, and the villeins have four hides and seven ploughs. Ludo has there nine villeins, and nine bordars, and seven serfs, and one swineherd who renders ten swine, and two packhorses, and twenty-six head of cattle, and thirty swine, and a hundred sheep, and fifty goats, and twenty brood mares, and a mill, which renders ten shillings by the year, and a hundred acres of wood, and twenty acres of meadow, and a hundred and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year a hundred shillings, and it was worth four shillings [pounds] when Walscin received it.

Louapit.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Louapit quam tenuit Alsius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare vi carrucæ. Has tenet Ludo de W. Inde habet Ludo in dominio i hidam et ii carrucas et uillani i hidam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Ludo iii uillanos et i bordarium et iii seruos et xxvi animalia et xxx capras et x agros nemusculi et x agros prati et xv agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Walscinus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (348) 326.

Walscin has a manor called Lovapit, which Alsi held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by six ploughs. These Ludo holds of Walscin. Of these Ludo has in demesne one hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have one hide and two ploughs. There Ludo has three villeins, and one bordar, and three serfs, and twenty-six head of cattle, and thirty goats, and ten acres of coppice, and ten acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when Walscin received it.

Grenouueia.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Grenouueia quam tenuit Ailsius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Hanc tenet Ludo de W. Inde habet Ludo in dominio dimidiam hidam et iii carrucas et uillani dimidiam hidam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Ludo iii uillanos et iiii bordarios et iiii seruos et xl animalia et xii porcos et lx oues et xl capras et x agros nemusculi et x agros prati et x agros Ludo holds Otri of Walter. Alsì held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for five hides. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and seven serfs, and nine villeins, and nine bordars, with seven ploughs. There is a mill which returns ten shillings, and there are a hundred and fifty acres of pasture, and a hundred acres of wood. Formerly it was worth four pounds. Now it is worth a hundred shillings.

Lobapit.

Ludo tenet de Walterio Lovapit. Alsì tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et iii uillani et i bordarius cum ii carucis. Ibi x acræ prati et x acræ siluæ minutæ et xv acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (a); 25a.

Ludo holds Lovapit of Walter. Alsì held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and three villeins, and one bordar, with two ploughs. There are ten acres of meadow, and ten acres of coppice, and fifteen acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Grenowei.

Ludo tenet de Walterio Grenowei. Alsì tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et iii serui et iii uillani et iii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi x acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ et x acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim xxx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (a); 25a.

prati et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando Walscinus recepit ualebat xxx solidos.—Exon. D. (348) 326.

Walscin has a manor called Grenouueia, which Ailsi held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Ludo holds this of Walscin. Of this Ludo has in demesne half a hide and three ploughs, and the villeins have half a hide and one plough. There Ludo has three villeins, and four bordars, and four serfs, and forty head of cattle, and twelve swine, and sixty sheep, and forty goats, and ten acres of coppice, and ten acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth thirty shillings when Walscin received it.

Escobecoma.

Huic supradictæ mansioni est addita alia mansio quæ uocatur Escobecoma quæ iacuit tempore regis Eduuardi in Hamberia in terra scilicet Bristrici et hæc reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Ludo de Walscino. Inde habet Ludo in dominio i uirgam et i ferdinum et i carrucam et uillani iiii uirgas i ferdinum minus et i carrucam. Ibi habet Ludo iiii uillanos et i bordarium et i seruum et xx agros nemoris et xii agros prati et xv agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et tantundem quando recepit.—Exon. D. (348b) 326.

To the aforesaid manor is joined another manor called Escobecoma, which in the time of king Edward lay in Hamberia, that is to say in the land of Bristric, and this rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Ludo holds this of Walscin. Of this Ludo has in demesne one virgate, and one ferling, and one plough, and the villeins have three virgates less one ferling and one plough. There Ludo has three villeins, and one bordar, and one serf, and twenty acres of wood, and twelve acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when Walscin received it.

Otri.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Otri quam tenuit Ailsius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iiii hidis. Has possunt arare viii carrucæ. Has tenet Hubertus de Walscino. Inde habet Hubertus in dominio iiii hidas et i uirgam et iiii carrucas et uillani iiii uirgas et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Hubertus v uillanos Ludo holds Grenowei of Walter. Alsì held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and four serfs, and three villeins, and four bordars, with one plough. There are ten acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture, and ten acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth thirty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Scobecome.

Huic manerio est addita Scobecome quæ tempore regis Eduuardi iacebat in Haberie terra Brictricii et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iiii uillani cum i bordario et i caruca. Ibi xii acræ prati et xv acræ pasturæ et xx acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (a); 25a.

To this manor Scobecome is joined, which in the time of king Edward lay in Haberie, the land of Brictric, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and there are three villeins, with one bordar, and one plough. There are twelve acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture, and twenty acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Otri.

Hubertus tenet de Walterio Otri. Alsì tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iiii hidis. Terra est viii carrucis. In dominio sunt iiii carrucæ et iiii serui et v uillani et vi bordarii cum ii carrucis. Ibi xxiiii acræ prati et i acræ siluæ et una hida pasturæ. Olim iiii libras. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (a); 25a.

et vi bordarios et iiii seruos et i runcinum et xxxviii animalia et xxviii porcos et cc oues et l capras et iiii equas siluestres et l agros nemoris et xxiii agros prati et i hidam pascuæ et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando recepit iiii libras.—Exon. D. (348b) 327.

Walscin has a manor called Otri, which Ails held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for four hides. These can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Hubert holds these of Walscin. Of these Hubert has in demesne three hides, and one virgate, and three ploughs, and the villeins have three virgates and two ploughs. There Hubert has five villeins, and six bordars, and four serfs, and one packhorse, and thirty-eight head of cattle, and twenty-eight swine, and two hundred sheep, and fifty goats, and four brood mares, and fifty acres of wood, and twenty-four acres of meadow, and one hide of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth four pounds when he [Walscin] received it.

Stoc.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Stoc quam tenuit Ansgarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro v hidis. Has possunt arare xxiii carrucæ. De his tenet Ludo iiii hidas de Walscino. Inde habet Ludo in dominio i hidam et iiii carrucas et uillani iiii hidas et xii carrucas. Ibi habet Ludo xxvii uillanos et xvi bordarios et xii seruos et ii runcinos et xvi animalia et v porcos et cclx oues et xxx capras et i molen-dinum qui tantum modo seruit domui suæ et xxx agros <sup>uiculi</sup> nemoris et iiii agros prati et ualet per annum c solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.

De his v hidis habet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et habet ibi i carrucam et uillani i carrucam et habet ibi Radulfus ii uillanos et iiii bordarios et i seruum et i animal et xxx oues et iiii agros nemoris et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Walscinus recepit ualebat x solidos.

De his etiam habet quædam femina dimidiam hidam quam dedit illi Walscinus in elemosina et habet ibi i carrucam et uillani i carrucam et habet ibi vi uillanos et i bordarium et i seruum et vii animalia et v porcos et l oues et ualet per annum x solidos et tantundem quando recepit.—Exon. D. (348b, 349) 327.

Hubert holds Otri of Walter. Alsi held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for four hides. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and four serfs, and five villeins, and six bordars, with two ploughs. There are twenty-four acres of meadow, and fifty acres of wood, and one hide of pasture. Formerly it was worth four pounds. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Stoch.

Ludo tenet de Walterio Stoch. Asgar tenebat tempore regis Edduardi et geldabat pro v hidis. Terra est xxiiii carucis. In dominio sunt iiii carucæ et xii serui et xxvii uillani et xvi bordarii cum xii carucis. Ibi molinuus in dominio seruiens et iiii acræ prati et xxx acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet c solidos.

De hac terra tenet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et ibi habet i carucam cum i seruo et ii uillani et iii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi iiii acræ siluæ. Valet xv solidos.

De eadem terra tenet una femina de Walterio dimidiam hidam et ibi habet i carucam cum i seruo et vi uillani et i bordarius cum i caruca. Valet x solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (a); 25a.

Walscin has a manor called Stoc, which Ansgar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for five hides. These can be ploughed by twenty-four ploughs. Of these Ludo holds four hides of Walscin. Of these Ludo has in demesne one hide and four ploughs, and the villeins have three hides and twelve ploughs. There Ludo has twenty-seven villeins, and sixteen bordars, and twelve serfs, and two packhorses, and sixteen head of cattle, and five swine, and two hundred and sixty sheep, and thirty goats, and one mill, which now serves his house only, and thirty acres of coppice, and four acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year a hundred shillings, and it was worth as much when he [Walscin] received it.

Of these five hides Radulf has half a hide, and he has there one plough, and the villeins have one plough. And Radulf has there two villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and one head of cattle, and thirty sheep, and four acres of wood; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Walscin received it.

Of these a certain woman also has half a hide, which Walscin gave to her in alms, and she has there one plough, and the villeins have one plough, and she has there six villeins, and one bordar, and one serf, and seven head of cattle, and five swine, and fifty sheep; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Walscin received it.

Colrige.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Colrige quam tenuit Bichus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Alricus de Walscino. Inde habet Alricus in dominio i ferdinum et dimidiam carrucam et uillani i ferdinum et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Alricus iii bordarios et ii animalia et i porcum et xxxv oues et vi capras et vi agros nemusculi et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Walscinus recepit tantundem.

Hæc mansio fuit liberi tagni ad progendum quocunque uoluit tempore regis Eduuardi et est addita honori Anagari.—Econ. D. (349) 327.

Walscin has a manor called Colrige, which Bichus held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Alric held this of Walscin. Of this Alric has in demesne one ferling and half a plough, and the villeins have one ferling and half a plough. There Alric has three bordars, and two head of cattle, and one Ludo holds Stoch of Walter. Asgar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for five hides. There is land for twenty-four ploughs. In demesne are four ploughs, and twelve serfs, and twenty-seven villeins, and sixteen bordars, with twelve ploughs. There is a mill for the service of the demesne, and there are four acres of meadow, and thirty acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth a hundred shillings.

Of this land Ralph holds half a hide, and has there one plough, with one serf, and there are two villeins, and three bordars, with one plough. There are four acres of wood. Worth fifteen shillings.

Of the same land a woman holds half a hide of Walter, and has there one plough, with one serf, and there are six villeins, and one bordar, with one plough. Worth ten shillings.

Colrige.

Alric tenet de Walterio Colrige. Biche tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et iii bordarii et vi acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.

Hoc manerium additum est terris Asgari. Eui tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi potuit ire cum terra quo uoluit.—Exch. D. 112 (a); 25a.

Alric holds Colrige of Walter. Biche held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, and three bordars, and six acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

This manor is added to the lands of Asgar. Eui held it in swine, and thirty-five sheep, and six goats, and six acres of coppice; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when Walscin received it.

This manor was a thegn's, free to go forth whithersoever he would, in the time of king Edward, and it is joined to the honor of Ansgar.

Wodiacomma.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wodiacomma quam tenuit Eddricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Ailricus de Walscino. Ibi habet Ailricus i carrucam et dimidiam et iiii uillanos et iiii animalia et v porcos et xlv oues et i agrum prati et ualet per annum xv solidos et fuit hæc mansionem liberi tagni ad progendum quocunque uoluit tempore regis Eduuardi et addita honore Ansgari.—Exon. D. (349) 327.

Walscin has a manor called Wodiacomma, which Edric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Ailric holds this of Walscin. There Ailric has one plough and a half, and four villeins, and four head of cattle, and five swine, and forty-five sheep, and one acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and this manor was a thegn's, free to go forth where-soever he would in the time of king Edward, and it is added to the honor of Ansgar.

Colriga.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Colriga quam tenuit Aluieua ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Aluieua de Walscino. Ibi habet Aluieua i carrucam et vi oues et vii agros nemusculi et ualet per annum xl denarios et tantundem quando Walscinus recepit.—Exon. D. (349b) 328.

Walscin has a manor called Colriga, which Alueua held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. Alueua holds this of Walscin. There Alueua has one plough, and six sheep, and seven acres of coppice; and it is worth by the year forty pence, and it was worth as much when Walscin received it.

Dunestal.

Walscinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Dunestal quam tenuit Ansgerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et the time of Edward, and could go with the land whither he would.

Wodicone.

Alric tenet de Walterio Wodicone. Edrii tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia et iiii uillani et una acra prati. Ualet xv solidos. Hæc terra addita est terris Asgari. Eui tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi poterat ire quo volebat.—Exch. D. 112 (a); 25a.

Alric holds Wodicone of Walter. Edri held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough and a half, and four villeins, and one acre of meadow. Worth fifteen shillings. This manor is added to the lands of Asgar. Eui held it in the time of king Edward, and could go whither he would.

Colrige.

Alueua tenet de Walterio Colrige. Ipsa tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est et vii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet xl denarios.—Exch. D. 112 (a); 25a.

Alueua holds Colrige of Walter. She held it herself in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for a virgate of land. There is land for one plough, which is there, and there are seven acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth forty pence.

Dunestal.

Radulfus tenet de Walterio Dunestal. Ansger tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida.

mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Radulfus de Walscino. Inde habet Radulfus i ferlinum et i carrucam in dominio. Et uillani iii ferlinos et i carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus v uillanos et iiii bordarios et ii seruos et vi animalia et xl oues et xv capras et vi agros nemoris. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Walscinus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (349b) 328.

Walscin has a manor called Dunestal, which Ansgar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Radulf holds this of Walter. Of this Radulf has one ferling and one plough in demeane, and the villeins have three ferlings and one plough. There Radulf has five villeins, and four bordars, and two serfs, and six head of cattle, and forty sheep, and fifteen goats, and six acres of wood; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Walter received it.

Essecestra.

Walscinus habet in Essecestra x domus quas tenuit Ansgerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et habet i aliam domum in uadimonis de uno burgense unde consuetudo est retenta.—Exon. D. (349b) 328.

Walscin has ten houses in Exeter, which Ansgar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and he has another house in mortgage of a burgess, whence the custom is retained.

Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et ii serui et v uillani et iiii bordarii et vi acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.
—Exch. D. 112 (a); 25a.

Ralph holds Dunestal of Walter. Ansger held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs, which there are, and two serfs, and five villeins, and four bordars, and six acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Exceestre.

Ipse Walterius habet in Exceestre x domus quas tenebat Asgar tempore regis Eduuardi. Ibi habet et unam domum in uadimonium de uno burgense de qua consuetudo est retenta.—Exch. D. 112 (a); 25a.

Walter himself has in Exeter ten houses, which Asgar held in the time of king Edward. There he has also a house in mortgage from a burgess, of which the custom is retained.

Terrae Goscelmi et Walteri in Debenestre.

Biuda.

Walterus de Clauilla habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Biuda quam tenuit Mastilda ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis et dimidia. Has possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Walterus ii uirgas et dimidiam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Walterius iiii uillanos et cl agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Walterius recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (392) 365.

Lands of Goscelm and Walter in Debonshîre.

Walter de Clavile has a manor called Biuda, which Matilda held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates and a half. These can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of these Walter has in demesne two virgates and a half and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and half a plough. There Walter has four villeins, and a hundred and fifty acres of pasture. This is worth ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Walter received it.

Branfort.

Walterus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Branfort quam tenuit Alueuia ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Walterus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent i carrucam. Ibi habet Walterus ii uillanos et ii bordarios et xii animalia et i roncinum et lxxvii oues et xiii capras et xx agros nemoris et v agros prati et l agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Walterus recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (392) 365.

Walter has a manor called Branfort, which Alueua held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of it Walter has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one plough. There Walter has two villeins, and two bordars, and twelve head of cattle, and one packhorse, and sixty-seven sheep, and thirteen goats, and twenty acres of wood, and five acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Walter received it.

XXIII. Terra Walteri de Clavile.

Biude.

Walterius de Clavile tenet de rege Biude. Mathildus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii uirgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iiii uillani habent dimidia caruca et cl acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (a); 25a.

XXIII. Land of Walter of Clavile.

Walter of Clavile holds Biude of the king. Matilda held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land and a half. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough and four villeins, having half a plough, and a hundred and fifty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Branford.

Ipse Walterius tenet Branford. Alueua tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et ii uillani et ii bordarii et v acræ prati et l acræ pasturæ et xx acræ siluæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 112. (a); 25a.

Walter himself holds Branford. Alueua held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs, which there are, and two villeins, and two bordars, and five acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and twenty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Widreoma.

Walterius de Clauilla habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Widecoma quam tenuit Alueua ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Walterius dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Walterius viii uillanos et vi bordarios et ii seruos et i roncinum et xvi animalia et lxviii oues et iiii agros nemoris et v agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xx solidos et quando Walterius recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (393b) 365.

Walter of Clavile has a manor called Widecoma, which Alueua held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of it Walter has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide and three ploughs. There Walter has eight [sic] villeins, and six bordars, and two serfs, and one packhorse, and sixteen head of cattle, and sixty-eight sheep, and four acres of wood, and five acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pastura. This is worth twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when Walter received it.

Ratdona.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ratdona quam tenuit Alueua ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii partibus unius nigræ. Has potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Walterius Dapifer de Walterio. Ibi habet Walterius i carrucam in dominio et i uillanum et i bordarium et i seruum et ii agros prati. Hæc ualet vi solidos et quando Walterius recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (392b) 365.

Walter has a manor called Ratdona, which Alueua held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two parts of a virgate. These can be ploughed by one plough. Walter the house Steward holds this of Walter. Of it Walter has in demesne one plough, and one villein, and one bordar, and one serf, and two acres of meadow. This is worth six shillings, and it was worth as much when Walter received it.

Wafforda.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wafforda quam tenuerunt [tenuerunt] ii tagni pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida i fertino

Widcome.

Ipse Walterius tenet Widecome. Elueua tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et iii uillani et vi bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi v acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ et iiii acræ siluæ. Olim et ualet modo xx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

Walter himself holds Widecome. Elueua held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and two serfs, and three villeins, and six bordars, with three ploughs. There are five acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture, and four acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Ratdone.

Walterius de Walterio tenet Ratdone. Alueua tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro duabus partibus unius virgatæ terræ. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est cum i uillano et i bordario et i seruo. Ibi ii acræ prati. Olim et modo ualet vi solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

Walter holds Ratdone of Walter. Alueua held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two parts of a virgate of land. There is land for one plough, which is there, with one villein, and one bordar, and one serf. There are two acres of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth six shillings.

Wasforde.

Walterius tenet de Walterio Wasforde. Duo taini tenebant tempore regis Eduuardi* et geldabat pro una minus. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Walterius in dominio dimidiam hidam i fertinum minus et ii carrucas et uillani habent ii carrucas et dimidiam. Ibi habet Walterius vii uillanos et iiii bordarios et iiii seruos et i roncinum et xxx animalia et iiii porcos et lxxx oues et iiii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et i in latitudine et v agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine i quadragenariam in latitudine et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando ipse recepit ualebat xxv solidos.

* Par for pariter in margin.

Huic mansioni addita est i fertinum terræ et ualet per annum iiii solidos.—Exon. D. (392*b*) 365.

Walter has a manor called Wafforda, which two thegns held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide less one ferling. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of it Walter has in demesne half a hide less a ferling and two ploughs, and the villeins have two ploughs and a half. There Walter has seven villeins, and four bordars, and four serfs, and one packhorse, and thirty head of cattle, and four swine, and eighty sheep, and wood four furlongs in length and one in breadth, and five acres of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and one furlong in breadth; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and when he himself received it it was worth twenty-five shillings.

To this manor is joined a ferling of land, and it is worth three shillings by the year.

Draheforda.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Draheforda quam tenuit Aluerona ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iiii uirgis dimidio fertino minus. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Walterius i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent ii carrucas. Ibi habet Walterius ii uillanos et iiii bordarios et iiii animalia et x et viii oues et ii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et i in latitudine et iiii agros prati et xii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Walterius recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (393) 366.

Walter has a manor called Draheforda, which Alueron held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates less half a ferling. These can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of it Walter has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have two ploughs. There Walter has two villeins, and three bordars, and three head of cattle, and eighteen sheep, and wood two furlongs in length and one in breadth, and four acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture; hida uno ferling minus. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iiii serui et vii uillani et iiii bordarii cum ii carucis et dimidia. Ibi v acræ prati. Pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et una quarentenæ latitudine. Silua iiii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim xxv solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.

Huic manerio est additus unus ferling terræ. Valet iii solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

Walter holds Wasforde of Walter. Two thegns held it in the time of king Edward [in partage], and it paid geld for one hide less one ferling. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and four serfs, and seven villeins, and four bordars, with two ploughs and a half. There are five acres of meadow. Pasture half a leuga in length and one furlong in breadth. Wood four furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth twenty-five shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

To this manor is joined one ferling of land. Worth three shillings.

Draheford.

Ipse Walterius tenet Draheford. Alueron tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ dimidio ferling minus. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est una caruca et ii uillani et iiii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et xii acræ pasturæ. Silua ii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

Walter himself holds Draheford. Alueron held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land less half a ferling. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and two villeins, and three bordars, with two ploughs. There are four acres of meadow and twelve acres of pasture. Wood two furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Walter received it.

Sideham.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Sideham quam tenuit Aluerona ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Osbertus de Walterio. Inde habet Osbertus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent i carrucam. Ibi habet Osbertus i uillanum et iii bordarios et i seruum et iiii animalia et ii porcos et xx oues et iii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et i in latitudine et viii agros prati et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Walterius recepit ualæbat [sic] tantundem.—Exon. D. (393) 366.

Walter has a manor called Sideham, which Alueron held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Osbert now holds this of Walter. Of it Osbert has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one plough. There Osbert has one villein, and three bordars, and one serf, and four head of cattle, and two swine, and twenty sheep, and wood three furlongs in length and one in breadth, and eight acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Walter received it.

Lonmela.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lonmela quam tenuit Alueron ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Walterius in dominio i uirgam et dimidiam et ii carrucam et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Walterius iii uillanos et ii bordarios et v seruos et i runcinum et xx animalia et ii porcos et viii oues et xxx agros nemoris et vi agros prati et vi agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (393) 366.

Walter has a manor called Lonmela, which Alueron held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of it Walter has in demesne one virgate and a half and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and a half and two ploughs.

Sideham.

Osbernus tenet de Walterio Sideham. Alueron tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et uno uillano et iii bordariis. Ibi viii acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ. Silua iii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

Osbern holds Sideham of Walter. Alueron held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and one villein, and three bordars. There are eight acres of meadow and ten acres of pasture. Wood three furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Lonmele.

Ipse Walterius tenet Lonmele. Alueron tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et v serui et iii uillani et ii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi vi acræ prati et vi acræ pasturæ et xxx acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

Walter himself holds Lonmele. Alueron held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and five serfs, and three villeins, and two bordars, with two ploughs. There are six acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture, and

There Walter has three villeins, and two bordars, and five serfs, and one packhorse, and twenty head of cattle, and two swine, and eight sheep, and thirty acres of wood, and six acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth as much when he [Walter] received it.

Cadewila.

Et ad hanc mansionem est alia addita mansio quæ uocatur Cadewila quam tenuit Alueron die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Inde habet Walterius i ferlinum in dominio et uillani iii ferlinos et i carrucam. Ibi habet Walterius iii uillanos et ii bordarios et viii agros nemusculi et ii agros prati et ualet per annum x solidos.—Exon. D. (393b) 366.

And to this manor [i.e., Lonnela] is joined another manor called Cadewila, which Alueron held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. Of it Walter has in demesne one ferling, and the villeins have three ferlings and one plough. There Walter has three villeins, and two bordars, and eight acres of coppice, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings.

Morleia.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Morleia quam tenuit Alnodus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Walterius Saluagius de Walterio. Inde habet Walterius i uirgam et i ferlinum et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i ferlinum et i carrucam. Ibi habet Walterius ii uillanos et i bordarium et ii seruos et vii animalia et viiii porcos et xxxiiii oues et viiii agros nemoris et i agrum prati et i pertiquam et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (393b) 366.

Walter has a manor called Morleia, which Alnod held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Walter of the Wood holds this of Walter. Of it Walter has in demesne one virgate, and one ferling, and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate, and one ferling, and one plough. There Walter has two villeins, and one bordar, and two serfs, and seven thirty acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty shillings.

Cadewile.

Huic manerio est addita Cadewile. Alueron libere tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi iii uillani et ii bordarii habent i carucam. Ibi ii acræ prati et viii acræ siluæ minutæ. Valet x solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

To this manor is joined Cadewile. Alueron held it freely in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There are three villeins and two bordars, having one plough. There are two acres of meadow and eight acres of coppice. Worth ten shillings.

Morlei.

Walterius tenet de Walterio Morlei. Alnod tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et ii serui et ii uillani cum i bordario. Ibi i acra prati et una pertica et xxx acræ pasturæ et viii acræ siluæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

Walter holds Morlei of Walter. Alnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, and two serfs, and two villeins, with one bordar. There is one acre of meadow, and one perch and thirty acres of pasture, and eight acres of wood. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

head of cattle, and eight swine, and thirty-four sheep, and eight acres of wood, and one acre of meadow, and one perch and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth five shillings when he [Walter] received it.

Coma.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Coma quam tenuit Gonerdus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt iii arare carrucæ. Hanc tenet Walterius Silvestris de eo. Inde habet Walterius in dominio i uirgam et i ferlinum et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i ferlinum et ii carrucas et dimidiam. Ibi habet Walterius iii uillanos et ii bordarios et iiii seruos et viiii animalia et i porcum et li ones et iiii capras et vi agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (393b) 366.

Walter has a manor called Coma, which Gonerdus held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Walter of the Wood holds this of him. Of it Walter has in demesne one virgate, and one ferling, and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate, and one ferling, and two ploughs and a half. There Walter has three villeins, and two bordars, and four serfs, and nine head of cattle, and one swine, and fifty-one sheep, and four goats, and six acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when he [Walter] received it.

Biheda.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Biheda quam tenuit Olueron ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Walterius iiii bordarios et x agros nemusculi et v agros prati et xx agros pascuæ et reddit per annum x solidos.—Exon. D. (395) 368.

Walter has a manor called Biheda, which Olueron held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Walter has four bordars, and ten acres of coppice, and five acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it renders by the year ten shillings.

Come.

Idem Walterius tenet de Walterio Come. Gonhard tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iii uillani et ii bordarii et iiii serui et vi acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

The same Walter holds Come of Walter. Gonhard held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs which are there, and three villeins and two bordars, and four serfs, and six acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture. Formerly it was and now it is worth ten shillings.

Bihede.

Ipse Walterius tenet Bihede. Vlueron tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est i carucæ. Hanc habent ibi iiii bordarii. Ibi v acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ et x acræ siluæ minutæ. Valet x solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

Walter himself holds Bihede. Ulueron held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for one plough. This four bordars have there. There are five acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture, and ten acres of coppice. It is worth ten shillings.

Biheda.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Biheda quam tenuit Liuredus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis et i ferlino et dimidio. Has possunt arare ii carrucæ. Ibi habet Walterius ii uillanos et iiii bordarios et i seruum et xii agros nemusculi et ii agros prati et xxxv agros pascuæ et reddit per annum x solidos.—Exon. D. (395) 368.

Walter has a manor called Biheda, which Liured held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates and one ferling and a half. These can be ploughed by two ploughs. There Walter has two villeins, and four bordars, and one serf, and twelve acres of coppice, and two acres of meadow, and thirty-five acres of pasture; and it renders by the year ten shillings.

Aiseforda.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Aiseforda quam tenuit Oluarda ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum i hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Walterius Dapifer de eo. Ibi habet Walterius dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Walterius iiii uillanos et vii bordarios et iii seruos et i runcinum et xiiii animalia et ii porcos et xxxiii capras et ii equas siluestres et xii agros nemoris et xii agros prati et lx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (395) 368.

Walter has a manor called Aiseforda, which Oluard held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Walter the house Steward holds this of him. Of it Walter has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide and two ploughs. There Walter has four villeins, and seven bordars, and three serfs, and one packhorse, and fourteen head of cattle, and two swine, and thirty-three goats, and two brood mares, and twelve acres of wood, and twelve acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he [Walter] received it.

Surapla.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Surapla quam tenuit Olwiet ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus

Bihede.

Ipse Walterius tenet Bihede. Leuret tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatae terrae et uno ferling et dimidio. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi sunt ii uillani et iiii bordarii cum i seruo et ii acrae prati et xxxv acrae pasturae et xii acrae siluae minutae.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

Walter himself holds Bihede. Leuret held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates and one ferling and a half of land. There is land for two ploughs. There are two villeins, and four bordars, with one serf, and two acres of meadow, and thirty-five acres of pasture, and twelve acres of coppice.

Aisseford.

Walterius tenet de Walterio Aisseford. Vluuard tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est iii carucis quae ibi sunt et iiii uillani et vii bordarii et iii serui et xii acrae prati et lx acrae pasturae et xii acrae siluae. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

Walter holds Aisseford of Walter. Ulward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, and four villeins, and seven bordars, and three serfs, and twelve acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture, and twelve acres of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Sbraple.

Ipse Walterius tenet Svrapple. Vluui tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est vi et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Walterius in dominio dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas et uillani i hidam et dimidiam et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Walterius xiiii uillanos et v bordarios et iii seruos et i runcinum et x animalia et vii porcos et c et xxi oues et xii capras et vi equas siluestres et xl agros nemoris et viii agros prati et l agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando recepit ualebat xx solidos et potuit ire ad quemlibet dominum.—Exon. D. (395) 368.

Walter has a manor called Surapla, which Olwiet held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of it Walter has in demesne half a hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have one hide and a half and four ploughs. There Walter has fourteen villeins, and five bordars, and three serfs, and one packhorse, and ten head of cattle, and seven swine, and a hundred and twenty-one sheep, and twelve goats, and six brood mares, and forty acres of wood, and eight acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he [Walter] received it, and he could go to whomsoever lord [he would].

Leiga.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Leiga quam tenuit Alueron ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et dimidia. Has potest arare i carruca. Inde habet Walterius i uirgam et i ferlinum in dominio et i uillanum qui tenet i ferlinum et xl agros nemoris et ii agros prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum vii solidos et vi denarios et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (395b) 368.

Walter has a manor called Leiga, which Alueron held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and a half. These can be ploughed by one plough. Of it Walter has in demesne one virgate, and one plough, and one villein, who holds one ferling, and forty acres of wood, and two acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year seven shillings and six pence, and it was worth as much when he [Walter] received it.

Linnor.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Linnor quam tenuit Semer ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et xiiii uillani et v bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi viii acræ prati et i acræ pasturæ et xl acræ siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos. Hic tainus potuit ire quo voluit.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

Walter himself holds Suraple. Ulwi held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and fourteen villeins, and five bordars, with four ploughs. There are eight acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and forty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings. This thegn could go [with the land] whither he would.

Leige.

Ipse Walterius tenet Leige. Alueron tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi est unus uillanus et ii acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ et xl acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet vii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

Walter himself holds Leige. Alueron held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate and a half of land. There is land for one plough. There is one villein, and two acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture, and forty acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth seven shillings and six pence.

Lannor.

Ipse Walterius tenet Lannor. Semer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatæ terræ. Terra et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt ii carrucæ arare. Ibi habet Walterius iii uillanos qui tenent i carrucam et iii bordarios et v agros prati et xii agros pascuæ et reddit per annum x solidos.—Exon. D. (395b) 369.

Walter has a manor called Linnor, which Semer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by two ploughs. There Walter has three villeins, who hold one plough, and three bordars, and five acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture; and it renders by the year ten shillings.

Bera.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bera quam tenuit Wordron ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii . . . Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Walterius in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Walterius iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et i runcinum et x animalia et iii porcos et xxvi oues et xii capras et xx agros nemusculi et iiii agros prati et ualet per annum xx solidos et tantundem quando recepit.—Exon. D. (395b) 369.

Walter has a manor called Bera, which Wordron held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three . . . These can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of it Walter has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and four ploughs. There Walter has four villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and one packhorse, and ten head of cattle, and three swine, and twenty-six sheep, and twelve goats, and twenty acres of coppice, and four acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when he [Walter] received it.

Bochelanda.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bochelanda quam tenuit Odemanus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare i carruca et dimidia. Ibi habet Walterius i carrucam et dimidiam et v bordarios et ii agros prati et reddidit x solidos per annum. Hec mansion fuit libera in die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Modo est addita ad terras Bistrici.—Exon. D. (396b) 369.

est ii carucis. Ibi iii uillani et iii bordarii habent i carucam et ibi v acræ prati et xii acræ pasturæ. Valet x solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

Walter himself holds Lannor. Semer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for two ploughs. There are three villeins and three bordars, having one plough, and there are five acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture. It is worth ten shillings.

Bere.

Ipse Walterius tenet Bere. Wordrou tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iiii uillani et ii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et xx acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

Walter himself holds Bere. Wordrou held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and there are four villeins, and two bordars, with four ploughs. There are four acres of meadow and twenty acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Bochelande.

Ipse Walterius tenet Bochelande. Odeman tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ et dimidiæ. Ibi sunt v bordarii et ii acras prati. Reddit x solidos. Hæc terra addita est terris Bricricii quæ libera erat tempore regis Eduuardi.—Exch. D. 112 (b); 25b.

Walter has a manor called Bochelanda, which Odeman held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough and a half. There Walter has one plough and a half, and five bordars, and two acres of meadow; and it rendered ten shillings per annum. This was a free manor on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. Now it is joined to the lands of Bristric.

Pola.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Pola quam tenuit Bristricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Ansfredus de Walterio. Inde habet Ansfredus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam et dimidiam in dominio. Et uillani dimidiam hidam et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Ansfredus iiii uillanos et iiii bordarios et i seruum et xii porcos et xv oues et v agros nemusculi et iiii agros prati et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxv [solidos] et quando Walterius recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (396) 370.

Walter has a manor called Pola, which Bristric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Ansfred holds this of Walter. Of it Ansfred has half a hide and one plough and a half [sic] in demesne, and the villeins have half a hide and one plough and a half. There Ansfred has four villeins, and four bordars, and one serf, and twelve swine, and fifteen sheep, and five acres of coppice, and four acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty-five shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Walter received it.

Rluperiga.

Walterius habet unam mansionem quæ uocatur Rluperiga quam tenuit Cola ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et dimidia. Has possunt arare ii carrucæ. Ibi habet Walterius i uillanum qui habet i carrucam cum i burgensi et i quadragenariam nemoris in longitudine et dimidiam in latitudine et i agrum prati et i quadragenariam pascuæ in longitudine et latitudine et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Walterius recepit erat uastata.—Exon. D. (397) 370.

Walter has a manor called Rluperiga, which Cola held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it

Walter himself holds Bocheland. Odeman held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough and a half. There are five bordars and two acres of meadow. It renders ten shillings. This land which was free in the time of king Edward, is joined to the lands of Brictric.

Pole.

Ansfridus tenet de Walterio Pole. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iiii uillani et iiii bordarii cum i caruca et dimidia. Ibi iiii acrae prati et x acrae pasturae et v acrae siluae minutae. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xxv solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (c); 26a.

Ansfrid holds Pole of Walter. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and four villeins, and four bordars, with one plough and a half. There are four acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture, and five acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty-five shillings.

Luperige.

Ipse Walterius tenet Luperige. Cole tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i virgata terrae et dimidia. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi i uillanus cum i burgensi habet i carucam et una acra prati et una quarentena pasturae. Silua i quarentena longitudine et dimidia quarentena latitudine. Ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (c); 26a.

Walter himself holds Luperige. Cole held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and rendered geld for one virgate and a half. These can be ploughed by two ploughs. There Walter has one villein, who has one plough, with one burgess, and one furlong of wood in length and half a furlong in breadth, and one acre of meadow and one furlong of pasture in length and breadth; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was waste when Walter received it.

Lega.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lega quam tenuerunt duo tagni de Bristrico filio Algari qui non potuerunt separari ab ea tempore regis Eduuardi et reddidit gildum pro i hida dimidia uirgata minus. Hanc possunt arare iv carrucæ. Inde habet Walterius in dominio dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Walterius vii uillanos et vi bordarios et iv seruos et i runcinum et ii animalia et lxxx oues et iv agros nemoris et iv agros prati et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando Walterius recepit ualebat tantundem. Has tenet Walterius pro i mansione.—Exon. D. (397) 370.

Walter has a manor called Lega, which two thanes held of Bristric, son of Algar, who could not be separated from it in king Edward's time, and it rendered geld for one hide less half a virgate. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of it Walter has in demesne half a hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and a half and three ploughs. There Walter has seven villeins, and six bordars, and four serfs, and one packhorse, and two head of cattle, and eighty sheep, and four acres of wood, and four acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth as much when Walter received it. These Walter holds for one manor.

Yyuesleiam.

Walterius habet i uirgam terræ quæ pertinet ad Yyuesleiam mansionem regis quam tenuit Aleuesclef ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et non poterat a mansione separari. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Ibi habet Walterius i carrucam in dominio et uillani eius ii carrucas. Ibi habet Walterius iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et xx animalia et xii porcos et xl oues et xii capras et viii agros nemoris et xv agros prati et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Walterius recepit ualebat xv solidos.—Exon. D. (388) 361.

Walter has one virgate of land which belongs to Yyuesleiam, a manor of the king's, which Aleuesclef held on the day on which a half. There is land for two ploughs. There one villein with one burgess have one plough, and there is one acre of meadow, and one furlong of pasture. Wood one furlong in length and half a furlong in breadth. Worth five shillings.

Lege.

Ipse Walterius tenet Lege. Duo taini tenebant de Brictricio tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida i virgata terræ minus. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iiii serui et vii uillani et vi bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et iiii acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (c); 26a.

Walter himself holds Lege. Two thegns held it of Brictric in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide, less half a virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and four serfs, and seven villeins, and six bordars, with three ploughs. There are four acres of meadow and four acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty shillings.

Lweslei.

Walterius tenet unam virgatam terræ quæ pertinet ad Lweslei manerium regis. Aleuesclef tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et non poterat a manerio regis separari. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iiii uillani et ii bordarii et xv acræ prati et viii acræ siluæ. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (c); 26a.

Walter holds one virgate of land, which belongs to Lweslei, a manor of the king's. Aleuesclef held it in the time of king king Edward was alive and dead, and he could not be separated from the manor. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. There William has one plough in demesne, and his villeins have two ploughs. There Walter has four villeins, and two bordars, and twenty head of cattle, and thirteen swine, and forty sheep, and twelve goats, and eight acres of wood, and fifteen acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth fifteen shillings when Walter received it.

Duuelanda.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Duuelanda quam tenuit Anuardus merta ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Et hic poterat ire cum terra sua ad quem uoluisset dominum. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Ibi habet Walterius in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et ii carrucas. In ista habet Walterius iii uillanos et vii bordarios et iv seruos et i runcinum et xxiii animalia et cvi oues et xv porcos et ii quadragenarias nemoris et iii agros prati et iv quadragenarias pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (390) 362.

Walter has a manor called Duuelanda, which Award Merta held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. And he could go with his land to whomsoever lord he pleased. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. There Walter has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and his villeins have one virgate and two ploughs. In that [manor] Walter has three villeins, and seven bordars, and four serfs, and one packhorse, and twenty-three head of cattle, and a hundred and six sheep, and fifteen swine, and two furlongs of wood and three acres of meadow, and four furlongs of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he [Walter] received it.

Lollardesdona.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lollardesdona quam tenuit Aluuardus merta de Bistrico ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Ibi Walterius v uillanos et iii bordarios et ii carrucas et dimidiam et v quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et dimidiam in latitudine et vi agros prati et ii quadragenarias pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (390) 363.

Edward, and could not be separated from the king's manor. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, and four villeins, and two bordars, and fifteen acres of meadow, and eight acres of wood. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Dbbelande.

Walterius tenet Dvvelande. Aluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida et poterat ire quo uolebat. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iiii serui et iii uillani et vii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi iii acrae prati et iiii quarentenae pasturae et ii quarentenae siluae. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (c); 26a.

Walter holds Dvvelande. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide, and he could go whither he would. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and four serfs, and three villeins, and seven bordars, with two ploughs. There are three acres of meadow, and four furlongs of pasture, and two furlongs of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Lollardestone.

Walterius tenet Lollardestone. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi v uillani et ii bordarii habent ii carucas et dimidiam. Ibi vi acrae prati et ii quarentenae pasturae. Silua v quarentenae longitudine et dimidia quarentena latitudine. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (c); 26a.

Walter has one manor called Lollardesdona, which Alward Merta held of Bristric on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. There Walter [has] five villeins, and three [sic] bordars, and two ploughs and a half, and five furlongs of wood in length and a half in breadth, and six acres of meadow, and two furlongs of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he [Walter] received it.

Duuelanda.

In supradicta mansione quæ uocatur Duuelanda habet Walterius i uirgam terræ quæ tenuerunt duo tagni pariter ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. In ista habet Walterius in dominio i carrucam et iii ferdinos et uillani i ferdinum et i carrucam. Ibi habet Walterius i uillanum et ii bordarios et ii seruos et i runcinum et x animalia et i quadragenariam nemusculi et ii agros prati et ualet per annum xii solidos et dimidiam et quando recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (390) 363.

In the above-mentioned manor, which is called Duuelanda, Walter has one virgate of land, which two thegns held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. In that [manor] Walter has in demesne one plough and three ferlings, and his villeins have one ferling and one plough. There Walter has one villein, and two bordars, and two serfs, and one packhorse, and ten head of cattle, and one furlong of coppice, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year twelve shillings and sixpence, and it was worth as much when he [Walter] received it.

Johanunesto.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Johanunesto quam tenuit Aluuardus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga terræ. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Ibi habet Walterius vii bordarios et i presbiterum et iii seruos et vii animalia et i runcinum et xxxvi oues et iv agros nemoris et ii agros prati et lx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (390b) 363.

Walter has a manor called Johanunesto, which Alward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. This can be ploughed by Walter holds Lollardestone. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There are five villeins and two bordars having two ploughs and a half. There are six acres of meadow, and two furlongs of pasture. Wood five furlongs in length and half a furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Dbbelande.

Walterius habet unam virgatam terræ in Dvvelande quam duo taini tenebant tempore regis Eduuardi et pro tanto geldabat. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ cum i uillano et ii bordariis et ii seruis. Ibi ii acræ prati et i quarentena siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet xii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 112 (c); 26a.

Par in margin for pariter.

Walter has one virgate of land in Dvvelande, which two thegns held in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for so much. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, with one villein, and two bordars, and two serfs. There are two acres of meadow, and one furlong of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twelve shillings and sixpence.

Johannestov.

Walterius tenet Johannestov. Aluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est presbiter et vii bordarii et iii serui. Ibi ii acræ prati et lx acræ pasturæ et iii acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (c); 26a.

Walter holds Johannestov. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is a priest, and seven bordars, and three two ploughs. There Walter has seven bordars, and one priest, and three serfs, and seven head of cattle, and one packhorse, and thirty-six sheep, and four acres of wood, and two acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when he [Walter] received it.

Chetellescota.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Chetellescota quam tenuit Chetel ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga terræ. Hanc possunt arare ii carruæ. Et Riculfus eam tenet de Walterio. Ibi habet Riculfus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. In ista habet Riculfus ii uillanos et v bordarios ei i seruum et xii animalia et l oues et x agros prati et communem pascuam et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (390b) 363.

Walter has a manor called Chetellescota, which Chetel held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate of land. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. And Riculf holds it of Walter. There Riculf has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins half a virgate and half a plough. In that Riculf has two villeins, and five bordars, and one serf, and twelve head of cattle, and fifty sheep, and ten acres of meadow, and common pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when he [Walter] received it.

Nimet.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Nimet quam tenuit Aluuardus Merta ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga terræ. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Et Walterius tenet eam de Walterio. Inde habet Walterius in dominio iii ferlingas et i carrucam et uillani i ferdinum et i carrucam. In ista habet Walterius i uillanum et iii bordarios et ii seruos et i runcinum et xviii animalia et iii porcos et lx oues et iii agros prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando recepit ualebat v solidos. Et his Aluuardus poterat ire cum terra sua ad quem uoluisset dominum.—Exon. D. (390b) 363.

Walter has a manor called Nimet, which Alwardus Merta held on the day on which king Edward was alive and serfs. There are two acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture, and four acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifteen shillings.

Chetelescote.

Riculf tenet de Walterio Chetelescote. Chetel tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia cum i seruo et ii uillani et v bordarii et x acræ prati et communis pastura. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (c); 26a.

Riculf holds Chetelescote of Walter. Chetel held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough and a half, with one serf, and there are two villeins, and five bordars, and ten acres of meadow, and common pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Nimet.

Walterius tenet Nimet. Aluuardus liber homo tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi tamen sunt ii carucæ cum i uillano et iii bordariis et ii seruis. Ibi iii acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (c); 26a.

Walter holds Nimet. Alward a freed man held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate of land. This can be ploughed by one plough. And Walter holds it of Walter. Of it Walter has in demesne three ferlings, and one plough, and the villeins have one ferling and one plough. In that Walter has one villein, and three bordars, and two serfs, and one packhorse, and eighteen head of cattle, and three swine, and sixty sheep, and three acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth five shillings when he [Walter] received it. And with these Alward could go with his land to any lord he pleased.

Eschpabroca.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Eschpabroca quam tenuit Bristricus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Et Walterius tenet eam de Walterio. Inde habet Walterius in dominio i ferdinum et uillani iii ferdinos et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Walterius iv uillanos et v bordarios et i agrum prati et vi agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit tantundem. Et Bristricus poterat ire cum terra sua ubi uolebat.—Exon. D. (391) 364.

Walter has a manor called Eschpabroca, which Bristric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. And Walter holds it of Walter. Of it Walter has in demesne one ferling, and villeins have three ferlings and two ploughs. There Walter has four villeins, and five bordars, and one acre of meadow, and six acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth just as much when he [Walter] received it. And Bristric could go with his land whither he would.

Berlescoma.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Berlescoma quam tenuit Oluietus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et i uirga et dimidia. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Walterius in dominio ii uirgas et i ferdinum et ii carrucas et uillani iii uirgas et i ferdinum et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Walterius ii uillanos et v bordarios et ii seruos et i runcinum et xxii animalia et lxx agros nemoris et ii agros prati et l agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxv solidos et quando recepit xx solidos.—Exon. D. (391) 364.

land for one plough. Yet there are two ploughs, with one villein, and three bordars, and two serfs. There are three acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Schipebroc.

Walterius tenet Schipebroc. Brictric liber homo tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Has habent ibi iiii uillani et v bordarii. Ibi i acra prati et vi acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (c); 26a.

Walter holds Schipebroc. Brictric a freed man held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There four villeins and five bordars have these. There are one acre of meadow and six acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Berlescome.

Walterius tenet Berlescome. Vliuet tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida et una virgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et ii uillani et iiii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi ii acræ prati et l acræ pasturæ et lxx acræ siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xxv solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (c); 26a.

Walter has a manor called Berlescome, which Olviet held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and a virgate and a half. These can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of it Walter has in demesne two virgates, and one ferling, and two ploughs, and his villeins have three virgates, and one ferling, and three ploughs. There Walter has two villeins, and five <sup>four</sup> bordars, and two serfs, and one packhorse, and twenty-two head of cattle, and seventy acres of wood, and two acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty-five shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he [Walter] received it.

Ciclet.

Walterius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ciclet quam tenuit Gonnerus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Walterius Siluestris de Walterio. Ibi habet Walterius iiii uillanos qui habent ii carrucas et iii bordarios et xxiv agros nemoris et ii agros prati et lxxxv agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Walterius recepit x solidos.—Exon. D. (391b) 364.

Walter has a manor called Ciclet, which Gonner held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Walter of the Wood holds it of Walter. There Walter has four villeins who have two ploughs, and three bordars, and twenty-four acres of wood, and two acres of meadow, and eighty-five acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Walter received it.

Fereordin.

Goscelmus et Walterius habent i mansionem quæ uocatur Fereordin quam tenuit Eduuinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Ricolfus de Goscelmo et Walterio et inde habet Ricolfus in dominio dimidium ferdinum et i carrucam et uillani iii ferdinos et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Ricolfus iv uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et xxi animalia et x porcos et xx oues et xx agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et iii quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet xx solidos per annum et quando eam receperunt ualebat xv solidos.—Exon. D. (388) 360.

Walter holds Berlescomé. Vlivet held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and one virgate of land and a half. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and two villeins, and four bordars, with three ploughs. There are two acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and seventy acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth twenty-five shillings.

Ciclet.

Walterius tenet Ciclet. Connar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi iiii uillani et iii bordarii habent ii carucas. Ibi ii acrae prati et xxiii acrae siluæ et lxxxv acrae pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (c); 26a.

Walter holds Ciclet. Connar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. There are four villeins, and three bordars having two ploughs. There are two acres of meadow, and twenty-four acres of wood, and eighty-five acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Fereordin.

Walterius et Goscelmus tenent de rege Fereordin et Riculf de eis. Eduuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iiii uillani et iii bordarii et ii serui et xx acrae prati. Pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et iii quarentenæ latitudine. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (c); 26a.

Goscelm and Walter have a manor called Fereordin, which Edwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Ricolf holds it of Goscelm and Walter, and of it Ricolf has in demesne half a ferling and one plough, and the villeins have three ferlings and two ploughs. There Ricolf has four villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and twenty-one head of cattle, and ten swine, and twenty sheep, and twenty acres of meadow, and half a leuga of pasture in length and three furlongs in breadth; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth fifteen shillings when they received it.

Walter and Goscelm hold Fereordin of the king and Riculf of them. Edwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs which are there, and there are four villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and twenty acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Terræ Goscelmī and Walteri in Debenesira.*Fedauen.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Fedauen quam tenuit Edlouedief et Eidieua ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Walterus Borgundiensis de Goscelmo. Inde habet Walterus in dominio iii ferdinos et i carrucam et uillani v ferdinos et iv carrucas. Ibi habet Walterus v uillanos et iii seruos et iii bordarios et xx animalia et v porcos et lxxxix oues et vi equas silvestres et iii agros nemusculi et viii agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et latitudine et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Goscelmus eam recepit x solidos.—Exon. D. (388) 361.

Land of Goscelm and Walter in Debonshire.

Goscelm has a manor called Fedauen, which Edlouedief and Eidieua held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Walter of Burgundy holds this of Goscelm. Of this Walter has in demesne three furlongs and one plough, and the villeins have five furlongs and four ploughs. There Walter has five villeins, and three serfs, and three bordars, and twenty head of cattle, and five swine, and eighty-nine sheep, and six brood mares, and three acres of coppice, and eight acres of meadow, and half a leuga of pasture in length and in breadth; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Goscelm received it.

Hyuuis.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hyuuis quam tenuit Aluuidus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare i carruca et Goscelmus habet totam in dominio et habet ibi i carrucam et i bordarium et i seruum et viii animalia et ii porcos et x oues et x capras et ii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et dimidiam quadragenariam in latitudine et ii agros prati. Et ualet per annum v solidos et tantundem ualebat quando eam recepit.—Exon. D. (388b) 361.

Goscelm has a manor called Hywis, which Aluuid held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered

XXV. Terra Goscelmí.

Fedaven.

Goscelmus tenet de rege Fedaven. Edlouedief et Eddeua tenebant tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et v uillani et iii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi viii acra prati et iii acra silua minutæ et dimidia leuca pasturæ. Olim c solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (3); 26a.

XXV. Land of Goscelm.

Goscelm holds Fedaven of the king. Edlouedief and Eddeva held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and three serfs, and five villeins, and three bordars, with four ploughs. There are eight acres of meadow, and three acres of coppice, and half a leuga of pasture. Formerly it was worth a hundred shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Hiwis.

Ipsè Goscelmus tenet Hiwis. Aluin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est cum i bordario et i seruo. Ibi ii acra prati. Silva ii quarentenæ longitudine et dimidia quarentena latitudine. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (3); 26a.

Goscelm himself holds Hiwis. Aluin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. And Goscelm has the whole in demesne, and has there one plough, and one bordar, and one serf, and eight head of cattle, and two swine, and ten sheep, and ten goats, and two furlongs of wood in length and half a furlong in breadth, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Newentona.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Newentona quam tenuit Eluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iv carrucæ. Hanc tenet Walterus Borgoin de Goscelmo. Inde habet Walterus i uirgam et i carrucam et dimidiam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et ii carrucas et dimidiam. Ibi habet Walterus iiii uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et iii porcos et ii agros nemoris et vi agros prati et v agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xx solidos et quando Goscelmus recepit ualebat x solidos.

Hac mansione aufert Golsuenus homo episcopi Constantiensis communen pascuam quæ pertinebat uillæ tempore regis Eduuardi et postquam Willelmus rex habuit eam Goscelmus quietam per v annos.—Exon. D. (388b) 361.

Goscelm has a manor called Newentona, which Eluuard held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Walter Borgoin holds it of Goscelm. Of it Walter has in demesne one virgate and one plough and a half, and the villeins have one virgate and two ploughs and a half. There Walter has four villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and three swine, and two acres of wood, and six acres of meadow, and five acres of pasture. This is worth twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Goscelm received it.

From this manor Golsuen, a man of the Bishop of Contance, takes away the common pasture which belonged to the estate in the time of king Edward, and Goscelm had it undisturbed for five years after William was king.

Dodecota.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Dodecota quam tenuit Dodo ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca et dimidia. Hanc tenet Walterus Borgoin de Goscelmo. Inde habet Walterus ii ferlinos et dimidium et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i ferlinum et dimidium et dimidiam is land for one plough which is there, with one bordar and one serf. There are two acres of meadow. Wood two furlongs in length and half a furlong in breadth. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth five shillings.

Newentone.

Walterius tenet de Goscelmo Newentone. Eluardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et dimidia et ii serui et iiii uillani et iii bordarii cum ii carucis et dimidia. Ibi vi acrae prati et ii acrae siluæ et v acrae pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.

Colsuen homo episcopi Constantiensis aufert ab hoc manerio communes pasturas quibus adiacebat tempore regis Eduuardi et etiam tempore regis Willelmi v annis.—Exch. D. 112 (3); 26a.

Walter holds Newentone of Goscelm. Elward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough and a half, and there are two serfs, and four villeins, and three bordars, with two ploughs and a half. There are six acres of meadow, and two acres of wood, and five acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Colsuen, a man of the bishop of Constance, takes away from this manor common pastures to which it was attached in the time of king Edward, and also for five years in the time of king William.

Dodecote.

Walterius tenet de Goscelmo Dodecote. Dode tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ et dimidiæ. Ibi sunt iii uillani et i bordarius et ii serui et vi acrae prati et xx acrae pasturæ. Olim ualebat vii solidos et vi denarios. Modo xv solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (4); 26b.

carrucam. Ibi habet Walterus iii uillanos et i bordarium et ii seruos et xx animalia et vi porcos et lxxvi oues et vi agros prati et xx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xv solidos et quando Goscelmus recepit ualebat vii solidos et vi denarios.—Exon. D. (388b) 361.

Goscelm has a manor called Dodecota, which Dodo held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough and a half. Walter Borgoin holds it of Goscelm. Of it Walter has in demesne two ferlings and a half and one plough, and the villeins have one ferling and a half and half a plough. There Walter has three villeins, and one bordar, and two serfs, and twenty head of cattle, and six swine, and seventy-six sheep, and six acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. This is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth seven shillings and sixpence when Goscelm received it.

Ridelcoma.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ridelcoma quam tenuit Algarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Ibi habet Goscelmus in dominio vi ferlinos et ii carrucas et uillani ii uirgas et dimidiam et iii carrucas. In ista habet Goscelmus vii uillanos et iv bordarios et iii seruos et i runcinum et xx animalia et xxii porcos et cxiiii oues et cxi agros nemoris et x agros prati et cl agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando recepit ualebat xxx solidos.—Exon. D. (389) 361.

Goscelm has a manor called Ridelcoma, which Algar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of this Goscelm has in demesne six ferlings and two ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates and a half and three ploughs. On that [manor] Goscelm has seven villeins, and four bordars, and three serfs, and one packhorse, and twenty head of cattle, and twenty-two swine, and a hundred and fourteen sheep, and a hundred and forty acres of wood, and ten acres of meadow, and a hundred and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth thirty shillings when he received it.

Lollardesda.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lollardesda quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc

Walter holds Dodecote of Goscelm. Dode held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough and a half. There are three villeins, and one bordar, and two serfs, and six acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth seven shillings and sixpence. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Ridelcome.

Ipsē Goscelmus tenet Ridelcome. Algar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et vii uillani et iiii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi x acræ prati et cl acræ pasturæ et cxi acræ siluæ. Olim xxx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (4); 26b.

Goscelm himself holds Ridelcome. Algar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and seven villeins, and four bordars, with three ploughs. There are ten acres of meadow, and a hundred and fifty acres of pasture, and a hundred and forty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth thirty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Lollardesdone.

Ipsē Goscelmus tenet Lollardesdone. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Ibi habet Goscelmus in dominio i uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani i uirgam et ii carrucas. In hac habet Goscelmus v uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et x animalia et x agros nemoris et viii prati et l pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (389) 362.

Goscelm has a manor called Lollardeadona, which Aluric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of this Goscelm has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and two ploughs. In this [manor] Goscelm has five villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and ten head of cattle, and ten acres of wood, and eight acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

Brigeforda.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Brigeforda quam tenuit Aloiss ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Et Godefridus tenet eam de Goscelmo. Ibi habet Godefridus in dominio i ferdinum et dimidium et i carrucam et uillani ii ferdinos et dimidium et i carrucam. In ista habet Godefridus iii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et x animalia et xxxvi oues et viii capras et ii agros nemusculi et i prati. Et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (389) 362.

Goscelm has a manor called Brigeforda, which Aloiss held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. And Godefrid holds it of Goscelm. There Godefrid has in demesne one ferling and a half and one plough, and the villeins have two ferlings and a half and one plough. On that [manor] Godefrid has three villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and ten head of cattle, and thirty-six sheep, and eight goats, and two acres of coppice, and one acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when he received it.

Nimet.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Nimet quam tenuit Aluoldus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et dimidio ferlino. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ et Hermerus tenet eam de Goscelmo. Ibi habet Hermerus in dominio dimidiam uirgam serui et v uillani et iii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi viii acræ prati et l acræ pasturæ et x acræ siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (4); 26b.

Goscelm himself holds Lollardesdone. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and five villeins, and three bordars, with two ploughs. There are eight acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and ten acres of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Brigeford.

Godefridus tenet de Goscelmo Brigeford. Alouf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et iii uillani et ii bordarii et i acræ prati et ii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet decem solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (4); 26b.

Godefrid holds Brigeford of Goscelm. Alouf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs which are there, with one serf, and there are three villeins, and two bordars, and one acre of meadow, and two acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Nimet.

Hermer tenet de Goscelmo Nimet. Aluuoldus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i virgata terræ et dimidio ferling. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iii uillani et v bordarii et vi acræ prati. Olim ix solidos. Modo ualet xii solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (4); 26b.

et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgatum et dimidium ferdinum et i carrucam. In ista habet Hermerus iii uillanos et v bordarios et ix animalia et vi agros prati. Et ualet per annum xii solidos et quando recepit ualebat ix solidos.—Exon. D. (389b) 362.

Goscelm has a manor called Nimet, which Alwold held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and half a ferling. This can be ploughed by two ploughs, and Hermer holds it of Goscelm. Hermer has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and half a ferling, and one plough. On that [manor] Hermer has three villeins, and five bordars, and nine head of cattle, and six acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year twelve shillings, and it was worth nine shillings when he received it.

Nimet.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Nimet quam tenuit Alunardus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro una hida. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Et Osmundus tenet eam de Goscelmo. Ibi habet Osmundus in dominio dimidiam hidam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam hidam et iv carrucas. In ista habet Osmundus vi uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et x animalia et xxix oues et xvi capras. et vi agros nemoris et v prati et iii pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando recepit x solidos.—Exon. D. (389b) 362.

Goscelm has a manor called Nimet, which Alward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by six ploughs, and Osmund holds it of Goscelm. There Osmund has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide and four ploughs. On that [manor] Osmund has six villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and ten head of cattle, and twenty-nine sheep, and sixteen goats, and six acres of wood, and five acres of meadow, and three acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

Nieuetona.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Nieuetona quam tenuit Bristuinus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidio ferlino. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Et Osmundus tenet eam de Goscelmo.

Hermer holds Nimet of Goscelm. Alwold held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and half a ferling. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, and three villeins, and five bordars, and six acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth nine shillings. Now it is worth twelve shillings.

Nimet.

Osmundus tenet de Goscelmo Nimet. Aluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et vi uillani et iii bordarii cum iv carucis. Ibi v acræ prati et iii acræ pasturæ et vi acræ siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (4); 26b.

Osmund holds Nimet of Goscelm. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are two serfs, and six villeins, and three bordars, with four ploughs. There are five acres of meadow, and three acres of pasture, and six acres of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Niwetone.

Osmundus tenet de Goscelmo Niwetone. Brictuin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidio ferling. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi ii uillani habent dimidiam carucam. Ibi ii acræ prati et iv acræ pasturæ et iii acræ Ibi habet Osmundus ii uillanos et dimidiam carrucam et iii agros nemusculi et ii agros prati et iv agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum vii solidos et quando recepit ualebat xxx denarios.—Exon. D. (389b) 362.

Goscelm has a manor called Nieuetona, which Bristwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a ferling. This can be ploughed by one plough. And Osmund holds it of Goscelm. There Osmund has two villeins, and half a plough, and three acres of coppice, and two acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year seven shillings, and it was worth thirty pence when he received it.

Godeuacota.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Godeuacota quam tenuit Godeua ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carruæ. Inde habet Goscelmus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Goscelmus ii uillanos et i seruum et vii animalia et x porcos et xxx oues et ii agros prati. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Goscelmus recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (391) 364.

Goscelm has a manor called Godeuacot, which Godeua held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of this Goscelm has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Goscelm has two villeins, and one serf, and seven head of cattle, and ten swine, and thirty sheep, and two acres of meadow. This is worth ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Goscelm received it.

Vennacra.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Vennacra quam tenuit Oluietus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida et dimidia uirga. Has possunt arare i carruca et dimidia. Has tenet Osmundus de Goscelmus. Inde habet Osmundus in dominio dimidiam hidam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Osmundus ii uillanos et i seruum et v animalia et vi agros nemusculi et ii agros prati et v agros pascuæ. Et ualet xx solidos per annum et quando Goscelmus recepit ualebat xv solidos.—Exon. D. (391b) 364.

siluæ minutæ. Olim xxx denarios. Modo ualet vii solidos.
—Exch. D. 112 (4); 26*b*.

Osmund holds Niwetone of Goscelm. Bricuin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a ferling. There is land for one plough. There two villeins have half a plough. There are two acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture, and three acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth thirty pence. Now it is worth seven shillings.

Godevecote.

Ipsè Goscelmus tenet Godevecote. Godeue tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et ii uillanis. Ibi ii acræ prati. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (4); 26*b*.

Goscelm himself holds Godevecote. Godeve held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs which are there, with one serf, and two villeins. There are two acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Wennacre.

Osmundus tenet de Goscelmo Wennacre. Vluiet tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii virgatis terræ et dimidia. Terra est i carucæ et dimidia. Ibi tamen sunt ii carucæ cum i seruo et ii uillanis. Ibi ii acræ prati et v acræ pasturæ.

Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (4); 26*b*.

Goscelm has a manor called Vennacra, which Oluiet held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide and half a virgate. These can be ploughed by one plough and a half. Osmund holds them of Goscelm. Of these Osmund has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Osmund has two villeins, and one serf, and five head of cattle, and six acres of wood, and two acres of meadow, and five acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth fifteen shillings when Goscelm received it.

WIDEBERA.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Widebera quam tenuit Winemerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Godefridus de Goscelmo. Inde habet Goscelmus i uirgam et dimidiam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani ii uirgas et dimidiam et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Goscelmus vi uillanos et iii bordarios et iii seruos et vi animalia et ii porcos et lviii oues et xxv capras et x agros nemoris et ii agros prati et l agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xxv solidos et quando Godefridus recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (391b) 364.

Goscelm has a manor called Widebera, which Winemer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hida. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Godefrid holds it of Goscelm. Of this Godefrid has in demesne one virgate and a half and two ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates and a half and one plough and a half. There Godefrid has six villeins, and three bordars, and three serfs, and six head of cattle, and two swine, and fifty-eight sheep, and twenty-five goats, and ten acres of wood, and two acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture. This [manor] is worth twenty-five shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Godefrid received it.

AULESCOMA.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Aulescoma quam tenuit Chenias ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Goscelmus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio. Et uillani dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Goscelmus v uillanos et i bordarium et v seruos et i roncinum et xi animalia et c oues et lxxv capras et xiiii agros nemoris et xviii agros prati. Hæc ualet xx Osmund holds Wennacre of Goscelm. Vluiet held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two virgates of land and a half. There is land for one plough and a half. Yet there are two ploughs, with one serf and two villeins. There are two acres of meadow and five acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Widebere.

Godefridus tenet de Goscelmo Widebere. Winemar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et vi uillani et iii bordarii cum i caruca et dimidia. Ibi ii acræ prati et l acræ pasturæ et x acræ siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xxv solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (4); 26b.

Godefrid holds Widebere of Goscelm. Winemar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and six villeins, and three bordars, with one plough and a half. There are two acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and ten acres of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty-five shillings.

Avlescome.

Ipse Goscelmus tenet Avlescome. Chenias tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et v serui et v uillani cum i bordario et ii carucis. Ibi xviii acræ prati et xiii acræ siluæ. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (4); 26b.

solidos et quando Goscelmus recepit ualebat xv solidos.—Exon. D. (391b) 364.

Goscelm has a manor called Aulescoma, which Chenias held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of this Goscelm has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide and two ploughs. There Goscelm has five villeins, and one bordar, and five serfs, and one packhorse, and eleven head of cattle, and a hundred sheep, and seventy-five goats, and fourteen acres of wood, and eighteen acres of meadow. This is worth twenty shillings, and it was worth fifteen shillings when Goscelm received it.

Gidesam.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Gidesam quam tenuit Chinias ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iiii hidis et dimidia. Has possunt arare x carrucæ. Inde habet Goscelmus i hidam et dimidiam et iiii carrucas in dominio et uillani iiii hidis et v carrucas. Ibi habet Goscelmus xxviii villanos et i bordarium et v seruos et ii roncinos et vii animalia et iiii porcos et lxxvii oues et i molendinum qui reddit x solidos et ii agros nemoris et xl agros prati et ix quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et viii in latitudine. Hæc ualet lx solidos et quando Goscelmus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (392) 365.

Goscelm has a manor called Gidesam, which Chinias held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for four hides and a half. These can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Of this Goscelm has in demesne one hide and a half and three ploughs, and the villeins have three hides and five ploughs. There Goscelm has twenty-eight villeins, and one bordar, and five serfs, and two packhorses, and seven head of cattle, and four swine, and seventy-seven sheep, and a mill which returns ten shillings, and two acres of wood, and forty acres of meadow, and nine furlongs of pasture in length and eight in breadth. This is worth sixty shillings, and it was worth as much when Goscelm received it.

Lonmina.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lonmina quam tenuit Alnodus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Goscelmus in dominio i uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani i uirgam et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Goscelmus viii uillanos et v bordarios et ii seruos Goscelm himself holds Avlescome. Chenias held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are five serfs, and five villeins, with one bordar, and two ploughs. There are eighteen acres of meadow and fourteen acres of wood. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Gidesham.

Iipse Goscelmus tenet Gidesham. Chinias tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iiii hidis et dimidia. Terra est x carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et v serui et xxviii uillani cum i bordario habent v carucas. Ibi molinus reddens x solidos et xl acræ prati et ix quarentenæ pasturæ in longitudine et viii quarentenæ in latitudine et ii acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet lx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (4); 26b.

Goscelm himself holds Gidesham. Chinias held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for four hides and a half. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and five serfs, and twenty-eight villeins with one bordar have five ploughs. There is a mill returning ten shillings, and there are forty acres of meadow, and nine furlongs of pasture in length and eight furlongs in breadth, and two acres of wood. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth sixty shillings.

Lonmine.

Iipse Goscelmus tenet Lonmine. Alnodus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et viii uillani et v bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi viii acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ et xxx acræ siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (4); 26b.

et i runcinum et xiii animalia et xlv oues et xxx agros nemoris et viii agros prati et x agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (394) 367.

Goscelm has a manor called Lonmina, which Alnod held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of this Goscelm has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and four ploughs. There Goscelm has eight villeins, and five bordars, and two serfs, and one packhorse, and thirteen head of cattle, and forty-five sheep, and thirty acres of wood, and eight acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he received it.

Conma.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Conma quam tenuit Alnodus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carruæ. Inde habet Goscelmus in dominio i uirgam et iiii ferlinos et i carrucam et uillani i ferlinum. Ibi habet Goscelmus iiii bordarios et i seruum et i molendinum qui reddit per annum iiii solidos et iiii agros prati. Et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (394) 367.

Goscelm has a manor called Conma, which Alnod held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of it Goscelm has in demesne one virgate, and three ferlings, and one plough, and the villeins have one ferling. There Goscelm has four bordars, and one serf, and a mill which returns four shillings a year, and four acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when he received it.

Lotelanda.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lotelanda quam tenuit Sotemanus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Goscelmus in dominio i uillanum et dimidiam carrucam et iiii animalia et reddit per annum v solidos et quando recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (394) 367.

Goscelm himself holds Lonmine. Alnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and eight villeins, and five bordars, with four ploughs. There are eight acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture, and thirty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Come.

Ipse Goscelmus tenet Come. Alnodus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et iiii bordariis. Ibi molinus reddens iiii solidos et iiii acrae prati. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (4); 26b.

Goscelm himself holds Come. Alnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough with one serf and four bordars. There is a mill returning four shillings and there are four acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Loteland.

Ipse Goscelmus tenet Loteland. Soteman tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi i uillanus habet dimidium carucam. Olim et modo v solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (4); 26b.

Goscelm has a manor called Lotelanda, which Soteman held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Goscelm has in demesne one villein, and half a plough, and four head of cattle; and it renders by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Oplomia.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Oplomia quam tenuit Elmerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iiii ferlinis. Has potest arare dimidia carruca. Hanc tenet Almerus de Goscelmo et ualet per annum iiii solidos.—Exon. D. (394) 367.

Goscelm has a manor called Oplomia, which Elmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three ferlings. These can be ploughed by half a plough. Almer holds it of Goscelm; and it is worth by the year three shillings.

Disa.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Disa quam tenuit Aluiua ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare i carruca et dimidia. Hanc tenet Godefridus de eo. Inde habet Godefridus in dominio i uirgam et i ferlinum et i carrucam et uillani iiii ferlinos et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Godefridus ii uillanos et ii bordarios et ii seruos et viii animalia et lxii oues et viii agros nemoris et iiii agros prati et xxv agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem. Et hæc femina fuit libera. Modo est ad terram Bristrix.—Exon. D. (394b) 367.

Goscelm has a manor called Disa, which Aluiua held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by one plough and a half. Godefrid holds it of him. Of it Godefrid has in demesne one virgate, and one ferling, and one plough, and the villeins have three ferlings and half a plough. There Godefrid has two villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, and eight head of cattle, and sixty-two sheep, and eight acres of wood, and four acres of meadow, and twenty-five acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth just as much when he received it. And this woman was a free woman. Now [it is added] to the land of Bristrix.

Goscelm himself holds Loteland. Soteman held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There one villein has half a plough. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth five shillings.

Oplomie.

Almer tenet de Goscelmo Oplomie. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii ferlingis. Terra est dimidiæ carucæ. Ualet iiii solidos.—Exch. D. 112 (4); 16b.

Almer holds Oplomie of Goscelm. He held it himself in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three ferlings. There is land for half a plough. It is worth four shillings.

Disa.

Godefridus tenet de Goscelmo Disa. Alueua libera femina* tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est i carucæ et dimidiæ. Ibi sunt ii uillani et ii bordarii et ii serui. Ibi iiii acræ prati et viii acræ siluæ et xxv acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos. Hæc terra addita est terris Brictricii.—Exch. D. 112 (4); 26b.

* Libera femina interlined.

Godefrid holds Disa of Goscelm. Alueva (a free woman) held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for one plough and a half. There are two villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs. There are four acres of meadow, and eight acres of wood, and twenty-five acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings. This land has been added to the lands of Brictric.

Magnelega.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Magnelega quam tenuit Aluuardus ea die qua rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida et dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Goscelmus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Goscelmus v uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et vii animalia et v agros prati et lx agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (394b) 367.

Goscelm has a manor called Magnelega, which Alward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide and half a virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of this Goscelm has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and a half and two ploughs. There Goscelm has five villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and seven head of cattle, and five acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Witenes.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Witenes quam tenuit Olmerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Goscelmus dimidiam hidam et iii ferlinos in dominio et uillani i uirgam et i ferlinum. Ibi habet Goscelmus iiii uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et i runcinum et ii animalia et xxiii oues et v agros nemoris et ii agros prati et xl agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (394b) 368.

Goscelm has a manor called Witenes, which Olmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of this Goscelm has in demesne half a hide and three ferlings, and the villeins have one virgate and one ferling. There Goscelm has four villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and one packhorse, and two head of cattle, and twenty-three sheep, and five acres of wood, and two acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Magnelege.

Ipsē Goscelmus tenet Magnelege. Aluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida et dimidia virgata terræ.* Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et v uillanis et ii bordariis. Ibi v acræ prati et lx acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (1); 27a.

* Et dimidia virgata terræ interlined.

Goscelm himself holds Magnelege. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide and half a virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs which are there, with one serf, and five villeins, and two bordars. There are five acres of meadow and sixty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth fifteen shillings.

Witenes.

Ipsē Goscelmus tenet Witenes. Vlmer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt iiii uillani et iii bordarii et ii serui et ii acræ prati et v acræ siluæ et xl acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (1); 27a.

Goscelm himself holds Witenes. Ulmer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for three ploughs. There are four villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and two acres of meadow, and five acres of wood, and forty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth fifteen shillings.

Fareuweia.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Fareuweia quam tenuit Chenias ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Ludo de Goscelmo. Inde habet Ludo in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Ludo v uillanos et iii bordarios et i seruum et xii animalia et xx oues et xxx capras et xx agros nemoris et v agros prati. Et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (396) 369.

Goscelm has a manor called Fareweia, which Chenias held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Ludo holds it of Goscelm. Of this Ludo has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and two ploughs. There Ludo has five villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and twelve head of cattle, and twenty sheep, and thirty goats, and twenty acres of wood, and five acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Waseborna.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Waseborna quam tenuit Algardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Hermerus de Goscelmo. Inde habet Hermerus in dominio ii uirgatas et ii carrucas et uillani ii uirgas et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Hermerus ii uillanos et v bordarios et i seruum et i animal et xvi porcos et xxiii oues et xi capras et ii agros nemusculi et i agrum prati et i uirgam pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Goscelm recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (396) 369.

Goscelm has a manor called Waseborna, which Algard held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hida. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Hermer holds it of Goscelm. Of this Hermer has in demesne two virgates and two ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates and one plough and a half. There Hermer has two villeins, and five bordars, and one serf, and one head of cattle, and sixteen swine, and twenty-three sheep, and eleven goats, and two acres of coppice, and one acre of meadow, and one virgate of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Goscelm received it.

Farewei.

Ludo tenet de Goscelmo Farewei. Chenias tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et v uillani et iii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi v acræ prati et xx acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (1); 27a.

Ludo holds Farewei of Goscelm. Chenias held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough with one serf, and there are five villeins, and three bordars, with two ploughs. There are five acres of meadow and twenty acres of wood. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth twenty shillings.

Waseborne.

Hermerus tenet de Goscelmo Waseborne. Algar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ cum i seruo et ii uillani et v bordarii cum i caruca et dimidia. Ibi i acra prati et ii acræ siluæ minutæ et una uirgata pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (1); 27a.

Hermer holds Waseborne of Goscelm. Algar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs with one serf, and there are two villeins, and five bordars, with one plough and a half. There is one acre of meadow, and two acres of coppice, and one virgate of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Bochelanda.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bochelanda quam tenuit Alurix ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare i carruca et dimidia. Hanc tenet Balduinus. Inde habet Balduinus i ferlinum et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i ferlinum et i carrucam. Ibi habet Balduinus iv uillanos et ii bordarios et vi animalia et xii porcos et lvi oues et xxvi capras et dimidiom agrum nemusculi et ii agros prati. Et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem. Et hanc mansionem tenuit i tannus liberam in die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et modo est addita ad terram Bristrici.—Exon. D. (396a) 369.

Goscelm has a manor called Bochelanda, which Alurix held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough and a half. Baldwin holds this. Of it Baldwin has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have one ferling and one plough. There Baldwin has four villeins, and two bordars, and six head of cattle, and twelve swine, and fifty-six sheep, and twenty-six goats, and half an acre of coppice, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it. And a thane held this manor freely on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. And now it is added to the land of Bristric.

Luperiga.

Gotselmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Luperiga quam tenuit Estnota ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iv carrucæ. Balduinus tenet hanc de Goselmo. In ea habet Balduinus i carrucam et ii bordarios et ii quadragenarias nemusculi in longitudine et i in latitudine et ii quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et i in latitudine. Et ualet per annum vii solidos.—Exon. D. (397) 370.

Goscelm has a manor called Luperiga, which Estnote held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Baldwin holds it of Goscelm. On it Baldwin has one plough, and two bordars, and two furlongs of coppice in length and one furlong in breadth, and two furlongs of pasture in length and one furlong in breadth; and it is worth by the year seven shillings.

Bocheland.

Balduinus tenet de Goscelmo Bocheland. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ et dimidiæ. Ibi sunt tamen ii carucæ et iiii uillani et ii bordarii et ii acræ prati et dimidia acræ silua minutæ. Valet x solidos.

Hæc terra addita est terris Brictricii. Liber homo fuit qui tenuit tempore regis Eduuardi.—Exch. D. 113 (1); 27a.

Baldwin holds Bocheland of Goscelm. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough and a half. There are however two ploughs, and four villeins, and two bordars, and two acres of meadow, and half an acre of coppice. It is worth ten shillings.

This land has been added to the lands of Bristric. He was a freeman who held it in the time of king Edward.

Luperige.

Balduinus tenet de Goscelmo Luperige. Snode tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et ii bordarii pastura ii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine et tantundem siluæ. Valet vii solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (1); 27a.

Baldwin holds Luperige of Goscelm. Snode held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. There is one plough and two bordars. Pasture two furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth, and as much of wood. It is worth seven shillings.

Uuolestanecota.

Gotcelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Uuolestanecota
<sup>Viestannus</sup>
 quam tenuit Bristricus die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit [sic] pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i caruca. Ibi habet Gotcelmus i seruum et i bordarium et iiii agros prati et reddit per annum x solidos et quando Gotselmus recepit ualebat tantundem. Et iste tagnus tenebat libere terram suam de Bristricio tempore regis et non poterat separari a terris Bristritii.—Exon. D. (397) 370.

Goscelm has a manor called Wolestanecota, which Bristric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Goscelm has one serf, and one bordar, and three acres of meadow; and it renders by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Goscelm received it. And that thane held his land freely of Bristric in the king's time, and it could not be separated from the lands of Bristric.
<sup>Viestannus</sup>

Terra Goscelmi de Essicestra.*Herstanahaia.

Goscelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Herstanahaia quam tenuit Canistrus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et poterat ire ad quemlibet dominum. Hæc reddidit gildum pro hida et dimidia. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Ibi habet Goscelmus vi uillanos qui habent hanc h et dimidiam et has iiii carrucas ad firmam et i molendinum qui reddit per annum xv denarios et v agros prati et ii quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et i in latitudine et reddit per annum xx solidos.—Exon. D. (398) 371.

Goscelm has a manor called Herstanahaia, which Canistrus held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and he could go to any lord he pleased. This rendered geld for a hide and a half. These can be ploughed by three ploughs. There Goscelm has six villeins, who have this hide and a half and these three ploughs to ferm, and a mill which returns fifteen pence a year, and five acres of meadow, and pasture two furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth; and it renders by the year twenty shillings.

Vlestanecote.

Ipse Goscelmus tenet Vlestanecote. Vlestan tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi est i bordarius cum i seruo et iii acræ prati. Olim et modo ualet x solidos. Qui tenuit tempore regis Eduuardi libere tenebat de Brictric.—Exch. D. 113 (1); 27a.

Goscelm himself holds Ulestanecote. Ulestan held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There is one bordar with one serf, and there are three acres of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings. He who held it in the time of king Edward held it freely of Brictric.

Herstanhaia.

Goscelmus de Execestre tenet de rege Herstanhaia. Canistre tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro hida et dimidia et poterat ire quo ualebat. Terra est iii carucis. Has habent ibi vi uillani. Ibi molinus reddens xv denarios et v acræ prati. Pastura ii quarentenæ longitudine et i quarentena latitudine. Reddit xx solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (1); 27a.

Goscelm of Execestre holds Herstanhaia of the king. Canistre held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for a hide and a half, and he could go whither he wished. There is land for three ploughs. These six villeins have there. There is a mill returning fifteen pence, and there are five acres of meadow. Pasture two furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. It returns twenty shillings.

Leuestona.

Ricardus filius Gisleberte comitis habet i mansionem qua uocatur Leuestona quam tenuit Sauuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et i uirga. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Willelmus capra de Ricardo De hac reddunt x uillani et vi bordarii et ii serui viii libras ad firmam Willelmo. Et quando Ricardus hanc mansionem ualebat x libras.—Exon. D. (460) 425.

Richard, son of Earl Gislebert, has a manor called Leuestone, which Saward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and one virgate. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs. William Capra holds this of Richard. Of this ten villeins and six bordars and two serfs return eight pounds to William in ferm. And when Richard [received] this manor it was worth ten pounds.

NOTE.—This and the following entry are here under the head of Terræ Francorum militum in Devenesira.

Sanforda.

Rogerus de Busleio habet i mansionem que uocatur Sanforda quam tenuit Bristritius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii hidis et dimidia. Hanc possunt arare xii carrucæ. Inde habet Rogerus in dominio i hidam et dimidiam et dimidium fertinum et i carrucam. Et uillani habent ii hidas dimidium fertinum minus et viii carrucas. Ibi habet Rogerus xx uillanos et viii bordarios et vi seruos et viii porcos et lxxxiiii oues et l capras et lxxx agros nemoris et xxx agros prati et cl agro [sic] pascuæ. Et ualeat <sup>reddit</sup> per annum x libras et quando ipse recepit reddebat c solidos. Hanc mansionem dedit regina Mathildis Rogero de Busleio cum uxore sua.—Exon. D. (460b) 426.

XXVI. Terra Ricardi filii Gisleberti comitis.

Levestone.

Ricardvs filius Gisleberti tenet de rege Levestone et Willelmus de eo. <sup>comitis</sup> Sauuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida et una virgata terræ. Terra est viii carucis. Ibi sunt x uillani et vi bordarii et ii serui. Olim x libras. <sup>reddens</sup> Modo ualet viii libras.—Exch. D. 113 (1); 27a.

XXVI. The land of Richard, son of Earl Gislebert.

Richard, son of Earl Gislebert, holds Levestone of the king, and William of him. Saward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and one virgate of land. There is land for eight ploughs. There are ten villeins, and six bordars, and two serfs. Formerly it was worth ten pounds. Now it is worth [returns] eight pounds.

XXVII. Terra Rogerii de Busli.

Sanforde.

Rogerivs de Busli tenet de rege Sanforde. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis et dimidia. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et vi serui et xx uillani et viii bordarii cum ix carucis. Ibi xxx acræ prati et cv acræ pasturæ et quater xx acræ siluæ. Olim c solidos. Modo ualet x libras. Regina dedit Rogerio cum uxore sua.—Exch. D. 113 (1); 27a.

Roger de Busle has a manor called Sanforda, which Bristritius held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three hides and a half. These can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of these Roger has in demesne one hide and a half, and half a ferling, and one plough, and the villeins have two hides less half a ferling and eight ploughs. There Roger has twenty villeins, and eight bordars, and six serfs, and eight swine, and eighty-four sheep, and fifty goats, and eighty acres of wood, and thirty acres of meadow, and a hundred and fifty acres of pasture. And it is worth (returns) by the year ten pounds, and it was worth a hundred shillings when he received it. Queen Matilda gave this manor to Roger de Busle with his wife.

Terra Rotberti de Albamarla in Debenesira.

Mideltona.

Rotbertus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Mideltona quam tenuit Wlwen a die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare x carucæ. Inde habet Rotbertus dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et villani i uirgam et i ferdinum et dimidium et v carrucas et ibi habet Rotbertus x uillanos et xi bordarios et vii bordarios [sic] et xxx animalia et xxiii porcos et lxxv oues et xxv capras et l agros nemoris et xv agros prati et i leugam pascuæ in longitudine et dimidiam in latitudine. Hæc ualet l solidos et quando Rotbertus recepit ualebat c solidos.—Exon. D. (419) 390.

The Land of Robert of Albemarle in Devonshire.

Robert has a manor called Mideltona, which Wlwen held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of this Robert has in demesne half a virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate, and one ferling and a half, and five ploughs. There Robert has ten villeins, and eleven bordars, and seven bordars, and thirty head of cattle, and twenty-three swine, and seventy-five sheep, and twenty-five goats, and fifty acres of wood, and one leuga of pasture in length and a half in breadth; and it is worth by the year fifty shillings, and it was worth a hundred shillings when Robert received it.

The Land of Roger de Busli.

Roger de Busli holds Sanforde of the king. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides and a half. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are six serfs, and twenty villeins, and eight bordars, with nine ploughs. There are thirty acres of meadow, and one hundred and fifty acres of pasture, and eighty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth one hundred shillings. Now it is worth ten pounds. The queen gave it to Roger with his wife.

XXVIII. Terra Roberti de Albemarle.

Mideltone.

Robertus de Albemarle tenet de rege Mideltone. Vlueua tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est x carucis. In dominio est una caruca et vii serui et x uillani et xi bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi xv acrae prati et l acrae siluæ. Pastura i leuca longitudine et dimidia leuca latitudine.

Olim c solidos. Modo l solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (1); 27a.

The Land of Robert of Albemarle.

Robert of Albemarle holds Mideltone of the king. Ulueua held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are seven serfs, and ten villeins, and eleven bordars with five ploughs. There are fifteen acres of meadow and fifty acres of wood. Pasture one leuca in length and half a leuca in breadth. Formerly it was worth a hundred shillings. Now it is worth fifty shillings.

Odetreu Colacoma et Wilauestreu.

Rotbertus habet terram in iii uillis quas tenuerunt iii tegni pro iiii mansionibus et Rotbertus habet illas pro i mansione et reddidit gildum tempore regis Eduuardi pro iii uirgia. .... Has possunt arare viii carrucæ. Inde habet Rotbertus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et villani habent aliam terram et v carrucas. Ibi habet Rotbertus xii uillanos et viii bordarios et viii seruos et xiiii animalia et x porcos et lxxx oues et xx capras et iiii quadragenarias et xx agros nemoris in longitudine et ii in latitudine et x agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et dimidiam in latitudine. Inde ualent ii mansiones xx solidos et alie [sic] ii ualent xl solidos. Vna ex his iiii mansionibus uocatur Odetreu quam tenuerunt Oslac et Bulgeret et tertia uocatur Colacoma quam tenuit Oslac et quarta mansio uocatur Wilauestreu quam tenuit Bulgeret.—Exon. D. (419) 390.

Robert has land in three villages, which three thanes held for four manors, and Robert has them for one manor, and they rendered geld in king Edward's time for three virgates. These can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Of these Robert has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have the rest of the land and five ploughs. There Robert has twelve villeins, and eight bordars, and eight serfs, and fourteen head of cattle, and ten swine, and eighty sheep, and twenty goats, and four furlongs and twenty acres of wood in length and two in breadth, and ten acres of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and a half in breadth. Of these two manors are worth twenty shillings, and the other two are worth forty shillings. One of these four manors is called Odetreu, which Oslac and Bulgeret held, and the third is called Colacoma, which Oslac held, and the fourth manor is called Wilauestreu, which Bulgeret held.

Wicha.

Rotbertus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wicha quam tenuit i femina scilicet* Vluerona et potuit ire ad quemlibet dominum† ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et dimidia. Hanc possunt arare x carrucæ. Inde habet Rotbertus dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i uirgam et iiii carrucas.

Ibi habet Rotbertus ix uillanos et vii seruos et v seruos et xx animalia et vii porcos et l oues et xii agros nemusculi et l agros prati et i leugam pascuæ in longitudine et tantundem in latitudine et ualet per annum iii libras et quando Rotbertus recepit ualebat iiii libras.—Exon. D. (419b) 390.

* Scilicet interlined. † Et potuit ire ad quemlibet dominum interlined.

Odetreb Colecome et Wilavestreb.

Ipse Robertus tenet Odetrev et Colecome et Wilavestrev pro uno manerio. Tres taini tenuerunt pro iiii maneriis et geldabant pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et viii serui et xii uillani et viii bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi x acræ prati et xx acræ siluæ in longitudine et ii in latitudine. Pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et tantundem latitudine. Valet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (1); 27a.

Robert himself holds Odetreu and Colecome and Wilwestreu as one manor. Three thanes held them as four manors, and they paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and eight serfs, and twelve villeins, and eight bordars with five ploughs. There are ten acres of meadow, and twenty acres of wood in length and two in breadth. Pasture half a leuga in length and as much in breadth. It is worth sixty shillings.

Wiche.

Ipse Robertus tenet Wiche. Vlueron libera femina tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est x carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et v serui et ix uillani et vii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi l acræ prati et xii acræ siluæ minutæ. Pastura i leuca longitudine et tantundem latitudine. Olim iiii libras. Modo ualet iii libras.

Robert has a manor called Wicha, which a certain woman Uluerona (who could go to any lord she pleased) held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and a half. This can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Of these Robert has in demesne half a virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and four ploughs. There Robert has nine villeins, and seven serfs [bordars], and five serfs, and twenty head of cattle, and seven swine, and fifty sheep, and twelve acres of coppice, and fifty acres of meadow, and pasture a leuga in length and as much in breadth; and it is worth by the year three pounds, and it was worth four pounds when Robert received it.

Teweberia.

Rotbertus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Teweberia quam tenuit Bristoldus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Franco de Rotberto. Inde habet Franco dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et villani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Franco iiii uillanos et vi bordarios et i seruuum et xxx animalia et xxiii porcos et c oues v minus et x capras et ii agros nemusculi et xxx agros prati et xl agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxxv solidos et quando Rotbertus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (419b) 391.

Robert has a manor called Teweberia, which Bristold held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Franco now holds it of Robert. Of this Franco has in demesne half a virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Franco has four villeins, and six bordars, and one serf, and thirty head of cattle, and twenty-three swine, and ninety-five sheep, and ten goats, and two acres of coppice, and thirty acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty-five shillings, and it was worth as much when Robert received it.

Gildescota.

Rotbertus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Gildescota quam tenuit Vluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Gislebertus de Rotberto. Ibi habet Gislebertus i carrucam et ii uillanos et ii seruos qui habent aliam carrucam et xv animalia et iiii porcos et v oues et xiii capras et xx agros nemusculi et iiii agros prati et l agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Rotbertus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (419b) 391.

Robert himself holds Wiche. Ulveron, a free woman, held it in the time of king Edward; and it paid geld for one virgate and a half of land. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and five serfs, and nine villeins, and seven bordars with four ploughs. There are fifty acres of meadow and twelve acres of coppice. Pasture one leuga in length and as much in breadth. Formerly it was worth four pounds. Now it is worth three pounds.

Teweberie.

Franco tenet de Roberto Teweberie. Bristuoldus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ cum i seruo et iiii uillani et vi bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi xxx acræ prati et xl acræ pasturæ et ii acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xxxv solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (1); 27a.

Franco holds Teweberie of Robert. Bristuold held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, with one serf, and there are four villeins, and six bordars, with one plough. There are thirty acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture, and two acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty-five shillings.

Gildescote.

Gislebertus tenet de Roberto Gildescote. Vluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et ii uillani cum i caruca. Ibi iiii acræ prati et l acræ pasturæ et xx acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (2); 27b.

Robert has a manor called Gildescota, which Ulward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Gislebert now holds it of Robert. There Gislebert has one plough, and two villeins, and two serfs, who have another plough, and fifteen head of cattle, and four swine, and five sheep, and thirteen goats, and twenty acres of coppice, and four acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Robert received it.

Weslega.

Rotbertus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Weslega quam tenuit Vluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Rotbertus dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani <sup>habent</sup> uirgam et dimidiam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Rotbertus iiii uillanos et v bordarios et iiii seruos et vii animalia et iiii porcos et l oues et ii agros <sup>agros</sup> nemoris et ii agros prati et iiii pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando Rotbertus recepit ualebat xl solidos.—Exon. D. (420) 391.

Robert has a manor called Weslega, which Ulward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of this Robert has in demesne half a virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have a virgate and a half and two ploughs. There Robert has four villeins, and five bordars, and four serfs, and seven head of cattle, and three swine, and fifty sheep, and two acres of wood, and two acres of meadow, and three acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when Robert received it.

Godelega.

Rotbertus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Godelega quam tenuit Vluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare x carrucæ. Inde habet Rotbertus i uirgam et iiii carrucas in dominio et villani iiii uirgas et vii carrucas. Ibi habet Rotbertus xiii villanos et v bordarios et viii seruos et x porcos et lx oues et v capras et xx agros nemoris et i agrum prati et xx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet lx solidos et quando Rotbertus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (420) 391.

Gislebert holds Gildescote of Robert. Ulward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are two serfs, and two villeins, with one plough. There are four acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and twenty acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Weslege.

Ipsē Robertus tenet Weslege. Vluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et iiii uillani et v bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi ii acræ prati et ii acræ siluæ et iii acræ pasturæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (2); 27b.

Robert himself holds Weslega. Ulward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and four villeins, and five bordars, with two ploughs. There are two acres of meadow, and two acres of wood, and three acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Godelege.

Ipsē Robertus tenet Godelege. Vluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est x carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et viii serui et xiii uillani et v bordarii cum vii carucis. Ibi i acra prati et xx acræ siluæ et totidem pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet lx solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (2); 27b.

Robert has a manor called Godelege, which Ulward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Of this Robert has in demeane one virgate and three ploughs, and the villeins have three virgates and seven ploughs. There Robert has thirteen villeins, and five bordars, and eight serfs, and ten swine, and sixty sheep, and five goats, and twenty acres of wood, and one acre of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year sixty shillings, and it was worth as much when Robert received it.

Mereuda.

Rotbertus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Mereuda quam tenuit Vluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenent ii milites de Rotberto. Inde habent ii milites dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et villani dimidia hidam et i carrucam et dimidiam et habent ibi iiii villanos et ii bordarios et ii seruos et viii animalia et xi porcos et lxxx oues et ix capras et dimidiam leugam nemoris in longitudine et ii quadragenarias in latitudine et iiii agros prati. Hæc ualet xv solidos et quando Rotbertus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Econ. D. (420) 391.

Robert has a manor called Mereuda, which Ulward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Two soldiers hold it of Robert. Of this these two soldiers have in demeane half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide and one plough and a half, and they have there three villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, and eight head of cattle, and eleven swine, and eighty sheep, and nine goats, and wood half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth, and four acres of meadow; and it was worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when Robert received it.

Witefella.

Rotbertus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Witefella quam tenuit Alwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Hanc tenent ii milites de Rotberto. Inde habet illi ii milites dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et villani dimidiam uirgam et iiii carrucas et habent ibi iiii uillanos et vii bordarios et iiii seruos et v animalia et iiii porcos et c oues et x capras et dimidiam leugam nemoris in longitudine et ii quadragenarias in latitudine et v agros prati

Robert himself holds Godelege. Ulward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and eight serfs, and thirteen villeins, and five bordars, with seven ploughs. There is one acre of meadow, and twenty acres of wood, and as much pasture. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth sixty shillings.

Merebde.

Duo milites tenent de Roberto * Merevde. Vluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et iii uillani et ii bordarii cum i caruca et dimidia. Ibi iiii acræ prati et silua dimidia leuca longitudine et ii quarentenis latitudine. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (2); 27*b*.

* De Roberto interlined.

Two soldiers hold Mereude of Robert. Ulward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are two serfs, and three villeins, and two bordars, with one plough and a half. There are four acres of meadow and wood half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth fifteen shillings.

Witefelle.

Duo milites tenent de Roberto Witefelle. Aluuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et iiii uillani et vii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi v acræ prati. Pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et ii quarentinæ latitudine et totidem siluæ.

Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (2); 27*b*.

Robert has a manor called Godelege, which Ulward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Of this Robert has in demesne one virgate and three ploughs, and the villeins have three virgates and seven ploughs. There Robert has thirteen villeins, and five bordars, and eight serfs, and ten swine, and sixty sheep, and five goats, and twenty acres of wood, and one acre of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year sixty shillings, and it was worth as much when Robert received it.

Mereuda.

Rotbertus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Mereuda quam tenuit Vluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenent ii milites de Rotberto. Inde habent <sup>iiii</sup> ii milites dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et villani dimidia hidam et i carrucam et dimidiam et habent ibi iii villanos et ii bordarios et ii seruos et viii animalia et xi porcos et lxxx oues et ix capras et dimidiam leugam nemoris in longitudine et ii quadragenarias in latitudine et iiii agros prati. Hæc ualet xv solidos et quando Rotbertus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Econ. D. (420) 391.

Robert has a manor called Mereuda, which Ulward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Two soldiers hold it of Robert. Of this these two soldiers have in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide and one plough and a half, and they have there three villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, and eight head of cattle, and eleven swine, and eighty sheep, and nine goats, and wood half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth, and four acres of meadow; and it was worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when Robert received it.

Witefella.

Rotbertus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Witefella quam tenuit Alwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Hanc tenent ii milites de Rotberto. Inde habet illi ii milites dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et villani dimidiam uirgam et iiii carrucas et habent ibi iiii uillanos et vii bordarios et iii seruos et v animalia et iii porcos et c oues et x capras et dimidiam leugam nemoris in longitudine et ii quadragenarias in latitudine et v agros prati

Robert himself holds Godelege. Ulward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and eight serfs, and thirteen villeins, and five bordars, with seven ploughs. There is one acre of meadow, and twenty acres of wood, and as much pasture. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth sixty shillings.

Merebde.

Duo milites tenent de Roberto* Merevde. Vluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et iii uillani et ii bordarii cum i caruca et dimidia. Ibi iiii acræ prati et silua dimidia leuca longitudine et ii quarentenis latitudine. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (2); 27b.

* De Roberto interlined.

Two soldiers hold Mereude of Robert. Ulward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are two serfs, and three villeins, and two bordars, with one plough and a half. There are four acres of meadow and wood half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth fifteen shillings.

Witefelle.

Duo milites tenent de Roberto Witefelle. Aluuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et iiii uillani et vii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi v acræ prati. Pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et ii quarentinæ latitudine et totidem siluæ.

Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (2); 27b.

et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et ii quadragenarias in latitudine. Hæc ualet xxx solidos et quando Rotbertus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (420) 392.

Robert has a manor called Witafella, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Two soldiers hold it of Robert. Of this these two soldiers have in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and four ploughs, and they have there four villeins, and seven bordars, and three serfs, and five head of cattle, and three swine, and a hundred sheep, and ten goats, and wood half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth, and five acres of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth as much when Robert received it.

Bichecoma.

Rotbertus [sic, habet omitted] i mansionem quæ uocatur Bichecoma quam tenuit Ailmarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Et reddidit gildum pro iiii uirgis. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Rotbertus de Herrefort de Rotberto de Albamarula. Inde habet Rotbertus uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent ii uirgas et dimidiam et iiii boues ad carrucam. Ibi habet Rotbertus ii uillanos et i bordarium et i seruum et vii animalia et v porcos et xx oues et x capras et xx agros nemoris et x agros [sic] prati et xl agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Rotbertus de Albamarula recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (420b) 392.

Robert has a manor called Bichecoma, which Ailmar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for four virgates. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Now Robert de Herrefort holds it of Robert de Albemarle. Of this Robert has in demesne a virgate and a half and one plough, and the villeins have two virgates and a half and four oxen for the plough. There Robert has two villeins, and one bordar, and one serf, and seven head of cattle, and five swine, and twenty sheep, and ten goats, and twenty acres of wood, and ten acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Robert de Albemarle received it.

Flutes.

Rotbertus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Flutes quam tenuit Bristwaldus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et

Two soldiers hold Witfelle of Robert. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are three serfs, and four villeins, and seven bordars, with four ploughs. There are five acres of meadow. Pasture half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth, and as much wood. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth thirty shillings.

Bichecome.

Robertus tenet de Roberto Bichecome. Ailmarus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iiii virgatis terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et ii uillani cum i bordario et dimidia caruca. Ibi x acræ prati et xx acræ siluæ et xl acræ pasturæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (2); 27*b*.

Robert holds Bichecome of Robert. Ailmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for four virgates of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough with one serf, and there are two villeins, with one bordar, and half a plough. There are ten acres of meadow, and twenty acres of wood, and forty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Flutes.

Ipse Robertus tenet Flutes. Brictualdes tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est vi carucis.

mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Rotbertus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani iii uirgas et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Rotbertus viii uillanos et ii bordarios et ii seruos et xlii oues et x agros nemusculi et iiii agros prati et x agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Rotbertus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (421) 392.

Robert has a manor called Flutes, which Bristuald held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of this Robert has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have three virgates and three ploughs. There Robert has eight villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, and forty-two sheep, and ten acres of coppice, and four acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when Robert received it.

Benleia.

Rotbertus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Benleia quam tenuit Ailwardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Gislebertus de Rotberto. Inde habet Gislebertus i uirgam et dimidiam carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Gislebertus iii uillanos et iii bordarios et i animal et lxxv oues et x agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xii solidos et quando recepit Rotbertus viii solidos.—Exon. D. (421) 392.

Robert has a manor called Benleia, which Ailward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Gislebert holds this of Robert. Of this Gislebert has in demesne one virgate and half a plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough and a half. There Gislebert has three villeins, and three bordars, and one head of cattle, and seventy-five sheep, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth eight shillings when Robert received it.

Odelea.

Rotbertus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Odelea quam tenuit Alurix pic ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et i uirga. Hanc possunt arare xii carrucæ. Inde habet Rotbertus i uirgam et iii carrucas in dominio et uillani i hidam et viiii carrucas. Ibi

In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et viii uillani et ii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi iiii acrae prati et x acrae pasturae et x acrae siluae. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.

Robert himself holds Flutes. Brictuald held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are two serfs, and eight villeins, and two bordars, with three ploughs. There are four acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture, and ten acres of wood. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth twenty shillings.

Bebleie.

Gislebertus tenet de Roberto Bevleie. Ailuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucae et iii uillani et iii bordarii et x acrae pasturae. Olim viii solidos. Modo ualet xii solidos. —Exch. D. 113 (2); 27*b*.

Gilbert holds Beuleie of Robert. Ailward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. There are two ploughs, and three villeins, and three bordars, and ten acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth eight shillings. Now it is worth twelve shillings.

Odelie.

Robertus ipse tenet Odelie. Aluric<sup>ps</sup> tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida et una virgata terrae. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucae et vii serui et xv uillani et viii bordarii cum ix carucis et ii porcarii reddunt xvi porcos. Ibi ii acrae prati et xxx habet Rotbertus xv uillanos et viii bordarios et vii seruos et ii porcarios qui reddunt xvi porcarios [sic] per annum. Ibi habet Rotbertus xv animalia et xvi porcos et c oues et x capras et i piscatoriam et c agros nemoris et x agros nemusculi et ii agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum lx solidos et quando Rotbertus recepit ualebat xl solidos.—Exon. D. (421) 392.

Robert has a manor called Odelea, which Aluric pic held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and one virgate. This can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of it Robert has in demeane one virgate and three ploughs, and the villeins have one hide and nine ploughs. There Robert has fifteen villeins, and eight bordars, and seven serfs, and two swineherds, who return sixteen swine yearly. There Robert has fifteen head of cattle, and sixteen swine, and a hundred sheep, and ten goats, and a fish mart, and a hundred acres of wood, and ten acres of coppice, and two acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year sixty shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when Robert received it.

Haletrou.

Rotbertus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Haletrou quam tenuit Bristrix et Aluardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit <sup>gildum</sup> pro dimidia uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Rotbertus i uillanum qui reddit per annum xxx denarios et quando Rotbertus recepit reddebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (421b) 393.

Robert has a manor called Haletrou, which Bristrix and Alward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Robert has one villein, who renders thirty pence a year, and it returned five shillings when Robert received it.

Stoches.

Rotbertus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Stoches quam tenuit Brismarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare xii carrucæ. Inde habet Rotbertus dimidiam hidam in dominio et ii carrucas et uillani habent hidam et dimidiam et viii carrucas. Ibi habet Rotbertus xvi uillanos et iiii bordarios et v seruos et xv animalia et xii porcos et clx oues et xl capras et ii agros nemoris et xii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum lxx solidos et quando Rotbertus recepit ualebat xl solidos.—Exon. D. (411b) 393.

acræ pasturæ et x acræ siluæ minutæ et c acræ siluæ. Olim xl solidos. — Modo ualet lx solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (2); 27*b*.

Robert himself holds Odelie. Aluric pic held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and one virgate of land. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and seven serfs, and fifteen villeins, and eight bordars, with nine ploughs, and two swineherds returning sixteen swine. There are two acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture, and ten acres of coppice, and a hundred acres of wood. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth sixty shillings.

Haletreb.

*Ipse Robertus tenet Haletreu. Brictric et Aluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Ibi est i uillanus reddens xxx denarios. Olim ualebat v solidos. Terra est i carucæ.*—Exch. D.* 113 (2); 27*b*.

* Terra est i caruca written at the end of the entry in the margin.

Robert himself holds Haletrev. Brictric and Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is one villein returning thirty pence. Formerly it was worth five shillings. There is land for one plough.

Stoches.

Ipse Robertus tenet Stoches. Brismar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carrucæ et v serui et xvi uillani et iiii bordarii cum viii carucis. Ibi ii acræ siluæ et xii acræ pasturæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet lxx solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (2); 27*b*.

Robert has a manor called Stoches, which Brismar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of these Robert has in demesne half a hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have a hide and a half and eight ploughs. There Robert has sixteen villeins, and four bordars, and five serfs, and fifteen head of cattle, and twelve swine, and a hundred and sixty sheep, and forty goats, and two acres of wood, and twelve acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year seventy shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when Robert received it.

Wida.

Rotbertus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wida quam tenuit Wadelo ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Modo tenet hanc Ossulfus de Rotberto. Inde habet Ossulfus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Ossulfus i uillanum et iiii seruos et vii animalia et ii porcos et xl oues et x et viii capras et dimidiam leugam nemoris in longitudine et iiii quadragenarias in latitudine et xl agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Rotbertus ualebat xxx.—Exon. D. (421b) 393.

Robert has a manor called Wida, which Wadelo held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Now Ossulf holds this of Robert. Of this Ossulf has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and half a plough. There Ossulf has one villein, and three serfs, and seven head of cattle, and two swine, and forty sheep, and eighteen goats, and half a leuga of wood in length and three furlongs in breadth, and forty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth thirty when Robert received it.

Witeleia.

Ad mansionem Rotberti de Alba Marula quæ uocatur Wida est addita alia mansio quæ uocatur Witeleia quam tenuit Wadolo pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et ualet per annum x solidos.—Exon. D. (505) 468.

Robert himself holds Stoches. Brismar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and five serfs, and sixteen villeins, and four bordars, with eight ploughs. There are two acres of wood and twelve acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth seventy shillings.

Wide.

Osulfus tenet de Roberto Wide. Wadelo tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui cum i uillano habent dimidiam carucam. Ibi xl acræ pasturæ. Ibi silua dimidia leuca longitudine et iiii quarentenæ latitudine. Valet x solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (2); 27b.

Osulf holds Wide of Robert. Wadelo held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and three serfs with one villein have half a plough. There are forty acres of pasture. There is wood half a leuga in length and four furlongs in breadth. It is worth ten shillings.

Witelle.

Huic manerio addita est Witelle. Wadelo libere tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi xxx acræ pasturæ et ix acræ siluæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (2); 27b.

Par for pariter in the margin.

To the manor of Robert de Albamarle, called Wida, is added another manor called Witeleia, which Wadolo held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead; and it is worth ten shillings a year.

There is no entry of the two ruined houses belonging to Robert of Albemarle in the Exeter Book.

To this manor is added Witelie. Wadelo held it freely in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are three bordars with one plough. There are thirty acres of pasture and nine acres of wood. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Barnestaple.

Ipse Robertus habet in Barnestaple ii domus uastatas reddentes iiii denarios.—Exch. D. 113 (2); 27*b*.

Robert himself has in Barnestaple two houses in ruins, returning four pence.

Terra Roberti Bastardi.

The lands of Robert Bastard, Richard Fitz Torold, Alured Brito, and Hervey de Helion, as well as five manors belonging to Rualdus Adobed and the two ruined houses in Exeter of Robert de Albamarla referred to on page 884, do not appear in the Exeter Book. Sir Henry Ellis says that there are other omissions; but the recovery of folios 347a and 347b gives us five missing manors mentioned by him, and we have been able to identify others, so that the only entries now wanting are those above mentioned.

XXIX. Terra Roberti Bastardi.Bachestane.

Robertus Bastard tenet de rege Bachestane. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii ferlings terræ. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est et ii serui et ii bordarii cum dimidia caruca. Ibi x acræ prati et quater xx acræ pasturæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (2); 27b.

The Land of Robert the Bastard.

Robert the Bastard holds Bachestane of the king. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three ferlings of land. There is land for one plough, which is there, and there are two serfs, and two bordars with half a plough. There are ten acres of meadow and eighty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Haroldesore.

Ipsè Robertus tenet Haroldesore. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i virgata terræ. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ cum i seruo et vi uillani et iii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi ii acræ prati et xl acræ pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (2); 27b.

Robert himself holds Haroldesore. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs with one serf, and six villeins, and three bordars, with three ploughs. There are two acres of meadow and forty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Cube.

Osbernus tenet de Roberto Cube. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et ii uillani et ii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi ii acræ prati et vi acræ siluæ. Olim iii solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (3); 28a.

Osbern holds Cube of Robert. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough with one serf, and there are two villeins, and two bordars with one plough. There are two acres of meadow and six acres of wood. Formerly it was worth three shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Dunestantone.

Rannulfus tenet de Roberto Dunestantone. Aluvin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii uillani et iii serui cum ii carucis et iiii acræ siluæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (3); 28a.

Rannulf holds Dunestantone of Robert. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough and two villeins, and there are three serfs with two ploughs and four acres of wood. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Blachevrde.

Ipsè Robertus tenet Blachevrde. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iii uillani et iii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi iii acræ prati et xx acræ siluæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (3); 28a.

Robert himself holds Blacheurde. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough with one serf, and there are three villeins, and three bordars, with one plough. There are three acres of meadow and twenty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Elforde.

Ipsè Robertus tenet Elforde. Aluvin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et iii uillani cum i bordario et i caruca. Ibi piscaria reddens xii denarios et ii acræ prati et xx acræ siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (3); 28a.

Robert himself holds Elforde. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and three villeins, with one bordar and one plough. There is a fishery returning twelve pence, and there are two acres of meadow, and twenty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Staneþhs.

Ipse Robertus tenet Staneþhs. Aluwin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi est unus uillanus reddens v solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (3); 28a.

Robert himself holds Stanehus. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling. There is land for one plough. There is one villein returning five shillings.

Bichefor.

Ipse Robertus tenet Bichefor. Aluwinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et i uillano et i bordario et iiii acræ prati et lx acræ pasturæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (3); 28a.

Robert himself holds Bichefor. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough with one serf, and one villein, and one bordar, and there are four acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Metwi.

Ipse Robertus tenet Metwi. Aluwinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et v uillanis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et c acræ pasturæ. Silua iiii quarentenæ longitudine et i quarentena latitudine. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (3); 28a.

Robert himself holds Metwi. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and five villeins. There are three acres of meadow and a hundred acres of pasture. Wood three furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Terra Sancti Petri De Plintone.

Ipse Robertus habet ii uillanos in terra Sancti Petri de Plintone quos tenebat Aluwinus tempore regis Eduuardi. Reddunt five solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (3); 28a.

Robert himself has two villeins on the land of St. Peter of Plintone, whom Alwin held in the time of king Edward. They return five shillings.

XXX. Terra Ricardi filii Throldi.

Odehiwis.

Ricardus filius Torulf tenet de rege Odehiwis. Ordulf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et v serui et vi uillani et vi bordarii cum ii carucis et dimidia. Ibi ii acræ prati et vi acræ siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (3) ; 28a.

The Land of Richard son of Throld.

Richard son of Torulf holds Odehiwis of the king. Ordulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and five serfs, and six villeins, and six bordars with two ploughs and a half. There are two acres of meadow and six acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Noteswrde.

Ipse Ricardus tenet Noteswrde. Eduuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et ii uillanis et ii bordariis. Ibi v acræ prati et vi acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (3) ; 28a.

Richard himself holds Noteswrde. Edward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and two villeins, and two bordars. There are five acres of meadow and six acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Alintone.

Ipse Ricardus tenet Alintone. Vinod tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis. Terra est xvi carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et x serui et xvii uillani et xv bordarii cum x carucis et v acræ prati et viii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet c solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (3) ; 28a.

Richard himself holds Alintone. Ulnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides. There is land for sixteen ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and ten serfs, and seventeen villeins, and fifteen bordars, with ten ploughs, and five acres of meadow, and eight acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth a hundred shillings.

Exonia.

Ricardus filius Turulfi habet i domum in Exonia de qua ipse retinet consuetudinem regis. Hoc est viii denarii per annum.—Exon. D. (506*b*) 470.

Richard son of Turulf has one house in Exeter of which he himself retains the king's custom. This is eight pence a year.

Dona.

Radulfus de Limiseio habet i mansionem Dōna quam tenuit Edricius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro v uirgis. Has possunt arare xii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus ii uirgas in dominio et i carrucam et uillani habent x carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus xiiii uillanos et vi bordarios et ix seruos et iiii animalia et iii porcos et c et x oues et xx agros nemusculi et xx agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum iiii libras et quando Radulfus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (457) 422.

Radulfus de Limiseio has a manor [called] Duna, which Edric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for five virgates. These can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of these Radulf has in demesne two virgates and one plough, and the villeins have ten ploughs. There Radulf has fourteen villeins, and six bordars, and nine [sic] serfs, and four head of cattle, and three swine, and a hundred and ten sheep, and twenty acres of coppice, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year four pounds, and it was worth as much when Radulf received it.

Bradeuilla.

Radulfus de Limiseio habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bradeuilla quam tenuit Edricius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare x carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani habent iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus xi uillanos et v bordarios et viii seruos et ii animalia et lxxv oues et viiii capras et xx agros [sic] et iii agros prati et l agros pascuæ et ualet per annum lx solidos et quando Radulfus recepit ualebat . . . iiii libras.—Exon. D. (457*b*) 422.

Excestre.

Ipse Ricardus habet in Excestre i domum de qua retinet consuetudinem regis. Hoc est viii denarii.—Exch. D. 113 (3); 28a.

Richard himself has in Exeter a house, of which he retains the king's custom. This is eight pence.

XXXI. Terra Radulfi de Limesi.*Dvne.

Radulfus de Limesi tenet de rege Dvne. Edricus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro v uirgatis terræ. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et x serui et xiiii uillani et vi bordarii cum x carucis. Ibi xx acræ pasturæ et xx acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet iiii libras.—Exch. D. 113 (3); 28a.

The Land of Radulf of Limesi.

Radulf de Limesi holds Dune of the king. Edric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for five virgates of land. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are ten [sic] serfs, and fourteen villeins, and six bordars, with ten ploughs. There are twenty acres of pasture and twenty acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth four pounds.

Bradewelle.

Idem Radulfus tenet Bradewelle. Edric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est x carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et viii serui et xi uillani et v bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi xxiii acræ prati et i acræ pasturæ. Olim iiii libras. Modo ualet iii libras.—Exch. D. 113 (3); 28a.

Radulf de Limisei has a manor called Bradevilla, which Edric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Of this Radulf has in demesne half a hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have four ploughs. There Radulf has eleven villeins, and five bordars, and eight serfs, and two head of cattle, and sixty-five sheep, and nine goats, and twenty-three acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year sixty shillings, and it was worth four pounds when Radulf received it.

Radehida.

Radulfus de Limiseio habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Radehida quam tenuit Edritius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddit [sic] gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. In ea habet Radulfus ii uillanos et x agros nemusculi. Et ualet per annum xxx denarios.—Exon. D. (457b) 422.

Radulf de Limisei has a manor called Radehida, which Edric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. In it Radulf has two villeins and ten acres of coppice; and it is worth by the year thirty pence.

Morteho.

Radulfus de Limiseio habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Morteho quam tenuit Edritius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Modo tenet Aluiritius de Radulfo. Inde habet i uirga Aluiritius in dominio et i carrucam et uillani i [c]arrucam. Ibi habet Aluiritius ii uillanos et i seruum. Et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Radulfus accepit uallebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (458) 423.

Radulf de Limiseo has a manor called Morteho, which Edric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Now Aluric holds this of Radulf. Of this Aluric has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one plough. There Aluric has two villeins and one serf; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Radulf took it.

The same Radulf holds Bradewelle. Edric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and eight serfs, and eleven villeins, and five bordars, with four ploughs. There are twenty-three acres of meadow and fifty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth four pounds. Now it is worth three pounds.

Radehide.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Radehide. Edric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi sunt ii uillani et x acræ siluæ minutæ. Valet xxx denarios.—Exch. D. 113 (3); 28a.

Radulf himself holds Radehide. Edric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There are two villeins and ten acres of coppice. It is worth thirty pence.

Mortehov.

Aluric tenet de Radulfo Mortehov. Edric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii caruæ cum i seruo et ii uillanis. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (3); 28a.

Aluric holds Mortehov of Radulf. Edric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, with one serf, and two villeins. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth ten shillings.

Donsedoc.

Radulfus paganus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Donsedoc quam tenuit Merlesuein ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et villani dimidiam hidam et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus viii villanos et iiii bordarios et ii seruos et xx agros nemoris et ii agros prati. Hæc reddit c solidos et quando Radulfus recepit ualebat iii libras.—Exon. D. (457) 422.

Radulf Pagenus has a manor called Donsedoc, which Merlesuein held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of this Radulf has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide and four ploughs. There Radulf has eight villeins, and four bordars, and two serfs, and twenty acres of wood, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year a hundred shillings, and it was worth three pounds when Radulf received it.

Carseuilla.

Radulfus Paganellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Carseuilla quam tenuit Merlesoanus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare viii carrucæ. Etiam[?] Gonherus tenet eam de Radulf. Inde habet Gonherus in dominio dimidiam hidam et i carrucam et uillani i hidam et dimidiam et ii carrucas et dimidiam. Ibi habet Gonherus viii uillanos et v bordarios et iiii seruos et v animalia et xxviii oues et xv capras et i molendinum qui reddit v solidos et xxx agros nemoris et x [sic] prati et c [sic] pascuæ. Et ualet per annum lx solidos et quando recepit ualebat xl solidos.—Exon. D. (458b) 423.

Radulf Pagenel has a manor called Carseville, which Merlesoan held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs. And [?] Gonher holds it of Radulf. Of these Gonher has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have a hide and a half and two ploughs and a half. There Gonher has eight villeins, and five bordars, and four serfs, and five head of cattle, and twenty-eight sheep, and fifteen goats, and a mill which

XXXII. Terra Radulfi Pagenel.

Dunsedoc.

Radulfus Pagenel tenet de rege Dvnsedoc. Merlesuain tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et viii uillani et iiii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi ii acræ prati et xx acræ siluæ. Olim lx solidos. Modo ualet c solidos. —Exch. D. 113 (4); 28b.

XXXII. The Land of Radulf Pagenel.

Radulf Pagenel holds Dunsedoc of the king. Merlesuain held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are two serfs, and eight villeins, and four bordars, with four ploughs. There are two acres of meadow and twenty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth sixty shillings. Now it is worth a hundred shillings.

Carsewelle.

Gonther tenet de Radulfo Carsewelle. Tempore regis Eduuardi geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iiii seruī et viii uillani et v bordarii cum ii carucis et dimidia. Ibi molinus reddens v solidos et x acræ prati et xxx acræ siluæ et c acræ pasturæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet lx solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (4); 28b.

Gonther holds Carsewelle of Radulf. In the time of king Edward it paid geld for two hides. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are four serfs, and eight villeins, and five bordars, with two ploughs and a half. There is a mill returning five shillings, and there are ten acres of meadow, and thirty acres of wood, and a hundred acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth sixty shillings.

returns five shillings, and thirty acres of wood, and ten [acres] of meadow, and a hundred [acres] of pasture; and it is worth by the year sixty shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when he received it.

Alra.

Radulfus Paganellus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Alra quam tenuit Merlesoanus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare x carrucæ. Inde Radulfus habet in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani iii uirgas et vii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus xiiii uillanos et ix bordarios et v seruos et i animal et lxvi oues et xx agros nemoris et xx agros prati et l [sic] pascuæ. Et ualet per annum v libras et quando recepit ualebat lx solidos.—Exon. D. (458b) 423.

Radulf Pagenel has a manor called Alra, which Merlesoan held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Of this Radulf has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have three virgates and seven ploughs. There Radulf has fourteen villeins, and nine bordars, and five serfs, and one head of cattle, and sixty-six sheep, and twenty acres of wood, and twenty acres of meadow, and fifty [acres] of pasture; and it is worth by the year five pounds, and it was worth sixty shillings when he received it.

Trula.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Trula quam tenuit Merlosuinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus i uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani habent vi carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus x uillanos et i bordarium et iii seruos et iiii animalia et xxxii oues et xii agros nemoris et viii agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et iiii agros in latitudine et ualet <sup>reddit</sup> iiii libras.—Exon. D. (458b) 423.

Radulf has a manor called Trula, which Merlesoan held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Of this Radulf has one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have six ploughs. There Radulf has ten villeins, and one bordar, and three serfs, and four head of cattle, and thirty-two sheep, and twelve acres of wood, and eight acres of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and four acres in breadth; and it is worth [renders] four pounds.

Alre.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Alre. Tempore regis Eduuardi geldabat pro una hida. Terra est x carucis. In dominio est i caruca et v seruj et xiiii uillani et ix bordarii cum vii carucis. Ibi xx acræ prati et xx acræ siluæ et l acræ pasturæ. Olim lx solidos. Modo ualet c solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (4); 28b.

Radulf himself holds Alre. In the time of king Edward it paid geld for one hide. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are five serfs, and fourteen villeins, and nine bordars, with seven ploughs. There are twenty acres of meadow, and twenty acres of wood, and fifty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth sixty shillings. Now it is worth a hundred shillings.

Trvle.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Trvle. Tempore regis Eduuardi geldabat pro i hida. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et x uillani cum i bordario habent vi carucas. Ibi viii acræ prati et xii acræ siluæ. Pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et iiii acris latitudine. Valet iiii libras.—Exch. D. 113 (4); 28b.

Radulf himself holds Trule. In the time of king Edward it paid geld for one hide. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and ten villeins with one bordar have six ploughs. There are eight acres of meadow and twelve acres of wood. Pasture half a leuga in length and four acres in breadth. It is worth four pounds.

Cagefort.

Radulfus Paganus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cagefort quam tenuit Merlosuanus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus tertiam <sup>hide</sup> partem in dominio et i carrucam et uillani habent iii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus vi uillanos et iii seruos et x porcos et xxx oues et vi agros nemoris et viii agros prati et iiii agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum iii libras et quando Radulfus accepit ualuit tantundem.—Exon. D. (458b) 424.

Radulf Paganus has a manor called Cagefort, which Merlesoan held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of this Radulf has in demesne the third part of a hide and one plough, and the villeins have three ploughs. There Radulf has six villeins, and three serfs, and ten swine, and thirty sheep, and six acres of wood, and eight acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year three pounds, and it was worth as much when Radulf took it.

Ilestintona.

Radulfus pagannus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ilestintona quam tenuit Merlesuen ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare xii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i hidam et dimidiam et vii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus xxii uillanos et vi bordarios et vii seruos et v animalia et xl oues et xxiii capras et ccx agros nemoris et i agrum prati et ii leugas pascuæ et viii quadragenarias in longitudine et latitudine. Hæc reddit ix libras et quando recepit tantundem.

Et i domus in Essecestra qui reddit x solidos.*—Exon. D. (460) 425.

* This in the original is interlined between the third and fourth lines of the entry.

Radulf Paganus has a manor called Ilestintona, which Merlesuen held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of these Radulf has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have a hide and a half and seven ploughs. There Radulf has twenty-two villeins, and six bordars, and seven serfs, and five live stock, and forty sheep, and twenty-three goats, Cageford.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Cageford. Tempore regis Eduuardi geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et vi uillani cum iii carucis. Olim et modo ualet iii libras.—Exch. D. 113 (4); 28*b*.

Radulf himself holds Cageford. In the time of king Edward it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are three serfs, and six villeins, with three ploughs. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth three pounds.

Lestintone.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Lestintone. Tempore regis Eduuardi geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et vii serui et xxii uillani et vi bordarii cum vii carucis. Ibi i acra prati et ccx acræ siluæ. Pastura ii leucæ et viii quarentenæ in longitudine et latitudine. Ualet ix libras.

In Exceestre i domus reddens x solidos.

Radulf himself holds Lestintone. In the time of king Edward it paid geld for two hides. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and seven serfs, and twenty-two villeins, and six bordars, with seven ploughs. There is one acre of meadow and two hundred and ten acres of wood. Pasture two leugas and eight furlongs in length and breadth. It is worth nine pounds.

and two hundred and ten acres of wood, and one acre of meadow, and two leugas of pasture, and eight furlongs in length and breadth. This returns nine pounds, and as much when he received it.

And [there is] a house in Exeter which renders ten shillings.

Ainechesdona.

Idem Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ainechesdona quam tenuit Merlesuen ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare ix carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas in dominio. Et uillani i hidam et dimidiam et v carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus xx uillanos et viii bordarios et v seruos et i roncinum et iii animalia et c oues et lxx agros nemoris et i agrum prati et iiii agros pascuæ. Hæc reddit ix libras et quando Radulfus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (460) 425.

The same Radulf has a manor called Ainechesdona, which Merlesuen held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by nine ploughs. Of them Radulfus has in demesne half a hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have one hide and a half and five ploughs. There Radulf has twenty villeins, and eight bordars, and five serfs, and one packhorse, and three head of cattle, and a hundred sheep, and seventy acres of wood, and one acre of meadow, and four acres of pasture. This renders nine pounds, and it rendered as much when he received it.

Touretona.

Radulfus Paganus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Touretona quam tenuit Merlesoanus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Et Girardus eam tenet de Radulfo. Ibi habet Girardus iiii uillanos et i seruum et ii agros prati et ualet xxx solidos per annum et quando Radulfus recepit ualet xl solidos.—Exon. D. (460b) 425.

Radulf Pagenel has a manor called Touretona, which Merlesuen held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. And Girard holds it of Radulf. There Girard has four villeins, and one serf, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when Radulf received it.

In Exceestre [there is] a house returning ten shillings.

Ainechesdone.

Ipsē Radulfus tenet Ainechesdone. Tempore regis Eduuardi geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est ix carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et v serui et xx uillani et viii bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi i acra prati et lxx acræ siluæ et iiii acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet ix libras.—Exch. D. 113 (4); 28*b*.

Radulf himself holds Ainechesdone. In the time of king Edward it paid geld for two hides. There is land for nine ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and five serfs, and twenty villeins, and eight bordars, with five ploughs. There is one acre of meadow, and seventy acres of wood, and four acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth nine pounds.

Tovreton.

Girardus tenet de Radulfo Tovreton. Tempore regis Eduuardi geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi sunt iiii uillani cum i seruo et ii acræ prati. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (4); 28*b*.

Girard holds Tovreton of Radulf. In the time of king Edward it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There are four villeins, with one serf, and two acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

WASFELTA.

Radulfus prædictus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wasfelta quam tenuit Merlesoanus ea die qua Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Et Girardus eam tenet de Radulfo. Inde habet Girardus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Girardus i uillanum et iiii bordarios et i agrum prati et i nemoris. Et ualet xx solidos et quando Radulfus recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (460b) 425.

The before-named Radulf has a manor called Wasfelta, which Merlesoan held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. And Girard holds it of Radulf. Of this Girard has in demesne half a virgate, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Girard has one villein, and three bordars, and one acre of meadow, and one of wood; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Radulf received it.

WILLA.

Radulfus Paganus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Willa quam tenuit Merlesuen ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus i hidam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i hidam et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus xvi uillanos et ii bordarios et vii seruos et i animal et x porcos et vi oues et lvi agros nemoris et xii agros prati et xxxii agros pascuæ. Hæc reddit c et v solidos et quando Radulfus recepit vi libras.—Exon. D. (461b) 427.

Radulf Pagenel has a manor called Willa, which Merlesuen held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of them Radulf has in demesne one hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have one hide and four ploughs. There Radulf has sixteen villeins, and two bordars, and seven serfs, and one head of cattle, and ten swine, and six sheep, and fifty-six acres of wood, and twelve acres of meadow, and thirty-two acres of pasture. This renders a hundred and five shillings, and [it rendered] six pounds when Radulf received it.

Wasfelte.

Girardus tenet de Radulfo Wasfelte. Tempore regis Eduuardi geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi i uillanus et iii bordarii habent i carucam et una acra prati et una acra siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (4); 28*b*.

Girard holds Wasfelte of Radulf. In the time of king Edward it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one villein, and three bordars have one plough, and there is one acre of meadow, and one acre of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Wille.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Wille. Tempore regis Eduuardi geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et vii serui et xvi uillani et ii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi xii acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ et lvi acræ siluæ.

Olim vi libras. Modo ualet cv solidos.

Has terras omnes tenebat Merlesuain tempore regis Eduuardi.—Exch. D. 113 (4); 28*b*.

Radulf himself holds Wille. In the time of king Edward it paid geld for two hides. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and seven serfs, and sixteen villeins, and two bordars, with four ploughs. There are twelve acres of meadow, and thirty-two acres of pasture, and fifty-six acres of wood.

Formerly it was worth six pounds. Now it is worth one hundred and five shillings.

Merlesuain held all these lands in the time of king Edward.

Iplepena.

Radulfus de Felgeriis habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Iplepena quam tenuit Goda ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iiii hidis dimidia uirga minus. Has possunt arare xx carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio i hidam et iiii carrucas et uillani iiii hidas dimidia uirga minus et xii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus xxxvii uillanos et xvi bordarios et iiii seruos et i runcinum et v animalia et v porcos et ccl oues et dimidiam leugam nemusculi in longitudine et latitudine et xxx agros prati et x agros pascuæ.—Exon. D. (462) 427.

Radulf de Felgeriis has a manor called Iplepena, which Goda held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for four hides less half a virgate. These can be ploughed by twenty ploughs. Of them Radulf has in demesne one hide and three ploughs, and the villeins have three hides less half a virgate, and twelve ploughs. There Radulf has thirty-seven villeins, and sixteen bordars, and three serfs, and one packhorse, and five head of cattle, and five swine, and two hundred and fifty sheep, and half a leuga of coppice in length and breadth, and thirty acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture.

Galmentona.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Galmentona quam tenuit Goda ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio i hidam et ii carrucas et uillani i hidam et v carrucas et iiii bones. Ibi habet Radulfus xiiii uillanos et ii bordarios et ii seruos et i runcinum et ii porcos et c oues et i leugam nemusculi in longitudine et xii percatas in latitudine et i agrum prati et iiii agros pascuæ. Hæc mansio cum supradicta Iplepena ualet per annum xxx libras.—Exon. D. (462) 427.

Radulf has a manor called Galmentona, which Goda held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of them Radulf has in demesne one hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have one hide, and five ploughs, and four oxen. There Radulf has fourteen villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, and one packhorse, and two swine, and a hundred sheep, and one leuga of coppice in length and twelve perches in breadth, and one acre of meadow, and four acres of pasture. This manor, with the above-mentioned Iplepena, is worth thirty pounds.

XXXIII. Terra Radulfi de Felgheres.

Iplepene.

Radulfus de Felgheres tenet de rege Iplepene. Goda tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iiii hidis dimidia virgata terræ minus. Terra est xx carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et iii serui et xxxvii uillani et xvi bordarii cum xii carucis. Ibi xxx acræ prati et dimidia leuca siluæ minutæ et x acræ pasturæ.—Exch. D. 113 (4); 28b.

XXXIII. The Land of Radulf de Felgheres.

Radulf de Felgheres holds Iplepene of the king. Goda held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for four hides less half a virgate of land. There is land for twenty ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and three serfs, and thirty-seven villeins, and sixteen bordars, with twelve ploughs. There are thirty acres of meadow, and half a leuga of coppice, and ten acres of pasture.

Galmentone.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Galmentone. Goda tenuit tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et xiiii uillani et ii bordarii cum v carucis et dimidia. Ibi i acra prati et iiii acræ pasturæ. Siluæ minutæ i leuca longitudine et xii perticæ latitudine.

Hæc duo * maneria ualent xxx libras.—Exch. D. 113 (4); 28b.

* Iplepene et Galmentone.

Radulf himself holds Galmentone. Goda held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and fourteen villeins, and two bordars, with five ploughs and a half. There is one acre of meadow, and four acres of pasture. Of coppice one leuga long and twelve perches broad.

These two manors are worth thirty pounds.

Terra Radulfi de Pomaria in Debenesira.

Wyca.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wyca quam tenuit Aluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus i ferlinum et i carrucam in dominio et uillani alium ferlinum et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus iiii uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et xxx animalia et ii porcos et xxxviii oues et ii agros nemoris et xx agros prati et xii agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum l solidos et quando Radulfus eam recepit ualebat xl solidos. —Exon. D. (335) 314.

Land of Ralph de Pomeroy in Devonshire.

Radulf has a manor called Wyca, which Alward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of this Radulf has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have another ferling and two ploughs. There Radulf has four villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and thirty head of cattle, and two swine, and thirty-eight sheep, and two acres of wood, and thirty acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifty shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when Radulf received it.

Duneuinusdona.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Duneuinusdona quam tenuit Toui ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare xii carrucæ. De ii uirgis habet Radulfus i in dominio et ii carrucas et uillani i uirgam habent et iii carrucas. In his ii uirgis habet Radulfus vi uillanos et vii bordarios et ix seruos et xxxv animalia et x porcos et xl oues et x capras et xl agros prati et lx pascuæ.

Et tertia supradicta uirga ablata est ab hac mansione quæ erat de prædicta mansione ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Hanc tenet comes de Moritonio. Hanc tertiam uirgam possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hæc mansio ualet c solidos per annum sæcepta illa uirga quam habet comes Moritoniensis et quando Radulfus recepit ualebat iiii libras. —Exon. D. (335) 314.

XXXIII. Terra Radblphi de Pomerei.

Wiche.

Radulfus de Pomerei tenet de rege Wiche. Aluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et iiii uillani et iii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi xxx acræ prati et xii acræ pasturæ et ii acræ siluæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet l solidos.—Exch. D. 113 (4); 28b.

XXXIV. The Land of Radulf de Pomerei.

Radulf de Pomerei holds Wiche of the king. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are two serfs, and four villeins, and three bordars, with two ploughs. There are thirty acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture, and two acres of wood. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth fifty shillings.

Dunewinesdone.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Dunewinesdone. Toui tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iiii virgatis terræ. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ix serui et vi uillani et vii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi xl acræ prati et lx acræ pasturæ. Valet c solidos. Olim ualebat iiii libras.

De his iiii virgatis terræ ablata est una virgata. Hanc tenet comes Moritonensis. Terra est ii carucis.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

Radulf has a manor called Dunewinesdona, which Toui held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of two of these virgates Radulf has one in demesne and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and three ploughs. In these two virgates Radulf has six villeins, and seven bordars, and nine serfs, and thirty-five head of cattle, and ten swine, and forty sheep, and ten goats, and forty acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture.

And the above-mentioned third virgate has been taken away from this manor, which was of the aforesaid manor on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. The Earl of Moriton holds this. Two ploughs can plough this third virgate. This manor is worth a hundred shillings a year, exclusive of that virgate which the Earl of Moriton has, and it was worth four pounds when Radulfus received it.

Lidefort.

Radulfus de Pomaria habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lidefort quam tenuit Wadels ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia ferdino et i carruca potest eam arare et reddit iii solidos per annum. Et Rogerus eam tenet de Radulfo.—Exon. D. (335) 314.

Radulf de Pomerei has a manor called Lidefort, which Wadels held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a ferling, and one plough can plough it; and it returns three shillings a year. And Roger holds it of Radulf.

Aluynnelancauele.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Aluynnelancauele quam tenuit Letuynus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga et dimidio fertino. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Ibi habet Radulfus i carrucam et uillani i et ii uillanos et iiii bordarios et i seruum et x animalia et xii oues et xx agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit eam ualebat xv solidos.—Exon. D. (335b) 314.

Radulf has a manor called Alwynelancauele, which Letwyn held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate and half a ferling. These can be ploughed by two ploughs. There Radulf has one plough, and the villeins have one, and [Radulf has] two villeins, and four bordars, and one serf, and ten head of cattle, and twelve sheep, and twenty acres of Radulf himself holds Dunewinesdone. Tovi held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and nine serfs, and six villeins, and seven bordars, with three ploughs. There are forty acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture. It is worth a hundred shillings. Formerly it was worth four pounds.

From these three virgates of land one virgate has been taken away. This the Earl of Moriton holds. There is land for two ploughs.

Tideford.

Rogierius tenet de Radulfo Tideford. Wadels tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidio ferling. Terra est i carucæ. Valet iii solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

Roger holds Tideford of Radulf. Wadels held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a ferling. There is land for one plough. It is worth three shillings.

Alwineclancavele.

Ips Radulfus tenet Alwineclancavele. Leduinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata et dimidio ferling. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et ii uillanis et iiii bordariis. Ibi xx acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ.

Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

Radulf himself holds Alwineclancavele. Leduin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate and half a ferling. There is land for two ploughs which are there, with one serf, and two villeins, and four bordars. There are twenty acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth fifteen shillings when Radulf received it.

Aissa.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Aissa quam tenuit Letmarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et poterat ire cum terra sua ad quem dominum uellet et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Ibi habet Radulfus iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et habent ii carrucas et x agros prati et tantundem pascuæ. Et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit eam ualebat xx. Hanc partem occupauit Radulfus et hoc testantur Franci et Angli.—Exon. D. (335b) 315.

Radulf has a manor called Aissa, which Letmar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and he could go with his land to any lord he pleased; and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. There Radulf has four villeins, and two bordars, and they have two ploughs, and ten acres of meadow, and as much of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he received it. Radulf seized this part, and the French and English bear witness to this.

Brauordina.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Brauordina quam tenuit <sup>Tovi</sup>Aluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii hidis et i uirga. Hanc possunt arare xii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus i hidam et i uirgam et iii carrucas in dominio et uillani ii hidas et vii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus xx uillanos et x bordarios et ix seruos et xl animalia et x porcos et xxx equas indomitas et cxx oues et v capras et xl agros prati et iii leugas pascuæ in longitudine et i in latitudine et ualet per annum viii libras et quando ipse recepit ualebat c solidos.—Exon. D. (335b) 315.

Radulf has a manor called Brauordina, which <sup>Tovi</sup>Alward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three hides and one virgate. These can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of them Radulf has in demesne one hide, and one virgate, and three ploughs, and the villeins have two hides and seven ploughs. There Radulf has twenty villeins, and ten bordars, and nine serfs, and forty head of cattle, and ten swine, and thirty unbroken horses, and a hundred and twenty sheep, and five goats,

Aisse.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Aisse. Leimar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi iiii uillani et ii bordarii habent ii carucas. Ibi x acræ prati et tantumdem pasturæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet x solidos. Hanc inuasit Radulfus ut franci et angli testantur. Leimar liber homo fuit.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

Radulf himself holds Aisse. Leimar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There four villeins and two bordars have two ploughs. There are ten acres of meadow, and as much pasture. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings. Radulf took possession of this, as the French and English bear witness. Leimar was a freeman.

Brawordine.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Brawordine. Toui tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis et una virgata terræ. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et ix serui et xx uillani et x bordarii cum vii carucis. Ibi xl acræ prati et pastura iii leucis longitudine et una leuca latitudine. Olim c solidos. Modo ualet viii libras.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

Radulf himself holds Brawordine. Toui held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides and one virgate of land. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and nine serfs, and twenty villeins, and ten bordars, with seven ploughs. There are forty acres of meadow, and pasture three leugas in length and one leuga in breadth. Formerly it was worth a hundred shillings. Now it is worth eight pounds.

and forty acres of meadow, and three leugas of pasture in length and one in breadth; and it is worth by the year eight pounds, and it was worth a hundred shillings when he received it.

Pudeforda.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Pudeforda quam tenuit Letmarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Rogerus de Radulfo.* Inde habet Rogerus i fertinum in dominio et i carrucam et uillani alium fertinum et i carrucam. Ibi habet Rogerus ii uillanos et iiii bordarios et i seruuum et ii animalia et i porcum et ii agros nemoris et xii agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascue in longitudine et ii quadragenarias in latitudine. Et ualet per annum x solidos et quando ipse recepit ualebat xv solidos.—Exon. D. (345b) 315.

* This sentence is interlined in the original.

Radulf has a manor called Pudeforda, which Letmar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Now Roger holds this of Radulf. Of it Roger has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have another ferling and one plough. There Roger has two villeins, and four bordars, and one serf, and two head of cattle, and one swine, and two acres of wood, and twelve acres of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth fifteen shillings when he received it.

Horeuoda.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Horeuoda quam tenuit Aluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus† quæ reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Rogerus ii uirgas et iii carrucas in dominio et uillani habent i uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus ii uillanos et iiii bordarios et iiii seruos et i uaccam et vii porcos et lx oues et i agrum nemoris et viii agros prati et ualet per annum lx solidos et quando Radulfus recepit ualebat xl solidos.—Exon. D. (325b) 315.

† From quam to mortuus interlined in the original.

Radulf has a manor called Horewoda, which Alward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by five ploughs.

Pudeforde.

Rogerus tenet de Radulfo Pudeforde. Ledmar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et ii uillanis et iv bordariis. Ibi xii acræ prati et ii acræ siluæ. Pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et ii quarentenis latitudine. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

Roger holds Pudeforde of Radulf. Ledmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs which are there, with one serf, and two villeins, and four bordars. There are twelve acres of meadow, and two acres of wood. Pasture half a leuga in length and two furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Horewode.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Horewode. Aluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et iiii serui et ii uillani et iiii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi viii acræ prati et una acra siluæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet lx solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

Radulf himself holds Horewode. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs,

Of them Radulf has in demesne two virgates and three ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and two ploughs. There Radulf has two villeins, and four bordars, and four serfs, and one cow, and seven swine, and sixty sheep, and one acre of wood, and eight acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year sixty shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when Radulf received it.

Torilanda.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Torilanda quam tenuit Almerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro tertia parte unius ferlini. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Rogerius de Radulfo. Ibi habet Rogerius et sui homines i carrucam. Ibi habet Rogerius iii bordarios et i seruum. Hæc ualet v solidos et quando Radulfus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (325b) 315.

Radulf has a manor called Torilanda, which Almer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for the third part of one ferling. This can be ploughed by one plough. Roger holds this of Radulf. There Roger and his men have one plough. There Roger has three bordars and one serf. This is worth five shillings, and it was worth just as much when Radulf received it.

Aissecoma.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Aissecoma quam tenuit Aluricus pigā ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus.* Huic additæ sunt iii mansiones quas tenuerunt iii tagni pariter et hæ iii mansiones reddiderunt gildum pro i hidis. Has possunt arare vii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas et uillani dimidiam hidam et vii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus viii uillanus et iii bordarios et iii seruos et xlii animalia et xxiii porcos et c oues et xl capras et iii agros nemoris et v agros prati et cl agros pascuæ. Et reddit x libras per annum et ix libras quando recepit.—Exon. D. (325b) 315.

* From quam to mortuus interlined.

Radulf has a manor called Aissecoma, which Aluric pigā held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. To this have been added three manors, which three thanes held in partage, and these four manors rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by nine ploughs. Of them Radulf has in demesne half a hide and and four serfs, and two villeins, and four bordars, with two ploughs. There are eight acres of meadow, and one acre of wood. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth sixty shillings.

Torilande.

Rogerus tenet de Radulfo Torilande. Almar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro tertia parte unius ferling. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est cum i seruo et iii bordariis. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

Roger holds Torilande of Radulf. Almar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for the third part of one ferling. There is land for one plough which is there, with one serf, and three bordars. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

Aissecome.

Ipsè Radulfus tenet Aissecome. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi. Huic additæ sunt iii terræ quas tenebant libere pro tribus maneriis in paragio* iii taini tempore regis Eduuardi. Hæ iii terræ geldabant pro ii hidis tempore regis Eduuardi. Terra est ix carucis. In dominio sunt iiii carucæ et iiii serui et viii uillani et iiii bordarii cum vii carucis. Ibi v acræ prati et iiii acræ siluæ et cl acræ pasturæ. Olim ix libras. Modo ualet x libras. Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

* Pro tribus maneriis in paragio written over.

Radulf himself holds Aissecome. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward. To it have been added three manors, which three thanes held freely for three manors in partage in the time of king Edward. These four lands paid geld for two hides in the time of king Edward. There is land for nine ploughs. In four ploughs, and the villeins have half a hide and seven ploughs. There Radulf has eight villeins, and four bordars, and four serfs, and forty-two head of cattle, and twenty-four swine, and a hundred and fifty sheep, and forty goats, and four acres of wood, and five acres of meadow, and a hundred and fifty acres of pasture. And it returns ten pounds a year, and it returned nine pounds when he received it.

Holcomma.

Radulfus habet i uirgam terræ quæ uocatur Holcomma quam tenuit Aimarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Radulfus iiii salinarios qui reddunt per annum vi solidos et v denarios.—Exon. D. (325b) 315.

Radulf has a virgate of land called Holcomma, which Aimar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Radulf has four saltworkers, who return six shillings and five pence a year.

Peumera.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Peumera quam tenuit Wichinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga terræ. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rogerus filius Pagani de Radulfo. Inde habet Rogerus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Rogerus iiii uillanos et iiii bordarios et ii seruos et xxxvi oues et iiii agros prati. Et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Radulfus eam recepit x solidos.—Exon. D. (336b) 316.

Radulf has a manor called Peumera, which Wichin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate of land. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Roger Fitz-Pagan holds this of Radulf. Of it Roger has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and two ploughs. There Roger has four villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and thirty-six sheep, and three acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Radulf received it.

Bolewis.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bolewis quam tenuit Lieuegarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et demesne are four ploughs, and four serfs, and eight villeins, and four bordars, with seven ploughs. There are five acres of meadow, and four acres of wood, and a hundred and fifty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth nine pounds. Now it is worth ten pounds.

Holecome.

Ipsē Radulfus tenet Holecome. Almær tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi iiii salinarii reddentes vi solidos et v denarios.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

Radulf himself holds Holecome. Almar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There are four saltworkers returning six shillings and five pence.

Pebmere.

Rogeri⁹s tenet de Radulfo Pebmere. Wichin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum ii seruis et iiii uillani et iii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi iii acræ prati. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

Roger holds Pebmere of Radulf. Wichin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with two serfs, and there are four villeins, and three bordars, with two ploughs. There are three acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Bolewis.

Ricardus tenet de Radulfo Bolewis. Leuegar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ.

mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Ricardus de Radulfo. Hanc habet totam Ricardus in dominio excepto i ferlino quem ii uillani et duo serui habent. Et hæc ualet per annum v solidos et quando Radulfus recepit tantundem ualebat.—Exon. D. (336b) 316.

Radulf has a manor called Bolewis, which Lieuegar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. Richard holds this of Radulf. Richard has the whole of it in demesne, except one ferling, which two villeins and two serfs [sic. in orig.] have. And this manor is worth five shillings a year, and it was worth just as much when Radulf received it.

Brandona.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Brandona quam tenuit Aluuardus Tochesona ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas. Et uillani dimidiam hidam et vi carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus vii uillanos et vi bordarios et v seruos et i runcinum et ciiii equas indomitas* et xxv animalia et viii porcos et c oues et xxx capras et xxx agros nemoris et ii leugas pascuæ. Et ualet per annum (viii erased) c solidos et quando recepit ualebat xxx solidos.—Exon. D. (337) 316.

* Et ciiii equas indomitas, interlined.

Radulf has a manor called Brandona, which Alward Tochesone held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Of it Radulf has in demesne half a hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have half a hide and six ploughs. There Radulf has seven villeins, and six bordars, and five serfs, and one packhorse, and a hundred and four unbroken horses, and twenty-five head of cattle, and eight swine, and a hundred sheep, and thirty goats, and thirty acres of wood, and two leugas of pasture; and it is worth by the year a hundred shillings, and it was worth thirty shillings when he received it.

Lacoma.

Huic mansioni addita Lacoma quam Eduuinus tenuit ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i ferdino. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Et ibi uillanus qui reddit iii solidos per annum. Et iste Eduuinus poterat ire ubi ualebat.—Exon. D. (337) 316.

Terra est i carucæ. Ibi sunt ii uillani et ii bordarii. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

Richard holds Bolewis of Radulf. Leuegar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There are two villeins, and two bordars [sic. in orig.]. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

Brandone.

Ipsè Radulfus tenet Brandone. Aluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et v serui et vii uillani et vi bordarii cum vi carucis. Ibi xxx acra siluæ et ii leucæ pasturæ. Olim xxx solidos. Modo ualet c solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

Radulf himself holds Brandone. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and five serfs, and seven villeins, and six bordars, with six ploughs. There are thirty acres of wood, and two leugas of pasture. Formerly it was worth thirty shillings. Now it is worth a hundred shillings.

Lacome.

Huic manerio est addita Lacome. Eduinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi est unus uillanus reddens iii solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

To this manor has been added Lacoma, which Edwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling. This can be ploughed by one plough. And a villein is there, who returns three shillings a year. And that Edwin could go where he wished.

Ciretona.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ciretona quam tenuit Chitellus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio i ferdinum et i carrucam et uillani i ferdinum et i carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et ii seruos et xxvii animalia et viii porcos et xxx oues et xx agros nemoris et ii leugas pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (337) 316.

Radulf has a manor called Ciretona, which Chitel held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of it Radulf has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have one ferling and one plough. There Radulf has four villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, and twenty-seven head of cattle, and eight swine, and thirty sheep, and twenty acres of wood, and two leugas of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

Hantona.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hantona quam tenuit Vlfus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Et Helgodus eam tenet de Radulfo. Inde habet Helgodus dimidiam uirgam in dominio et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Helgodus iii uillanos et ii seruos et xiii animalia et viii porcos et l oues et xx capras et xii agros nemoris et xxx agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xxxvii solidos et quando recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (337) 316.

Radulf has a manor called Hantona, which Ulf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. And Helgod holds it of Radulf. Of it Helgod has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Helgod has three villeins, and two serfs, and

To this manor has been added Lacombe. Eduin held it in the time of king Edwin, and it paid geld for one ferling. There is land for one plough. There is one villein returning three shillings.

Ciretone.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Ciretone. Chetel tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et ii serui et iiii uillani et ii bordarii. Ibi xx acræ siluæ et ii leucæ pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

Radulf himself holds Ciretone. Chetel held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs which are there, and two serfs, and four villeins, and two bordars. There are twenty acres of wood, and two leugas of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Haytone.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Haytone. Ulf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et iii uillani cum i caruca. Ibi xxx acræ pasturæ et xii acræ siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xxxvii solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

Radulf himself holds Haytone. Ulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are two serfs, and three villeins, with one plough. There are thirty acres of pasture, and twelve acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth thirty-seven shillings.

thirteen head of cattle, and eight swine, and fifty sheep, and twenty goats, and twelve acres of wood, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty-seven shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he received it.

Estandona.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Estandona quam tenuit Algarus Presbiter ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Ibi habet Radulfus i uillanum et xxx agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum iii solidos.—Exon. D. (337b) 316.

Radulf has a manor called Estandona, which Algar the Priest held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. There Radulf has one villein and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year three shillings.

Hane.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hane quam tenuit Burgeredus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii hidis. Has possunt arare vii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus hidam et dimidiam et iii carrucas in dominio et uillani habent iii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus xii uillanos et vi bordarios et vi seruos et i roncinum et xi animalia et xii porcos et c oues et xx agros prati et xxiii agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum iii libras et quando Radulfus eam recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (337b) 316.

Radulf has a manor called Hane, which Burgered held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three hides. These can be ploughed by seven ploughs. Of them Radulf has in demesne one hide and a half and three ploughs, and the villeins have three ploughs. There Radulf has twelve villeins, and six bordars, and six serfs, and one packhorse, and eleven head of cattle, and twelve swine, and a hundred sheep, and twenty acres of meadow, and twenty-three acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year three pounds, and it was worth just as much when Radulf received it.

Sildenna.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Sildenna quam habuit Alricus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio i uirgam et i

Standone.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Standone. Algar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Ibi est unus uillanus et xxx acræ pasturæ. Valet iii solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 29a.

Radulf himself holds Standone. Algar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is one villein, and there are thirty acres of pasture. Worth three shillings.

Hanc.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Hanc. Burgered tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis. Terra est vii carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et vi serui et xii uillani et vi bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi xx acræ prati et xxiii acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet iii libras.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

Radulf himself holds Hanc. Burgered held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides. There is land for seven ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and six serfs, and twelve villeins, and six bordars, with three ploughs. There are twenty acres of meadow, and twenty-three acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth three pounds.

Sildene.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Sildene. Alric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et ix uillani et ii bordarii cum vi carucis. Ibi xxx acræ siluæ minutæ et ccc acræ carrucam et uillani iii uirgas et vi carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus ix uillanus et ii bordarios et ii seruos et x animalia et xlv oues et xxx agros nemusculi et ccc agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum iii libras et x solidos et quando recepit ualebat ii libras.—Exon. D. (337b) 317.

Radulf has a manor called Sildenna, which Alric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of it Radulf has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have three virgates and six ploughs. There Radulf has nine villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, and ten head of cattle, and forty-five sheep, and thirty acres of coppice, and three hundred acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year three pounds ten shillings, and it was worth two pounds when he received it.

Blacaberga.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Blacaberga quam tenuit Alnotdus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus ii uillanos et iii bordarios et xiii animalia et <sup>or</sup>iiii porcos et xxx oues et viii capras et iii agros prati et c agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (337b) 317.

Radulf has a manor called Blacaberga, which Alnotd held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of it Radulf has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Radulf has two villeins, and three bordars, and thirteen head of cattle, and four swine, and thirty sheep, and eight goats, and three acres of meadow, and a hundred acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

Tala.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Tala quam tenuit Aldnotdus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et dimidia i ferdino minus. Has possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio i hidam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam hidam i ferdino minus et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus iiii uillanos et iii bordarios et xv agros nemusculi et ii agros pasturæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet lxx solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

Radulf himself holds Sildene. Alric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are two serfs, and nine villeins, and two bordars, with six ploughs. There are thirty acres of coppice, and three hundred acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth seventy shillings.

Blacheberge.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Blacheberge. Alnod tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et ii uillani et iii bordarii. Ibi iii acræ prati et c acræ pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

Radulf himself holds Blacheberge. Alnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, and two villeins, and three bordars. There are three acres of meadow, and a hundred acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Tale.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Tale. Alnodus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida et dimidia una ferling minus. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est uno caruca et iiii uillani et iii bordarii cum dimidia caruca. Ibi ii acræ prati et l acræ pasturæ et xv acræ siluæ minutæ. Valet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2), 29b.

prati et l agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (338) 317.

Radulf has a manor called Tala, which Alnotd held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and a half less one ferling. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of it Radulf has in demesne one hide and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide less one ferling and half a plough. There Radulf has four villeins, and three bordars, and fifteen acres of coppice, and two acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

Tala.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Tala quam tenuit Borgaretus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas et uillani dimidiam hidam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus v uillanos et i bordarium et iii seruos et i runcinum et xv animalia et i porcum et xxx oues et l capras et i molendinum qui reddit v solidos per annum et xx agros nemusculi et xx agros prati et l pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando recepit xx solidos.—Exon. D. (338) 317.

Radulf has a manor called Tala, which Borgaret held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of it Radulf has in demesne half a hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have half a hide and one plough. There Radulf has five villeins, and one bordar, and three serfs, and one packhorse, and fifteen head of cattle, and one swine, and thirty sheep, and fifty goats, and a mill returning five shillings a year, and twenty acres of coppice, and twenty acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he received it.

Orescoma.

Radulfus de Pomaria habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Orescoma quam tenuit Edmerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ et dimidia. Inde habet Radulfus i uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i uirgam et ii carrucas et dimidiam. Ibi habet Radulfus v uillanos et v bordarios et iii seruos et i roncinum et iiii

Radulf himself holds Tale. Alnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and a half less one ferling. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are four villeins, and three bordars, with half a plough. There are two acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and fifteen acres of coppice. It is worth twenty shillings.

Tale.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Tale. Borgaret tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et v uillani cum i bordario habent i carucam. Ibi molinus reddens v solidos et xx acræ prati et l acræ pasturæ et xx acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

Radulf himself holds Tale. Borgaret held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and five villeins, with one bordar have one plough. There is a mill returning five shillings, and there are twenty acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and twenty acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Orescane.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Orescane. Edmær tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis et dimidiæ. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et v uillani et v bordarii cum ii carucis et dimidia. Ibi dimidia molinus reddens v solidus et v acræ prati et ii quarentenæ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

animalia et v porcos et xxiii oues et dimidium molendinum qui reddit v solidos et ii quadragenarias nemoris et v agros prati. Hæc ualet xl solidos et quando Radulfus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (338) 317.

Radulf de Pomerei has a manor called Orescome, which Edmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs and a half. Of it Radulf has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and two ploughs and a half. There Radulf has five villeins, and five bordars, and three serfs, and one packhorse, and four head of cattle, and five swine, and twenty-three sheep, and a moiety of a mill which returns five shillings, and two furlongs of wood, and five acres of meadow. This is worth forty shillings, and it was worth just as much when Radulf received it.

Ōteri.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Oteri . . . quam tenuit Godricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Roscelinus de Radulfo. Inde habet Roscelinus i uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam. Ibi habet Roscelinus i uillanum et iii bordarios et i seruum et viii animalia et xvi . . . porcos et lxxviii oues et v agros prati et duas quadragenarias pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Radulfus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (338b) 318.

Radulf has a manor called Oteri, which Godric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Roscalin holds this of Radulf. Of this Roscelin has one virgate and a half and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate. There Roscelin has one villein, and three bordars, and one serf, and eight head of cattle, and sixteen swine, and seventy-eight sheep, and five acres of meadow, and two furlongs of pasture. This is worth ten shillings, and it was worth just as much when Radulf received it.

Doduceswilla.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Doduceswilla quam tenuit Almerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et dimidia et i uirga. Hanc possunt arare x carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i hidam et i uirgam et v carrucas. Ibi Radulfus vi animalia et x capras et l oues

Radulf himself holds Orescane. Edmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs and a half. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and five villeins, and five bordars with two ploughs and a half. There is a moiety of a mill returning five shillings, and there are five acres of meadow, and two furlongs of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth forty shillings.

Otri.

Rozelinus tenet de Radulfo Otri. Godric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et i uillano et iii bordarii et v acræ prati et ii quarentenæ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

Rozelin holds Otri of Radulf. Godric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one serf, and one villein, and there are three bordars, and five acres of meadow, and two furlongs of pasture. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth ten shillings.

Dodvcheswelle.

Ipsē Radulfus tenet Dodvcheswelle. Almer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida et dimidia. Terra est x carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et xi uillani cum v carucis. Ibi iii acræ prati et viii acræ siluæ minutæ et x quarentenæ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet l solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

et xi uillanos et iii seruos et viii agros nemusculi et iiii agros prati et x quadragenarias pascuæ. Et ualet l solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (338b) 318.

Radulf has a manor called Doduceswilla, which Almer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and a half and one virgate [sic. in orig.]. This can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Of it Radulf has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have one hide, and one virgate, and five ploughs. There Radulf has six head of cattle, and ten goats, and fifty sheep, and eleven villeins, and three serfs, and eight acres of coppice, and four acres of meadow, and ten furlongs of pasture; and it is worth fifty shillings, and it was worth just as much when he received it.

•Orescomme.

Radulfus habet i mansionem Orescomme quam tenuit Aluinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida et dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carruca. Hanc habet Hegotus de eo. Ibi habet Hegotus i uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Hegotus iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et xvi animalia et i porcum et xx oues et xvii capras et vi agros nemoris et xi agros nemusculi et viii agros prati et iiii quadragenarias pascuæ. Et ualet xx solidos per annum et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (338b) 318.

Radulf has a manor called Orescomme, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide and half a virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. This Hegot has of him. There Hegot has in demesne one virgate and a half and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and two ploughs. There Hegot has four villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and sixteen head of cattle, and one swine, and twenty sheep, and seventeen goats, and six acres of wood, and eleven acres of coppice, and eight acres of meadow, and four furlongs of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth just as much when he received it.

•Oghauillæ.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Oghauillæ quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ De his habet Willelmus Pitauensis ii uirgas et Radulf himself holds Doducheswelle. Almer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and a half [sic. in orig.]. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are three serfs, and eleven villeins, with five ploughs. There are four acres of meadow, and eight acres of coppice, and ten furlongs of pasture. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth fifty shillings.

Orescome.

Helgot tenet de Radulfo Orescome. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida et dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum uno seruo et iiii uillanis et ii bordariis. Ibi viii acræ prati et vi acræ siluæ et xi acræ siluæ minutæ et iiii quarentenæ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29*b*.

Helgot holds Orescome of Radulf. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide and half a virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and four villeins, and two bordars. There are eight acres of meadow, and six acres of wood, and eleven acres of coppice, and four furlongs of pasture. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth twenty shillings.

Ogewille.

Willelmus tenet de Radulfo Ogewille. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iii uillani et iii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi i acra prati...

Robertus i uirgam. Ibi habet Willelmus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et sui uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus ii uillanos et iii bordarios et i seruum et vi animalia et xxx oues et xii agros nemusculi et i agrum prati et xii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat x solidos.

Et Radulfus habet ibi iiii uillanos et iii bordarios et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (339) 318.

Radulf has a manor called Oghawillæ, which Aluric held on the day on which Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of these William Pitavensis has two virgates, and Robert one virgate. There William has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There William has two [sic. in orig.] villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and six head of cattle, and thirty sheep, and twelve acres of coppice, and one acre of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty [sic.] shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

And Radulf has there four villeins and three bordars, and it is worth ten shillings a year, and it was worth just as much when he received it.

Oghauuille.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Oghauuille quam tenuit Edricus ea die qua Eduuardus [sic.] fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Willelmus Pictauensis de eo. Ibi habet Willelmus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus ii uillanos et iii bordarios et i seruum et iii porcos et xxv oues et xv capras et vi agros nemoris et i agrum prati et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (339) 318.

Radulf has a manor called Oghawille, which Edric held on the day on which Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. William Pictavensis holds it of him. There William has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There William has two villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and three swine, and twenty-five sheep, and fifteen goats, and six acres of wood, and one acre of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when he received it.

et xii acraē pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

William holds Ogewille of Radulf. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and there are three [sic. in orig.] villeins, and three bordars, with one plough. There is one acre of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth thirty [sic.] shillings.

Ogewille.

Idem Willelmus tenet de Radulfo Ogewille. Edric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et ii uillani et iii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi i acra prati et vi acraē siluæ et x acraē pasturæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

The same William holds Ogewille of Radulf. Edric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and there are two villeins, and three bordars, with one plough. There is one acre of meadow, and six acres of wood, and ten acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

carrucam et uillani iii uirgas et vi carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus ix uillanus et ii bordarios et ii seruos et x animalia et xlv oues et xxx agros nemusculi et ccc agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum iii libras et x solidos et quando recepit ualebat ii libras.—Exon. D. (337b) 317.

Radulf has a manor called Sildenna, which Alric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of it Radulf has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have three virgates and six ploughs. There Radulf has nine villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, and ten head of cattle, and forty-five sheep, and thirty acres of coppice, and three hundred acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year three pounds ten shillings, and it was worth two pounds when he received it.

Blacaberga.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Blacaberga quam tenuit Alnotdus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus ii uillanos et iii bordarios et xiii animalia et iiii porcos et xxx oues et viii capras et iii agros prati et c agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (337b) 317.

Radulf has a manor called Blacaberga, which Alnotd held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of it Radulf has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Radulf has two villeins, and three bordars, and thirteen head of cattle, and four swine, and thirty sheep, and eight goats, and three acres of meadow, and a hundred acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

Tala.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Tala quam tenuit Aldnotdus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et dimidia i ferdino minus. Has possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio i hidam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam hidam i ferdino minus et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus iiii uillanos et iii bordarios et xv agros nemusculi et ii agros pasturæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet lxx solidos.—

Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

Radulf himself holds Sildene. Alric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are two serfs, and nine villeins, and two bordars, with six ploughs. There are thirty acres of coppice, and three hundred acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth seventy shillings.

Blacheberge.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Blacheberge. Alnod tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et ii uillani et iii bordarii. Ibi iii acræ prati et c acræ pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

Radulf himself holds Blacheberge. Alnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, and two villeins, and three bordars. There are three acres of meadow, and a hundred acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Tale.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Tale. Alnodus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida et dimidia una ferling minus. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est uno caruca et iiii uillani et iii bordarii cum dimidia caruca. Ibi ii acræ prati et l acræ pasturæ et xv acræ siluæ minutæ. Valet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2), 29b.

prati et l agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (338) 317.

Radulf has a manor called Tala, which Alnotd held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and a half less one ferling. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of it Radulf has in demeane one hide and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide less one ferling and half a plough. There Radulf has four villeins, and three bordars, and fifteen acres of coppice, and two acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

Tala.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Tala quam tenuit Borgaretus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carruæ. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas et uillani dimidiam hidam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus v uillanos et i bordarium et iiii seruos et i runcinum et xv animalia et i porcum et xxx oues et l capras et i molendinum qui reddit v solidos per annum et xx agros nemusculi et xx agros prati et l pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando recepit xx solidos.—Exon. D. (338) 317.

Radulf has a manor called Tala, which Borgaret held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of it Radulf has in demeane half a hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have half a hide and one plough. There Radulf has five villeins, and one bordar, and three serfs, and one packhorse, and fifteen head of cattle, and one swine, and thirty sheep, and fifty goats, and a mill returning five shillings a year, and twenty acres of coppice, and twenty acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he received it.

Orescoma.

Radulfus de Pomaria habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Orescoma quam tenuit Edmerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carruæ et dimidia. Inde habet Radulfus i uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i uirgam et ii carrucas et dimidiam. Ibi habet Radulfus v uillanos et v bordarios et iiii seruos et i runcinum et iiii

Radulf himself holds Tale. Alnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and a half less one ferling. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are four villeins, and three bordars, with half a plough. There are two acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and fifteen acres of coppice. It is worth twenty shillings.

Tale.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Tale. Borgaret tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et v uillani cum i bordario habent i carucam. Ibi molinus reddens v solidos et xx acræ prati et l acræ pasturæ et xx acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

Radulf himself holds Tale. Borgaret held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and five villeins, with one bordar have one plough. There is a mill returning five shillings, and there are twenty acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and twenty acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Orescane.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Orescane. Edmær tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis et dimidiæ. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et v uillani et v bordarii cum ii carucis et dimidia. Ibi dimidia molinus reddens v solidus et v acræ prati et ii quarentenæ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

animalia et v porcos et xxiii oues et dimidium molendinum qui reddit v solidos et ii quadragenarias nemoris et v agros prati. Hæc ualet xl solidos et quando Radulfus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Econ. D. (338) 317.

Radulf de Pomerei has a manor called Orescome, which Edmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs and a half. Of it Radulf has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and two ploughs and a half. There Radulf has five villeins, and five bordars, and three serfs, and one packhorse, and four head of cattle, and five swine, and twenty-three sheep, and a moiety of a mill which returns five shillings, and two furlongs of wood, and five acres of meadow. This is worth forty shillings, and it was worth just as much when Radulf received it.

Oteri.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Oteri . . . quam tenuit Godricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Roscelinus de Radulfo. Inde habet Roscelinus i uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam. Ibi habet Roscelinus i uillanum et iii bordarios et i seruum et viii animalia et xvi . . . porcos et lxxviii oues et v agros prati et duas quadragenarias pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Radulfus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Econ. D. (338b) 318.

Radulf has a manor called Oteri, which Godric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Roscelin holds this of Radulf. Of this Roscelin has one virgate and a half and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate. There Roscelin has one villein, and three bordars, and one serf, and eight head of cattle, and sixteen swine, and seventy-eight sheep, and five acres of meadow, and two furlongs of pasture. This is worth ten shillings, and it was worth just as much when Radulf received it.

Doduceswilla.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Doduceswilla quam tenuit Almerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et dimidia et i uirga. Hanc possunt arare x carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i hidam et i uirgam et v carrucas. Ibi Radulfus vi animalia et x capras et l oues

Radulf himself holds Orescane. Edmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs and a half. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and five villeins, and five bordars with two ploughs and a half. There is a moiety of a mill returning five shillings, and there are five acres of meadow, and two furlongs of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth forty shillings.

Otri.

Rozelinus tenet de Radulfo Otri. Godric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et i uillano et iii bordarii et v acræ prati et ii quarentenæ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

Rozelin holds Otri of Radulf. Godric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one serf, and one villein, and there are three bordars, and five acres of meadow, and two furlongs of pasture. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth ten shillings.

Dodvcheswelle.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Dodvcheswelle. Almer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida et dimidia. Terra est x carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et xi uillani cum v carucis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et viii acræ siluæ minutæ et x quarentenæ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet l solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

animalia et v porcos et xxiii oues et dimidium molendinum qui reddit v solidos et ii quadragenarias nemoris et v agros prati. Hæc ualet xl solidos et quando Radulfus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (338) 317.

Radulf de Pomerei has a manor called Orescome, which Edmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs and a half. Of it Radulf has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and two ploughs and a half. There Radulf has five villeins, and five bordars, and three serfs, and one packhorse, and four head of cattle, and five swine, and twenty-three sheep, and a moiety of a mill which returns five shillings, and two furlongs of wood, and five acres of meadow. This is worth forty shillings, and it was worth just as much when Radulf received it.

Oteri.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Oteri . . . quam tenuit Godricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Roscelinus de Radulfo. Inde habet Roscelinus i uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam. Ibi habet Roscelinus i uillanum et iii bordarios et i seruum et viii animalia et xvi . . . porcos et lxxviii oues et v agros prati et duas quadragenarias pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Radulfus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (338b) 318.

Radulf has a manor called Oteri, which Godric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Roscelin holds this of Radulf. Of this Roscelin has one virgate and a half and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate. There Roscelin has one villein, and three bordars, and one serf, and eight head of cattle, and sixteen swine, and seventy-eight sheep, and five acres of meadow, and two furlongs of pasture. This is worth ten shillings, and it was worth just as much when Radulf received it.

Doduceswilla.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Doduceswilla quam tenuit Almerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et dimidia et i uirga. Hanc possunt arare x carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i hidam et i uirgam et v carrucas. Ibi Radulfus vi animalia et x capras et l oues

Radulf himself holds Orescane. Edmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs and a half. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and five villeins, and five bordars with two ploughs and a half. There is a moiety of a mill returning five shillings, and there are five acres of meadow, and two furlongs of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth forty shillings.

Otri.

Rozelinus tenet de Radulfo Otri. Godric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et i uillano et iii bordarii et v acræ prati et ii quarentenæ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

Rozelin holds Otri of Radulf. Godric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one serf, and one villein, and there are three bordars, and five acres of meadow, and two furlongs of pasture. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth ten shillings.

Dodvcheswelle.

Ipsē Radulfus tenet Dodvcheswelle. Almer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida et dimidia. Terra est x carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et xi uillani cum v carucis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et viii acræ siluæ minutæ et x quarentenæ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet l solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

et xi uillanos et iii seruos et viii agros nemusculi et iiii agros prati et x quadragenarias pascuæ. Et ualet l solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (338b) 318.

Radulf has a manor called Doduceswilla, which Almer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and a half and one virgate [sic. in orig.]. This can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Of it Radulf has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have one hide, and one virgate, and five ploughs. There Radulf has six head of cattle, and ten goats, and fifty sheep, and eleven villeins, and three serfs, and eight acres of coppice, and four acres of meadow, and ten furlongs of pasture; and it is worth fifty shillings, and it was worth just as much when he received it.

Orescomme.

Radulfus habet i mansionem Orescomme quam tenuit Aluinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida et dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc habet Hegotus de eo. Ibi habet Hegotus i uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Hegotus iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et xvi animalia et i porcum et xx oues et xvii capras et vi agros nemoris et xi agros nemusculi et viii agros prati et iiii quadragenarias pascuæ. Et ualet xx solidos per annum et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (338b) 318.

Radulf has a manor called Orescomme, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide and half a virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. This Hegot has of him. There Hegot has in demesne one virgate and a half and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and two ploughs. There Hegot has four villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and sixteen head of cattle, and one swine, and twenty sheep, and seventeen goats, and six acres of wood, and eleven acres of coppice, and eight acres of meadow, and four furlongs of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth just as much when he received it.

Oghauuillæ.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Oghauuillæ quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ De his habet Willelmus Pitauensis ii uirgas et Radulf himself holds Doducheswelle. Almer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and a half [sic. in orig.]. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are three serfs, and eleven villeins, with five ploughs. There are four acres of meadow, and eight acres of coppice, and ten furlongs of pasture. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth fifty shillings.

•Orescome.

Helgot tenet de Radulfo Orescome. Aluuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida et dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum uno seruo et iiii uillanis et ii bordariis. Ibi viii acræ prati et vi acræ siluæ et xi acræ siluæ minutæ et iiii quarentenæ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29*b*.

Helgot holds Orescome of Radulf. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide and half a virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and four villeins, and two bordars. There are eight acres of meadow, and six acres of wood, and eleven acres of coppice, and four furlongs of pasture. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth twenty shillings.

•Ogewille.

Willelmus tenet de Radulfo Ogewille. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iii uillani et iii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi i acra prati...

Robertus i uirgam. Ibi habet Willelmus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et sui uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus ii nillanos et iii bordarios et i seruum et vi animalia et xxx oues et xii agros nemusculi et i agrum prati et xii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat x solidos.

Et Radulfus habet ibi iiii uillanos et iii bordarios et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (339) 318.

Radulf has a manor called Oghawillæ, which Aluric held on the day on which Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of these William Pitavensis has two virgates, and Robert one virgate. There William has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There William has two [sic. in orig.] villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and six head of cattle, and thirty sheep, and twelve acres of coppice, and one acre of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty [sic.] shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

And Radulf has there four villeins and three bordars, and it is worth ten shillings a year, and it was worth just as much when he received it.

Oghauuille.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Oghauuille quam tenuit Edricus ea die qua Eduuardus [sic.] fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Willelmus Pictauensis de eo. Ibi habet Willelmus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus ii uillanos et iii bordarios et i seruum et iii porcos et xxv oues et xv capras et vi agros nemoris et i agrum prati et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (339) 318.

Radulf has a manor called Oghawille, which Edric held on the day on which Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. William Pictavensis holds it of him. There William has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There William has two villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and three swine, and twenty-five sheep, and fifteen goats, and six acres of wood, and one acre of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when he received it.

et xii acraē pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

William holds Ogewille of Radulf. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and there are three [sic. in orig.] villeins, and three bordars, with one plough. There is one acre of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth thirty [sic.] shillings.

Ogewille.

Idem Willelmus tenet de Radulfo Ogewille. Edric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et ii uillani et iii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi i acra prati et vi acraē siluæ et x acraē pasturæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

The same William holds Ogewille of Radulf. Edric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and there are two villeins, and three bordars, with one plough. There is one acre of meadow, and six acres of wood, and ten acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Hochesam.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hochesam quam tenuit Wichimus ea die qua Eduuardus [sic.] fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis et dimidia. Has possunt arare vi carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rogerius de eo. Inde habet Rogerius i uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani ii uirgas et v carrucas. Ibi habet Rogerius x uillanos et iii bordarios et i seruum et i runcinum et iii animalia et xli oues et i molendinum qui ualet v solidos per annum et viii agros prati et xx agros pascuæ. Et ualet xxv [solidos] per annum et quando recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (339b) 318.

Radulf has a manor called Hochesam, which Wichim held on the day on which Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates and a half. These can be ploughed by six ploughs. Roger holds this manor of him. Of these Roger has in demesne one virgate and a half and one plough, and the villeins have two virgates and five ploughs. There Roger has ten villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and one packhorse, and three head of cattle, and forty-one sheep, and a mill which is worth five shillings a year, and eight acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth twenty-five [shillings] per annum, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

Clisewic.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Clisewic quam tenuit Wichimus ea die qua Eduuardus [sic.] fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga [uulg. in original]. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rogerius de eo. Ibi Rogerius dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et v carrucas. Ibi Rogerius habet iii uillanos et xiii bordarios et i seruum et iii animalia et xiiii oues et viii agros prati et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (339b) 319.

Radulf has a manor called Clisewic, which Wichim held on the day on which Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Roger holds it of him. There Roger has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and five ploughs. There Roger has three villeins, and thirteen bordars, and one serf, and three head of cattle, and fourteen sheep, and eight acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

Hochesham.

Rogerus tenet de Radulfo Hochesham. Wichin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis et dimidia. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et x uillani et iii bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi molinus reddens vi solidos et viii acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xxv solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29*b*.

Roger holds Hochesham of Radulf. Wichin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates and a half. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and there are ten villeins, and three bordars, with five ploughs. There is a mill returning six [sic.] shillings, and eight acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty-five shillings.

Chisewic.

Rogerus tenet de Radulfo Chisewic. Wichin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i virgata terræ. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iii uillani et xiii bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi viii acræ prati. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29*b*.

Roger holds Chisewic of Radulf. Wichin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and there are three villeins, and thirteen bordars, with five ploughs. There are eight acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Estocheleia.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Estocheleia quam tenuit Alueua ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et iii carrucas in dominio et villani dimidiam hidam et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus vii villanos et xviii bordarios et iii seruos et i runcinum et v animalia et xiiii porcos et ciii oues et xxiii capras et viii agros nemoris et iii agros prati et x agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xl solidos et quando Radulfus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (339b) 319.

Radulf has a manor called Estocheleia, which Alueua held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of it Radulf has in demeene half a hide and three ploughs, and the villeins have half a hide and three ploughs. There Radulf has seven villeins, and eighteen bordars, and three serfs, and one packhorse, and five head of cattle, and fourteen swine, and a hundred and three sheep, and twenty-three goats, and eight acres of wood, and three acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture. This is worth forty shillings, and it was worth just as much when Radulf received it.

Oteri.

Radulfus habet dimidiam hidam terræ in Oteri quam tenuit Godricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Hanc tenet Roscelinus de Radulfo. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Roscelinus iii uillanos qui habent iii boues in carruca et i agrum nemoris et v agros prati et i quadragenariam pascuæ in longitudine et dimidiam in latitudine. Hæc [ualet] xxx denarios et quando Radulfus recepit xii denarios.—Exon. D. (340) 319.

Radulf has half a hide of land in Oteri, which Godric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. Roscelin holds this of Radulf. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Roscelin has three villeins, who have three plough oxen, and one acre of wood, and five acres of meadow, and pasture one furlong in length and a half in breadth. This [is worth] thirty pence, and it was worth when Radulf received it twelve pence.

Danescoma.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Danescoma quam tenuit Sagarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt

Stochelie.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Stochelie. Alueua tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et iii serui et vii uillani et xviii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi iii acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ et viii acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

Radulf himself holds Stochelie. Alueua held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and three serfs, and seven villeins, and eighteen bordars, with three ploughs. There are three acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture, and eight acres of wood. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth forty shillings.

Otri.

Rozelinus tenet de Radulfo dimidiām hidam in Otri. Godric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi. . . . Terra est i carucæ. Ibi sunt iii uillani cum dimidia caruca et v acræ prati et i acra siluæ. Pastura i quarentina longitudine et dimidia quarentina latitudine. Olim xii denarios. Modo ualet xxx denarios.—Exch. D. 114 (2); 29b.

Rozelin holds of Radulf half a hide in Otri. Godric held it in the time of king Edward. There is land for one plough. There are three villeins, with half a plough, and five acres of meadow, and one acre of wood. Pasture one furlong in length and half a furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth twelve pence. Now it is worth thirty pence.

Danescome.

Willelmus tenet de Radulf Danescome. Sagar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum ii seruus et iii arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Willelmus de Radulfo. Inde habet Willelmus i uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et villani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus iii bordarios et ii seruos et viii animalia et xvii porcos et xlv oues et xvii capras et iii agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xx solidos et quando Radulfus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (340) 319.

Radulf has a manor called Danescoma, which Sagar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. William holds it of Radulf. Of this William has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There William has three bordars, and two serfs, and eight head of cattle, and seventeen swine, and forty-five sheep, and seventeen goats, and three acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture. This is worth thirty shillings, and it was worth just as much when Radulf received it.

Heppasteba.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur . . . Heppasteba quam ipse Radulfus saisuit . . . cum mansione sua quæ uocatur Hanca quam tenuit Oluardus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Radulfus i seruum et v agros prati et ualet per annum v solidos.—Exon. D. (340) 319.

Radulf has a manor called Heppasteba, which Radulf himself obtained seisin of with his manor called Hanca, which Olvard held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Radulf has one serf and five acres of meadow; and it is worth five shillings a year.

Cridia.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cridia quam tenuit Goda ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Willelmus de Radulfo. Inde habet Willelmus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et villani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et vii boues in carruca. Ibi habet Willelmus iiii bordarios et iiii seruos et iiii animalia et xxxvii oues et v agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Radulfus recepit v solidos.—Exon. D. (340) 319.

bordariis. Ibi iii acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

William holds Danescome of Radulf. Sagar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, with two serfs and three bordars. There are three acres of meadow and thirty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth thirty shillings.

Heppastebe.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Heppastebe. Vluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi est i seruus et v acræ prati. Valet v solidos. Hanc saisiuit Radulfus cum alio manerio Hanche.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

Radulf himself holds Heppastebe. Ulward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There is one serf and there are five acres of meadow. It is worth five shillings. Radulf obtained seisin of this with another manor, Hanche.

Cridie.

Willelmus tenet de Radulfo Cridie. Gode tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi. Terra est ii carucis et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et iiii serui et iiii bordarii. Ibi v acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

Radulf has a manor called Cridia, which Goda held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. William holds it of Radulf. Of this William has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate, and one plough, and seven plough oxen. There William has four bordars, and four serfs, and four head of cattle, and thirty-seven sheep, and five acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture. This is worth ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Radulf received it.

Addeberia.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Addeberia quam tenuit Saricius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Willelmus de Radulfo. Ibi habet Willelmus ii seruos et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet iii solidos et quando Radulfus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (340b) 320.

Radulf has a manor called Addeberia, which Saric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. William holds this of Radulf. There William has two serfs and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth three shillings, and it was worth just as much when Radulf received it.

Creda.

Radulfus habet i ferlinum terræ in Creda quam tenuit Edwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Hunc potest arare i carruca. Hunc tenet Willelmus de Radulfo. Ibi habet Willelmus agrum prati et alia terra est ita uastata quod non ualet nisi ii solidos et quando Radulfus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (340b) 320.

Radulf has one ferling of land in Creda, which Edwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. This can be ploughed by one plough. William holds this of Radulf. There William has an acre of meadow, and the rest of the land is so waste that it is worth only two shillings, and it was worth just as much when Radulf received it.

Estreta.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Estreta quam tenuit Ailmerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et William holds Cridie of Radulf. Gode held it in the time of king Edward. There is land for two ploughs, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There are two ploughs, and four serfs, and four bordars. There are five acres of meadow and thirty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Addeberie.

Idem Willelmus tenet de Radulf Addeberie. Saric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi sunt ii serui et xxx acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet iii solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

The same William holds Addeberie of Radulf. Saric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There are two serfs and thirty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth three shillings.

Credie.

Idem Willelmus tenet de Radulfo unum ferling terræ in Credie. Eduuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi... Terra est i carucæ. Ibi est una acra prati. Valet ii solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

The same William holds of Radulf one ferling of land in Credie. Edwin held it in the time of king Edward. There is land for one plough. There is one acre of meadow. It is worth two shillings.

Estrete.

Turstanus tenet de Radulfo Estrete. Ailmer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida.

mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Torstinus de Radulfo. Inde habet Torstinus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et dimidiam. Et villani i uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Torstinus ii uillanos et vi bordarios et iii seruos et iiii animalia et iii porcos et xxx oues et lx capras et xii agros nemoris et viii agros prati et lx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Radulfus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (340b) 320.

Radulf has a manor called Estreta, which Ailmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Torstin holds it of Radulf. Of this Torstin has in demesne one virgate and one plough and a half, and the villeins have one virgate and half a plough. There Torstin has two villeins, and six bordars, and three serfs, and four head of cattle, and three swine, and thirty sheep, and sixty goats, and twelve acres of wood, and eight acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture. This is worth ten shillings, and it was worth just as much when Radulf received it.

Wasfella.

Radulfus habet i mansionem . . . quæ uocatur Wasfella quam tenuit Goda ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus i uirgam et dimidiam et ii carrucas in dominio et villani i uirgam et dimidiam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus vii villanos et iiii bordarios et ii seruos et iiii animalia et iii porcos et xxxii oues et vii capras et xl agros nemoris et iiii agros prati et xv agros pascuæ. Hæc reddit xxx solidos et quando Radulfus recepit vi solidos.—Exon. D. (341) 320.

Radulf has a manor called Wasfella, which Goda held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of these Radulf has in demesne one virgate and a half and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and a half and two ploughs. There Radulf has seven villeins, and four bordars, and two serfs, and four head of cattle, and three swine, and thirty-two sheep, and seven goats, and forty acres of wood, and four acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture. This returns thirty shillings, and it returned six shillings when Radulf received it.

Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iii serui et ii uillani et vi bordarii et viii acræ prati et xii acræ siluæ et lx acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

Turstin holds Estrete of Radulf. Ailmer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, and three serfs, and two villains, and six bordars, and eight acres of meadow, and twelve acres of wood, and sixty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth ten shillings.

WASFELLE.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Wasfelle. Goda tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et vii uillani et iiii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et xv acræ pasturæ et xl acræ siluæ. Olim vi solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

Radulf himself holds Wasfelle. Goda held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and seven villeins, and four bordars, with two ploughs. There are four acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture, and forty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth six shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

b Estoleia.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Estoleia<sup>d</sup> quam tenuit Almerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare x carrucæ. Has tenet Robertus de Radulfo. Inde habet Robertus in dominio i uirgam et iii carrucas et uillani ii uirgas et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Robertus xii uillanos et i bordarium et vi seruos et xviii animalia et xviii porcos et c oues et i leugam nemoris in longitudine . . . et dimidiam in latitudine et ii agros prati et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando Radulfus recepit ualebat xxx solidos.—Exon. D. (341) 320.

Radulf has a manor called Estodleia, which Almer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Robert holds these of Radulf. Of these Robert has in demesne one virgate and three ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates and three ploughs. There Robert has twelve villeins, and one bordar, and six serfs, and eighteen head of cattle, and eighteen swine, and a hundred sheep, and one leuga of wood in length and half a leuga in breadth, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth thirty shillings when Radulf received it.

Henleia.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Henleia quam tenuit Brismerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Radulfus i uillanum et ii bordarios et iii animalia et ii oues et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (341) 320.

Radulf has a manor called Henleia, which Brismer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of this Radulf has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Radulf has one villein, and two bordars, and three head of cattle, and two sheep; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth just as much when he received it.

Stodlei.

Robertus tenet de Radulfo Stodlei. Almer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est x carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et vi serui et xii uillani cum i bordario habent iii carucas. Ibi ii acræ prati. Silua i leuca longitudine et dimidia leuca latitudine. Olim xxx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30s.

Robert holds Stodlei of Radulf. Almer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and six serfs and twelve villeins with one bordar have three ploughs. There are two acres of meadow. Wood one leuga in length and half a leuga in breadth. Formerly it was worth thirty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Henlei.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Henlei. Brismer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et i uillanus et ii bordarii cum i caruca. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30s.

Radulf himself holds Henlei. Brismer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and one villen, and two bordars, with one plough. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth ten shillings.

Odeordi.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Odeordi quam tenuit Sericus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i ferdino. Hanc potest arare dimidia . . . carruca. Hanc tenet Willelmus de Radulfo. Ibi habet Willelmus dimidiam carrucam et i seruum et ii agros prati et ualet per annum xxx denarios.—Exon. D. (341) 320.

Radulf has a manor called Odeordi, which Seric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling. This can be ploughed by half a plough. William holds this of Radulf. There William has half a plough, and one serf, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year thirty pence.

Cheuetorna.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cheuetorna quam tenuit Almarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Et Beatrix eam tenet de Radulfo. Inde habet Beatrix in dominio dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Beatrix iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et viii seruos et x animalia et lx oues et iiii agros nemoris et viii agros prati et xv agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando recepit nalebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (341b) 321.

Radulf has a manor called Chevetorna, which Almar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. And Beatrix holds this of Radulf. Of this Beatrix has in demesne half a virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have half a virgate and two ploughs. There Beatrix has four villeins, and two bordars, carrucans, serfs, and ten head of cattle, and sixty sheep, and three iii animalia, and eight acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of receipt ualebat is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was he received it.

Radulf has a manor.
day on which king Ed.
geld for one virgate.

Oppaluma.

this Radulf has in demest addita i mansio quæ uocatur Oppavilleins have half a virga. Ibi habet Eduardus rex fuit one villein, and two reddidit gildum pro i uirga et i ferdino.
sheep; and it is worth by one year. Et istam tenet de Radulfo ipse just as much when he received it. solidos.—Exon. D. (341b) 321.

Odeordi.

Willelmus tenet de Radulfo Odeordi. Seric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling. Terra est dimidia carucæ quæ ibi est cum i seruo et ii acræ prati. Valet xxx denarios.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

William holds Odeordi of Radulf. Seric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling. There is land for half a plough, which is there, with one serf, and there are two acres of meadow. Worth thirty pence.

Chenetorne.

Beatrix de Radulfo Chenetorne. Almar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et viii serui et iiii uillani et ii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi viii acræ prati et xv acræ pasturæ et iii acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

Beatrix [holds] Chenetorne of Radulf. Almar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and eight serfs, and four villeins, and two bordars, with two ploughs. There are eight acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture, and three acres of wood. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth forty shillings.

Oppelabme.

Huic manerio est addita Oppelavme. Aluuin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et uno ferling. Terra est i carucæ. Valet v solidos. Idem Aluuin tenet de Radulfo.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

And to this manor is added a manor called Oppaluma, which Alwin had on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and one ferling. This can be ploughed by one plough. And Alwin himself holds this of Radulf; and it is worth by the year five shillings.

Gatepada.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ . . . uocatur Gatepada quam tenuerunt v tegni pariter ea die qua . . . rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et potuerunt ire ad quemlibet dominum et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Has tenet Radulfus pro i mansione. Hanc tenet Rogerus de Radulfo. Inde habet Rogerus i uirgam et iiii carrucas in dominio et uillani ii uirgas et i carrucam. Ibi habet Rogerus x bordarios et ii seruos et xii animalia et xv porcos et c oues et lx capras et xiiii agros nemoris et vi agros prati et iiii quadragenarias pascuæ. Hæc ualet xxx solidos et quando Radulfus recepit v solidos.—Exon. D. (341b) 321.

Radulf has a manor called Gatepada, which five thanes held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and they were able to go to any lord they pleased, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by four ploughs. Radulf holds these for one manor. This Roger holds of Radulf. Of these Roger has in demesne one virgate and three ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates and one plough. There Roger has ten bordars, and two serfs, and twelve head of cattle, and fifteen swine, and a hundred sheep, and sixty goats, and fourteen acres of wood, and six acres of meadow, and four furlongs of pasture. This is worth thirty shillings, and it was worth when Radulf received it five shillings.

Otria.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Otria quam tenuit Semarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Radulfus dimidium uillanum qui habet i carrucam<sup>Otria</sup> * et ualet xxx denarios per annum.

Et hanc mansionem addidit Radulfus ad mansionem quæ Holescomba uocatur.—Exon. D. (342) 321.

* Et hanc mansionem addidit Radulfus ad mansionem quæ uocatur Holescomba. These words, which in the original follow carrucam here, have been struck through with the pen. Evidently an error of the scribe, who had not completed the entry of Otria.

To this manor has been added Oppelaume. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and one ferling. There is land for one plough. It is worth five shillings. The same Alwin holds it of Radulf.

Gatepade.

Rogerus tenet de Radulfo Gatepade. Quinque taini tenebant tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et ii serui et x bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi vi acræ prati et xiiii acræ siluæ et iiii quarentenæ pasturæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

Par in margin for pariter,

Roger holds Gatepade of Radulf. Five thanes held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and two serfs, and ten bordars, with one plough. There are six acres of meadow, and fourteen acres of wood, and four furlongs of pasture. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Otrie.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Otrie. Semar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est cum dimidio uillano. Valet xxx denarios.

Hanc terram addidit Radulfus ad Holescymbe.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

Radulf has a manor called Otria, which Semar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Radulf has half a villein, who has one plough; and it is worth by the year thirty pence.

And Radulf has added this manor to a manor which is called Holescomba.

Dunestanetuna.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Dunestanetuna quam tenuit Eduuinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc . . . potest arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Rogerius de Radulfo. In ea habet Rogerius iii . . . uillanos. Et iiii bordarios et habent dimidiam carrucam et v animalia et iii oues et iii agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum vii solidos et vi denarios et quando recepit xxx denarios.—Exon. D. (342) 324.

Radulf has a manor called Dunestanetuna, which Edwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. Roger holds it of Radulf. On it Roger has three villeins and four bordars, and they have half a plough, and five head of cattle, and three sheep, and three acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year seven shillings and six pence, and it was worth thirty pence when he received it.

Blachestac.

Et cum hac mansione* habet Radulfus i mansionem quæ uocatur Blachestac quam tenuit Eduuinius ea qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. In ea sunt ii uillani et iii bordarii et ii agros prati et ualet per annum iii solidos.—Exon. D. (342) 321.

* i.e. the last mentioned, Dunestanetuna. The words et cum hac mansione habet are written with the preceding entry.

And with this manor Radulf has a manor called Blachestac, which Edwit held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. On it are two villeins, and three bordars, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year three shillings.

The same Radulf holds Otrie. Semar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough, which is there, with half a villein. It is worth thirty pence.

This land Radulf added to Holescumbe.

Dvnestantvne.

Rogerus tenet de Radulfo Dvnestantvne. Eduin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi iii uillani et iiii bordarii habent dimidiam carucam. Ibi iii acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ. Valet vii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

Roger holds Dunestanetune of Radulf. Edwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There three villeins and four bordars have half a plough. There are three acres of meadow and thirty acres of pasture. It is worth seven shillings and six pence.

Blachestach.

Huic manerio est addita Blachestach. Eduin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi sunt ii uillani et iii bordarii et ii acræ prati. Valet iii solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

To this manor is added Blachestach. Edwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There are two villeins, and three bordars, and two acres of meadow. It is worth three shillings.

Otri.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Otri quam tenuit Leuiritius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit pro uirga et dimidia et i fertino. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Modo tenet eam Roselinus de Radulfo. Ibi habet Roselinus i carrucam et i seruum et ualet per annum iii solidos.—Exon. D. (342) 321.

Radulf has a manor called Otri, which Lewrit held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered [geld] for a virgate and a half and one ferling. This can be ploughed by one plough. Now Roselin holds this of Radulf. There Roselin has one plough and one serf; and it is worth by the year three shillings.

Beri.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Beri quam tenuit Alricius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare xxv carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus i hidam et iiii carrucas in dominio et villani i hidam et xvii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus xlv uillanos et xvii bordarios et xvi seruos et viii animalia et xvi porcos et dlx oues et c agros nemoris et x agros prati et xl agro [sic] pascuæ. Hæc ualet xii libras et quando Radulfus recepit xvi libras.—Exon. D. (342) 321.

Radulf has a manor called Beri, which Alric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by twenty-five ploughs. Of these Radulf has in demesne one hide and four ploughs, and the villeins have one hide and seventeen ploughs. There Radulf has forty-five villeins, and seventeen bordars, and sixteen serfs, and eight head of cattle, and sixteen swine, and five hundred and sixty sheep, and a hundred acres of wood, and ten acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture. This is worth twelve pounds, and it was worth sixteen pounds when Radulf received it.

Afetona.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Afetona quam tenuit Ailsi ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus i uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani tantundem et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus vi uillanos et iii bordarios et iii seruos et

Otri.

Radulfus tenet Otri. Leuric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et dimidia et uno ferling. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est cum i seruo. Valet iii solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

Radulf holds Otri. Leuric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and a half and one ferling. There is land for one plough, which is there, with one serf. It is worth three shillings.

Berie.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Berie. Alric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est xxv carucis et xvi serui et xlv uillani et xvii bordarii cum xvii carucis. Ibi x acræ prati et c acræ siluæ et xl acræ pasturæ. Olim xvi libras. Modo ualet xii libras.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

Radulf himself holds Berie. Alric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for twenty-five ploughs, and there are sixteen serfs, and forty-five villeins, and seventeen bordars, with seventeen ploughs. There are ten acres of meadow, and a hundred acres of wood, and forty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth sixteen pounds. Now it is worth twelve pounds.

Afetone.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Afetone. Ailsī tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et vi uillani et iii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi i acra prati et viii acræ pasturæ et x acræ siluæ. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet xxv solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (3); 30a.

i roncinum et x . . . animalia et ix porcos et ccxxxi. ues et x agros nemoris et i agrum prati et viii agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xxv solidos et quando Radulfus recepit xv solidos.—Exon. D. (342b) 322.

Huic mansioni est addita i uirga terræ quam tenuit quædam femina pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et potuit ire ad quemlibet dominum.* Hanc potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Radulfus i uillanum qui habet dimidiam carrucam. Hæc ualet v solidos et quando Radulfus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (342b) 322.

* Et potuit ire ad quemlibet dominum interlined.

Radulf has a manor called Afetona, which Ailsi held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of these Radulf has in demesne one virgate and a half and one plough, and the villeins have just as much and three ploughs. There Radulf has six villeins, and three bordars, and three serfs, and one packhorse, and ten head of cattle, and nine swine, and two hundred and thirty-one sheep, and ten acres of wood, and one acre of meadow, and eight acres of pasture. This is worth twenty-five shillings, and it was worth when Radulf received it fifteen shillings.

To this manor is added one virgate of land, which a certain woman held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and she could go to any lord she pleased. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Radulf has one villein, who has half a plough. This is worth five shillings, and it was worth just as much when Radulf received it.

Otri.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Otri quam tenuit Alricus Presbiter ea die qua rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iiii hidis. Has possunt arare xv carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus i hidam et iiii carrucas in dominio et uillani iiii hidas et viii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus xviii uillanos et iiii bordarios et viii seruos et i molendinum qui reddit per annum xx denarios et i runcinum et vii animalia et viii porcos et lxii ues et xiii capras et lx agros nemoris et xx agros prati et cccc agros pascuæ et ualet per annum v libras et quando recepit Radulfus ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (342b) 323.

Huic manerio est addita una virgata terræ. Quædam femina libere tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi in paragio. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi unus uillanus habet dimidiam carucam. Valet v solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (4) ; 30b.

Radulf himself holds Asetone. Ailsa held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are three serfs, and six villeins, and three bordars, with three ploughs. There is one acre of meadow, and eight acres of pasture, and ten acres of wood. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth twenty-five shillings.

To this manor is added one virgate of land. A certain woman held it freely in the time of king Edward in partage. There is land for one plough. There one villein has half a plough. It is worth five shillings.

• Otri.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Otri. Alric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iiii hidis. Terra est xv carucis. In dominio sunt iiii carucæ et viii serui et xviii uillani et iiii bordarii cum viii carucis. Ibi molinus reddens xx denarios et xx acræ prati et lx acræ siluæ et quingentæ acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet c solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (4) ; 30b.

Radulf has a manor called Otri, which Alric the priest held on the day on which the king was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for four hides. These can be ploughed by fifteen ploughs. Of these Radulf has in demesne one hide and three ploughs, and the villeins have three hides and eight ploughs. There Radulf has eighteen villeins, and four bordars, and eight serfs, and a mill which returns twenty pence a year, and a packhorse, and seven head of cattle, and eight swine, and sixty-two sheep, and thirteen goats, and sixty acres of wood, and twenty acres of meadow, and five hundred acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year five pounds, and it was worth as much when Radulf received it.

Esmarige.

Radulfus habet i quæ uocatur Esmarige quam tenuit Olnodus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Radulfus i uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani iii uirgas et ii carrucas et dimidiam. Ibi habet Radulfus viii uillanos et v bordarios et v seruos et xv animalia et viii porcos et lvii oues et xxxii capras et i molendinum qui reddit per annum v solidos et dimidiam hidam nemoris et xv agros prati et xxxi agros pascuæ. Et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando Radulfus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (343) 322.

Radulf has a [manor] called Esmarige, which Olnod held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of it Radulf has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have three virgates and two ploughs and a half. There Radulf has eight villeins, and five bordars, and five serfs, and fifteen head of cattle, and eight swine, and fifty-seven sheep, and thirty-two goats, and a mill which returns five shillings a year, and half a hide of wood, and fifteen acres of meadow, and thirty-one acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth just as much when Radulf received it.

Wigacrosta.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wigacrosta quam tenuit Wichimus ea die qua rex [sic] fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rogerius de eo. Inde habet Rogerius i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani iii uirgas et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Rogerius iii uillanos et vi bordarios et ii seruos et vii animalia et vii Radulf himself holds Otri. Alric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for four hides. There is land for fifteen ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and eight serfs, and eighteen villeins, and four bordars, with eight ploughs. There is a mill returning twenty pence, and there are twenty acres of meadow, and sixty acres of wood, and five hundred acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth a hundred shillings.

Smarige.

Ipse Radulfus tenet Smarige. Vlnod tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et v serui et viii uillani et v bordarii cum ii carucis et dimidia. Ibi molinus reddens v solidos et xv acræ prati et xxxi acræ pasturæ et dimidia hida siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (4); 30b.

Radulf himself holds Smarige. Ulnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and five serfs, and eight villeins, and five bordars, with two ploughs and a half. There is a mill returning five shillings, and there are fifteen acres of meadow, and thirty-one acres of pasture, and half a hide of wood. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth forty shillings.

Wigegroste.

Rogerus tenet de Radulfo Wigegroste. Wichin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et iii uillani et vi bordarii cum i caruca et dimidia. Ibi ii molini reddentes vii solidos et vi denarios et iii acræ prati et xxv acræ siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (4); 30b.

porcos et xxv capras et ii molendinos qui reddunt per annum vii solidos et dimidium et xxv agros nemoris et iii agros prati et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Radulfus recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (343) 322.

Radulf has a manor called Wigacrosta, which Wichim held on the day on which king [Edward] was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Roger holds this of him. Of this Roger has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have three virgates and one plough and a half. There Roger has three villeins, and six bordars, and two serfs, and seven head of cattle, and seven swine, and twenty-five goats, and two mills which return seven shillings and sixpence a year, and twenty-five acres of wood, and three acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Radulf received it.

Brochelanda.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Brochelanda quam tenuit Ailardus monachus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Gosfredus de Radulfo. Inde habet Gosfredus iii bordarios et iiii agros prati et iiii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xii denarios.—Exon. D. (343) 323.

Radulf has a manor called Brochelanda, which the monk Ailard held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Gosfred holds this of Radulf. Here Gosfred has three bordars, and four acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twelve pence.

Reddix.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Reddix quam tenuerunt duo tanni ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt . . . arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Gosfredus de Radulfo. Ibi habet Gosfredus xv agros nemusculi et ualet per annum iii solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem. Hæc iii mansiones fuerunt date Radulfo in excambiis pro i mansione de una uirga.—Exon. D. (343b) 323.

Radulf has a manor called Reddix, which two thanes held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered

Roger holds Wigegroste of Radulf. Wichin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are two serfs, and three villeins, and six bordars, with one plough and a half. There are two mills returning seven shillings and sixpence, and three acres of meadow, and twenty-five acres of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Brochelande.

Goiffridus tenet de Radulfo Brochelande. Ailardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi sunt iii bordarii et iiii acræ prati et iiii acræ pasturæ. Valet xii denarios.—Exch. D. 114 (4); 30b.

Goiffrid holds Brochelande of Radulf. Ailard held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs. There are three bordars, and four acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture. It is worth twelve pence.

Redic.

Goiffridus tenet de Radulfo Redic. Duo taini tenebant tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi sunt xv acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet iii solidos.

Hæc tria [query duo] maneria data fuerunt Radulfo in excambio pro uno manerio de una virgata.—Exch. D. 114 (4); 30b.

Goiffrid holds Redic of Radulf. Two thanes held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Gosfred holds it of Radulf. There Gosfred has fifteen acres of coppice, and it is worth three shillings a year, and it was worth just as much when he received it. These three manors have been given to Radulf in exchange for a manor of one virgate.

Chenighedona.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Chenighedona quam tenuit Eduui die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rogerius de Radulfo. Ibi habet Rogerius in dominio i carrucam et iiii uillanos et x bordarios et ii seruos et x animalia et x porcos et cvi oues et ii . . . quadragenarias nemoris et ii agros prati et viii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat vii solidos.—Exon. D. (343b) 323.

Radulf has a manor called Chenighedona, which Edwi held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Roger holds this of Radulf. There Roger has in demesne one plough, and four villeins, and ten bordars, and two serfs, and ten head of cattle, and ten swine, and a hundred and six sheep, and two furlongs of wood, and two acres of meadow, and eight acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth seven shillings when he received it.

Pola.

Huic addita quædam mansio quæ uocatur Pola quam tenuit idem Eduui pariter die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rogerius de Radulfo. Et ualet per annum x solidos.—Exon. D. (343b) 323.

To this has been added a certain manor called Pola, which the same Edwin held in partage the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Roger holds it of Radulf, and it is worth by the year ten shillings.

Heuetruua.

Radulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Heuetruua quam tenuit Wichinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Hanc tenet Rogerius de Radulfo. In ea sunt ii carrucatæ terræ et ii carrucæ i dominica est Radulfo land for two ploughs. There are fifteen acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth fifteen shillings.

These three manors have been given to Radulf in exchange for one manor of one virgate.

Chenigedone.

Rogerus tenet de Radulfo Chenigedone. Eduui tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et iiii uillani et x bordarii et ii acrae prati et viii acrae pasturae et ii quarentenae siluae. Olim vii solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (4); 30b.

Roger holds Chenigedone of Radulf. Edwi held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are two serfs, and four villeins, and ten bordars, and two acres of meadow, and eight acres of pasture, and two furlongs of wood. Formerly it was worth seven shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Pole.

Huic manerio addita est Pole. Eduui tenebat libere tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Valet x solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (4); 30b.

To this manor has been added Pole. Edwi held it freely in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. It is worth ten shillings.

Hevetrove.

Rogerus tenet de Radulfo Hevetrove. Wichin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi. Ibi sunt ii carucatae terrae et ibi sunt ii carucae. Ibi est unus uillanus et ii serui. Valet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (4); 30b.

et alia [terra] uillanorum. Ibi est i uillanus et ii serui et ualet per annum xx solidos.—Exon. D. (343b) 323.

Radulf has a manor called Hevetrowa, which Wichin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. Roger holds this of Radulf. In it are two carrucates of land and two ploughs. Radulf has one in demesne, and the other is the land of the villeins. There is one villein and two serfs; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings.

Willecrosta.

Radulfus habet dimidiam uirgam terræ. Hanc potest i carruca arare. Hanc tenet Rogerius de Radulfo. In ea est uillanus et i molendinus et ualet per annum xxx denarios. Hanc tenuit Aluiritius pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Modo addita est mansioni Radulfi quæ uocatur Willecrosta.—Exon. D. (343b) 323.

Radulf has half a virgate of land. This can be ploughed by one plough. Roger holds it of Radulf. In this is a villein and a mill, and it is worth by the year thirty pence. Alurit held it in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. Now it is added to the manor of Radulf called Willecrosta.

Radulfus habet in Essecestra vi domus unde habet consuetudinem regis retentam. Hoc est iii solidi et iiii denarii.—Exon. D. (344) 323.

Radulf has in Exeter six houses, of which he has retained the king's custom. This is three shillings and four pence.

Roger holds Hevetrove of Radulf. Wichin held it in the time of king Edward. There are two carucates of land, and there are two ploughs. There is one villein and two serfs. It is worth twenty shillings.

Willecroste.

Rogierius habet dimidiam virgatam terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi est unus uillanus et molinus reddens xxx denarios. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et addita est ad Willecroste.—Exch. D. 114 (4); 306.

Roger has half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There is one villein and a mill returning twenty pence. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it has been added to Willecroste.

* Par in the margin for pariter.

Excestre.

Ipse Radulfus tenet in Excestre vi domus de quibus retinuit regis consuetudinem. Hoc est iii solidi et iiii denarii.—Exch. D. 114 (4); 306.

Radulf himself holds in Excestre six houses, of which he kept back the king's custom. This is three shillings and four pence.

Terra Rbaldi Adobati in Debenesira.

Lanbretona.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lanbretona quam tenuit Ordulfus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et dimidia. Hanc possunt arare xvii carrucæ. Inde habet Rualdus dimidiam hidam et v carrucas in dominio et villani i hidam et xii carrucas. Ibi habet Rualdus xxxiiii uillanos et xvi seruos et v porcarios et iiii animalia et xx porcos et lxxv oues et ii molendinos qui reddunt per annum ix solidos et vii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et iii in latitudine et xl agros prati et i leugam et dimidiam pascuæ in longitudine et i in latitudine. Hæc ualet xii libras et quando Rualdus recepit ualebat ix libras.—Exon. D. (411) 382.

The Land of Ruald Adobati in Devonshire.

Ruald has a manor called Lanbretona, which Ordulf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and a half. This can be ploughed by seventeen ploughs. Of this Ruald has in demesne half a hide and five ploughs, and the villeins have one hide and twelve ploughs. There Ruald has thirty-four villeins, and sixteen serfs, and five swineherds, and four head of cattle, and twenty swine, and seventy-five sheep, and two mills which return nine shillings a year, and wood seven ferlings in length and three in breadth, and forty acres of meadow, and pasture one leuga and a half in length and one leuga in breadth. This [manor] is worth twelve pounds, and it was worth nine pounds when Ruald received it.

Brige.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Brige quam tenuit Frauinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro uirga et dimidia. Has possunt arare viii carrucæ. De his habet Rualdus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani i uirgam et vi carrucas. Ibi habet Rualdus xiiii uillanos et viii bordarios et iii seruos et v animalia et vi porcos et lxxviii oues et i molendinum et reddit iiii solidos et vii quadragenarias prati in longitudine et ii quadragenarias in latitudine et i leugam pascuæ in longitudine et dimidiam in latitudine et ualet per ## XXXV. Terra Rvaldi Adobed.

Lambretone.

Rvald Adobed tenet de regis Lambretone. Ordulf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida et dimidia. Terra est xvii carucis. In dominio sunt v carucæ et xvi serui et xxxiiii uillani cum xii carucis. Ibi ii molini reddentes ix solidos et xl acræ prati. Pastura i leuca et dimidia longitudine et i leuca latitudine. Silua vii quarentenæ longitudine et iii quarentenæ latitudine. Olim ix libras. Modo ualet xii libras.—Exch. D. 114 (4); 30b.

The Land of Ruald Adobed.

Ruald Adobed holds Lambretone of the king. Ordulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and a half. There is land for seventeen ploughs. In demesne are five ploughs, and sixteen serfs, and thirty-four villeins, with twelve ploughs. There are two mills returning nine shillings, and forty acres of meadow. Pasture one leuga and a half in length and one leuga in breadth. Wood seven furlongs in length and three furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was worth nine pounds. Now it is worth twelve pounds.

Brige.

Ipse Ruald tenet Brige. Frauuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et xiiii uillani et viii bordarii cum vi carucis. Ibi molinus reddens iiii solidos et pratum vii quarentenæ longitudine et ii quarentenæ latitudine. Pastura i leuca longitudine et dimidia leuca latitudine. Olim et modo ualet l solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (4); 30b.

annum l solidos et quando Rualdus accepit ualebat tantundem.
—Exon. D. (411) 383.

Ruald has a manor called Brige, which Frawin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for a virgate and a half. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Of this Ruald has in demesne half a virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and six ploughs. There Ruald has fourteen villeins, and eight bordars, and three serfs, and five head of cattle, and six swine, and sixty-eight sheep, and a mill which returns four shillings, and seven furlongs of meadow in length and two furlongs in breadth, and pasture one leuga in length and a half in breadth; and it is worth by the year fifty shillings, and it was worth just the same when Ruald received it.

Wenforda.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wenforda quam tenuit Edmerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Walterius de Osmundi Uilla de Rualdo. De hac habet Walterus in dominio i ferdinum et i carrucam et uillani i ferdinum et i carrucam. Ibi habet Walterus ii uillanos et ii seruos et xx animalia et viii porcos et xxx oues et x capras et i quadragenariam nemusculi in longitudine et dimidiam in latitudine et l agros prati et ii quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et latitudine et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Rualdus recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (411b) 383.

Ruald has a manor called Wenforda, which Edmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Walter de Osmund Ville holds it of Ruald. Of it Walter has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have one ferling and one plough. There Walter has two villeins, and two serfs, and twenty head of cattle, and eight swine, and thirty sheep, and ten goats, and coppice one furlong in length and a half in breadth, and fifty acres of meadow, and pasture two furlongs in length and breadth; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Ruald received it.

Panestan.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Panestan quam tenuit Leiuergarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare Ruald himself holds Brige. Frawin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and a half. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and three serfs, and fourteen villeins, and eight bordars, with six ploughs. There is a mill returning four shillings, and a meadow seven furlongs in length and two furlongs in breadth. Pasture one leuga in length and half a leuga in breadth. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth fifty shillings.

Wenford.

Walterius tenet de Rualdo Wenford. Edmer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et ii serui et ii uillani et l acræ prati et ii quarentenæ pasturæ. Silua minuta i quarentena longitudine et dimidia quarentena latitudine. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (4); 30b.

Walter holds Wenford of Ruald. Edmer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, and two serfs, and two villeins, and fifty acres of meadow, and two furlongs of pasture. Coppice one furlong in length and half a furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Panestan.

Aluredus tenet de Rualdo Panestan. Leuegar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Aluidus Brito de Rualdo. Inde habet Aluidus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Aluidus v uillanos et ii seruos et iii animalia et i porcum et xii oues et iiii agros nemoris et xii agros prati et iiii quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et i in latitudine. Et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Rualdus accepit ualebat xxx solidos. Hanc mansionem tenet Rualdus de excambio Brochelande et Radix.*—Exon. D. (411b) 383.

* This sentence is written above between the two last lines of the entry.

Ruald has a manor called Panestan, which Leinergar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Aluid Brito holds it of Ruald. Of this Aluid has in demeene half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and two ploughs. There Aluid has five villeins, and two serfs, and three head of cattle, and one swine, and twelve sheep, and four acres of wood, and twelve acres of meadow, and pasture four furlongs in length and one in breadth; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth thirty shillings when Ruald received it.

This manor Ruald holds in exchange for Brochelande and Radix.

Tamerlanda.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Tamerlanda quam tenuit Seduwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Walterus de Osmundi Villa de Radulfo. Inde habet Walterus in dominio i ferdinum et i carrucam et uillani iii ferdinos et i carrucam. Ibi habet Walterus i uillanum et i seruum et v animalia et iiii porcos et xi oues et ix capras et iii agros nemusculi et xii agros prati et ii quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et i in latitudine et ualet per annum x solidos . . . et quando Rualdus recepit ualebat xl solidos.—Exon. D. (411b) 383.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Tamerlanda. Huic addita alia mansio quæ uocatur Pech quæ non pertinebat huic mansioni ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Rualdus eam recepit ualebat x [solidos].—Exon. D. (496) 458.

Ruald has a manor called Tamerlanda, which Sedwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered v uillani cum ii carucis. Ibi xii acræ prati et iiii acræ siluæ. Pastura iiii quarentenis longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim xxx solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.

Hanc terram tenet Rualdus pro excambio Brocheland et Redix.—Exch. D. 114 (4); 30b.

Alured holds Panestan of Ruald. Leuegar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are two serfs, and five villeins, with two ploughs. There are twelve acres of meadow, and four acres of wood. Pasture four furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth thirty shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

This land Ruald holds in exchange for Brocheland and Redix.

Tamerlande.

Walterius tenet de Rualdo Tamerlande. Seduinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et i uillano et i caruca. Ibi xii acræ prati et iii acræ siluæ minutæ. Pastura ii quarentenæ longitudine et i quarentena latitudine. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 114 (4); 30b.

Walter holds Tamerlande of Ruald. Seduin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land.

geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Walter de Osmund Ville holds this of Ruald. Of this Walter has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have three ferlings and one plough. There Walter has one villein, and one serf, and five head of cattle, and four swine, and eleven sheep, and nine goats, and three acres of coppice, and twelve acres of meadow, and pasture two furlongs in length and one in breadth; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when Ruald received it.

Ruald has a manor called Tamerlanda. Another manor called Pech is added to it, which did not belong to this manor on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Ruald received it.*

* This entry occurs under the heading "Terræ Occupatæ in Devenæ Scira."

Pech.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Pech quam tenuit Eduuinus pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc tenet Walterus de Osmundi Villa de Rualdo. Ibi habet Walterus in dominio i ferdinum et ibi habet Walterus uillanos ii et vi agros prati et iiii quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et ii quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Rualdus recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (412) 383.

Ruald has a manor called Pech, which Edwin held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. Walter de Osmund Ville holds this of Ruald. Of it Walter has in demesne one ferling, and two villeins, and six acres of meadow, and pasture four furlongs in length and two furlongs in breadth; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Ruald received it.

Chiempabera.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Chiempabera quam tenuit Aiolfus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rogerus Flandrensis de Rualdo. Ibi habet Rogerus in dominio i ferdinum et uillani i ferdinum et i carrucam et iiii boues. Ibi habet Rualdus iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et ix animalia et ii agros nemusculi et xx agros prati et iiii quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et

There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and one villein, and one plough. There are twelve acres of meadow, and three acres of coppice. Pasture two furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Pech.

Idem Walterus tenet de Rualdo Pech. Eduinus tenebat in paragio* tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia uirgata terræ. . . . Ibi sunt ii uillani et vi acræ prati. Pastura iiii quarentenæ longitudine et ii quarentenæ latitudine. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (1); 31a.

* in paragio interlined.

The same Walter holds Pech of Ruald. Edwin held it in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There are two villeins and six acres of meadow. Pasture four furlongs in length and two furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth five shillings.

Chempebere.

Rogerus tenet de Rualdo Chempebere. Aiulf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et iii uillani et ii bordarii cum i seruo. Ibi xx acræ prati et ii acræ siluæ minutæ. Pastura iii quarentenæ longitudine et ii quarentenæ latitudine. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (1); 31a.

ii quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Rualdus eam recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (411) 384.

Ruald has a manor called Chiempabera, which Aiolf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Roger of Flanders holds this of Ruald. There Roger has in demesne one ferling, and one plough, and three oxen. There Ruald has three villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and nine head of cattle, and two acres of coppice, and twenty acres of meadow, and pasture three furlongs in length and two furlongs in width; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Ruald received it.

Radecliva.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Radecliva quam tenuit Alricus pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i ferlino. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rogerus Flandrensis de Rualdo. Ibi habet Rogerus in dominio dimidium ferlinum et dimidiam carrucam et villani dimidium ferlinum. Ibi habet Rualdus iii bordarios et v animalia et vi porcos et xx oues et i capram et x agros nemoris et xv agros prati et xv agros pascuæ et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Rualdus eam recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (412) 384.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Chiempabera. Huic addita est quædam mansio quæ uocatur Radecliva quam tenuit i tagnus pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Hæc non pertinuit huic predictæ mansioni et ualet per annum v solidos.—Exon. D. (496) 458.

Ruald has a manor called Radecliva, which Alric held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Roger of Flanders holds this of Ruald. There Roger has in demesne half a ferling and half a plough, and the villeins have half a ferling. There Ruald has three bordars, and five head of cattle, and six swine, and twenty sheep, and one goat, and ten acres of wood, and fifteen acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when Ruald received it.

Ruald has a manor called Chiempabera. A certain manor called Radecliva is added to this, which a thane held in partage on the Roger holds Chempebere of Ruald. Aiulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There is one plough, and there are three villeins, and two bordars, with one serf. There are twenty acres of meadow and two acres of coppice, pasture three furlongs in length and two furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Radeclive.

Idem Rogerius tenet de Rualdo Radeclive. Alric in paragio* libere tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est dimidia caruca cum iii bordariis et xv acræ prati et totidem pasturæ et x acræ siluæ. Olim et modo v solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (1); 31a.

* in paragio interlined.

The same Roger holds Radeclive of Ruald. Alric held it freely in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling. There is land for two ploughs. There is half a plough, with three bordars, and there are fifteen acres of meadow, and as much of pasture, and ten acres of wood. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth five shillings.

day on which king Edward was alive and dead. This did not belong to the aforesaid manor; and it is worth by the year five shillings.*

* This entry occurs under the heading "Terræ Occupatæ in Devens Scira."

Potafort.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Potafort quam tenuerunt ii tagni pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida et dimidia uirga. Unus ex his Aluuoldus habuit inde dimidiam hidam et alius Leuinus dimidiam uirgam. Has possunt arare vi carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rainaldus de Rualdo. Ibi habet Rualdus in dominio i uirgam et i ferdinum et ii carrucas et uillani i uirgam et i ferdinum et i carrucam. Ibi habet Rualdus iii uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et xx animalia et xxx oues et xxx agros prati et i quadragenariam pascuæ in longitudine et i quadragenariam in latitudine et ualet xx solidos per annum et quando Rualdus eam recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (412) 384.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Potaforda. Huic addita est dimidia uirga terræ quam tenuit i tagnus pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Hæc non pertinuit huic prædictæ mansioni. Hanc tenet Rainaldus de Rualdo et ualet x solidos per annum et quando eam accepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (496b) 459.

Ruald has a manor called Potafort, which two thanes held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide and half a virgate. Of this Alwold, one of these, had half a hide, and Lewin, the other, half a virgate. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Rainald holds this of Ruald. There Ruald has in demesne one virgate, and one ferling, and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate, and one ferling, and one plough. There Ruald has three villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and twenty head of cattle, and thirty sheep, and thirty acres of meadow, and pasture one furlong in length and one furlong in breadth; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Ruald received it.

Ruald has a manor called Potaforda. A half virgate of land is added to this, which athane held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. This did not belong to Poteford.

Rainaldus tenet de Rualdo Poteford. Duo taini tenebant in paragio* tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii virgatis terræ et dimidia. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et iii uillani et iii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi xxx acræ prati. Pastura i quarentena longitudine et tantundem latitudine. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (1); 31a.

* in paragio interlined.

Rainald holds Poteford of Ruald. Two thanes held it in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two virgates of land and a half. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and three villeins, and three bordars, with one plough. There are thirty acres of meadow, and pasture one furlong in length and as much in breadth. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

the aforesaid manor. Rainald holds this of Ruald; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when he received it.*

* This entry occurs under the heading "Terræ Occupatæ in Devanæ Sciræ."

Wera.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wera quam tenuit Ordolfus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare vii carrucæ. Inde habet Rualdus in dominio i uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani ii uirgas et v carrucas et dimidiam. Ibi habet Rualdus xvi uillanos et ix seruos et iii animalia et iii porcos et lx oues et dimidiam piscaturam quæ ualet per annum xl denarios et xv agros nemoris et x agros prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xl solidos et tandundem ualebat quando Rualdus eam recepit.

De eadem mansione habet Comes de Moritonio dimidiam uirgam quam tenet Erchenbaldus de eo. Hanc potest arare i caruca. Ibi habet Erchenbaldus ii seruos et v animalia et viii oues et ualet per annum v solidos et tantundem ualebat quando Rualdus eam accepit.—Exon. D. (412) 387.

De mansione Rualdi quæ uocatur Wera habet Comes de Moritonio dimidiam uirgam quam tenet Erchenboldus de eo et ualet per annum v solidos.—Exon. D. (505b) 469.

Ruald has a manor called Wera, which Ordolf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by seven ploughs. There Ruald has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates and five ploughs and a half. There Ruald has sixteen villeins, and nine serfs, and three head of cattle, and three swine, and sixty sheep, and half a fishery, which is worth forty pence by the year, and fifteen acres of wood, and ten acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth as much when Ruald received it.

The Earl of Moretain has half a virgate of the same manor, which Erchenbald holds of him. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Erchenbald has two serfs, and five head of cattle, and eight sheep; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when Ruald received it.*

* This entry occurs under the heading "Terræ Occupatæ in Devanæ Sciræ."

Of Ruald's manor called Wera, the Earl of Moretain has half a virgate, which Erchenbald holds of him; and it is worth by the year five shillings.

Were.

Ipse Rualdus tenet Were. Ordulf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est vii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ix serui et xvi uillani cum v carucis et dimidia. Ibi dimidia piscaria reddens xl denarios et x acræ prati et xv acræ siluæ et xx acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xl solidos.

De eodem manerio tenet Comes Moritoniensis dimidiam virgatam terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi sunt ii serui. Valet v solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (1); 31a.

Ruald himself holds Were. Ordulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for seven ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and nine serfs, and sixteen villeins, with five ploughs and a half. There is a moiety of a fishery rendering forty pence, and there are ten acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of wood, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth forty shillings.

Of the same manor the Earl of Moretain holds half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There are two serfs. It is worth five shillings.

Hochesila.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hochesila quam tenuit Aluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Ibi habet Rualdus iii uillanos et habent i carrucam et iii agros nemusculi et i agrum prati et iiii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Rualdus accepit ualebat xxx denarios.—Exon. D. (412b) 384.

Ruald has a manor called Hochesila, which Alwardus held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. There Ruald has three villeins, and they have one plough, and three acres of coppice, and one acre of meadow, and four acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth thirty pence when Ruald received it.

Holnham.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Holnham quam tenuit Edmarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i ferdino. Hoc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hoc tenet Gislebertus de Rualdo. Inde habet Gislebertus in dominio dimidium ferdinum et i carrucam et uillani dimidium ferdinum et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Gislebertus iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et vi animalia et xi porcos et l oues et ii agros nemusculi et ii agros prati et iiii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Rualdus eam recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (413) 384.

Ruald has a manor called Holnham, which Edmar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Gislebert holds this of Ruald. Of this Gislebert has in demesne half a ferling and one plough, and the villeins have half a ferling and half a plough. There Gislebert has four villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and six head of cattle, and eleven swine, and fifty sheep, and two acres of coppice, and two acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Ruald received it.

Mirlanda.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Mirlanda quam tenuit Elricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et

Hochesile.

Ipsē Rualdus tenet Hochesile. Eluardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi iii uillani habent i carucam. Ibi i acra prati et iiii acræ pasturæ et iii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim xxx denarios. Modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (1); 31a.

Ruald himself holds Hochesile. Elward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There are three villeins, having one plough. There is one acre of meadow, and four acres of pasture, and three acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth thirty pence. Now it is worth five shillings.

Holnham.

Gislebertus tenet de Rualdo Holnham. Edmar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia et iiii uillani et ii bordarii cum i seruo et ii acræ prati et iiii acræ pasturæ et ii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (1); 31a.

Gislebert holds Holnham of Ruald. Edmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling. There is land for three ploughs. There is one plough and a half, and there are four villeins, and two bordars, with one serf, and two acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture, and two acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Mirland.

Rainaldus tenet de Rualdo Mirland. Elric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ.

mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare ix carrucæ. Has tenet Rainaldus de Rualdo. Inde habet Rainaldus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani ii uirgas et v carrucas. Ibi habet Rainaldus vii uillanos et iiii seruos et vii animalia et xl oues et vi agros nemusculi et x agros prati et ii quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et i in latitudine et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando Rualdus eam recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (413) 388.

Ruald has a manor called Mirlanda, which Elric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. This can be ploughed by nine ploughs. Rainold holds these of Ruald. There Rainald has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have two virgates and five ploughs. There Rainald has seven villeins, and four serfs, and seven head of cattle, and forty sheep, and six acres of coppice, and ten acres of meadow, and pasture two furlongs in length and one in breadth; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when Ruald received it.

Tucabera.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Tucabera quam tenuit Ailsius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Rualdus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Rualdus v uillanos et iii seruos et vi animalia et iiii porcos et l oues et xx capras et iiii agros nemoris et v agros prati et vi agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Rualdus eam recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (413) 385.

Ruald has a manor called Tucabera, which Ailsi held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of it Ruald has in demesne half a virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Ruald has five villeins, and three [sic] serfs, and six head of cattle, and four swine, and fifty sheep, and twenty goats, and four acres of wood, and five acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Ruald received it.

Winescota.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Winescota quam tenuit Alferus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare

Terra est ix carucæ. Ibi sunt vi carucæ et iiii serui et vii uillani et x acræ prati et vi acræ siluæ minutæ. Pastura ii quarentenæ longitudine et i quarentena latitudine. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (1); 31a.

Rainald holds Mirland of Ruald. Elric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for nine ploughs. There are six ploughs, and four serfs, and seven villeins, and ten acres of meadow, and six acres of coppice, and pasture two furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Tvchebere.

Ipse Rualdus tenet Tvchebere. Alsi tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt et v uillani et iiii serui et v acræ prati et vi acræ pasturæ et iiii acræ siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (1); 31a.

Ruald himself holds Tucheber. Alsi held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, and five villeins, and four [sic] serfs, and five acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture, and four acres of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Winescote.

Ipse Rualdus tenet Winescote. Alfer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ cum i seruo et v uillanis.

iii carrucæ. Inde habet Rualdus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Rualdus v uillanos et i seruum et lxxx oues et iiii agros nemoris et iiii agros prati et iiii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Rualdus eam recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (413) 385.

Ruald has a manor called Winescota, which Alfer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of it Ruald has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Ruald has five villeins, and one serf, and eighty sheep, and four acres of wood, and four acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Ruald received it.

Wiulesuilla.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wiulesuilla quam tenuit Aluinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Rualdus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et ibi habet Rualdus iii uillanos et vi animalia et ii agros nemusculi et iiii agros prati et vi agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando eam recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (413) 385.

Ruald has a manor called Wiuleswilla, which Aluvin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of it Ruald has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Ruald has three villeins, and six head of cattle, and two acres of coppice, and four acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when he received it.

Louecota.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Louecota quam tenuit Louus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Ibi habet Rualdus in dominio i ferdinum et uillani i ferdinum et ibi habet Rualdus ii uillanos et iiii agros prati et xii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum iiii solidos et ii denarios et quando recepit ualebat xxx denarios.—Exon. D. (413) 385.

Ibi iiii acræ prati et totidem pasturæ et totidem siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (1); 31a.

Ruald himself holds Winescote. Alfer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, with one serf, and five villeins. There are four acres of meadow, and as many of pasture, and as many of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Wifteswille.

Ipse Rualdus tenet Wifteswille. Aluuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum iii uillanis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et vi acræ pasturæ et ii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (1); 31a.

Ruald himself holds Wifteswille. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with three villeins. There are four acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture, and two acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Lobecote.

Ipse Rualdus tenet Lovecote. Lofe tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi sunt ii uillani et iiii acræ prati et xii acræ pasturæ. Olim xxx denarios. Modo ualet l denarios.—Exch. D. 115 (1); 31a.

Ruald has a manor called Louecota, which Louus held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of it Ruald has in demesne one ferling, and the villeins have one ferling. There Ruald has two villeins, and four acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year four shillings and twopence, and it was worth thirty pence when he received it.

Tuicabera.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Tuicabera quam tenuit Aluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Rualdus in dominio i ferdinum et uillani i ferdinum. Ibi habet Rualdus iii uillanos et i seruum et vi agros nemoris et ii agros prati et v agros pascuæ et ualet per annum iiii solidos et quando recepit ualebat xxx denarios.—Exon. D. (413) 385.

Ruald has a manor called Tuicabera, which Aluuard held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of this Ruald has in demesne one ferling, and the villeins have one ferling. There Ruald has three villeins, and one serf, and six acres of wood, and two acres of meadow, and five acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year four shillings, and it was worth thirty pence when he received it.

Hanecheforda.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur usque huc scripsit Rualdus Hanecheforda quam tenuit Edmerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i ferdino. Hanc possunt arare i carruca. Hanc tenet Rainaldus de Rualdo. Ibi habet Rainaldus i uillanum et i bordarium qui habent i carrucam et iiii agros prati et vi agros pascuæ et ualet per annum iii solidos et iiii denarios et tantundem ualebat quando Rualdus eam recepit.—Exon. D. (414) 386.

Ruald has a manor called, writes Ruald, Hanecheforda, which Edmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling. This can be ploughed by one plough. Rainald holds this of Ruald. There Rainald has one villein, and one bordar, who have one plough, and four acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year three shillings and fourpence, and it was worth as much when Ruald received it.

Ruald himself holds Lovecote. Lofe held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There are two villeins, and four acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth thirty pence. Now it is worth fifty pence.

Tuichebere.

Ipse Rualdus tenet Tuichebere. Aluuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi sunt iii uillani cum i seruo et ii acris prati et v acris pasturæ et vi acris siluæ. Olim xxx denarios. Modo ualet iiii solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (1); 31a.

Ruald himself holds Tuichebere. Aluuard held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There are three villeins, with one serf, and two acres of meadow, and five acres of pasture, and six acres of wood. Formerly it was worth thirty pence. Now it is worth four shillings.

Hancheford.

Rainaldus tenet de Rualdo Hancheford. Edmer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i ferling. Terra est i carucæ. Hanc habet ibi i uillanus cum i bordario. Ibi iiii acræ prati et vi acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xl denarios.—Exch. D. 114 (1); 31a.

Rainald holds Hancheford of Ruald. Edmer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling. There is land for one plough. One villein has it there, with one bordar. There are four acres of meadow and six acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth forty pence.

Loba.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Loba quam tenuit Vlfus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rainaldus de Rualdo. Inde habet Rainaldus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam. Ibi habet Rainaldus iiii [sic] uillanos et ii bordarios et i salinam et ii seruos et iiii animalia et xxviii oues et vii agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xx solidos et quando Rualdus recepit ualebat xxx solidos.—Exon. D. (414) 386.

Ruald has a manor called Loba, which Ulf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Rainald holds this of Ruald. Of it Rainald has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate. There Rainald has three villeins, and two bordars, and one salt work, and two serfs, and three head of cattle, and twenty-eight sheep, and seven acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth thirty shillings when Ruald received it.

Crochewella.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Crochewella quam tenuit Vlfus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rainaldus de Rualdo. Inde habet Rainaldus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Rainaldus ii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et viii animalia et lvi oues et iiii capras et iiii agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xv solidos et quando Rualdus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (414) 386.

Ruald has a manor called Crochewella, which Ulf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Rainald holds this of Ruald. Of it Rainald has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Rainald has two villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and eight head of cattle, and fifty-six sheep, and four goats, and four acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when Ruald received it.

Lobe.

Rainaldus tenet de Rualdo Lobe. Vlf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et iiii [sic] uillani et ii bordarii et ii serui et vii acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ. Olim xxx solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (2); 31*b*.

Rainald holds Lobe of Ruald. Ulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. There is one plough, and there are four villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, and seven acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth thirty shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Crochewelle.

Idem Rainaldus tenet de Rualdo Crochewelle. Vlf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ cum i seruo et ii uillani et ii bordarii et iiii acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (2); 31*b*.

Rainald himself holds Crochewelle of Ruald. Ulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. There are two ploughs, with one serf, and there are four villeins, and two bordars, and four acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifteen shillings.

Polham.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Polham quam tenuerunt duo tagni pariter ea die qua rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro [una] uirga et dimidia. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Modo tenet Raginaldus de Rualdo. Inde habet Raginaldus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio. Ibi habet Raginaldus i uillanum et ii bordarios et ii animalia et xxvii oues et vi agros nemoris et v agros prati et ualet per annum xiii solidos. Illa quæ poterat ire ad quemlibet dominum uocatur Planteleia et est in ea dimidia uirga et ualet per annum iiii solidos.—Exon. D. (414b) 386.

Among the Terræ Occupatæ, 499b, 462, the following occurs:

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Polham. Hæc uocatur Plateleia. Huic addita est dimidia uirga terra unius tagni qui eam tenuit pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Hanc tenet Rainaldus de Rualdo et ualet per annum iiii solidos.

Ruald has a manor called Polham, which two thanes held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and a half. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Now Reginald holds it of Ruald. Of it Reginald has in demesne half a virgate and one plough. There Reginald has one villein, and two bordars, and two head of cattle, and twenty-seven sheep, and six acres of wood, and five acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year thirteen shillings. That [part] which could go to any lord soever is called Planteleia, and there is half a virgate in it; and it is worth by the year three shillings.

Ruald has a manor called Polham. To this is added half a virgate, the land of one thane, who held it in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. This is called Plateleia. Rainald holds this of Ruald; and it is worth by the year three shillings.

Sigeforda.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Sigeforda quam tenuit Bristritius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare [una] carruca et dimidia. Modo tenet hanc Salamon de Ruualdo. In ea habet Salomon iiii boues et v oues et x

Polham.

Idem Rainaldus tenet de Rualdo Polham. Duo taini libere tenebant in paragio tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i uirgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i uillano et ii bordarii et vi acræ siluæ et v acræ prati. Ualet xiii solidos.

Illa quæ poterat ire ad quemlibet dominum uocatur Plantelie et est in ea dimidia uirgata terræ et ualet iii solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (2); 31b.

Rainald himself holds Polham of Ruald. Two thanes held it in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and a half. There is land for three ploughs. There is one plough, with one villein, and there are two bordars, and six acres of wood, and five acres of meadow. It is worth thirteen shillings.

That [part] which could go to any lord is called Plantelie, and in it there is half a virgate of land, and it is worth three shillings.

Sideford.

Salomon tenet de Rualdo Sideford. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i uirgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ et dimidiæ. Ibi est dimidia caruca et viii acræ pasturæ et vi acræ siluæ. Olim iii solidos. Modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (2); 31b.

capras et i uaccam et vi agros nemoris et viii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Rualdus accepit ualebat iii solidos!—Exon. D. (414b) 386.

Ruald has a manor called Sigeforda, which Bristric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough and a half. Now Salomon holds it of Ruald. In it Salomon has four oxen, and five sheep, and ten goats, and one cow, and six acres of wood, and eight acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth three shillings when Ruald received it.

Pochehilla.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Pochehilla quam tenuit Edmarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et i ferlino. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. In ea sunt carrucæ et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Rualdus recepit ualebat iii solidos.—Exon. D. (414b) 386.

Ruald has a manor called Pochehilla, which Edmar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and one ferling. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. There are . . . ploughs in it; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth three shillings when Ruald received it.

Dochorda.

Rualdus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Dochorda quam tenuit Alfleta ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Walterius de eo. Ibi habet Walterius i ferlinum et i . . .—Exon. D. (386) 414.

Ruald has a manor called Dochorda, which Alflet held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Walter holds this of him. Walter has one ferling there and one . . .

Salomon holds Sideford of Ruald. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough and a half. There is half a plough, and there are eight acres of pasture and six acres of wood. Formerly it was worth three shillings. Now it is worth five shillings.

Pochehille.

Iipse Rualdus tenet Pochehille. Edmar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata et uno ferling. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt. Olim iii solidos. Modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (2); 31*b*.

Ruald himself holds Pochehille. Edmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate and one ferling. There is land for two ploughs, which are there. Formerly it was worth three shillings. Now it is worth five shillings.

Docheorde.

Walterus tenet Docheorde. Alflet tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et ii bordariis. Ibi iii acræ prati et iiii acræ siluæ et una quarentena pasturæ longitudine et dimidia latitudine. Olim iii solidos. Modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (2); 31*b*.

Walter holds Docheorde. Alflet held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one serf, and two bordars. There are three acres of meadow, and four acres of wood, and pasture one furlong in length and a half in width. Formerly it was worth three shillings. Now it is worth five shillings.

[There is a loss here. The particulars of the five other manors belonging to Rualds Adobed are wanting. We have them in the Exchequer Book, and they are Avetone, Alselmestone, Hainemardown, Wicerce, and Macheswelle. He had also a house in Exeter. See page 886.]

Avetone.

Ipse Rualdus tenet Avetone. Sauuin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et viii serui et xvi uillani et xvii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi xx acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ et xliiii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet iii libras.—Exch. D. 115 (2); 31b.

Ruald himself holds Avetone. Sauuin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and eight serfs, and sixteen villeins, and seventeen bordars, with four ploughs. There are twenty acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture, and forty acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth three pounds.

Alfelmestone.

Rainaldus tenet de Rualdo Alfelmestone. Offerd tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia et v uillani et iii bordarii et una salina et iiii acræ prati et xx acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (2); 31b.

Rainald holds Alfelmestone of Ruald. Offerd held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. There is one plough and a half, and there are five villeins, and three bordars, and one salt work, and four acres of meadow, and twenty acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Hainemaroun.

Walterus tenet de Rualdo Hainemaroun. Godo tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi ii uillani et v bordarii habent dimidiam carucam. Ibi lx acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (2); 31b.

Walter holds Hainemaroun of Ruald. Godo held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs. There are two villeins and two bordars, having half a plough. There are sixty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Wicerce.

Ipse Rualdus tenet Wicerce. Sauuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et viii serui et xx uillani et xv bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi xx acræ prati. Pastura i leuca longitudine et iiii quarentenæ latitudine. Silua ii leucas longitudine et iiii quarentenæ latitudine. Olim xxx solidos. Modo ualet lxx solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (2); 31b.

Rualdus himself holds Wicerce. Sawin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and eight serfs, and twenty villeins, and fifteen bordars, with five ploughs. There are twenty acres of meadow, pasture one leuca in length and four furlongs in breadth. Wood two leucas in length and four furlongs in breadth. Formerly it was worth thirty shillings. Now it is worth seventy shillings.

Macheswelle.

Rainaldus tenet de Rualdo Macheswelle. Sauuin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi est dimidia caruca cum i bordario et i seruo. Olim ii solidos. Modo ualet iii solidos.

Ipse Rualdus habet in Execestre i domum quæ reddit consuetudinem regis.—Exch. D. 115 (2); 31b.

Rainald holds Macheswelle of Ruald. Sawin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling. There is land for one plough. There is half a plough, with one bordar, and one serf. Formerly it was worth two shillings. Now it is worth three shillings.

Ruald himself has one house in Exeter, which renders the king's custom.

Terra Tetbaldi Filii Bernerii in Debenesira.

Herlescoma.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Herlescoma quam tenuerunt pariter duo tagni ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et poterant ire cum terra sua ad quemlibet dominum et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ. Inde habet Tetbaldus i fertinum et i carrucam in dominio et uillani iii ferlinos et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Tetbaldus liii uillanos et v bordarios et ii seruos et xii agros nemoris et v agros prati et lx agros pascuæ et ualet xx solidos et quando ipse recepit ualebat c solidos.—Exon. D. (407) 378.

The Land of Tetbald, the son of Berners, in Devonshire.

Tetbald has a manor called Herlescoma, which two thanes held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and they could go with their land to any lord, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Of it Tetbald has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have three ferlings and three ploughs. Tetbald has fifty-three [sic] villeins there, and five bordars, and two serfs, and twelve acres of wood, and five acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth one hundred shillings when he received it.

Bochiyuuis.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bochiyuuis quam tenuerunt tres tagni pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et poterant ire cum sua terra ad quemlibet dominum et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Inde habet Tetbaldus in dominio dimidiam uirgam. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Ibi habet Tetbaldus iiii uillanos et xx agros nemusculi et v agros prati et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xii solidos et vi denarios quando Tetbaldus recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (407) 379.

Tetbald has a manor called Bochiyuuis, which three thanes held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and they could go with their land to any lord, and it

XXXVII. Terra Tetbaldi filii Bernerii.

Herlescome.

Tetbaldus filius Bernerii tenet de rege Herlescome. Duo taini tenebant in paragio tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata terræ. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et viii uillani et v bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi v acræ prati et lx acræ pasturæ et xii acræ siluæ. Olim c solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (2); 31*b*.

XXXVII. The Land of Tetbald, son of Berners.

Tetbald, the son of Berners, holds Herlescome of the king. Two thanes held it in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, and there are two serfs, and eight [six] villeins, and five bordars, with three ploughs. There are five acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture, and twelve acres of wood. Formerly it was worth a hundred shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Bocheuuis.

Ipsa Tetbaldus tenet Bocheuuis. Tres taini tenebant in paragio tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi sunt iiii uillani et v acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ et xx acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet xii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 115 (2); 31*b*.

Tetbald himself holds Bocheuwis. Three thanes held it in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. There are four villeins, rendered geld for half a hide. Of it Tetbald has in demesne half a virgate. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. There Tetbald has four villeins, and twenty acres of coppice, and five acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twelve shillings and sixpence, and it was worth five shillings when Tetbald received it.

Hola.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hola quam tenuit Sauuinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro v uirgis. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Modo tenet hanc Gosbertus de Tetbaldo. Inde habet Gausbertus [sic] hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Gosbertus vii bordarios et i seruum et v animalia et xxvii oues et x capras et v agros prati et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxv solidos et quando Tetbaldus recepit ualebat x.—Exon. D. (407) 379.

Tetbald has a manor called Hola, which Sawin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for five virgates. These can be ploughed by four ploughs. Now Gosbert holds this of Tetbald. Of these Gausbert has in demesne [one] hide and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and half a plough. There Gosbert has seven bordars, and one serf, and five head of cattle, and twenty-seven sheep, and ten goats, and five acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty-five shillings, and it was worth ten when Tetbald received it.

Meleforda.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Meleforda quam tenuit Sauuinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Gausbertus de Tetbaldo. Inde habet Gausbertus i uirgam in dominio et i carrucam et dimidiam et uillani habent aliam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Gausbertus v uillanos et ii seruos et v porcos et xxxvii oues et v capras et ii agros prati et x pascue et ualet xxv solidos et quando Tetbaldus eam recepit ualebat xv.—Exon. D. (407) 379.

Tetbald has a manor called Meleforda, which Sawin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Gausbert holds this of Tetbald. Of it Gausbert has in demesne and five acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture, and twenty acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth twelve shillings and sixpence.

Hola.

Goisbertus tenet de Tetbaldo Hola. Sauuin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro v uirgatis terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia cum i seruo et vii bordarii et v acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xxv solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (2); 31b.

Goisbert holds Hola of Tetbald. Sawin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for five virgates of land. There is land for four ploughs. There is one plough and a half, with one serf, and there are seven bordars, and five acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty-five shillings.

Meleforde.

Idem Goisbertus tenet de Tetbaldo Meleforde. Sauuin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et dimidia et ii serui et v uillani et ii acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet xxv solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (2); 31b.

The same Goisbert holds Melforde of Tetbald. Sawin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs and a half, and two serfs, and five villeins, and two acres of meadow, one virgate and one plough and a half, and the villeins have another virgate and one plough. There Gausbert has five villeins, and two serfs, and five swine, and twenty-seven sheep, and five goats, and two acres of meadow, and ten of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty-five shillings, and it was worth fifteen when Tetbald received it.

Speccota.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Speccota quam tenuit Ailaf ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Gausbertus de Tetbaldo. Ibi habet Gausbertus i uillanum et xv agros prati et xl agros pascuæ et ualet per annum vii solidos et vi denarios et quando Tetbaldus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (407b) 379.

Tetbald has a manor called Speccota, which Ailaf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Now Gausbert holds it of Tetbald. There Gausbert has one villein, and fifteen acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year seven shillings and sixpence, and it was worth as much when Tetbald received it.

Merlanda.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Merlanda quam tenuit Leuegarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et ferlino i. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Gausbertus de Tetbaldo. Inde habet Gausbertus iii ferlinos et i carrucam in dominio. Ibi habet Gausbertus iii uillanos et i seruum et iii quadragenarias nemusculi in longitudine et i latitudine et x agros prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Tetbaldus recepit v solidos.—Exon. D. (407b) 379.

Tetbald has a manor called Merlanda, which Leuegar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and one ferling. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Now Gausbert holds it of Tetbald. Of it Gausbert has in demesne three ferlings and one plough. There Gausbert has three villeins, and one serf, and three furlongs of coppice in length, and one in width, and ten acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Tetbald received it.

and ten acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth twenty-five shillings.

Spececote.

Idem Goislebertus tenet de Tetbaldo Spececote. Eilaf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est i uillanus et xv acræ prati et xl acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet vii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 115 (2); 31*b*.

The same Goislebert holds Spececote of Tetbald. Eilaf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There is one villein, and there are fifteen acres of meadow and forty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth seven shillings and sixpence.

Merland.

Idem Goisbertus tenet de Tetbaldo Merland. Leuegar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata terræ et uno ferling. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt iii uillani cum i seruo et x acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ. Silua minuta iii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (3); 32*a*.

The same Goisbert holds Merland of Tetbald. Leuegar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and one ferling. There is land for three ploughs. There are three villeins, with one serf, and ten acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. Coppice three furlongs in length and one furlong in width. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Ulacumba.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ulacumba quam tenuit Aluenia ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Goselmus de Tetbaldo. Inde habet Goselmus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani aliam uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Goselmus ii uillanos et i bordarium et quinque animalia et xx oues et xx agros nemusculi et i agram prati et lx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Tetbaldus recepit ualebat xxv solidos.—Exon. D. (407b) 379.

Tetbald has a manor called Ulacumba, which Aluevia held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Goselm now holds it of Tetbald. Of it Goselm has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have another virgate and two ploughs. There Goselm has two villeins, and one bordar, and five head of cattle, and twenty sheep, and twenty acres of coppice, and one acre of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth twenty-five shillings when Tetbald received it.

Picaltona.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Picaltona quam tenuit Godeuwinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Modo tenet hanc Bernardus de Tetbaldo. Ibi habet Bernardus i carrucam et i seruum et i animal et dimidium agrum nemoris et iii agros prati et ualet per annum vii solidos et vi denarios et quando Tetbaldus recepit ualebat xx denarios.—Exon. D. (407b) 379.

Tetbald has a manor called Picaltona, which Godwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Bernard now holds this of Tetbald. There Bernard has one plough, and one serf, and one head of cattle, and half an acre of wood, and three acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year seven shillings and sixpence, and it was worth twenty pence when Tetbald received it.

Holcomma.

Tetbaldus habet i uirgam terræ quæ uocatur Holcomma quam tenuit Aimarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et

Olecumbe.

Goscelinus tenet de Tetbaldo Olecumbe. Alueua tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi sunt iii carucæ cum i bordario et ii uillanis. Ibi i acra prati et lx acræ pasturæ et xx acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim xxv solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (3); 32a.

Goscelin holds Olecumbe of Tetbald. Alueua held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. There are three ploughs, with one bordar, and two villeins. There is one acre of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture, and twenty acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth twenty-five shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Picaltone.

Bernardus tenet de Tetbaldo Picaltone. Goduuin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et iii acræ prati et dimidia acra siluæ. Olim xx denarios. Modo ualet vii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 115 (3); 32a.

Bernard holds Picaltone of Tetbald. Godwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. There is one plough, with one serf, and there are three acres of meadow, and half an acre of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty pence. Now it is worth seven shillings and sixpence.

Holecome.

Ipsè Tetbaldus tenet Holecome. Aymar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata terræ. Terra est i mortuus. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Tetbaldus iii salinarios qui reddunt per annum iiii solidos et ix denarios et v summas salis et i summam piscis.—Exon. D. (408) 380.

Tetbald has one virgate of land called Holcomma, which Aimar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. This can be ploughed by one plough. Tetbald has three salt-makers there, who render four shillings and ninepence by the year, and five seams of salt, and one seam of fish.

Santona.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Santona quam tenuit Doda ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare x carrucæ. Inde habet Tetbaldus in dominio i hidam et i carrucam et uillani i hidam et vi carrucas. Ibi habet Tetbaldus xii uillanos et x bordarios et ii seruos et xx oues et i salinam quæ reddit xxx denarios et xvi agros prati et lx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum iii libras et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (408) 380.

Tetbald has a manor called Santona, which Doda held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Of these Tetbald has in demesne one hide and one ploughs, and the villeins have one hide and six ploughs. There Tetbald has twelve villeins, and ten bordars, and two serfs, and twenty sheep, and one salt work, which renders thirty pence, and sixteen acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year three pounds, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Hola.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hola quam tenuit Etmarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga terræ. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Tetbaldus ii uillanos qui habent i carrucam et reddunt v solidos per annum.—Exon. D. (408) 380.

Tetbald has a manor called Hola, which Etmar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate of land. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. There Tetbald has two villeins, who have one plough, and they render five shillings by the year.

carucæ. Ibi sunt iii salinarii reddentes iiii solidos et ix denarios et quinque summas salis et i summam piscium.—Exch. D. 115 (3); 32a.

Tetbald himself holds Holecome. Aimar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There are three salt-makers returning four shillings and ninepence, and five seams of salt, and one seam of fish.

Santone.

Ipse Tetbaldus tenet Santone. Dode tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est x carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et xii uillani et x bordarii cum vi carucis. Ibi salina reddens xxx denarios et xvi acræ prati et lx acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet lx solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (3); 32a.

Tetbald himself holds Santone. Dodo held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, and there are two serfs, and twelve villeins, and ten bordars, with six ploughs. There is one salt-work rendering thirty pence, and there are sixteen acres of meadow and sixty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth sixty shillings.

Hole.

Ipse Tetbaldus tenet Hole. Edmar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia uirgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi duo uillani habent i carucam et reddunt v solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (3); 32a.

Tetbald himself holds Hole. Edmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There are two villeins, having one plough, and they render five shillings.

Hama.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hama quam tenuit Etmarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis terræ. Has possunt arrare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Tetbaldus in dominio i uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Tetbaldus v uillanos et ii seruos et i agrum prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (408) 380.

Tetbald has a manor called Hama, which Etmar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates of land. These can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of these Tetbald has in demesne one virgate and a half and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and a half and two ploughs. There Tetbald has five villeins, and two serfs, and one acre of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Esprecoma.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Esprecoma quam tenuit Fitellus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Tetbaldus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Tetbaldus ii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et vii agros nemusculi et i agrum prati et xl agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat iii libras.—Exon. D. (408) 380.

Tetbald has a manor called Esprecoma, which Fitell held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of it Tetbald has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough and a half. There Tetbald has two villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and seven acres of coppice, and one acre of meadow, and forty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth three pounds when he received it.

Asaberga.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Asaberga quam tenuit Wadellus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare

Hame.

Ipse Tetbaldus tenet Hame. Edmar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii uirgatis terræ. Terra est vi carucis. Ibi sunt iii carucæ et v uillani et ii serui. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (3); 32a.

Tetbald himself holds Hame. Edmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for six ploughs. There are three ploughs, and five villeins, and two serfs. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Sprecome.

Ipse Tetbaldus tenet Sprecome. Vitalis tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et dimidia cum i seruo et ii uillani et ii bordarii et i acra prati et xl acræ pasturæ et vii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim lx solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (3); 32a.

Tetbald himself holds Sprecome. Vitalis held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs and a half, with one serf, and there are two villeins, and two bordars, and one acre of meadow, and forty acres of pasture, and seven acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth sixty shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Aseberge.

Ipse Tetbaldus tenet Aseberge. Wadel tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et i uillano et ii iii carrucæ. Inde habet Tetbaldus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Tetbaldus i uillanum et ii bordarios et i seruum et ii agros nemusculi et i agrum prati et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat xv solidos.—Exon. D. (408) 380.

Tetbald has a manor called Asaberga, which Wadel held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of it Tetbald has in demesne half a virgate, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Tetbald has one villein, and two bordars, and one serf, and two acres of coppice, and one acre of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth fifteen shillings when he received it.

Wellecoma.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wellecoma quam tenuit Brisidus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ et Goscelinus tenet eam de Tetbaldo. Inde habet Goscelinus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Goscelinus i uillanum et v animalia et v porcos et xxx oues et i agrum prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit x solidos.—Exon. D. (408b) 380.

Tetbald has a manor called Wellecoma, which Brisid held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs, and Goselin holds it of Tetbald. Of it Goselin has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and half a plough. There Goselin has one villein, and five head of cattle, and five swine, and thirty sheep, and one acre of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

Merehoda.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Merehoda quam tenuit Bristricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ et Oliverus eam tenet de Tetbaldo. Inde habet Oliverus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Oliverus i uillanum et ii bordarios et i seruum et iiii animalia et iiii porcos et xx bordarii et i acra prati et ii acræ siluæ et xxx acræ pasturæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet v solidos [sic].—Exch. D. 115 (3); 32a.

Tetbald himself holds Aseberge. Wadel held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There is one plough, with one serf, and one villein, and there are two bordars, and one acre of meadow, and two acres of wood, and thirty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth five shillings.

Wellecome.

Gozelinus tenet de Tetbaldo Wellecome. Brisid tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia cum i uillano et i acra prati et xx acris pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (3); 32a.

Gozelin holds Wellecome of Tetbald. Brisid held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough and a half, with one villein, and one acre of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Merehode.

Oliuer tenet de Tetbaldo Merehode. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et i uillano et ii bordariis. Ibi vi acræ prati et lx acræ pasturæ et xx acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (3); 32a.

oues et xx agros nemoris et vi agros prati et lx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (408b) 380.

Tetbald has a manor called Merehoda, which Bristric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs, and Oliver holds it of Tetbald. Of it Oliver has in demesne half a virgate and half a plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and half a plough. There Oliver has one villein, and two bordars, and one serf, and four head of cattle, and four swine, and twenty sheep, and twenty acres of wood, and six acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Mollanda.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Mollanda quam tenuit Normannus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Bernardus de Tetbaldo. Inde habet Bernardus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et iii boues. Alia medietas uirgæ est tota uastata. Ibi habet Bernardus i seruum et ii animalia et v porcos et xv oues et xii capras et xii agros nemoris et iii agros prati et ualet per annum vii solidos et vi denarios et quando Tetbaldus recepit ualebat iii solidos.—Exon. D. (409) 381.

Tetbald has a manor called Mollanda, which Norman held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Bernard holds this of Tetbald. Of it Bernard has in demesne half a virgate and three oxen. The other half virgate is wholly waste. There Bernard has one serf, and two head of cattle, and five swine, and fifteen sheep, and twelve goats, and twelve acres of wood, and three acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year seven shillings and sixpence, and it was worth three shillings when Tetbald received it.

Comba.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Comba quam tenuit Colbrandus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Has tenet Oliuerus de Tetbaldo. Inde habet Oliuerus dimidiam hidam i ferlinum minus et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani ii uirgas et i ferlinum et i carrucam. Ibi habet Oliuerus vi uillanos et vi bordarios et ii seruos et xx Oliver holds Merehode of Tetbald. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and one villein, and two bordars. There are six acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture, and twenty acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifteen shillings.

Molland.

Bernardus tenet de Tetbaldo Molland. Norman tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi sunt iii boues cum i seruo et iii acræ prati et xii acræ siluæ. Olim iii solidos. Modo ualet vii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 115 (3); 32a.

Bernard holds Molland of Tetbald. Norman held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There are three oxen, with one serf, and there are three acres of meadow, and twelve acres of wood. Formerly it was worth three shillings. Now it is worth seven shillings and sixpence.

Cumbe.

Oliuer tenet de Tetbaldo Cymbe. Colbrand tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi sunt iii carucæ et ii serui et vi uillani et vi bordarii. Ibi molinus reddens v solidos et xii acræ prati et xlviii acræ siluæ et iiii quarentenæ pasturæ. Olim lxx solidos. Modo ualet l solidos.

animalia et xviii capras et i molendinum qui reddit v solidos et xlvi agros nemoris et xii agros prati et iv quadragenarias pascuæ. Hæc ualet l solidos et quando Tetbaldus recepit ualebat lx et x solidos.—Exon. D. (409) 381. In the margin opposite this entry it is written:—

Cum ista mansione uocata Comba i mansio quæ uocatur [Gorwilla] quam idem Colbrandus ipsa non pertinuit Comba qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus tenet Oliuerus de per annum x solidos et geldabat pro dimidia uirga.

Among the Terræ Occupatæ in Deuenescira the following occurs:—

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Comba. Huic addita est quædam mansio quæ uocata Gorwilla quam tenuit ipse Colbrandus quui Combam tedeat [tenebat ?] ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Hanc tenet Oliuerus de Tetbaldo et ualet per annum x solidos. Hæc non pertinuit Combæ tempore regis Eduuardi. (500b) 464.

Tetbald has a manor called Comba, which Colbrand held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Oliver holds these of Tetbald. Of it Oliver has in demeane half a hide less one ferling, and two ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates, and one ferling, and one plough. There Oliver has six villeins, and six bordars, and two serfs, and twenty head of cattle, and eighteen goats, and one mill which renders five shillings, and forty-eight acres of wood, and twelve acres of meadow, and four furlongs of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifty shillings, and it was worth sixty and ten shillings when Tetbald received it.

With this manor called Comba, one manor called . . . which the same Colbrand . . . It did not belong to Comba . . . on which king Edward was alive and dead. Oliver holds it of . . . ten shillings by the year, and rendered geld for half a virgata.

Tetbald has a manor called Comba. A certain manor called Gorwilla is added to this, which Colbrand himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. Oliver holds this of Tetbald; and it is worth by the year ten shillings. This did not belong to Comba in the time of king Edward.

Cerintona.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cerintona quam tenuit Almerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida dimidia uirga minus.

Gerwille.

Cum hoc manerio [Cumbe] tenet Oliuer de Tetbaldo Gerwille. Colbrand tenebat pro manerio tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia uirgata terræ. Valet x solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (3); 32a.

Oliver holds Cumbe of Tetbald. Colbrand held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs. There are three ploughs, and two serfs, and six villeins, and six bordars. There is a mill rendering five shillings, and there are twelve acres of meadow, and forty-eight acres of wood, and four furlongs of pasture. Formerly it was worth seventy shillings. Now it is worth fifty shillings.

With this manor Oliver holds Gerwille of Tetbald. Colbrand held it as a manor in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. It is worth ten shillings.

Cerintone.

Iipse Tetbaldus tenet Cerintone. Almer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida dimidia virgata terræ minus. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Tetbaldus dimidiam hidam et i ferlinum et i carrucam in dominio. Et uillani dimidiam hidam et i ferlinum et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Tetbaldus v uillanos et x bordarios et ii seruos et vi agros . . . et iii agros prati. Hæc ualet xx solidos et quando Tetbaldus recepit ualebat xl solidos.—Exon. D. (409) 381.

Tetbald has a manor called Cerintona, which Almer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide less half a virgate. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of it Tetbald has in demesne half a hide, and one ferling, and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide, and one ferling, and three ploughs. There Tetbald has five villeins, and ten bordars, and two serfs, and six acres [of wood], and three acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when Tetbald received it.

Comba.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Comba quam tenuit Ailmerus ea die qua rex Eduardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Iagelinus de Tetbaldo. Inde habet Iagelinus i uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Iagelinus ii uillanos et ii bordarios et xi seruos et ix animalia et ii porcos et lxxi oues et xxviii agros nemoris et vi agros prati et lx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xv solidos et quando Tetbaldus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (409b) 381.

Tetbald has a manor called Comba, which Ailmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Iagelin holds this of Tetbald. Of it Iagelin has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough and a half. There Iagelin has two villeins, and two bordars, and eleven serfs, and nine head of cattle, and two swine, and seventy-one sheep, and twenty-eight acres of wood, and six acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when Tetbald received it.

Wesfort.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wesfort quam tenuit Colbertus ea die qua rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Tetbaldus ii uillanos qui habent dimidiam carrucam in ea et ii bordarios et ii agros prati et reddit per annum x et ii serui et v uillani et x bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi iii acrae prati et vi acrae siluæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (3); 32a.

Tetbald himself holds Cerintone. Almer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide less half a virgate of land. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, and there are two serfs, and five villeins, and ten bordars, with three ploughs. There are three acres of meadow, and six acres of wood. Formerly it was worth eleven shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Cumbe.

Jagelin tenet de Tetbaldo Cymbe. Ailmer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucae et xi serui et ii uillani et ii bordarii cum i caruca et dimidia. Ibi xxviii acrae siluæ et vi acrae prati et lx acrae pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (3); 32a.

Jagelin holds Cumbe of Tetbald. Ailmer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and eleven serfs, and two villeins, and two bordars, with one plough and a half. There are twenty-eight acres of wood, and six acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifteen shillings.

Wesford.

Ipse Tetbaldus tenet Wesford. Colbertus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucae. Ibi ii uillani et ii bordarii habent dimidiam carucam. Ibi ii acrae prati. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (3); 32a.

solidos et quando ipse recepit ualebat tantundum.—Exon. D. (409b) 381.

Tetbald has a manor called Wesfort, which Colbert held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Tetbald has two villeins, who have in it half a plough, and two bordars, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Wesforda.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wesforda quam tenuerunt iiii tagni pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca et dimidia. Ibi habet Tetbaldus i carrucam et ii bordarios et i agrum prati et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Tetbaldus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (409b) 381.

Tetbald has a manor called Wesforda, which four thegns held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough and a half. There Tetbald has one plough, and two bordars, and one acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth as much when Tetbald received it.

Wesforda.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wesforda quam tenuit Ulmarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Aluualdus de Tetbaldo. In ea habet Aluualdus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent i carrucam. Ibi habet Aluualdus iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et v animalia et x porcos et xx oues et ii agros nemoris et v agros prati et ualet per annum xii solidos et vi denarios. Has iiii prescriptas mansiones tenet Tetbaldus pro i mansione et vi tagni tenuerunt eas pariter tempore regis Eduuardi.—Exon. D. (409b) 381.

Tetbald has a manor called Wesforda, which Ulmar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Now Alwald holds it of Tetbald. Alwald has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one plough. There Alwald has three villeins, and two bordars, and five head of cattle, Tetbald himself holds Wesford. Colbert held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There two villeins and two bordars have half a plough. There are two acres of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Wesford.

Ipse Tetbaldus tenet Wesford. Quattuor taini tenebant in paragio tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ et dimidiæ. Ibi est i caruca cum ii bordariis et una acra prati. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (4); 32b.

Tetbald himself holds Wesford. Four thegns held it in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough and a half. There is one plough, with two bordars, and one acre of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

Wesford.

Aluuoldus tenet de Tetbaldo Wesford. Vlmar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et iii uillani et ii bordarii et v acræ prati et ii acræ siluæ. Valet xii solidos et vi denarios. Hæc tria maneria tenet Tetbaldus pro uno manerio. Sex taini libere tenuerunt.—Exch. D. 115 (4); 32b.

Alwold holds Wesford of Tetbald. Ulmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, and three villeins, and two bordars, and five acres of meadow, and two acres of wood. It is worth twelve shillings and sixpence. Tetbald holds these three manors as one manor. Six thegns held them freely.

and ten swine, and twenty sheep, and two acres of wood, and five acres of meadow ; and it is worth by the year twelve shillings and sixpence. Tetbald holds these three above-written manors as one manor, and six thegns held them in partage in the time of king Edward.

Dertera.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Dertera quam tenuit Aluualdus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Modo tenet eam predictus Aluuardus de Tetbaldo. Inde habet Aluuardus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent i carrucam. Ibi habet Aluuardus iii uillanos et ii seruos et iii animalia et ii porcos et xx oues et xxv capras et vii agros prati et xii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xii solidos et vi denarios et quando Tetbaldus recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (410) 382.

Tetbald has a manor called Dertera, which Alwald held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Now the aforesaid Alward holds it of Tetbald. Of it Alward has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one plough. There Alward has three villeins, and two serfs, and three head of cattle, and two swine, and twenty sheep, and twenty-five goats, and seven acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twelve shillings and sixpence, and it was worth twenty shillings when Tetbald received it.

Restona.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Restona quam tenuit Ailmarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit [gildum] pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Albricus de Tetbaldo. Inde habet Albricus i uirgam in dominio et i carrucam et uillani habent dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Albricus iii uillanos et ii bordarios et vi animalia et xxx oues et v agros nemoris et v agros prati et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos. Et huic mansioni addita est i uirga terræ quam tenuit i tagnus qui poterat ire cum sua terra ad quemlibet dominum et ualet per annum iiii solidos.—Exon. D. (410) 382.

Tetbald has a manor called Restona, which Ailmar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Now Albric holds it of Tetbald. Of it Albric has in demesne one

Dertre.

Idem Aluuoldus tenet de Tetbaldo Dertre. Idem Aluualdus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia et ii serui et iii uillani et vii acræ prati et xii acræ pasturæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 115 (4); 32*b*.

The same Alwold holds Dertre of Tetbald. Alwold held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There is one plough and a half, and there are two serfs, and three villeins, and seven acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth twelve shillings and sixpence.

Restone.

Alberi tenet de Tetbaldo Restone. Ailmar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia et iii uillani et ii bordarii et v acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ [sic; no wood]. Valet x solidos. Huic manerio addita est una virgata terræ quam tenebat libere unus tainus tempore regis Eduuardi. Valet iiii solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (4); 32*b*.

Alber holds Restone of Tetbald. Ailmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There is one plough and a half, and there are three villeins, and two bordars, and five acres of meadow, and ten virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a plough. There Albric has three villeins, and two bordars, and six head of cattle, and thirty sheep, and five acres of wood, and five acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and one virgate of land is added to this manor, which one thegn held, who could go with his land to any lord he pleased; and it is worth by the year four shillings.

Wideworda.

Tetbaldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wideuorda quam tenuit Almarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Modo tenet Oliuerus de Tetbaldo. Inde habet Oliuerus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Oliuerus vii uillanos et iiii bordarios et iii seruos et xii animalia et vi porcos et lxxx oues et i molendinum v solidorum et clv agros nemoris et i agrum prati et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando Tetbaldus recepit ualebat tantundem.

Huic mansioni addita est alia mansio quæ uocatur Willelmatona quam tenuit Aluuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ et ualet per annum v solidos.

Tetbaldus habet i domum in Essecestra quæ reddebat tempore Eduuardi regis viii denarios per annum de consuetudine.—Exon. D. (410) 382.

Tetbald has a manor called Wideworda, which Almar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Now Oliver holds it of Tetbald. Of it Oliver has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide and one plough. There Oliver has seven villeins, and four bordars, and three serfs, and twelve head of cattle, and six swine, and eighty sheep, and one mill of five shillings, and a hundred and fifty-five acres of wood, and one acre of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth as much when Tetbald received it.

Another manor called Willelmatona is added to this manor, which Alward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs; and it is worth by the year five shillings.

Tetbald has one house in Exeter, which, in the time of king Edward, rendered eight pence a year by custom.

acres of pasture. It is worth ten shillings. To this manor has been added one virgate of land, which a thegn held freely in the time of king Edward. It is worth four shillings.

Wideworde.

Oliuer tenet de Tetbaldo Wideworde. Ailmar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est v carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et vii uillani et iiii bordarii. Ibi molinus reddens v solidos et i acra prati et xxx acræ pasturæ et clx acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.

Willelmetone.

Huic manerio [Wideworde] addita est Willelmetone. Aluuard tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Valet v solidos.

Ipsa Tetbaldus habet unam domum in Excestre, quæ reddit viii denarios regi de consuetudine.—Exch. D. 115 (4); 32b.

Oliver holds Wideworde of Tetbald. Ailmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for five ploughs. There are two ploughs, and three serfs, and seven villeins, and four bordars. There is a mill rendering five shillings, and one acre of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture, and one hundred and sixty acres [sic] of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty shillings.

Willelmetone is added to this manor. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. It is worth five shillings.

Tetbald himself has a house in Exeter, which renders eightpence to the king by custom.

Terra Torstini Filius Rofi in Debenesira.

Estantona.

Torstinus filius Rofi habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Estantona quam tenuit Aluena ea die qua rex Eduardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii hidia. Has possunt arare xx carrucæ. Hanc tenet Gerson de Torstino. Inde habet Gerson i hida et i carrucam in dominio et uillani ii hidas et ix carrucas et dimidia. Ibi habet Gerson xxiiii uillanos et viii bordarios et iiii seruos et vii animalia et xxvii porcos et cxxx oues et xxiii capras et v quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et iiii in latitudine et vii agros prati et i leugam et dimidiam pascuæ in longitudine et i in latitudine. Hæc ualet c solidos et quando Torstinus recepit ualebat x libras.—Exon. D. (382) 357.

The Land of Torstinus Son of Rofus in Devonshire.

Torstin the son of Rof has a manor called Estantona, which Alwena held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three hides. These can be ploughed by twenty ploughs. These Gerson held of Torstin. Of these Gerson has in demesne one hide and one plough, and the villeins have two hides and nine ploughs and a half. There Gerson has twenty-four villeins, and eight bordars, and four serfs, and seven head of cattle, and a hundred and thirty sheep, and twenty-three goats, and wood five furlongs in length and four in breadth, and seven acres of meadow, and pasture a leuga and a half in length and one in breadth. This is worth by the year one hundred shillings, and it was worth ten pounds when Torstin received it.

XXXVIII. Terra Cbrstini Filii Rolf.

Stantone.

Tvrstinus filius Rolf tenet de rege Stantone et Geron de eo. Alueua tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis. Terra est xx carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iiii serui et xxiiii uillani et viii bordarii cum ix carucis et dimidia. Ibi vii acrae prati. Pastura una leuca et dimidia longitudine et una leuca latitudine. Silua v quarentinae longitudine et iiii quarentinae latitudine. Olim x libras. Modo ualet c solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (4); 32b.

XXXVIII. The Land of Turstin the Son of Rolf.

Turstin the son of Rolf holds Stantone of the king, and Geron of him. Alueua held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides. There is land for twenty ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, and there are four serfs, and twenty-four villeins, and eight bordars, with nine ploughs and a half. There are seven acres of meadow. Pasture one leuga and a half in length and one leuga in width. Wood five furlongs in length and four furlongs in width. Formerly it was worth ten pounds. Now it is worth one hundred shillings.

Terra Alberedi Hispaniensis in Debenesira.

Alferdintona.

Alueredus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Alferdintona quam tenuit Ailuidus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare xv carruæ. Inde habet Ailuidus in dominio i uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani iii uirgas et v carrucas. Ibi habet Ailuidus xi uillanos et iii seruos et v animalia et c oues et iiii agros nemoris et iii agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ in longitudine et in latitudine et ualet iii libras per annum et quando Ailuidus recepit viii libras.

Huic prædictæ mansioni est addita quædam mansio quæ uocatur Tichel quam tenuit Brideuoldus ea die qua rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carruæ. Inde habet Ailuidus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Ailuidus iiii uillanos et xxx agros nemoris et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Ailuidus accepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (371) 348.

The Land of Aluered of Spain in Devonshire.

Aluered has a manor called Alferdintona, which Ailwid held on the day on which the king was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by fifteen ploughs. Of it Ailwid has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have three virgates and five ploughs. There Ailwid has eleven villeins, and three serfs, and five head of cattle, and one hundred sheep, and four acres of wood, and three acres of meadow, and pasture half a leuga in length and in breadth; and it is worth by the year three pounds, and it was worth eight pounds when Ailwid received it.

To this aforesaid manor a certain manor called Tichel is added, which Bridewold held on the day on which the king was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of it Ailwid has in demesne half a virgate, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Ailwid has four villeins, and thirty acres of wood; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when Ailwid accepted it.

XXXIX. Terra Albredi de Ispania.Alferdintone.

Alvredus de Ispania tenet de rege Alferdintone. Aluui tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est xv carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et xi uillani cum v carucis. Ibi iii acræ prati et iiii acræ siluæ et dimidia leuca pasturæ. Olim viii libras. Modo ualet iii libras.

Tuichel.

Huic manerio [Alferdintone] est addita Tuichel. Brideuoldus libere tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi iiii uillani habent i carucam et ibi xxx acræ siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (4); 32b.

XXXIX. The Land of Alured of Spain.

Alured of Spain holds Alferdintone of the king. Alwi held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for fifteen ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and three serfs, and eleven villeins, with five ploughs. There are three acres of meadow, and four acres of wood, and half a leuga of pasture. Formerly it was worth eight pounds. Now it is worth three pounds.

Tuichel is added to this manor. Bridewold held it freely in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There are four villeins, having one plough, and there are thirty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth five shillings.

Orrawia.

Alueredus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Orrawia quam tenuit Aluuius ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Alueredus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam. Ibi habet Alueredus viii uillanos et vi bordarios et i seruum et iiii agros nemoris et v agros prati et c agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (371) 348.

Aluered has a manor called Orrawia, which Alwi held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of it Aluered has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one plough. There Aluered has eight villeins, and six bordars, and one serf, and four acres of wood, and five acres of meadow, and one hundred acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Orrewai.

Ipsē Aluredus tenet Orrewai. Aluui tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et viii uillani et vi bordarii et v acræ prati et c acræ pasturæ et iiii acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (4); 32*b*.

Aluredus himself holds Orrewai. Alwi held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, with one serf, and there are eight villeins, and six bordars, and five acres of meadow, and one hundred acres of pasture, and four acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty shillings.

But few of the manors of Alured Brito are found in the Exeter Book.—Vide pp. 886 and 996.

XL. Terra Albredi Britonis.

Wiflevrde.

Alvredus Brito tenet de rege Wiflevrde. Siuuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iiii serui et xii acræ siluæ. Pastura ii leucæ longitudine et una leuca latitudine. Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (4); 32*b*.

XL. The Land of Alured the Briton.

Alured Brito holds Wiflevrde of the king. Siward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are four serfs, and twelve acres of wood. Pasture two leugas in length and one leuga in width. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty shillings.

Sprei.

Wihuenech tenet Sprei de Aluredo. Alcher tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia cum i seruo et iiii bordariis. Ibi iii acræ prati et v acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (4); 32*b*.

Wihuenech holds Sprei of Alured. Alcher held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough and a half, with one serf, and four bordars. There are three acres of meadow, and five acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Ferding.

Fulco tenet de Aluredo Ferding. Sauuin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling terræ. Terra est i carucæ et dimidiæ. Ibi v bordarii cum i seruo habent dimidiam carucam. Ibi x acræ prati. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 115 (4); 32*b*.

Fulco holds Ferding of Alured. Sawin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling of land. There is land for one plough and a half. There are five bordars, with one serf, having half a plough. There are ten acres of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Genelie.

Ipse Aluredus tenet Genelie. Godric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iiii uillani et iiii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi viii acræ prati et totidem siluæ et x acræ pasturæ. Olim xxx solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (1); 33a.

Alured himself holds Genelie. Godric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, with one serf, and there are four villeins, and four bordars, with one plough. There are eight acres of meadow, and as many of wood, and ten acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth thirty shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Hechesbvrne.

Ipse Aluredus tenet Hechesbvrne. Ulnod tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et ii uillani et ii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi vi acræ prati et viii acræ pasturæ et x acræ siluæ. Olim xxx solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (a); 33a.

Alured himself holds Hechesbvrne. Ulnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, with one serf, and there are two villeins, and two bordars, with one plough. There are six acres of meadow, and eight acres of pasture, and ten acres of wood. Formerly it was worth thirty shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Cornevrde.

Tres taini tenent de Aluredo Cornevrde. Ipsi tenebant tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est unus uillanus et unus seruus et xii acræ prati et totidem siluæ et ccc acræ pasturæ.

Olim et modo ualet x solidos et vi denarios. Tria maneria fuerunt.—Exch. D. 116 (a); 33a.

Three thegns hold Cornevrde of Alured. They held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There is one villein, and one serf, and there are twelve acres of meadow, and as many of wood, and three hundred acres of pasture.

Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings and sixpence. They were three manors.

Esseberie.

Wihuenec tenet de Aluredo Esseberie. Leuric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est v carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et v uillani et iiii bordarii et x acræ prati et vi acræ siluæ et cc acræ pasturæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (a); 33a.

Wihuenec holds Esseberie of Alured. Leuric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for five ploughs. There are two ploughs, and two serfs, and five villeins, and four bordars, and ten acres of meadow, and six acres of wood, and two hundred acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Hiele.

Idem Wihuenec tenet de Aluredo Hiele. Aiolf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est v carucis. Ibi sunt iiii carucæ et iii serui et v uillani et ii bordarii et vi acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ et xx acræ siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xxv solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (a); 33a.

The same Wihuenec holds Hiele of Alured. Aiolf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for five ploughs. There are four ploughs, and three serfs, and five villeins, and two bordars, and six acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture, and twenty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth twenty-five shillings.

Radewei.

Willelmus tenet de Aluredo Radewei. Godric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et i uillano et ii acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (a); 33a.

Laurochebera.

Alueredus Brito tenet dimidiam hidam terræ quæ uocatur Laurochebera quæ juste pertinet cuidam mansioni Bauduini quæ uocatur Winpla et ualet per annum v solidos.—Exon. D. (499) 463.

Aluered Brito holds half a hide of land which is called Laurochebera, which rightly belongs to a certain manor of Bauduin, which is called Winpla; and it is worth by the year five shillings.

William holds Radewei of Alured. Godric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one serf, and one villein, and there are two acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Lavrochebere.

Ipse Aluredus tenet Lavrochebere. Ulf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et ii serui et. v uillani cum i bordario. Ibi xx acræ prati et totidem siluæ et cc acræ pasturæ vii minus. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.

Huic manerio est addita dimidia hida quæ pertinebat ad Wimple manerium Balduini. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.
—Exch. D. 116 (a); 33a.

Alured himself holds Lavrochebere. Ulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, and two serfs, and five villeins, with one bordar. There are twenty acres of meadow, and as many of wood, and two hundred acres of pasture less seven. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Half a hide is added to this manor, which belonged to Wimple, a manor belonging to Baldwin. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

Bacheleford.

Willelmus tenet de Aluredo Bacheleford. Saulf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia cum i seruo et iii uillani cum i bordario. Ibi vii acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ et dimidia acra siluæ minutæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (a); 33a.

William holds Bacheleford of Alured. Saulf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for three ploughs. There is one plough and a half, with one serf, and there are three villeins, with one bordar. There are seven acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture, and half an acre of coppice. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Grismetone.

Idem Willelmus tenet de Aluredo Grismetone. Alnod tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi tamen in dominio est i

Bacetesberia.

Alueredus Brito habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bacetesberia quam tenuit Almarus. Huic addita est alia mansio quæ uocatur Crauecoma quam tenuit Almarus pariter die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Has habet Alueredus pro i mansione. Hæc ualet per annum x solidos. —Exon. D. (504*b*) 468.

Aluered Brito has a manor called Bacetesberia, which Almar held. Another manor is added to this called Crauecoma, which Almar held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. Aluered has these as one manor; and it is worth by the year ten shillings.

caruca cum i seruo et ii uillani et ii bordarii cum ii carucis et xv acræ pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (a); 33a.

The same William holds Grismetone of Alured. Alnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough however in demesne, with one serf, and there are two villeins, and two bordars, with two ploughs, and fifteen acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Lege.

Idem Willelmus tenet de Aluredo Lege. Alnod tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et iii uillanis et x acris pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (a); 33a.

The same William holds Lege of Alured. Alnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and three villeins, and ten acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Bachetesberie.

Ipsæ Aluredus tenet Bachetesberie. Almar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et vi uillani et v bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi xv acræ pasturæ et iii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.

Huic manerio est addita Crawecome. Almar tenebat pro manerio in paragio tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est dimidia caruca. Valet x solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (a); 33a.

Alured himself holds Bachetesberie. Almar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, with one serf, and there are six villeins, and five bordars, with two ploughs. There are fifteen acres of pasture, and four acres coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty shilling Crawecome is added to this manor. Almar held it as a r in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for 1 hide. There is land for two ploughs. There is half a plough is worth ten shillings.

Morleia.

Ad mansionem Aluredi Britonis quæ uocatur Morleia est addita est alia mansio quæ uocatur Lega quam tenuit Aluualdus pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida et ualet per annum xx solidos.—Exon. D. (504b) 468.

To the manor of Alured Brito called Morleia is added another manor called Lega, which Alwald held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings.

Mideltone.

Toui tenet de Aluredo Mideltone. Duo taini libere tenebant in paragio tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ cum i seruo et viii uillani et vi bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi vi acræ prati. Olim et modo ualet lx solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (a); 33a.

Toui holds Mideltone of Alured. Two thegns held it freely in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, with one serf, and there are eight villeins, and six bordars, with three ploughs. There are six acres of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth sixty shillings.

Morlei.

Willelmus tenet de Aluredo Morlei. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi sunt iii carucæ et iiii serui et v uillani et iiii acræ prati et xl acræ pasturæ et vii acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos. Hæc terra addita est ad manerium Lege.—Exch. D. 116 (a); 33a.

Willelm holds Morlei of Alured. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. There are three ploughs, and four serfs, and five villeins, and four acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture, and seven acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings. This land is added to Lege manor.

Ulgeberge.

Ipse Aluredus tenet Ulgeberge. Aluvinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis et una virgata terræ. Terra est xv carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et v serui et ix uillani et ix bordarii cum vi carucis. Ibi xii acræ prati et l acræ pasturæ et xv acræ siluæ minutæ. Valet lx solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (a); 33a.

Alured himself holds Ulgeberge. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides and one virgate of land. There is land for fifteen ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and five serfs, and nine villeins, and nine bordars, with six ploughs. There are twelve acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and fifteen acres of coppice. It is worth sixty shillings.

Bvcheside.

Ipsē Aluredus tenet Bvcheside. Aluūinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iiii serui et v uillani cum i caruca. Ibi iiii acræ prati. Silua minuta dimidia leuca longitudine et ii quarentinæ latitudine. Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (b); 33b.

Alured himself holds Bucheside. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and four serfs, and five villeins, with one plough. There are four acres of meadow. Coppice half a leuga in length and two furlongs in width. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty shillings.

Tameretone.

Ipsē Aluredus tenet Tameretone. Ineuuar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est x carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et vii serui et xvi uillani et vi bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi salina reddens v solidos et iii acræ prati. Pastura iii quarentinæ longitudine et una quarentina latitudine. Silua dimidia leuca longitudine et iii quarentinæ latitudine. Olim lx solidos. Modo ualet c solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (b); 33b.

Alured himself holds Tameretone. Inewar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne there are three ploughs, and seven serfs, and sixteen villeins, and six bordars, with five ploughs. There is one salt-work rendering five shillings, and there are three acres of meadow. Pasture three furlongs in length and one furlong in width. Wood half a leuga in length and three furlongs in width. Formerly it was worth sixty shillings. Now it is worth one hundred shillings.

Blachestane.

Ipsē Aluredus tenet Blachestane. Ineuuar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et v serui et iiii uillani cum i caruca et unus porcarius reddens v porcos et salina reddens xxx denarios. Silua i leuca longitudine et iii quarentinæ latitudine. Pastura iii quarentinæ longitudine et una quarentina latitudine. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet l solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (b); 33b.

Aluredus Brito habet i domum in Exonia quæ reddidit tempore regis Eduuardi viii denarios de consuetudine per annum quos ipse detinuit postquam eam habuit.—Econ. D. (505b) 469.

Aluered Brito has a house in Exeter, which rendered eight pence by custom by the year in the time of king Edward, which he himself retained after he had it.

Alured himself holds Blachestane. Inewar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and five serfs, and four villeins, with one plough, and one swineherd rendering five swine, and a salt-work rendering thirty pence. Wood one leuga in length and three furlongs in breadth. Pasture three furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth fifty shillings.

Tawi.

Iipse Aluredus tenet Tawi. Siuuard tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est vii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ix serui et v uillani et vi bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi iiii acræ prati. Pastura xvi quarentinæ longitudine et ix quarentinæ latitudine. Silua iii quarentinæ longitudine et una quarentina latitudine et xvi acræ siluæ minutæ.

Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet lx solidos.

Alured himself holds Tawi. Siward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for seven ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and nine serfs, and five villeins, and six bordars, with two ploughs. There are four acres of meadow. Pasture sixteen furlongs in length and nine furlongs in width. Wood three furlongs in length and one furlong in width, and there are sixteen acres of coppice.

Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth sixty shillings.

Iipse Aluredus habet in Excestre i domum quæ reddit viii denarios de consuetudine.—Exch. D. 116 (b); 33b.

Alured himself has in Exeter one house, which returns eight-peace by custom.

Stafort.

Ansgerus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Stafort quam tenuit Aluricus ea qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et potuit ire cum sua terra ad quemlibet dominum. Hæc reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare i carruca et dimidia. Inde habet Ansgerus in dominio i ferdinum et dimidiam carrucam et uillani i ferdinum et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Ansgerus v bordarios et i seruum et ii agros nemoris et iiii agros prati et ii quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et i quadragenariam in latitudine et ualet per annum xii solidos et vi denarios et quando Ansgerus recepit ualebat vii solidos et vi denarios.—Exon. D. (456b) 421.

Ansger has a manor called Stafort, which Aluric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and he was able to go to any lord with his land. This rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough and a half. Of it Ansger has in demesne one ferling and half a plough, and the villeins have one ferling and half a plough. There Ansger has five bordars, and one serf, and two acres of wood, and four acres of meadow, and pasture two furlongs in length and one furlong in width; and it is worth by the year twelve shillings and sixpence, and it was worth seven shillings and sixpence when Ansger received it.

Torritona.

Ansgerus habet i uirgam terræ in Toritona quam tenuit Aluiritius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Ansgerus i fertinum et i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent iiii fertinos et i carrucam. Ibi habet Ansgerus i uillanum et iiii bordarios et vi animalia et v porcos et xxx oues et viii capras et iiii agros prati et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Ansgerus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (456b) 421.

Ansger has one virgate of land in Toritona, which Alwrit held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of it Ansger has in demesne one

XLI. Terra Ansgerij.

Staforð.

Ansger de Montagud tenet de rege Staforð. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est cum i seruo et v bordariis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et ii acræ siluæ. Pastura ii quarentinæ longitudine et una quarentina latitudine. Olim vii solidos et vi denarios. Modo ualet xii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 116 (b); 33b.

XLI. The Land of Ansger.

Ansger of Montagud holds Staforð of the king. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough, which is there, with one serf, and five bordars. There are four acres of meadow, and two acres of wood. Pasture two furlongs in length and one furlong in width. Formerly it was worth seven shillings and sixpence. Now it is worth twelve shillings and sixpence.

Toritone.

Ipsè Ansger tenet in Toritone unam virgatam terræ. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i uillano et iii bordariis. Ibi iiii acræ prati. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (b); 33b.

Ansger himself holds one virgate of land in Toritone. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one villein, and three bordars.

ferling and one plough, and the villeins have three ferlings and one plough. There Ansgar has one villein, and three bordars, and six head of cattle, and five swine, and thirty sheep, and eight goats, and four acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when Ansgar received it.

Bremelcoma.

Ansgerus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bremelcoma quam tenuit Algherus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et potuit ire cum sua terra ad quemlibet dominum. Hæc reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare i carruca et dimidia. Inde habet Ansgerus in dominio i ferdinum et dimidiam carrucam et uillani i ferdinum et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Ansgerus ii bordarios et ualet per annum vii solidos et vi denarios et quando recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (456b) 421.

Ansgar has a manor called Bremelcoma, which Algher held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and he could go with his land to any lord he pleased. This rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough and a half. Of it Ansgar has in demesne one ferling and half a plough, and the villeins have one ferling and half a plough. There Ansgar has two bordars; and it is worth by the year seven shillings and sixpence, and it was worth five shillings when he received it.

There are four acres of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifteen shillings.

Bremelcome.

Ipse Ansger tenet Bremelcome. Alcher tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ et dimidiæ. Ibi est i caruca cum iii bordariis. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet vii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 116 (2); 33*b*.

Ansger himself holds Bremelcome. Alcher held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough and a half. There is one plough, with three bordars. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth seven shillings and sixpence.

Cadeledone.

Ipse Ansger tenet Cadeledone. Macheld tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est ii carucis. In dominio tamen est i caruca cum i seruo et iiii uillani et iiii bordarii. Ibi ii acræ prati et vii acræ siluæ et x acræ pasturæ.

Huic manerio est addita dimidia virgata terræ et dimidium ferling. Brismer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi pro manerio. Terra est i carucæ et dimidiæ. Hæ ii terræ reddunt l solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (2); 33*b*.

Ansger himself holds Cadeledone. Macheld held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate and a half of land. There is land for two ploughs. In demesne, however, there is one plough, with one serf, and there are four villeins and four bordars. There are two acres of meadow, and seven acres of wood, and ten acres of pasture.

To this manor is added a half virgate of land and a half ferling. Brismer held it in the time of king Edward as one manor. There is land for one plough and a half. These two lands render fifty shillings.

Mochelesberia.

Ansgerus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Mochelesberia quam tenuerunt v tagni pariter de Bristritio et non poterant ab eo separari ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Ansgerus dimidiam hidam in dominio et i carrucam et uillani habent dimidiam hidam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Ansgerus ix uillanos et i bordarium et vii animalia et xxiii oues et x et viii capras et i molendinum quod reddit lx denarios et vi agros nemoris et xxvi agros prati et iiii quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et ii in latitudine et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando ipse recepit ualebat xl solidos. Has terras quinque tagnorum prædictorum tenet Ansgerus pro i mansione.—Exon. D. (461) 426.

Ansger has a manor called Mochelesberia, which five thegns held in partage of Bristric, and they could not be separated from him on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of it Ansger has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide and half a plough. There Ansger has nine villeins, and one bordar, and seven head of cattle, and twenty-four sheep, and eighteen goats, and one mill which renders sixty pence, and six acres of wood, and twenty-six acres of meadow, and pasture four furlongs in length and two in width; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when he received it. These lands of the aforesaid five thegns Ansger holds as one manor.

Suetatona.

Ansgerus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Suetatona quam tenuit Godricus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc potest arare i carruca et dimidia. Inde habet Ansgerus in dominio i uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Ansgerus iiii uillanos et i bordarium et i seruuum et i runcinum et xvii animalia et ii porcos et x agros nemusculi et viii agros prati et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem. Hanc prædictam terram tenuit Godricus pariter et frater eius [and the following is added in the margin] et ista terra est iniuste addita cum terra Bristricii.—Exon. D. (461) 426.

Mochelesberie.

Ipse Ansger tenet Mochelesberie. Quinque taini libere tenebant in paragio de Brictric tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ix uillani cum i bordario et dimidia caruca. Ibi molinus reddens lx denarios et xxvi acræ prati et vi acræ siluæ. Pastura iiii quarentinæ longitudine et ii quarentinæ latitudine. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos. Pro uno manerio tenet Ansger.—Exch. D. 116 (2); 33b.

Ansger himself holds Mochelesberie. Five thegns held it freely in partage of Brictric in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, and there are nine villeins, with one bordar, and half a plough. There is a mill rendering sixty pence, and there are twenty-six acres of meadow, and six acres of wood. Pasture four furlongs in length and two furlongs in width. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings. Ansger holds it as one manor.

Svetetone.

Ipse Ansger tenet Svetetone. Godric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est i carucæ et dimidæ. Ibi tamen sunt ii carucæ cum i seruo et iiii uillani cum i bordario et viii acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ et totidem siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.

Hæc terra iniuste addita est terris Brictric.—Exch. D. 116 (2); 33b.

Ansger has a manor called Suetatona, which Godric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by one plough and a half. Of it Ansger has in demesne one virgate and a half and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Ansger has three villeins, and one bordar, and one serf, and one packhorse, and seventeen head of cattle, and two swine, and ten acres of coppice, and eight acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it. Godric held this aforesaid land in partage with his brother, and this land is wrongly added to the land of Bristric.

Duueltona.

Ansgerus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Duueltona quam tenuit Edricus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii uirgis. Has possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Ansgerus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Ansgerus iiii uillanos et iiii bordarios et i seruum et iiii animalia et xxiiii oues et xi capras et v agros nemusculi et iiii agros prati et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum i solidos.

Et hæc mansio est addita ad terram Bristricii quam tenuit quidam tegnus potens eundi ad quemousque uoluisset dominum.—Exon. D. (462) 427.

Ansger has a manor called Dweltona, which Edric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two virgates. These can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of it Ansger has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and a half and two ploughs. There Ansger has four villeins, and four bordars, and one serf, and four head of cattle, and twenty-four sheep, and eleven goats, and five acres of coppice, and four acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifty shillings.

And this manor is added to the land of Bristric, which a certain thegn held, able to go to any lord he would.

Ansger himself holds Svetetone. Godric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for one plough and a half. There are, however, two ploughs, with one serf, and there are three villeins, with one bordar, and eight acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture, and as many of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

This land is added unjustly to the lands of Brictric.

Dbbeltone.

Ipsē Ansger tenet Dvveltone. Edric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii uirgatis terræ. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iiii uillani et iiii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi iiii acrae prati et x acrae pasturae et v acrae siluæ minutæ. Valet l solidos.

Hæc terra iniuste addita est terris Brictric qui tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi. Poterat ire quo uolebat.—Exch. D. 116 (2); 33b.

Ansger himself holds Dweltone. Edric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two virgates of land. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, with one serf, and there are four villeins, and four bordars, with two ploughs. There are four acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture, and five acres of coppice. It is worth fifty shillings.

This land is unjustly added to the lands of Brictric, who held it in the time of king Edward. He could go where he liked.

Suetetona.

Aiulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Suetetona quam tenuit Etdricus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arrare [sic] i carruca et dimidia. Et Floherus tenet eam de de [sic] Aiulfo. Inde habet Floherus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Floherus iiii uillanos et i bordarium et iii agros prati et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (461) 426.

Aiulf has a manor called Suetetona, which Etdric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by one plough and a half. And Floher holds it of Aiulf. Of it Floher has in demesne half a virgate and half a plough, and the villeins have one virgate and a half and one plough. There Floher has four villeins, and one bordar, and three acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Lega.

Aiulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lega quam tenuit Etmarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida et dimidia uirga. Has possunt arrare i carruca et dimidia. Et Willelmus tenet eam de Aiulfo. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio i uirgam et i ferdinum et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et i ferdinum et i carrucam. Ibi habet Willelmus ii uillanos et v bordarios et ii seruos et v animalia et vi porcos et xxiii oues et xxx capras et i molendinum quod reddit xxxvi denarios et xxv agros nemoris et vi agros prati et xxxviii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit x solidos.—Exon. D. (461b) 426.

Aiulf has a manor called Lega, which Etmar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide and half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough and a half. And William holds it of Aiulf. Of it William has in demesne one virgate, and one ferling, and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate, and one ferling, and one plough. There William has two villeins, and five bordars, and two serfs, and five head of cattle, and six swine, and twenty-four sheep, and thirty goats, and one mill that renders thirty-six pence, and twenty-five acres of wood, and six acres of meadow, and thirty-eight acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

XLII. Terra Aibla.

Suetetone.

Aiulfus tenet de rege Svetetone. Edric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est i carucæ et dimidiæ. Ibi sunt iiii uillani cum i bordario et iii acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (2); 33*b*.

XLII. The Land of Aiulf.

Aiulf holds Suetetone of the king. Edric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for one plough and a half. There are four villeins, with one bordar, and three acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Lege.

Willelmus tenet de Aiulfo Lege. Edmar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii virgatis terræ et dimidia. Terra est i carucæ et dimidiæ. Ibi tamen sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et ii uillani et v bordarii. Ibi molinus reddens xxxvi denarios et vi acræ prati et xxxviii acræ pasturæ et xxv acræ siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (2); 33*b*.

William holds Lege of Aiulf. Edmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two virgates of land and a half. There is land for one plough and a half. There are, however, two ploughs, and two serfs, and two villeins, and five bordars. There is a mill rendering thirty-six pence, and there are six acres of meadow, and thirty-eight acres of pasture, and twenty-five acres of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Terra Odonis filii Gamelini in Debenesira.

Dalilea.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Dalilea quam tenuit Bristricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Odo dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Odo iiii uillanos et i seruum et i roncinum et v animalia et l oues et iiii agros nemoris et ii agros prati et x agros pascuæ. Hæc mansio ualet xx solidos et quando Odo recepit eam ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (375) 353.

The Land of Odo, the Son of Gamelin, in Devonshire.

Odo has a manor called Dalilea, which Bristric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of it Odo has in demeane half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Odo has four villeins, and one serf, and one packhorse, and five head of cattle, and fifty sheep, and four acres of wood, and two acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture. This manor is worth twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Odo received it.

Estatforda.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Estatforda quam tenuit Sawinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida dimidio ferdino minus. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Et modo tenet eam Radulfus Uitalis de Odone. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et villani habent aliam terram et ii carrucas et iii boues. Ibi habet Radulfus x uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et x animalia et lx oues et xx capras et xii agros nemoris et x agros prati et xv agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xl solidos et quando Odo recepit ualebat l solidos.—Exon. D. (376) 352.

Odo has a manor called Estatforda, which Sawin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide less half a ferling. This can be ploughed by

XLIII. Terra Odonis filii Gamelin.

Dalilei.

Odo filius Gamelin tenet de rege Dalilei. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et iiii uillani cum i caruca. Ibi ii acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ et iiii acræ siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (3) ; 34a.

XLIII. The Land of Odo, the Son of Gamelin.

Odo, the son of Gamelin, holds Dalilei of the king. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, with one serf, and there are four villeins, with one plough. There are two acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture, and four acres of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Staforð.

Radulfus tenet de Odone Staforð. Sauuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida dimidio ferling minus. Terra est vi carucis. Ibi sunt iiii carucæ et ii serui et x uillani et iiii bordarii et x acræ prati et xv acræ pasturæ et xii acræ siluæ. Olim 1 solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (3) ; 34a.

Radulf holds Staforð of Odo. Sawin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide less half a ferling. There is land for six ploughs. There are four ploughs, and two six ploughs. And now Radulf Vitalis holds it of Odo. Of it Radulf has in demeane half a virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have the other land, and two ploughs, and three oxen. There Radulf has ten villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and ten head of cattle, and sixty sheep, and twenty goats, and twelve acres of wood, and ten acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth fifty shillings when Odo received it.

Almerescota.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Almerescota quam tenuit Leuesgarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Et modo tenet eam Coluinus de Odone. Inde habet i ferlinum et i carrucam in dominio et uillani iii ferlinos et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Coluinus vi uillanos et i seruum et xv animalia et lx oues et xx capras et x agros prati et xl agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xx solidos et quando Odo recepit ualebat iii solidos.—Exon. D. (376) 353.

Odo has a manor called Almerescota, which Leuesgar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. And now Coluin holds it of Odo. Of it he has in demeane one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have three ferlings and two ploughs. There Coluin has six villeins, and one serf, and fifteen head of cattle, and sixty sheep, and twenty goats, and ten acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth three shillings when Odo received it.

serfs, and ten villeins, and three bordars, and ten acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture, and twelve acres of wood. Formerly it was worth fifty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Almerescote.

Coluin tenet de Odone Almerescote. Leuegar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et vi uillanis. Ibi x acræ prati et xl acræ pasturæ. Olim iii solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (3); 34a.

Coluin holds Almerescote of Odo. Leuegar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and six villeins. There are ten acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth three shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Lwis.

Radulfus tenet de Odone Lwis. Sauuin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis et i ferling. Terra est vii carucis. Ibi sunt v carucæ cum i seruo et vii uillani et iii bordarii. Ibi xii acræ prati et l acræ pasturæ et xxx acræ siluæ. Olim lx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.

De ipsa terra i ferling tenebat libere unus tainus tempore regis Eduuardi et poterat ire quo uolebat.—Exch. D. 116 (3); 34a.

Radulf holds Lwis of Odo. Sawin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates and one ferling. There is land for seven ploughs. There are five ploughs, with one serf, and there are seven villeins, and three bordars. There are twelve acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and thirty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth sixty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

One thegn held one ferling of this same land freely in the time of king Edward, and he could go where he liked.

Liteluera.

Odo habet i uirgam terræ quæ uocatur Liteluera quæ adiacet mansioni quæ uocatur Toritona quam tenuit Bristricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Odo in dominio dimidiam uirgam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Odo iiii uillanos et ii [sic] bordarios et iiii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et tantundem ualebat quando eam recepit.—Exon. D. (376b) 353.

Odo has one virgate of land called Liteluera, which adjoins a manor called Toritona, which Bristric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of it Odo has in demesne half a virgate, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Odo has four villeins, and two bordars, and four acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Toritona.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Toritona quam tenuit Bristritius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii hidis et dimidia. Has possunt arare xl carrucæ. Inde habet Odo iii uirgas in dominio et iiii carrucas et uillani habent ii hidas et xxvi carrucas. Ibi habet Odo xlv uillanos et x bordarios et vii seruos et xii animalia et x porcos et cxlvi oues et ccc agros nemoris et xx agros prati et ii leugas pascuæ in longitudine et i in latitudine et xxv porcarios qui reddunt per annum cx porcos et ualet per annum xv libras et quando Odo accepit reddebat xxiiii libras.

De præscriptis iii hidis et dimidia habent iii francigene iii uirgas. Goselmus tenet inde i uirgam quæ ualet per annum xv solidos et Walterus habet aliam uirgam et ualet xv solidos et Ansgerus habet tertiam uirgam et ualet per annum xv solidos.—Exon. D. (376b) 353.

Odo has a manor called Toritona, which Bristric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three hides and a half. This can be ploughed by forty ploughs. Of it Odo has in demesne three virgates and four ploughs, and the villeins have two hides and twenty-six ploughs. There Odo has forty-five villeins, and ten bordars, and seven serfs, and twelve head of cattle, and ten swine, and one hundred and forty-six sheep,

Litelwere.

Ipse Odo tenet Litelwere et adiacet ad Toritone manerium eius. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi iiii uillani et iii [sic] bordarii habent i carucam. Ibi iiii acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (3); 34a.

Odo himself holds Litelwere, and it lies near to Toritone, a manor of his. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. There are four villeins, and three bordars, having one plough. There are four acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Toritone.

Ipse Odo tenet Toritone. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis et dimidia. Terra est xl carucis. In dominio sunt iiii carucæ et vii serui et xlv uillani et x bordarii cum xxvi carucis. Ibi xx acræ prati et ccc acræ siluæ. Pastura ii leucæ longitudine et una leuca latitudine. Ibi xxv porcarii reddentes cx porcos. Olim xxiv libras. Modo ualet xx libras.

De hac eadem terra tenent iii francigenæ iii virgatas. Ualent xlv solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (3); 34a.

Odo himself holds Toritone. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides and a half. There is land for forty ploughs. In demesne there are four ploughs, and seven serfs, and forty-five villeins, and ten bordars, with twenty-six ploughs. There are twenty acres of meadow, and three hundred acres of wood. Pasture two leugas in length and one leuga in width. There are twenty-five swineherds rendering and three hundred acres of wood, and twenty acres of meadow, and two leugas of pasture in length and one in width, and twenty-five swineherds who render a hundred and ten swine by the year; and it is worth by the year fifteen pounds, and it was worth twenty-four pounds when Odo received it.

Of the above-written three hides and a half three Franks have three virgates. Goselm holds of them one virgate, which is worth fifteen shillings by the year, and Walter has another virgate, and it is worth fifteen shillings, and Anser has a third virgate, and it is worth fifteen shillings by the year.

Willedenna.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Willedenna quam tenuit Normannus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ et Radulphus eam tenet de Odone. Ibi habet Radulphus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Illic habet Radulphus ii uillanos et i bordarium et i seruum et iiii animalia et viii porcos et x'iii oues et iii capras et v agros nemusculi et dimidiam agrum prati et xl pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (377) 354.

Odo has a manor called Willedenna, which Norman held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. And Radulf holds it of Odo. There Radulf has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and half a plough. There Radulf has two villeins, and one bordar, one hundred and ten swine. Formerly it was worth twenty-four pounds. Now it is worth twenty pounds.

Three Franks hold three virgates of this land. They are worth forty-five shillings.

Bocheland.

Almer tenet de Odone Bocheland. Gode tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi sunt iii caruæ et dimidia et ii serui et vi uillani et iii bordarii et ii acra prati et xxx acra pasturæ et xii acra siluæ. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (3); 34a.

Almer holds Bocheland of Odo. Gode held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and a half. There is land for four ploughs. There are three ploughs and a half, and two serfs, and six villeins, and three bordars, and two acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture, and twelve acres of wood. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Willedene.

Radulfus tenet de Odone Willedene. Norman tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia cum i seruo et ii uillanis et i bordario. Ibi dimidia acra prati et xl acra pasturæ et v acra siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (3); 34a.

Radulf holds Willedene of Odo. Norman held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough and a half, with one serf, and two villeins, and one bordar. There is half an acre of meadow, and there are forty acres of pasture, and five acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

and one serf, and four head of cattle, and eight swine, and eighteen [or thirteen] sheep, and three goats, and five acres of coppice, and half an acre of meadow, and forty of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Sireuilla.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Sireuilla quam tenuit Fitellus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ et Gislebertus eam tenet de Odone. Inde habet Gislebertus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Gislebertus i uillanum et i bordarium et v oues et i agrum prati et ualet per annum v solidos.—Exon. D. (377) 354.

Odo has a manor called Sirewilla, which Fitell held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. And Gislebert holds it of Odo. Gislebert has in demesne half a virgate and half a plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and half a plough. There Gislebert has one villein, and one bordar, and five sheep, and one acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year five shillings.

Limet.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Limet quam tenuerunt pariter iiii tagni ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare x carrucæ. Inde habet Odo uirgam et dimidiam et iiii carrucas in dominio et uillani habent iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Odo x uillanos et v bordarios et v seruos et xii animalia et roncinum et iii porcos et xxxvi oues et x agros nemoris et x prati et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando Odo recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (377) 354.

Odo has a manor called Limet, which four thegns held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Of it Odo has in demesne one virgate and a half and four ploughs, and the villeins have four ploughs. There Odo has ten villeins, and five bordars, and five serfs, and twelve head of cattle, and a packhorse, and three swine, and thirty-six sheep, and ten acres of wood, and ten of meadow; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Odo received it.

Sirewelle.

Gislebertus tenet de Odone Sirewelle. Vitalis tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et i uillano et una acra prati. Valet v solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (c); 34a.

Gislebert holds Sirewelle of Odo. Vitalis held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one serf, and one villen, and one acre of meadow. It is worth five shillings.

Limet.

Ipse Odo tenet Limet. Quattuor taini libere tenuerunt in paragio tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est x carucis. In dominio sunt iiii carucæ et v serui et x uillani et v bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi x acra prati et totidem siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (c); 34a.

Odo himself holds Limet. Four thegns held it freely in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne there are four ploughs, and five serfs, and ten villeins, and five bordars, with four ploughs. There are ten acres of meadow, and as many of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Hunitona.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hunitona quam tenuit Aluualdus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. In ea habet Odo i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent aliam carrucam. Ibi habet Odo iii uillanos et ii bordarios et vii agros prati et ualet per annum v solidos et quando Odo recepit ualebat ii solidos.—Exon. D. (354) 377b.

Odo has a manor called Hunitona, which Alwald held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of this Odo has in demesne one plough, and the villeins have the other plough. There Odo has three villeins, and two bordars, and seven acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth two shillings when Odo received it.

Alra.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Alra quam tenuit Godeua ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. In ea habet Odo ii carrucas et uillani habent i carrucam. Ibi habet Odo iiii uillanos et i bordarium et i seruum et vi animalia et xxxvi oues et iiii agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos. De prædicta dimidia uirga tenebat Eda i fertinum qui poterat ire cum sua terra ad quemlibet dominum ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Hanc potest i caruca arare.—Exon. D. (354) 377b.

Odo has a manor called Alra, which Godeua held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. In this Odo has two ploughs, and the villeins have one plough. There Odo has four villeins, and one bordar, and one serf, and six head of cattle, and thirty-six sheep, and four acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings. Of the aforesaid half virgate Eda held one ferling, who could go with his land to any lord soever on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. This can be ploughed by one plough.

Achia.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Achia quam tenuit Vithelet ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii

Hvñitone.

Ipse Odo tenet Hvñitone. Aluuoldus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum iii uillanis et ii bordariis. Ibi vii acræ prati. Olim ii solidos. Modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (3); 34a.

Odo himself holds Hvñitone. Alwold held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with three villeins and two bordars. There are seven acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth two shillings. Now it is worth five shillings.

Alre.

Ipse Odo tenet Alre. Godeua tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia uirgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi tamen sunt iii carucæ cum i seruo et iiii uillanis et i bordario. Ibi iiii acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ. Valet x solidos.

De hac terra unum ferling tenebat Edda tempore regis Eduuardi et poterat ire quo uolebat. Terra est i carucæ.—Exch. D. 116 (3); 34a.

Odo himself holds Alre. Godewa held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There are however three ploughs, with one serf, and four villeins, and one bordar. There are four acres of meadow and thirty acres of pasture. It is worth ten shillings.

Edda held one ferling of this land in the time of king Edward, and he could go where he liked. There is land for one plough.

Achie.

Aluui tenet de Odone Achie. Vitalis tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi sunt iii carucæ et iii seruo et iiii uillani et carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Aluuis de Odone. Inde habet Aluuis i uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani habent i carrucam. Ibi habet Aluuis iiii uillanos et iiii bordarios et iii seruos et xiiii animalia et iii porcos et xxx et viii oues et xxv capras et x agros nemoris et iiii agros prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Odo recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (354) 377b.

Odo has a manor called Achia, which Vithalet held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Alwis now holds it of Odo. Of this Alwis has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one plough. There Alwis has four villeins, and four bordars, and three serfs, and fourteen head of cattle, and three swine, and thirty-eight sheep, and twenty-five goats, and ten acres of wood, and four acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when Odo received it.

Stanlinz.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Stanlinz quam tenuit Alricus presbyter die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Odo dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et villani dimidiam hidam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Odo i uillanum et iiii bordarios et viii animalia et i porcum et lxxx oues et ii agros nemusculi et ii agros prati et ualet x solidos per annum. Et hæc est de mansione Honessam.—Exon. D. (354) 378.

Odo has a manor called Stanlinz, which Alric the priest held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of it Odo has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide and one plough. There Odo has one villen, and four bordars, and eight head of cattle, and one pig, and eighty sheep, and two acres of coppice, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings. And this is of Honessam manor.

Bredelia.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bredelia quam tenuit Oluuena ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Et Rainaldus eam tenet de Odone. Inde habet Rainaldus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Rainaldus ii uillanos iiii bordarii et iiii acræ prati et x acræ siluæ et xx acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (3); 34a.

Alwi holds Achie of Odo. Vitalis held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. There are three ploughs, and three serfs, and four villeins, and four bordars, and four acres of meadow, and ten acres of wood, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Stanlinz.

Ipse Odo tenet Stanlinz. Alric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i uillano et iiii bordariis. Ibi ii acræ prati et ii acræ siluæ minutæ. Valet x solidos.

Hæc terra est de Honesham manerio eius.—Exch. D. 116 (3); 34a.

Odo himself holds Stanlinz. Alric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one villein and four bordars. There are two acres of meadow and two acres of coppice. It is worth ten shillings.

This land is of his manor of Honesham.

Bredelie.

Rainaldus tenet de Odone Bredelie. Vluuene tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est vi carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia et iiii serui et ii uillani et i bordarius et ii acræ prati et x acræ siluæ minutæ et dimidia leuca pasturæ. Valet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (4); 34b.

et i bordarium et iiii seruos et x agros nemusculi et ii agros [prati] et dimidiam leugam pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos.—Exon. D. (355) 378.

Odo has a manor called Bredelia, which Olwena held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Rainald holds it of Odo. Of this Rainald has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and half a plough. There Rainald has two villeins, and one bordar, and four serfs, and ten acres of wood, and two acres [of meadow] and half a leuga of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings.

Hanberia.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hanberia quam tenuit Bristicus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro <sup>or</sup>iiii hidis. Has possunt arare xviii carrucæ. Inde habet Odo in dominio i hidam et ii carrucas et uillani iii hidas et x carrucas. Ibi habet Odo xxix uillanos et xi bordarios et ii porcarios qui reddunt per annum x porcos et vi seruos et i runcinum et vii animalia et v porcos et c oues et i molendinum qui [sic] reddit x solidos per annum et lxxx agros nemoris et x agros prati et l agros pascuæ et ualet per annum viii libras et quando recepit ualebat xi libras.

Et in ista mansione iacebat i hida ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et illa supradicta hida uocatur Scobaccoma. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ et eam tenet Ludo cum terra Walterii iniuste. Inde habet Ludo ii carrucas et vi uillanos et ualet per annum xxx solidos.—Exon. D. (355) 378.

Odo has a manor called Hanberia, which Bristic held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for four hides. These can be ploughed by eighteen [sic] ploughs. Of these Odo has in demesne one hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have three hides and ten ploughs. There Odo has twenty-nine villeins, and eleven bordars, and two swineherds, who render yearly ten swine, and six serfs, and one packhorse, and seven head of cattle, and five swine, and one hundred sheep, and a mill which renders ten shillings by the year, and eighty acres of wood, and ten acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year eight pounds, and it was worth eleven pounds when he received it.

And in that manor lay one hide on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and this hide aforesaid is called Rainald holds Bredelie of Odo. Vlwene held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for six ploughs. There is one plough and a half, and there are four serfs, and two villeins, and one bordar, and two acres of meadow, and ten acres of coppice, and half a leuca of pasture. It is worth twenty shillings.

Hanberie.

Ipsē Odo tenet Hanberie. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iiii hidis. Terra est xiiii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et xi bordarii et xxix uillani cum x carucis. Et ii porcarii reddentes x porcos. Ibi molinus reddens x solidos et x acræ prati et l acræ pasturæ et quater xx<sup>ii</sup> acræ siluæ. Olim xi libras. Modo ualet viii libras.

Huic manerio adiacebat una hida in Cobecvme tempore regis Eduuardi. Terra est iii carucis. Ludo tenet cum terra Walterii iniuste et ibi habet ii carucas et vi uillanos. Valet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (4); 34b.

Odo himself holds Hanberie. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for four hides. There is land for fourteen [sic] ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and eleven bordars, and twenty-nine villeins, with ten ploughs, and two swine-herds rendering ten swine. There is a mill rendering ten shillings, and there are ten acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and eighty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth eleven pounds. Now it is worth eight pounds.

One hide in Cobecombe lay adjoining this manor in the time of king Edward. There is land for three ploughs. Ludo holds it wrongly with the land of Walter, and he has two ploughs there and six villeins. It is worth thirty shillings.

Scobaccoma. This can be ploughed by three ploughs, and Ludo holds it wrongly with the land of Walter. There Ludo has two ploughs and six villeins; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings.

Plumtrei.

Odo habet i mansionem Plumtrei quam tenuit Bristicus eadem die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis et i uirga . . . Has possunt arare v carrucæ. De his habet Odo in dominio i hidam et ii carrucas et uillani i hidam et i uirgam et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Odo xv uillanos et iiii bordarios et iiii seruos et i runcinum et xiii animalia et xx oues et xx agros nemoris et xx agros prati et ualet per annum c solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (355) 378b.

Odo has a manor called Plumtrei, which Bristic held on the same day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides and one virgate. These can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of these Odo has in demesne one hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have one hide, and one virgate, and three ploughs. There Odo has fifteen villeins, and four bordars, and four serfs, and one pack-horse, and thirteen head of cattle, and twenty sheep, and twenty acres of wood, and twenty acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year one hundred shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Hillesdona.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hillesdona quam tenuit Siruuuadus die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc potest errare [sic] iii carrucæ et Rainaldus hanc tenet de Odone. Inde habet Rainaldus i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam. Ibi habet Rainaldus v uillanos et vii bordarios et i seruum et iii animalia et ii porcos et lxxx et vi oues et iii agros prati et vii quadragenarias pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (355) 378b.

Odo has a manor called Hillesdona, which Siruwald held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs, and Rainald holds this of Odo. Of it Rainald has one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate. There Rainald has five villeins, and seven bordars, and one serf, and three head of cattle, and two swine, and eighty-six sheep, and three acres of meadow,

Plvmtrei.

Ipse Odo tenet Plvmtrei. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis et una virgata terræ. Terra est v carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iiii serui et xv uillani et iiii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi xx acræ prati et xx acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet c solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (4); 34*b*.

Odo himself holds Plvmtrei. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides and one virgate of land. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and four serfs, and fifteen villeins, and four bordars, with three ploughs. There are twenty acres of meadow and twenty acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth one hundred shillings.

Hilesdone.

Rainaldus tenet de Odone Hilesdone. Sireuualdus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et v uillani et vii bordarii et iiii acræ prati et vii quarentenæ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (4); 34*b*.

Rainald holds Hilesdone of Odo. Sirewald held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There is one plough with one serf, and there are five villeins, and seven bordars, and three acres of meadow, and seven furlongs of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

and seven furlongs of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Labera.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Labera quam tenuit Etmarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare dimidia carruca. Et Hubertus eam tenet de Odone. Ibi habet Hubertus dimidiam carrucam et xv ones et v capras et iiii agros prati et ualet per annum iiii solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (355) 378b.

Odo has a manor called Labera, which Etmar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it paid geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by half a plough. And Hubert holds it of Odo. There Hubert has half a plough, and fifteen sheep, and five goats, and four acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year three shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Derta.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Derta quam tenuit Bristricus ea die qua Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et dimidia. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Odo dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Odo iiii uillanos et iiii bordarios et iiii seruos et v animalia et v agros prati et xl agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando Odo recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (355) 378b.

Odo has a manor called Derta, which Bristric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and a half. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of it Odo has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Odo has four villeins, and three bordars, and three serfs, and five head of cattle, and five acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when Odo received it.

Olurintona.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Olurintona quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i ferdino. Hanc potest arare dimidia carrucæ. Et Aluius tenet eam de Odone. Ibi habet

Labere.

Hubertus tenet de Odone Labere. Edmar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est dimidiæ carucæ quæ ibi est et iiii acræ prati. Olim et modo ualet iii solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (4); 34*b*.

Hubert holds Labere of Odo. Edmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for half a plough, which is there, and there are four acres of meadow. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth three shillings.

Derte.

Ipse Odo tenet Derte. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et iiii uillani et iii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi v acræ prati et xl acræ pasturæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (4); 34*b*.

Odo himself holds Derte. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and a half. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, and there are three serfs, and four villeins, and three bordars, with one plough. There are five acres of meadow and forty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Vlvrintone.

Aluui tenet de Odone Vlvrintone. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling terræ. Terra est dimidiæ carucæ. Valet xxx denarios.

Huic manerio addita est terra ix tainorum quam libere

Aluius dimidiam carrucam et ualet xxx denarios per annum.

Et huic mansioni addit . . . viiii tagni qui terram suam tenuerunt pariter ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare vi carrucæ. Ibi habet Aluius i uirgam et dimidium ferdinum et ii carrucas et uillani ii uirgas dimidium ferdinum minus et i carrucam et dimidiam. In istis habet Aluius xii uillanos et iii bordarios et i seruum et xxvii animalia et iii porcos et xlv oues et v agros nemusculi et xii agros prati et xxx agros communis pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.

Et cum istis sunt coniunctæ duæ aliæ mansiones quas tenuerunt ii tagni pariter ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii uirgis. Has possunt arare iii carrucæ et ualet per annum x solidos.—Exon. D. (356) 379.

Odo has a manor called Olurintona, which Aluric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling. This can be ploughed by half a plough. And Alui holds it of Odo. There Alui has half a plough, and it is worth by the year thirty pence. And to this manor is add . . . nine thegns, who held their land in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. There Alui has one virgate, and half a ferling, and two ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates less half a ferling, and one plough and a half. Of these Alui has twelve villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and twenty-seven head of cattle, and three swine, and forty-five sheep, and five acres of coppice, and twelve acres of meadow, and thirty acres of common pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

And two other manors are added to these, which two thegns held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and they paid geld for two virgates. These can be ploughed by three ploughs, and they are worth ten shillings by the year.

Amongst the Terræ Occupatæ in Deuenescira the following referring to this manor occurs:

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Olurintona. Huic addita sunt terræ novem tagnorum qui cum terris suis poterant ire ad quemlibet dominum die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Has tenet Alueius de Odone et ualet per annum xxx solidos. Et cum istis sunt additæ duæ aliæ mansiones quas tenuerunt duo tagni qui cum terris suis poterant ire ad tenebat in paragio tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est vi carucis. Ibi habet Aluui iii carucas et dimidiam cum i seruo et xii uillanis et iii bordariis. Ibi xii acræ prati et v acræ siluæ minutæ et xxx acræ communis pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (4); 34b.

Eidem etiam manerio iunctæ sunt ii virgatæ terræ. Duo taini in paragio tenebant tempore regis Eduuardi pro ii maneriis. Terra est iii carucis. Valet x solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (4); 34b.

Alwi holds Vlvrintone of Odo. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling of land. There is land for half a plough. It is worth thirty pence.

To this manor is added the land of nine thegns, which they held freely in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for six ploughs. Alwi has three ploughs and a half there, with one serf, and twelve villeins, and three bordars. There are twelve acres of meadow, and five acres of coppice, and thirty acres of common pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty shillings.

Two virgates of land are also joined to the same manor. Two thegns held them in partage in the time of king Edward as two manors. There is land for three ploughs. Worth ten shillings.

quemlibet dominum die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et ualet per annum x solidos.—Exon. D. (364); 501.

Odo has a manor called Olurintona. To this are added the lands of nine thegns, who could go with their lands to any lord on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. Aluei holds these of Odo, and they are worth by the year thirty shillings. And two other manors are added to these, which two thegns held, who could go with their lands to any lord the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and they are worth by the year ten shillings.

Cilletona.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cilletona quam tenuit Ailmarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Odo i ferlinum et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i ferlinum et i carrucam. Ibi habet Odo ii uillanos et ii bordarios et iii seruos et i roncinum et iii animalia et xxxviii oues et v agros nemoris et i agrum prati et v agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Odo recepit v solidos.—Exon. D. (356) 379.

Odo has a manor called Cilletona, which Ailmar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of it Odo has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have one ferling and one plough. There Odo has two villeins, and two bordars, and three serfs, and one packhorse, and three head of cattle, and thirty-eight sheep, and five acres of wood, and one acre of meadow, and five acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Odo received it.

Honessam.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Honessam quam tenuit Alricus presbyter ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ. Inde habet in dominio i uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani iii uirgas et v carrucas. Ibi habet Odo xx uillanos et iiii bordarios et ii seruos et i porcarium qui reddit v porcos et x animalia et v porcos et lxxv oues et vi capras et l agros nemoris et vi agros prati et xv agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (356) 379b.

Cilletone.

Ipse Odo tenet Cilletone. Ailmar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iii serui et ii uillani et ii bordarii et i acra prati et v acræ pasturæ et totidem siluæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (4); 34*b*.

Odo himself holds Cilletone. Ailmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, and three serfs, and two villeins, and two bordars, and one acre of meadow, and five acres of pasture, and as many of wood. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Honesham.

Ipse Odo tenet Honesham. Alric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et xx uillani et iiii bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi vi acræ prati et xv acræ pasturæ et l acræ siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (4); 34*b*.

Odo has a manor called Honessam, which Alric the priest held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Of it Odo has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have three virgates and five ploughs. There Odo has twenty villeins, and four bordars, and two serfs, and one swineherd, who renders five swine, and ten head of cattle, and five swine, and seventy-five sheep, and six goats, and fifty acres of wood, and six acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he received it.

Willelanda.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Willelanda quam tenuit Etmarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Et Vitalis eam tenet de Odone. Inde habet Vitalis in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani iii uirgas et i carrucam. Ibi habet Vitalis viii uillanos et iii bordarios et i seruum et iiii animalia et ii porcos et xxxiii oues et i molendinum qui [sic] reddit xl denarios per annum et iiii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et i quadragenariam in latitudine et iii quadragenarias pratorum in longitudine et i quadragenariam et dimidiam in latitudine et viii quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et iii quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (356) 379b.

Odo has a manor called Willelanda, which Etmar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. And Vitalis holds it of Odo. Of it Vitalis has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have three virgates and one plough. There Vitalis has eight villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and four head of cattle, and two swine, and thirty-four sheep, and a mill that renders forty pence by the year, and wood four furlongs in length and one furlong in width, and meadow three furlongs in length and one furlong and a half in width, and pasture eight furlongs in length and three furlongs in width; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Odo himself holds Honesham. Alric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and twenty villeins, and four bordars, with five ploughs. There are six acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture, and fifty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Willelande.

Vttalis tenet de Odone Willelande. Edmer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est vi carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ cum i seruo et viii uillani et iii bordarii. Et molinus reddens xl denarios. Pratum iii quarentenæ longitudine et i quarentena et dimidia latitudine. Pastura viii quarentenæ longitudine et iii quarentenæ latitudine. Silua iiii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim et modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (4); 34*b*.

Vttalis holds Willelande of Odo. Edmer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for six ploughs. There are two ploughs, with one serf, and eight villeins, and three bordars. And a mill rendering forty pence. Meadow three furlongs in length and one furlong and a half in width. Pasture eight furlongs in length and three furlongs in width. Wood four furlongs in length and one furlong in width. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth forty shillings.

Terræ Francorum Militum in Debenesira.

Patforda.

Osbernus de Salceit habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Patforda quam tenuit Godricus ea die qua rex Edunardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Odo dimidiam uirgam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Osbernus vi uillanos et i seruum et xii agros prati et xx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xx solidos et quando Osbernus recepit ualebat tantundem. Et hæc mansio debet dominice mansioni regis quæ uocatur Tauetona per annum aut xxx denarios aut i bouem de consuetudine.—Exon. D. (456) 421.

Lands of the Soldiers of the Franks in Devonshire.

Osbern of Salceit has a manor called Patforda, which Godric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of it Osbern has in demesne half a virgate, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Osbern has six villeins, and one serf, and twelve acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when Osbern received it. And this manor owes by custom yearly to the demesne manor of the king called Tauetona, thirty pence or one ox.

Patford is also found under the Terræ Occupatæ in Deuenescira as follows:

Osbernus de Salceit habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Patforda quam tenuit i tagnus pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddebat dominice mansioni regis quæ uocatur Tauetona i bouem aut xxx denarios per annum de consuetudine et postquam Osbernus eam tenuit non habuit rex consuetudinem suam.—Exon. D. (496) 458.

Osbern of Salceit has a manor called Patford, which a thegn held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld to the demesne manor of the king called Tauetona one ox or thirty pence yearly by custom, and since Osbern has held it the king has not had his custom.

XLIV. Terra Osberní de Salceid.

Patford.

Osbernvs de Salceid tenet de rege Patford. Godric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est v carucis. Ibi vi uillani cum i seruo habent i carucam. Ibi xii acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.

Hæc terra debet per annum de consuetudine aut i bouem aut xxx denarios in Tauetone manerio regis—Exch. D. 116 (4); 34*b*.

XLIV. The Land of Osbern of Salceid.

Osbern de Salceid holds Patford of the king. Godric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for five ploughs. There are six villeins, with one serf, having one plough. There are twelve acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

This land owes yearly by custom to the king's manor of Tauetone either one ox or thirty pence.

Clist.

Osbernus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Clist quam tenuit Ultretus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii hidis et i uirga. Has possunt arare viii carrucæ. Inde habet Osbernus in dominio i hidam et dimidiam et i carrucam et uillani i hidam et iii uirgas et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Osbernus iii uillanos et vi bordarios et ii seruos et viii animalia et ii porcos et lxi oues et xxvii capras et xxvi agros nemoris et xl agros prati et lx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando recepit ualebat xv solidos.—Exon. D. (457b) 422.

Osbern has a manor called Clist, which Ultret held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three hides and one virgate. These can be ploughed by eight ploughs. Of these Osbern has in demesne one hide and a half and one plough, and the villeins have one hide, and three virgates, and three ploughs. There Osbern has three villeins, and six bordars, and two serfs, and eight head of cattle, and two swine, and sixty-one sheep, and twenty-seven goats, and twenty-six acres of wood, and forty acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth fifteen shillings when he received it.

Seluestan.

Osbernus de Salceio habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Seluestan quam tenuit Edritius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Osbernus dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani eius habent i carrucam. Ibi Osbernus habet ii uillanos [sic] et ii bordarios et ii seruos et xiiii animalia et xi porcos et x capras et viii agros prati et xl agros pascuæ et ualet per annum <sup>x solidos</sup> xx solidos et quando Osbernus recepit ualebat tantundem x solidos.

Huic mansioni adiacebat i uirga terræ ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et nemo tenet eam modo et manent duo uillani in ea et ualet per annum iii solidos.—Exon. D. (458) 423.

Osbern of Salceio has a manor called Seluestan, which Edrit held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of it Osbern has half a virgate and two ploughs, and his villeins have one plough. There Osbern has two villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, and fourteen head of cattle, and eleven swine, and ten goats, and eight acres of meadow, and forty Clist.

Ipse Osbernus tenet Clist. Vctred tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis et una virgata terræ. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et iii uillani et vi bordarii cum vi [sic] carucis. Ibi xl acræ prati et lx acræ pasturæ et xxvi acræ siluæ. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (4); 34*b*.

Osbern himself holds Clist. Vctred held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides and one virgate of land. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, and there are two serfs, and three villeins, and six bordars, with six ploughs. There are forty acres of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture, and twenty-six acres of wood. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Selvestan.

Ipse Osbernus tenet Selvestan. Edric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et ii uillani et ii bordarii cum i caruca. Ibi viii acræ prati et xl acræ pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.

Huic manerio adjacebat una virgata terræ tempore regis Eduuardi. Nemo tenet eam. Ibi sunt ii uillani. Valet iii solidos.—Exch. D. 116 (4); 34*b*.

Osbern himself holds Selvestan. Edric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and two serfs, and two villeins, and two bordars, with one plough. There are eight acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Osbern received it.

One virgate of land belonged to this manor on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and no one holds it now, and two villeins remain in it; and it is worth by the year three shillings.

Lanforda.

Osbernus de Salceio habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lanforda quam tenuit Leuegarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Ibi est i carruca et ii uillani et i bordarius et v agros nemoris et v agros prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Osbernus accepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (458) 423.

Osbern of Salceio has a manor called Lanforda, which Leuegar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. There is one plough, and there are two villeins, and one bordar, and five acres of wood, and five acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Osbern received it.

Ainechesdona.

Osbernus de Salceit habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ainechesdona quam tenuit Frauinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et dimidia. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Osbernus dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i hidam et v carrucas. Ibi habet Osbernus xv uillanos et iiii bordarios et ii seruos et v animalia et cxxv berbices et xii agros nemoris et viii agros prati et xl agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xl solidos et quando Osbernus recepit xx solidos.—Exon. D. (460) 425.

Osbern of Salceit has a manor called Ainechesdona, which Frawin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and a half. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of it Osbern has in demesne half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have one hide and five ploughs. There Osbern has fifteen villeins, and four bordars, and two serfs, and five head of cattle, and one hundred and twenty-five wether sheep, and twelve acres of wood, and eight acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when Osbern received it.

One virgate of land lay near to this manor in the time of king Edward. No one holds it. There are two villeins. It is worth three shillings.

Lanford.

Ipse Osbernus tenet Lanford. Leuegar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et ii uillani cum i bordario. Et v acræ prati et totidem siluæ et xx acræ pasturæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (1); 35a.

Osbern himself holds Lanford. Leuegar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, and there are two villeins, with one bordar. And five acres of meadow, and as many of wood, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Ainichesdone.

Ipse Osbernus tenet Ainichesdone. Frauuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida et dimidia. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et xv uillani et iii [sic] bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi viii acræ prati et xii acræ siluæ et xl acræ pasturæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.

Ipse Osbernus habet in Excestre i domum de qua detinetur consuetudo regis hoc est viii denarii.—Exch. D. 117 (1); 35a.

Osbern himself holds Ainichesdone. Frawin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and a half. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, and there are two serfs, and fifteen villeins, and three bordars, with five ploughs. There are eight acres of meadow, and twelve acres of wood, and forty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Osbern himself has a house in Exeter, on which the king's custom, that is, eight pence, is withheld.

Essetona.

Uxor Hervei habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Essetona. Huic addita sunt duæ aliæ mansiones quæ non pertinuerunt huic prædictæ mansioni tempore regis Eduuardi. Has tenuerunt ii tagni pariter die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et ualent per [annum] xx solidos.—Exon. D. (498b) 461.

The wife of Hervei has a manor called Essetona. Two other manors are added to this, which did not belong to the aforesaid manor in the time of king Edward. Two thegns held these in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and they are worth by [the year] twenty shillings.

XLV. *Terra Hervei de Helion.Essestone.

Uxor Hervei de Helion tenet de rege Essestone. Almer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida et ii ferlings. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi iiii uillani et iiii bordarii cum i seruo habentes ii carucas. Ibi ii acræ prati et xl acræ pasturæ et totidem siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.

Huic manerio additæ sunt ii virgatæ terræ et dimidium ferling. Duo taini tenebant in paragio tempore regis Eduuardi pro ii maneriis. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi iii uillani et ii bordarii habentes i carucam. Ibi i porcarius reddens iiii porcos. Ibi ii acræ prati et x acræ siluæ et xl acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.

Has tres terras habet uxor Heruei pro uno manerio.—Exch. D. 117 (1); 35a.

XLV. The Land of Hervei de Helion.

The wife of Herveus de Helion holds Essestone of the king. Almer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and two ferlings. There is land for three ploughs. There are four villeins, and four bordars, with one serf, having two ploughs. There are two acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture, and as many of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

Two virgates of land and half a ferling have been added to this manor. Two thegns held it in partage as two manors in the time of king Edward. There is land for three ploughs. There are three villeins, and two bordars, having one plough. There is one swineherd rendering four swine. There are two acres of meadow, and ten acres of wood, and forty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

The wife of Herveus has these three lands as one manor.

Hachevrde.

Ipsa tenet Hachevrde. Edric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum iii uillanis et ii bordariis et ii seruis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et xxiii acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.

Escapeleia.

Girolodus capellanus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Escapeleia quam tenuit i tagnus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et i ferlino. Hæc mansio debet dominice mansioni regis quæ uocatur Taetona per annum x solidos de consuetudine.—Exon. D. (456) 421.

Girolod the chaplain has a manor called Escapeleia, which a thegn held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and one ferling. This manor owes by custom to the demesne of the king's manor, called Taetona, ten shillings yearly.

Among the Terræ Occupatæ in Devenescira the following occurs referring to this manor :

Girolodus capellanus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Escapeleia quam tenuit i tagnus pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus sed tamen reddebat dominice mansioni regis quæ uocatur Taestone x solidos per annum de consuetudine et postquam Girolodus eam tenuit non habuit rex inde consuetudine suam.—Exon. D. (496) 458.

Girolod the chaplain has a manor called Escapeleia, which a thegn held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, but nevertheless it rendered by custom to the demesne of the king's manor called Taetona ten shillings yearly, and since Girolod held it the king has not had his custom thence.

Has terras tenet vxor Hervei pro excambio Cillitone.—
Exch. D. 117 (1); 35a.

She herself holds Hachevrde. Edric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with three villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs. There are four acres of meadow and twenty-four acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

The wife of Herveus holds these lands in exchange for Cillitone.

XLVI. Terra Girolði Capellani.

Scapellie.

Gioldus Capellanus tenet de rege Scapellie. Vnus tainus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et uno ferling. Hæc terra debet x solidos in Tauestone manerio regis per consuetudinem.—Exch. D. 117 (1); 35a.

XLVI. The Land of Giold the Chaplain.

Giold the chaplain holds Scapellie of the king. One thegn held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and one ferling. This land owes by custom ten shillings to Tauestone, a manor belonging to the king.

Bicatona.

Girolodus capellanus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bicatona quam tenuit Godo presbyter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii partibus i uirgæ. Hanc terram possunt arare iii carrucæ. Ibi habet Godo viii bordarios et ii seruos et i carrucam in dominio et uillani ii carrucas. Ibi habet Godo xx animalia et lx oues et ii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et i in latitudine et v agros prati et ii quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et i in latitudine. Hæc reddit xx solidos et quando Godo recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (456) 421.

Girolod the chaplain has a manor called Bicatona, which Godo the priest held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two parts of one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. There Godo has in demesne eight bordars, and two serfs, and one plough, and the villeins have two ploughs. There Godo has twenty head of cattle, and sixty sheep, and wood two furlongs in length, and one in width, and five acres of meadow, and pasture two furlongs in length and one in width; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when Godo received it.

Nistenestoc.

Girolodus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Nistenestoc quam tenuerunt canonici eiusdem mansionis ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Hanc possunt arare xii carrucæ quæ ibi sunt. Has tenent ipsi xii canonici de Geroldo qui eas antea tenuerunt <sup>reddiderunt</sup> et valet per annum xl solidos ipsi Geroldo.—Exon. D. (456) 421.

Girolod has a manor called Nistenestoc, which the canons of the same manor held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by twelve ploughs, which are there. The same twelve canons who held them before hold these of Girolod, and they render forty shillings to Girolod himself yearly.

Bichetone.

Ipse Gioldus tenet Bichetone. Gode tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii partibus unius virgatæ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum ii seruis et viii bordariis. Ibi v acra prati et pastura ii quarentenæ longitudine et i quarentena latitudine et totidem siluæ.—Exch. D. 117 (1); 35a.

Giold himself holds Bichetone. Gode held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two parts of one virgate. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, with two serfs, and eight bordars. There are five acres of meadow, and pasture two furlongs in length and one furlong in width, and as many of wood.

Nistenestoch.

Ipse Gioldus tenet Nistenestoch et canonici eiusdem loci de eo. Ipsi tenebant tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est xii carucis et tot ibi sunt. Valet Gioldo per annum xl solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (1); 35a.

Giold himself holds Nistenestoch, and the canons of the same place hold it of him. They held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for twelve ploughs, and so many are there. It is worth to Giold forty shillings a year.

Manelia.

Girardus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Manelia quam tenuit Alestantilia ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Girardus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Girardus iiii uillanos et iii bordarios et vii porcos et xl oues et iiii agros nemoris et v agros prati et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit v solidos.—Exon. D. (459) 424.

Girard has a manor called Manelia, which Alestantilia held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of it Girard has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Girard has four villeins, and three bordars, and seven swine, and forty sheep, and four acres of wood, and five acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when he received it.

Nohecota.

Girardus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Nohecota quam tenuit Alestilla ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Girolodus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et . . . Ibi habet Girolodus i uillanum et iiii bordarios et i seruum et l oues et xv capras et v agros nemusculi et v agros prati et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit v solidos.—Exon. D. (459b) 424.

Girard has a manor called Nohecota, which Alestilla held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of it Girolod has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and . . . There Girolod has one villein, and four bordars, and one serf, and fifty sheep, and fifteen goats, and five acres of coppice, and five acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when he received it.

XLVII. Terra Girardi.

Manelie.

Girardus tenet de rege Manelie. Alestan tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum iiii uillanis et iii bordariis. Ibi v acræ prati et iiii acræ siluæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (1); 35a.

XLVII. The Land of Girard.

Girard holds Manelie of the king. Alestan held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with four villeins, and three bordars. There are five acres of meadow and four acres of wood. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Nohecote.

Ipsè Girard tenet Nohecote. Alestan tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et i uillano et iiii bordariis. Ibi v acræ prati et v acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (1); 35a.

Girard himself holds Nohecote. Alestan held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one serf, and one villein, and four bordars. There are five acres of meadow, and five acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Hela.

Godeboldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hela quam tenuit Olfus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro uirga et dimidia. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Ibi habet Godeboldus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et ii carrucas. In ista habet Godeboldus iiii uillanos et iiii bordarios et vi animalia et i agrum prati et ii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (468) 433.

Godebold has a manor called Hela, which Olf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for a virgate and a half. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. There Godebold has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and two ploughs. In this Godebold has four villeins, and four bordars, and six head of cattle, and one acre of meadow, and two acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Hoca.

Godeboldus Arbalestarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hoca quam tenuit Ulfus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Ibi habet Godeboldus vi agros prati et lxxx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet iiii solidos et quando Godeboldus recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (468) 433.

Godebold the Arbalister has a manor called Hoca, which Ulf held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. There Godebold has six acres of meadow and eighty acres of pasture. This is worth by the year four shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Godebold received it.

Brisforda.

Godeboldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Brisforda quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Ibi habet Godeboldus ii bordarios et i XLVIII. Terra Godeboldi.Hela.

Godeboldvs tenet de rege Hela. Vlf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iiii uillani et iiii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi i acra prati et ii acræ pasturæ. Valet x solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (1); 35a.

XLVIII. The Land of Godebold.

Godebold holds Hela of the king. Vlf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and a half. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, and there are four villeins, and four bordars, with two ploughs. There is one acre of meadow, and two acres of pasture. It is worth ten shillings.

Hoche.

Ipse Godeboldvs tenet Hoche. Vlf tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi sunt vi acræ prati et quater xx acræ pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet iiii solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (1); 35a.

Godebold himself holds Hoche. Vlf held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There are six acres of meadow and eighty of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth four shillings.

Brisforde.

Ipse Godeboldvs tenet Brisforde. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii bordarii cum i seruo. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (1); 35a.

seruum et xxvii oues et vi agros nemoris [et] vi agros prati. Hæc reddit xx solidos et quando Godeboldus recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (468) 433.

Godebold has a manor called Brisforda, which Alaric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. There Godebold has two bordars, and one serf, and twenty-seven sheep, and six acres of wood, [and] six acres of meadow. This renders [by the year] twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Godebold received it.

Neuuentona.

Idem Godeboldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Neuuentona quam tenuit Aluricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Ibi habet Godeboldus ii uillanos qui habent i carrucam et ibi habet Godeboldus i agrum prati et x agros pascuæ et reddit per annum vii solidos et vi denarios et quando Godeboldus recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (468) 433.

The same Godebold has a manor called Newentona, which Aluric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. There Godebold has two villeins, who have one plough, and Godebold has there one acre of meadow and ten acres of pasture; and it renders by the year seven shillings and sixpence, and it was worth five shillings when Godebold received it.

Leuga.

Godeboldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Leuga et reddit gildum pro iii uirgis quam tenuit Alstus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ. Inde habet Godeboldus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani i uirgam et i ferdinum et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Godeboldus x uillanos et v bordarios et ii cotarios et ii seruos et xv animalia et vi porcos et cxx oues et l capras et i uirgam nemoris et x agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum iii libras et quando recepit ualebat xl solidos.—Exon. D. (468b) 433.

Godebold has a manor called Leuga, which Alst held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs.

Godebold himself holds Brisforde. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There are two bordars, with one serf. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Newentone.

Ipse Godeboldvs tenet Newentone. Aluric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi ii uillani habent i carucam et una acra prati et x acræ pasturæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet vi solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 117 (1); 35a.

Godebold himself holds Newentone. Aluric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There two villeins have one plough, and there is one acre of meadow, and ten acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth six shillings and sixpence.

Levge.

Ipse Godeboldvs tenet Levge. Alsī tenebat [tempore regis Eduuardi] et geldabat pro iii uirgatis terræ. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et x uillani et v bordarii et ii cotarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi x acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ et una virgata siluæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet lx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (1); 35a.

Godebold himself holds Levge. Alsī held it [in the time of king Edward], and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and it Godebold has in demesne half a virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate, and one ferling, and four ploughs. There Godebold has ten villeins, and five bordars, and two cotters, and two serfs, and fifteen head of cattle, and six swine, and one hundred and twenty sheep, and fifty goats, and one virgate of wood, and ten acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year three pounds, and it was worth forty shillings when he received it.

Leualiga.

Godeboldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Leualiga quam tenuit Alsus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Godeboldus in dominio i ferdinum et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et dimidiam. In ista habet Godeboldus ii uillanos et iiii bordarios et ii seruos et clx oues et xx capras et i ferdinum nemusculi et ii agros prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit x solidos.—Exon. D. (468b) 434.

Godebold has a manor called Leueliga, which Alsi held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of it Godebold has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough and a half. Godebold has in it two villeins, and four bordars, and two serfs, and one hundred and sixty sheep, and twenty goats, and one ferling of coppice, and two acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

Molacota.

Godeboldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Molacota quam tenuit Algerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Godeboldus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Godeboldus v uillanos et ii bordarios et ii seruos et iiii animalia et lx oues et i agrum prati et x agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xx solidos et quando Godeboldus recepit ualebat x solidos.

De supradicta dimidia hida tenuit quidam tegnus i ferlinum ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et potuit ire ad quemlibet dominum. Ibi habet Godeboldus i bordarium et alia terra iacet uastata ad pasturam.—Exon. D. (469) 434.

two serfs, and ten villeins, and five bordars, and two cottars, with four ploughs. There are ten acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture, and one virgate of wood. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth sixty shillings.

Lebelege.

Ipse Godeboldvs tenet Levelege. Alsi tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et dimidia et ii serui et ii uillani et iiii bordarii et ii acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ et unum ferling siluæ minutæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (2); 35*b*.

Godebold himself holds Levelege. Alsi held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs. There are two ploughs and a half, and two serfs, and two villeins, and four bordars, and two acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture, and one ferling of coppice. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Molecote.

Ipse Godeboldvs tenet Molecote. Alcher tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et v uillani et ii bordarii et una acra prati et x acræ pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.

De hac terra tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi unus tainus unum ferling. Ibi est unus bordarius.—Exch. D. 117 (2); 35*b*.

Godebold has a manor called Molacota, which Alger held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of it Godebold has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Godebold has five villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, and four head of cattle, and sixty sheep, and one acre of meadow, and ten acres of pasture. This is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Godebold received it.

Of the abovenamed half hide a certain thegn held one ferling on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and he could go to any lord whomsoever. Godebold has one bordar there, and the other land lies waste to pasture.

Saterleia.

Godeboldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Saterleia quam tenuit Olnodus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Godeboldus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Godeboldus vi uillanos et ii bordarios et ii seruos et iii animalia et lvii oues et x agros nemoris et iiii agros prati et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxv solidos et quando recepit xx solidos.—Exon. D. (469) 434.

Godebold has a manor called Saterleia, which Olnod held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of it Godebold has in demesne half a virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Godebold has six villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, and three head of cattle, and fifty-seven sheep, and ten acres of wood, and four acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty-five shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he received it.

Borna.

Godeboldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Borna quam tenuit Chippinus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare dimidia carruca. Ibi habet Godeboldus dimidiam carrucam et iiii seruos et ualet per annum vi solidos.—Exon. D. (469b) 434.

Godebold has a manor called Borna, which Chippin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered Godebold himself holds Molecote. Alcher held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. There are two ploughs, and two serfs, and five villeins, and two bordars, and one acre of meadow, and ten acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

A thegn held one ferling of this land in the time of king Edward. There is one bordar.

Saterlei.

Ipse Godeboldvs tenet Saterlei. Vlnod tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est v carucis. Ibi sunt iii carucæ et ii serui et vi uillani et ii bordarii. Ibi iiii acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ et totidem siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xxv solidos. —Exch. D. 117 (2); 35*b*.

Godebold himself holds Saterlei. Vlnod held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for five ploughs. There are three ploughs, and two serfs, and six villeins, and two bordars. There are four acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture, and as many of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth twenty-five shillings.

Bvrne.

Ipse Godeboldvs tenet Bvrne. Chiping tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est dimidiæ carucæ. Ibi iiii serui. Valet vi solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (2); 35*b*.

Godebold himself holds Bvrne. Chiping held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by half a plough. There Godebold has half a plough and four serfs; and it is worth by the year six shillings.

Heierda.

Godeboldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Heierda quam tenuit Chippinus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare dimidia carruca. Et Ricardus tenet eam de Godeboldo. Ibi habet Ricardus ii uillanos qui habent dimidiam carrucam et ualet per annum v solidos.—Exon. D. (469b) 435.

Godebold has a manor called Heierda, which Chippin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by half a plough. And Richard holds it of Godebold. There Richard has two villeins, who have half a plough; and it is worth by the year five shillings.

Cliforda.

Godeboldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cliforda quam tenuit Adredus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Godeboldus in dominio i uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani i uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Godeboldus v uillanos et iii bordarios et iii seruos et lx oues et xx agros nemoris et iii agros prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet xx solidos per annum et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (470) 435.

Godebold has a manor called Cliforda, which Adred held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of it Godebold has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate and two ploughs. There Godebold has five villeins, and three bordars, and three serfs, and sixty sheep, and twenty acres of wood, and three acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Halestou.

Godeboldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Halestou quam tenuit Alredus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Godeboldus in dominio is land for half a plough. There are four serfs. It is worth six shillings.

Heierde.

Ipse Godeboldvs tenet Heierde. Chiping tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est dimidæ carucæ. Hanc habent ibi ii uillani. Valet v solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (2); 35*b*.

Godebold himself holds Heierde. Chiping held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for half a plough. This two villeins have there. It is worth five shillings.

Cliforde.

Ipse Godeboldvs tenet Cliforde. Edredus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et v uillani et iii bordarii cum ii carucis. Ibi iii acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ et xx acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (2); 35*b*.

Godebold himself holds Cliforde. Edred held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and three serfs, and five villeins, and three bordars, with two ploughs. There are three acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture, and twenty acres of wood. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth twenty shillings.

Alestob.

Ipse Godeboldvs tenet Alestov. Aldredus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est vi carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et v uillani et v bordarii et iiii acræ prati et iii acræ siluæ et xx acræ i uirgam et i carrucam uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet v uillanos et v bordarios et ii seruos et vii animalia et lxiii oues et iii agros nemoris et iiii prati et xx pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (470) 435.

Godebold has a manor called Halestou, which Alred held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of it Godebold has in demeane one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Godebold has five villeins, and five bordars, and two serfs, and seven head of cattle, and sixty-three sheep, and three acres of wood, and four acres of meadow, and twenty of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Witechenolla.

Godeboldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Witechenolla quam tenuit Chipinus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et dimidia. Has possunt arare ii carrucæ. Et Iachelinus eam tenet de Godeboldo. Inde habet Iachelinus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Iachelinus ii uillanos et iii bordarios et i seruum et xv animalia et iiii agros nemusculi et v agros prati et iii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat xxx denarios.—Exon. D. (471b) 436.

Godebold has a manor called Witechenolla, which Chipping held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and a half. These can be ploughed by two ploughs. And Iachelin holds it of Godebold. Of them Iachelin has in demeane one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and two ploughs. There Iachelin has two villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and fifteen head of cattle, and four acres of coppice, and five acres of meadow, and three acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth thirty pence when he received it.

Leuendona.

Godeboldus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Leuendona quam tenuerunt duo tegni pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rainerus de Gudebaldo. Inde habet Rainerus dimidiam uirgam in pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (2); 35*℔*.

Godebold himself holds Alestov. Aldred held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for six ploughs. There are two ploughs, and two serfs, and five villeins, and five bordars, and four acres of meadow, and three acres of wood, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth fifteen shillings.

Witthechenolle.

Lachelinus tenet de Godeboldo Witthechenolle. Chipping tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi tamen sunt iii carucæ cum i seruo et ii uillani et iiii bordarii et v acræ prati et iii acræ pasturæ. Olim xxx denarios. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (2); 35*℔*.

Lachelin holds Witthechenolle of Godebold. Chipping held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and a half. There is land for two ploughs. There are, however, three ploughs, with one serf, and there are two villeins, (sic) and four bordars, and five acres of meadow, and three acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth thirty pence. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Lewendone.

Rainerus tenet de Godeboldo Lewendone. Duo taini tenebant in paragio tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi iiii uillani et ii bordarii cum i seruo habent i carucam. Ibi iiii acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.

dominio. Et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Rainerus iiii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et iiii agros prati et xx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Godeboldus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (472b) 438.

Godebold has a manor called Lewendona, which two thegns held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Rainer holds this of Gudebald. Of it Rainer has in demesne half a virgate, and the villeins have one virgate and a half and one plough. There Rainer has four villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and four acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. This is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Godebold received it.

Among the Terræ Occupatæ in Devenescira the following, referring to this same manor, occurs:

Godeboldus archibalistarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Leuendona. Huic addita est i uirga terræ quam tenuit i tagnus pariter die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Hanc tenet Rainerus de Godeboldo et ualet per annum v solidos.—Exon. D. (502) 465.

Godebold the chief balister has a manor called Leuendona. To this is added a virgate of land, which a thegn held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. This Rainer holds of Godebold, and it is worth yearly five shillings.

Godeboldus archibalistarius habet duas domos in Exonia quas reddiderunt de consuetudine xvi denarios per annum tempore regis Eduuardus quos rex Willielmus nunquam habuit.—Exon. D. (469) 506.

Godebold the chief balister has two houses in Exeter, which rendered yearly sixteen pence by custom in the time of king Edward, which king William never had.

Ipse Godeboldvs habet ii domus in Exceestre quæ reddebant per consuetudinem tempore regis Eduuardi xvi denarios.—Exch. D. 117 (2); 35*b*.

Rainer holds Lewendone of Godebold. Two thegns held it in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. There four villeins, and two bordars, with one serf, have one plough. There are four acres of meadow and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

Godebold himself has two houses in Exeter, which rendered by custom in the time of king Edward sixteen pence.

Wibeberia.

Nicholaus archibalistarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wibeberia quam tenuit Odritius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Modo tenet Regerus Aculeus de Nicholao. Inde habet Regerus i uirgam et dimidiam in dominio et i carrucam. Ibi habet Nicholaus iiii bordarios et xxx oues et iiii agros nemoris et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando Nicholaus recepit ualebat xii denarios.—Exon. D. (468b) 433.

Nicholas the chief balister has a manor called Wibeberia, which Odrit held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Now Reger Sharp holds it of Nicholas. Of it Reger has in demesne one virgate and a half and one plough. There Nicholas has four bordars, and thirty sheep, and four acres of wood, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth twelve pence when Nicholas received it.

Grenneliza.

Nicolaus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Grenneliza quam tenuerunt iiii tagni pariter ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii uirgis. Has possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Nicolaus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani ii uirgas et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Nicolaus iiii uillanos et iii bordarios et i seruum et ii agras prati et ualet xx solidos per annum et quando recepit ualebat x solidos.

Istam mansionem habet Nicolaus pro escanbiis.—Exon. D. (469b) 435.

Nicholas has a manor called Grenneliza, which four thegns held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two virgates. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of it Nicholas has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have two virgates and two ploughs. There Nicholas has four villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and two acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

Nicholas has this manor by exchange.

XLIX. Terra Nicolai Balistarii.

Wiberie.

Nicolavs tenet de rege Wiberie. Ordric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi iiii bordarii habent i carucam et iiii acra siluæ et xx acra pasturæ. Olim xii denarios. Modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (2); 35*b*.

XLIX. The Land of Nicolas the Balister.

Nicholaus holds Wiberie of the king. Ordric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There four bordars have one plough, and there are four acres of wood, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth twelve pence. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Grennelize.

Ipsē Nicolavs tenet Grennelize. Quattuor taini tenebant in paragio tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et iiii uillani et iii bordarii et ii acra prati. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (2); 35*b*.

Nicolaus himself holds Grennelize. Four thegns held it in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and there are four villeins, and three bordars, and two acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Stoches.

Nicholaus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Stoches quam tenuit Ordritius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida et dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Nicholaus in dominio i uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani habent ii carrucas. Ibi habet Nicholaus vi uillanos et vii bordarios et v seruos et ii animalia et lx oues et iii agros prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando Nicholaus recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (470b) 435.

Nicholas has a manor called Stoches, which Ordrit held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide and half a virgate. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of it Nicholas has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have two ploughs. There Nicholas has six villeins, and seven bordars, and five serfs, and two head of cattle, and sixty sheep, and three acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth as much when Nicholas received it.

Racum.

Nicholaus archibalistarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Racum quam tenuit Ordritius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Radulfus de Nicolao. Inde habet Radulfus dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani habent i carrucam. Ibi habet Nicholaus ii uillanos et iii bordarios et i seruuum et x animalia et lxxx oues et xiiii capras et ii agros prati et xv agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Nicholaus recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (470b) 436.

Nicholas the chief balister has a manor called Racum, which Ordrit held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Now Radulf holds it of Nicholas. Of it Radulf has in demesne half a hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have one plough. There Nicholas has two villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and ten head of cattle, and eighty sheep, and fourteen goats, and two acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Nicholas received it.

Stoches.

Ipsē Nicolavs tenet Stoches. Ordric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii virgatis et dimidia. Terra est v carucis. Ibi sunt iiii carucæ et vi uillani et vii bordarii et v serui et iii acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (2); 35*b*.

Nicolaus himself holds Stoches. Ordric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two virgates and a half. There is land for five ploughs. There are four ploughs, and six villeins, and seven bordars, and five serfs, and three acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty shillings.

Rachvn.

Radulfus tenet de Nicolao Rachvn. Ordric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est v carucis. Ibi sunt iii carucæ et iii bordarii cum i seruo. Ibi ii acræ prati et xv acræ pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (2); 35*b*.

Radulf holds Rachun of Nicolaus. Ordric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for five ploughs. There are three ploughs, and three bordars, with one serf. There are two acres of meadow and fifteen acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Woguuuel.

Nicholaus archibalistarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Woguuel quam tenuit Ordritius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida et dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Nicholaus i uirgam in dominio et ii carrucas et uillani habent ii carrucas. Ibi habet Nicholaus iiii uillanos et vii bordarios et iii seruos et i uaccam et cxxiiii oues et i molendinum quod reddit per annum xxx denarios et vi agros nemusculi et iii agros prati et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando ipse recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (470b) 436.

Nicholas the chief balister has a manor called Wogwuel, which Ordrit held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide and half a virgate. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Of it Nicholas has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have two ploughs. There Nicholas has four villeins, and seven bordars, and three serfs, and one cow, and a hundred and twenty-four sheep, and one mill that renders thirty pence by the year, and six acres of coppice, and three acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he received it.

Holebema.

Nicholaus archibalistarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Holebema quam tenuit Ordritius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Modo tenet eam Rogerus Aculeus di Nicolao. Ibi habet Rogerus i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent i carrucam. Ibi habet Nicholaus ii uillanos et i bordarium et ii seruos et x agros nemoris et i agrum nemoris et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Nicholaus accepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (471) 436.

Nicholas the chief balister has a manor called Holebema, which Ordrit held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Now Roger Aculeus holds it of Nicholas. There Roger has in demesne one plough, and the villeins have one plough. There Nicholas has two villeins, and one bordar, and two serfs, and ten acres of wood, and one acre of wood [? pasture]; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Nicholas received it.

Wogwel.

Ipse Nicolavs tenet Wogwel. Ordric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii uirgatis terræ et dimidia. Terra est v carucis. Ibi sunt iiii uillani et vii bordarii et iii serui et molinus reddens xxx denarios et iii acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ et vi acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (2); 35b.

Nicolaus himself holds Wogwel. Ordric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two and a half virgates of land. There is land for five ploughs. There are four villeins, and seven bordars, and three serfs, and a mill rendering thirty pence, and three acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture, and six acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Holebeme.

Rogerus tenet de Nicolao Holebeme. Ordric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii caruæ et ii serui et ii uillani cum i bordario et una acra prati et x acris siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (2); 35b.

Roger holds Holebeme of Nicolaus. Ordric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, and two serfs, and two villeins, with one bordar, and one acre of meadow, and ten acres of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Bagathora.

Nicholaus archibalistarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bagathora quam tenuit Ordritius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rogerus de Nicolao. Inde habet Rogerus i ferlinum et i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Nicholaus vi uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et v animalia et iii porcos et xxxv oues et xv capras et iii agros nemoris et i leugam pascuæ in longitudine et dimidiam in latitudine et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Nicholaus recepit ualebat xv solidos.—Exon. D. (471) 436.

Nicholas the chief balister has a manor called Bagathora, which Ordrit held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. Roger holds this of Nicholas. Of it Roger has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have four ploughs. There Nicholas has six villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and five head of cattle, and three swine, and thirty-five sheep, and fifteen goats, and three acres of wood, and one leuga of pasture in length, and half a leuga in width; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth fifteen shillings when Nicholas received it.

Ludaforda.

Nicholaus arbalestarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ludaforda quam tenuit Ordricius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii hidis et dimidia. Has possunt arare x carrucæ. Inde habet Nicholaus i hidam et dimidiam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani ii hidas et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Nicholaus viii uillanos et vii bordarios et iiii seruos et v animalia et cxx oues et xv capras et iii agros nemoris et viii agros prati et i leugam pascuæ. Hæc ualet xl solidos et quando Nicholaus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (472) 437.

Nicholas the arbalister has a manor called Ludaforda, which Ordric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three hides and a half. This can be ploughed by ten ploughs. Of it Nicholas has in demesne one hide and a half and two ploughs, and the villeins have two hides and four ploughs. There Nicholas has eight villeins, and seven bordars, and four serfs, and five head of cattle, and a hundred and twenty sheep, and fifteen goats, and three acres of wood, and Bagetore.

Rogerus tenet de Nicolao Bagetore. Ordric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et vi uillani et ii bordarii cum iv carucis. Ibi iii acræ siluæ. Pastura i leuca longitudine et dimidia leuca latitudine. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (2); 35b.

Roger holds Bagetore of Nicolaus. Ordric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, with one serf, and there are six villeins, and two bordars, with four ploughs. There are three acres of wood. Pasture one leuca in length and half a leuca in width. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Lbdeford.

Iipse Nicolaus tenet Lvdeford. Ordric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis et dimidia. Terra est x carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iiii serui et viii uillani et vii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi viii acræ prati et iii siluæ et i leuca pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (2); 35b.

Nicolaus himself holds Lvdeford. Ordric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides and a half. There is land for ten ploughs. In demesne there are two ploughs, and four serfs, and eight villeins, and seven bordars, with four ploughs. There are eight acres of meadow, and three of wood, and one leuca of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth forty shillings.

eight acres of meadow, and one leuga of pasture; and it is worth forty shillings, and it was worth as much when Nicholas received it.

Estapeleia.

Nicholaus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Estapeleia quam tenuit Bristuoldus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Nicholaus i uirgam in dominio et uillani i uirgam et iii boues in carruca. Ibi habet Nicholaus iii uillanos et iiii bordarios et vi agros nemoris et vi agros prati et xii agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet v solidos et quando Nicholaus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (472) 437.

Nicholas has a manor called Estapeleia, which Bristuold held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of this Nicholas has in demesne one virgate, and the villeins have one virgate and three plough oxen. There Nicholas has three villeins, and four bordars, and six acres of wood, and six acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture. This is worth five shillings, and it was worth as much when Nicholas received it.

Bochelanda.

Nicholaus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bochelanda quam tenuit Ailsius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Nicholaus i uirgam et i carrucam et dimidiam in dominio et uillani ii uirgas et i carrucam. Ibi habet Nicholaus viii uillanos et ii bordarios et iii seruos et ii animalia et lx oues et xx capras et dimidiam leugam nemoris in longitudine et i quadragenariam in latitudine et iiii agros prati et iiii quadragenarias pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Nicholaus recepit tantundem. Inde habet Rogerius quidam miles i uirgam de Nicholao et ualet vii solidos per annum et quando Nicholaus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (472b) 438.

Nicholas has a manor called Bochelanda, which Ailsi held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of these Nicholas has in demesne one virgate and one plough and a half, and the villeins have two virgates and one plough. There Nicholas has eight villeins, and two bordars, and three serfs, and two head of cattle, and sixty sheep, and twenty goats, and wood Stapellie.

Ipse Nicolaus tenet Stapellie. Brictuold tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi sunt iii uillani et iiii bordarii cum dimidia caruca et vi acrae prati et xii acrae pasturae. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

Nicholas himself holds Stapellie. Brictuold held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs. There are three villeins, and four bordars with half a plough, and six acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth five shillings.

Bochelande.

Ipse Nicolaus tenet Bochelande. Alsi tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii uirgatis terrae. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi sunt iii et dimidia caruca et iii serui et viii uillani et ii bordarii et iiii acrae prati et iiii quarentenae pasturae. Silua dimidia leuca longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Olim et modo ualet x solidos.

De hac terra tenet Rogerius de Nicolaus una virgata terrae. Valet vii solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

Nicholas himself holds Bochelande. Alsi held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for four ploughs. There are three and a half ploughs, and three serfs, and eight villeins, and two bordars, and four acres of meadow, and four furlongs of pasture. Wood half a leuca in length and one furlong in breadth. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth ten shillings.

half a leuga in length and one furlong in breadth, and four acres of meadow, and four furlongs of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth as much when Nicholas received it. Of these a certain soldier Roger has one virgate of Nicholas, and it is worth by the year seven shillings, and it was worth as much when Nicholas received it.

Alra.

Nicholaus arbalestarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Alra quam tenuit Edmerus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Hanc tenuit Johannes de Nicholao. Inde habet Johannes i ferlinum et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i ferlinum et ii boues in carruca. Ibi habet Johannes ii uillanos et v bordarios et x animalia et xxiii capras et iii agros nemoris et x agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Nicholaus recepit v solidos.—Exon. D. (473) 438.

Nicholas the arbalister has a manor called Alra, which Edmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. This John held of Nicholas. Of this John has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have one ferling and two plough oxen. There John has two villeins, and five bordars, and ten head of cattle, and twenty-four goats, and three acres of wood, and ten acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture. This is worth ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Nicholas received it.

Lega.

Nicholaus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lega quam tenuit Summerletus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potuit arare dimidia carruca. Ibi Nicholaus i bordarium et iii agros nemoris et i agrum et dimidium prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum iii solidos et hæc mansio . . . de escanbiis Nicholai.—Exon. D. (473) 438.

Nicholas has a manor called Lega, which Summerlet held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by half a plough. There Nicholas [has] one bordar, and three acres of wood, and one acre and a half of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year three shillings, and this manor . . . by exchange of Nicholas.

Of this land Roger holds of Nicholas one virgate of land. Worth seven shillings.

Alre.

Ipse Nicolaus tenet Alre. Edmer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia uirgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et ii uillani et v bordarii cum ii bovariis. Ibi x acræ prati et iii acræ siluæ et xxx acræ pasturæ. Olim v solidos. Modo x solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

Nicholaus himself holds Alre. Edmer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, and there are two villeins, and five bordars, with two herdsman. There are ten acres of meadow, and three acres of wood, and thirty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Lege.*

Ipse Nicolaus tenet Lege. Sumerlet tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est dimidia caruca. Ibi iii acræ siluæ et xx pasturæ et ii [sic] prati. Valet iii solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

Nicholas himself holds Lege. Sumerlet held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for half a plough. There are three acres of wood, and twenty of pasture, and two of meadow. It is worth three shillings.

* This entry is written in the margin.

Esselingaforda.

Fulcerus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Esselingaforda quam tenuit Brismarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Fulcerus in dominio dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas et uillani dimidiam hidam et iii carrucas et dimidiam. Ibi habet Fulcerus iii uillanos et vi bordarios et iii seruos et i animal et iii agros prati et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (468b) 434.

Fulcerus has a manor called Esselingforda, which Brismar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of this Fulcerus has in demesne half a hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have half a hide and three ploughs and a half. There Fulcerus has three villeins, and six bordars, and three serfs, and one head of cattle, and three acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he received it.

Colum.

Fulcherus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Colum quam habuit Brismarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Fulcherus in dominio i uirgam et i ferding et i carrucam et uillani ii uirgatas i ferding minua. Ibi habet Fulcherus . . . iiii uillanos et iiii bordarios et iii seruos et x animalia et xl oues et i molendinum quod reddidit xxv solidos per annum et vi agros nemusculi et vii agros prati et xxxvi agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xlv solidos et quando recepit ualebat iii libras.—Exon. D. (469) 434.

Fulcher has a manor called Colum, which Brismar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of these Fulcher has in demesne one virgate, and one ferding, and one plough, and the villeins have two virgates less one ferding. There Fulcher has . . . four villeins, and four bordars, and three serfs, and ten head of cattle, and forty sheep, and a mill which

L. Terra Fulcherii.

Esselingeforde.

Fulchervs tenet de rege Esselingeforde. Brismar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi tamen sunt in dominio ii carucæ et iii serui et iii uillani et vi bordarii cum iii carucis et dimidia. Ibi iii acræ prati. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

L. The Land of Fulcherus.

Fulcherus holds of the king Esselingeforde. Brismar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for three ploughs. But there are in demesne two ploughs, and three serfs, and three villeins, and six bordars, with three ploughs and a half. There are three acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Colbm.

Ipse Fulcherus tenet Colvm. Brismar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et iiii uillani et iiii bordarii. Ibi molinus reddens xxv solidos et vii acræ prati et vi acræ siluæ minutæ et xxxvi acræ pasturæ. Olim lx solidos. Modo ualet xlv solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

Fulcher himself holds Colum. Brismar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and three serfs, and four villeins, and four bordars. There is a mill rendering twenty-five shillings, and there are seven acres of meadow, and six acres of coppice, and thirty-six acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth sixty shillings. Now it is worth forty-five shillings.

renders twenty-five shillings by the year, and six acres of coppice, and seven acres of meadow, and thirty-six acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty-five shillings, and it was worth three pounds when [Fulcher] received it.

Iueleia.

Fulcherus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Iuelia quam tenuit Brismarus ea die qua Eduuwardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potuit arare i carruca. Ibi habet Fulcherus ii uillanos qui habent i carrucam et iii bordarios et c agros nemoris et ii agros prati et xl agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (469b) 434.

Fulcer has a manor called Iueleia, which Brismar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Fulcher has two villeins, who have one plough, and three bordars, and one hundred acres of wood, and two acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth as much when he received it.

Colum.

Fulcerus habet i uirgam terræ in Colum et i uillanum qui reddit ei x solidos per annum.—Exon. D. (470) 435.

Fulcer has one virgate of land in Colum and one villain, who renders to him ten shillings by the year.

Ferhendona.

Fulcerus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ferhendona quam tenuit Alricus ea die qua Eduuwardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Fulcherus iii uillanos et i bordarium et iii seruos et v animalia et viii agros nemoris et iiii agros prati et viii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualet x solidos.—Exon. D. (471b) 437.

Fulcer has a manor called Ferhendona, which Alric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of this Fulcer has three villeins, and one bordar, and three serfs, and five head of cattle, and eight acres of wood, and four acres of meadow, and eight acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

Ivelie.

Ipse Fulcherus tenet Ivelie. Brismar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est cum iii bordariis. Ibi ii acræ prati et xl acræ pasturæ et c acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

Fulcher himself holds Ivelie. Brismar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough, which is there, with three bordars. There are two acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture, and one hundred acres of wood. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth fifteen shillings.

Colvn.

Ipse Fulcherus habet unam virgatam terræ in Colvn et ibi est unus uillanus reddens x solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

Fulcher himself has one virgate of land in Colun, and there is one villein rendering ten shillings.

Ferhendone.

Ipse Fulcherus tenet Ferhendone. Alric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iii serui et iii uillani et i bordardius. Ibi iiii acræ prati et viii acræ pasturæ et totidem siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

Fulcher himself holds Ferhendone. Alric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, and there are three serfs, and three villeins, and one bordar. There are four acres of meadow, and eight acres of pasture, and the same of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Lega.

Fulcerus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lega quam tenuit Goduinus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iiii uirgis. Has possunt arare v carrucæ. Et Rogerus eamdem tenuit de Fulcero. Inde habet Rogerus in dominio i uirgam et i ferding et ii carrucæ et uillanis i uirga i ferding i et i carruca. Ibi habet Rogerius iiii uillani et ii bordarii et iiii seruos et viii agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando recepit ualet xl solidos.—Exon. D. (473) 438.

Fulcer has a manor called Lega, which Godwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. This can be ploughed by five ploughs. And Roger held the same of Fulcer. Of these Roger has in demesne one virgate, and one ferling, and two ploughs, and the villeins have one virgate less a ferling and one plough. There Roger has four villeins, and two bordars, and four serfs, and eight acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when he received it.

Chiunarthiuus.

Fulcherus archibalistarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Chiunarthiuus quam tenuerunt ii taigni pariter ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida et dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare v carrucæ. Modo tenet eamdem Helgotus de Fulcero. Inde habet Helgotus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Helgotus iiii uillanos et iiii bordarios et i seruum et i roncinum et vi animalia et iii agros nemoris et iiii agros prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando ipse Fulcherus recepit ualet xv solidos.—Exon. D. (471) 436.

Fulcher the chief balister has a manor called Chiwarthiwa, which two thegns held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide and half a virgate. These can be ploughed by five ploughs. Helgotus now holds the same of Fulcher. Of these Helgotus has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have four ploughs. There Helgotus has four villeins, and four bordars, and one serf, and one packhorse, and six head of cattle, and three acres of wood, and four acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth fifteen shillings when Fulcher received it.

Lege.

Ipse Fulcherus tenet Lege et Rogerus de eo Goduinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est v carucis. Ibi sunt iii carucæ et iiii serui et iiii uillani et ii bordarii et viii acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

Fulcher himself holds Lege, and Roger of him. Godwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for five ploughs. There are three ploughs, and four serfs, and four villeins, and two bordars, and eight acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Chiwartiwis.***

Ipse Fulcherus tenet Chiwartiwis. Duo taini tenebat in paragio tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii virgatis terræ et dimidia. Terra est v carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et iiii uillanis et iii [sic] bordariis. Ibi iiii acræ prati et iii acræ siluæ et xx acræ pasturæ. Olim xv solidos. Modo xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

Fulcher himself holds Chiwartiwis. Two thegns held it in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two and a half virgates of land. There is land for five ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and four villeins, and three bordars. There are four acres of meadow, and three acres of wood, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

* This entry is written at the bottom of the column.

Pultimora.

Haimericus de Arcis habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Pultimora quam tenebat Bertritius et Scireuualdus <sup>partice</sup> ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii hidis et iii ferlinis. Hanc possunt arare ix carruca. Inde habet Haimericus i hidam et ii uirgas et ii ferlinos et dimidium in dominio et ii carrucas et uillani habent i hidam et ii uirgas et i ferlinum et iiii carrucas. Ibi Haimericus xxii uillanos et iii bordarios et iiii seruos et i roncinum et xx animalia et viii porcos et xxx oues et c agros nemoris et xl [sic] agros prati et liii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum l solidos et quando ipse recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (469b) 435.

Haimeric of Arcis has a manor called Pultimora, which Bertrit and Scirewald held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three hides and one virgate and three ferdings. This can be ploughed by nine ploughs. Of these Haimeric has in demesne one hide, and two virgates, and two ferlings and a half, and two ploughs, and the villeins have one hide, and two virgates, and one ferling, and three ploughs. There Haimeric has twenty-two villeins, and three bordars, and four serfs, and one packhorse, and twenty head of cattle, and eight swine, and thirty sheep, and one hundred acres of wood, and forty acres of meadow, and fifty-three acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he received it.

Rouecoma.***

Haimericus de Arcis habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Rouecoma quam tenuit Almarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Haimericus i carrucam et i seruum et iiii agros nemoris et i prati et communis pascuæ et ualet per annum v solidos.—Exon. D. (471b) 437.

Haimeric of Arcis has a manor called Rovecoma, which Almar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Haimeric has one plough, and one serf, and four acres of wood, and one of meadow and common pasture; and it is worth by the year five shillings.

* The name of this manor has a mark of abbreviation over it, the meaning of which is doubtful.

LI. Terra Haimerici.

Pultimore

Haimericus tenet de rege Pvltimore. Brictric et Scireuoldus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi in paragio* et geldabat pro iii hidis et una virgata et iii ferlings. Terra est ix carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iiii serui et xxii uillani et iii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi xlvii acræ prati et c acræ siluæ et liii acræ pasturæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet l solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

* In paragio interlined.

LI. The Land of Haimeric.

Haimeric holds of the king Pultimore. Brictric and Scirewold held it in the time of king Edward in partage, and it paid geld for three hides and one virgate and three ferlings. There is land for nine ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and four serfs, and twenty-two villeins, and three bordars with four ploughs. There are forty-seven acres of meadow, and one hundred acres of wood, and fifty-three acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth fifty shillings.

Rovecome.

Ipse Haimericus tenet Rovecome. Almar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est cum i seruo et i acra prati et iiii acræ siluæ et communis pastura. Valet v solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

Haimericus himself holds Rovecome. Almar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough, which is there, with one serf, and one acre of meadow, and four acres of wood and common pasture. It is worth five shillings.

Hilla.

Haimericus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hilla quam tenuit Etmarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i [sic] ferdino. Ibi habet Haimericus dimidiam carrucam et i seruuum et xx agros prati et c agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xl denarios.—Econ. D. (471b) 437.

Haimeric has a manor called Hilla, which Edmar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling. There Haimeric has half a plough, and one serf, and twenty acres of meadow, and one hundred acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty pence.

Couba.

Haimericus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Couba quam tenuit Etmarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia ferding. Hanc potest arare dimidia carruca. Ibi habet Haimericus dimidiam carrucam et i uillanum et i agrum prati et ualet per annum xxx denarios.—Econ. D. (471b) 437.

Haimeric has a manor called Couba, which Etmar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a ferling. This can be ploughed by half a plough. There Haimeric has half a plough, and one villein, and one acre of meadow; and it is worth by the year thirty pence.

Bradeleia.

Haimericus de Archa habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bradeleia quam tenuit Edmarus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare i carruca. Inde habet Haimericus iii ferlinos et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i ferlinum. Ibi habet Haimericus iii bordarios et ii seruos et iii animalia et ii porcos et xx oues et xii agros nemoris et iii agros pascuæ. Hec ualet xviii solidos et quando Haimericus recepit v solidos.—Econ. D. (472b) 438.

Haimeric of Archa has a manor called Bradeleia, which Edmer held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. Of this Haimeric has in demesne three ferlings and two ploughs, and the villeins have one ferling. There Haimeric has three bordars, and two serfs, and three head of cattle, and two swine, and twenty sheep, and twelve acres of wood, and three acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year eighteen shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Haimeric received it.

Hille.

Ipse Haimericus tenet Hille. Edmar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia ferling. Ibi est dimidia caruca cum i seruo et xx acræ prati et c acræ pasturæ. Valet xl denarios.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

Haimeric himself holds Hille. Edmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a ferling. There is half a plough, with one serf, and there are twenty acres of meadow, and one hundred acres of pasture. It is worth forty pence.

Cumbe.

Ipse Haimericus tenet Cymbe. Edmar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia ferling. Terra est dimidiæ carucæ quæ ibi est cum i uillano et una acra prati. Valet xxx denarios.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

Haimeric himself holds Cumbe. Edmar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a ferling. There is land for half a plough, which is there, with one villein, and one acre of meadow. It is worth thirty pence.

Bradelie.

Ipse Haimericus tenet Bradelie. Edmer tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi tamen sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et iii bordarii et iii acræ pasturæ et xii acræ siluæ.

Olim v solidos. Modo ualet xviii solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

Haimeric himself holds Bradelie. Edmer held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. But there are two ploughs, and two serfs, and three bordars, and three acres of pasture, and twelve acres of wood. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth eighteen shillings.

Bechatona.

Willelmus portitor habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bechatona quam tenuit Ailsius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus dimidia hidam et ii carrucas in dominio et villani dimidiam hidam et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus iiii uillanos et viii bordarios et i seruum et i roncinum et ix animalia et lxxii oues et viii agros nemoris et xvi agros prati. Hæc reddit c solidos et quando Willelmus recepit l solidos.—Exon. D. (472) 437.

William Portitor has a manor called Bechatona, which Ailsius held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of this William has in demeane half a hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have half a hide and three ploughs. There William has four villeins, and eight bordars, and one serf, and one packhorse, and nine head of cattle, and seventy-two sheep, and eight acres of wood, and sixteen acres of meadow. This renders one hundred shillings, and it rendered fifty shillings when William received it.

Terra Serbientium Regis in Debenesira.*Tauelanda.

Willelmus hostiarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Tauelanda quam tenuit Godericus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Et modo tenet eandem Robertus de Willelmo. Inde habet Robertus i ferlinum et i carrucam in dominio. Et uillani iii ferlinos et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Robertus iii uillanos et ii seruos et xii animalia et vi porcos et xxx oues et x agros nemoris et viii agros prati et l agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xx solidos et quando Willelmo recepit eandem ualebat x solidos.

Hæc mansio reddidit dominicæ mansioni regis quæ uocatur Tauetona de consuetudine aut i bouem aut xxx denarios pro annum.—Exon. D. (475) 439.

The Land of the King's Serbants in Devonshire.

William the Usher has a manor called Tavelanda, which Goderic held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead,

LII. Terræ Serbientibm Regis.Bechetone.

Willelmus portitor tenet de rege Bechetone. Alsi tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi tamen sunt v carucæ cum i seruo et iiii uillani et viii bordarii et xvi acræ prati et viii acræ siluæ. Olim l solidos. Modo ualet c solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36a.

LII. The Lands of the King's Servants.

William Portitor holds of the king Bechetone. Alsi held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs. But there are five ploughs, with one serf, and there are four villeins, and eight bordars, and sixteen acres of meadow, and eight acres of wood. Formerly it was worth fifty shillings. Now it is worth one hundred shillings.

Tabelande.

Willelmus hostiarius tenet de rege Tavelande. Godric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et iii uillani cum i caruca et dimidia. Ibi viii acræ prati et l acræ pasturæ et x acræ siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.

Hoc manerium debet per consuetudinem in Tabetone manerio regis aut i bovem aut xxx denarios.—Exch. D. 117 (3); 36.

William the Usher holds of the king Taveland. Godric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. And now Robert holds the same of William. Of this Robert has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have three ferlings and one plough and a half. There Robert has three villeins, and two serfs, and twelve head of cattle, and six swine, and thirty sheep, and ten acres of wood, and eight acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture. This is worth twenty shillings, and when William received the same it was worth ten shillings.

This manor rendered yearly by custom to the demesne manor of the king called Tavetona either an ox or thirty pence.

Cruc.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cruc quæ tenuit Ailuardus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Ibi habet Willelmus in dominio i uirgam et ii carrucas et uillani ii uirgas et iiii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus x uillanos et iii bordarios et vi seruos et i roncinum et xi animalia et v porcos et l oues et xxiii agros prati et dimidium et cc agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando recepit x solidos.

Hæ mansiones ii sunt de excambio terrarum Willelmi.—Exon. D. (475) 439.

William has a manor called Cruc, which Ailward held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. There William has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates and four ploughs. There William has ten villeins, and three bordars, and six serfs, and one packhorse, and eleven head of cattle, and five swine, and fifty sheep, and twenty-three and a half acres of meadow, and two hundred acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it.

These two manors are amongst the exchanged lands of William.

Willelmus habet i uirgam terræ quam possunt arare ii carrucæ et Radulfus tenet eadem de Willelmus. Ibi habet Radulfus i seruum et i ancillam et reddit per annum v solidos et hec de excamgiis Willelmi.—Exon. D. (475) 439.

William has one virgate of land, which can be ploughed by two ploughs, and Ralph holds the same of William. There Ralph has one serf and one maidservant, and it renders by the year five shillings, and this is amongst the exchanged lands of William.

of land. There is land for three ploughs. In demesne there is one plough, and there are two serfs, and three villeins, with one plough and a half. There are eight acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture, and ten acres of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

This manor owes by custom to the king's manor of Tavetone either one ox or thirty pence.

Cruc.

Iipse Willelmus tenet Crvc. Aluuard tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est vi carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et vi serui et x uillani et iii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi xxiii acræ prati et dimidia et cc acræ pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.

Hæc duo maneria sunt de excambio terrarum Willelmi. —Exch. D. 117 (4); 36b.

William himself holds Cruc. Alward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for six ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and six serfs, and ten villeins, and three bordars, with four ploughs. There are twenty-three and a half acres of meadow and two hundred acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

These two manors are of the exchanged lands of William.

Radulfus tenet de Willelmo unam virgatam terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est unus seruus cum i ancilla. Reddit v solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (4); 36b.

Ralph holds of William one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one serf, with one maid servant. It renders five shillings.

Cadella.

Willelmus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cadella quam tenuerunt ii taigni pariter ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare vii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio i uirgam et iii carrucas et uillani iii uirgas et vi carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus xiiii uillanos et v bordarios et iii seruos et iiii porcos et lxxx oues et xliiii agros nemoris et xi agros prati et xx agros pascuæ et i molendinum quod reddit iii solidos per annum. Et hæc mansio ualet per annum l solidos et quando recepit ualebat xv solidos. Et hæc mansio de exangiis Willelmi.—Exon. D. (475) 439.

William has a manor called Cadella, which two thegns held in partage on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by seven ploughs. Of this William has in demesne one virgate and three ploughs, and the villeins have three virgates and six ploughs. There William has fourteen villeins, and five bordars, and three serfs, and four swine, and eighty sheep, and forty-four acres of wood, and eleven acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture, and a mill which renders three shillings per annum. And this manor is worth by the year fifty shillings, and it was worth fifteen shillings when he received it. And this manor is amongst the exchanged of William.

Reddona.

Willelmus hostiarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Reddona quam tenuit Etuardus presbyter ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida et dimidia uirga. Has possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus iii uillanos et ii bordarios et i roncinum et xi animalia et lxxv oues et vi agros prati et xi agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxv solidos et quando recepit ualet x solidos et mansio de exangiis Willelmi.—Exon. D. (475b) 439.

William the Usher has a manor called Reddona, which Etward the priest held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide and half a virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of these William has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and a half and two ploughs. There William has three villeins, and two bordars, and one packhorse, and eleven head of cattle, and sixty-five sheep, and six acres of meadow, and eleven acres of Cadelie.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Cadelie. Duo taini tenebant <sup>in paragio</sup> libere tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est vii carucis. In dominio sunt iii carucæ et iii serui et xiiii uillani et v bordarii cum vi carucis. Ibi xi acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ et xliiii acræ siluæ. Ibi molinus reddens iiii solidos. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet l solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (4); 36b.

William himself holds Cadelie. Two thegns held it in partage in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for seven ploughs. In demesne are three ploughs, and three serfs, and fourteen villeins, and five bordars, with six ploughs. There are eleven acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture, and forty-four acres of wood. There is a mill rendering four shillings. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth fifty shillings.

Redone.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Redone. Eduuardus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii uirgatis terræ et dimidia. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum iii uillanis et ii bordariis. Ibi vi acræ prati et xi acræ pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xxv solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (4); 36b.

William himself holds Redone. Edward held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two virgates and a half of land. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, with three villeins and two bordars. There are six acres of meadow and eleven acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty-five shillings.

pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty-five shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it, and the manor is held by the exchange of William.

Blacaburga.

Willelmus hostiarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Blacaburga quam tenuit Leuvinus Socca ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et i uirga. Has possunt arrare iii carrucæ. Et Radulphus Botinus tenet eandem de Willelmo. Inde habet Radulphus in dominio dimidiam hidam et dimidiam uirgam et uillani dimidiam hidam et dimidiam uirgam. Ibi habet Radulphus ix uillanos et ii seruos et ii animalia et xii porcos et xl oues et xxx capras et ii agros nemusculi et iiii agros prati et c agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualet x solidos et hec mansio de excangiis Willelmi.—Exon. D. (475b) 440.

William the Usher has a manor called Blacaburga, which Lewin Socca held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. And Ralph Botinus holds the same of William. Of these Ralph has in demesne half a hide and half a virgate, and the villeins have half a hide and half a virgate. There Ralph has nine villeins, and two serfs, and two head of cattle, and twelve swine, and forty sheep, and thirty goats, and two acres of coppice, and four acres of meadow, and one hundred acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it, and this manor is amongst the exchanged lands of William.

Boleham.

Willelmus hestiarus [sic] habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Boleham quam tenuit Bristricus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii uirgis. Has possunt arare v carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus xi uillanis et vi bordarios et iii seruos et i roncinum et i animal et vii porcos et i molendinum qui reddit vii solidos et iiii agros nemoris et vi agros prati et xx pascuæ et ualet per annum xl solidos per annum et quando recepit ualet l solidos et hec mansionem de excanbiis Willelmi.—Exon. D. (476) 440.

William the Usher has a manor called Boleham, which Brictric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of these William has eleven villeins, and six bordars, Blacheberge.

Radulfus tenet de Willelmo Blacheberge. Leuuina tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida et una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ix uillani et ii serui et iiii acræ prati et c acræ pasturæ et ii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (4); 36b.

Ralph holds of William Blacheberge. Lewin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There are nine villeins, and two serfs, and four acres of meadow, and one hundred acres of pasture, and two acres of coppice. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Bolecham.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Boleham. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii uirgatis terræ. Terra est v carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et xi uillani et vi bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi molinus reddens vii solidos et vi acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ et iiii acræ siluæ. Olim l solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (4); 36b.

William himself holds Boleham. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for five ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are three serfs, and eleven villeins, and six bordars, with four ploughs.

and three serfs, and one packhorse, and one head of cattle, and seven swine, and a mill which renders seven shillings, and four acres of wood, and six acres of meadow, and twenty of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth fifty shillings when he received it, and this manor is amongst the exchanged lands of William.

Hlesam.

Willelmus hostiarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hlesam quam tenuit Berus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Hanc tenet Rogerius de Willelmo. Inde habet Rogerius dimidiam hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Rogerius ii uillanos et ii bordarios et ii seruos et ii animalia et ii porcos et xl oues et x capras et xx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet x solidos et quando Willelmus recepit tantundem et hæc est de escanbiis Willelmi.—Exon. D. (476) 440.

William the Usher has a manor called Hlesam, which Ber held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. This Roger holds of William. Of this Roger has in demeane half a hide and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide and half a plough. There Roger has two villeins, and two bordars, and two serfs, and two head of cattle, and two swine, and forty sheep, and ten goats, and twenty acres of pasture. This is worth ten shillings, and it was worth just as much when William received it, and this is amongst the exchanged lands of William.

Sutuna.

Willelmus hostiarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Sutuna quam tenuit Vluuinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare vii carrucæ. Modo tenet hanc Ricardus de Willelmo. Inde habet i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani habent iii uirgas et <sup>seruos</sup>iiii carrucæ. Ibi habet Ricardus vii uillanos et <sup>seruos</sup>iiii bordarios et ii bordarios et iii animalia et lxiii oues et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando ipse recepit ualebat x hæc mansio est de excambio Willelmi.—Exon. D. (476b) 440.

William the Usher has a manor called Sutuna, which Ulwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by seven

There is a mill rendering seven shillings, and there are six acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture, and four acres of wood. Formerly it was worth fifty shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Ilesham.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Ilesham. Bere tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et dimidia et ii serui et ii uillani et ii bordarii et xx acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet x solidos. Rogerus tenet de Willelmo.—Exch. D. 117 (4); 36b.

William himself holds Ilesham. Bere held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for three ploughs. There is one plough and a half, and two serfs, and two villeins, and two bordars, and twenty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and it now is, worth ten shillings. Roger holds of William.

Svtone.

Ricardus tenet de Willelmo Svtone. Vluuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est vii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et ii serui et vii uillani et iiii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.

Hæc supradicta maneria sunt de excambiis Willelmi.—Exch. D. 117 (4); 36b.

Richard holds of William Sutone. Ulwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for seven ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are two serfs, and ploughs. Richard now holds this of William. Of this [Richard] has one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have three virgates and four ploughs. There Richard has seven villeins, and four bordars, and two serfs, and three head of cattle, and sixty-four sheep; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when he received it. This manor is amongst the exchanged lands of William.

Leiga.

Willelmus hostiarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Leiga quam tenuit Aldredus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare viiii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus i ferlinum et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani iii ferlinos et v carrucas. Ibi habet Willelmus xii uillanos et v bordarios et iiii seruos et vii animalia et iiii porcos et lxxx et vi oues et c agros nemoris et xxiiii agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando recepit ualet xx solidos.—Exon. D. (475*b*) 440.

William the Usher has a manor called Leiga, which Aldred held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by nine ploughs. Of this William has in demesne one ferling and two ploughs, and the villeins have three ferlings and five ploughs. There William has twelve villeins, and five bordars, and four serfs, and seven head of cattle, and four swine, and eighty-six sheep, and one hundred acres of wood, and twenty-four acres of meadow, and thirty [sic] acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when he received it.

Torra.

Willelmus hostiarius habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Torra quam tenuit Ailricius ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare vii carrucæ. Inde habet Willelmus dimidia hidam et ii carrucas in dominio et uillani i hidam et dimidia et iiii carrucæ. Ibi habet xvi uillanos et xii bordarios et iiii seruos et ii roncinos et iii animalia et vii porcos et cxlv oues et xii agros nemoris et xxiiii prati et cc agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet lx solidos et quando Willelmus recepit tantundem.—Exon. D. (476) 440.

William the Usher has a manor called Torra, which Ailric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. These can be ploughed by seven ploughs.

seven villeins, and four bordars, with four ploughs. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

The aforesaid manors are of the exchanged lands of William.

Lege.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Lege. Aldred tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ix carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iiii serui et xii uillani et v bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi xxiiii acræ prati et xxv acræ pasturæ et c acræ siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (4); 36b.

William himself holds Lege. Aldred held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for nine ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and four serfs, and twelve villeins, and five bordars, with five ploughs. There are twenty-four acres of meadow, and twenty-five acres of pasture, and one hundred acres of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Torre.

Ipse Willelmus tenet Torre. Alric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est vii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et iiii serui et xvi uillani et xii bordarii cum iiii carucis. Ibi xxiiii acræ prati et xii acræ siluæ et cc acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet lx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (4); 36b.

William himself holds Torre. Alric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for seven ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs and four serfs, and sixteen

Of these William has in demesne half a hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have a hide and a half and four ploughs. There William has sixteen villeins, and twelve bordars, and four serfs, and two packhorses, and three head of cattle, and seven swine, and one hundred and forty-five sheep, and twelve acres of wood, and twenty-four of meadow, and two hundred acres of pasture. This is worth sixty shillings, and it was worth just as much when William received it.

Gatcumba.

Ansgerus seruieus regis quæ uocatur Gatcumba quam tenuit Burgered ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Ansgerus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent iii uirgas et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Ansgerus vi uillanos et iii bordarios et iii seruos et viii animalia et c oues et iii agros nemusculi et ii agros prati et xxvii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Ansgerus recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (476) 441.

Ansgar, servant of the king [has a manor] called Gatcumba, which Burgered held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of this Ansgar has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have three virgates and three ploughs. There Ansgar has six villeins, and three bordars, and three serfs, and eight head of cattle, and one hundred sheep, and three acres of coppice, and two acres of meadow, and twenty-seven acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Ansgar received it.

Linor.

Morinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Linor quam tenuit Frauuinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis. Has possunt ii carrucæ arare. In ea habet Morinus i carrucam et i uillanum et iii bordarios et ii seruos et vii animalia et xxviii oues et xvi agros nemoris et viii prati et lx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando ipse recepit ualebat xl solidos. Modo tenet hanc Maurinus de rege.—Exon. D. (461) 427.

Morin has a manor called Linor, which Frawin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates. These can be ploughed by two ploughs. In it Morin has one plough, and one villein, and three bordars, and two serfs, and seven head of cattle, and twenty-eight sheep, and sixteen villeins, and twelve bordars, with five ploughs. There are twenty-four acres of meadow, and twelve acres of wood, and one hundred acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth sixty shillings.

Gatecymbe.

Ansgerus tenet Gatecymbe. Burgered tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro i hida. Terra est iiii carucis. In dominio est i caruca et iii serui et vi uillani et iii bordarii cum iii carucis. Ibi ii acræ prati et iii acræ siluæ minutæ et xxvii acræ pasturæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (4); 36*b*.

Ansgerus holds Gatecumb. Burgered held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for four ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are three serfs, and six villeins, and three bordars, with three ploughs. There are two acres of meadow, and three acres of coppice, and twenty-seven acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Limor.

Morinus tenet de rege Limor. Frauuinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii virgatis terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i uillano et iii bordariis et ii seruis. Ibi viii acræ prati et xvi acræ siluæ et lx acræ pasturæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo xv solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (4); 36*b*.

Morin holds of the king Limor. Frawin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three virgates of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one villein, and three bordars, and two serfs. There are eight acres of meadow, and sixteen acres of wood, and sixty acres of pasture.

acres of wood, and eight of meadow, and sixty acres of pasture ; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when he received it. Morin now holds this of the king.

Holecoma.

Sacerdotes de Bomine habent i mansionem quæ uocatur Holecoma quam ipsi habuerunt ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Ibi habent supradicti sacerdotes in dominio i carrucam et uillani ii carrucas. In ista habent presbiteri vi uillanos et ii seruos et xii animalia et lx oues et xxx agros prati et iiii or quadragenaria pascuæ in longitudine et ii in latitudine et ualet per annum xx solidos.—Exon. D. (481b) 446.

The priests of Bomine have a manor called Holecome, which they themselves held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. There the aforesaid priests have in demesne one plough, and the villeins have two ploughs. In that the priests have six villeins, and two serfs, and twelve head of cattle, and sixty sheep, and thirty acres of meadow, and pasture four furlongs in length and two in breadth ; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings.

Nieutona.

Sacerdotes de bomine habent i mansionem quæ uocatur Nieutona et reddidit gildum pro i hyda. Hanc possunt arare vii carrucæ et habent in dominio i uirgam terræ et ii carrucas et uillani iii uirgas et v carrucas. Ibi habent Sacerdotes viii uillanos et iiii<sup>memoria</sup> bordarios et ii seruos et viii animalia et xl oues et dimidiam leugam in longitudine et iii quadragenaria in latitudine et viii agros prati* et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos.—Exon. D. (483) 447.

The priests of Bomine have a manor called Nieutona, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by seven ploughs, and they have in demesne one virgate of land and two ploughs, and the villeins have three virgates and five ploughs. There the priests have eight villeins, and four bordars, and two serfs, and eight head of cattle, and forty sheep, and of wood half a leuca in length and three furlongs in breadth, and eight acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture ; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings.

* memoria struck out and prati written over.

Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth fifteen shillings.

Holecome.

Presbiteri de Bomene tenent Holecome. Ipsi tenebant tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt et ii serui et vi uillani et xxx acræ prati. Pastura iiii quarentenæ longitudine et ii quarentenæ latitudine. Valet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (4); 36b.

The priests of Bomene hold Holecome. They themselves held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, and there are two serfs, and six villeins, and thirty acres of meadow. Pasture four furlongs in length and two furlongs in breadth. It is worth twenty shillings.

Niwetone.

Ipsi presbiteri tenent Niwetone quod geldabat pro una hida. Terra est vii carucis. In dominio sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et viii uillani et iiii bordarii cum v carucis. Ibi viii acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ. Silua dimidia leuca longitudine et iii quarentenæ latitudine. Valet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 117 (4); 36b.

The priests themselves hold Niwetone, which paid geld for one hide. There is land for seven ploughs. In demesne are two ploughs, and two serfs, and eight villeins, and four bordars, with five ploughs. There are eight acres of meadow and twenty acres of pasture. Wood half a leuga in length and three furlongs in breadth. It is worth twenty shillings.

Cheleforda.

Coluinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cheleforda quam tenuit Oseua ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carruæ. Et inde habet in dominio terciam partem de dimidia uirga et i carrucam et uillani duas partes [ter]ræ istius et ii carrucas. In ista habet Coluinus vi bordarios et i seruum et xv animalia et xl oues et xx agros prati et xx agr[o]s pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos.—Exon. D. (481) 445.

Colvin has a manor called Cheleforda, which Oseua held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. And of this he has in demesne a third part of half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have two parts of that land and two ploughs. In that Colvin has six bordars, and one serf, and fifteen head of cattle, and forty sheep, and twenty acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings.

Bristelshorda.

Coluinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bristeleshorda quam ipse habuit ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i ferdino et dimidio. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Coluinus i uillanum et iii seruos et xv agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum v solidos.—Exon. D. (481b) 445.

Colvin has a manor called Bristeleshorda, which he himself had on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling and a half. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Colvin has one villein, and three ~~acres~~ fifteen acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; a worth by the year five shillings.

Colteshorda.

Coluinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Colta quam ipse habuit ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit ui mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i ferdino et tercia p alio ferdino. Hanc possunt arare ii carruæ. Ibi Coluinus i uillanum et iii bordarios et v agros prati et xx [agros] pascuæ et ualet per annum vii solidos et dimidium.—Exon. D. (481b) 445.

LIII. *Terræ Cainorūm Regis.Chelesworde.

Colvinus tenet de rege Chelesworde. Odeua tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et vi bordariis. Ibi xx acræ prati et totidem pasturæ. Valet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

LIII. The Lands of the King's Chaness.

Colvin holds of the king Chelesworde. Odeva held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and six bordars. There are twenty acres of meadow and as many of pasture. It is worth twenty shillings.

Bristelesworde.

Idem Colvinus tenet Bristelesworde. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling et dimidio. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi sunt iii serui cum i uillano et xv acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ. Valet v solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

The same Colvin holds Bristelesworde. He himself held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling and a half. There is land for one plough. There are three serfs, with one villein, and fifteen acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture. It is worth five shillings.

Coltesworde

Idem Colvinus tenet Coltesworde. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro uno ferling et tertia parte unius ferling. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi sunt iii bordarii cum i uillano et v acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ. Valet vii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

Colvin has a manor called Colteshorda, which he himself had on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one ferling and a third part of another ferling. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. There Colvin has one villein, and two bordars, and five acres of meadow, and twenty of pasture; and it is worth by the year seven shillings and a half.

Olfereordi.

Coluinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Olfereordi quam tenuit Godricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ et ibi habet Coluinus in dominio i ferdinum et i carrucam et uillani iiii ferminos et iiii carrucas. Et ibi habet Coluinus ii uillanos et iiii bordarios et ii seruos et xx animalia et lx oues et v agros prati et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xl solidos et quando Coluinus eam recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (481b) 446.

Colvin has a manor called Olfereordi, which Godric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. There Colvin has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have three ferlings and three ploughs, and there Colvin has two villeins, and four bordars, and two serfs, and twenty head of cattle, and sixty sheep, and five acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when Colvin received it.

Denesburga.

Coluinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Denesburga quam tenuit Godricus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt <sup>OR CARRUCAS</sup> arare iiii. Et Coluinus tenet eam de rege. Ibi habet Coluinus in dominio i ferdinum et i carrucam et uillani iiii ferminos et iiii carrucas. In ista habet Coluinus iiii <sup>OR</sup> bordarios et ii seruos et x animalia et l oues et v agros prati et x pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit similiter.—Exon. D. (482) 446.

Colvin has a manor called Denesburga, which Godric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by four ploughs, and Colvin holds the same of the king. There Colvin has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have three ferlings and three ploughs. In that Colvin has four bordars, and two serfs, and

The same Colvin holds Coltesworde. He himself held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one ferling and a third part of one ferling. There is land for two ploughs. There are three bordars, with one villen, and five acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. It is worth seven shillings and sixpence.

Olvereword.

Idem Colvinus tenet Olvereword. Godric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis quæ ibi sunt et ii serui et ii uillani et iiii bordarii et v acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet xl solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

The same Colvin holds Olvereword. Godric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs, which are there, and there are two serfs, and two villeins, and four bordars, and five acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth forty shillings.

Denesberge.

Idem Colvinus tenet Denesberge. Godric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iiii carucis quæ ibi sunt et ii serui et iiii bordarii. Ibi v acræ prati et x acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

The same Colvin holds Denesberge. Godric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for four ploughs, which are there, and there are two serfs, and four bordars. There are five acres of meadow and ten acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth twenty shillings.

ten head of cattle, aet 15ty sheep, and five acres of meadow, and ten of pasture; and 7 p worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth the like v. he received it.

Aleslant.

Coluinus habet i<sup>101</sup> mansionem quæ uocatur Aleslant quam tenuit Godricus e die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et dimidia.* Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Coluinus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani habent i uirgam et iii carrucæ. Ibi habet Coluinus <sup>or</sup>iiii uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et xii animalia et xxx oues et v agros prati et xii pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando recepit similiter.—Exon. D. (482) 446.

Colvin has a manor called Aleslant, which Godric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and a half. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of these Colvin has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and three ploughs. There Colvin has four villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and twelve head of cattle, and thirty sheep, and five acres of meadow, and twelve of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth the like when he received it.

Hama.

Coluinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hama quam tenuit Godricus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc <sup>potest</sup> possunt arare i carruca. Ibi habet Coluinus i uillanum et ualet v solidos.—Exon. D. (482b) 446.

Colvin has a manor called Hama, which Godric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Colvin has a villein; and it is worth five shillings.

Hantona.

Coluinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hantona quam tenuit Bristeua ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare * et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et dimidia interlined.

ua

Alesland.

Idem Colvinus tenet Alesland. Godric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est vi carucis. Ibi sunt iiii carucæ et iiii uillani et iii bordarii et ii serui et v acræ prati et xii acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

The same Colvin holds Alesland. Godric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and a half. There is land for six ploughs. There are four ploughs, and four villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and five acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and now it is, worth thirty shillings.

Hame.

Idem Colvinus tenet Hame. Godric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia uirgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi est unus uillanus. Valet v solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

The same Colvin holds Hame. Godric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There is one villein. It is worth five shillings.

Hantone.

Idem Colvinus tenet Hantone. Bricteua tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est unus uillanus et ii bordarii et v acræ ii carrucæ. Ibi habet Coluinus i uillanum et ii bordarios et v agros nemoris et v prati et x pascuæ et ualet v solidos.—Exon. D. (482b) 446.

Colvin has a manor called Hantona, which Bristeva held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. There Colvin has a villein, and two bordars, and five acres of wood, and five of meadow, and ten of pasture; and it is worth five shillings.

Limeta.

Goduinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Limeta quam tenuit Alestanus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. In ea sunt ii carrucæ et ii uillani et i bordarius et v agri prati et xxx agri pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Goduinus recepit ualebat xv solidos.—Exon. D. (483) 447.

Godwin has a manor called Limeta, which Alestan held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. In it are two ploughs, and two villeins, and one bordar, and five acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth fifteen shillings when Godwin received it.

Citremetona.

Goduinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Citremetona quam ipsemet tenuit ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro una uirga. Hanc possunt arare xxx carruce[sic] de ea habet Goduinus v carrucas in dominio et iii carrucas et uillani habent x carrucas. Ibi habet Goduinus vii uillanos et viii seruos et xxii porcarios qui reddunt per annum lxiiii porcos et iiii animalia et iii porcos et lx oues et leugam et dimidiam nemoris in longitudine et dimidiam leugam in latitudine et xii agros prati et ix quadragenarias pascuæ in longitudine et iii quadragenarias in latitudine et ualet per annum vii libras.—Exon. D. (484) 448.

Godwin has a manor called Citremetona, which he held himself on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by thirty ploughs. Of it Godwin has in demesne five carrucates and three ploughs, and the villeins have ten ploughs. There Godwin has prati et x acræ pasturæ et v acræ siluæ. Valet v solidos.

—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

The same Colvin holds Hantone. Bricteva held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one villein, and there are two bordars, and five acres of meadow, and ten acres of pasture, and five acres of wood. It is worth five shillings.

Limete.

Godvinus tenet Limete. Alestan tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum ii uillanis et i bordario. Ibi v acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ. Olim xv solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

Godwin holds Limete. Alestan held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with two villeins, and one bordar. There are five acres of meadow and thirty acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth fifteen shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Cvrememtone.

Goduin tenet Cvrememtone. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est xxx carucis. In dominio sunt v carucæ et viii serui et vii uillani cum x carucis et xxii porcarii reddentes lxiiii porcos. Ibi xii acræ prati. Pastura ix quarentenæ longitudine et iii quarentenæ latitudine. Silua i leuua et dimidia longitudine et dimidia leuua latitudine. Valet vii libras.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

Godwin holds Curememtone. He held it himself in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for thirty ploughs. In demesne are five ploughs, and eight serfs, and seven villeins, with ten ploughs, and twenty-two swineherds rendering sixty-four swine. There are twelve acres of meadow.

seven villeins, and eight serfs, and twenty-two swineherds, who render yearly sixty-four swine, and four head of cattle, and three swine, and sixty sheep, and wood a leuga and a half in length and half a leuga in breadth, and twelve acres of meadow, and pasture nine furlongs in length and three furlongs in breadth; and it is worth by the year seven pounds.

Ceritona.

Goduinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ceritona quam tenuit Alestanus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Goduinus ii fertinos et i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent carrucam i. Ibi habet Goduinus iii uillanos et ii seruos et xv oues et i quadragenariam nemoris et ualet per annum x solidos et quando eandem recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (484) 448.

Godwin has a manor called Ceritona, which Alestan held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of this Godwin has in demesne two ferlings and one plough, and the villeins have one plough. There Godwin has three villeins, and two serfs, and fifteen sheep, and one furlong of wood; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and the same was worth twenty shillings when he received it.

Lantfort.

Goduinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Lantfort quam tenuit Alestanus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare xii carrucæ. Inde habet Goduinus ii fertinos et i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent v carrucas. Ibi habet Goduinus xv uillanos et v seruos et iiii animalia et xxx oues et xv agros nemoris et iii agros prati et iiii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Goduinus recepit xl solidos.—Exon. D. (484) 448.

Godwin has a manor called Lantford, which Alestan held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered [geld] for one virgate. This can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of this Godwin has in demesne two ferlings and one plough, and the villeins have five ploughs. There Godwin has fifteen villeins, and five serfs, and four head of cattle, and thirty sheep, and fifteen acres of wood, and three acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when Godwin received it.

Pasture nine furlongs in length and three furlongs in breadth. Wood one leuga and a half in length and half a leuga in breadth. It is worth seven pounds.

Ceritone.

Goduinus tenet Ceritone. Alestan tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et iii uillani et ii serui et una quarentena siluæ. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

Godwin holds Ceritone. Alestan held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, and three villeins, and two serfs, and one furlong of wood. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Lanford.

Goduin tenet Lanford. Alestan tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata terræ. Terra est xii carucis. Ibi sunt vi carucæ et xv uillani et v serui et iii acræ prati et iiii acræ pasturæ et xv acræ siluæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

Godwin holds Lanford. Alestan held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for twelve ploughs. There are six ploughs, and fifteen villeins and five serfs, and three acres of meadow, and four acres of pasture, and fifteen acres of wood. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Midelanda.

Goduvinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Midelanda quam tenuit Alestanus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare viii carrucæ. Inde habet Goduvinus i uirgam in dominio et i carrucam et uillani habent iii carrucas. Ibi habet Goduvinus xiii uillanos et i seruum et xx oues et iii agros nemoris et x agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando Goduvinus accepit ualebat xl solidos.—Exon. D. (484b) 448.

Godwin has a manor called Midelanda, which Alestan held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by eight ploughs. There Godwin has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have three ploughs. There Godwin has thirteen villeins, and one serf, and twenty sheep, and three acres of wood, and ten acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth forty shillings when Godwin received it.

Wogeuiil.

Goduvinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wogeuiil quam tenuit Alestanus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Goduvinus i uirgam in dominio et i carrucam et uillani habent i carrucam. Ibi habent Goduvinus iii uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et iii animalia et xxx oues et vi agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando Goduvinus recepit ualebat xx solidos.—Exon. D. (484b) 449.

Godwin has a manor called Wogewil, which Alestan held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of this Godwin has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one plough. There Godwin has three villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and three head of cattle, and thirty sheep, and six acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when Godwin received it.

Cuma.

Goduvinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Cuma quam tenuit Alestanus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et

Mideland.

Idem Goduinus tenet Mideland. Alestan tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est viii carucis. In dominio est i caruca cum i seruo et xiii uillani cum iii carucis. Ibi x acra pasturae et iii acrae siluæ. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

The same Godwin holds Mideland. Alestan held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for eight ploughs. In demesne is one plough with one serf, and there are thirteen villeins with three ploughs. There are ten acres of pasture and three acres of wood. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Wogewill.

Idem Goduinus tenet Wogewille. Alestan tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et iii uillani et iii bordarii et vi acra pasturae. Olim xx solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

The same Godwin holds Wogewille. Alestan held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, and two serfs, and three villeins, and three bordars, and six acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth twenty shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Cvme.

Idem Godwinus tenet Cvme. Alestan tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. In ea habet Goduinus i carrucam et vi bordarios et ualet per annum v solidos et tantundem quando Goduinus recepit.—Exon. D. (484b) 449.

Godwin has a manor called Cuma, which Alestan held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. In it Godwin has one plough and six bordars; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and it was worth just as much when Godwin received it.

Wereia.

Goduinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wereia quam tenuit Adestan ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Goduinus i uirgam et ii carrucas in dominio. Et uillani iii uirgas et iii carrucas. Ibi habet Goduinus xi uillanos et iii bordarios et iiii seruos et viii animalia et iiii porcos et xxx oues et viii agros prati et v agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xxx solidos et quando Goduinus recepit lx solidos.—Exon. D. (485) 449.

Godwin has a manor called Wereia, which Adestan held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of this Godwin has in demesne one virgate and two ploughs. And the villeins have three virgates and three ploughs. There Godwin has eleven villeins, and three bordars, and four serfs, and eight head of cattle, and four swine, and thirty sheep, and eight acres of meadow, and five acres of pasture. This is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth sixty shillings when Godwin received it.

Colum.

Goduinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Colum quam tenuit Adestanus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Goduinus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani iii uirgas et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Goduinus vi uillanos et iii bordarios et iii seruos et ix oues et vi agros prati et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando [sic] xl solidos.—Exon. D. (486b) 449.

Godwin has a manor called Colum, which Adestan held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca et vi bordarii. Olim et modo ualet v solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

The same Godwin holds Cume. Alestan held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough and there are six borders. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth five shillings.

Wergt.

Idem Goduinus tenet Wergi. Alestan tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est vi carucis quæ ibi sunt et iiii serui et xi uillani et iii bordarii et viii acræ prati et v acræ pasturæ. Olim lx solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

The same Godwin holds Wergi. Alestan held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for six ploughs, which are there, and four serfs, and eleven villeins, and three bordars, and eight acres of meadow, and five acres of pasture. Formerly it was worth sixty shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Colbn.

Idem Goduinus tenet Colvn. Alestan tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iii serui et vi uillani et iii bordarii et vi acræ prati. Olim xl solidos. Modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

The same Godwin holds Colun. Alestan held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, and three serfs, and six this Godwin has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have three virgates and two ploughs. There Godwin has six villeins, and three bordars, and three serfs, and nine sheep, and six acres of meadow ; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and [it was worth when Godwin received it] forty shillings.

Holebroca.

Goduinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Holebroca quam ipse tenuit ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Goduinus i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et villani i uirgam. Ibi habet Goduinus ii uillanos et iiii bordarios et i seruum et vii oues et vi agros prati. Hæc ualet x solidos.—Exon. D. (487b) 451.

Godwin has a manor called Holebroca, which he himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of this Godwin has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate. There Godwin has two villeins, and four bordars, and one serf, and seven sheep, and six acres of meadow. This is worth ten shillings.

Duna.

Goduinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Duna quam tenuit ipse ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Goduinus in dominio dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas et uillani dimidiam hidam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Goduinus vii uillanos et iiii bordarios et ii seruos et xxx oues et x agros nemusculi et iii agros prati et vi agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos.—Exon. D. (489) 452.

Godwin has a manor called Duna, which he himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of this Godwin has in demesne half a hide and two ploughs, and the villeins have half a hide and one plough. There Godwin has seven villeins, and four bordars, and two serfs, and thirty sheep, and ten acres of coppice, and three acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture ; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings.

Bolehorda.

Godricus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Bolehorda quam tenuit Almarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et i ferdin . . .

villeins, and three bordars, and six acres of meadow. Formerly it was worth forty shillings. Now it is worth twenty shillings.

Holebroch.

Idem Goduin tenet Holebroch. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et ii uillani et iiii bordarii et vi acræ prati. Valet x solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

The same Godwin holds Holebroch. He himself held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide of land. There is land for three ploughs. There is one plough with one serf, and there are two villeins, and four bordars, and six acres of meadow. It is worth ten shillings.

Dvne.

Goduin tenet Dvne. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est vi carucis. Ibi sunt iii carucæ et ii serui et vii uillani et iiii bordarii et iii acræ prati et vi acræ pasturæ et x acræ siluæ. Valet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (1); 37a.

Godwin holds Dune. He himself held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for six ploughs. There are three ploughs, and two serfs, and seven villeins, and four bordars, and three acres of meadow, and six acres of pasture, and ten acres of wood. It is worth twenty shillings.

Boleborde.

Godricus tenet Boleborde. Almar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et uno ferling. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et iii [sic] serui et possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Godricus in dominio i ferding et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Godricus iii uillanos et i bordarium et ii [sic] seruos et iii animalia et xxiv oues et xl capras . . . nemusculi et xx agros prati et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos et quando recepit ualebat v solidos.—Exon. D. (487b) 450.

Godric has a manor called Bolehorda, which Almar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and one ferling. [This] can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of these Godric has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Godric has three villeins, and one bordar, and two serfs, and four head of cattle, and twenty-four sheep, and forty goats, [and one acre] of coppice, and twenty acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings, and it was worth five shillings when Godric received it.

Calodelia.

Godric habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Calodelia quam tenuit Almarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Godricus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Godric iii uillanos et v bordarios et v seruos et i porcum et xl agros nemoris et vii agros prati et ualet per annum xxx solidos et quando recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (488) 451.

Godric has a manor called Calodelia, which Almar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of this Godric has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and a half and one plough and a half. There Godric has three villeins, and five bordars, and five serfs, and one pig, and forty acres of wood, and seven acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Godric received it.

Hemberia.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Hemberia quam tenuit Edricus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Odo in dominio iii uirgas et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Odo ii uillanos iii uillani cum i bordario. Ibi xx acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ et una acra siluæ. Olim v solidos. Modo ualet x solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*.

Godric holds Boleborde. Almar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and one ferling. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, and three serfs, and three villeins, with one bordar. There are twenty acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture, and one acre of wood. Formerly it was worth five shillings. Now it is worth ten shillings.

Calodelie.

Idem Godricus tenet Calodelie. Almar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iv carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et dimidia et v serui et iii uillani et v bordarii et vii acræ prati et xl acræ siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*.

The same Godric holds Calodelie. Almar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. There are two ploughs and a half, and five serfs, and three villeins, and five bordars, and seven acres of meadow, and forty acres of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. Now it is worth thirty shillings.

Henberie.

Odo tenet Henberie. Edric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iii serui et ii uillani et ii bordarii. Ibi vii acræ prati et xl acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*. et ii bordarios et iii seruos et i runcinum et ii animalia et xvi oues et vii agros prati et xl agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xv solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (486b) 449.

Odo has a manor called Hemberia, which Edric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of this Odo has in demesne three virgates and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Odo has two villeins, and two bordars, and three serfs, and one packhorse, and two head of cattle, and sixteen sheep, and seven acres of meadow, and forty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings, and it was worth just as much when Odo received it.

Codaforda.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Codaforda quam tenuit Etdricus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Odo in dominio iii ferding et dimidiam carrucam et uillani i ferding et dimidiam carrucam. Ibi habet Odo i uillanum et ii bordarios et i seruum et vii oues et iii agros prati et ii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum vi solidos et quando recepit ualebat tantundem.—Exon. D. (486b) 450.

Odo has a manor called Codaforda, which Etdric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of this Odo has in demesne three ferlings and half a plough, and the villeins have one ferling and half a plough. There Odo has one villein, and two bordars, and one serf, and seven sheep, and three acres of meadow, and two acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year six shillings, and it was worth just as much when Odo received it.

Wicca.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wicca quam tenuit Bristecus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Odo i carrucam et i uillanum et iii bordarios et ii seruos et iiii animalia et iii porcos et xx oues et v capras et vi agros nemoris et vi prati et v pascuæ et ualet per annum viii solidos et quando recepit ualebat x solidos.—Exon. D. (489) 452.

Odo holds Henberie. Edric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, and three serfs, and two villeins, and two bordars. There are seven acres of meadow and forty acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth fifteen shillings.

Codeford.

Idem Odo tenet Codeford. Edric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi est i caruca cum i seruo et i uillano et ii bordariis. Ibi iii acra prati et ii acræ pasturæ. Olim et modo ualet vi solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*.

The same holds Codeford. Edric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. There is one plough, with one serf, and one villein, and two bordars. There are three acres of meadow and two acres of pasture. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth six shillings.

Wiche.

Odo tenet Wiche. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ qui ibi est cum i uillano et iii bordariis et ii seruis. Ibi vi acræ prati et v acræ pasturæ et vi acræ siluæ. Olim x solidos. Modo ualet viii solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*.

Odo has a manor called Wicca, which Bristec held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Odo has one plough, and one villein, and three bordars, and two serfs, and four head of cattle, and three swine, and twenty sheep, and five goats, and six acres of wood, and six of meadow, and five of pasture; and it is worth by the year eight shillings, and it was worth ten shillings when Odo received it.

Dona.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Dona quam tenuit Mathila ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Odo in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Odo i uillanum et vi bordarios et ii seruos et xv oues et xi capras et iii nemusculi et ii agros prati et iii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos et quando recepit ualebat xx solidos—Exon. D. (489) 452.

Odo has a manor called Dona, which Mathila held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of this Odo has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Odo has one villein, and six bordars, and two serfs, and fifteen sheep, and eleven goats, and three [acres] of coppice, and two acres of meadow, and three acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings, and it was worth twenty shillings when Odo received it.

Odo tenet Wiche. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough, which is there, with one villein, and three bordars, and two serfs. There are six acres of meadow, and five acres of pasture, and six acres of wood. Formerly it was worth ten shillings. It is now worth eight shillings.

Done.

Odo tenet Done. Mathila tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum uno uillano et vi bordariis et ii seruis. Ibi ii acræ prati et iii acræ pasturæ et iii acræ siluæ minutæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*.

Odo holds Done. Mathila held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one villein, and six bordars, and two serfs. There are two acres of meadow, and three acres of pasture, and three acres of coppice. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth twenty shillings.

Terræ Anglorum Tegnorum in Debenesira.***

Wica.

Aldretus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wica et reddidit gildum tempore regis Eduuardi pro dimidia uirga quam possunt arare iii carrucæ et habet inde in dominio i ferdinum et i carrucam et uillani i ferdinum et i carrucam. Ibi habet Aldretus iii uillanos et iii seruos et viii animalia et xxx berbices et x capras et v agros nemoris et x achros prati et xv achros pascuæ et ualet xx solidos per annum—Exon. D. (481) 445.

Lands of the English Tegnus in Debonshire.

Aldret has a manor called Wica, and it rendered geld in the time of king Edward for half a virgate, which three ploughs can plough, and of this he has in demesne one furlong and one plough, and the villeins have one furlong and one plough. There Aldret has three villeins, and three serfs, and eight head of cattle, and thirty wethers, and ten goats, and five acres of wood, and ten acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings.

Manitona.

Adret habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Manitona quam ipse tenet ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Adret dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Adret iii uillanos et ii bordarios et i seruum et iii animalia et x oues et v agros nemoris et v agros prati et iii agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xx solidos.—Exon. D. (488b) 451.

Adret has a manor called Manitona, which he himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of this Adret has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Adret has * Wica is the first manor in the Exeter book under this heading. The order is different in the Exchequer book, but the manors of the English tegnus, as will be noticed, extend from fol. 481 to the middle of fol. 490 in the original.

Wiche.

Eldred tenet Wiche . . . [blank in original] tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et iii serui et iii uillani et x acræ prati et xv acræ pasturæ et v acræ siluæ. Valet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*.

Eldred holds Wiche . . . in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, and three serfs, and three villeins, and ten acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture, and five acres of wood. It is worth twenty shillings.

Manitone.

Eldred tenet Manitone. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una uirgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et iii uillanis et ii bordariis. Ibi v acræ siluæ et totidem prati et ii acræ pasturæ. Valet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*.

Eldred holds Manitone. He himself held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and three villeins, and two bordars. There are five acres of wood, and the same of meadow, and two acres of pasture. It is worth twenty shillings.

three villeins, and two bordars, and one serf, and three head of cattle, and ten sheep, and five acres of wood, and five acres of meadow, and two acres of pasture. This is worth twenty shillings.

Bicheforda.

Adret habet i ferlinum terræ in Bicheforda quam ipse tenuit ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Inde habet Adret dimidium ferlinum et dimidium carrucam in dominio et uillani tantundem et dimidium carrucam. Ibi habet Adret ii uillanos et i seruum et vi animalia et i quadragenariam nemoris et i agrum prati et xii agros pascuæ et ualet xv solidos.—Exon. D. (488b) 452.

Adret has one ferling of land in Bicheforda, which he himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead. This can be ploughed by one plough. Of this Adret has in demesne half a ferling and half a plough, and the villeins have just as much, and half a plough. There Adret has two villeins, and one serf, and six head of cattle, and one furlong of wood, and one acre of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture; and it is worth fifteen shillings.

Colsouenescota.

Aluuardus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Colsouenescota quam tenuit ipse Aluuardus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Et habet inde in dominio i ferlinum et i carrucam et uillani i ferlinum et i carrucam. Ibi habet Aluuardus i uillanum et iii bordarios et i seruum et viii animalia et <sup>or</sup>iiii porcos et xxv oues et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum x solidos.—Exon. D. (481) 445.

Aluuardus Mertus habet dimidiam uirgam terræ et habet ibi i carrucam et ii carrucæ possunt eam arare et ualet v solidos per annum et regina dedit ei in elemosyna.—Exon. D. (483) 447.

Alward has a manor called Colsovenescota, which Alward himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of this Alward has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have one furlong and one plough. There Alward has one villein, and three bordars, and one serf, and eight head of cattle, and four swine, and twenty-five sheep, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year ten shillings.

Bicheford.

Edred tenet in Bicheford unum ferling terræ. Ipsemet tenuit tempore regis Eduuardi. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est cum i seruo et ii uillanis. Ibi i acra prati et una quarentena siluæ et xii acræ pasturæ. Valet v solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*.

Edred holds in Bicheford one ferling of land. He himself held it in the time of king Edward. There is land for one plough, which is there, with one serf and two villeins. There is one acre of meadow, and one furlong of wood, and there are twelve acres of pasture. It is worth five shillings.

Colsovenescote.

Aluuard tenet Colsovenescote. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i uillano et iii bordariis et uno seruo. Ibi xxx acræ pasturæ. Valet v solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*.

<sup>merit</sup> Aluuard tenet dimidiam virgatam terræ . . . [blank in original]. Ibi habet i carucam. Valet v solidos. Terra est ii carucis. Regina dedit ei in elimosina.

<sup>merit</sup> Alward holds Colsovenescote. He held it himself in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one villein, and three bordars, and one serf. There are thirty acres of pasture. It is worth five shillings.

Alward Mertus has half a virgate of land, and has there one plough, and two ploughs can plough it; and it is worth by the year five shillings, and the queen gave it to him in alms.

Madona.

Ansgodus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Madona quam tenuit ipse Ansgodus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida terræ. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ et dimidia. Inde habet Ansgodus in dominio dimidiam uirgam terræ et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et dimidiam et i carrucam et dimidiam. Ibi habet Ansgodus iii uillanos et iii bordarios et i seruum et vii animalia et xxv oues et ii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et i quadragenariam in latitudine et lx agros prati et viii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos.—Exon. D. (482) 446.

Ansgod has a manor called Madona, which Ansgod himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide of land. This can be ploughed by two ploughs and a half. Of this Ansgod has in demesne half a virgate of land and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and a half and one plough and a half. There Ansgod has three villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and seven head of cattle, and twenty-five sheep, and wood two furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth, and sixty acres of meadow, and eight acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings.

Ferleia.

Ansgotus tenet i mansionem quæ uocatur Ferleia quam tenuit Dona ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Ansgotus i bordarium et ii seruos et x animalia et xv oues et xxx capras et xii agros nemoris et xii prati et xv pascuæ et ualet per annum v solidos.—Exon. D. (482) 447.

Ansgot holds a manor called Ferleia, which Dona held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Ansgot has one bordar, and two serfs, and ten head of cattle, and fifteen sheep, and thirty goats, and twelve acres of wood, and twelve [acres] of meadow, and fifteen [acres] of pasture; and it is worth by the year five shillings.

<sup>ment</sup>
 Alward holds half a virgate of land . . . There he has one plough. It is worth five shillings. There is land for two ploughs. The queen gave it to him in alms.

Madone.

Ansgot tenet Madone. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est ii carucis et dimidia quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et iii uillani et iii bordarii et lx acræ prati et viii acræ pasturæ. Silua ii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Valet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*.

Ansgot holds Madone. He himself held in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for two ploughs and a half, which are there, with one serf, and there are three villeins, and three bordars, and sixty acres of meadow, and eight acres of pasture. Wood two furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. It is worth twenty shillings.

Ferlie.

Ansgot tenet Ferlie. Done tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia uirgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi est i bordarius et ii serui et xii acræ prati et totidem siluæ et xv acræ pasturæ. Valet v solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*.

Ansgot holds Ferlie. Done held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There is one bordar, and there are two serfs, and twelve acres of meadow, and the same of wood, and fifteen acres of pasture. It is worth five shillings.

Sedeborga.

Ansgotus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Sedeborga quam tenuit Brismarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Ansgotus i bordarium et iiii seruos et vi animalia et xxx ones et xii capras et vi agros prati et xii pascuæ et ualet per annum v solidos.—Exon. D. (482b) 447.

Et hæc Sedeborga iacebat mansioni Balduuini uicecomitis quæ uocatur Pecheham die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus.—Exon. D. (483) 447.

Ansgot has a manor called Sedeborga, which Brismar held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Ansgot has one bordar, and three serfs, and six head of cattle, and thirty sheep, and twelve goats, and six acres of meadow, and twelve of pasture; and it is worth by the year five shillings.

And this Sedeborga adjoined the manor of Earl Baldwin called Pecheham on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead.

Nebuentona.

Domnus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Nevnentina quam ipsemet tenuit ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iiii hidis. Has possunt arare xxx carrucæ. Inde habet Domnus i hidam et i uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent ii hidas i uirgam minus et xx carrucas. Ibi habet Domnus xx et i uillanum et viii bordarios et vi seruos et i molendinum qui reddit per annum xxx et ii denarios et i leugam nemusculi in longitudine et dimidium in latitudine et xx agros prati et xxviii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum vi libras. Hanc terram tenuit Domnus de Eduuardo rege et modo dicit se eam tenere de Willelmo rege.—Exon. D. (483) 447.

Domnus has a manor called Newentona, which he himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three hides. These can be ploughed by thirty ploughs. Of these Domnus has in demeane one hide, and one virgate, and one plough, and the villeins have two hides less a virgate, and twenty ploughs. There Domnus has twenty-one villeins, and eight bordars, and six serfs, and one mill which pays by the year thirty-two pence, and coppice one leuga in length and half a leuga in breadth, and twenty acres of meadow, and twenty-eight acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year six pounds.

This land Domnus held of king Edward, and now he says that he holds it of king William.

Sedeborge.

Ansgot tenet Sedeborge. Brismar tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi sunt iii serui cum i bordario et vi acræ prati et xii acræ pasturæ. Valet v solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*.

Hoc Sedeborge tempore regis Eduuardi pertinebat ad Pecheham manerium Balduini uiccomitis.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*.

Ansgot holds Sedeborge. Brismar held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There are three serfs, with one bordar, and six acres of meadow, and twelve acres of pasture. It is worth five shillings.

This Sedeborge in the time of king Edward belonged to Pecheham, a manor of Baldwin the Sheriff.

Niwetone.

Donne tenet Niwetone. Ipsemet tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis. Terra est xxx carucis. In dominio est i caruca et vi serui et xxi uillani et viii bordarii cum xx carucis. Ibi molinus reddens xxxii denarios et xx acræ prati et xxviii acræ pasturæ. Silua minuta una leuca longitudine et dimidia leuca latitudine. Valet vi libras.

Hic tenuit de rege Eduuardo et modo dicit se tenere de rege Willelmo.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*.

Donne holds Niwetone. He himself held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides. There is land for thirty ploughs. In demesne is one plough, and there are six serfs, and twenty-one villeins, and eight bordars, with twenty ploughs. There is a mill paying thirty-two pence, and twenty acres of meadow, and twenty-eight acres of pasture. Coppice one mile in length and half a mile in breadth. It is worth six pounds.

This [thegn] held of king Edward, and now he says that he holds of king William.

Noteswilla.

Donnus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Noteswilla quam ipse tenuit ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i hida et dimidia. Hanc possunt arare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Donnus i hidam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani dimidiam hidam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Donnus vii uillanos et iiii bordarios et ii seruos et c oues vii minus et iiii agros prati et v agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet xx solidos.—Exon. D. (487b) 450.

Donnus has a manor called Noteswilla, which he himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one hide and a half. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of this Donnus has in demesne one hide and one plough, and the villeins have half a hide and two ploughs. There Donnus has seven villeins, and four bordars, and two serfs, and ninety-three sheep, and four acres of meadow, and five acres of pasture. This is worth twenty shillings.

Braia.

Alnodus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Braia quam tenuit Vluuinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc potest arrare vi carrucæ. Inde habet Alnodus dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent iii carrucas. Ibi habet Alnodus iiii uillanos et iiii bordarios et iiii seruos et vi animalia et xxx oues et xii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et i quadragenariam et dimidiam in latitudine et iiii agros prati et dimidiam leugam pascuæ et i quadragenariam in latitudine et ualet per annum xxx solidos.—Exon. D. (483b) 447.

Alnod has a manor called Brai, which Ulwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by six ploughs. Of this Alnod has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have three ploughs. There Alnod has four villeins, and four bordars, and four serfs, and six head of cattle, and thirty sheep, and wood twelve furlongs in length and one furlong and a half in breadth, and four acres of meadow, and half a leuga of pasture [§ in length], and one furlong in breadth; and it is worth by the year thirty shillings.

Midelcota.

Aluvinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Midelcota quam tenuit ipsemet tenuit ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et

Noteswille.

Donne tenet Noteswille. Ipsemet tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una hida et dimidia. Terra est vi carucis. Ibi sunt iii carucæ et ii serui et vii uillani et iiii bordarii et iiii acræ prati et v acræ pasturæ. Valet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*.

Donne holds Noteswille. He himself held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one hide and a half. There is land for six ploughs. There are three ploughs, and two serfs, and seven villeins, and four bordars, and four acres of meadow, and five acres of pasture. It is worth twenty shillings.

Brai.

Alnodus tenet Brai. Vluinus tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est vi carucis. Ibi sunt iiii carucæ et iiii serui et iiii uillani et iiii bordarii et iiii acræ prati. Pastura dimidia leuca longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Silua iii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Valet xxx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (2); 37*b*.

Alnod holds Brai. Ulwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for six ploughs. There are four ploughs, and four serfs, and four villeins, and four bordars, and four acres of meadow. Pasture half a leuga in length and one furlong in breadth. Wood three furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth. It is worth thirty shillings.

Midelcote.

Aluinus tenet Midelcote. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidio ferling terræ. Terra est mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidio fertino hanc potes [sic] arare i carruca. In ea habet Aluinus i carrucam et i seruum et iiii animalia et xxxiiii oues et x capras et iiii agros nemusculi et ualet per annum v solidos.—Exon. D. (483b) 448.

Alwin has a manor called Midelcota, which he himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a furlong. This can be ploughed by one plough. In it Alwin has one plough, and one serf, and four head of cattle, and thirty-four sheep, and ten goats, and three acres of coppice; and it is worth by the year five shillings.

Buterleia.

Eduuinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Buterleia quam tenuit ipse Eduuardus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Eduuinus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Eduuinus iiii uillanos et i bordarium et i seruo et i animalium et x porcos et xl oues et viii agros nemoris et ualet per annum xv solidos.—Exon. D. (483b) 448.

Edwin has a manor called Buterleia, which he himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of this Edwin has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and two ploughs. There Edwin has four villeins, and one bordar, and one serf, and one head of cattle, and ten swine, and forty sheep, and eight acres of wood; and it is worth by the year fifteen shillings.

Clist.

Eduuinus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Clist quam tenuit Aluinus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc potest arare dimidia carruca. Ibi habet Etduuinus i uillanum et ii seruos et ii agros nemusculi et iiii agros prati et ii agros pascuæ et ualet per annum vi solidos.—Exon. D. (487) 450.

Edwin has a manor called Clist, which Alwin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by half a plough. There Edwin has one villen, and two serfs, and two acres of coppice, and three acres of meadow, and two acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year six shillings.

i carucæ quæ ibi est cum i seruo. Ibi ii acræ siluæ minutæ. Valet v solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

Alwin holds Midelcote. He held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a ferling of land. There is land for one plough, which is there, with one serf. There are two acres of coppice. It is worth five shillings.

Buterlei.

Eduinus tenet Buterlei. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis. Ibi sunt tamen iii carucæ cum i bordario et i seruo et iiii uillanis. Ibi sunt viii acræ siluæ. Valet xv solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

Edwin holds Buterlei. He held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs. But there are three ploughs, with one bordar, and one serf, and four villeins. There are eight acres of wood. It is worth fifteen shillings.

Clist.

Eduin tenet Clist. Aluin tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est dimidiæ carucæ. Ibi unus uillanus et ii serui et ii acræ siluæ minutæ et iii acræ prati et ii acræ pasturæ. Valet vi solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

Edwin holds Clist. Alwin held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for half a plough. There is one villein, and there are two serfs, and two acres of coppice, and three acres of meadow, and two acres of pasture. It is worth six shillings.

Wadeham.

Vlfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wadeham quam ipse tenuit ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Modo tenet eamdem de rege. Inde habet Vlfus i fertinum et i carrucam in dominio et uillani habent ii carrucas. Ibi habet Vlfus iiii uillanos et iii seruos et xii animalia et viii equas siluestres et iiii quadragenarias nemoris in longitudine et iii in latitudine et vi agros prati et l agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xx solidos.—Exon. D. (486b) 449.

Ulf has a manor called Wadeham, which he himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Now he holds the same of the king. Of this Ulf has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have two ploughs. There Ulf has four villeins, and three serfs, and twelve head of cattle, and eight brood mares, and four furlongs of wood in length and three in breadth, and six acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year twenty shillings.

Chenutdestana.

Algarus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Chenutdestana quam tenuit ipse Algarus ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare iii carrucæ. Inde habet Algarus in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Algarus ii uillanos et iii bordarios et ii seruos et vii animalia et x porcos et xxx oues et i agrum nemusculi et v agros prati et xxx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum vii solidos et dimidium.—Exon. D. (487) 450.

Algar has a manor called Chenutdestana, which Algar himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of this Algar has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have half a virgate and one plough. There Algar has two villeins, and three bordars, and two serfs, and seven head of cattle, and ten swine, and thirty sheep, and one acre of coppice, and five acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year seven shillings and a half.

Donestantona.

Algarus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Donestanstona quam tenuit ipse Algarus qui modo tenet tempore regis Eduuardi et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt

Wadeham.

Ulf tenet Wadeham. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis quæ ibi sunt et iii serui et iiii uillani et vi acræ prati et i acræ pasturæ. Silua iiii quarentenæ longitudine et iii quarentenæ latitudine. Valet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

Ulf holds Wadeham. He held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs, which are there, and three serfs, and four villeins, and six acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture. Wood four furlongs in length and three furlongs in breadth. It is worth twenty shillings.

Chenbdestane.

Algar tenet Chenvdestane. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et ii serui et ii uillani et iii bordarii et v acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ et una acra siluæ minutæ. Valet vii solidos et dimidium.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

Algar holds Chenudestane. He held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, and two serfs, and two villeins, and three bordars, and five acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture, and one acre of coppice. It is worth seven shillings and a half.

Donestanestone.

Algar tenet Donestanestone. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iii carucis. Ibi sunt ii carucæ et ii serui cum i uillano et arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet Algarus in dominio i uirgam et i carrucam et uillani i uirgam et i carrucam. Ibi habet Algarus i uillanum et i bordarium et ii seruos et xxx oues et xii capras et iiii agros nemoris et ualet per annum x solidos.—Exon. D. (489b) 452.

Algar has a manor called Donestanstona, which Algar himself, who now holds it, held in the time of king Edward, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by three ploughs. Of this Algar has in demesne one virgate and one plough, and the villeins have one virgate and one plough. There Algar has one villein, and one bordar, and two serfs, and thirty sheep, and twelve goats, and four acres of wood; and it is worth by the year ten shillings.

Wirlbeslīga.

Alricus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Wirlbeslīga quam tenuit ipse ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia hida. Hanc possunt arare iiii carrucæ. Inde habet in dominio dimidiam uirgam et i carrucam et uillani iiii ferlinos et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Alricus iiii uillanos et . . . ii bordarios et i seruum et vi animalia et . . . oues et vi agros . . . v prati et xxx agros pascuæ . . . et quando recepit ualet tantundem.—Exon. D. (488) 451.

Alric has a manor called Wirlbeslīga, which he himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a hide. This can be ploughed by four ploughs. Of this he has in demesne half a virgate and one plough, and the villeins have three ferlings and two ploughs. There Alric has four villeins, and . . . two bordars, and one serf, and six head of cattle, and . . . sheep, and six acres . . . five of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture . . . and it was worth just as much when he received it.

Essapla.

Aluricus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Essapla quam ipse tenuit ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Aluricus i ferlinum et i carrucam in dominio et uillani i ferlinum et i carrucam. Ibi habet Aluricus iiii uillanos et i bordarium et i seruum et vi animalia et xvi oues et x agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet viii solidos.—Exon. D. (488) 451.

Aluric has a manor called Essapla, which he held himself on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of uno bordario. Ibi iiii acræ siluæ. Valet x solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

Algar holds Donestanestone. He held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for three ploughs. There are two ploughs, and two serfs, with one villein, and one bordar. There are four acres of wood. It is worth ten shillings.

Wasberlege.

Alric tenet Wasberlege. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia hida. Terra est iiii carucis. Ibi sunt iii carucæ cum i seruo et iiii uillani et iii bordarii. Ibi v acræ prati et xxx acræ pasturæ et vi acræ siluæ. Olim et modo ualet xx solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

Alric holds Wasberlege. He held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a hide. There is land for four ploughs. There are three ploughs, with one serf, and four villeins, and three bordars. There are five acres of meadow, and thirty acres of pasture, and six acres of wood. Formerly it was, and it is now, worth twenty shillings.

Essaple.

Aluric tenet Essaple. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et iii uillanis et i bordario. Ibi x acræ pasturæ. Valet viii solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

Aluric holds Essaple. He held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and three villeins, and this Aluric has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have one ferling and one plough. There Aluric has three villeins, and one bordar, and one serf, and six head of cattle, and sixteen sheep, and ten acres of pasture. This is worth eight shillings.

Siredona.

Aluricus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Siredona quam ipse tenuit ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc possunt arare ii carrucæ. Inde habet Aluricus i ferlinum et i carrucam in dominio et uillani iii ferlinos et i carrucam. Ibi habet Aluricus iii uillanos et iii bordarios et i seruum et vi animalia et ii porcos et xxiii oues et x capras et xx agros nemoris et lx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet vii solidos et vi denarios.—Exon. D. (489b) 453.

Aluric has a manor called Siredona, which he himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by two ploughs. Of this Aluric has in demesne one ferling and one plough, and the villeins have three ferlings and one plough. There Aluric has three villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and six head of cattle, and two swine, and twenty-four sheep, and ten goats, and twenty acres of wood, and sixty acres of pasture. This is worth seven shillings and sixpence.

Betunia.

Leuricus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Betunia quam ipse tenuit ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirgam. Hanc potest arare i carrucam. Inde habet Leuricus dimidiam uirgam in dominio et uillani dimidiam uirgam et iii boues in carrucam. Ibi habet Leuricus ii uillanos et i bordarium et ii agros prati. Hæc ualet xxx denarios.—Exon. D. (488b) 451.

Leuric has a manor called Betunia, which he held himself on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. Of this Leuric has in demesne half a virgate, and the villeins have half a virgate and three plough oxen. There Leuric has two villeins, and one bordar, and two acres of meadow. This is worth thirty pence.

Dunesforda.

Saulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Dunesforda quam tenuit ipsemet ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus one bordar. There are ten acres of pasture. It is worth eight shillings.

Siredone.

Aluric tenet Siredone. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est ii carucis quæ ibi sunt cum i seruo et iii uillanis et iii bordariis. Ibi xx acræ siluæ et lx acræ pasturæ. Valet vii solidos et vi denarios.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

Aluric holds Siredone. He held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for two ploughs, which are there, with one serf, and three villeins, and three bordars. There are twenty acres of wood and sixty acres of pasture. It is worth seven shillings and six pence.

Betunie.

Leuric tenet Betunie. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi ii uillani cum i bordario habent dimidiam carucam et ii acræ prati ibi. Valet xx denarios.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

Leuric holds Betunie. He held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There are two villeins, with one bordar, having half a plough, and there are two acres of meadow there. It is worth twenty pence.

Dvnesford.

Saulf tenet Dvnesford. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. In ea habet Saulfus iii bordarios et xx agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xl denarios.—Exon. D. (490) 453.

Saulf has a manor called Dunesforda, which he himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. In it Saulf has three bordars and twenty acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year forty pence.

Manneheua.

Saulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Manneheua quam tenuit ipse ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus, et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. In ea est i uillanus et reddit per annum xlv denarios.—Exon. D. (490) 453.

Saulf has a manor called Manneheua, which he himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. In it is one villein, and it renders by the year forty-five pence.

Milehyuis.

Saulfus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Milehyuis quam tenuit ipse ea die quam rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus, et reddidit gildum pro i uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. In ea habet Saulfus ii uillanos et i bordarium et i uaccam et ualet per annum l denarios.—Exon. D. (490) 453.

Saulf has a manor called Milehyuis, which he himself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. In it Saulf has two villeins, and one bordar, and one cow; and it is worth by the year fifty pence.

Iacobescherca.

Alueuia habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Iacobescherca quam ipsa tenuit ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro i uirga et dimidia. Hanc potest arare i carruca. In ea habet Alueuia i carrucam et ii cotarios et i seruum xiiii oues et ualet per annum xl denarios.—Exon. D. (487) 450.

Alueuia has a manor called Iacobescherca, which she herself held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for one virgate and a half. This can be ploughed by one plough. In this Alueuia has one plough, and two cottars, and i carucæ. Ibi sunt iii bordarii et xx acræ pasturæ. Valet xl denarios.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

Saulf holds Dunesford. He held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There are three bordars, and twenty acres of pasture. It is worth forty pence.

Manneheve.

Idem tenet Manneheve. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi est unu uillanus et reddit xlv denarios.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

The same [Saulf] holds Manneheve. He held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There is one villein, and it returns forty-five pence.

Milchewis.

Idem tenet Milchewis. Ipse tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi sunt ii uillani cum i bordario. Valet l denarios.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

The same [Saulf] holds Milchewis. He held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There are two villeins with one bordar. It is worth fifty pence.

Jacobescherche.

Alveva tenet Jacobescherche. Ipsa tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro una virgata terræ et dimidia. Terra est i carucæ quæ ibi est cum i seruo et ii cotariis. Valet xl denarios.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

Alveva holds Jacobescherche. She held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for one virgate of land and a half. There is land for one plough, which is there, with one serf, and two cottars. It is worth forty pence.

one serf, [and] fourteen sheep; and it is worth by the year forty pence.

Chenutdestana.

Alsilla habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Chenutdestana quam tenuit ipsa ea die qua Eduuardus rex fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga. Hanc potest arare i carruca. Ibi habet Alsilla dimidiam carrucam et ii seruos et v animalia et x oues et i agrum nemusculi et ii agros prati et xv agros pascuæ et ualet per annum xxx denarios.—Exon. D. (487) 450.

Alsilla has a manor called Chenutdestana, which she held herself on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate. This can be ploughed by one plough. There Alsilla has half a plough, and two serfs, and five head of cattle, and ten sheep, and one acre of coppice, and two acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture; and it is worth by the year thirty pence.

Torra.

Godeua habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Torra quam tenuit Bristricius uir ei ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii hidis. Has possunt arare xii carrucæ. Inde habet Godeua i hidam et iiii carrucas in dominio et uillani ii hidas et viii. Ibi habet Godeua xvi uillanos et xii bordarios et iiii seruos et cxx oues et c agros nemoris et vi agros prati et xx agros pascuæ. Hæc ualet c solidos.—Exon. D. (488b) 451.

Godeva has a manor called Torra, which Bristric her husband held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three hides. These can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of these Godeva has in demesne one hide and four ploughs, and the villeins have two hides and eight [ploughs]. There Godeva has sixteen villeins, and twelve bordars, and four serfs, and one hundred and twenty sheep, and one hundred acres of wood, and six acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. This is worth one hundred shillings.

Dodebroca.

Godeua habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Dodebroca quam tenuit Bristricus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro ii hidis. Has possunt arare xii carrucæ. Inde habet Godeua i hidam et iiii carrucas in dominio et uillani i hidam et xii carrucas. Ibi habet Godeua xvi uillanos et xviii bordarios et viii seruos et i rancinum et xvi animalia et viiii porcos et c oues et viii [sic] et Chenbdestane.

Alfhilla tenet Chenvdestane. Ipsa tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro dimidia virgata terræ. Terra est i carucæ. Ibi est dimidia caruca et ii serui. Ibi ii acræ prati et xv acræ pasturæ et una acra siluæ minutæ. Valet xxx denarios.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

Alfhilla holds Chenudestane. She held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for half a virgate of land. There is land for one plough. There is half a plough and there are two serfs. There are two acres of meadow, and fifteen acres of pasture, and one acre of coppice. It is worth thirty pence.

Torre.

Godeua tenet Torre. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro iii hidis. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt iiii carucæ et iiii serui et xvi uillani et xii bordarii cum viii carucis. Ibi c acræ siluæ et vi acræ prati et xx acræ pasturæ. Valet c solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

Godeva holds Torre. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for three hides. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne are four ploughs, and four serfs, and sixteen villeins, and twelve bordars, with eight ploughs. There are one hundred acres of wood, and six acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture. It is worth one hundred shillings.

Dodebroch.

Godeua tenet Dodebroch. Brictric tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi et geldabat pro ii hidis. Terra est xii carucis. In dominio sunt iiii carucæ et viii serui et xvi uillani et xviii bordarii cum xii carucis. Ibi iiii acræ prati. Silua minuta viii quarentenæ longitudine et una quarentena latitudine. Valet c solidos.—Exch. D. 118 (3); 38a.

xxvii capras et viii quadragenarias in longitudine nemusculi et i quadragenarium in latitudine et iiii agros prati et ualet per annum v libras.—Exon. D. (489b) 452.

Godeva has a manor called Dodebroca, which Bristric held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for two hides. This can be ploughed by twelve ploughs. Of these Godeva has in demesne one hide and four ploughs, and the villeins have one hide and twelve ploughs. There Godeva has sixteen villeins, and eighteen bordars, and eight serfs, and one pack-horse, and sixteen head of cattle, and eight swine, and one hundred sheep, and eight [sic], and twenty-seven goats, and coppice eight furlongs in length and one furlong in breadth, and four acres of meadow; and it is worth by the year five pounds.

THE MANOR OF SOTREBROC IS IN THE EXETER BUT NOT IN THE EXCHEQUER BOOK.

Sotrebroc.

Floherus habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Sotrebroc quam tenuit Aluiet ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro dimidia uirga quam possunt arare iiii boues et ualet per annum ii solidos.—Exon. D. (459) 424.

Floher has a manor called Sotrebroc, which Aluiet held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for half a virgate, which four oxen can plough; and it is worth by the year two shillings.

Godeva holds Dodebroch. Brictric held it in the time of king Edward, and it paid geld for two hides. There is land for twelve ploughs. In demesne are four ploughs, and eight serfs, and sixteen villeins, and eighteen bordars, with twelve ploughs. There are four acres of meadow. Coppice eight furlongs in length and one furlong in width. It is worth one hundred shillings.

OMITTED FROM PAGE 1060.

Yuuis.

Odo habet i mansionem quæ uocatur Yuuis quam tenuit Sauuinus ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus et reddidit gildum pro iii uirgis et i fertino. Hanc possunt arare vii carrucæ. Modo habet eam Radulfus Uitalis de Odone. Inde habet Radulfus i uirgam et iii carrucas in dominio et uillani habent ii uirgas et ii carrucas. Ibi habet Radulfus vii uillanos et iii bordarios et i seruum et xxiiii animalia et vii porcos et c et ii oues et xxx agros nemoris et xxxv capras et xii agros prati et l agros pascuæ. Prescriptum fertinum tenuit i tagnum ea die qua rex Eduuardus fuit uiuus et mortuus qui cum fertino predicto poterat seperari a Sauuino. Hæc mansio ualet per annum xl solidos et quando Radulfus recepit ualebat lx solidos.—Exon. D. (376) 353.

Odo has a manor called Yuuis, which Sawin held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, and it rendered geld for three virgates and one ferling. These can be ploughed by seven ploughs. Now Radulfus Vitalis has these of Odo. Of these Radulfus has in demesne one virgate and three ploughs, and the villeins have two virgates and two ploughs. There Radulfus has seven villeins, and three bordars, and one serf, and twenty-four head of cattle, and seven swine, and one hundred and two sheep, and thirty acres of wood, and thirty-five goats, and twelve acres of meadow, and fifty acres of pasture. The above written ferling a thegn held on the day on which king Edward was alive and dead, who with the aforesaid ferling was able to be separated from Sawin. This manor is worth by the year forty shillings, and it was worth sixty shillings when Radulfus received it.

ERRATA ET CORRIGENDA.

---

- p. 2, 3. The entry relating to Exeter precedes the list of tenants given on page 1, being in the upper left-hand corner of the column on the first leaf; but for convenience of printing it was placed here, as it now appears.
- p. 3. Fourth line from bottom, for 'KING'S DEMESNE LAND' read 'LAND OF THE KING.'
- p. 4. Between lines 16 and 17 from bottom insert 'DOMINICATUS REGIS AD REGNUM PERTINENS IN DEVENESCIRA,' and between lines 8 and 9 from the bottom insert 'KING'S DEMESNE LANDS BELONGING TO THE KINGDOM IN DEVONSHIRE.'
- p. 29. Seventh line from top, for 'mile' read 'leuga.'
- p. 48. Thirteenth line from bottom, for 'and again in same terms' read 'et in totidem verbis.'
- „ Last line, insert after 'assay,' 'and again in the same words.'
- p. 49. Fourth line from top, after 'pasture' insert a full stop, and for 'wood' read 'Wood.'
- p. 52. Line twelve from top, after 'it' add 'to ferm.'
- „ Line five from bottom, insert 'of' before 'wood.'
- p. 53. Line two from top, insert 'BRADESTANE.'
- p. 56. Line nineteen from top, after 'tantundem' add 'Exon. D. (94b) 86.'
- p. 56. Line nineteen from top, for 'Balduinas' read 'Balduinus.'
- p. 57. Line four from top, for 'quatuor' read 'quater.'
- „ Line eight from top, add 'Exch. D. 101 (1); 3a.'
- p. 58. Line seventeen from top, add 'Exon. D. (95) 86.'
- p. 59. Line twelve from top, add 'Exch. D. 101 (1); 3a.'
- p. 60. Line fourteen, after 'Eduuardus' insert 'rex.'
- p. 61. Line three from bottom, for 'silva' read 'silua.'
- p. 63. Last line, insert 'Exch. D. 101 (1); 3a.'
- p. 69. Line ten from top, add 'Ghida tenebat tempore regis Eduuardi.'
- „ Line nine from bottom, add 'Ghida held it in the time of king Edward.'
- p. 80. Line twenty-one from bottom, for 'arrare' read 'arare.'
- p. 82. Line four from top, for 'Bristicius' read 'Bristricius.'
- p. 83. Line four from top, for 'carcucis' read 'carucis.'
- p. 211. Line five from bottom, for 'mile' read 'leuga.'
- p. 227. Line ten from top, add 'Exch. D. 103 (3); 8a.'
- p. 229. Line five from bottom, add 'Exch. D. 103 (3); 8a.'
- p. 231. Last line, add 'Exch. D. 103 (3); 8a.'
- p. 243. Line five from bottom, for 'caruca' read 'carucæ.'
- p. 257. Lines nine and ten from top, for 'Hetfeld' read 'Hetfold,' and the same in the translation.
- p. 282. Line eight from bottom, for 'it' read 'them.'
- p. 291. Line five from top, for 'domus' read 'domum.'
- p. 292. Line ten from bottom, for 'virgus' read 'virgas.'
- p. 301. Line eight from bottom, for 'caruca' read 'carucæ.'
- p. 305. Fifth line from bottom, for 'unum' read 'unus,' for 'uillanum' read 'uillanus,' and for 'bordario' read 'bordarius.'

- p. 311. Line three from top, for 'bordario' read 'bordarius.'
- p. 335. Line ten from bottom, for 'una' read 'unam,' and for 'virgata' read 'virgatum.'
- p. 341. Line nine from top, for 'carucis' read 'carucas.'
- p. 345. Line two from bottom, for 'bordarius' read 'bordario.'
- p. 345. Line nine from top, for 'una virgata' read 'unam virgatum.'
- p. 353. Line thirteen from bottom, for 'dimidia' read 'dimidio.'
- p. 375. Lisistone, against this in the margin of the original is par for parier.
- p. 379. Line ten from bottom, for 'Osfers' read 'Offers.'
- p. 379. Line nine from bottom, for 'virgatæ' read 'virgatis.'
- p. 385. Line seven from bottom, for 'terras' read 'terram.'
- p. 385. Line six from bottom, for 'pertinebant' read 'pertinebat,' and for 'geldabant' read 'geldabat.'
- p. 389. Line five from bottom, for 'dimidia' read 'dimidio.'
- p. 389. Line seven from bottom, for 'Osfers' read 'Offers.'
- p. 513. Line three from top, for 'Balduino' read 'Balduin.'
- p. 561. Line thirteen from bottom, for 'Osfers' read 'Offers.'
- p. 591. Line ten from bottom, for 'bordarios' read 'bordariis.'
- p. 655. Line five from top, for 'bordario' read 'bordarius.'
- p. 657. Line twelve from bottom, for 'geldebant' read 'geldabant.'
- p. 663. Line five from bottom, for 'solidas' read 'solidos.'
- p. 663. Line seven from bottom, for 'dimidia acra' read 'dimidiam acram.'
- p. 681. Line seven from bottom, for 'carucis' read 'carucæ.'
- p. 691. Line sixteen from top, for 'carucis' read 'carucas.'
- p. 703. Line six from top, for 'carucæ' read 'carucis.'
- p. 713. Line fifteen from bottom, for 'caruas' read 'carucas.'
- p. 739. Last line, for 'acræ' read 'acra.'
- p. 797. Line nine from bottom, for 'Eui' read 'Qui.'
- p. 797. Last line, for 'Eui' read 'Who.'
- p. 799. Line nine from top, for 'Eui' read 'Qui.'
- p. 799. Line fifteen from top, for 'Eui' read 'who.'
- p. 803. Line four from top, for 'Mathildus' read 'Mathilda.'
- p. 803. Line seven from top, for 'dimidia caruca et cl acras' read 'dimidiam carucam et cl acras,' &c.
- p. 817. Last line, for 'virgatæ' read 'virgatis.'
- p. 847. Line five from bottom, for 'dimidia' read 'dimidiæ.'
- p. 862. Between lines nine and ten from bottom, insert 'THE LAND OF GOSCELM OF ESSICESTRA.'
- p. 916. Pudeforda. The reference to the original MS. is fol. 336, not 345b. The same references are wrong from p. 916. Horeuoda. Torilanda, and Aissecoma should be 336, and Holcoma should be 336b.
- p. 929. Line five from bottom, for 'una' read 'uno.'
- p. 963. Line five from bottom, delete 'query duo.'
- p. 987. Line eleven from top, for 'WIFTESWILLE' read 'WIFLESWILLE,' and the same reading in the line below and in the translation following.
- p. 993. Lines five and six from bottom, for 'Sideford' read 'Sigeford.'
- p. 1001. Lines nine and ten from bottom, for 'Bocheunius' read 'Bochewis,' or 'Bochevvis.'
- p. 1045. Lines eighteen, twenty-six, and twenty-seven from bottom, for 'Tameretone' read 'Tambretona.'
- p. 1060. Supply Exeter book entry of Yunis—Iwis. See page 1196.
- p. 1061. Lines nine, eighteen, and nineteen, for 'Lwis' read 'Iwis.'
- p. 1121. Line nine from bottom, for 'una virgata' read 'unam virgatum.'
- p. 1123. Line seven from bottom, for 'dimidia caruca' read 'dimidiæ carucæ.'

INDICES.

IN the preparation of these Indices it was felt necessary to provide a reference for every form in which the Names of Places or Persons appear. Indeed, unless the Index-maker also undertook the duty of identification, this was the only legitimate alternative. It must however be borne in mind that most of the names appear under more than one form, and some under many. To this complete nomenclatural analysis more general cross-references have been added. The Index of Classes and Things deals with the more exceptional general features of the record. Bordars, villeins, and serfs ; wood, meadow, and pasture ; cattle, sheep, and goats—occur more or less in connection with every manorial entry.

It will be found convenient to remember that all the odd pages deal with the Exchequer Book ; all the even, and the numerals, with the Exeter.

INDEX OF PLACES.

---

Acha—402, 403.
 Achia—1068.
 Achie—1069.
 Addeberia—944.
 Addeberie—945.
 Adoneboui—130, 131.
 Adrelie—235.
 Æcclesia Sancte Marie—106, 107.
 Aedelstan—707.
 Æxeministra—6.
 Afetona, 956.
 Afetone—957.
 Ailauesfort—130.
 Ailesberga—520.
 Ailesuescota—164.
 Ainechesdona—904, 1088.
 Ainechesdone—905.
 Ainichedone—1089.
 Aisbertona—94.
 Aisbertone—95.
 Aiscireuuilla—444.
 Aiseforda—446, 814.
 Aiserstone—255.
 Aissa—40, 86, 124, 250, 254, 526,
     914.
 Aisse—41, 87, 125, 251, 255, 527,
     915.
 Aissecoma—918.
 Aissecome—919.
 Aisseford—447, 815.
 Aisselie—573.
 Aisseminstre—767.
 Aissileia—572.
 Alentona—xlii.
 Aleriga hundred—xii.
 Alesland—1155.
 Aleslant—1154.
 Alestov—1107.
 Alfelmestone—997.
 Alferdintona—1028.
 Alferdintone—1029.
 Alfintona—60.
 Alfintone—61.
 Alforda—710.
 Alforde—771.
 Alfreincoma—466.
 Alfreincome—467.

Alintona—618.
 Alintone—619, 893.
 Alleriga hundred—xlv.
 Almerescota—1060.
 Almerescote—1061.
 Alra—182, 900, 1068, 1122.
 Alraforda—552.
 Alre—xxvii, 183, 901, 1069, 1123.
 Alreford—553.
 Als Bretone—93.
 Alsaemenistra—14.
     ———— ecclesia—16.
 Alseministre—15.
     ———— ecclesia—15.
 Alseministra—720.
 Alseminstre—721.
 Alsemuda—20.
     ———— hundred—xii.
 Alsemvde—21.
 Aluintona—22.
 Aluredescota—330.
 Aluuinestona—354, 606.
 Aluuynelancuale—912.
 Alveredescote—331.
 Alvintone—23.
 Alwineclancavele—913.
 Alwinestone—355, 607.
 Alwinetona—294.
 Alwinetone—295.
 Anestiga—186, 286.
 Anestige—187, 287, 459.
 Anestinga—286, 458.
 Anestinge—287.
 Anglia—3, 4, 5, 58, 708, 709.
 Apledora—428.
 Apledore—429.
 Asaberga—1010.
 Ascerewelle—445.
 Aseberge—1011.
 Assacote—753.
 Assecota—752.
 Auetona—34.
 Aulescoma—700, 848.
 Ausa—534.
 Avetone—35, 997.
 Avlescome—701, 849.
 Avra—485.

Avrra—484.
 Avse—535.
 Axaministres—xi.
 Axeministra—xii, xxxii.
 Axeminstre—7.
 Axemuda—xxxv.
 Axemudes—xi.

 Bacetesberia—1040.
 Bachedona—600.
 Bachedone—601.
 Bacheleford—1039.
 Bachemora—656.
 Bachemore—657.
 Bacheatane—887.
 Bachetesberie—1041.
 Badendone—30.
 Badentona hundred—xxxv., 58.
 Badentone—34, 35.
 ——— hundred, xi, xii, 59.
 Badestana—370.
 Badestane—371.
 Baentona—774.
 Baentone—775.
 Bagathora—1118.
 Bagetore—1119.
 Baldrintonia—142.
 Baldrintone—143.
 Bardestaplensi bvrigo—444.
 Barnestabla—2, 564.
 Barnestapla—2, 3, 4, 124, 128, 170,
 378.
 Barnestaple—3, 5, 125, 129, 171,
 379, 445, 565, 885.
 Batesilla—384.
 Bauerclona—68.
 Baverdōne—69.
 Bechatona—1134.
 Bechetone—1135.
 Bedeford—81.
 Bedendona—184.
 Bedendone—185.
 Bediforda—80.
 Bedricestan—115.
 Begatora—440.
 Begatore—441.
 Begeurda—746.
 Begevrde—747.
 Beldrendiland—139.
 Beldrendilant—138.
 Belestham—393.
 Bellestam—392.
 Beneadona—540.
 Benedone—541.
 Benleia—878.
 Bentone—775.
 Bera—156, 157, 264, 265, 426, 427,
 726, 818.
 Bere—727, 819.
 Beri—956.

Beria—100.
 Berie—101, 957.
 Berlescoma—830.
 Berlescome—831.
 Berna—576.
 Bernardesmora—486.
 Bernardesmore—487.
 Bernintona—240.
 Bernintone—241.
 Betunia—1188.
 Betvnie—1189.
 Beveleie—879.
 Bicatona—1094.
 Bicheberia—338.
 Bicheberie—339.
 Bichecoma—876.
 Bichecome—877.
 Bichefor—891.
 Bicheford—1175.
 Bicheforda—1174.
 Bicheleia—760.
 Bichelia—358.
 Bichellie—761, 359.
 Bichenelleia—90.
 Bichenelia—56.
 Bichenelic—89, 57.
 Bichentona—56, 88.
 Bichentone—57, 89.
 Bicheordin—692, 693.
 Bichetone—1095.
 Biheda—812, 814.
 Bihede—813, 815.
 Birige—284, 285.
 Birland—341.
 Birlanda—340.
 Biuda—802.
 Biude—803.
 Blacaberga—928.
 Blacaburga—1140.
 Blacagraua—750, 752.
 Blacagrava—753.
 Blacapola—58.
 Blacheberge—929, 1139.
 Blacheberia—482.
 Blacheberie—483.
 Blachegrave—752.
 Blacheorda—630.
 Blachepole—59.
 Blachestao—954.
 Blachestach—955.
 Blachestane—1045.
 Blacheuilla—454.
 Blachevrde—889, 631.
 Blachewelle—55.
 Bochelán—136.
 Bochelant—137, 138, 181, 189, 301,
 331, 455, 635, 637, 687, 861,
 763, 1065.
 Bochelanda—178, 180, 181, 300, 330,
 634, 716, 762, 818, 860, 1120.

Bochelande—819, 1121.
 Bochelant—454, 686.
 Bocheuuis—1001.
 Bochiyuuis—1000.
 Bodeleia—12.
 Bodellie—13.
 Boeurda—156.
 Boleborde—1165.
 Boleham—504, 505, 1140, 1141.
 Bolehorda—1164.
 Bolenci—143.
 Boleneia—142.
 Boltesberia—330.
 Boltesberie—331.
 Bolewis—920, 921.
 Bomene—1149.
 Bomine—1148.
 Borna—1104.
 Bosleia—382.
 Boslie—383.
 Boteberia—370.
 Boteberie—371.
 Botesforda—758.
 Botesforde—759.
 Botintona—106.
 Botintone—107.
 Botreforda—626, 628.
 Botreforde—627, 629.
 Bouelia—750.
 Boui—128, 130, 131, 588.
 Bovelie—751.
 Bovi—129, 589.
 Bracton—455.
 Bractona—8, 454.
 Bradaleia—202, 206.
 Bradeford—31, 367, 399, 575, 585,
 715, 731.
 Bradeforda—32, 366, 574, 714, 730.
 Bradefort—398, 584.
 Bradeleia—610, 1132.
 Bradelie—203, 207, 611, 1132.
 Bradehoda—404.
 Bradehode—405.
 Bradenesa—706.
 Bradenese—707.
 Bradestana—50.
 Bradestone—51.
 Bradeuilla—894.
 Bradeuuoada—568.
 Bradewelle—895.
 Bradewode—569.
 Brai—170, 171, 1181.
 Braia—xx, 154, 155, 1180.
 Brantone hundred—xi.
 Branchescoma—120.
 Branchescome—121.
 Brandona—922.
 Brandone—923.
 Branford—803.
 Branfort—802.

Branfortuna—192.
 Branfortvne—193.
 Brantona—xix, 6, 156, 284, 460.
 ——— hundred—xii, xviii, xix,
 58, 59.
 Brantone—7, 157, 285, 461.
 Bratona—106, 108, 332, 380.
 Bratone—107, 381.
 Brauordina—914.
 Brawordine—915.
 Bredeford—513.
 Bredefort—512.
 Bredeleia—1070.
 Bredellie—1071.
 Breduica—172.
 Bredviche—173.
 Bremelcoma—1050.
 Bremelcome—1051.
 Bremerige—180, 181.
 Brenford—507, 513.
 Brenfort—506, 512.
 Brenta—258, 260.
 Brente—261.
 Bretriceston—114.
 Brictrichestone—655.
 Brideford—587.
 Brideforda—586.
 Brideston—384.
 Bridestov—385.
 Brige—968, 969.
 Brigeford—433, 435, 843.
 Brigeforda—432, 434, 842.
 Briseham—594, 595.
 Briseatona—650.
 Brisestone—651.
 Brisforda—1098.
 Brisforde—1099.
 Bristanestona—406.
 Bristanestone—407.
 Bristeshorda—1150.
 Bristesworde—1151.
 Bristrichestona—654.
 Brocheland—973.
 Brochelanda—962.
 Brochelande—963, 972.
 Brotone—333.
 Brungarstona—130.
 Brungarstone—131.
 Buchesurda—302.
 Buchesworde—303.
 Budeleia hundred—xii, xxx.
 Budleies hundred—xi.
 Bulfesta—xvii, xxi, xxxvi,
 xxxviii, xl, xlv, 260.
 Buretona—638.
 Buretone—639.
 Buriestescoma—160.
 Buterlei—1183.
 Buterleia—xxvii, 1182.
 Bvrefestre—261.

Bvcheside—1045.
Bvrietascome—161.
Bvrne—1105.

Cacheberga—400.
Cacheberge—401.
Cadiabiria—748.
Cadebirie—749.
Cadeledone—1051.
Cadeleia—1138.
Cadelia—698.
Cadelie—699, 1139.
Cadelintona hundred—xii, xli.
Cadewila—810.
Cadewile—811.
Cadelintona hundred—xi.
Cageford—903.
Cagefort—902.
Calmonlevge—525.
Calodeleia—xxiv.
Calodelia—1166.
Calodelie—1167.
Calueleia—422.
Calvelie—423.
Carmes—452, 453.
Carseuilla—898.
Carsewelle—19, 899.
—— ecclesia—19.
Carsewilla—18.
—— hundred—xxxix.
—— ecclesia—18.
Carsforda—384.
Carsuella—262.
Carsuelle hundred—xii.
Carsvelle—263.
Cedelintona—46.
Cedelintone—47.
Celdecomba—158.
Celdecome—159.
Celvertesberia—200.
Celvertesberie—201.
Cercelle—727.
Cercetone—595.
Cercilla—726.
Cercitona—594.
Cerintona—1016.
Cerintone—1017.
Ceritona—1158.
Ceritone—1159.
Cersuelles hundred—xi.
Chaeledona—532.
Chalmonleuga—524.
Chageford—191.
Chederlia—356.
Cheledone—533.
Cheleforda—1150.
Chelesaworde—1151.
Cheletona—220, 614.
Cheletona—221, 615.
Chempebere—975.

Chemeuorda—214.
Chemeworde—215.
Cheneletona—622.
Chenemetone—71.
Cheneoltona—160.
Cheneoltone—161.
Chenetorne—951.
Chenigedone—966.
Chenighedona—965.
Chenistetona—118.
Chenistetone—119.
Chenleia—388.
Chenleie—389.
Chenuestan—780, 782.
Chenutdestana—1184, 1192.
Chenvdestane—1185, 1193.
Chenvestan—781, 783.
Chent—378, 379, 438, 439.
Chentesbera—482, 484.
Chentesbere—483, 485.
Chentesberia—456.
Chentesberie—457.
Chentona—36.
Chentone—37.
Chereford—259.
Chereforda—258.
Cherletona—14, 360.
Cherletone—15, 361.
Chetelescome—545.
Chetelescote—829.
Chetellescoma—544.
Chetellescota—828.
Cheustorna—950.
Cheveletona—623.
Chichelesberia—648.
Chichelesberie—649.
Chiderleia—295.
Chiderlie—357.
Chimpabera—974, 976.
Chienemetona—70.
Chinnesford—483.
Chinnesfort—482.
Chisewic—939.
Chiueorna—542.
Chiuuarthiuus—1128.
Chiveorne—543.
Chiwarthiwis—1129.
Chochintona—730.
Chridiatona hundred—xi, xxi.
Chritetona—98.
Cicocota—380.
Cicocote—381.
Cicemetona—xxv.
Ciclet—832, 833.
Cillemetona—xxvii.
Cilletona—1080.
Cilletone—1081.
Cillitona—1093.
Ciretona—924.
Ciretone—925.

Citremetona—1156.
 Clauetona—580.
 Clauuueton hundred—xi.
 Clavetone—581.
 Clehangra—674.
 Clehangre—675.
 Cliford—493.
 Clifort—492.
 Cliforda—1106.
 Cliforde—1107.
 Clis—218, 219.
 Clisewic—938.
 Clist—354, 355, 468, 469, 470, 471,
     1086, 1087, 1182, 1183.
 Clista—128, 472.
 Cliste—129, 473.
 Clistona—76.
     — hundred—xi., xii, xxvi.
 Clistone—77.
 Cloenesberg—431.
 Cloenesberga—430.
 Clouelia—78.
 Clovelie—79.
 Cobecvme—1073.
 Cochalescoma—358.
 Cochalescome—359.
 Cochintone—731.
 Codaforda—1168.
 Codeford—1169.
 Coic—488, 489.
 Colacoma—868.
 Colebroca—308, 698.
 Colebroch—309.
 Colebroche—699.
 Colecome—869.
 Coleleia—298.
 Colelie—299.
 Coletona—64, 592, 596, 600.
 Coletone—65, 593, 597, 601.
 Coleuuilla—554.
 Colewille—555.
 Colitona—270.
     — ecclesia, 270.
 Colitone—271.
     — ecclesia, 271.
 Collabera—558.
 Collebere—559.
 Colriga—146, 798.
 Colrige—147, 642, 643, 796, 797,
     799.
 Colsoneneskota—1174.
 Colsovenescote—1175.
 Colum—1124, 1126, 1162.
 Colvm—1125.
 Colun—487, 506.
 Colvn—507, 1127, 1163.
 Colunp—486.
 Coltrestan—660, 661.
 Coteleia—326.
 Cotelie—327.

Colteshorda—1150.
 Coltesworde—1151.
 Coma—198, 200, 202, 372, 556, 812.
 Come—199, 201, 203, 557, 813, 858.
 Comba—374, 384, 588, 590, 702,
     724, 1014, 1016, 1018.
 Combe—375.
 Conba—618, 1132.
 Conma—852.
 Contesberia—688.
 Contesberie—689.
 Contona—642.
 Contone—643.
 Corcella—xxxii.
 Coriton—133.
 Coritona—132.
 Cornehode—327.
 Cornehuda—326.
 Corneorda—614.
 Corneorde—615.
 Cornevrde—1035.
 Cornualia castelli—109.
 Cornugalliae castelli—108.
 Cortescanola—610.
 Cortescanole—611.
 Crahecome—528.
 Crauelec—218.
 Crauecome—528, 1040.
 Cravelech—219.
 Crawecome—529, 1041.
 Creda—944.
 Credia—196.
 Crediatona hundred—xii.
 Credie—197, 945.
 Cresseuuala—778.
 Cressewalde—779.
 Cridia—942.
 Cridie—943.
 Crideholda—334.
 Crideholde—335.
 Crintone—691.
 Critetone—99.
 Crochewella—990.
 Crochewelle—991.
 Cruc—136.
 Crvc—137.
 Cube—887.
 Culitona—18.
 Culintona hundred—xii., xxxiii.
     — ecclesia—20.
 Cullinctona hundred—xi.
 Culmestocha—110.
 Cuma—1160.
 Cumbe—619, 725, 1015, 1016, 1019.
 Cume—373.
 Cvlitone—19.
     — ecclesia—21.
 Cvlmestochie—111.
 Cvmbe—589, 591, 703, 1015, 1019,
     1133.

Cvme—1161.
Cvrememtone—1157.

Dalilea—1058.
Dalilei—1059.
Danescoma—940.
Danescome—941.
Deidestan—706.
Dena—734.
Dene—735.
Deneord—14, 15.
Denesberge—1153.
Dencsburga—1152.
Depdona—732.
Depeforda—22.
Depeforde—23, 777.
Deppaforde—776.
Deptone—733.
Derta—748, 754, 1076.
Derte—749, 755, 1077.
Dertera—1022.
Dertre—1023.
Dertrintona—733.
Dertrintone—739.
Deuenaberia—244.
Devenaberie—245.
Didasam—120.
Didasham—121.
Dimæuoldesham—730.
Dimewoldesham—731.
Dinintona—366.
Dippeforda hundred—xii., xl.
Dippesforda hundred—xi.
Disa—854, 855.
Docheorde—995.
Dochorda—994.
Dodebroca—1192.
Dodebroch—1193.
Dodecota—838.
Dodecote—839.
Doduceswilla—932.
Dodvcheswelle—933.
Dona—252, 652, 894, 1170.
Dondritona—390.
Dondritone—391.
Done—253, 653, 1171.
Donesford—783.
Donesland—395.
Doneslanda—394.
Donestantona—1184.
Donestanestone—1185.
Doneuoldehamma—322.
Donevoldehame—323.
Donicestona—852.
Donicestone—353.
Donitona—276.
Donitone—277.
Donsedoc—893.
Douelis—102.
Dovles—103.

Draheford—807.
Draheforda—806.
Dueltona—422.
Duna—150, 1164.
Dunesforda—782, 1188.
Dunitona—32.
Dunintone—367.
Dunitone—31.
Dunestanetuna—954.
Dunestantone—889.
Dunenuinusdona—910.
Dunewinesdone—911.
Dunsedoc—899.
Dunstel—798, 799.
Duuelanda—824, 826.
Duueltona—1054.
Dvne—151, 895, 1165.
Dvnesford—1189.
Dvnestantvne—955.
Dvvelande—825, 827.
Dvveltone—1055.

Eboracum—3.
Eburacum—2.
Echeburne—397.
Eddetone—605.
Edeslega—84.
Edeslege—85.
Edetona—604.
Efforda—466.
Eighebera—514.
Eigebere—515.
Eilanesford—131.
Eilesberge—521.
Eilevescote—165.
Elintona—26.
Elintone—27.
Elforde—889.
Eltemetona—534.
Eltemstone—535.
Engestecota—134.
Engestecote—135.
Engleborna—558, 740.
Engleborne—559, 741.
Erberneforde—741.
Ermentone—31, 32, 364, 365.
Ermentona—30.
Erticoma—278.
Eruescoma—88.
Ervescome—89.
Esastapla—676.
Escaga—664.
Escapeleia—440, 442, 444, 1092.
Eschpabroca—830.
Escobecoma—792.
Esforde—467.
Ealapaforde—88.
Esmarige—960.
Esmaurige—14.
Esmitteham—304.

Esnideleia—470.
 Espicewita—66.
 Esprecoma—1010.
 Espredelestona—346.
 Espreitona—490.
 Espreuueia—784.
 Esprewei—785.
 Essapla—1186.
 Essaple—1187.
 Essestone—1091.
 Essetona—1090.
 Estaforda—288.
 Estandona—926.
 Estantona—1026.
 Estapeleia—1120.
 Estatforda—1058.
 Estaueforda—166.
 Estocha—734, 746.
 Estocheleia—294, 306, 348, 416, 940.
 Estocheleia—290, 342.
 Estodleia—948.
 Estolleia—200.
 Estotacoma—554.
 Estotdona—654.
 Estotleia—178.
 Essa—688, 689.
 Essastaple—677.
 Esseberie—1037.
 Essebretona—116.
 Essebretona—117.
 Essecestra—2, 56, 98, 124, 248,
     270, 290, 378, 564, 676, 720,
     800, 862, 902, 966, 1024.
 Essecestre—102, 676.
 Esselingaforda—1124.
 Esselingeforde—1125.
 Esseminestra—766.
 Esseministra—682.
 ——— hundred — xi, xii,
     xxxvi.
 Esseminstre—683.
 Essemundeorda—410.
 Essemvndeord—411.
 Essestone—1091.
 Essetona—1090.
 Essoic—492, 493.
 Estreta—944.
 Estrete—945.
 Etboldus Wrdā—384.
 Etcheborna—396.
 Excestre—271, 1025, 1047, 1089.
 Execestre—103, 125, 291, 379, 565,
     677, 801, 863, 895, 903, 967,
     999, 1111.
 Exeministra—xxxvi.
 Exonia—3, 57, 99, 249, 438, 439,
     564, 565, 894, 1046, 1110.
 Fallei—183.
 Falleia—182.

Fareuua—208, 858.
 Farewei—209, 859.
 Fedauen—836.
 Fedaven—837.
 Fen—364, 365.
 Ferdendel—30, 31.
 Ferdendella—364.
 Ferdendelle—365.
 Ferding—1033.
 Ferentona—310.
 Ferentone—311.
 Fereordin—832, 833.
 Fereurdi—676.
 Ferevrde—677.
 Ferhendona—1126.
 Ferhendone—1127.
 Ferleia—22, 1176.
 Ferlie—23, 1177.
 Fernehella—662.
 Fernehelle—663.
 Ferneurda—384.
 Fersa—724.
 Ferse—725.
 Fierseham—474, 475.
 Filelei—461.
 Fileleia—8, 460.
 Filelie—9.
 Finatona—324.
 Finetone—325.
 Fluta—264.
 Flutes—876, 877.
 Flveta—265.
 Foleford—516.
 Folefort—517.
 Foletona—624.
 Foletone—625.
 Forda—550, 622.
 Forde—551, 623.
 Forhode—757.
 Forhoda—756.
 Framintona—126.
 ——— hundred—xi, xii, xv.
 Framintone—127.
 Fredelestoch—297.
 Fredelestoc—296.
 Friseham—322, 323.
 Galeshora—300.
 Galeshore—301.
 Galmentona—908.
 Galmentone—909.
 Gatcumba—1146.
 Gatecymbe—1147.
 Gatepada—952.
 Gatepade—953.
 Genelie—1035.
 Genneliza—1112.
 Gennelize—1113.
 Gerwille—1017.
 Ghernesleta—436.

Ghernealete—437.
 Ghiderleia—294.
 Gidesam—850.
 Gidesham—851.
 Gildescota—870.
 Gildescote—871.
 Godelega—872.
 Godelege—873.
 Godescota—390.
 Godescote—891.
 Godeuscota—846.
 Godevecote—847.
 Godrintona—786.
 Godrintone—787.
 Goheuuis—402.
 Gohewis—403.
 Gornuilla—1016.
 Goseuuella—760.
 Gosewelle—761.
 Grennelize—1113.
 Grenouueia—790.
 Grenowei—791.
 Grededona—166.
 Grededone—167.
 Crismetone—1039.

 Haberie—793.
 Hachevrde—1091.
 Hacoma—536, 684.
 Hacome—537, 685.
 Hadreleia—234.
 Hagawila—672.
 Hagewile—673.
 Hagetone—773.
 Hagintona—152, 450.
 Hagintone—153.
 Hagitona—772.
 Hainemaroun—997.
 Hainoc—540.
 Haintone—451.
 Haiserstona, 254.
 Halbertone—xxv.
 Halbretona hundred—xii.
 Haldeurdi—54.
 Haldeword—55.
 Halestou—1106.
 Haletrev—881.
 Haletrou—880.
 Halgewelle—79.
 Halgewilla—78.
 Halsbretona—92.
 ————— hundred—xi.
 Halsbretona—93.
 Hama—238, 1010, 1154.
 Hamberia—792.
 Hamberie—1073.
 Hame—239, 1011, 1155.
 Hamestone—591.
 Hamihoc—10.
 Hamihoch—11.

Hamiohc hundred—xxviii.
 Hamioth hundred—xii.
 Hamistona—66, 336, 590.
 Hamistone—67, 337.
 Hanberia—476, 1072.
 Hanc—927.
 Hancheford—989.
 Hane—926.
 Hanecheforda—988.
 Hanechelole—375.
 Hanenchelola—374.
 Hanitone—397.
 Hanoeh—541.
 Hantona—396, 414, 448, 924, 1154.
 Hantone—415, 449, 1155.
 Harestana—320, 346.
 Harestane—321, 347.
 Harlei—131.
 Harleia—130.
 Haroldesore—887.
 Hasbertona hundred—xxxi.
 Hauocmora—130.
 Hauocmore—131.
 Haustona—106.
 Havstone—107.
 Hax—430, 431.
 Haytone—925.
 Hechesbvrne—1035.
 Heierda—1106.
 Heierde—1107.
 Hela—168, 169, 340, 1098, 1099.
 Hele—341.
 Helescana—420.
 Helescane—421.
 Henberia—1166.
 Henberie—1167.
 Henlei—949.
 Henleia—948.
 Heppastea—942.
 Heppastebe—943.
 Herbeneforda—740.
 Hereford—339.
 Hereforda—338.
 Herlege—137.
 Herlescoma—1000.
 Herlescome—1001.
 Hermentona—30.
 Hermentone hundred—xi.
 Hernescoma—410.
 Hernescome—411.
 Hermodesword—133.
 Hermondesuorda—132.
 Herstanahaia—862.
 Herstanhaia—863.
 Hertesberia hundred—xi.
 Hertilanda hundred—xi, xii.
 Hertilande hundred—xiii.
 Herticome—279.
 Hertitona—42.
 Hertitone—43.

- Hesmalacoma—552.
 Hetfeld (Hetfold)—257.
 Hetfella—788.
 Hetfelle—789.
 Hetfelt—256.
 Heuetruua—964.
 Heuis—602.
 Heuuisa—696.
 Hevetrove—965.
 Hewis—318, 319, 603, 612, 613.
 Hewise—697.
 Hidona—494.
 Hidone—495.
 Hiele—1037.
 Hierda—526.
 Hierde—527.
 Hierlega—136.
 Hilla—1132.
 Hille—1133.
 Hillesdona—1074.
 Hillesdone—1075.
 Hinberie—477.
 Hindeford—587.
 Hindefort—586.
 Hiteneslei—497.
 Hitenesleia—496.
 Hiwis—837.
 Ho—670, 671.
 Hoca—1098.
 Hocaorda—11, 778.
 Hoche—1099.
 Hocheorde—779.
 Hochesam—938.
 Hochesham—939.
 Hochesila—982.
 Hochesile—983.
 Hochoorde—459.
 Hocoorda—458.
 Hola—1002, 1003, 1008.
 Holbema—1116.
 Holbeme—1117.
 Holcomma—920, 1006.
 Hole—1009.
 Holebroca—1164.
 Holebroch—1165.
 Holecoma—xv., 456, 770, 1148.
 Holecule—457, 771, 921, 1007, 1149.
 Holecumba—90.
 Holecvmbe—91.
 Holescoma—362, 718.
 Holescomba—952.
 Holescome—363, 719.
 Holescvmbe—953.
 Holla—732.
 Holle—733.
 Holna—508.
 Holne—509.
 Holnham—982, 983.
 Honechercha—404.
 Honecherde—405.
 Honelanda—658.
 Honessham—1071, 1081.
 Honessam—1070, 1080.
 Honetona—14, 312.
 Honetone—15, 313.
 Horescoma—706.
 Horescome—707.
 Horeuuda—140.
 Horeuuda—916.
 Horeuude—134.
 Horewod—141.
 Horewode—135, 917.
 Hortona—134.
 Hortone—135.
 Hovelande—659.
 Hundatora—244.
 Hundatore—245.
 Hunesena—678.
 Hunitona—1068.
 Hurtesberia—770.
 Hvneseve—679.
 Hvnitone—1069.
 Hvrtesberie—771.
 Hyuuis—836.
 Iacobescherca—1190.
 Ida—104.
 Ide—105.
 Ilesam—1142.
 Ilesham—1143.
 Ilestintona—902.
 Incrintona—690.
 Ipelpena—908.
 Iplepene—909.
 Iueleia—1126.
 Ivelie—1127.
 Jacobescherche—1191.
 Johannestov—827.
 Johanunesto—826.
 Kagefort—190.
 Kari—570, 571.
 Kinghendona—460.
 Labera—1076.
 Labere—1077.
 Lachebroc—398.
 Lacoma—922.
 Lacomé—923.
 Laierda—464, 465.
 Lambretone—968.
 Lamesete—633.
 Lamliner—36.
 Lammeseta—632.
 Lanbretona—969.
 Lanchers—418, 419.
 Landesherg—289.
 Landeshers—288.

Lanford—1089, 1159.
 Lanforda—1088.
 Langadona—658, 660.
 Langafort—478.
 Langedone—659, 661.
 Langeford—75, 479.
 Langeforda—74.
 Langefort—498.
 Langehewis—222, 223.
 Langestan—539.
 Langetreuua—82.
 Langetrev—83.
 Langhestan—538.
 Lanliner—35.
 Lannor—817.
 Lantfort—1158.
 Laurochebera—478, 1038.
 Lavrochebere—1039.
 Lega—230, 296, 314, 400, 616, 626,
 668, 720, 758, 822, 1042, 1056,
 1122, 1128.
 Lege—231, 297, 315, 401, 626, 627,
 669, 721, 759, 823, 1041, 1043,
 1057, 1123, 1129, 1145.
 Lei—681.
 Leia—680.
 Leiga—816, 1144.
 Leigo—817.
 Lestintone—903.
 Leualiga—1102.
 Leuestona—864.
 Leuga—386, 1100.
 Leuia—76.
 Leuua—xv.
 Leuwendona—1108.
 Levelege—1103.
 Levestone—865.
 Levge—1101.
 Levia—77.
 Levricestone—637.
 Lewe—387.
 Lewendone—1109.
 Lideford—3, 564, 565.
 Lideforda—2, 4.
 Lideforde—5.
 Lidefort—912.
 Lideltona—230, 232.
 Lidemora—584.
 Lidemore—585.
 Liega—242, 424.
 Liege—243, 425.
 Lieurichestona—636.
 Lifetona hundred—xi.
 Lim—226, 227.
 Limet—144, 145, 252, 253, 424, 425,
 428, 429, 432, 433, 434, 435,
 1066, 1067.
 Limeta—1156.
 Limete—1157.
 Limor—1147.

Lina—692.
 Lincoma—464.
 Lincome—465.
 Line—693.
 Linnor—816.
 Linor—1146.
 Lintona—690.
 Lintone—691.
 Lisistona—374.
 Lisistone—375.
 Listona—34.
 — hundred, xii, xiii.
 Listone—35.
 Liteham—262.
 Liteham—82, 83, 263.
 Liteltone—231, 233.
 Lital Racheneforda—784.
 Lital Racheneford—785.
 Liteltorelande—305.
 Liteltorilanda—304.
 Liteluua—1062.
 Litelwere—1063.
 Livrochebere—479.
 Loba—460, 461, 990.
 Lobe—991.
 Lochebroc—399.
 Lochesbera—206.
 Lochesbere—207.
 Locheshore—449.
 Lochesora—446.
 Lochesore—447.
 Lochessora—448.
 Lochetona—592.
 Lochetone—593.
 Lochetora—666.
 Lochetore—667.
 Lodebroc—316, 317, 368, 369.
 Lodeswilla—596.
 Lodeswille—597.
 Lollardesda—824, 840.
 Lollardesda—841.
 Lollardestone—825.
 Londonia—3.
 Lonmela—808.
 Lonmele—809.
 Lonmina—850.
 Lonmine—851.
 Loperige—318, 319.
 Losbera—268.
 Losbere—269.
 Loscumma—738.
 Loscume—739.
 Loteland—853.
 Lotelanda—852.
 Louapit—790.
 Louecota—986.
 Louenetorna—590.
 Lovapit—791.
 Lovecote—987.
 Lovenetorne—591.

Ludaforda—1118.
 Ludebroca—32.
 Ludebroch—31.
 Lundonia—2.
 Luperiga—860.
 Luperige—821, 861.
 Lvdeford—1119.
 Lwalei—823.
 Lwis (Iwis)—1061.
 Maaberia—718.
 Macheswalle—999.
 Macretona—30.
 Macretone—31.
 Madescama—710.
 Madescame—711.
 Madford—351.
 Madfort—350.
 Madona—1176.
 Madone—1177.
 Magnelega—856.
 Magnelege—857.
 Magnetona—544.
 Magnetone—545.
 Maiberie—719.
 Mameorda—436.
 Mameorde—437.
 Mammehetua—442.
 Mammeheve—443.
 Manberia—14.
 Maneberie—15.
 Manedona—640.
 Manedone—641.
 Manelia—1096.
 Manelie—1097.
 Manitona—1172.
 Manitone—1173.
 Manneheua—1190.
 Manneheve—1191.
 Matingeho—146, 147.
 Matford—683.
 Matforda—682.
 Mauessart—524.
 Mavessart—525.
 Meda—418, 419.
 Medenecoma—510.
 Medenecome—511.
 Meleberia—748.
 Meleberie—749.
 Meleford—211.
 Meleforda—1002.
 Meleforde—1003.
 Melefort—210.
 Meleuuis—498.
 Melewis—499.
 Mellestona—620.
 Mellestone—621.
 Merehoda—1012.
 Merehode—1013.
 Mereuda—874.

Merevde—875.
 Merlanda—1004.
 Merlande—1005.
 Meroda—468.
 Merode—469.
 Mertona—126, 498.
 ——— hundred—xi, xii, xvii.
 Mertone—127, 499.
 Metooma—154.
 Metcome—155.
 Metwi—891.
 Meuii—642, 644, 646.
 Mewi—643, 645, 647.
 Middeltone—177, 231.
 Mideland—1161.
 Midelanda—1160.
 Midelcota—1180.
 Midelcote—1181.
 Mideltona—176, 230, 866.
 Mideltone—867, 1043.
 Mildedona—712.
 Mildedone—713.
 Mildecote—407.
 Mildelcota—406, 408.
 Mildelcote—409.
 Milchewis—1191.
 Milehyuis—1190.
 Mimidlanda—632.
 Mimidlande—633.
 Mirland—983.
 Mirlanda—982.
 Mochelesberia—1052.
 Mochelesberie—1053.
 Modleia—634, 636.
 Modlei—635, 637.
 Mogescoma—452.
 Mogescome—453.
 Molacota—1102.
 Molecote—1103.
 Molland—1015.
 Mollanda—58, 186, 1014.
 ——— hundred—xi.
 Mollande—59, 187.
 Moltona—xix, xx.
 ——— hundred—xi.
 Monacochamantona—394.
 Monuchementone—395.
 Mora—572.
 Morbade—61.
 Morbatha—60.
 Morceta—196.
 Morceth—197.
 Morchet—90, 91, 708, 709.
 More—573.
 Morlei—811, 1043.
 Morleia—810, 1042.
 Mortberie—345.
 Mortebo—896.
 Mortona—62.
 Mortone—63.

Mortehov—897.
 Motberia—xlv., 844.
 Motbilia—360.
 Motbilie—361.
 Musberia—548.
 Mvsberie—549.

Neuerton—462.
 Neuuentona—1100.
 Nevtone—463.
 Nevuentona—1178.
 Newentona—838.
 Newentone—839, 1101.
 Nieuetona—844.
 Nieutona—1148.
 Nimet—828, 829, 842, 845.
 Nimeta—58.
 Nimete—59.
 Nimetona—68, 118.
 Nimetone—69, 119.
 Niressa—194.
 Niresse—195.
 Nistenestoc—1094.
 Nistenestoch—1095.
 Niuuentona—98.
 Niuuetona—xvii., xlv., 328.
 Niwetone—99, 329, 845, 1149, 1179.
 Nocheocota—1096.
 Nocheocote—1097.
 Norcota—170, 174.
 Norcote—171, 175.
 Normoltonae hundred—58.
 Northam—280, 281.
 Nortmoltona—38.
 Nortmoltone—39.
 ——— hundred—59.
 Nortona—568.
 Nortone—569.
 Noteswillia—1180.
 Noteswille—1181.
 Noteswrde—893.
 Notona—256.
 Notone—257.

Ochementone—879.
 Ocheneberia—680.
 Ocheneberie—681.
 Ochenemitona—378.
 Odeborna—536.
 Odebvrne—537.
 Odeford—669, 671.
 Odeforda—668, 670.
 Odehiwis—893.
 Odelea—878.
 Odelie—879.
 Odeordi—950, 951.
 Odescliua—16.
 Odesclive—15.
 Odetreu—868.
 Odetrev—869.

Offaunilla—556.
 Offecolum hundred—xii., xxix.
 Offecoma—778.
 Offecome—779.
 Offewille—557.
 Ogewille—935, 936.
 Oghauillae—934.
 Oghauuille—936.
 Oladona—416.
 Oladone—417.
 Olaf, Sancti, ecclesiam—270, 271.
 Olecumbe—1007.
 Olfaldeshodes—754.
 Olfereordi—1152.
 Olpessa—194.
 Oluardesdona—94.
 Olueberia—548.
 Oluiuetona—648.
 Oluridintona—206.
 Olurintona—1076.
 Olvereword—1153.
 Olvrintone—729.
 Olwritona—xv., 236.
 Olueleia—130.
 Oluelia—420.
 Opecota—514.
 Opecote—515.
 Oplomia—854.
 Oplomie—855.
 Oppaluma—950.
 Oppelavme—951.
 Orcartona—362.
 Orcartone—363.
 Ordia—530.
 Ordie—531.
 Ordihella—624.
 Ordihelle—625.
 Orescane—931.
 Orescoma—930.
 Orescomam—710.
 Orescome—711, 935.
 Orescomme—934.
 Orrauuia—1030.
 Orrewai—1031.
 Oteri—702, 708, 932, 940.
 Otrei—273.
 Otria—716, 952.
 Otri—272, 703, 709, 717, 718, 719,
 788, 789, 792, 793, 933, 941,
 953, 956, 957, 958, 959.
 Otrie—953.
 ——— hundred—xi., xii., xxxii.
 Otrit—518, 519.
 Otritona—276.
 Otritone—277.
 Oveltone—423.

Panestan—970, 971.
 Panteford—481.
 Pantefort—480.

Paorda—580.
 Paorde—581.
 Patford—1085.
 Patforda—1084.
 Patsola—160.
 Patsole—161.
 Pech—368, 369, 972, 974, 975.
 Pecheham—1178, 1179.
 Pedehael—208.
 Pedehel—209.
 Pediccheswella—164.
 Pedracamba—724.
 Pedrecumbe—725.
 Peideliga—752.
 Peintona—116.
 Peintone—117.
 Percheham—412, 413.
 Petecota—522.
 Petecote—523.
 Petrochestousa—250.
 Petrochestov—251.
 Peumera—920.
 Pevmere—921.
 Picaltona—1006.
 Picaltone—1007.
 Pidaliga—752.
 Pidelige—753.
 Pidehel—662, 663.
 Pi . . . na—148.
 Pillanda—148, 162.
 Pillande—149.
 Pinnoc—70.
 ——— ecclesiam—70.
 Pinnoch—71.
 ——— ecclesiam—71.
 Pisseuella—696.
 Pissewelle—697.
 Planteleia—992.
 Plantelie—993.
 Plateleia—992.
 Pleiestou—182.
 Pleistov—183.
 Plemestoch—247.
 Plemestocha—246.
 Plintona—24.
 ——— hundred—xi, xii, xlii.
 Plintone—25, 891.
 ——— Sancti Petri de—xlii, 24.
 Plumtrei—1074.
 Plvmtrei—1075.
 Pocheella—808.
 Pocheele—809.
 Pochehilla—994.
 Pochehille—995.
 Podiford—53.
 Podiforda—52.
 Pola—616, 820, 964.
 Pole—617, 821, 965.
 Poldreham—766, 767.
 Polebroc—130.

Polebroch—131.
 Polealeuga—472.
 Polesleuia—224.
 Polealevge—473.
 Poleslewe—225.
 Polham—992, 993.
 Polochestona—603.
 Polochestone—609.
 Pontimora—470, 474.
 Pontimore—473.
 Ponamore—475.
 Porlamuta—604.
 Porlemvte—605.
 Porriga—414.
 Porrige—415.
 Potaforda—978.
 Potafort—978.
 Poteford—979.
 Poteforda—678.
 Potiforda—302.
 Potiforde—303.
 Potitona—714.
 Potitone—715.
 Potaforde—679.
 Prenla—560, 561.
 Pudeforda—916.
 Pudeforde—917.
 Pultimora—1130.
 Pyltimore—1131.

Rachenefoda—532.
 Rachenefode—533.
 Rachvyn—1115.
 Racoma—510.
 Racome—511.
 Raconba—704.
 Racum—1114.
 Racvmba—705.
 Raddona—242.
 Radecliva—976.
 Radeclive—977.
 Radehida—896.
 Radehide—897.
 Radelei—153.
 Radeleia—152.
 Radeode—745.
 Radeuda—744.
 Radewei—1037.
 Radix—972.
 Radone—243.
 Raelstan—709.
 Raordin—694, 695.
 Ratdona—292, 566, 804.
 Ratdone—293, 567, 805.
 Ratreu—736.
 Ratrev—737.
 Rauueberga—142.
 Raweberge—143.
 Reddona—1138.
 Reddir—962.

Redic—963.
 Redix—973.
 Redone—1139.
 Reimora—628.
 Reimore—629.
 Restona—1022.
 Restone—1023.
 Reuua—192.
 Revve—193.
 Ridelcoma—840.
 Ridelcome—841.
 Rinestandona—220.
 Rinestandone—221.
 Ringedona—8.
 Ringedone—9, 461.
 Risford—497.
 Risfort—496.
 Rluperiga—820.
 Rocebera—516.
 Rochebera—312, 518, 522.
 Rochebere—313, 517, 519, 523.
 Rodeleia—188.
 Rodelie—189.
 Rouecoma—1130.
 Rouerige—14, 15.
 Rourige—272.
 Rovecome—1131.
 Rovrige—273.
 Rueberga hundred—xii.
 Rumor—494.
 Rvmor—495.

 Sanctae Mariae, ecclesia—106, 107.
 ——— Rotomagensis—273.
 Sancte Marie Cherche—336.
 ——— Marie Cerce—337.
 Sancti Michaelis Sedemude—273.
 ——— Michaelis de Sedemuda—272.
 ——— Olaf, ecclesiam—270, 271.
 ——— Petri de Plintone—891.
 Sanford—393, 763.
 Sanforda—762, 864.
 Sanforde—865.
 Sanfort—392.
 Santona—1008.
 Santone—1009.
 Saterleia—1104.
 Saterlei—1105.
 Scabatora—130.
 Scabatore—131.
 Scage—665.
 Scapelie—441, 443, 445, 1093.
 Schipebroc—831.
 Scireuella hundred—xi., xviii.
 Scireuilla hundred—xii.
 Scobaccoma—1072.
 Scobecome—793.
 Sedeborga—1178.
 Sedeborge—1179.

Sedemuda—272.
 Sedemude—273.
 Selac—546, 547.
 Selcoma—114.
 Selcome—115.
 Selingeforda—680.
 Selingeforde—681.
 Seluestan—1086.
 Selvestan—1087.
 Sepesberia—54.
 Sepesberie—55.
 Seteberge—413.
 Setleberga—412.
 Sideberia—112.
 Sideberie—113.
 Sideford (Sigeford)—993.
 Sideham—808, 809.
 Sidelham—578, 579.
 Sidreham—570, 571.
 Sigeforda—992.
 Sildene—927.
 Sildenna—926.
 Silfestana—372.
 Silvestene—373.
 Siredona—1188.
 Siredone—1189.
 Sireford—47, 647.
 Sirefort—46, 646.
 Sireuilla—1066.
 Sirewelle—745, 1067.
 Sirewilla—744.
 Sladona—122.
 Sladone—123.
 Slapeford—89.
 Smarige—961.
 Smaurige—15.
 Smelecome—553.
 Smidelié—471.
 Smitheham—305.
 Sotebroca—292.
 Sotebroch—293.
 Sotrebroch—1194.
 Sovretone—105.
 Spececota—1004.
 Spececote—1005.
 Sperchewelle—547.
 Sperchewilla—546.
 Specewite—67.
 Sprecome—1011.
 Spredelestone—847.
 Sprei—1033.
 Spreitone—491.
 Spreuua—198.
 Sprewe—199.
 Staford—289, 1049, 1059.
 Stafort—1048.
 Standone—727.
 Stanehsa—891.
 Stanlinj—1070, 1071.
 Stancoma—620.

Stancome—621.
 Stanton—1027.
 Stapelie—1121.
 Stavford—167.
 Stoc—794.
 Stoch—795.
 Stocha—110.
 Stoch—111, 735, 747.
 Stochelie—291, 295, 307, 343, 349,
 417, 941.
 Stoches—880, 881, 1114, 1115.
 Stodlei—179, 949.
 Stollei—201.
 Stotberia—628.
 Stotberie—629.
 Stotdone—655.
 Stotecome—555.
 Stotescoma—652.
 Stotescome—653.
 Stotlega—772.
 Stotlege—773.
 Stouretona—104.
 Sudtone—29.
 Suetatona—1057.
 Suetetona—1056.
 Sulfretona—10.
 ——— hundred—xi, xxvii.
 Sura—606.
 Surapla—814.
 Surintona—210.
 Surleia—608.
 Sutecoma—216.
 Sut Moltona—8, 284.
 ——— hundred—xii, xx.
 Sutona—28.
 Sutreuorda—786.
 Sutuna—1142.
 Svdmoltone—285.
 Svd Moltone—9.
 Svetetone—1053, 1057.
 Svlfretone—11.
 Svraple—815.
 Svre—607.
 Svrintone—211.
 Svrlei—609.
 Svtecome—217.
 Svtone—1143.
 Svtreorde—787.
 Taigna—500, 538.
 Taigne—539.
 Taignebrige hundred—62.
 Taincoma—190.
 Taincome—191.
 Taine—501.
 Tainebrige hundred—xii.
 Taintona—100, 488.
 ——— hundred—xi, xxxviii.
 Taintone—489.
 Tala—928, 930.

Tale—929, 931.
 Talebrige—205.
 Talebrua—204.
 Taletona—112.
 Taltone—113.
 Tameretone (Tambretone)—1045.
 Tamerlanda—972.
 Tamerlande—973.
 Tanbretona—28.
 Tanbreton—29.
 Tanebrige hundred—63.
 Tantone—101.
 Tapeleia—216.
 Tapelie—217.
 Taulanda—1134.
 Tautona—40, 436, 1084, 1092, 1134.
 ——— hundred—84.
 Tautone—437, 1085.
 Tauetoch—89.
 Tauetocha—56, 228.
 Tauetoca—90.
 Tauestone—1093.
 Tauti—576.
 Tautona—108.
 ——— hundred—xi.
 Tauuutona—4.
 Tauuutona hundred—xii, xxii.
 Taveland—1135.
 Tavestoc—xiv, xxii, xxxix, 229.
 Tavestoch—57.
 Tavetone—41, 1135.
 Tavi—577.
 Tavtone—109.
 Tavvetone—5.
 Tawi—1047.
 Teigna—222, 438.
 Teigne—223, 439.
 Teintona—12.
 Teintone—13.
 Teteborna—502, 704.
 Teteborne—503, 705.
 Teteburne—503.
 Tetecota—582.
 Tetecote—583.
 Teweberia—870.
 Teweberie—871.
 Thotonensium burgum—74.
 Tideford—913.
 Tivetone hundred—85.
 Topeshant—62, 63.
 Tore—344.
 Toredona—716.
 Toredone—717.
 Tori—345.
 Torilanda—918.
 Torilande—919.
 Torintona—52, 412.
 Torintone—53, 413.
 Toritona—42, 1048, 1062.

Toritona hundred—xii., xiv.
 Toritone—43, 1049, 1063.
 Torix—666, 667.
 Torleston—598, 599.
 Torna—212.
 Torne—213.
 Torneberia—236, 356.
 Torneberie—237, 357.
 Tornecoma—550.
 Tornecome—551.
 Tornelouua—574.
 Tornelowe—575.
 Torra—1144, 1192.
 Torre—1145, 1193.
 Torseunis—188.
 Torsewis—189.
 Totenais—3, 4, 5, 565.
 Toteneis—2, 564.
 Totescoma—350.
 Totescome—351.
 Totheneis burgum—75.
 Touretona—48, 904.
 Tovvretone—49, 905.
 Trebichen—35, 36.
 Trendesholt—172, 178.
 Tresetone—564, 565.
 Trisma—254, 255.
 Trula—900.
 Trvle—901.
 Tucabara—984.
 Tuchel—1028.
 Tuernetona hundred—xi.
 Tuicabara—988.
 Tuichebere—989.
 Tuichel—1029.
 Tuluertona hundred—xii.
 Tuuuertona hundred—xxiv.
 Tvchebere—985.

Ulvredintone—51.
 Uuincilea—xxii.
 Uuolestanecota—862.

Vennacra—846.
 Vlacumba—1006.
 Vlestanecote—863.
 Vlfaldeshodes—755.
 Vlgeberge—1043.
 Vlpease—195.
 Vlsistona—612.
 Vlsistone—613.
 Vluelei—181.
 Vluvetone—649.
 Vluredintona—50.
 Vlurintone—1077.
 Vluui—815.
 Vluurintona—728.
 Vluuritona—140.
 Vlveberie—549.
 Vlvelie—421.

Vlvredintone—207.
 Vlvretone—141.
 Vlwardesdona—95.
 Vmberlei—283.
 Vmberleia—282.
 Wachetona—26, 30.
 Wachetone—27, 31.
 Wadeham—1184, 1185.
 Wadelescota—388.
 Wadelescote—389.
 Wadestan—462, 463.
 Wafforda—804.
 Waford—729.
 Wafort—728.
 Wagesfella—576.
 Walchentona hundred—xi., xliv.
 Walcomba—214.
 Walcome—215.
 Walderige—500, 501.
 Waleforda—656.
 Waleurda—174.
 Walevrde—175.
 Walemintone—603.
 Walemintona—602.
 Waliforde—657.
 Warcoma—176.
 Warcome—177.
 Wasberlage—1187.
 Waseborna—858.
 Waseborne—859.
 Wasefelte—907.
 Wasfella—946.
 Wasfelle—947.
 Wasfelta—906.
 Wasforde—805.
 Wederige—349.
 Wedicheswelle—165.
 Wedreriga—348.
 Weia—384.
 Welingedinge—531.
 Welisedinga—530.
 Welland—163.
 Welle—247.
 Wenford—39, 971.
 Wenforda—970.
 ——— hundred—xi., xii.
 Wenford—971.
 Wenfort—38.
 ——— hundred—xlvi.
 Wellecoma—1012.
 Wellecome—1013.
 Wennacre—847.
 Wenneham—163, 169.
 Wera—980.
 Were—981.
 Wereia—1162.
 Wereingeurda—576.
 Wergi—1163.
 Wermehel—130, 131.

Wesford—1019, 1021.
 Wesforda—1020.
 Wesfort—1018.
 Weslega—872.
 Weslege—873.
 Westona—638.
 Westone—639.
 Wibeberia—1112.
 Wiberie—1113.
 Wiborda—314.
 Wibvrde—315.
 Wica—290, 386, 1172.
 Wicca—204, 1168.
 Wicerca—999.
 Wicha—868.
 Wiche—205, 291, 387, 869, 911,
 1169, 1173.
 Wida—882.
 Wide—883.
 Widebera—848.
 Widebere—849.
 Widecoma—804.
 Widecome—805.
 Widefella—324.
 Widefelle—325.
 Wideuorda—1024.
 Wideworde—1025.
 Wifevrde—1033.
 Wifteswille (Wifleswille)—987.
 Wigacrosta—960.
 Wigegroste—961.
 Wilauestreu—868.
 Wilavestrev—869.
 Wilelmitona—558.
 Wilelmitone—559.
 Willa—246, 906.
 Wille—907.
 Willecrosta—966.
 Willecroste—977.
 Willedene—1065.
 Willedenna—1064.
 Willelanda—1082.
 Willelande—1083.
 Willelmatona—1024.
 Willelmetone—1025.
 Wiltone—149.
 Wincheleia—84.
 Wincheleie—95.
 Winescota—984.

Winescote—985.
 Winestona—320.
 Winestone—321.
 Winpla—476, 694, 1038.
 Winple—477, 479, 695, 1039.
 Wintona—xlvi.
 Wintonia—2, 3.
 Wipletona—712.
 Wipletone—713.
 Wiriga—44.
 Wirige—45.
 Wiribesliga—1186.
 Witechenolla—1108.
 Witfella—154, 158, 874.
 Witfelle—155, 159, 875.
 Witford—73.
 Witfort—72.
 Witeleia—640, 882.
 Witelie—641, 883.
 Witenes—856, 857.
 Witestan—508, 509, 520, 521, 767.
 Witestani—766.
 Witeuueia—542.
 Witawei—543.
 Withechenolle—1109.
 Witric hundred—xi., xxiii.
 Witriga hundred—xii.
 Wiulesuilla—986.
 Wlvredintone—51.
 Wodeberia—44.
 ——— ecclesia—44.
 Wodeberie—45.
 ——— ecclesia—45.
 Wodiacomma—798.
 Wodicome—799.
 Woguuel—1116.
 Wogeueil—1160.
 Wogewill—1161.
 Wogwel—1117.
 Wolnecoma—684.
 Wolnecome—685.
 Worde—757.
 Wrda—756.
 Wrdieta—238.
 Wrdiete—239.
 Wyca—910.
 Yuesleiam—823.
 Yuuis—1196.

INDEX OF PERSONS.

- Abbas Aluvinus—250, 254, 256.
 — Alwinus—256, 258, 260.
 — Bulfestrensis—xxxvi.,
 xxxviii., xl., xlv., 250-261.
 — Cadomensis—280.
 — de Batailla—27, 46, 48, 49, 70, 270.
 — de Bulfesta, xvii., xxi.
 — de Creneburna—xxii.
 — de Labatille—47, 71.
 — de Sancto Stephano—xvii., 280.
 — de Tauistoc—xiv.
 — de Prælio—270.
 — Glastringheberiensis—226.
 — Gosfridus—240.
 — Horthonensis—262-267.
 — Hortonensis—xxxiii., xxxix.
 — Sancto Michaelis de Monte
 —xxx.
 — Sancti Michaelis de Monte
 —44.
 — Sitric—245.
 — Sitricus—240.
 — Sitricus—244, 246.
 — Tauestocensis—xxii., xxxix.
 — Tavestochensis—228-249.
Abbatissa Cadomensis—xxii.
 — Sanctæ Trinitate Cadom- ensis—282.
Abbetus—220.
Abet—221.
Aculeus, Rogerius—1112, 1116, 1117.
Adeluoldus—558.
Ademar—323.
Ademar—322.
Aderet Foristarius—xxxvi.
Adestan—1162.
Adestanus—1162.
Ado filius Gamelin—1.
Adobed, Ruald. See Ruald Adobed.
Adolfus—95.
Adredus—1106.
Adret—541, 1172.
Adretus—540.
Ædelstan—707.
Ædmer—325.
- Ailaf—1004.
Ailardus—963.
 — monachus—962.
Aileua—585.
Ailmar—173, 175, 209, 447, 1023,
 1025, 1081.
Ailmarus—172, 174, 208, 446, 520,
 876, 877, 1022, 1080.
Ailmer—185, 689, 945, 1019.
Ailmerus—184, 688, 944, 1018.
Ailnodus—426.
Ailric—425, 649.
Ailrich—14.
Ailricus—1144.
Ailricus—424, 648, 798.
Ailsi—956, 957.
Ailsius—788, 790, 792, 984, 1134.
Ailuardus—198.
Ailuard—485, 701.
Ailuardus—170, 199, 484, 700, 879.
 — tochesone—690, 694.
Ailuinus—200, 610, 630.
Ailwardus—878.
Ailwinus—612.
Aimar—1007.
Aimar—430, 1006.
Aiolf—1037.
Aiolfus—584, 974.
Aiulf—975.
Aiulfus—1, 584, 585, 1056, 1057.
Albemarle, Robertus de. See
Robertus de Albemarle.
Alberi—415, 417, 1023..
Alberic—417, 633.
Alberidus—414, 416.
Albricus—1122.
Albrix—670.
Alcerl—167, 189.
Alcerlo—356, 452.
Alcerlus—166, 188, 724.
Alcher—1033, 1051, 1103.
Alcherl—369, 453, 725.
Alcherlo—357.
Alcherlus—368.
Aldnotus—928.
Aldred—1145.
Aldredus—536, 1144.

Aldret—572, 583.
 ——— archiepiscopus—245.
 Aldretus—582, 1172.
 ——— archiepiscopus—244, 246.
 Aldulf—577.
 Aldulfus—576.
 Alebric—535, 647, 657, 663, 665, 671.
 Alebricus—534, 632, 646, 652, 662, 664.
 Alebrix—659, 666-669, 670, 671.
 Alestan—1097, 1157, 1159, 1161, 1163.
 Alestantilia—1096.
 Alestanus—1156, 1158, 1160.
 Alestilla—1096.
 Aleuesclef—822, 823.
 Alfer—985.
 Alferus—984.
 Alfhillia—1193.
 Alfjet—995.
 Alfjeta—994.
 Algar—147, 151, 161, 187, 197, 199, 207, 209, 376, 377, 399, 413, 443, 591, 601, 603, 605, 607, 609, 617, 659, 691, 693, 731, 773, 781, 841, 859, 927, 1185.
 ——— presbiter—285.
 Algardus—658, 858.
 Algarus—xliv., 146, 150, 160, 186, 196, 198, 206, 208, 412, 442, 590, 600, 602, 604, 606, 608, 616, 690, 692, 730, 772, 780, 840, 1184, 1186.
 ——— longus—398.
 ——— presbiter—284, 926.
 Algerus—1102.
 Algherus—1050.
 Alintona, Sancta Maria de—xlii.
 Aliuetus—xxiv.
 Almar—457, 467, 477, 479, 489, 521, 527, 753, 919, 951, 1041, 1131, 1165, 1167.
 Almarue—456, 466, 526, 752, 950, 1024, 1040, 1130, 1164, 1166.
 ——— estrege—340.
 ——— rufus—324.
 Almæ—431, 699, 921.
 Almer—487, 531, 543, 549, 555, 709, 715, 855, 933, 949, 1017, 1065, 1091.
 Almerdus—708.
 Almerus—396, 476, 478, 486, 504, 530, 542, 548, 554, 698, 714, 854, 918, 932, 948, 1016.
 Alnod—403, 419, 427, 455, 477, 541, 811, 929, 1039, 1041.
 Alnodus—286-289, 476, 540, 810, 850-853, 929, 1180, 1181.
 ——— de Braio—xx.
 Alnot—402, 418.

Alnotdus—928.
 Alnotus—454.
 Aloiss—842.
 Alouf—843.
 Alric—15, 191, 627, 717, 731, 733, 741, 745, 747, 749, 797, 799, 927, 957, 959, 977, 1071, 1081, 1127, 1145, 1187.
 Alricus—626, 740, 744, 746, 796, 926, 976, 1070, 1080, 1126, 1186.
 ——— presbiter—958, 1070, 1080.
 Alricus—190, 716, 730, 732, 748, 956.
 Alrist—618, 619.
 Alrix—740.
 Alsilla—1192.
 Alsi—348, 349, 789, 791, 793, 985, 1101, 1103, 1121, 1135.
 Alsius—788, 790, 1102, 1120.
 Alstus—1100.
 Aluardus—188, 602.
 Alueius—1078.
 Alueua—418, 419, 550, 551, 799, 803-805, 855, 940, 941, 1007, 1027.
 Alueuia—802, 1006.
 Alueredus—296, 322, 356, 580, 584.
 ——— Brito—478, 1033-1047.
 ——— Ispaniensis—1028, 1031.
 ——— pincerna—304, 306, 308, 322, 324, 350.
 Alueretus—524.
 Alueron—807-811, 816, 817.
 Aluerona—806, 808.
 Aluert—525.
 Alueuia—1190.
 Aluidus Brito—972.
 Aluieua—798.
 Aluin—837.
 Aluinus—112, 613.
 Aluiua—854.
 Aluius—1076, 1078.
 Aluoldus—842.
 Alured—143, 323, 581.
 Aluredus—142, 297, 305, 307, 309, 323, 325, 351, 357, 971.
 ——— Brito—I, 479, 1033-47.
 ——— de Ispania—I, 1028-1031.
 Aluric—161, 163, 305, 373, 473, 501, 577, 591, 593, 623, 625, 649, 651, 653, 661, 673, 697, 703, 717, 841, 861, 887, 897, 919, 935, 967, 1043, 1049, 1077, 1099, 1101, 1187, 1189.
 ——— pio—879.
 Aluricus—160, 162, 304, 372, 472, 500, 578, 590, 592, 622, 624, 648, 650, 660, 672, 696, 702, 716, 840, 934, 1048, 1076, 1098, 1100, 1186, 1188.
 ——— piga—918.

- Alurix—860.
 ——— pic—878.
 Aluualdus—1020, 1022, 1023, 1042, 1068.
 Aluuard—171, 695, 710, 711, 1025, 1137, 1175.
 Aluuardo Tochisone—709.
 Aluuardus—132, 133, 139, 189, 294, 295, 312, 313, 315, 354, 355, 358, 359, 596, 597, 603, 642, 643, 678-681, 691, 698, 699, 715, 825-827, 829, 844, 845, 856, 857, 880, 881, 910, 911, 914, 916, 917, 923, 982, 988, 999, 1022, 1024, 1136, 1174.
 ——— merta—824, 828, 1174, 1175.
 ——— Tochesona—922.
 ——— tochesone—714.
 ——— Tovi—914.
 Aluware—85.
 Aluatet—84.
 Aluvena—1026.
 Aluii—1029, 1031, 1069, 1077, 1079.
 Aluuidus—836, 1028.
 ——— tabe—850.
 Aluin—577, 889, 891, 951, 1183.
 Aluvinus—113, 124, 125, 132, 133, 143-145, 155, 200, 201, 210, 211, 218, 219, 224, 225, 354, 355, 368, 369, 405, 468, 469, 576, 586, 587, 606, 607, 610, 611, 625-627, 631, 636-639, 644, 645, 654, 655, 662, 663, 732, 733, 735-739, 758, 759, 770, 771, 875, 889, 891, 934, 935, 950, 986, 987, 1043, 1045, 1180-1182.
 ——— abbas—250, 254, 256.
 ——— niger—404.
 Aluius—1076, 1078.
 Aluis—1030, 1070.
 Aluudus—408.
 Aluuld—523.
 Aluuldus—406, 407, 409, 468, 522, 559, 588, 589, 843, 978, 1021, 1023, 1069.
 Aluoudus—462.
 Aluuredus—xliv., 856.
 ——— Brito—xiii., xxvi., xxvii., xl., xlv.
 ——— de Hispania—xix.
 Aluuritus—896, 966, 1048.
 Alveva—1191.
 Alvredus Brito—1033-1047.
 Alward presbiter—827, 828.
 Alwardus—314.
 Alwinus—142, 154, 624, 734, 874.
 ——— abbas—256, 258, 260.
 Alwinus dapifer—218.
 Angerus—224, 544.
 Angerius—304, 440.
 Anglus, Elmerus—xix.
 Anglicus, Odo—xxxii.
 Anafredus—820.
 Anafridus—821.
 Anachetillus—676, 678, 680, 738, 740.
 Anschitil—531, 677, 679, 681.
 Anschitillus—530, 739.
 Anscitillus—xvi.
 Ansgarus—794.
 Anager—225, 455, 459, 461, 463, 527, 529, 545, 787, 796, 798, 799.
 ——— de Montagud—1048-1055.
 Anageridus—528.
 Anagerus—xvii., xxxiii., 1, 301, 303, 305, 454, 458, 460, 462, 526, 530, 544, 786, 798, 800, 1062, 1147.
 ——— contractus—30, 34.
 ——— de Ponte Senardi—xxii.
 ——— serviens regis—1146.
 Anagerius—302, 441.
 ——— Brito—300, 302.
 Anagodus—1176.
 Anagot—1177, 1179.
 Anagotus—xiv., 374, 402, 1176, 1178.
 Anagottus—214.
 Arbalisterus. See Godeboldus.
 Archibalesteri. See Nicholas, Fulcher.
 Archiepiscopi. See Aldred, Eldred.
 Arcia, Haimericus de—1130-1133.
 Aret—440, 441.
 Aric—517.
 Aritus—516.
 Arnaldus—772.
 Arnulfo de Ponteio—xxiii.
 Asgar—31, 35, 787, 795, 797, 799, 801.
 Atre, Edmer—303, 323.
 Auuardus merta—824.
 Auunculus Briafeustus—284.
 Balduinus—120, 121, 123, 860, 861, 1039.
 ——— vxor de—476, 477.
 ——— filia de—422.
 ——— uiccomes—xiv., xvii., xix., xxiii., xxvi., xxviii., xxx., xxxv., xli., xlvii., 1, 2, 3, 6, 8, 9, 10, 12, 14, 18, 22, 24, 26, 40, 42-46, 50, 52, 54, 56, 62, 64, 66, 72, 74, 122, 378-561, 1178, 1179.
 Balduinus uiccomitis—xiii., 1178.
 Bastardus, Robertus. See Robertus Bastard.

- Batailla, Monachi de. See Monachi
 Batailla.
 — Abbas de. See Abbas de
 Batailla.
 Bauduidus—528.
 Bauduin—1038.
 Bauduinus (Exon)—560. See
 Balduinus.
 Beatrice (soror Willelmus Capra)— xxxiii, 720, 715, 721, 950, 951.
 Bello Monte, Rotbertus de. See Rotbertus Bello Monte.
 Berardus—xlvii.
 Bere—1143.
 Bernardus—403, 404, 418, 419,
 509-511, 1008, 1007, 1014,
 1015.
 — sine napa—508.
 Bernerii, Tetbaldi filii—1000-1025.
 Bernuinus, Goscelmus—500.
 Bertritus—1130.
 Berus—1142.
 Biatrice—714.
 Biche—797.
 Bichus—796.
 Bogredus—704.
 Boia—94, 95.
 Borgaret—931.
 Borgaretus—556, 930.
 Borgeret—557.
 Borgundiensis, Walterius. See Walterius Borgundiensis.
 Botinus, Radulphus—1140.
 Bougheredus—468.
 Braio, Alnodus de. See Alnodus de Braio.
 Brestricus Comesone—686.
 Bretel—309, 361.
 Bretellus—310, 360.
 Bricfert—285.
 Bricsius—172.
 Brictena—1155.
 Brictic—77, 85, 153, 155, 157,
 159, 177, 281, 283, 381, 383,
 387, 391, 495, 513, 547, 569,
 571, 621, 687, 703, 725, 793,
 819, 821, 825, 831, 863, 865,
 881, 993, 1013, 1053, 1055,
 1059, 1063, 1073, 1075, 1077,
 1131, 1141, 1169, 1193, 1196.
 Bricticius—823, 855, 861.
 Brictstui—577.
 Brictualdes [dus]—877.
 Brictuin—845.
 Brictuold—183, 707, 1121.
 Brictuoldus—179, 727.
 Brictuoldus—727.
 Brideuoldus—1028, 1029.
 Brisid—1013.
 Brisidus—1012.
 Brisfertus—284.
 — auunculus—284.
 Brismar—205, 381, 391, 397, 411,
 439, 445, 449, 453, 465, 467,
 479, 487, 499, 525, 559, 761,
 763, 881, 1125, 1127, 1172,
 1179.
 Brismarus—204, 380, 396, 410, 444,
 448, 452, 466, 558, 760, 762,
 880, 1124, 1126.
 Brismer—493, 547, 711, 949, 1051.
 Brismerus—390, 438, 464, 478, 486,
 492, 498, 524, 546, 948.
 Brismetus—710.
 Bristecus—1168.
 Bristena—1154.
 Bristoaldus—724, 725.
 Bristoldus—706, 870.
 Bristicius—82, 84, 570, 1072.
 Bristricius—80, 82, 84, 280, 708,
 724, 862, 1052, 1054, 1192.
 Bristrico filio Algari—822.
 Bristricius—568.
 Bristuit Comesone—576.
 Bristricu—882.
 Bristricus—76, 78, 84, 86, 88, 90,
 92, 94, 152, 154, 156, 158,
 176, 282, 380, 386, 390, 494,
 512, 546, 620, 702, 792, 818,
 820, 824, 830, 860, 862, 1012,
 1058, 1062, 1072, 1074, 1076,
 1140, 1192.
 [Bristic] filius Cammi—156.
 Bristritius—90, 862, 864, 992, 1052,
 1062.
 Bristrix—854, 880.
 Bristualdus—876.
 Bristuinus—844.
 Bristuoldus—178, 182, 608, 609,
 726, 871, 1120.
 Brito, Alvredus—478, 1033-1047.
 — Ansgarius—300, 302.
 Brix—173.
 Brodre—587.
 Brongarus—202.
 Brorus—586.
 Brueria, Radulphus de. See Radul-phus de Brueria.
 Brungar—203, 507, 731.
 Brungarus—506, 730.
 Bucfeth, Ecclesia de. See Ecclesia de Bucfeth.
 Bugered—705.
 Bughered—469.
 Bulgeret—868.
 Burgered—927, 1146, 1147.
 Burgeredus—926.
 Busli, Rogerius de. See Rogerius
 de Busli.
 Buterleio, Eduuinus de—xxvii.

Cadio—394, 395.
 Cadom, Ecclesia S. Stefani de. See Ecclesia S. Stefani de Cadom.
 ——— S. Trinitatis de. See
     Ecclesia S. Trinitatis de Cadom.
 ——— Maurinus de—xxx., xxxiv.
 Calodelia, Godricus de—xxiv.
 Camerarius, Godefridus (Godefricus).
     See Godefricus Camerarius.
 Camesone, Bristrect. See Bristrect
     Camesone.
 Canistre—863.
 Canistrus—862.
 Canonicus, Gotselinus—xxvi.
 Canonici Sanctae Marie. See Sanctae
     Marie Canonici.
 ——— Sanctae Marie de Rotomago. See Sanctae Marie de Rotomago.
 ——— Sancti Petri de Plintona.
     See Sancti Petri de Plintona.
 Capellanus Girolodus—1, 1092-
     1095.
 Capra, Willelmus. See Willelmus
     Capra.
 Cartrai, Hunfridus de—xxiii.
 Cartreo, Mauger de—352.
 Chenegar—729.
 Chenegarus—728.
 Chenestan—571, 780, 782.
 Chenestanus—570.
 Chenestannus—568.
 Chenias—848, 849, 858, 859.
 Chenistre—509, 511.
 Chenistus—508, 510.
 Cheping—299, 461.
 Chepinus—298, 460.
 Chetel—828, 829, 925.
 Chieure, Willelmus. See Willelmus
     Chieure.
 Chinestan—509.
 Chinias—850, 851.
 Chipinus—1108.
 Chiping—1105, 1107, 1109.
 Chippinus—1104, 1106.
 Chitellus—924.
 Cicemetona, Goduvinus de—xxxv.
 Cillemetona, Gotuvinus—xxvii.
 Clauile, Walterius de. See Walterius de Clauile.
 Clerici de Holecoma—xv.
 ——— Sanctae Mariae—624, 625.
 Cola—820.
 Colbert—641.
 Colbertus—316, 317, 612, 618, 640,
     1018, 1019.
 Colbrand—1015, 1017.
 Colbrandus—1014, 1016.
 Cole—601, 821.
 Colebrand—459.

Colebranus—458.
 Colim—716.
 Colinton, Vitalis de—512.
 Colo—600.
 Colsuen—839.
 Coluin—391, 417, 421, 1061.
     — et alii taini regis—1.
 Coluinus—xvii., 2, 3, 34, 390, 416,
     420, 1060, 1150, 1152, 1154.
     — prepositus—xiv.
 Colvinus—1151, 1153, 1155.
 Colwin—1151.
 Comes or comitis Moritoniensis—1, 15, 31, 35, 51, 109, 265, 290-
     377, 911, 981.
 ——— de Moritonio—xvii., xix., xxx., xxxii., xxxiv., xxxix., xl., xlv., 14, 30, 32, 50, 108,
     264, 290-377, 910, 980.
 ——— Moretanius—36.
 Comites. See Gislebertus, Harold,
     Hugo, Lewin, Robertus.
 Comitissa Ghida—276, 277.
 Connar—833.
 Constantiniensis, Episcopus de.
     See Episcopus de Constantiniensis.
 Contractus, Ansgarus—30, 34.
 Corcella, Rogerius de—xxxii.
 Cota, Olmerus—472.
 Creneburne, Ecclesia de. See
     Ecclesia de Creneburne.
 Dal, Hugo de. See Hugo de Dal.
 Dapifer, Alwinus—218.
 ——— Rainerus—436.
 ——— Walterius. See Walterius
     Dapifer.
 Doda—168, 496, 500, 502, 1008.
 Dode—497, 501, 503, 519, 839, 1009.
 Dodo—140, 141, 146-149, 169,
     190, 191, 384, 385, 388.
 ——— presbiter—518.
 Dolesuuf—446, 447.
 Domnus—xxi., xxx., 98, 364, 1178.
 Dona—1176.
 Done—1177.
 Doninus—352.
 Donna—366.
 Donne—1179, 1181.
 Donninc—353.
 Donno—365, 367, 375.
 Donnus—374, 1180.
 Douuai, Walterius de. See Walterius de Douuai.
 Dreus—312, 314.
 Drogo—xix., xxiii., 132-210, 264,
     265, 313, 315, 324, 325, 358, 359.
 ——— filius Malgeri—132, 136.
 ——— Matelgerii—138.

- Drogro—190, 192.
 Duaco, Walscinus (Valscinus) de.
     See Walscinus de Duaco.
 Ealous—656.
 Eccha, prepositus—6, 7.
 Ecclesia de Bucfesh (Bucfeste)—
     1, 250-251.
     — de Creneburne—1, 268, 269.
     — Glastingberie—1, 228, 227.
     — de Hortune—1, 262-267.
     — de Labatailge—1, 6, 7, 46,
         47, 70, 71, 270, 271.
     — de Monte S. Michaelis—1, 44, 45, 276-279, 474, 475.
     — de Rotomago S. Mariae—1, 14-17, 272-275.
     — S. Stefani de Cadom—1,
         280, 281.
     — de Tauestoch—1, 228-249.
     — S. Trinitatis de Cadom—1, 282, 283.
 Eda—1068.
 Edda—1069.
 Eddena—331.
 Eddeua—779, 837.
 Eddid regina—335.
 Eddida—713, 771.
     — regina—2.
 Eddille—221.
 Eddricus—128, 318, 798.
     — mancus—16.
 Eddulf—475.
 Eddulfus—441, 509, 721.
 Edena—330.
 Edibda—712.
 Edida regina—38.
 Edide—74.
 Editda—770.
     — regina—34.
 Edlouedief—836, 837.
 Edmer—325, 327, 329, 931.
 Edmar—463, 681, 983, 995, 1009,
     1011, 1057, 1077, 1133.
 Edmarus—326, 413, 462, 516, 680,
     982, 994.
 Edmaratorii (Edmeratorii) honore —302, 304, 308, 310, 312, 316,
     318, 320.
 Edmaratorius—302.
 Edmaratorus—300, 324.
 Edmarrus—328.
 Edmer—149, 177, 181, 183, 219,
     301, 331, 385, 517, 559, 643,
     971, 989, 1083, 1123.
 Edmer atre—303, 323.
 Edmeratorius—322.
     — homo—306.
 Edmerus—148, 176, 180, 182, 218,
     330, 384, 642, 930, 970, 988, 1122.
 Ednod—107, 161.
 Ednodus—106, 160, 288, 386, 387,
     779.
 Edolfus—474, 508.
 Edred—1175.
 Edric—129, 217, 219, 221, 223, 319,
     321, 351, 367, 421, 471, 521,
     705, 895, 897, 937, 1055, 1057,
     1087, 1091, 1167, 1169.
     — mancus—15.
 Edricius—894.
 Edricus—167, 220, 222, 318, 320,
     350, 470, 704, 895, 936, 1054,
     1166.
     — filius. See Eduuardus.
 Edridus—1107.
 Edritius—216, 218, 366, 520, 896, 1086.
 Eduin—685, 955, 1183.
 Eduinus—215, 414, 415, 923, 975,
     1183.
 Eduuard—645.
 Eduuardus—551, 644, 893, 1139.
     — filius Eddrici (Edrici)—
         15, 16.
 Eduui—169, 301, 443, 483, 539,
     725, 965, 966.
 Eduuinus—xxvi, xxxvi, 214, 321,
     480, 481, 684, 832, 833, 922,
     945, 954, 974, 1182.
     — de Buterleio—xxvii.
 Eduuis—482, 538.
 Eduuitius—954.
 Eduuius—496, 497.
 Edviv—724.
 Edwi—168, 300, 554, 555.
 Edwinus—320, 944.
 Edwy—442.
 Eideta regina—36.
 Eidieua—836.
 Eilaf—1005.
 Eldille—719.
 Eldillus—718.
 Eldred—573, 1173.
     — archiepiscopus—247.
 Eldredus—537.
 Elduinus—753.
 Elmar—533.
 Elmardus—532.
 Elmer—318, 397, 503, 505, 515,
     535, 655, 669, 720, 721.
 Elmerus—312, 502, 514, 534, 654, 668, 854.
     — Anglus : xix.
 Elmeratorius—312, 316.
 Elous—657.
 Elric—983.
 Elricus—982.
 Elsi—782, 783.
 Elueua—805.

Eluardus—58, 59, 138, 805, 688, 689, 888, 839, 983.
 ——— rufus—304.
 Eluin—583.
 Eluinus—582.
 Emma vxor Bauduino—412, 518.
     uidua—xxxvi.
 Engelbaldi vxor—210, 212.
 Episcopus G.—xxiv., xxvii., xxxv.,
     xlvii.
 ——— Gosfridus—xxxviii.
 ——— Osbernus—xx., xxi.,
     xxiii., xxvii., xxviii., xxxiii.,
     xxxvi., xxxviii., xxxix., xlvii.
 ——— de Sancto Laudo—xxx.
 ——— de Constantiensis—xvi.— xix., xlvii., 1-3, 14-17, 124-225, 838, 839.
 ——— de Excestre (Exonia)—1, 98-123.
 ——— Essecestra—xix., xx.,
     xxx.
 ——— Leuricus—104, 106, 112,
     114, 116, 118, 120.
 Ercebnaldus—xix.
 Ercebnaldus—334.
 Erchenbaldus—299, 331, 335, 341,
     349, 980.
 Erchenboldus—330, 332, 334, 342,
     350, 980.
 Erdulfus—440.
 Ermenald—229.
 Ermenaldus—228.
 Ernaldus—773.
 Esgarus—786.
 Esnotus—620.
 Estnota—860.
 Estrege, Almarus. See Almarus
     estrege.
 Etdilla—220.
 Etdeua—778.
 Etdricus—1056, 1168.
 Etduinus—1182.
 Etmarus—324, 412, 1008, 1010,
     1056, 1076, 1082, 1182.
 Etmerus—558.
 Etmaratolius—322.
 Etuoldus—778.
 Eureuuacre—493.
 Eureuuacus—492.
 Etuardus—550.
 ——— presbyter—1188.
 Etzi—706.
 Excestre, &c. See Episcopi de, also Goscelmus de.
 Ezi—483, 707.
 Ezius—482.
 Faleise, Willelmus de. See Willelmus de Faleise.

Felgheres (Felceris), Radulphus de.
     See Radulphus de Felgheres.
 Filia de Balduinus—422.
 Filius Eddricii. See Eduuarnus.
 ——— Geruini. See Rogeria.
 ——— Lamberti. See Motbertus.
 ——— Algari. See Bristricius.
 ——— Malgeri. See Drogo.
 ——— Inonis. See Rotbertus.
 ——— Gamelin. See Odo.
 ——— Edritii. See Odo.
 ——— Pagani. See Rogerina.
 ——— Gisleberti. See Ricardus.
 ——— Rolf. See Turstan.
 ——— Bernerii. See Tetbald.
 ——— Torolf. See Ricardus.
 ——— Wimundi. See Willelmus.
 Fitellus—1010, 1066.
 Flandrensis, Rogerus—xxix., 974-
     976.
 Flauus, Rogerus—xlvii.
 Floherus—1056.
 Franco—870, 871.
 Francorum militum—766, 768.
 Frater Radulphus de Pomaria, Willelmus—xvi.
 Frauuinus—968, 969, 1088, 1089,
     1146, 1147.
 Frawinus—340.
 Frotmundus—xliii., xlv., xlv.
 Fulcerus—xxxvi., 1124-1129.
 Fulcherus—xxx., 1, 1124-1129.
 ——— archibalistarius—xxvi.
 Fulco—604-609, 1033.
 Fulcoidus—692.
 Fulcold—693.
 Fulgo—604, 606. [xlvii.
 G. episcopus—xxiv., xxvii., xxxv.,
 Gamelin, Odonis filius—1058-1083.
 Gaufridus de Trailei—222.
 Gausbertus—1002, 1004.
 Geda—42.
 Gerardus—782.
 Geroldus—1094.
 Geron—1027.
 Gerson—1026.
 Geruini, Rotbertus filius—xli.
 Ghida—51, 69.
 ——— comitissa—277.
 ——— mater Heraldi comitis—41-51.
 Gida—44, 48.
 Girardus—1, 774, 775, 778, 779,
     783, 904-907, 1096, 1097.
 Girolodus capellanus—1, 1092-1095.
 Gisleberti, Ricardus filius. See
     Ricardus filius Gisleberti.
 Gislebertus—410, 411, 470, 471, 524,
     525, 870, 876, 878, 879, 982,
     983, 1066, 1067.

Gislebertus comes—864, 865.
 Glastingeberia, Sancta Maria de—xxxii.
 Goda—660, 908, 909, 942, 946, 947.
 Gode—619, 661, 943, 1065, 1095.
 Godebaldus—xx., xlvii.
 Godeboldus—xvii., 1.
     — arbalisterius—1098—1111.
 Godefricus—686.
     — camerarius—434.
 Godefridus—xxii., xlii., 80, 432,
     433, 435, 687, 842, 843, 848,
     849, 854, 855.
     — camerarius—432.
     — de Ualletorta—xlv.
     — de Tortaualle—xlvii.
 Godericus—1134.
 Godeua—xxxiv., xli., 846, 1068, 1069, 1192, 1193.
     — uxor Bristiciei—xxxviii.
 Godeue—847.
 Godeuinus—1086.
 Godman—431, 513, 557.
 Godmannus presbiter—430, 512.
 Godo—997.
     — presbiter—1094.
 Godric—465, 483, 677, 773, 785,
     933, 941, 1035, 1037, 1053,
     1085, 1135, 1153, 1155, 1166.
 Godricius—1152.
 Godricus—134, 464, 482, 676, 678,
     784, 932, 940, 1052, 1084, 1152,
     1154, 1164—1167.
     — de Calodeleia—xxiv.
 Godritius—772.
 Goduin—459, 1159, 1165.
 Goduinus—112, 113, 295, 375, 384,
     385, 410, 411, 444, 445, 494,
     495, 507, 552, 553, 641, 1128,
     1129, 1159, 1161.
 Godus—618.
 Goduin—1007.
 Goduinus—376, 458, 506, 634,
     640, 1156, 1158, 1160, 1162,
     1164.
     — de Cicemetona—xxxv.
 Godvinus—1157.
 Godvvinus presbiter—294.
 Godwinus—1161.
 Godwin—637.
 Goifridus—963.
 Goisbertus—1003, 1005.
 Goisfridus—219, 223, 229, 233, 235,
     241.
 Goialebertus—1005.
 Gola—134.
 Golsuenus—838.
 Gonerus—812.
 Gonhard—813.
 Gonherus—898.

Gonnerus—832.
 Gonther—899.
 Gosbertus—1002.
 Goscelinus—523, 1007, 1012.
 Goscelmus—1, 76, 78, 80, 86, 92, v
     93, 547, 802, 832, 883, 836,
     837, 862, 863.
     — bernuinus—500.
     — de Execestre—863.
     — de Essicestra—862.
 Goseumus—546.
 Goselmus—82, 1006, 1062.
 Gosfredus—962.
 Gosfridus—xxxiii., 218, 228, 232, 234, 240.
     — episcopus—xxxviii.
     — abbas—240.
 Goselinus—522.
 Gotbaldus—xxxvi.
 Gotboldus—xix.
 Gotmanus—556.
 Gotcelmus—862.
 Gotselenus—74.
 Gotselinus canonicus—xxvi.
 Gotselmus—xxiv., xxviii., xxx, xxxi., 862.
 Gotuvinus—xxxviii., xlvii.
     — de Cillemetona—xxvii.
 Gotwinus—xxx.
 Gowinus—374.
 Gozelinus—501, 533, 1013.
 Grento—246, 247.
 Grim—564, 565, 573.
 Grinus—572.
 Guilelmus—420.
 Guillelmus—616.
 Guitda—40, 42, 44, 46.
 Gutda comitissa—276.

 Haca—750.
 Hacca—752.
 Hache—751—753.
 Hademarus—357.
 Hadimarus—290, 291, 356.
 Hadolfus—94.
 Hadulfus—94.
 Haimericus—1.
     — de Arcis—xxiv., 1130—
         1133.
 Haimerus—306, 307.
 Haimo—697, 701.
 Halebrix—656, 658.
 Hamelin—337.
 Hamelinus—xvii., xxxix., 295, 296,
     336.
 Haimericus—xlvii.
 Hamo—696, 700.
 Hamon—711.
 Hamondus—710.
 Hanca—942.

Hanche—943.
 Haraldus comes—50, 58, 60, 62.
 Hardolfus—202.
 Hardulf—203.
 Haroldus comes—52, 54, 56, 64, 66,
 126.
 Hec, Willelmus—618.
 Heccha—760.
 Heche—597, 605, 615, 629, 635,
 659, 761.
 Hecus—596, 604, 614, 628, 634, 658.
 — uicecomes—604.
 Hedricus—134, 420.
 Hegotus—934.
 Heibodo—xxiii.
 Helgodus—924.
 Helgot—935.
 Helgotus—1128.
 Heraldus comes—41, 51, 54, 62,
 68, 127, 277, 279.
 Herbertus—756, 757, 1076, 1077.
 Herchenboldus—289.
 Hermer—843.
 Hermerus—784, 785, 842, 844, 858,
 859.
 Herrefort, Rotbertus de. See Rot-bertus de Herrefort.
 Herroldus comes—276, 278.
 Herueii, uxor—xxx., 540, 541.
 Hervei de Helion, vxor de—1, 1090—1093.
 Holduinus—752.
 Holecoma, clerici de—xv.
 Homo Edmeratorius—306.
 Homines Episcopus Essecestrencis
 —xx.
 Hostiarius, Willelmus. See Willel-mus Hostiarius.
 Hou, Willelmus de. See Willel-mus de Ov.
 Hubertus—xlvii., 792, 793.
 Hugo—228, 229, 330, 331, 370,
 371, 499, 500, 501, 588, 539,
 729.
 — comes—xx., xxx., 1, 286, 289.
 — de Dal—728.
 — de Valletorta—xl.
 — redonensis—498.
 Hunfridus—xlvii.
 — de Cartrai—xxiii.
 Iachelinus—1108.
 Iadolfus—498.
 Iagelinus—1018.
 Ima uidua—xxxiii.
 Ineguarus—358.
 Ineuuar—401, 749, 1045.
 Ineuuarus—359.
 Ingelbald—147.

Ingelbaldi uxor—211.
 Ingelbaldus—146.
 Inguarus—748.
 Inwarus—400.
 Ioselinus—532.
 Iric—302, 303.
 Irlandinos homines—606.
 Ispaniensis, Alveredis—1028, 1031.
 Iudhel (Iuhel) de Totenais—1, 564—673.
 Iudhellus—75.
 Iuhelleus—564.
 Iuhellus—xv., xxxviii.—xli., xlv.,
 xlv.
 Iuonia, Rotbertus filius. See Rot-bertus filius Iuonia.
 Jagelin—1019.
 Johannes—588, 589, 598, 599, 1122.
 Juhel—95.
 Juhellus—xv., xxxvii., 74, 94.
 Juin—553.
 Juinus—552.
 Labatailge. See Ecclesia de Labatailge.
 Lachelinus—1109.
 Ladulf—499.
 Lambertus—430.
 Lamberti, Motbertus filius. See
 Motbertus filius Lamberti.
 Ledmar—917.
 Leduinus—913.
 Leimar—915.
 Leiuergarus—970.
 Lesmer—757.
 Letardus—xlv.
 Letmarus—914, 916.
 Letuynus—912.
 Leuegar—175, 363, 515, 529, 755,
 921, 971, 1005, 1061, 1089.
 Leuegarus—362, 754, 1004, 1088.
 Leuenot—429.
 Leuesgarus—1060.
 Leugarus—174.
 Leumerus—756.
 Leuret—815.
 Leuric—223, 405, 433, 435, 437,
 747, 957, 1037, 1189.
 Leuricus—222, 404, 746, 1188.
 — episcopus—104, 106, 112,
 114, 116, 118, 120.
 Leuricus episcopus—120.
 Leuriritius—956.
 Leuina—1141.
 Leuinus—782, 783, 978.
 — comes—70, 72.
 — socca—1140.
 Leuynus comes—68.
 Lewinus comes—69.

Lestra, Willelmus de—350.
 Lieuenot—428.
 Lieuegarus—514, 528, 920.
 Lieuricus—432, 434, 436.
 Limesei, Radulfus de. See Radulfus de Limesei.
 Liuredus—814.
 Liuuinus comes—70.
 Lofe—987.
 Longus, Algarus. See Algarus longus
 Louus—986.
 Ludo—784, 785, 788—792, 794,
 795, 858, 859, 1072, 1073.

Macheld—1051.
 Mahillis reginae—76, 88.
 Mainfredus—698.
 Mainfridus—699.
 Malger—353.
 Malgeri. See Drogo filius.
 Mancus, Eddricus—15, 16.
 Maria, Sancta. See Sancta Maria.
 Mastilda—802.
 Mater Haraldi comitis—50.
 Mathila—1170, 1171.
 Mathilda regina—284.
 Mathildis regina—77, 90, 864.
 Mathildus—803.
 Mangerus—352, 354.
 — de Cartreo—352.
 Maurinus de Cadom—xxxii, xxxiv.
 Merlesoanus—898, 900, 904, 906.
 Merlesuain—899, 907.
 Merlesuein—898.
 Merlesuen—902, 904, 906.
 Merlosuanus—902.
 Merlosuinus—900.
 Merta, Aluuardus. Aluuardus Merta.
 Michaelis Sancte. See S. Michaelis.
 Milo—xvii.
 Modbertus—405, 431.
 Moion, Willelmus de. See Willelmus
 de Moion.
 Molis, Rogerius de. See Rogerius
 de Molis.
 Monachi Sancti Michaelis. See
 Ecclesia Sancti Michaelis.
 Montagud, Anser de—1048—1055.
 Morinus—554, 555, 558, 559, 1146, 1147.
 Moritonensis, Comes. See Comes
 Moritonensis.
 Motberia, Sancta Maria de—xlv.
 Motbertus—388, 389, 404, 514—517.
 — filius Lamberti—430.
 Nicholas—xvi, xxxiii.
 — archibalistarius—xxvii,
 1112—1123.
 Nicolaus—xxxviii, xlvii, 1.

Nigel—235, 243, 567, 569, 573, 575,
 577, 579, 647.
 Nigellus—234, 242, 566, 568, 572,
 574, 576, 578, 646.
 Niger, Aluuinus—404.
 Niuuetona, Sacerdotes de—xvii.
 — Sancta Maria de—xlv.
 Norman—85, 287, 363, 365, 393,
 485, 726, 1015, 1065.
 Normannus—286, 362, 364, 392,
 484, 727, 1014, 1064.
 — custos parci—86.
 Nouilla, Ricardus de—436.
 Odeman—819.
 Odemanus—818.
 Odeua—1151.
 Odo—xiv., xl., xlv., 474, 475, 556,
 557, 606, 607, 634—643, 1058—
 1083, 1166—1171, 1196.
 — Anglicus—xxxii.
 — filius Eddritii (Eddritii)—xxvii, xxxv.
 — filius Gamelini—xvi, xx, xxiv, xxvii, xxxv., 1058—1083.
 Odradius—1112, 1114, 1116, 1118.
 Offerd—997.
 Offers—439, 491, 543, 759.
 Olfus—414, 422, 1098.
 Oliuer—1013, 1015, 1017, 1025.
 Oliuerus—xxviii, xxxiv, xli, 1012,
 1014, 1016, 1024.
 Oliuena—136.
 Olmarus—544, 750.
 Olmerus—242, 856.
 — cota—472.
 Olnodus—638, 960, 1104.
 Olnot—394, 406.
 Olnotus—194, 710, 754.
 Oltredus—674.
 Oluarda—814.
 Oluardus—942.
 Olueron—812.
 Olueua—204, 206.
 Oluietus—830, 846.
 Oluiueua—272.
 Oluricus—394, 776, 784.
 Oluardus—814.
 Olueua—1070.
 Olus—214.
 Oluuus—215.
 Olwiet—814.
 Ordolfus—980.
 Ordric—861, 778, 779, 1113, 1115,
 1117, 1119.
 Ordricius—1118.
 Ordritius—360.
 Ordulf—107, 291, 293, 295, 297,
 331, 333, 335, 337, 339, 341,
 893, 969, 981.

Ordulfus—74, 76, 77, 106, 290, 292,
 294, 296, 298, 330, 332, 334,
 336, 338, 340, 341, 344, 345,
 348, 968.
 ——— homines—334.
 ——— honorem—298, 342, 344,
 346, 348.
 ——— soror—334, 720.
 Orgar—307.
 Orgarus—306.
 Osbernus—xlvii., 216, 217, 601,
 809, 887, 1084-1089.
 ——— episcopus—xx., xxi., xxvii., xxxiii., xxxvi., xxxviii., xxxix.,
 xlvii., 98-123.
 ——— de Salceid—1, 1084-1089.
 ——— de Salceit—1084, 1088.
 ——— de Salceio—xxvi., xxxviii., 1086.
 ——— de Salicto—xlvii.
 Osbertus—600, 808.
 Oseua—1150.
 Osferdus—542, 758.
 Osfernus—560.
 Osfers—378, 388, 393, 435, 561.
 Osfers (Offers)—379, 389, 561.
 Osferus—392, 434, 460, 488, 490.
 Osgot—215, 375, 403.
 Oslac—868.
 Osmer—511, 617.
 Osmerus—510, 616.
 Osmundus—844-847.
 Osmundivilla, Walterius de. See
 Walterius de Osmundivilla.
 Osolfus—642, 646.
 Ossulfus—882.
 Osulf—135, 141, 567, 643, 647.
 Osulfus—134, 140, 566, 883.
 Osuic—537.
 Oswicus—536.
 Otelinus—402, 434, 468, 494, 504,
 506, 508, 560.
 Othelin—401, 435, 469, 495, 507,
 509, 561.
 Othelinus—505.
 Otre—349, 623, 591, 593, 684, 685.
 Otro—590, 592.
 Otrus—348, 622.
 Ouvinus prepositus—xlvii.
 Ow, Willelmus de. See Willelmus
 de Ow.
 Pagani, Rogerius filius. See Rogerius filius Pagani, &c.
 Pagenel, Radulfus de. See Radulfus de Pagenel, &c.
 Petrus—728, 729.
 Pic, Aluric—879; piga, 918.
 Pincerna, Alueredus. See Alueredus
 Pincerna.

Pincerna, Walterius—xlvii.
 Pitauensis, Willelmus. See
 Willelmus Pitauensis, &c.
 Plintona, Sanctus Petrus de—xlii.
 Poilgi, Willelmus de. See Willelmus de Poilgi, &c.
 Pomerei, Radulfus de. See Radulfus de Pomerei, &c.
 Pontecardonis, Rotbertus. See
 Rotbertus Pontecardonis.
 Ponte Senardi. See Anagerus de.
 Pontel, Arnulfo de—xxiii.
 Portarius, Willelmus—xxx.; (Portitor), 1134, 1135.
 Prælio, Abbas de—270.
 Prepositus, Coluinus—xiv.
 ——— Eccha—6, 7.
 ——— Ouvinus—xlvii.
 Presbiteri de Braunton—xix.
 ——— Exeministra—xxxvi.
 ——— Moltona—xix., xx.
 Presbiter—xiv.
 ——— Algar—285; idem Algarus.
 ——— Alricus—958, 1070, 1080.
 ——— Alward—827, 828.
 ——— Dodo—518.
 ——— Etunardus—1138.
 ——— Godmannus—430, 512.
 ——— Godo—1094.
 ——— Godvvinus—294.
 ——— Sauvinus—234, 285.
 ——— Wigo—128.

R—666, 668, 670, 694.

Rademar—775.

Rademar—774.

Radulfus—xiii., xxxiii., 228, 229,
 234-237, 363, 391, 415, 429,
 431, 433, 443, 497, 503, 504,
 539, 549, 572, 573, 587, 589,
 591, 593, 602, 603, 610-13,
 620-623, 623-633, 654-659,
 666-670, 682, 683, 688, 689,
 694, 695, 700, 701, 707, 714,
 715, 719, 748, 749, 752-757,
 786, 787, 794, 795, 799, 800,
 1004, 1005, 1059, 1061, 1065,
 1114, 1115, 1136, 1137, 1141.
 ——— Botinus—1140.
 ——— de Brueria—390, 414, 428,
 538, 548.
 ——— de Felceris—xl., 14.
 ——— de Felgheres—1, 908, 909.
 ——— de Limesi (and Limiseio)— xix., 1, 894-897.
 ——— Paganellus—xxvii., xxxviii.,
 xxxix., xlvii.
 ——— Pagani filius—718.
 ——— Paganus, Pagannus, Pagan-ellus—898-906.

Radulfus Pagenel—1, 899-907.
 — de Pomeria (and Pomaria)—
 1, 14, 15, 430, 432, 496, 502,
 586, 594, 708, 910-967.
 — Pomerei—385.
 — de Tilio—228.
 — Uitalis—1058, 1196.

Radulphus—1064.
 — de Pomaria—xiv., xvi.,
 xix., xxiv., xxvi., xxvii., xxviii.,
 xxx., xxxii., xxxvi., xxxix., xlvii., 362, 384, 442, 588, 590,
 592, 610.

Raginal—32.

Raginaldus—xliii., xlv., 32, 74,
 328, 328, 338, 360, 362, 364,
 366, 368, 556, 992.

— de Tortaulla—xlv.
 — de Ualletorta—338.

Raignaldus—368.

Rainaldus—244, 245, 316-321, 327,
 329, 339-349, 361, 363, 365,
 367-369, 372-376, 534, 535,
 557, 740, 741, 744, 978, 979,
 983, 984, 988-993, 997, 999,
 1070, 1071, 1074, 1075.

Rainerus—386, 387, 401, 437, 476-
 479, 502, 503, 516-519, 1108,
 1109, 1110.

— dapifer—436.

Rainulfus—542.

Ranerus—400.

Ranulfus—550, 552, 766.

Rannulfus—406, 407, 543, 551, 553,
 766-768, 839.

Redomensis, Hugo. See Hugo Re-domensis.

Regini. See various forms of Eadgyth and Matilda.

Renuallus—774.

Rewruinus—678.

Rex, Willelmus. See Willelmus
 Rex.

Ricardus—xvii., xxiv., xxx., xxxiv.,
 326, 327, 337, 344, 370-373,
 392, 393, 402, 403, 407-409,
 412, 413, 436, 436, 437, 499,
 546, 547, 921, 922, 1105, 1142, 1143.

— de Nouilla—436.

— filius Gisleberti comitis—
 1, 864, 865

— Turol di (and Turaldi)
 —xxxix., xl., xlv., xlvii.

— Torolf—1, 893-895.

— Torolui—336, 498.

— Turulfi—894.

Richardus—345.

Ricolfus—832.

Riculf—829, 833.

Riculfus—828.

Robertus—112, 113, 220, 221, 229,
 242, 243, 297, 410, 411, 418,
 419, 441-443, 445, 447, 449-
 451, 453, 455, 464, 465, 467-
 469, 521, 609, 674, 675, 684,
 685, 716, 717, 761-763, 877,
 948, 949, 1184.

— Bastard—1, 887-891.

— comes—332.

— Moritonias—330.

— de Albemarle—1, 866-885.

— de Pontcardon—9.

Roeric—xxiv.

Roffus—382.

Rogerius—xlvii., 119, 380, 381, 389,
 396-399, 439, 523, 541, 552,
 553, 913, 917-919, 921, 938,
 939, 953-955, 960, 961, 964-
 967, 975-977, 1117, 1119,
 1120, 1121, 1142.

— de Buslei—xxiv., xxxi.

— de Busli—1, 864, 865.

— vxor de—864,
 865.

— de Corcella—xxxii.

— de Moles—387, 388.

— de Molis—386, 438, 522.

— filius Pagani—xlvii., 540,
 920.

Rogerus—xxxiv., 118, 216, 217,
 727, 728, 912, 916, 920, 952,
 1118, 1128, 1129.

— aculeus—1112, 1116.

— Flandrensis—xxix., 974-
 976.

— Flaues—xlvii.

Rogo—456, 457, 459, 486, 487, 543, 555.

Rogro—542, 554.

Rogus—458, 534, 535.

Rolf—383, 781, 783.

— Turstani (Turstini) filius—
 1026, 1027.

Rolfus—780, 782.

Roscelinus—932, 940.

Rotbertus—xxxii., xxxvi., 228, 446,
 450, 452, 466, 608, 760.

— Bastardus—xlii., xlv.,
 xlv.

— de Albamarula—xiii., xiv.

— xvi., xix., xlv., xlv.

— de Albamarla—866, 882.

— de Bellomonte—444, 446,
 448, 520.

— de Herrefort—876.

— de Pontecardonis (and Caridonis)—8, 448, 452, 454.

— filius Geruini—xli.

— filius Iuonis—xvii., 298.

Rothomago, Canonici Sanctae Marie de—272.
 Roselinus—xxiv., 956.
 Rozelinus—933, 941.
 Ruald (Rualdus) Adobed)—968, 999.
 Rualdus—xv., xvii., xlv., xlv.
 Rufus, Almarus. See Almarus rufus.
 —Eluuarduo. See Eluuardus rufus.
 Sacerdotes de Niuuetaona—xvii.
 Sagar—941.
 Sagarus—940.
 Saiulfus—342.
 Salceid, Osbernus de. See Osbernus de Salceid, &c.
 Salomon—992, 993.
 Saluagius, Walterius—810, 812, 832.
 Salwinus—814.
 Samer—308.
 Samerus—718.
 Sancta Maria, canonici—470-475.
 —clerici—624, 625.
 —de Rotomago—xxxii., (canonici) 272.
 —de Alentona, xlii.
 —de Glastingeberia—xxxii.
 —de Motberia—xlv.
 —de Niuuentona—xlv.
 —Rotomagensis—272-5.
 Sancte Michaelis—273.
 —Michahelis de Sedemuda—272.
 —de Monte—276-279, 475.
 —Tuba—xxxii.
 —monachi—474.
 —de Monte—475.
 Sancti Petri de Plintona, canonici—24, 25.
 —Stephani de Cadom—280, 281.
 —Trinitatis de Cadom—282, 283.
 Sanctis, date in elemosina—268.
 Sanctus Petrus de Plintona—xlii.
 Saolfus—636.
 Saric—945.
 Saricius—944.
 Saulf—343, 637, 1039, 1189, 1191.
 Saulfus—xxxvi., 1188, 1190.
 Sauuardus—756, 757, 864, 865.
 Sauuin—997, 999, 1003, 1033, 1061.
 Sauuinus—154, 155, 212, 213, 222, 223, 312, 313, 315, 385, 401, 518, 519, 574, 575, 999, 1002, 1059, 1196.
 —presbiter reginae—284, 285.
 —topa—384.
 Sawinus—1058.
 Scireuualdus—1130.
 Scireuualdus—1131.

Sedemuda, Sancta Michahelis de—272.
 Seduin—651.
 Seduinus—973.
 Seduuardus—422.
 Seduunus—480, 481, 650, 972.
 Semar—361, 719, 953.
 Semarus—952.
 Semarrus—360.
 Semer—816, 817.
 Semerus—309.
 Seric—951.
 Sericus—656, 950.
 Serio—657.
 Serlo—xlii.
 Seruientes regis—1.
 Seuuardus—456, 457, 526, 523, 532, 548.
 Seuunus—400, 416, 417.
 Sine napa. See Bernardus de.
 Sireuualdus—1075.
 Siruualdus—1074.
 Sistric—247.
 —abbas—245.
 Sistricus abbas—244.
 Sitricus abbas—246.
 Sitricius abbas—240.
 Siuuard—529, 533, 549, 1047.
 Siuuardus—423, 527, 1033.
 Snode—861.
 Snot—621.
 Socca, Leuunus—1138.
 Soror Willelmus Capra. See Beatrix.
 —Ordolfus—334, 720.
 Soteman—853.
 Sotemanus—852.
 Stefanus—493, 237, 643, 671.
 Stephanus—492, 536, 642, 670.
 Suatricus abbas—384, 385.
 Suet—347.
 Sueta—346.
 Sumerlet—1123.
 Sumerletus—1122.
 Tabe, Aluuardus—350.
 Taini regis—1.
 Tetbaldus—xiv., xxx., xxxiv., xlvii.
 —filius Berneri—xix., xxviii., 1, 1000-1025.
 Tilio, Radulfus de. See Radulfus de Tilio.
 Tochesone, Ailuuardus. See Ailuuardus Tochesone.
 Toli—767.
 Tolus—766.
 Topa, Sauuinus. See Sauuinus topa.
 Topic—531.
 Topicus—530.
 Torbertus—270.
 Torchil—127.

- Torgicus—626, 628, 644, 646, 660, 662, 664.
 Torgis—627, 629, 645, 661.
 Torol—498.
 Torolf, Ricardus filius. See Ricardus filius Torolf.
 Torquillus—126.
 Torssus—766.
 Torstini, filius Rofi—1026, 1027.
 Torstinus—946.
 Torsus—767.
 Tortaualle, Godefridus de—xlvi.
 ——— Raginaldo de—xlv.
 Totenais, Judhel de—1, 564-673.
 Toui—629, 631, 638, 910, 911, 915, 1043.
 Touius—628, 630, 632.
 Tovi—914.
 ——— Aluuardus—914.
 Trailei, Gaufridus de—222.
 Turbertus—271.
 Turginus—618, 620.
 Turgis—601, 619, 621, 645, 663, 665.
 Turgissus—588.
 Turgisus—589, 600.
 Turstanus—945.
 Turstinus—xlv.
 ——— filius Rolf—1, 1026-1027.
 Uitalis—1082.
 ——— Radulphus—1058.
 Ualletorta, Godefridus. See Godefridus de Ualletorta.
 ——— Raginaldus de. See Raginaldus de Ualletorta.
 Uidua Emma—xxxvi.
 ——— Ima—xxxiii.
 Uillani Episcopi de Essecestra—xix.
 ——— Odonis fili Gamelini—xvi.
 Ulf—1039, 1184.
 Ultredus—694.
 Ultretus—1036.
 Ulnod—1035.
 Uluric—395.
 Uluricus—40.
 Unfridus—194.
 Uicecomes—804.
 Uicecomite. See Balduinus.
 Uitalis—167, 513, 1058.
 Vuillelmus—786.
 Ulmarus—1020.
 Valscinus de Dvaco. See Walscinus (Walterius) de Dvaco.
 Valletorta, Hugo de—xl.
 Vetred—439, 613, 675, 1087.
 Vctredus—695.
 Vlestan—863.
 Vlestanus—862.
 Vitalis—512, 1011, 1067, 1069, 1082.
 Vitalis de Colintona—512.
 Vithelet—1068.
 Vlf—165, 171, 181, 415, 423, 451, 537, 539, 555, 595, 615, 687, 925, 991, 1099.
 Vlfert—153.
 Vlfertus—152.
 Vlfrio—41.
 Vlfus—xx., 164, 170, 180, 450, 456, 536, 538, 554, 594, 614, 686, 720, 924, 990, 1098, 1184.
 Vliuet—831.
 Vimar—523, 545, 751, 773, 1021.
 Vlmarius—522, 772.
 Vlmer—159, 179, 248, 473, 857.
 Vlmerus—158, 178.
 Vlnod—198, 195, 395, 407, 639, 749, 893, 961, 1105.
 Vlnodus—717, 748, 752.
 Vlueia—216.
 Vlueron—813, 869.
 Vluerona—868.
 Vlueua—137, 139, 143, 205, 207, 217, 273, 784, 785, 867.
 Vlueuna—136, 137, 138, 139, 143.
 Vluist—847.
 Vluric—871, 445, 773, 777, 785.
 Vluricus—370, 444.
 Vluuard—449, 815.
 Vluuardus—315, 448, 744, 745, 870-875, 948.
 Vluuene—187, 1071.
 Vluueuia—142.
 Vluuinus—1142, 1148, 1180, 1181.
 Vluuritius—772.
 Vluuricus—772.
 Vlveva—472, 473.
 Vlvena—186.
 Vnfridus—194.
 Vstret—438, 612.
 Vttalis—1083.
 Vuillelmus Capra—xxiii.
 Vxor Hervei de Helion—xxx., 540, 541, 1090-1093.
 ——— Engelbaldi—210, 212.
 ——— Bauduino (Balduinus)—476, 477, 512, 513.
 ——— Bristritii—xxxviii., 1192.
 ——— de Rogerius de Busli—864, 865.
 W.—559-561, 657, 660, 704.
 Wadel—374, 389, 1011.
 Wadalo—882, 883.
 Wadellus—388, 1010.
 Wadels—912, 913.
 Wado—344, 345, 370-373, 375, 429, 433, 437.
 Wadolo—882.
 Waldinus—570, 632, 633, 658-961.
 Walo—428, 432, 436.

Walscinus de Duaco. See Walterius de Duaco.
 —xviii., xxxv., 772.
 Walterius—1, 406, 406, 507, 533, 805, 811, 813, 815, 839, 971, 994, 1062, 1072, 1073.
 —de Clauilla—xvi., xxii.—xxiv., xxviii., xxx., xxxi., xxxiii., xxxv., xl.
 —de Clavile (and Clauilla)—1, 802-835.
 —de Douuai—1. [801.
 —de Dvaco or Dowai—770-dapifer—804, 814.
 —de Osmundi Villa (Walterus)—970, 972, 974.
 —Saluagius or Siluestris—810, 812, 832.
 Walterus—xlvii., 84, 85, 234, 235, 406, 424-427, 506, 532, 840, 975, 995, 997.
 —Borgundiensis (Borgoin)—836, 838.
 —Flandrensis—xxix.
 —homo de Walterus de Clauilla—xxii.
 —pincerna—xlvii.
 Waluilla, Willelmus de. See Willelmus de Waluilla.
 Walvin—571.
 Warinus—xxiv., xxxii., 596, 597, 702, 703, 708, 709, 717-719.
 Welandus—200.
 Welland—201.
 Wichimus—938, 960.
 Wichin—683, 697, 701, 713, 721, 921, 939, 961, 965.
 Wichinus—682, 696, 700, 712, 720, 920, 964.
 Wigo presbiter—128.
 Wigod—129.
 Wihuenec—1037.
 Wihuenech—1033.
 Wilelmus—481.
 Willelmus—242, 243, 351, 421, 423, 481-485, 530, 51, 568-571, 584, 585, 617-619, 643, 644, 647-657, 672, 673, 865, 935, 941-945, 950, 951, 1037, 1039, 1041, 1043, 1056, 1057.

Willelmus alii servientes regis—1.
 —Capra—xvi., xix., xxiii., xxvii., xxxii., xxxiii., xxxvi., xlvii., 14, 240, 241, 864. (See Beatrix).
 —Cheure—15.
 —Chieure—1 (and with Capra), 676-723.
 —de Alre—xxvii.
 —de Falesia—xix., xxxix., xl.
 —de Faleise—1 (and with Falesia), 724-743.
 —frater Radulphus de Pomaria—xvi.
 —de Hou—766.
 —de Lestra—850.
 —de Moion—1, 675, 775.
 —de Moione—874, 774.
 —de Ou—6, 766.
 —de Ow—1, 7, 767.
 —de Poileio—xv., xix., xxvii., xlii., xlv.
 —de Poilgi—1.
 —de Poillei (and with Poilleio), 744-765, 1135, 1140.
 —de Waluilla—22, 156.
 —de Waluile—23, 157.
 —Hec—618.
 —hostiarius—xxiii., xxiv., xxvii., xxxix., 1134.
 —hostius—xlvii.
 —niger—480.
 —portarius—xxx.
 —Pictaunenses, 936.
 —Pitauensis, 934.
 —portitor—1134, 1135.
 —rex—xiii.—xlvii., 1-97, 272, 273, 708, 709, 1178, 1179.
 Willelmo filio Wimundi—422.
 Willems—616.
 Wimundi, Willelmo filio. See Willelmo filio Wimundi.
 Winemar, 849.
 Winemar, 735.
 Winemerus—734, 848.
 Wlnot, 192, 194.
 Wlwen—866.
 Wordron—813.
 Wordrou—819.

INDEX OF CLASSES AND THINGS.

- Abbates—xiv., xvii., xxi., xxii., xxvii., xxx., xxxiii., xxxvi., xxxviii., xxxix., xl., xlv., 44, 46, 47, 70, 226-270, 276, 280, 384, 385.
Abbatia—71.
Abbatissa—xxii., 282.
Aduocatium—776, 777.
Alneti—448, 449, 572, 573.
Ancilla—1136, 1137.
Angli—xix., xxxii., 238, 730, 731, 734-737, 914, 915.
Anglorum tegratorum—1172.
Anima regine—624.
Arbalaristarius—1098, 1122.
Archibalaristarii—xxvi., xxvii., 1110, 1112, 1114, 1116, 1118, 1128.
Archiepiscopi—244-247.
Asini—776.
Aut i bovem aut xxx. denarios—1084, 1085.
Aunuculus (Brisfertus)—284.
Balaristarius—1113.
Barones—xiii., xv., xvii., xviii., xx., xxiv., xxvi.-xxviii., xxx.-xxxiii., xxxv., xxxvi., xxxviii.-xlii., xlv., xlv., xlvii., 99, 236.
Berbices—1088.
Bestiarum, parcus—85, 86.
Bochelandis—130.
Burgenses—2-5, 74, 75, 98, 99, 124, 125, 128, 129, 248, 249, 378, 379, 438, 439, 564, 565, 800, 801, 820, 821.
Burgi—2-5, 74, 75, 102, 444, 564, 565.
Buri—240, 241.
Boves—162, 163, 168, 198, 200, 212, 320, 324, 328, 386, 428, 462, 572, 574, 582, 608, 626, 708, 709, 744, 745, 748, 749, 760, 940, 942, 974, 992, 1014, 1015, 1058, 1084, 1085, 1120, 1134, 1135.
Camararius—434.
Canonici (chanonici)—xxvi., 14, 24, 25, 102, 104, 106, 107, 120, 121, 272, 470-474, 1094-1095.
Capellanus—1, 1092-1095.
Caput abbatiae—260, 261.
Cartas—98, 99.
Castella—108, 109, 378, 379.
Celataem regi—680, 681.
Ciutate—2, 3, 99, 249, 270, 271.
Clerici—xv., 27, 285, 624, 625.
Coliberti—51, 76, 77.
Comites—xvii., xix., xx., xxx., xxxii., xxxiv., xxxix., xl., xlv., 1, 14-17, 30-32, 35, 36, 41, 50-52, 54, 56, 60, 62, 64, 66, 68, 69, 70, 72, 74, 108, 109, 126, 127, 204, 265, 276-279, 286-377, 720, 864, 865, 910, 911, 980, 981.
Comitissa—276, 277.
Communam pascuam—46, 48, 106, 108, 240, 418, 828, 838, 1078, 1130.
Communis pasturae—49, 107, 241, 419, 829, 839, 1079, 1131.
Consuetudinem—xv.-xvii., xix.-xxiv., xxvi.-xxviii., xxx., xxxv., xxxvi., xxxviii.-xlii., xlv., xlv., xlvii., 2, 3, 30, 32, 58, 98, 124, 125, 248, 249, 270, 271, 364, 365, 564, 565, 676, 677, 720, 800, 801, 894, 895, 966, 967, 999, 1024, 1025, 1046, 1047, 1084, 1085, 1089, 1092, 1093, 1110, 1111, 1134, 1135.
Coscetos (cocetos, coceti)—122, 123, 132, 133, 211, 213, 216, 217, 228, 234, 235, 570, 574.
Coscez—229, 571, 573.
Cotarios (cotarii)—310, 311, 594-599, 1100, 1101.
Curia—239.
Custos parci—86.
Dapiferii—218, 436, 804, 814.

Denariorum rodmenstium (rothomagensium)—272, 273.

Domini—2, 3, 4, 5, 56, 57, 98, 99, 102, 103, 124, 125, 248, 249, 270, 271, 290, 291, 378, 379, 445, 564, 565, 676, 677, 720, 794, 800, 801, 885, 894, 895, 902, 903, 966, 967, 999, 1024, 1025, 1046, 1047, 1089, 1110, 1111.

Domina—212.

Domui, modo seruit (dominio seruiens)—794, 795.

Dominica die—276, 378, 379.

Dono Regis Willelmi—378.

Ecclesia—xliii., xlv., 1, 15, 16, 18, 19, 20, 21, 44, 45, 70, 71, 98, 99, 106, 107, 270, 271, 290, 291.

— (holding manors)—xliii., xlv., 227-288.

Elemosina, in—15, 16, 26, 27, 268, 280, 284, 285, 794, 1174, 1175.

Episcopi—xvi.—xxi., xxiii., xxvii., xxviii., xxx., xxxiii., xxxv., xxxvi., xxxviii., xxxix., xlvii., 1, 2, 3, 14-16, 98-225, 838, 839.

Expositio—2-5, 564, 565.

Equi, indomitas—64, 76, 326, 548, 914, 922.

— siluestria—64, 76, 272, 382, 410, 690, 778, 794, 814, 816, 836.

Excambio—30, 34, 35, 108, 109, 113, 972, 973, 1112, 1122, 1136-1138, 1140, 1142, 1143.

Fabres—260, 261, 350, 709, 710.

Fegadri—xiv., xvii., xix.—xxiv., xxvi.—xxviii., xxx., xxxi., xxxv., xxxvi., xxxix.—xlii., xlv., xlv., xlvii.

Feminae—794, 795, 854, 855, 868, 869, 958, 959.

Ferruarii—38, 39.

Filia sua (Baldwinus) in matrimonio—422.

Filii—1, 16, 136, 138, 298, 336, 430, 498, 822, 864, 865, 893, 894, 920.

Firma—220, 221, 312, 862, 864.

— regis—8, 9, 22, 23, 31, 34, 50, 68, 69, 74-76, 78, 80, 82, 86.

— de Halsbretona—92.

Firmam huius noctis—28.

Franci—914, 915.

Francigenarii—98, 1062, 1063.

Francorum militum—234, 766, 768, 864, 1084.

Frater eius (Radulphus de Pomaria)—xvi.; (Godricus)—1052.

Fratres—xvi., 164, 165, 310, 311.

Homines—xxii., 208, 209, 831, 838, 839, 861, 915, 918.

— regis—865.

— Ordulfi—334, 335.

— Edmeratorii—306, 308, 310, 312.

— Comitum Moritonensis—31, 298.

— Episcopi Essecestrensis—xx.

— hundredi—454, 455.

Homo, Walteri de Clavilla—xxii.

Honores—298, 302, 304, 308, 310, 312, 316, 318, 320, 342, 344, 346, 348, 710, 796, 798.

— Anseri—796, 798.

— Edmaratorii—802, 304, 308, 310, 312, 316, 318, 320.

— Ordulfi—298, 342, 344, 346, 348.

Hortum—278.

Hostiarius—xxiii., xxiv., xxvii., xxxix., xlvii., 1184, 1185, 1140.

Hundremanni—xv., xvi., xxxviii., 364.

Hundreti—xl.—xlvii., 31, 32, 58, 59, 62, 63, 84, 85, 454, 455.

Inuista—56-59, 844, 1072, 1073.

— addita—1052, 1053, 1055.

Irlandinois homines—606.

Liber homo—831, 838, 861, 959.

Libera—818, 819.

— femina—854, 855, 869, 959.

Libras ad numerum—50, 51, 76-79, 85-87, 90, 91.

— ad pensum (pondus)—4, 5, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 18, 19, 20-29, 40-45, 50-71, 74-77.

— ad pondus et arsuram—10, 11, 14, 15, 21, 31, 47-49, 58, 59, 62, 63, 73.

— pondus et ad combustionem—20, 30, 46, 72.

Licentia—298.

Mansuras—444.

Marcum argentum—2, 3, 20, 21, 98, 99.

Mater—41, 50.

Matrimonio, in—422.

Mercatum (in dominica die)—276, 378, 379.

Mellis—786, 787.

Mellitarios—786, 787.
Milites—98, 228, 234, 235, 246,
598, 599, 708, 734, 735, 736,
737, 744, 745, 766, 768, 786,
864, 874, 875, 1120.

Molendinus (molinas)—10, 11, 14,
15, 19, 20, 36, 37, 44, 45, 48,
49, 64, 65, 71, 72, 73, 76, 77,
92, 93, 98, 99, 110, 111, 112,
113, 118, 119, 124, 125, 130,
131, 194, 195, 228, 229, 234,
235, 272, 273, 276, 277, 278,
279, 312, 313, 316, 317, 352,
353, 354, 355, 358, 359, 378,
379, 424, 438, 439, 449, 450,
456, 457, 476, 477, 484, 485,
487, 488, 489, 492, 493, 494,
495, 506, 507, 512, 513, 518,
519, 544, 545, 548, 549, 550,
551, 552, 614, 615, 692,
(novum), 693 (novum), 706,
707, 712, 713, 748, 749, 766,
767, 774, 775, 776, 777, 779,
780, 788, 789, 794, 795, 850,
851, 852, 853, 862, 863, 930,
931, 932 (dimidium), 938, 939,
958, 959, 960, 961, 962, 966,
967, 968, 969, 1015, 1016, 1024,
1025, 1036, 1037, 1052, 1053,
1056, 1057, 1072, 1073, 1082,
1083, 1116, 1117, 1124, 1125,
1138, 1139, 1140, 1141, 1178,
1179.

Monachi—6, 7, 474, 475, 962.

Morae—58, 59, 648, 649.

Nemo tenet—1086-1087.

Neptis episcopi—214, 215.

Nichilum—558.

Novum molinum—692, 693.

Nunquam geldavit—20, 21.

Opus abbatis—228.

—firmæ—364.

—militum—23, 228.

Ora—38, 39.

Orbus, quidam—xvii., xli.

Orti—170, 171, 272, 273.

Pascuam communam (pasturæ communis)—46, 48, 49, 106, 107,
108, 240, 241, 418, 419, 828,
829, 838, 839.

Pascuæ morarum (pasturæ morarum)—58, 59.

Parci custos—86.

Parcus bestiarum—85, 86.

Pariter (in paragio)—22, 40, 44, 64,
106, 112, 130, 134, 135, 146,
150, 164, 230, 240, 284, 308,

310, 330, 334, 340, 344, 346,
348, 376, 382, 404, 528, 531,
578, 579, 582, 583, 678, 716,
772-777, 804, 806, 826, 827,
918, 919, 952, 953, 958, 959,
964, 965, 974-979, 992, 993,
1000, 1001, 1020, 1021, 1040,
1043, 1052, 1053, 1060, 1062,
1078, 1079, 1084, 1090, 1092,
1108, 1109, 1110, 1112, 1113,
1128-1131.

Perticæ—580, 581, 810, 811, 908, 909.

Pincerni—xlvii., 304, 306, 308,
322, 324, 350.

Piscatores—738.

Piscatoriam—880.

Piscatura (piscaria, piscatio, piscattiam)—6, 7, 80, 81, 94, 95,
280, 281, 450, 451, 458, 460,
597, 598, 614, 615, 668, 669,
684, 685, 760, 761, 762, 763,
879, 889, 980, 981.

Piscis, pisciam—1008, 1009.

Placitorum consuetudinem—364, 365.

Presbiteri—xiv., xix., xx., xxxvi.,
6, 7, 128, 284, 285, 294, 430,
512, 518, 826, 827, 828, 926,
958, 1070, 1080, 1094, 1138,
1149.

Praepositi—xiv., xlvii., 6, 7, 364,
365.

Porcarii (porcarios)—8, 12, 13, 36-
39, 48, 49, 52, 53, 54, 56, 57,
68, 69, 82, 84-89, 92, 98, 99,
100, 101, 108, 109, 116-119,
126-128, 136, 144-147, 210,
211, 240, 241, 272, 273, 276-
283, 340, 341, 360, 361, 378,
388, 389, 402, 422, 423, 424,
426, 438, 439, 453, 460, 524,
525, 580, 582, 586, 678, 679,
688, 689, 692, 693, 736, 737,
738, 739, 744, 745, 780, 781,
786, 787, 788, 879, 880, 968,
1045, 1062, 1063, 1072, 1073,
1080, 1091, 1156, 1157.

Portitor—1134, 1135, (portarius)
xxx.

Quotarios—6.

Quosceti—210, 212.

Quolibertos—50.

Regem aduocatum, 776, 777.

Regina (Mathillis)—38, 76, 77, 88,
90, 94, 95, 280-284, 285, 624,
776, 777, 864, 865, 1174, 1175.
—(Editda)—2, 3, 34, 35, 36,
38, 74.

Rex (Willelmvs) — xiii. — xxxvi.,
xxxviii. — xlv., xlvii., 1, 2-97,
124, 125, 236, 283, 284, 272,
273, 285, 364, 365, 378, 454,
455, 460, 461, 675, 680, 681,
708, 709, 776, 777, 966, 967,
999, 1024, 1025, 1027, 1084,
1085, 1089, 1092, 1093, 1097,
1110, 1111, 1134, 1135, 1146,
1178, 1179.

Runcini — 44, 60, 61, 72, 76, 92,
94, 98, 100, 104, 108, 116, 118,
120, 126, 128, 130, 144, 148,
150, 192, 218, 222, 228, 264,
272, 276, 278, 336, 340, 364,
392, 394, 398, 432, 438, 442,
456, 464, 466, 476, 478, 486,
488, 494, 512, 538, 586, 594,
596, 598, 614, 616, 634, 682,
686, 688, 704, 706, 712, 720,
732, 740-750, 766, 770, 774-
780, 786, 788, 794, 802, 804,
806, 808, 814, 816, 818, 822,
824, 826, 828, 830, 840, 848,
850, 852, 856, 904, 908, 922,
926, 930, 938, 940, 958, 1052,
1058, 1066, 1072, 1074, 1080,
1128, 1130, 1134, 1136, 1138,
1140, 1144, 1168.

Sacerdotes — xvii., 26, 46, 284, 1148.
Salis (summas, saginas) — 362, 363,
1008, 1009.

Salinae (salinas, salinarias) — 30, 31,
34, 35, 94, 95, 101, 102, 116,
117, 264, 265, 272, 273, 280,
281, 312, 313, 338, 339, 340,
341, 362, 363, 542, 543, 634,
635, 668, 669, 684, 685, 762,
763, 990, 997, 1008, 1009, 1045.

Salinarii (salinarios) — 36, 37, 276,
277, 920, 921, 1008, 1009.

Salmons (salmones) — 597, 598, 614,
615, 738, 739.

Servientes regis — 1, 1134, 1146.

Sextarios mellis — 786, 787.

Soror (Caprae), xxxiii.; (Ordulfi) —
334, 720.

Summas (salis) — 1008, 1009;
(piscis) 1008, 1009.

Tagni (taini) — 1, 22, 23, 44, 45, 64,
65, 68, 69, 130, 131, 134, 135,
146, 147, 150, 151, 156, 157,
228, 229, 230, 231, 240, 241,
298, 308, 309, 323, 334, 335,
340, 341, 346, 347, 382, 383,
384, 385, 470, 471, 576-579,

598, 658, 678, 679, 728, 729,
738, 739, 774, 775, 776, 777,
796, 798, 804, 805, 817, 822,
823, 826, 827, 860, 862, 868,
869, 918, 919, 952, 953, 962,
963, 976, 978, 979, 992, 993,
1000, 1001, 1020, 1021, 1022,
1023, 1035, 1043, 1052-4, 1061,
1066, 1067, 1077-79, 1090-93,
1102, 1103, 1108, 1109, 1112,
1113, 1128, 1129, 1138, 1139,
1151-1194, 1196.

Tainorum regis — 1151, et seq.

Terra Algar — 376, 377.

— Brictric (Bristrio) — 1052-1055.

— Elmeratorii — 312, 316, 322.

— Francorum Militum — 1084.

— Ordulfi — 348.

— Regis — 3-97.

Terrae Occupatae — 974, 978, 980,
992, 1016, 1078, 1084, 1092, 1110.

Terras additas — 349.

Thesaurus — xlvii.

Tota uastata — 1014.

Uaccae — 102, 199, 264, 292, 474,
694, 745, 760, 994, 1116.

Uacua — 200.

Uadimonium — 248, 249, 800, 801.

Uadiauerunt fegadri — xvii.

Uastatae (vasta) — 2-5, 98, 99, 124,
125, 158-160, 378, 379, 508,
509, 606, 692, 724, 725, 748,
749, 820, 885, 944, 1014.

— ad pasturam — 1102.

— per ignem — 98, 99.

Uioecomites — xiii., xiv., xvii. — xix.,
xxiii., xxvi., xxviii., xxx.,
xxxii., xxxv., xxxvi., xli.,
xlvii., 1-3, 8, 9, 42-46, 50,
52, 54, 56, 122, 378-561, 604,
1178, 1179.

Uiceconsul — 544, 550.

Uictu chanonicorum (victu canoni-corum, canonicorum, cani-corium) — 102, 104, 106, 107, 120, 121.

Uiduac — xxxiii., xxxvi.

Uillani episcopi de Essecestra — xix.

— Odonis filii Gamelini — xvi.

Uillis — 868.

Uirgultum — 290, 291.

Uiri hundreti — 454, 455.

Villae — 107.

Vxores — xxx., xxxviii., 1, 210-212,
476, 477, 512, 513, 540, 541,
864, 865, 1090-1093, 1192.

Digitized by Google

Digitized by Google

Digitized by Google

Digitized by Google

MAR 10 1937

